CANADA TO MAKE TREATY WITH JAPAN

Canada's Offer Was Sent to the Colonial Office---Mr. Fisher's Statement---Mr. M. S. McCarthy's Amendment Defeated by 70 to 32---Result of Three Days' Debate on the Distribution of New Province of Alberta—United States Fishermen Said to Be Violating the Law.

Ottawa, June 23.—An assurance was given by Hon. Mr. Fisher in the House yesterday that the policy of the Government was to recognize Japan as a nation with which Canada might profitably enter into trade relations, and that the Government had taken steps through the Colonial Office to get the benefit of the special advantages which Great Britain enjoys in Japan under the special treaty made in 1894. In a concise statement Mr. Fisher explained the essential features of the commercial treaties which Japan has entered into with various manufacturing countries of the world, and the reasons which prevented Canada from having some years ago given adherence to the treaty with Britain.

Amendment Defeated.

The amendment offered by Mr. M. S. McCarthy (Calgary) to the clause fixing the number and location of the constituencies in Alberta was voted down after a protracted debate, spread over three days, by 70 to 32. Mr. R. L. Borden intimated that he would offer another amendment to-day.

Yesterday afternoon Hon. Mr. Brodeur introduced a bill to amend the act respecting the naturalization of aliens.

U. S. Fishermen Breaking the Law.

Mr. Maclean (Lunenburg, N. S.) brought to the attention of the Minister of Marine and Fisheries the grievance of the fishermen of his County, who complain that American fishermen are violating treaty rights and obtaining supplies at Canadian ports, enabling them to compete with native fishermen, to their injury and serious loss. He asked that American fishermen be given all the privileges to which they are entitled under the treaty of 1818, but no more.

Hon. Mr. Prefontaine thanked Mr. Maclean for bringing the matter up, and pointed out the difficulty which his department experience, with the limited cruiser force at its disposal and the vast extent of sea to be covered, to make the inspection perfect. In order to show the energy with which the work was carried on and the closeness of the watch on Americans, he mentioned that up to the 1st of June over 600 nets had been confiscated for poaching in Canadian waters. He promised to look into the matter, especially with regard to getting supplies and bait at Magdalene Islands.

THE VOTE WAS A TIE.

V. V. & E. Railway Bill Had a Close Call in Railway Committee.

Ottawa, June 23.—At the Railway Committee yesterday the discussion on the Vancouver and Eastern was resumed by Mr. Drinkwater of the C. P. R., who opposed the Bill. He said that it was a case of J. J. Hill and the Canadian Northern against the C. P. R., and the interests of the Canadian people. The plan was to divert the business of the southern part of British Columbia to the States.

Mr. MacPherson, Vancouver, said that the people of British Columbia wanted to have competition with the C. P. R. The people of British Columbia were in favor of the Victoria, Vancouver and Eastern Railway, so as to afford additional railway facilities and competition. For the last eight years the hope has been upon the building of this railway, and the Legislature on two different occasions offered a bonus of $1,500,000 for the building of this road.

Mr. Henderson of Halton moved an amendment that the powers conferred by clause 3 of this act shall not be exercised until the V. V. & E. Railway Co. has constructed its main line easterly from Vancouver in Canadian territory, to Princeton or some other point in Similkameen district, east of the Hope Mountain, as the Governor-General in council may determine.

Duncan Ross said that there was a fair and unfair way of killing a bill. This was the unfair way. What the C. P. R. wanted was delay, and this would give it to them. Last session they were holding up a weak Government for $5,000 subsidy a mile. It did not succeed last year and this year it expects to. The committee divided evenly on Henderson's amendment, and it was lost.

Further amendments were suggested, and it was again talked out. This is the fifth day it has been before the committee.

Death of Trading Stamps.

Ottawa, June 22.—(Globe Special.)—The report among the Liberal members now is that an amendment to the criminal code will be introduced, making trading stamps illegal as an anti-commercial conspiracy. If the legislation passes it will hurt the Wylder Furniture firm of Montreal, whose profits from the business brought by trading stamps are said to amount to $100,000 a year.

DENMARK'S KING SICK.

Father of Queen Alexandria in State of Great Weakness.

Kiel, Germany, June 23.—Emperor William received a telegram Wednesday night announcing that King Christian of Denmark is in a state of great weakness, which is giving his entourage much concern.

King Christian of Denmark was born April 8, 1818. He is the father of Queen Alexandria of Great Britain and Ireland, King George of Greece, the Dowager Empress Maria Feodorovna of Russia, and other distinguished personages.

Emperor is Very Feeble.

Vienna, June 23.—Amid accompaniments of medieval pomp and circumstance the aged Emperor of Austria, King of Hungary and Bohemia, etc., Francis Joseph, took part in the yearly corpus christi procession in Vienna yesterday. His Majesty was greeted enthusiastically, but it was the universal dictum that the Emperor had aged greatly since they last saw him in this ceremony, two years ago.

THE DOMINION RELIANCE.

Condemns Gothenburg System and is Opposed to Compensation to Those Who Have Lost Their Licenses.

Toronto, June 23.—The annual meeting of the Dominion Alliance Council was held yesterday at the Labor Temple, and attended by about one hundred delegates. In his presidential address J. R. Dougall of Montreal condemned the Gothenburg system of controlling the liquor traffic. Under this system, of which Lord Grey is an advocate, the traffic would be directed by private trusts. Regarding Government control, which now exists by proxy, some thorough method of controlling it should be found. He pleaded for less antagonism and more persuasive methods.

The Secretary reviewed the past year's work. Local option had been adopted in twenty-seven municipalities, while in Quebec it was in force in 448 parishes, as aginst 397 in which licenses were granted. "The remarkable increase" in the quantity of liquor consumed was regretted. It had increased to 5.9 galins per capita in 1904, formerly being 5.4 gallons.

The resolutions included those providing a memorial to be sent to the King through the Governor-General, asking that the opium trade with China be abolished, that the sale of liquor in all unorganized parts of Canada be prohibited, and that Legislation be applied for against the cigarette evil.

Temperance workers were called upon to unalterably oppose compensation to liquor license holders for losses sustained by loss of license.

Woman's suffrage was endorsed.

The following officers were elected: Honorary president, Hon. Senator Vidal, Sarnia; president, J. R. Dougall, Montreal; vice-presidents Ontario—G. F. Marter and R. J. Fleming; Quebec—Archbishop Bond and S. J. Carter; Nova Scotia—T. B. Flint and P. A. McGregor; New Brunswick—Rev. Dr. McLeod and J. R. Woodburn; Prince Edward Island—J. K. Ross and Hugh McMillan; Manitoba—W. R. Mulock and Rev. Dr. Stewart; Northwest Territories—Hon. F. Oliver, M.P., and F. J. Reynolds; British Columbia—R. J. Kennedy and Rev. A. E. Green; secretary, F. S. Spence; treasurer, Mr. Orr.

TIMBER SALE IN QUEBEC.

Province Gets Prices Considerably Above Those of Last Year.

Quebec, June 23.—The annual auction sale of timber tracts in connection with the Provincial Department of Lands, Mines and Fisheries took place and was a complete success. The sale was presided over by Minister of Crown Lands, Hon. Mr. Sturgeon.

The upset price of the limits put up were from 20 to 40 per cent. higher than last year, which caused the bidders to be careful and slow, but, notwithstanding the sales were favorable to the Government and 997 miles sold for $171,000 or an average of $196 per mile. One thousand four hundred and fifty-four miles of timber limits were sold at an average price of $165 per square mile. John Breakey, secured most of the limits on the Upper Ottawa and Centre Gaspe districts which comprised the major part of the sale.

The total amount realized was $396,646.53.

Quebec Gives Good Terms.

Quebec, June 23.—The Harbor Commissioners yesterday agreed to remove all harbor and other dues charged on vessels and on through freight brought to or shipped from Quebec by the new Quebec Transport Co. to give the exclusive use, free of charge, of the former Leyland berth and shed, upon conditions that the company maintains a regular service with Quebec as its terminal port on this side of the Atlantic during the season of navigation.

BRITISH ARMY SCANDAL.

Statutory Commission With Full Powers To Be Created.

London, June 23.—Under pressure from all sides Premier Balfour has made a further concession in regard to the investigation into the army stores scandal, and yesterday announced in the House of Commons that the Government would immediately introduce a bill creating a statutory commission to inquire into the scandal. This commission will be armed with powers to compel the attendance of witnesses and to enforce penalties for perjury, etc., which the previously proposed Royal commission would not have possessed.

Mr. Balfour also agreed to give June 26 for the debate on the vote of censure proposed by Sir Robert Theakle Reid (Liberal).

Gen. Lyttelton Resigns.

London, June 23.—It is said Lieut.-Gen. Sir Neville Gerald Lyttelton, chief of the general staff and first artillery member of the Army Council, has resigned as the result of the South African army stores scandal.

Gen. Lyttelton took over the command of the forces in South Africa at the close of the war and it is alleged that under his regime Lord Kitchener's system of checking contracts was allowed to drop.

RUSSIAN ARMY IS RETREATING

Rumors That Russian Army is Retreating in Manchuria---Linevitch Says Japs Pause---Immediate Front of the Japanese Army Cleared For Action---Opposing Armies Equal and No Reason Now For Delaying the Great Battle---Heads of Various Armies Are Bellicose.

St. Petersburg, June 23.—News from the battlefield is exceedingly meagre. A press telegram of Tuesday's date speaks of a "rearguard action," and there are rumors that the Russian army is retreating; but the latest despatches received from Lieut.-Gen. Linevitch bearing the same date declared briefly that the Japanese advanced has paused.

It is probable that the Russian advanced lines are crossing the railroad, and will continue their retirement more or less hurriedly in order to avoid being flanked and pocketed until the positions at Mukden are reached. The main forces seemingly are not yet in collision.

Col. Ledygensky, one of the correspondents of the Associated Press, died at Harbin of blood poisoning.

Japs Apparently Waiting.

Gunshu Pass, June 23.—(Delayed in transmission.)—The operations of the Japanese during the last five days, which at first were thought to be portentious, apparently ended after the last fight. The Japanese appear to be merely cleaning their immediate front. There is now no reason for any further delay in beginning the great battle, as the opposing armies are essentially equal. The Russian troops are under the impression that an advance is about to begin.

Correspondents are not allowed to refer to the sentiments of the army concerning the peace proposals. The heads of the various armies have adopted a bellicose attitude, especially since the opening of peace negotiations were reported here.

President National Defence.

St. Petersburg, June 23.—Emperor Nicholas has definitely appointed Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaivitch to be president of the Council of National Defence.

The Novoe Vremya yesterday announces definitely that the powers of the new popular assembly, which will be composed of 500 members, elected for five years, must pass both Houses and receive the Emperor's approval. Representatives of the press will be admitted to the assembly, but reports must be censored before publication.

22 KILLED AT LODZ.

Dragoons and Cossacks Fired Into Mobs of 50,000 Workmen.

Lodz Russian Poland, June 23.—Twenty-two persons were killed as the result of Wednesday's firing by Dragoons and Cossacks on a procession of 50,000 workmen which had been organized as a demonstration against the Government. Ten of about one hundred wounded are dying. Two women were crushed to death in the rush of the panic-stricken crowds, after the firing began.

Yesterday morning some workmen, in revenge, shot and killed a Cossack and two policemen.

ADJT. JENNINGS TO SAY FAREWELL

Successful District Officer of the Salvation Army to Leave.

His Health is Poor and Will Take a Year's Rest—Special Services on Sunday.

Adjt. and Mrs. Jennings will bid farewell in the Army Hall on Sunday next, the Adjutant's health has been very unsatisfactory for some time, and for this reason the headquarters has arranged for him to farewell and have a year's furlough, this they regretted to do, seeing that the work was going on so splendidly under his leadership. A special musical programme has been arranged by the band for the farewell meetings Sunday afternoon and evening. The following selections are part of the programme:—Cornet Solo, "My Lodgings on the cold ground," Band Instructor Packham; saxophone duet, "Saviour lead me," bandsmen Brown and Defoe; Trombone solo, "Rocked in the cradle of the deep," Bandmaster Greene; selections by the full band, "The unfailing promise of God," "Memories of childhood," and "Crown Him" selection. In addition to this the band will play some of the latest marches. All are invited to these meetings.

NOCTURNAL BLAZE IN NORTH END

Terrace at 874 Water Street Visited by Midnight Conflagration.

A fire occurred last night in the terrace, 874 Water street, occupied by J. B. Lavilolette, at about 1.30 o'clock.

The blaze, it is thought, originated in a shed at the rear, though nothing definite is known, as the members of the family occupying that portion of the house were not at home. The flames spread rapidly and threatened the destruction of the entire building. This was only averted by the prompt arrival of the fire brigade and its excellent work.

Damage to the amount of about $500 resulted. The portion of the house occupied by Mr. Laviolette was almost completely destroyed. The building is the property of the Auburn Woollen Co. The blaze occasioned considerable excitement in the north end, many residents being present to witness it.

COUNTY COUNCIL VISIT MR. ANDERSON

The Popular East Riding Member in Critical Condition.

At the conclusion yesterday of the Douro picnic which was attended en a body by the Warden and members of the County Council, the latter accompanied by several other gentlemen drove over to see Mr. Wm. Anderson, M.P.P., East Peterborough.

Owing to Mr. Anderson's critical condition, the attending physician was obliged to issue orders forbidding visitors. Hon. J. R. Stratton was the only member of the party to see Mr. Anderson, and reported him as being in a most critical condition, though with hopes of an early convalescence. His nurse stated that he is resting comfortably and if nothing unforseen arises the prospects of recovery are hopeful.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. THE ANNUAL MEETING OF LOCAL Y. M. C. A.

Reports Presented at Meeting Held Last Night---Officers Elected for the Year---Col. E. B. Edwards Presided ---Lack of Funds is Regretted---Association Doing a Good Work---Plans for the Future---24th Annual Meeting---A Deficit Reported---Better Facilities for Social Department.

There was a fair representation of the active membership of the Y.M.C.A. present at the 24th annual meeting held in the parlours of the building last evening.

Owing to the change in the date of holding the annual meeting from the fall to spring the year may be characterized as a broken one, as the reports do not cover a full calendar year.

Col. E. B. Edwards, who has so ably filled the office of President for the past year, occupied the chair at the meeting, which was opened with devotional exercises.

The members present manifested deep interest in the reports as they were given and life was added to the programme by the discussion of the reports as well as a resolution recommending to the Board of Directors the consideration of better facilities for the promotion of the social life of the Association.

A regretable feature of the meeting was the fact that the treasurer was obliged to report a deficit for the period covered by the report. It will remain for the good friends of the Association to see to it that so excellent a work is not in any way lo be hampered for the lack of funds to carry it on.

MR. G. H. WILLIAMSON, Secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Inasmuch as the building was a gift to the town and the citizens were not called upon for a dollar towards its erection and that the work done compares favourably with many of the larger cities—it is to be hoped that there may be a greater liberality on the part of the citizens, and that the officials may receive the encouragement that they deserve.

The President made a few appropriate remarks pointing out that the Directors were there to serve the membership and the work was large. Two gratifying features are that nearly all the addresses have been given by local pastors, and the attendance has been largely made up of young men not attending Sunday School. Thirty meetings were held, with an average attendance of 64. A Mission to men under the leadership of Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, rector, of St. Luke's Church, was conducted during November. Five meetings were held with an average attendance of 52. The Sunday meeting of the series was the largest of the season. We believe the young men who attended the mission were deeply impressed and benefitted by Mr. Langfeldt's earnest gospel addresses.

Three men's bible classes were conducted with an enrollment of 46. Sixty-two class session for the men and 130 for the boys at a total attendance of 3,194.

In addition to the regular meetings and bible classes the officers have had scores of conversations with men, the results of which it is impossible to tabulate, though several bright conversions have been witnessed.

The members contributed $132 last year in support of Mr. Farquhar, the provincial representative of the association in India.

An association volunteer league was organized among the membership and an effort will be made to raise a much larger sum for this important branch of the association. An interesting feature of the social work was the seven Saturday night "Pops" with a total attendance of 480. The opening reception, the New Years reception and the Business College reception were well attended.

Five educational classes were conducted with an enrollment of sixty-three. Ninety-two class sessions with a total attendance of 673. The organization of a Y.M.C.A. orchestra proved a helpful feature during the season besides developing musical talent.

The Y. M. C. A. Debating Club was one of the most helpful features of the season, 22 being enrolled; the average was 13; 8 sessions were held.

Although a special effort to increase the membership was made and over 80 names added through the membership contest, yet because of a large number of removals and transfers the total remains stationary, 765 being enrolled including 195 school boys and Intermediates.

The work of the ladies' auxiliary has been most commendable. They have caused the building to be renovated, the walls of the principal rooms tinted and two carpets provided for the parlours. This was undertaken and accomplished in addition to their part in furnishing the dormitories.

The larger policy of the Board for the physical department involving the employment of a graduate physical instructor and the extra expenditure of $500 in this department has not received the measure of co-operation of the membership or friends of the work that was necessary to its permanance.

The work done by Mr. Holmes, however, has been most thorough and satisfactory to all classes of the membership as well as the directors. The regret being that larger numbers of men did not avail themselves of his valuable instruction.

The fact that we have to report liabilities unprovided for at this time is also cause for regret.

Some of the causes for this are the increased expenses in the physical department, also because the period of this report covers the heaviest time of the year for expenses and the lightest for receipts. There has also been a falling off in some directions in contributions and few increases.

We trust that the work may receive larger support during the coming year and that the hands of the officers will be free to develop the regular lines of work of the association instead of be-just what the members made it. He felt that the annual meeting should be more largely attended by the members. He then reviewed some of the principal features of the work of the year, referring to the good work of the officers and to Mr. Holmes as physical director. His work had got had the co-operation of the membership that was expected or that it deserved.

The following are the reports, as presented, each of which was adopted on motion:—

General Secretary's Report.

Mr. G. H. Williamson presented report of the General Secretary, which follows: Mr. President and Members of the Association:—

It is just 24 years since the association was organized and 8 years ago this present week since the new building was entered.

The reports presented to-night represent only a partial year's work. Owing to the change in holding the annual meeting, from fall to spring, so that as far as the departments of work are concerned only eight months of the year are covered.

The religious work has been very encouraging. The attendance at the weekly men's meetings has never been so hampered by the lack of funds.

We are grateful to God for the measure of prosperity that has come to us during the year and trust that through the united efforts of members, directors and officers larger results may be seen in the work of building up the kingdom among the young men of Peterborough.

Boys' Department.

Mr. G. L. Galley presented the following report of the work of the Boys' Department:—

The Boys' Department had a most successful year's work, the results in all lines undertaken being up to former records. The present membership is 116 divided into Junior and Seniors and a group of first year juniors.

The gymnasium classes have been more largely attended than ever by the boys and the development of the boys leaders corps has been very gratifying. The annual camp rally held in February was a pleasant event and a time for suggesting plans for the 1905 camp, which will be held July 12 to 26.

A large number of the 300 books in the boys' library have been read and a new supply of good up-to-date boys' books is needed.

The social committee provided monthly events during the fall and winter which were well attended. On the Friday preceding Christmas a Good Cheer Social was held at which the boys brought in large quantities of clothing and other gifts, which were handed over to the Children's Aid Society.

For the first time in a number of years we have to record the death of one of the boys during the year. The late Walter Sager who died as the result of an accident which occurred at his home, was one of our brightest and most promising members.

Four boys' bible classes were conducted from September to June, 45 being on the roll; 130 lessons were taught with a total attendance of 2,640. Three classes were led by Messrs. Hutchinson, Galley, Middleton and Morrow.

24 Friday afternoon Gospel meetings were held with a total attendance of 634. The prayer circle held 12 sessions.

A deep interest is shown in the foreign work and nearly all the boys are contributing monthly to the support of Mr. Farquhar, our representative in India.

G. L. GALLEY,
Chairman.

Dormitories.

The report of the Dormitory Department was presented by Mr. R. E. Harding, and was as follows:—

As the result of a paper on "Boarding Houses and Strangers" presented at the Strangers' Fellowship Club in March 1904, a strong resolution was passed and presented to the Board recommending the establishment of Dormitories in the building.

The Directors at a subsequent meeting expressed hearty approval of the plan and presented their views to the Trustees Messrs. Hall and McGill, at the same time a committee was appointed to further study the question, composed of Messrs. Harding, Bennet and Knapman.

This committee first reported a plan to erect 30 rooms over the gymnasium annex, by raising the roof of the same. This plan was abandoned for that time owing to the cost, and in March of the present year the approval of the Trustees was given to the erection of 11 rooms on the 3rd floor, known as the educational class rooms.

The cost of these changes amounted to $610.30 which was very kindly provided for by the Trustees. The rooms were completed and opened on May 18th.

The work of furnishing was undertaken by the association.

The ladies' auxiliary providing $150.00 of the cost, the Strangers' Fellowship Club $150.00, the Board of Directors $75.00.

The total cost of furnishing was $450.00, leaving $275.00 yet to be raised.

A Janitor and Janitoress have been engaged to care for the whole building, including the dormitories.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

R. E. HARDING,
Chairman.

Stranger's Fellowship Club Report.

Mr. Harding presented the following report:—

The club held eight regular monthly meetings and three special ones. Topics have been discussed and business transacted relating to the care of the strangers constantly arriving in town. At the January meeting the members presented the President of the club, Mr. Harding, with a fountain pen, as a mark of appreciation.

190 strangers have been located by the members of the club and affairs of the association.

85 of them have been found boarding houses, and where the church relationship has been known the pastors of the respective denominations have been personally introduced to them.

A number of these strangers have connected themselves with the association, and eight monthly Sunday evening strangers' teas have been held with a total attendance of 178, the tea having been arranged by committee of ladies from the different churches. These teas have proven a helpful point of contact with these men.

The members of the Strangers' Fellowship Club manifested a deep interest in the erection of the Dormitories, the opportunity for such having been pointed out in our last annual report.

The club conducted a canvas among the young men under the name "Dormitory Furnishing Co'y", with the result that $150.00 was secured, towards the furnishings. A number of the members also assisted in getting the rooms ready.

On the opening night the club presented large portraits of Mr. Rich. Hall and Mr. Chas. McGill of the building as a mark of appreciation of their co-operation with the Dormitory movement.

Report of Nominating Committee.

The report of the Nominating Committee was presented as follows by Mr. A. E. Dixon:—

Your Nominating Committee begs leave to report as follows and recommend the following officers for the year 1905-06.

President, R. B. Edwards, K.C.; 1st Vice-President, J. C. Shook; 2nd Vice-President, R. J. Kidd; Treasurer, J. J. Howden; Directors, (terms to expire 1906), J. W. Bennet, William Madill, H. C. Stabler, J. S. Kingsmap, A. W. Cressman, H. W. Morphet.

A. E. DIXON,
Chairman Nominating Committee.

There are several changes in the officers; Mr. Howden was elected treasurer to succeed Mr. W. D. Campbell, and Mr. R. J. Kidd elected to the office of 2nd Vice-President. Two new directors were elected who will be a strong addition to the working force of the Association, Messrs. A. W. Cressman and H. W. Morphet.

The following resolution was unanimously passed, having been moved by Mr. R. J. P. Dormer and seconded by Mr. W. J. Coleman:—

"That the active members assembled at this annual meeting recommend that at the next meeting of the Board, the question of better facilities for the social life of the building be considered."

The meeting closed with the Association Hymn, "Blest Be the Tie that Binds."

NARROW ESCAPE FROM FLAMES

Apsley House and Residence Destroyed by Fire.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Apsley, June 21st.—Mr. James Clifford and Miss Maggie were the guests of Mr. Isaac Leans for a few days last week.

Mrs. Shairp was visiting friends in Cardiff last week.

Messrs. W. Hales, H. Hales and Hendley have gone to the summer camps where they have secured employment.

Miss Edna McIlmoyle has returned home after spending a week with her sister at Selwyn.

We are pleased to hear that Mrs. McFadden, sr., is convalescent.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Eastland on the birth of a son, June 11th.

Miss Jennie Kilbourn was the guest of Mrs. Zach. Tucker on Sunday.

Mr. W. Staples and Miss A. McGrath were guests at Mr. Esau Tucker's on Sunday.

On Thursday night last, the barn and house belonging to Mr. Walter Windsor, were destroyed by fire. Mr. Windsor, wife and child, awoke and found the building in flames and had barely time to escape with their lives. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Mr. George Bullied had his barn raised last Thursday. In the evening the young folks spent a very enjoyable time in dancing, etc.

A HEALTHY OLD AGE

OFTEN THE BEST PART OF LIFE

Help for Women Passing Through Change of Life

Providence has allotted us each at least seventy years in which to fulfill our mission in life, and if it is generally our own fault if we die prematurely.

Mrs. M. J. Dabbruzz

Nervous exhaustion invites disease. When everything becomes a burden and you cannot walk a few blocks without excessive fatigue, and you break out into perspiration easily, and your face flushes, and you grow excited and shaky at the least provocation, and you cannot bear to be crossed in anything, you are in danger; your nerves have given out; you need building up at once! To build up woman's nervous system and during the period of change of life we know of no better medicine than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is an illustration. Mrs. Mary J. Dabbruzz, of 150 Main St., Winnipeg, Manitoba, writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been a blessing to me through that delicate period known as the change of life. For six years I is disturbed my entire system. I had hot flushes, was extremely nervous, became pale and debilitated, very irregular in the monthly flow, and the blood all seemed to be in my head. I had frequent palpitation and throbbing of the heart; in fact, my whole system seemed to be in disorder.

"I received no relief from the suffering incident to this period until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; but I date my relief from the time I took the first bottle. I gradually improved, nature took her course painlessly, and in due time I was a well woman."

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick and ailing women to write her for advice. Her great experience is at their service, free of cost.

The Largest Jack Manufacturer in the World Writes about

Zutoo

Regarding your Zutoo Tablets I beg to say: I have been a sufferer from headache since childhood and have used all, or nearly all, of the so-called "cures" on the market, till warned by my physician to discontinue their use on account of their bad effects on the heart. Some months since my attention was called to your Zutoo Tablets and I have been using them ever since with the most gratifying results. I find they cure a "sick" or "nervous" headache in a few minutes and leave no bad effect. My family use them whenever needed with equally good results. I have frequently given them to friends who were suffering from headache and they never fail to give quick relief. I find them a good remedy for "sour" stomach as well as headache. I always carry them in my grip on the road and would not be without them at any cost. A. O. NORTON,

DOURO PIC-NIC A GRATIFYING SUCCESS

Annual Gathering Yesterday in King Edward Grove—One of the Most Successful in Its History.

Beautiful Weather and Large Attendance Contributed to a Delightful Day's Enjoyment in Douro.

Congratulatory Addresses by Visiters—Sports and the Winners—The Ladies and Their Part in Its Success.

Beautiful June weather favoured Rev. Father Keilty yesterday for his annual picnic, in connection with St. Joseph's church, Douro, and as a result the gathering was a success in every sense of the word. The attendance was large, and the financial results of the day's proceedings are, it is understood, very satisfactory.

The picnics held under the auspices of the popular parish priest of St. Joseph's, have achieved a reputation, which, in itself, is sufficient to influence a good attendance, and the result of past years' efforts, has been fully duplicated, if not surpassed, in that of 1905.

The beautiful King Edward grove, where the annual Douro picnics are held, never looked better than it did yesterday, when it was visited by nearly one thousand persons, all bent upon having a good time, and the assertion that all reached the height of their ambition in this respect, would be amply warranted.

REV. FATHER KEILTY,
Parish Priest of St. Joseph's, Douro.

Early Preparations.

From early morning the good people of St. Joseph's had been on the grounds preparing for the throngs of visitors, which past experience had proven would be on hand shortly after noon, and in this expectation they were not disappointed, for, from all parts of the county, the crowds began to gather, until the grove was a busy scene, and the roadside for many rods on both sides of the entrance, was lined with the horses and buggies of the visitors.

Peterborough, as usual, contributed its share of the attendance, while from the townships contiguous to Douro, many hundreds of the friends of Rev. Father Keilty, and the good people of his parish, wended their way to the picnic, where a scene of gaiety presented itself. Upon a platform especially constructed for the purpose, the young people enjoyed dancing, to music supplied by Mr. M. D. Sullivan, and his able assistants, while those who were not engaged in this exercise were enjoying themselves in other equally pleasing ways. Two refreshment booths were kept busy supplying the wants of the visitors along this line, while to the athletically inclined, a programme of sports offered attractions.

Prize Winners.

The sporting events were under the charge of Messrs. F. Moher, F. Leahy, and J. Walsh, and the prize-winners were:

Putting heavy shot — M. Coughlin, J. Lonergan.

Running high jump — J. Lonergan, M. Coughlin.

Standing long jump — M. Coughlin, J. Lonergan.

Hop, step and jump — G. McGarritty, Austin Allin.

100 yards race for men — J. Lonergan, M. Coughlin.

100 yards race fro boys — G. McGarritty, G. Howley.

Fat man's race — A. Helps, J. McMurrey.

Three legged race — Austin Allin, and G. McGarritty; F. Leahy and S. Grysdale.

A tug of war contest between the married and single men resulted in a win for the former after a hard pull.

An interesting feature of the programme was a contest for dancers. Mr. G. Coughlin won the prize for the best clog dancing, Mr. J. McCliggott took first for Irish reel, and Mrs. O'Connell and Mr. McCliggott were also given prizes for dancing the Irish reel together, much to the enjoyment of the spectators, who thoroughly appreciated it.

Objects of the Picnic.

The financial object of the picnic was to raise money to provide for the payment of the balance on the stained glass windows which have recently been placed in St. Joseph's church, and which cost $780. At the picnic last year $600 was raised, and an effort was made this year to pay off the remaining $820, as well as to pay for the improvements which Rev. Father Keilty, who is nothing if not progressive, has installed in the parsonage of St. Joseph's. Recently a system of water works was placed in the house, at a cost of about $275, and the proceeds of the picnic yesterday, above that required for the balance on the windows, will be devoted to this purpose.

Satisfactory Receipts.

The gross receipts of the picnic yesterday, though not quite as large as those of some previous years, amounted to about $500, which will prove a material assistance to the finances of the parish.

The committee in charge of the picnic, directed by Rev. Father Keilty and to whose energetic efforts, much of the success of the event is due, is composed of Messrs. D. Moloney, chairman, W. O'Brien, secretary, Reeve F. Moher, of Douro, Wm. McManus and W. Condon. All of these gentlemen were indefatigable in their efforts, and deserve great credit for the highly satisfactory result of the day's programme.

Part of the Ladies.

A report of the Douro picnic without reference to the very necessary part played by the ladies, would be incomplete. The ladies of Douro have long been famous for the quantity and quality of good things to eat, which they provided on occasion of the annual picnic and that of yesterday was no exception in this respect.

Those who were admitted inside the confines of the spacious dining room had little difficulty in satisfying the cravings of the inner man, and indeed the ladies would not permit the visitors to retire until they were fully satisfied that they had done justice to the good things provided.

The Addresses.

After tea a number of addresses were delivered from a platform erected for this purpose, and by all the speakers, Rev. Father Keilty was warmly congratulated upon the success of the picnic. Upon the platform with the chairman, Rev. Father Keilty, were Rev. Father McColl, Hon. J. R. Stratton, D. Hughes-Charles, J. J. Crowe, W. Rudkins, ex-warden Peck, Warden Buck and the members of the county council, Messrs. Andrews, Carey, Johnston, Monogue, Shaw, Garbutt, Stenson, Webster and Moloney, and Mr. E. M. Elliott, county clerk.

Mr. D. Hughes-Charles was the first speaker, and gave a humorous address, congratulating Father Keilty and the people of Douro on the success of their picnic, and expressing his pleasure at being present. He complimented the ladies on the excellence of the feast provided by them.

The Warden.

Warden Buck followed. He said that he had frequently heard of the Douro picnic, its fame having travelled abroad, but this was the first time it had been his pleasure to attend. He wished Father Keilty success in his good work in Douro.

Short congratulatory speeches were given by County Councillor Andrews, Mr. J. J. Crowe and Mr. W. Rudkins.

Compliments for the Men.

Rev. Father McColl complimented Father Keilty upon the energy he had displayed in his work in Douro, and expressed his pleasure at being present at this picnic, which he was glad to see was such a success. He referred to the many compliments which had been paid to the women by the speakers, and said he wanted to say a good word for the men, and recalled an occasion at his church, when a meeting for women was held, and when the collection was taken there was a very small responses, showing that the women on this occasion at least did not appreciate their financial responsibility to the church. The speaker joined in wishing success to Father Keilty.

Mr. Ed. M. Elliott, who was introduced as "King Edward," by the chairman, gave a short address, in which he referred to the importance of the farming interests of the province, and congratulated the people of Douro on the success of their annual picnic. Mr. E. A. Peck, ex-warden, followed in a congratulatory address.

Hon. Mr. Stratton, who was the last speaker, said he was glad to be present. The Douro picnic was famous for the enjoyable time which all who attended experienced. Rev. Father Keilty deserved the highest praise for the good work which he was doing in his parish. The previous speakers had referred to the beauties of Ireland and Scotland, and, while he had the highest respect for all the nationalities, and while he was glad to hear them speak of the land of their birth, he was a Canadian, which was a prouder boast. Canada was, he was sure, a land which gave greater opportunities for progressiveness and utility than did the land of their forefathers.

He congratulated the ladies upon the excellence of their table supplies. The ladies of Douro always provided well, and if it were not for the women the work of the churches would not be as prosperous as it is. He jocularly referred to the collection which Rev. Father McColl spoke of, and said that he hoped the lesson taught would make the men more generous with the women. Money as a rule in the hands of the wife, was as economically expended as it would be by the husband; and he had no use for the man who was always asking his wife what she did with the pin money he gave her.

After referring to the province of Ontario, and the progressive spirit displayed, he said the people should be congratulated on the condition of the country, when people of all denominations could join in the functions of a picnic which had been gotten up to help carry on the work of the church and although they did not all worship at the same church they all hoped to reach the same church, and the religious doctrines of all denominations should be respected. He concluded his address by congratulating Rev. Father Keilty upon the success of his picnic and wished him a continuance of the same in the future.

Rev. Father Keilty closed the meeting with a short address, and the public functions of the picnic were at an end. The remainder of the sports were run off and the evening spent in the enjoyment of tripping the light fantastic by the young people, until darkness approached, when the day's programme was brought to a close.

LAWN SOCIAL AT LAKEHURST

Many Items of Interest in the Northern Village.

Special to the Examiner.

Lakehurst, June 21. — Rev. Mr. Foster of Warsaw conducted the services in the Methodist church, last Sunday evening.

The Presbyterian church services were held in the "auld Kirk" last Sunday. The attendance was very good. The famous "Glory Song" was sung by the choir, Miss Jennie Fawcett taking one verse as a solo.

Miss Surplus of Toronto, was the guest of Mrs. W. Elliott last week.

The lawn social which is being held by the Methodist congregation, will be held at "Hillcrest." Besides local talent, the brass band of Selwyn will furnish the music for the evening and a first class time is promised.

On Tuesday last the monster picnic at Ennismore took place. The football boys went over and played a game with Bridgenorth. The home team was beaten, but not badly. With a little more practice the boys should put up a good game, as there is plenty of material here.

G. M. Cundal, our teacher, made the Harvey people quite pleased that it could produce such an athlete.

ELMER YOUNG ARRESTED.

Nova Scotia Murder Mystery Has Assumed Another Phase.

Halifax, N. S., June 22.—Upon the application of Crown Prosecutor Dennison yesterday a warrant was granted for the arrest and detention of Elmer Young, who arrived from Boston Wednesday, accompanied by Hattie Hatfield, as a material witness for the prosecution in the Young murder case. Since his arrival in Nova Scotia Young has been continually under surveillance.

Marie Ward arrived from Boston via St. John yesterday, and is in communication with the prosecuting attorney. Her evidence is expected to be of great importance, and it now looks as if the perplexing question of motive would be cleared up. Wednesday Young and the Hatfield woman took the child, Elmer Young, from Mrs. Annie Comeau, who has kept it since the discovery of the crime, and after purchasing a few dollars' worth of groceries drove out to the home of Joseph Mack, at Dennesteville, a few miles distant from Plympton.

Investigation by the police of Nova Scotia and Boston reveals strange facts in connection with Elmer Young. No less than three women have believed themselves his wife, one of whom is Mary Hope Young, the woman arrested in connection with the murder.

COTTAGERS' ACTION STRONGLY CONDEMNED

Citizens at Public Meeting Express Themselves as Supporting Superintendent of Trent Canal in Maintaining Water at High Level---Manufacturers, Vessel Owners and Power Users Strongly in Favour of Keeping Water at Present Level---Deputation Went to Ottawa to Interview Minister of Railways and Canals---An Influential Meeting.

The special meeting called by the Board of Trade to discuss the complaints of the Stony Lake Cottagers Association, in regard to the prevailing high water, and the protest that had been sent to the Department of Railways and Canals, and held last night in the council chamber was well attended, and the matter thoroughly discussed. The general feeling of the meeting seemed to be that the water should not be lowered, and that it would not be advisable to sacrifice the interests of the manufacturers, lumber men, steamboat men, and in fact the interests of the city of Peterborough, for the sake of a few cottage owners at Stony Lake. Many of the speakers, however, expressed the opinion that the latter should be recompensed for any damage that might be done their property by keeping the water at or about the present level.

As a result of the meeting, a deputation left for Ottawa last night to lay the matter before Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals. There was urgent need of haste, as Mr. McClellan, the superintendent of the canal, had received instructions from the department to lower the water at once.

President D. Hughes Charles presided at the meeting, which was held in the council chamber. Those present were Messrs. J. H. Burnham, E. G. Patterson, J. H. Larmouth, R. Fair, John Nugent, P. Campbell, R. M. Dennistoun, W. H. Moore, J. H. McClellan, A. H. Stratton, W. H. Bradburn, W. H. Moldrum, J. C. Shook, R. Neill, A. P. McDonald, W. H. Hill, Wilson Henderson, James Drain, Frank Fairen, W. S. Davidson, W. G. Ferguson, Mayor Best, Adam Hall, W. S. Dodd and others.

President Hughes Charles, after calling the meeting together, said it was not necessary to explain why the meeting had been called: the object was known to all present. He, however, wanted to inform those attending that he had wired Mr. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals, to find out if he would receive a deputation to-day, and the answer had been in the affirmative.

The president then called upon Mr. J. H. McClellan, the superintendent of the Trent Valley Canal, to give an explanation of the stand he had taken in the matter.

Mr. McClellan's Explanation.

Mr. McClellan said that it was a somewhat unusual meeting to be held in Peterborough. The difficulty seemed to be that there was too much water, while generally it was that there was too little. He had felt that it was his duty to conserve the water as much as possible. Last winter had been very comfortable for him, as there had been no complaints whatever. He had thought it necessary to try and have an even flow during the summer months. Accordingly he had taken many trips and discussed matters with the old lockmasters, and came to the conclusion that the dams had been put where they were by the Government for a purpose. He had worked it out so that the minute the water stopped rising the stop logs would be put in. The work had been well done, and from Young's Point to Balsam Lake the water was higher than it had been for a number of years.

Property Injured.

On Tuesday he had received a letter from the Peterborough Canoe Company, stating that their wharves and docks had been flooded, and other injury done to their property, and informing him that they intended to sue the Government for damages. Then Mr. E. H. D. Hall, had written him, complaining about the damage done to his island at Stony Lake by the high water. Following that was the telegram sent to the department, by Mr. J. S. Knapman of the Stony Lake Cottagers Association, informing the Government of the alleged damage that was being done to Stony Lake property.

Order to Lower Water.

This had been returned to him (Mr. McClellan) with orders to remedy the evils at once — in other words, to lower the water. He had considered it nothing but right that he should inform the steamboat men, power users and others interested, that his present orders were to lower the waters. He would like to receive different instructions from the Government. The water at Young's Point was 9 feet 3 inches in depth: while at this time last year the water was 8 feet 2 inches, a difference of only one foot one inch, while the telegram sent by the Cottagers Association had represented it as being over three feet above its normal level. He would like to be able to say next fall that the water at Young's Point was 9 feet 3 inches and that it had been kept at 9 feet 3 inches all summer.

Twenty Inches Higher.

Mr. Wilson Henderson, superintendent of the Water Works, was next called upon. The water he said, was about 20 inches higher than usual at the present time. This was causing them a little trouble, water-soaked timber blocking their intake. He preferred the high water, but could do with a foot or two less.

Mr James Drain, superintendent of the Calcutt Line of Steamers, said that they were satisfied with the present condition of the water. They had experienced no such trouble this spring as they had in other years from low water. They could do with 6 or 8 inches less.

Mr. Patterson's Views.

Mr. E. G. Patterson, said, as representing a large user of power, that he strongly protested against the action of the Stony Lake Cottagers Association in sending a protest to the Government, asking that the water to be lowered three feet. For many years there had been a Trent Valley Water Conservation Association, whose efforts had been to store up the water. He thought that if the water were lowered it would be a very serious thing for Peterborough. The flotation of logs would be affected, and the interests of power owners jeopardized. The speaker referred to the Cereal Company fire, where the water supply had been so low that a strong stream could not be maintained through the hose. He thought the Board of Trade should protest against attempt at lowering the water.

From Lumberman's View Point.

Mr. J. C. Shook, of the Dickson Lumber Company, said that he represented an industry that was generally in conflict with the cottagers, power-users and navigation men. He thought they never had a better service than at the present time. They were able to pass through Stony Lake and down to Clear Lake with drives in from one half a day to a day, while with the water lower they used to have to tie up before somebody's cottage for a week. The improvement was largely due to the high water.

There certainly was a grievance on the part of some of the cottagers, and the question should be treated with forbearance. He thought that the water should be kept at its present level and those of the cottagers whose property would be damaged could be recompensed.

Mr. A. McDonald also thought that the water should be kept as it is to-day and was of the opinion that the Government should settle with the cottagers whose stands would be injured.

Mr. Dennistoun's Opinion.

Mr. R. M. Dennistoun said that a deputation had been in Toronto a little while ago, asking to have the control of the Otonabee dams transferred to the Dominion Government but it seemed that if the level of the water was to be regulated at Ottawa, they were as badly off as ever. He thought the department should be asked to give Mr. McClellan a chance to show what he could do. It was far better to trust the expert on the spot than the politicians at Ottawa.

Mr. R. Neill thoroughly endorsed Mr. Shook's sentiments. He was the owner of a cottage at Stony Lake and thought the cottagers had a grievance. He was of the opinion that they could put up with the inconvenience. The Government should remunerate them for the damages sustained. He thought that the water should be kept at the required height and the Government should settle with the cottagers.

Keep the Water up.

Mr. W. H. Moldrum said that as the owner of a cottage at Stony Lake he had a serious grievance—half his island was merely a swamp. He felt however, that while his stand at Stony Lake would not keep his business interests at Peterborough, the latter would keep his cottage at Stony Lake. He thought the water should be kept up. He was willing to see his whole island wiped out if it would benefit his property at Peterborough.

Mr. J. H. Larmouth said the ground had been very thoroughly covered by the previous speakers. He said that ever since they had been in Peterborough they had been fighting to get what they now have. They have had no trouble at the mill in the way of low water and everything had been satisfactory.

Cottager's View.

Mr. John Nugent said that he did not wish to pose as an advocate for lowering the water in Stony Lake by three feet, but that, as far as he was concerned, he was not a sufferer as his cottage was above the water level. He spoke of the damage that was being done and said that many trees would be destroyed. Mr. Nugent referred to Mr. Piper's fine property which is almost worthless. He was of the opinion that the lowering of the water a foot would make a vast improvement.

Mr. W. H. Moore, one of the Water Commissioners, spoke of the danger to the town if the water supply was kept low. He thought the minority should give way to what was of benefit to all. He was of the opinion that there was not half a dozen cottages on the Lake owned by Peterborough people that would be damaged.

Mr. J. H. Burnham said that for years efforts had been made to conserve the Trent Valley waters, and it was astonishing to think that any little association of cottagers stuck on one of the smallest lakes of the chain should dare to protest against such a step.

Capt. P. P. Young, of Young's Point, proprietor of the steamers Majestic and Stony Lake, was the last speaker. He said that the level of the water in the lakes was falling, and that within a week or ten days it would be down a foot. In his opinion the high water was due to the heavy rains and the fact that the lumbermen were coming down Jack's, Eels and other creeks into Stony Lake all at about the same time.

Resolution Passed.

The following resolution, moved by Mr. J. H. Larmouth and seconded by Mr. E. G. Patterson, was then unanimously carried:—

"That the lumbermen, steamboat owners and power-owners, desire to express their entire satisfaction with the manner in which the present superintendent, Mr. McClennan, has arranged the waters of the Trent Valley Canal and that his management of the waters in their interest has been all that could be desired."

The following resolution expressing the views of the Peterborough Water Commissioners, was moved by Mr. W. H. Moore and seconded by Mr. W. H. Hill, and carried unanimously:—

Moved by Mr. W. H Moore, seconded by Mr. W. H. Hill, Whereas, it has come to the notice of the Water Commissioners of the Town of Peterborough that representations have been made to the Dominion Government, which, if acceded to, will have the effect of lowering the storage of water in Stony Lake, that the Superintendent in charge of the Trent waters has provided against the usual low water during the next three or four months.

And, whereas, the Water Commissioners are possessed of a dam on the Otonabee River from their power house at which is pumped the water supply for domestic use and fire protection purposes of the town.

And, whereas in past years the danger point of low water at the dam has almost been reached, at the low water season, and a larger storage for protection against such danger is eminently required.

Resolved, that the necessity for preserving the present storage of water in Stony Lake, be at this meeting most earnestly insisted on, and that the danger to the town of lowering the water in that lake, to any considerable degree below what it is now, be expressed to the Minister of Railways and Canals through our representative, Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., to whom a copy of this resolution is to be sent by the secretary.

The Deputation.

On motion of Mr. Patterson, the following gentlemen were appointed a deputation to wait upon Hon. H. R. Emmerson, Minister of Railways and Canals and lay before him the facts of the case:—Messrs. J. H. Larmouth, J. C. Shook, R. Neill, J. R. Stratton and Capt. P. P. Young, of Young's Point.

The meeting then adjourned.

MR. P. K. HOLMES HAS RESIGNED

Popular Physical Director of Y. M. C. A. to Leave Town.

Work Has Been a Success Under His Charge—Will Probably Go to Springfield, Mass.

Among the members of the Y.M.C.A. here universal regret will be felt at the announcement that Mr. P. K. Holmes, who since September 1st, 1904, has filled with much success and acceptance the position of physical director of the local Association, has tendered his resignation to take effect on August 1st. This resignation was tendered to the Association at the annual meeting last night, and will be considered by the the Board in the near future, when it will doubtless be accepted, as Mr. Holmes expresses himself as being fully decided to leave Peterborough at the expiration of his year.

As to his future plans he has not fully decided, but states that he has received a number of offers from other Associations, all of them larger than the Peterborough Association, but he has accepted none of them yet. This year, a fourth year course has been added to the course of instruction at the Y. M. C. A. school, Springfield, and Mr. Holmes may spend another year, and take the degree of B.P.E which graduation of the fourth year gives. Last year when he left the school Mr. Holmes had taken all the work possible, but this degree year's work has been added since.

Among the members of the Association as well as out of it, Mr. Holmes has been very popular and not only by the members, but also by his numerous friends in town his departure will be deeply regretted.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY REPORTED ON BROCK ST.

Mrs. John Londry Tells Story of a Find Made as a Result of Visits of a Mysterious Figure—Pointed to Floor Near to the Fire Place and Secret Reveals Large Roll of Bills—Afterwards Burnt or Taken Away—A Most Remarkable Incident—Visits of This Figure or Person Have Been Frequent for Past Five Years—Almost in Possession of a Fortune is What Mrs. Londry Believes She Was—Still Further Revelations Looked For.

A most remarkable story of a discovery in Peterborough has been learned by the Examiner, and published to-day for the first time. There is a deep mystery in connection with the affair which might well baffle a Sherlock Holmes, in its solution.

Mrs. John Londry, wife of the switchman of the G. T. R., at the Brock street crossing, has passed through an experience which she would not care to repeat, and which few persons in town would wish to pass through. It appears that for five years, or ever since they have lived at their present home, No. 284 Brock street, Mrs. Londry has at frequent intervals seen the figure of a woman, dressed in white nightrobes, in the house, and on Wednesday, June 14th, the last of these visitations occurred, and it was a result of this visit that the discovery referred to was made. On the day mentioned Mrs. Londrey was in the act of raising the window in the comfortable sitting room at her home, when the figure appeared again, and this time Mrs. Londry felt a hand laid on her shoulder, and she was led by this hand and the person to whom it belonged, to a part of the room near a fire place, when a gesture was made pointing to the floor. As this happened, Mrs. Londry fell in a faint on the floor, and, although this happened at 7.30, just as the early G. T. R. train was passing Brock street crossing, she remembers nothing more until one of the neighbours came in after 9.30, when she recovered on hearing the door bell ring. The lady who came in noticed at once that something was wrong with Mrs. Londry and inquired of her if she were ill. She was then told the story of the strange visitation.

The next day the significance of the visit was explained. Mrs. Londry thought it peculiar that the figure should point to the floor near the fire place, and, securing tools she removed the front of the hearth. At first she thought that her search was to prove fruitless, but, after considerable searching in the ashes and soot, she found three parcels, the largest of which was round, and about six inches in diameter.

She took the parcels to the kitchen and opened the largest, which she was surprised to find contained a large roll of bank bills, the denominations of which she did not know, except that she saw one, on which the figures "100" were, and another of "10."

As is natural, she was excited, and ran to the place where her husband was working to tell him of her find. Mr. Londry, however, was incredulous, since his wife had often told him before of the visits of this person and he did not credit the statement she made.

On her return, after telling her husband, Mrs. Londry went to tell some of the neighbours, and came back later to prepare the dinner. She gathered up the papers in which the bills were wrapped, and put them in the stove, and believes that at the same time, in her excitment, she put the bills in the stove too, at least nothing has been seen of them since, and this is the only solution of their disappearance. The other two parcels were smaller, and in one of them was found a small key, a nail and a piece of metal resembling gold, and in the other parcel two bills, one of which was totally destroyed by age, and the other partly so.

The Examiner has seen the last one and it was seen to be the remains of a Confederate $10 bill, numbered 2988. Of course this bill is worthless, and it may be that the roll which disappeared was composed of the same class of bills, but there is no proof of this supposition.

Mr. Londry was very much averse to talking about his wife's experience, and said that he expected later to make another discovery, which would be fully as startling as that which his wife made last week.

He expects that the key found in the small parcel will unlock a chest, which if it can be found will reveal further wealth.

Mrs. Londry furnished the details of the story, as indicated, and said for the past five years this figure has appeared to her on different occasions, but she has had difficulty in making her

FINE FIRE EFFECT ON STONY LAKE

An Eyewitness Describes the Effects of a Midnight Blaze on the Water.

A private letter from a young lady summering at Stony Lake, describes the burning of Mr. W. G. Yelland's cottage, as follows:—"The burning of the Yelland cottage which was on the island opposite, was another grand spectacle. We were awakened at four o'clock, by, as we heard afterwards an explosion caused by cartridges in the building, and on looking, saw the flames which were then very high and lit the opposite shore, making the birds think the sun had suddenly risen, for they began to sing merrily, the blazing pile, with its reflection on the water and the dark outline of the burning pines was a sight I shall never forget."

DEPUTATION'S REQUEST PRACTICALLY GRANTED

Peterborough Deputation Waited Upon Hon. Mr. Emmerson This Morning to Oppose Action of Stony Lake Cottagers---The Minister Will Have His Engineers Report Upon the Matter, Though He As Much As Gave a Definite Promise.

(Special to the Examiner).

Ottawa, June 23rd.—A Peterborough deputation saw Hon. Mr. Emmerson this morning and asked that the level of the water at Stony Lake District be left as it is. Summer cottagers want the water let out, but the Peterborough men say that this would be disastrous to manufacturers in Peterborough, who would be short on power in the fall. The Minister as much as gave a definite promise but said he would have his engineers report on the question.

BOWMANVILLE EXPECTS TO WIN

Fast Lacrosse Game Promised for To-morrow.

Local Team Will be Strengthened—First Championship Game of the Season.

To-morrow afternoon at the Riverside Park, the first home championship game of the Peterborough Lacrosse Team will be played, when the Bowmanville team will be here to meet the locals, in what should be one of the best games of the season.

The visiting team has had a successful season up to this time, and a report from that town states that they feel confident of their ability to defeat the locals on their own grounds to-morrow.

In anticipation of a hard game the Peterborough team has strengthened up, and in any event the team which wins will have to play fast lacrosse. The locals are none too sure of a victory, since Bowmanville is to a certain extent an unknown quality, beyond the knowledge of the fact that they have won all their games this year, having defeated Oshawa rather easily recently. Mr. Burt of Port Hope, will referee the game, which will start at 2.30 sharp.

PETERBOROUGHS WON GOOD GAME

Defeated Night Owls Last Evening on Riverside Grounds.

A fast game of baseball was played last evening on the Riverside Grounds when the Night Owls went down before the Peterboroughs by the one-sided score of 11—1.

It was a good practice for the winners and showed the Night Owls what it was like to be up against the real article. Quinlan first went into the box for six innings, then "Muff" Douglas took a hand and in the last innings, Rattray, with whom he changed positions, sent in some hot ones. Douglas doing the receiving in fine style.

Pilling for the Night Owls pitched some really good ball and struck out several of the heavy hitters of the leaguers, Stayne, Quinlan, Traynor, Douglas, etc., and with practice will make a pitcher. The fielding on both sides was good and a great many men were stopped on 1st, while when "things" looked like a sure run, expectations were cut short at 3rd.

Clark Earls handled the indicator, and though his decisions were sometimes voted incorrect by the bleachers nobody did the Toft act.

Following were the Peterborough's line-up:—Quinlan, p. and 3rd; Rattray, c. and p.; Traynor, 1st; Sheridan, 2nd; Shea, ss; Douglas, 3rd, p. and c; Connors, cf; Callahan, rf; Stayne, lf.

The Night Owls were as follows:—Pilling, p; Lafave, c; O'Brien, 1st; Anderson, 2nd; Dusty, ss; A. Richen, 3rd; R. Richen, cf; Gordon, lf; Campbell, rf.

Score by innings:—
Peterborough... ... ... 22010230l—11
Night Owls ... ... 1000000001— 1

Shea was the first man up and hit to first but was thrown out on trying to steal 2nd. Stayne came next and hit for two bags. Douglas scored Stayne on a hit for one sack, and Rattray hit a pop fly to A. Richen at 3rd. Sheridan went out on a hit to 1st.

O'Brien for the Night Owls went out at 1st. Lefave made a two bagger. Dusty walked, Adamson struck out and Lefave scored on some fumbling between 2nd and 3rd bases in putting out Dusty who attempted to steal 3rd. Campbell struck out.

In the second Callahan went out. Connors scored on a hit by Traynor. Shea reached first, Stayne struck out, and Douglas brought in Shea, but went out himself at 1st base.

There was nothing more done till the fourth when Shea scored on Stayne's hit to centre, the latter being thrown out at 2nd base.

Then in the 6th Traynor and Douglas both scored on nice work, stealing their way round and coming in on grounders to the garden by Shea and Rattray respectively. In the 7th Quinlan, Traynor and Shea all scored by clever work and well placed hits.

In the ninth innings Connors came in with another making it 11—1.

Rattray who went in the box for the seniors in the last innings of the game, sent them in so fast and crooked that the men at bat could only imagine what was happening. Nothing was doing and the great match was over.

CHARLOTTE STREET WINS

Scored the Majority of Runs in Last Night's Game With St. John's.

Pitchers Both Show Up Well—Fielding of Both Teams Excellent.

A rattling good game of baseball was pulled off last evening when St. John's and Charlotte Street Guild teams played the first four innings of the third game between these teams. The game resulted in a score of 3-2, in favour of Charlotte Street, but although they had the majority of the runs the playing on both sides seemed equally good. What looked like a close score for St. John's proved of no account.

Both Reddy and Cavanah pitched stellar ball and had many strike outs to their credit, and the fielding of both teams was always sharp and snappy. Many men went out on first and second bases.

There was nothing doing in the first innings, the six men all being thrown out at first or second. In 2nd, however, Charlotte Street scored three runs, Crowe, Squires and Thornton making the circuit. St. John's were shut out. The 3rd innings was a lucky one for St. John's as Cavanah and Hodgson came home on some clever work. Nothing transpired in the fourth, and the score-card showed 3-0 for the Methodists.

Following are the teams:—

Charlotte Street		St. John's
Reddy	pitcher	Cavanah
Lang	catcher	Graham
Thornton	1st base	Weller
Squires	2nd base	Warren
Williams	3rd base	Sawers
N. McWilliams	short stop	Green
A. McWilliams	centre field	Fitzpatrick
Crowe	right field	Simmons

Score by innings.
Charlotte Street, 0 3 0 0
St. John's 0 0 2 0

Mr. Stacey of St. Paul's umpired the game with satisfaction to both teams.

REMARKABLE DISCOVERY

husband believe that she really did see what she described, but he is now fully satisfied, and regrets that he did not accept her word earlier.

The effect of the shocks which she has experienced as a result of these visitations, has been visible on Mrs. Londry, and her husband noticed that her nerves were shattered, and she has steadily been getting worse, and in fact, often said that she feared that she would have to leave the house where they are living.

Some little time ago, Mrs. Londry says, this woman appeared, and she spoke to her. On this occasion Mrs. Londry was playing the organ and the dog was in the room with her and started to bark, something which he had never done before in the house. Looking up she saw the woman's figure again, and said: "For God's sake tell me what you want here!" and fainted. When she revived the figure had vanished, and she relates that since that time the visits have been almost daily, until a week ago, Wednesday when she pointed out the place in the floor, and she has not seen her since.

Mrs. Londry describes the woman as being middle aged, with jet black hair, and wore a night dress, and was in her bare feet.

It is also related that persons who have lived in the house before the present occupants, have seen the same thing, and a member of a Barrie family, now living in Toronto, had noticed the woman, and she was always in the same room in which she pointed out the place in the floor.

Mrs. Londry tells a story, which impresses one with its straight forwardness and the fact adds to the deep mystery surrounding it.

DIVISION OF ALBERTA.

Question of the North Against the South Debated—Bonus for Farmer Immigrants.

Ottawa, June 23.—The air in the House of Commons chamber yesterday was so warm that Mr. George Taylor complained, and asked for some relief from outside. Members evinced their sympathy by their listless attitude toward the campaign waged by a few western Conservatives against the redistribution of Alberta. They claim that the southern part of the Province is not receiving fair treatment. This feature of the bill has been lessened by quite a debate, which, it must be said, is evidently forced, and an early collapse is expected. Nearly the same figures and arguments were presented yesterday as were traversed Tuesday. Private members' business also received considerable attention yesterday.

Bonus on Immigrants.

Replying to Mr. Monk and Mr. Uriah Wilson, Hon. Mr. Oliver said the Government pay a bonus for farmer immigrants to this country. They have 76 agents in the United States, who are paid a commission on all agricultural settlers induced to come to western Canada—$2 for each man, $2 for each woman, and $1 for each child. In Great Britain the commission is $1.75 for each adult of the agricultural or domestic servant class, and half of this for each child of twelve years or under. That was paid to booking agents of steamship lines. A commission of $2 is paid on children sent to Canada by philanthropic societies. A commission of $3 is paid to the North Atlantic Trading Co. of Amsterdam on all agricultural immigrants from certain continental countries. The amounts paid during the last year were:—On immigrants from the United States, $14,428; to steamship agents and subagents and immigration societies, on British immigrants, $48,200; on Icelanders, $2,104; bonuses on domestic servants, $1,083; on immigrants from Great Britain at $2 each, $9,346; to philanthropic societies on children from Great Britain, $2,808; bonuses on immigrants from the continent of Europe, $25,116; total, $50,082.

Questions and Answers.

Mr. F. D. Monk asked the Minister of Militia if something could not be done to save the Highland Cadet Corps of Montreal, organized in 1880, which was threatened with disbandment for want of encouragement.

Sir Frederick Borden replied that his powers were circumscribed by act of Parliament, but he would give the matter careful consideration.

Dr. Sproule, Mr. Zimmerman and Col. Sam Hughes spoke briefly in commendation of the Highland and other cadets.

Mr. Foster asked if anything was being done respecting discrimination against Canadian goods in Japan, which had apparently resulted from Canada's refusal to take part in the Imperial treaty with Japan. Why did Canada refuse?

Hon. Mr. Fielding replied that the Minister of Agriculture was looking into the matter more particularly.

The House then went into Committee on the Alberta autonomy bill, and at midnight reported progress when the House adjourned.

During the hour devoted to private bills the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway bill was read a third time and the Senate amendments to several private bills were concurred in. The House adjourned at midnight and to-day will resume consideration of the same clauses of the autonomy bill.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND DiarrhoeaRemedy

A few doses of this remedy will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhoea.

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his house. Buy it now. It may save life.

Suffered Intense Pain Around The Heart For Four Years.

Was Very Dizzy.

Four Boxes of

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills,

Effected a Complete Cure.

They are a specific for all troubles arising from a weak condition of the heart or from the nervous system. For troubles such as Palpitation of the Heart, Sleeplessness, Nervousness, Faint or Dizzy Spells, Shortness of Breath, Starting in the Sleep; Cold, Clammy Hands or Feet, Brain Fag, etc., we would strongly advise the early use of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, as this remedy, taken in time, has been the means of saving many a life, and restoring strength to those who were weak, nervous, health-shattered invalids.

Mrs. E. Kilmer, Humberstone, Ont., writes:—"Allow me to tell you of the great results I have received from Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. For four years I suffered intense pain around the heart, and was very dizzy. After using four boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, I was completely cured."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25.

NEVER NEGLECT EVERY-DAY ILLS.

A cold is one of the everyday ills of life. People of all ages, in summer and in winter, are liable to catch cold, and a cold is always dangerous, because a cold is just the beginning of catarrh of some internal organ—head, lungs, stomach or pelvic organs. Any remedy that will cure a cold should cure the many effects of a cold. That's why Smith's Triple Cure is so popular, why people are so enthusiastic after experiencing its wonderful curative power. Smith's Triple Cure promptly cures colds and catarrh wherever located, because it acts directly on the depressed nerve centres, giving strength and vigor to tired nerves, removing the congestion of the circulation and imparting renewed vitality to the mucous membranes.

Picture to yourself the horrors of bronchial catarrh—the terrible cough, disgusting expectoration, wheezy breath and loss of strength, or the tortures of female catarrh—the swollen bowels, shooting pains, offensive discharges, displacements and burning distress, and then smiling, if you can, how thankful these sufferers are for Smith's Triple Cure which has delivered them out of their miseries. Is it any wonder that Smith's Triple Cure is rapidly displacing all other catarrh treatments in hospitals and sanitariums as prescribed by the medical profession generally? It meets a want felt for centuries, you felt now in this strenuous life of ours as never before. Smith's Triple Cure cures catarrh sufferers of all ages, makes the sick well and the weak strong; it builds up healthy digestion, makes strong nerves and enriches the blood. That's why all the world is praising it, why its magical curative power is talked about in the homes and on the streets.

Smith's Triple Cure consists of four separate preparations, three remedies taken internally acting on the mucous membranes, stomach, liver and digestive organs, purifying and enriching the blood, and a catarrh cream used locally in allaying all inflammations and killing all disease germs in the nasal passages, throat and lungs, a full two weeks' treatment of combined remedies, sold for only 50 cents by all dealers, the greatest value for the money ever offered. If your druggist won't supply you, send 25 two-cent stamps by mail today, and we will send it postpaid and guarantee safe delivery. Address W. F. Smith Co., 163 St. James St., Montreal.

DEFENSE OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE

Fate of India Causes Great General Concern.

CONFLICT IS INEVITABLE

Russia Will Force Britain to Fight For Her Very Existence in India Says Hero of Khartoum — Meanwhile British Methods Are Obsolete and the General Warns the Nation.

London, June 23.—Gen. Lord Kitchener, commander-in-chief of the British forces in India, seems to regard as inevitable a great struggle with Russia for possession of India, and to believe that the existing arrangements for the defence of the Indian Empire are obsolete and ineffective.

These views form the striking and central points of interest in a bulky blue book issued last night, dealing with the recent conflict of opinion between Viceroy Curzon, the Indian Consul, and Lord Kitchener, which the Government has just settled by a compromise giving the latter extended powers in the direction he desired.

Lord Kitchener speaks plainly in denouncing the faulty system prevailing in India, which, he points out, has not changed since the time of the mutiny, and which was framed to meet peace requirements instead of the possibility of a great war. He describes the system as one entailing endless discussion and delay, as well as great expenditure with poor results. Continuing, he says:

"Slowly but surely the deserts of Central Asia, once believed to be an impenetrable barrier, have been crossed by a great European power. They are now spanned by railways which have only one possible significance, and we have every indication that our northern neighbor is pushing forward her preparation for a contest in which we shall have to fight for our existence."

In conclusion, Lord Kitchener instances Japan as having shown what was possible by thoroughly modern methods in army administration, while the disastrous consequences to Russia give the other side of the picture. He urges that there is danger in hesitating to break the chains of custom and intolerance of admitted defects.

PUBLIC WORKS BUILDER.

Andrew Onderdonk, Prominent Engineer, Dead From Overwork.

New York, June 23.—Andrew Onderdonk, well known throughout the country as an engineer and contractor, is dead, at his home in Oscawana, this State, from overwork and general breakdown. He was 56 years old. He had engaged in many great engineering and building enterprises, including the San Francisco harbor improvements, involving many millions, built 400 miles of the Canadian Pacific Railroad in British Columbia, amounting to $16,000,000; built half of the Great Victoria Bridge at Montreal, Canada, and four sections of the Soulanges Canal; part of the Trent Valley Canal for the Canadian Government; nine miles of tunnel in the Chicago drainage system, and was engaged in dredging the Ambrose channel in New York's lower bay and in digging the tunnel under the East River to Brooklyn, connecting with the new subway at the battery.

TWO REPRIEVES.

Mrs. Rogers and "Bluebeard" Hoch Have Misery Prolonged.

White River Junction, Vt., June 23.—Late yesterday afternoon Governor Bell signed a reprieve for Mrs. Mary Rogers, the Bennington murderess, until December 8, 1905.

Springfield, Ill., June 23.—Governor Deneen yesterday granted Johann Hoch a reprieve until July 28, in order that the case may be taken to a supreme court justice for a writ of supercedeas.

Committed For Trial.

Collingwood, June 23.—Charles McLennan and Thomas Howard, accused of stealing $166 from J. McDonald, passenger on the steamer Germanic, were yesterday committed for trial.

Unhappy Women!

No woman can be happy when her health is undermined. No woman can have good health while she suffers from female weakness, inflammation, ulceration or any disease of the delicate womanly organs. Nervous, sleepless, fretful, suffering in body and mind, she does not live but only exists.

More than a half a million such women have found a perfect and permanent cure for their diseased condition in the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Women cured by this remedy say it is a "wonderful medicine," so perfectly does it restore them to health and comeliness.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," neither does it contain opium, cocaine, nor any other harmful drug. It is in the strictest sense, an honest, temperance medicine. Its ingredients are purely vegetable, and it will agree with the most delicate constitution.

Don't be hypnotized, or over persuaded, into accepting a substitute. This medicine has a record that's worth far more than any difference in price.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, either personally or by letter, absolutely without charge or fee, thus avoiding the unpleasant questionings, offensive examinations and obnoxious local treatments considered necessary by many local practitioners. All correspondence treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pierce's Pleasant Pellets

These tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules regulate Stomach, Liver and Bowels, cure Constipation and Bad Stomach, attended by foul breath. One or two for laxative, three or four for cathartic.

Receipts of live stock at the city market, as reported by the railways, since Tuesday were 96 carloads, composed of 807 cattle, 2079 hogs, 1543 sheep and lambs, with 221 calves.

Exporters.

Prices ranged from $4.60 to $5.25 per cwt., the bulk going at about $5. Export bulls sold at $3.50 to $4 per cwt, and the market was slow at these quotations.

Butchers.

Butchers' cattle sold at lower prices than for several weeks. A few prime cattle (picked lots), 1100 to 1200 lbs. each, were reported as having been bought at $5 to $5.25, but they were equal in quality to the best exporters. The bulk of the prime cattle were bought at about $5 per cwt., and they were few in number. Loads of good butchers' sold at $4.60 to $4.80; medium at $4.25 to $4.40; common at $3.75 to $4; cows at $3.20 to $4.25 per cwt., the latter price being for a few of prime quality, 1400 lbs. each, and good enough to export.

Feeders and Stockers.

Several lots of both stockers and feeders were offered, but prices were lower, in sympathy with those for fat cattle. About $4.75 would be the outside for short-keep feeders. Stockers sold at $3.25 to $ 75 for medium to good, with common as low as $2.75 per cwt.

Veal Calves.

Prices were firm but unchanged, altho there was a fairly large number offered. Prices ranged from $2 to $10 each, and $3.50 to $5.50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Export ewes sold at $3.75 to $4 per cwt.; bucks at $3 to $3.50; lambs at $3.50 to $5.50 each, at $7 to $8 per cwt., or, in other words, 7c to 8c per lb.

Hogs.

Mr. Harris got about 2000, for which he quoted prices as unchanged at $6.65 for selects and $6.40 for lights and fats.

Graeme Hunter Fined.

London, June 23.—(C. A. P.)—At Glasgow Graeme Hunter was fined £15 or forty days' imprisonment for contravention of the Merchant Shipping Act. He was charged with receiving money for passages to Canada and failing to give the usual contract ticket signed on behalf of the master and owner of the ship.

NORWAY-SWEDEN.

Riksdag Agree to King Oscar's Wish and All Looks Well.

Stockholm, June 23.—The separation of Norway and Sweden seems to be amicably arranged by a modus vivendi between the two countries.

At yesterday's session of the Riksdag, the moderates prevailed, and the request of King Oscar and the Council of State for authority to grant the wish of the Norwegian people and dissolve the union, but to preserve the friendly relations of the two countries, so as to ensure co-operation in the future will be granted.

Both chambers decided in favor of the Government' request to appoint a special commission to consider the matter.

COMPENSATION IS DEMANDED.

Licenseholders Want Recompense For Those Who Lose Licenses.

Toronto, June 23.—The attention of the Ontario License Holders' Protective Association, in annual meeting yesterday afternoon, was taken up with a discussion on the attitude which hotelkeepers should assume towards the tendency of the new license commissioners to restrict the number of licenses. The consensus of opinion was that a vigorous campaign should be instituted upon the lines of adequate compensation for the injury done to vested interests wherever the license privilege is withheld. The association was disposed to bend to the regulations which the Government, through its license commissioners might impose; but, in so doing, they demand compensation for their loss.

These officers were elected: President, J. Hartnett, Windsor; first vice-president, T. P. Phelan, Toronto; second vice-president, J. M. Brooks, Peterboro; treasurer, W. J. Purse, Toronto; secretary, E. Dickie, Toronto; auditors, J. W. Scandrett, London; H. A. Coffen, Georgetown; solicitor, J. H. Haverson, Toronto; executive, J. K. Paisley, Ottawa; R. H. Reid, London; Frank Collins, Dundas; James Macfarlane and P. J. Mulqueen, Toronto.

SIR WILFRID LAURIER.

Premier Has Promised to Attend Soo Canal Semi-Centennial.

Ann Arbor, Mich., June 22.—Hon. Peter White, president of the Soo Canal semi-centennial celebration, which will be held August 2 and 3, is in the city attending the board of regents meeting.

"I have received assurances from all the lake vessel owners," said Mr. White, "that they will join in the celebration. They will time their boats so that either in going up or coming down, the vessels will be at the Soo for twenty-four hours during the celebration, and we expect to have from fifty to seventy-five big boats there continuously. We are after the best speakers of North America. Prominent men of the United States will be urgently invited, and we have the promise of Premier Laurier and Dr. Montague, besides eight or ten others of the best known men of Canada, that they will be present."

Drydock Wants Guarantee.

Ottawa, June 23.—A delegation from St. John, N. B., yesterday asked the Government to guarantee the bonds of the Drydock Company. The Dominion is pledged to a subsidy of $600,000, the Province $200,000, and the City of St. John $100,000 and the site. The proposal is that the Dominion should take over the subsidies and guarantee the bonds to the amount of something more than a million dollars.

Glowing Crop Reports.

Winnipeg, June 23.—The crop report for the week ending June 20 was issued at the general offices of the Canadian Pacific Railway here. From all along the company's lines the agents have sent in glowing reports of the crop prospects. The grain is progressing rapidly in all sections of the west, and the heavy rains that have recently visited all districts seem to have done an immense amount of good to the crops. No damage to grain is reported at any point.

Good As a Circus Dive.

Paris, June 23.—Fell 106 feet into the Grand River and came out alive was the experience of Burns Sutherland yesterday morning about 9 o'clock. Sutherland was on a flatcar on the new bridge, which was used for the first time Wednesday. They were removing ties from the old bridge and he dropped between and lit in 6 feet of water. He was badly shaken, but will be all right in a few days.

Tramways Give $466,000 Profit.

London, June 23.—Glasgow taxpayers again to-day congratulated themselves on the possession of municipal tramways. A statement of the operations of the tramways during the past year just issued shows a net profit of £93,257, or about $466,285.

ODDFELLOWS' HONOUR DEPARTED MEMBERS

Decoration Day Was Observed Yesterday With Appropriate Ceremonial---Graves of Deceased Members Were Decorated---Appropriate Addresses by Local Clergymen---Large Number Were Present at Little Lake Cemetery.

THE beautiful practice hallowed in Oddfellowdom the world over, by its perpetuation through the years, of decorating the resting places of the departed members of the Order, was yesterday observed with appropriate ceremonial, by the members of Peterborough and Otonabee lodges. The custom, with its constantly widening significance, as year by year, new mounds appear upon the grassy slopes of the "Silent City," is one which appeals not only to the members of the Order, but to the general public, as evidenced by the large attendance and the universal interest manifested yesterday. The fact that the practice has spread far beyond the confines of the society membership is in itself a tribute conveyed in flattery's sincerest form—imitation.

Yesterday, as for a number of years past, the public generally joined as enthusiastically as the brethren did themselves in rendering a floral tribute to their own sacred dead. Not a few graves which have appeared forsaken and unadorned, were yesterday beautifully decorated.

The day was an ideal one—though, but the latest of the annual succession of beautiful days with which the Order has in the past been favoured, for the observance of their time-honoured custom.

Shortly after two o'clock, the members of Peterborough and Otonabee Lodges, I. O. O. F., to the number of about eighty, assembled at Central Park, and headed by a detachment of the 57th Regiment Band, marched to the cemetery, followed and preceded by a large number of citizens, whose attendance, the half-holiday in town, rendered conveniently possible.

The parade was marshalled by Lt.-Col. J. W. Miller, P. D. D. G.

Upon arrival at the cemetery, after prayer had been offered by Rev. Dr. Crothers, and the singing of "Nearer My God to Thee," the members divided themselves into four sections, headed by,—No. 1, P. G. Breckenridge; No. 2, P. G. Hill; No. 3, Bro. McCoy; and No. 4, by P. G. Wise, respectively and made a tour of the cemetery, placing upon the graves of the departed brethren of the Order, beautiful floral tributes.

The following graves were decorated:—

Bro. John Jenkins, Otonabee Lodge.
" A. Sawers, Otonabee Lodge.
" F. Ferguson, Otonabee Lodge.
" W. H. Scott, ex-M. P. P., Peterborough Lodge.

A number of addresses were then delivered by several of the local clergymen from a platform erected for the occasion.

The chair was occupied by Bro. M. W. Matchett, P.G., who, in a few remarks welcomed the visitors who were present. The speaker made a reference to the beautiful custom annually observed by the members of the I.O.O.F. It has, he remarked, been said that reverence for the dead can best be shown by care for the living. This was also one of the features of the work of the Society.

The chairman then called upon Rev. J. G. Lewis, of the Mark street Methodist church, who in his opening remarks spoke of the annual succession of fine days and of the large attendance each year at the Decoration Day services of the I.O.O.F. He expressed his entire sympathy with the principles of the Order. The question has been asked, he remarked, what is the purpose in perpetuating this annual ceremony. The speaker then spoke of one great lesson to be learned—the necessity of living a life based upon the highest principles of Christianity, a few of the essential points of which were touched upon.

Often a truer manhood is found in the servant than in the master. The true man has a conscience which he keeps "as the noon-tide clear." The true man also has a heart. In these days too little attention is paid to the affectionate side of our nature. All honour to the young man who drops a tear of tenderness or affection when a kind word is spoken of mother of sister, or father or brother. Some are carried by the influences about them. The true man has the will-power to say no when occasion requires. The true man has faith in himself and also in his fellow-men. Human nature responds to the confidence of our fellow men. Lastly the speaker said the true man has the abiding faith in God. He who lives according to these principles will perpetuate a memory more lasting than flowers and make for himself a crown of righteousness which fadeth not away.

Rev. W. McD. McKay, assistant pastor of St. Paul's church was then called upon, and offered, in opening, a few congratulatory remarks to the I.O.O.F. upon the highly successful nature of the day's proceedings. A touching reference was made to the days, for many present, when the grass was not so green, nor all nature so beautiful. No matter how intense the suffering, we may be called upon to bear, we have the blessed privilege of looking beyond into the future to the bright days yet to come.

There are many lying beneath the surface of this beautiful churchyard, memory of whom lives after them. It was fitting that they should draw together and honour them in this way. The goodness of lives of many of them will live as an inspiration to many of us. The speaker then charmingly illustrated his remarks by a reference to Tennyson's "King Arthur."

We all agree that this is a limited state of existence, but with the sorrow caused by the departure of loved ones, we can look with a feeling of joy upon the beautiful future, in the larger sphere of happiness which they enjoy.

Rev. Dr. Crothers, pastor of the George Street Methodist Church, was the concluding speaker. A reference was made to the character of the day, which was an occasion from which might be gathered many important lessons to carry back into the world of work.

The speaker remarked upon the origin of the day, which had arisen in the United States, in commemoration of the memory of the veterans of the G. A. R. The custom now prevails in all parts of the world. But, while the practice is a beautiful one let us not wait to speak the kind words to our fellow-creatures, 'till the crepe hangs on the door.

In closing, the speaker referred to the beautiful thought which arose in looking forward into the future, so well expressed by the Psalmist "Yea, though I walk through the dark vale, I will fear no evil."

The chairman, then in behalf of the members of the I. O. O. F., expressed their thanks to the speakers, and after the singing of "The Sweet Bye-and-Bye," the members again formed in procession and paraded back to the hall.

MR. W. B. WARNE IS BLAMELESS

No Charge of Assuming Title of Druggist.

Case Against Him Was Dismissed—An Interesting Case.

At the police court this morning, the case of W. B. Warne, who was charged with assuming the title of "druggist," was dismissed, the prosecution being unable to make out a case.

Inspector Brown, of the Ontario College of Pharmacy, appeared in the witness box and laid the complaint. He showed to the court several copies of the Peterborough Examiner, in which were advertisements of patent medicines over Mr. Warne's name, with the title of "druggist." He had notified Mr. Warne several times to tell the newspapers and the wholesalers to discontinue the use of his name in that manner. A week ago he had had a conversation with the defendant, and he said that he had notified the proprietary people. Mr. Brown admitted this in cross-examination by Mr. F. D. Kerr, who appeared for the defence. Mr Warne had said that he knew nothing of the advertisement in question until Mr. Browne had called his attention to it.

Magistrate Dumble pointed out that from the evidence Mr. Warne knew nothing of the advertisement in question, which was one concerning "Osoze," and that as he had notified the people who put in the advertisement without the defendant's knowledge, he was in no way to blame. He dismissed the case.

PASSED R. M. C. EXAMINATION

Mr. B. D. Hall, Peterborough, Graduates from Military College.

Among the successful candidates at the recent examinations at the Royal Military College, Kingston, is Mr. B. D. Hall, son of Mr. E. H. D. Hall, of Peterborough. Mr. Hall's host of friends in town, will unite in extending to him their hearty congratulations upon his success.

Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, attended the closing exercises at the College yesterday. He reviewed the Cadets, who marched past finely, saw them in gymnastics, and military engineering, and then presented the prizes, announced by the Commandant. The graduates were 25 in number.

The Dominion mounted patrol competition was won by Harrington, McPhee, Hall and Cannifield.

BARRIE WEDDING

Miss Grace Little Married to Mr. Jas. W. Scott.

A wedding of considerable local interest was that which took place at Barrie recently, and of it the News says:—"Kite's Neat," Allandale, the home of Mr. E. A. Little, M. P. P., was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday morning, when his sister, Miss Grace Charlotte Little, and Mr. James W. Scott, one of Barrie's young business men were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Canon Murphy, rector of St. George's. A large number of friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. E. A. Little, and attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude, wore a beautiful gown of white silk colienne over white taffeta, with veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid was attired in crepe de chine over grey taffeta, relieved by touches of pink, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Mr. George Scott supported the groom. Some of the guests present were:—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogg, Mrs. Hogg, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John Scott of Galt; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Little, of Toronto, and Dr. and Mrs. Little, of Churchill. At the reception and breakfast held afterwards, the usual happy sentiments prevailed. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left on the 12.40 train for Detroit, Cleveland and other American cities, the bride travelling in a becoming costume of dark green broadcloth, with hat to match. They will take up residence on Worsley street on their return.

Property Committee Approves Coal Weighing By-Law.

Meeting was Held Last Night—Tenders for Coal Were Awarded.

The Property Committee met last night in the town clerk's office, the following being in attendance; Ald. Batten, chairman; Mayor Best, Aldermen Crowe, Hicks and Scott.

Tenders were received, and opened, for the supplying of 60 tons of coal for the corporation buildings, from J. E. A. Fitzgerald, A. E. Wolstenholm, and the Peterborough Fuel and Cartage Company. The tenders were all alike, being $7 per ton.

Moved by Ald. Crowe, seconded by Ald. Hicks, that a contract be awarded to A. E. Wolstenholm for 10 tons, Peterborough Fuel and Cartage Company for 25 tons, and J. E. A. Fitzgerald for 25 tons. The motion was carried.

The question as to new floors to be laid in the town clerk's office, was next discussed.

Moved by Ald. Hicks, seconded by Ald. Scott, that the matter be left in the hands of the chairman to secure estimates upon the cost of a hardwood floor, and with power to act, if this can be procured at a less cost than linoleum.

Bylaws respecting the weighing of coal were introduced by Ald. Hicks and Ald. Crowe. The bylaws were practically to the same effect, that of Ald. Crowe including the provision for the measurement of wood.

Some discussion arose upon the question. Ald. Hicks, while satisfied to include some provisions with respect to wood, expressed the opinion that the clauses as introduced, were impracticable. The clauses may be amended and added at a later date.

The bylaw introduced by Ald. Hicks was approved and read, on motion of Ald. Hicks, seconded by Ald. Crowe.

The provisions of the bylaw are to the following effect:

1. Every coal dealer shall give to the driver of each load of coal sent out for delivery a signed ticket, specifying the name of the purchaser and the weight and kind of coal in the load.

2. In the event of coal being delivered to more than one purchaser, from one load, separate tickets shall be issued specifying the conditions of clause 1. The quantity to be delivered to each purchaser shall be kept separate from the others, so that the quantity referred to may be readily identified.

3. The Chief of Police may require that any load of coal being delivered shall be weighed upon the market scales, purchaser may also require the same to be so weighed before delivery, and in either case the driver shall produce the ticket for such load to the Chief of Police or the purchaser as the case may be, and shall have the load and also the vehicle, including the bags, if any, weighed separately on the scales, and shall then and there produce the ticket and the market clerk shall endorse upon the ticket the gross weight of the load with the gross weight of the coal, vehicle and bags, the tare, and the net weight of the coal.

4. No dealer shall state in his ticket of weight of coal sent out for delivery a greater weight than that contained in the load, and no driver shall refuse to produce the ticket upon request, or to take the load to the market scales and allow it to be weighed.

5. Each dealer shall have on his premises a suitable weight scale properly tested and capable of weighing each load.

6. The fees of the market clerk for use of the scales at request of purchaser shall be paid by the latter, and when by request of the Chief of Police, by the Town Treasurer.

7. The Chief of Police shall cause not less than eighty loads of coal to be weighed in each year and shall choose the loads to be weighed so as to distribute the tests fairly between the different local dealers.

8. The penalty provided for a breach of the provisions of the bylaw shall be a fine of not less than one dollar and not more than fifty dollars and costs, subject to distress and imprisonment in County Gaol not exceeding 21 days.

FREEDOM IS NOT TO BE GIVEN

Russian Parliament to Be Subject to Will of the Czar—Speech "Misinterpreted"—Russian Autocratic Principles to Prevail—His Majesty Did Not Intend to Convey Possibility of Modifying Fundamental Laws of the Empire—Not Likely to Be Armistice Declared Befofe a Battle.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—The official interpretation of the Emperor's speech to the delegation of the semstvoists and Mayors at Peterhof June 19 is given in the following circular sent by the Minister of the Interior to all the newspapers: "The words pronounced by the Empesor during the reception of the members of the semstvos and municipalities have been incorrectly interpreted by a portion of the periodical papers and several newspapers have gone so far as to deduce therefrom the arbitrary conclusion that the Emperor's words implied an extension of the Imperial rescript of March 3 to the Minister of the Interior in the sense of a convocation of representatives of the people on the basis of the existing constitutions of the countries of Western Europe, whereas it was clearly shown by the Emperor's words that the conditions of such a convocation were to be based on an order of things responding to Russian autocratic principles, and His Majesty's words contain absolutely not the least indication of the possibility of modifying the fundamental laws of the Empire.

Strict Censorship.

"Consequently the central administration of press affairs, by order of the Minister of the Interior, informs all publications appearing without censorship, that the Emperor's words can be published only in the form in which they were reported in The Official Messenger without additions or abbreviations. In order to prevent distortion of the significance of the Imperial words, it is found necessary to prohibit the publication in the press of any kind of deductions or interpretations which do not accord with the direct and clear meaning of the Emperor's utterances."

The Russ has been ordered to suspend publication for a month, upon the recommendation of Assistant Minister of the Interior Trepoff by M. Bouligan, Minister of the Interior. Latterly The Russ, which enjoys an immense circulation, has been the Government's most severe critic, waging unceasingly a war against the bureaucracy and printing exposure after exposure.

Lamsdorff's Illness.

It appears that Count Lamsdorff has had a touch of heart trouble and his physician again yesterday forebade him to leave his room, but promised to allow the Minister to go to the Chancellery to-day.

Lamsdorff's illness naturally has created gossip to the effect that he is about to retire, and that Muraviev, Russian Ambassador to Rome, and M. d'Iswollisky, Minister at Copenhagen, are named as his probable successors, but as yet there is no evidence that the rumors have more foundation than those of similar character which preceded them. There is strong reason for saying that the Russian plenipotentiaries will include a military man of high rank, though as yet there is no clue to his identity, except that it will not be Gen. Kuropatkin.

There is not likely to be any further move in the direction of an armistice until the plenipotentiaries are appointed, and the time of their meeting is definitely fixed. Japan seems unwilling to discuss any new issue until these two questions are settled.

Armistice Now? "No," Says Japan.

Washington, D. C., June 24.—Japan has informed the United States that she will not agree to an armistice with Russian until the peace plenipotentiaries have met and found each other's credentials entirely satisfactory. She would be willing to do so if a guarantee of some kind could be given her that Russia will negotiate a peace in good faith.

The president's efforts to stop the fighting in Manchuria have thus met with a temporary check. When he returns to Washington he will be informed of the replies made by Japan and Russia.

No Move for Armistice.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—There is not likely to be any further move in the direction of an armistice until the plenipotentiaries are appointed and the time of their meeting is definitely fixed. Japan seems unwilling to discuss any new issue until these two questions are settled. This does not necessarily mean that all hope of arranging a suspension of hostilities before the meeting has disappeared. But as an indication of Japan's mood it increases the doubt as to whether she could be induced to relinquish temporarily the strategic advantages which she evidently believes she enjoys. Indeed, it might raise the suspicion of sparring for time until Field Marshal Oyama has developed his offensive and is actually in process of delivering his blow when Japan could easily plead that it was too late. The delay in settling the matter of the plenipotentiaries is therefore all the more deplored by those desiring to avoid further bloodshed. Both countries seem to be perfectly willing to name negotiators, but each evidently desires the other to show its hand first.

EXCURSION WAS MUCH ENJOYED

St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild Had Delightful Outing.

Over 200 in Attendance—The Party Returned to Town About 9 O'clock.

The excursion of St. Andrew's Young Men's Guild to Stony Lake, is annually looked forward to as the outing par excellence of the early summer season. The trip, which was taken on Thursday, was one of the most delightful of the long series of successes which was scored by the society in past years. All conditions united in contributing to the pleasures of the excursionists.

The Guild appears to have a "stand-in" with the weather man, the balmy June atmosphere and the cloudless skies of Thursday, being but the latest of the annual succession of fine days with which it has been favoured in previous years.

The excursionists, who numbered over 200, left on the regular 8.30 train for Lakefield, embarking there upon the steamer Stony Lake. After a delightful sail, via Juniper Island, the party reached Burleigh Falls about noon, where a stay of two and one-half hours was made. Dinner was also served here, many availing themselves of the accommodations of the hotel, while others spread their lunch upon the grass in true picnic style. Several took advantage of the occasion to indulge their piscatorial proclivities.

Leaving Burleigh about 2.15 p.m. the excursionists sailed to Juniper Island, where a number made a stay, the remaining members of the crowd taking taking a trip to Julian's and Crowe's Landing, returning about 4.30 to Juniper.

From here the trip was continued to McCracken's Landing, where supper was served. An impromptu programme of sports was also run off, including a tug of war.

The journey homeward was commenced about seven o'clock, the party reaching town about nine, after a pleasant trip down the Lakes, and by special train from Lakefield.

A feature, which contributed in no small way to the delights of the trip was the presence of the Maiorana orchestra of Toronto. Their music was delightful, and was much appreciated by the party.

The arrangements of the different committees in charge were carried through in every particular to a successful conclusion, and the affair was pronounced by all who attended as the most enjoyable since the inception of the annual trip.

A FISH STORY OF A NEW KIND

Product of the C. G. E. Anling Club Released.

The Examiner has been furnished with an amusing story of a very promising young man who works at the C. G. E. Works. This lamb-like follower of Isaak Walton, forsooth, took it into his cranium to try his luck at the denizens of the deep. After providing himself with a fishing rod, pike pole, grappling hook, tomato can and a good stout line, found his way to the rapids at the locks. Blood was in his eye as he made a mighty swirl with his pole. Presently he made a heave and found that something was digesting his hook. After a great deal of puffing and snorting, he managed to raise the monster from the bottom of the river. His troubles were not over yet, for the current took a notion to invite this invader of the finny tribe to take a bath. This had a tendency to take the crease out of his white jeans. He still held the pole however and after bracing himself, proceeded to land the fish. By this time, a crowd had gathered to see the fun. One suggested to play him a little, another yelled to "yank him out." With a dexterous twist of the pole he finally raised the monster to the surface of the water, viz., a salmon can—exit fisherman.

Permanent Cure for Bronchitis.

"My second daughter was troubled with bronchitis from the age of three weeks. Oftentimes I thought she would choke to death. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine brought relief and further treatment made a thorough cure. This trouble used to come back from time to time, but the cure is now permanent." — Mrs. Richmond Withrow, Shubenacadie, Hants Co., N. S.

MR. DUMBLE OPPOSES $100,000 EXPENDITURE

For the New Collegiate Institute Building—Expresses His Views in Letter to The Examiner—Will Oppose the By-Law—Plans Under Considration, He Claims, Require Too Heavy an Expenditure.

To the Examiner:

I am asked by many how I will vote on the bylaw to raise another $50,000 for the erection of the new Collegiate Institute and as my answer may interest many I offer it through your paper; here then it is:—"I will vote against it."

You may say to me that in the many years you were on the School Board you were known as favouring the erection of a new institute building and using the old building as a public school, are you not inconsistent?

I answer, No. I am still in favour of a new institute, and a good one, but I am not in favour of spending for that purpose $100,000.

To begin with, they have made a terrible mistake in giving the Government the South four half-acre lots for the armoury. That could just as well have been built on the north of the park, then the Government could, in the two years required for building, have used the present drill shed for store house and work shops, and the present Separate School building, which is worth $8,000, could be used by the Board for public school purposes. Perhaps all the advanced public school children could be taught there. The Government contributes towards the land $10,000 but to accommodate them an $8,000 school house is sacrificed.

That does not look like a sensible arrangement. But the captains say that they want a fine parade ground—a "Champ de Mars;" and the Separate School would be in the way. That is all nonsense, by placing the institute on the south the two schools would be in line and a fine block of land could be between the school and armoury for parade purposes. Some one asks why do I say the new school will call for an extra $50,000? The Board admit it, they say the land, (two lots,) cost $10,000
Tender for building 70,000
Heating and furnishing 12,000
Architect, Superintendent of structure, interest, etc., etc., making up grounds, etc. ... 8,000

$100,000

That seems plain enough—the probabilities are it will cost over $100,000.

Now is the school worth to us that that large sum? Perhaps it is, but let us examine the facts and see if we are justified in this great expenditure. You will remember that many of the great universities of the United States have had very indifferent buildings, but their boast was that not the buildings but the professoriate made the University. Quartered oak and plate glass are very nice, but they don't make the College.

According to the demand made last year on the Council the Collegiate Institute cost the town in the neighbourhood of $13,300, of which the Government Grant was ... ... $ 1,300
Cash on hand 850
Fees..... 2,150
Amount raised by taxation... 9,000

$13,300

This is based upon a rental for present building of ... ... $ 1,100
Salaries..... 9,250
Janitor 375
Fuel..... 400
Printing..... 150
Chemicals..... 150
Cash on hand..... 850
Incidental expenses 175

$12,450

The bylaw now before the people and that for $50,000 already voted on call for a yearly payment for 30 years of $3,937. Allowing all other expenses to be increased one-fourth, they would amount to $11,317; making a total yearly expenditure of $17,254 instead of $9,000, raised last year by taxation for the Institute, and the $850 cash on hand from the previous year.

The reports of the Principal show that the average attendance of pupils for the past year is 221, so that the cost per pupil, over and above the fees paid by them is over $44 per annum.

The larger the school the more it costs the town. You ask me if I am wholly opposed to High School education? I answer, No, decidedly, No! Well, what about the outside pupils? There you have touched the core of the matter.

A university is for the country, and supported by the country, but a collegiate institute is local, and intended to educate the children of the people who support it — and not intended to educate the children of people who do not support it. Philanthropy is a good thing, but the people of this city are under no obligation to educate the children from the county. Yes, 'tis true, the county pupils do now pay about $15 per annum. But each pupil now costs the town $44 per annum, over and above the fees, Government grant, etc., and that makes each country pupil a cost to the town of about $40 per annum over and above the fees he pays. And if we now make a school to educate twice as many pupils as the town supplies, we will be taxing ourselves for the benefit of outsiders to an enormous extent.

"But I think I have heard you years ago advocating letting country pupils in." Yes, till you have just enough to fill the rooms of a complete staff—but if you get so many that you have to increase your staff then you are running the school to that extent for the outsider. What then do you propose? Why, as I said, I want a good school, but I will begin by voting down this bylaw. The trustees have been away looking at half millilon dollar schools in Buffalo and Detroit, and they have lost their heads. When they came back their heads touched the ceilings of the architect's new building, and they ordered them raised—they are, it is said, 17 feet high, which with a hot air ventilation, is unnecessarily, and doubles the expense of heating. Plain wood had to give place to quartered oak; panel doors to plate glass.

The architect's plan is handsome and good, but the school is too large and expensive for the present. Let the rear third of the building be left off for a future day. Let the building be simplified. Let an effort be made to create a larger High School District, or to get the county to join in supporting the school. And, above all, let the Government be induced to take the north lots, so as to save eight thousand dollars, the worth of the Separate school building.

Meanwhile, vote down the bylaw, and let the trustees have time to think.

Yours, etc.,
D. W. DUMBLE.

N. B. — I have been told that the trustees who have engineered this matter, advise keeping quiet until polling day; then they would hire a lot of rigs, and force the vote. I cannot think of the people's servants attempting to insult their masters by such an illegal and improper action. It might be well to watch their actions, but the only safe course is for the people to turn out and vote down the bylaw.

NEW INSPECTOR WAS APPOINTED

Mr. Thos. Lees, of St. Thomas Gets the Appointment

To Act With Mr. J. C. Brown in Inspecting Country Schools.

A change was made in the appointment of public school inspector for the county, this morning, at the closing session of the county council. Mr. H. C. Mann, who was appointed at the winter session to act with Mr. Brown, was found not to possess the necessary qualifications and as a result his resignation was accepted.

Mr. Richard Lees, at present classical master at the St. Thomas Collegiate Institute, was appointed as his successor. The report of the Committee on Schools, providing for his appointment, adopted this morning at the session of the council is as follows:—

The Committee on Appointments beg leave to report as follows:—

1.—That the resignation of Thomas Fraser as a trustee of Norwood High School be accepted.

2.—J. W. Bryan, of Havelock, be appointed as trustee of Norwood High School, in place of Thomas Fraser, be accepted.

3.—That Messrs. Johnston and Carey be authorised to appoint caretakers for the Indian River, O'Leary, Evans, Armstrong, Hope, Allandale, Keene Station and Keene bridges in Otonabee, at salaries of five dollars for each.

4.—That Quinton Moore be appointed caretaker of Nogey's Creek bridge at a salary of $5.00 per annum.

5.—That William McCauley be appointed caretaker of Brown's Falls Bridge in the township of Burleigh, at a salary of five dollars per annum.

6.—That Daniel Young be appointed caretaker of Crow River bridge in Belmont at a salary of five dollars per annum.

7.—That Mr. Webster be authorised to appoint caretakers for the county bridges in Dummer, if he shall see fit at salaries of $5.00 per annum and that Mr. Buck be given similar authority as to county bridges in Asphodel and Mr. Andrews as to county bridges in Belmont.

8.—That John Mahoney of Ennismore, be appointed a county constable.

9.—That Mr. H. C. Mann's resignation as an inspector of public schools be accepted.

10.—That Mr. Richard Lees be appointed one of the inspectors of public schols in this county in place of Mr. H. C. Mann (resigned) and that Mr. Lee's name be substituted for that of Mr. Mann in paragraph 15, dated 2nd February last, and that with this substitution, the said paragraph is hereby confirmed.

The report was presented by Mr. J. Menogue and adopted.

CONFIRMATION AT LINDSAY

His Lordship Bishop O'Connor Will Administer the Rite on Sunday Next.

On Sunday next ceremonies of special interest will take place at St. Mary's church, Lindsay, when over 100 girls and boys will receive holy communion for the first time and be confirmed by his Lordship Bishop O'Connor, of Peterborough.

Masses will be celebrated at eight, nine and eleven a.m., the second being the one the children will attend. The candidates have been instructed in their catechism for weeks back by Ven. Archdeacon Casey and Rev. Father O'Sullivan, and subjected to rigorous examinations in order that they may be thoroughly grounded in the faith of the Roman Catholic church.—Lindsay Post.

Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women

Medicines, sold alike for men and women, never contain what will do a woman the most good, that is, the uterine and other female tonics. Such medicines may relieve for a little but that is all. They do not cure, because they do not reach the cause of nine-tenths of the ills of women.

Women need a remedy compounded for their special needs. Dr. Hugo's Health Tablets for Women are such a medicine.

They are a special remedy compounded by a specialist for a special purpose. The specialist is Dr. Hugo, of Paris, who perhaps knows more about the needs of women to-day than any other living physician. Their special purpose is to cure the ills of women and them alone. They are not for men.

Are Just for Women.

THE BRICK DEMAND EXCEEDS THE SUPPLY

An Indication of the Great Activity in the Building Trades —Ald. Johnston's Report to Labour Gazette is a Highly Satisfactory One—All Classes of Labour Busily Employed—A General Ring of Prosperity is Evidenced by Monthly Labour Report.

The monthly report of Ald. W. J. Johnston to the Labour Gazette on the labour condition in Peterborough, is most encouraging, and compares most favourably with the reports from other towns in the Dominion. The correspondent says:—

The past month has been one of exceptional activity in nearly all branches. The building trades were very busy, the demand for material far exceeding the supply. The demand for brick in particular has been so great that the manufacturers could not carry any stock from one season to another; the new brick is accordingly late, and it will be about the middle of June before they can be taken from the kiln. This materially affects the bricklayers, who cannot become actively engaged until after the new brick is ready for use.

Work on the old locks was completed during May. The contract for a 1,00 feet addition to the new shovel factory has been let and construction will be commenced immediately.

Commercial activity was very brisk and heavy shipments of all kinds were reported. The banks were very active.

Wholesale and retail trade was greatly improved.

The teamsters had their wages increased to a minimum of $3.25 per day of nine hours. Some trouble arose among sheet metal workers, who asked for an increase in wages of 10 per cent. The matter was settled by the employers granting an increase to those receiving less than $2.50 per day.

Condition of Local Industries.

Agriculture.—Seeding was completed and the work of preparing the land for the root crop was in progress.

Fishing.—Fishing was not very active.

Lumbering.—Lumbering was very active. The saw-mills, handicapped somewhat by an insufficient supply of saw-logs, were unable to turn out the lumber required for building purposes.

Manufacturing.—Manufacturing in all branches has been active, and more especially in the planing mills and boat shops. The iron industries were not as active as in April, but there are prospects of some very large contracts being let in the near future. Green's pump works were very active and extensive alterations are being carried on.

The Machine Telephone Company has set up a new switchboard in its office and expects to have some of the system in operation very soon. The Bell Telephone Company is extending its line to several points in the district.

McDonald's large planing mill and Mann's cheese box factory were running to their full capacity.

Mining.—Mining in this and the adjoining district is becoming a leading factor in industrial activity.

Railroad construction and employment.—There was only the usual number of section men employed.

The Canadian General Electric Works have just completed the first turbine and generator engine. This engine, known as the Curtis Steam Turbine, generating from 600 to 700 horse power, was shipped to a Montreal power company. There are promising prospects for an extensive manufacturing of these engines.

Condition of Particular Trades.

Building trades.—All branches of the building trades except as above mentioned, were very active. Masons, carpenters, joiners, lathers, plasterers, painters, paperhangers, plumbers, and stonecutters were very busy. Gas and steam fitters and builders' labourers were fairly well employed.

Metal, engineering and shipbuilding trades.—Iron moulders, iron workers, machinists and engineers were quiet, but clerical workers, brass workers, sheet-metal workers and bicycle workers were very busy. Steam engineers, linemen, blacksmiths, boilermakers, shipworkers, tool sharpeners, horseshoers and jewellers were well employed.

Woodworking and furnishing trades.—Woodworkers, upholsterers, carriage and wagon makers, car builders and pattern makers were active, and varnishers and coopers well employed. Wood carvers and gluers were slack.

Printing and Allied Trades.—These trades were well employed.

Clothing trades.—The clothing trades were active.

Food and tobacco preparation.—Bakers confectioners, butchers, and ice workers were very busy. Cigarmakers were well employed.

Leather trades.—Leather workers were steadily employed.

Miscellaneous.—Barbers, clerks, stenographers, and laundry workers were well employed. Broommakers, delivery employees and hotel and restaurant workers were very busy.

Transport.—Railroad and street railway employees, cab drivers, hackmen, carters, teamsters, and expressmen were very active. Navigation having opened in inland waters, steamboatmen were busy.

Unskilled labour.—The supply of unskilled labour was equal to the demand.

DISTRICT NOTES.

A shipment of 1,901 boxes of cheese the first of the season, was offered for sale at the Peterborough cheese board at a maximum price of 9 5-8 cents.

The produce of the district found a ready market in Peterborough at the following prices:—Butter from 20 to 22 cents per lb.; eggs 14 cents per doz.; chickens 75 to $1 per pair; apples and potatoes 75 cents per bag, and hay $9 to $10 per ton.

There are three large brick factories in the district, all of which were very busy.

The Lakefield Cement Works were exceptionally active, using on an average from 10 to 12 carloads of marl and clay mixture in the manufacture of cement.

GREW THIS HAIR

GRACE SUTHERLAND

This lady is but one among the thousands whose hair was grown by the use of the 7 Sutherland Sisters' Hair Grower; but the fact that she is one of the 7 Sutherland Sisters, and well known, her experience, and the manner in which she recommends this valuable preparation to the public, cannot fail to invite the attention of all who are interested in the culture and preservation of the hair.

The 7 Sutherland Sisters have devoted years to that important subject—the structure of the hair; the causes of its decay,—and means by which it may be preserved or renewed in all its original elegance. The 7 Sutherland Sisters can be seen and consulted without charge, and the magnificence of their own hair is the first and unquestionable proof of the merits of the preparations they manufacture and use, the 7 Sutherland Sisters Hair Grower, and Scalp Cleaner. For sale by 7 Sutherland Sisters and all Druggists. Price of HAIR GROWER, 50c and $1 per bottle. SCALP CLEANER, the only Dandruff cure. It kills the Dandruff germ. For shampooing it has no equal. THE DEATH OF MR. J. S. DAWSON

Took Place This Morning—Will Be Buried Monday Afternoon

The death occurred this morning about four o'clock, of John Stewart Dawson, the eldest son of Mr. W. M. Dawson, Concession street, 4th ward. The deceased has been living here for the past 18 weeks, and has been unwell since last September with some form of throat trouble.

He was born in Otonabee fifty years ago, and married Martha Hamilton, daughter of Mr. Francis Hamilton, Ashburnham. The deceased leaves three daughters, all married and living in Toronto, Bracebridge and Detroit respectively; three brothers, William A., living at present in the Northwest; Hilliard, also in the Northwest; Thomas, in Chicago. Four sisters survive, Mrs. Francis, and Mrs. J. Henthorn, Monaghan, Mrs. William Robinson, Mrs. Henry Gibbs, town.

The deceased was a painter by trade and lived for six years in Midland. He went from there to North Bay, where he remained for three years, living for the last 18 weeks with his father on Concession street.

The funeral will take place on Monday at 2.30 p.m., to the Little Lake cemetery.

MR. PRINGLE HAS ARDUOUS TASK

Public School Writing Competition Closed Last Night

Mr. William Pringle, Principal of the Peterborough Business College, has received the specimens of writing submitted in his prize competition, from the pupils of the third and fourth classes of the public schools of Peterborough, the Commercial Form of the Collegiate Institute and the Separate school.

The competition, which is for three silver medals, closed last night.

Mr. Pringle is now engaged in the work of adjudging, which is a formidable task, by reason of the large number of pupils who entered the competition.

FOR CONSTIPATION

Kidney Troubles and Rheumatism, Bu-Ju, the Kidney Pill is Pronounced Excellent.

The highly satisfactory experience of an Ottawa family who uses Bu-Ju, the Kidney Pill, for the ailments above named, is given in the statement of Mrs. E. Alaire, who writes to the Chatlin Chemical Co., Windsor, Ont.:

Both my husband and myself have found Bu-Ju Pills very good for kidney trouble and rheumatism. We also find them very good for constipation. We heartily recommend them.

MRS. E. ALAIRE,
87 Church street, Ottawa.

What Bu-Ju, the Kidney Pill, did for this family it will do for all sufferers from constipation, rheumatism and allied disorders of the system. It were better to try such a simple remedy at once than to delay until a cure is hopeless. People who try "Bu-Ju" are unanimous in praise of its benefits. It begins to relieve at once because it gets at the root of so many ailments, viz., a defective or disordered state of the kidneys. When the kidneys are sick the whole body suffers. Bu-Ju, the Kidney Pill, heals and strengthens the Kidneys. That is what they are made for. Try "Bu-Ju" if you are not feeling up to the mark. All druggists sell this valuable preparation. 3

A VENERABLE PASTOR CURED BY PE-RU-NA.

Pe-ru-na is a Catarrhal Tonic Especially Adapted to the Declining Powers of Old Age.

In old age the mucous membranes become thickened and partly lose their function.

This leads to partial loss of hearing, smell and taste, as well as digestive disturbances.

Peruna corrects all this by its specific operation on all the mucous membranes of the body.

One bottle will convince anyone. Once used and Peruna becomes a life-long stand-by with old and young.

when 88 years old can say it has invigorated my whole system. I cannot but think, dear Doctor, that you must feel very thankful to the all loving Father that you have been permitted to live, and by your skill be such a blessing as you have been to suffering humanity."

Strong and Vigorous at the Age of Eighty-eight.

Rev. J. N. Parker, Utica, N. Y., writes: "In June, 1901, I lost my sense of hearing entirely. My hearing had been somewhat impaired for several years, but not so much effected but that I could hold converse with my friends; but in June, 1901, my sense of hearing left me so that I could hear no sound whatever. I was also troubled with rheumatic pains in my limbs. I commenced taking Peruna and now my hearing is restored as good as it was prior to June, 1901. My rheumatic pains are all gone. I cannot speak too highly of Peruna, and now

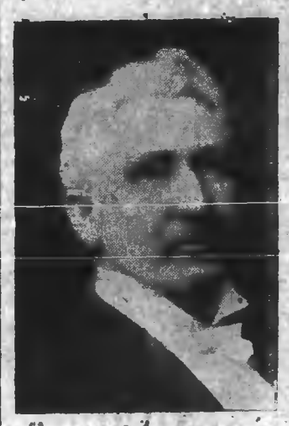
VISIT TO HOME OF "CANADA FLAKES"

Mills of Peterborough Cereal Company Now Present Scene of Great Activity---The Most Modern and Up-to-Date Cereal Manufacturing Plant in America Now in Full Swing---Large Orders Received From the Start---Cereal Section of the Mill Began Operations on Tuesday.

To the material dietetic necessities of mankind, Mother Ceres has, throughout the ages, been an ever-generous, and oft-times lavish, caterer: and of no people, perhaps, have her choicest gifts been more abundantly yielded, than to her favoured subjects in Canada. Assisted by the disc-harrow, and the cultivator, she maintained her position even with the strenuousities of the nineteenth century. But, with the advent of the twentieth century—the age of sterilization, and "pre-digestion," of tablet coffee and Cascarets, we find our "Lady of the Snows," with very tender solicitude for the creature comforts of her loyal subjects, bringing to the assistance of her sister her inventive faculties, the two working in conjunction in the production of a food fit for the most fastidious palate of these exacting days — "Canada Flakes."



Mr. W. H. MELDRUM
Managing Director of Peterborough Cereal Company

With the first whirr of the wheels on Tuesday last, of the machinery which will scatter broadcast over the fair Dominion, "Canada Flakes," there was commenced a new and important epoch in the manufacturing life of the town. There can be little doubt that the industry, which is yet, in but a comparatively early stage of its development, will assume in the near future, a supreme position in its own branch of the manufacturing life of the Dominion.

That such a prophecy is not made without ample justification, a look through the home of "Canada Flakes," can scarcely fail to demonstrate. The plant is of the most modern and up-to-date in every respect, which is in operation in the production of cereal foods in any part of the continent.

The plant which is situated on Simcoe street, is entirely new throughout. The flour mill, which forms a leading part of the industry, has been in operation for about six months, the machinery for the manufacture of cereal products, having been since installed, and was on Tuesday last operated for the first time. The first shipment was made on Tuesday, to Montreal, though for some time past the local trade has been supplied.

The grist mill section is situated upon the northern side of the buildings, at the Simcoe street, entrance to which, are the offices. A siding runs in from a spur-line to a point directly beneath the doors of the storehouse. This is most convenient in shipping operations, the cars being loaded speedily from a slide above.

The mill is a brick structure with a cement foundation. The dimensions of the main building are 40 x 124 feet. The four storey warehouse situated to the east, is 50 x 40 feet in size, while the chop-room, at the southern end of the building is three stories in height. In this is stored the bran and shorts.

It is the intention of the company in the near future to erect an elevator 40 x 50 feet in size, and with a capacity of 60,000 bushels, to the east of the warehouse. Another warehouse will also be added, the present one being entirely insufficient to meet the requirements. In this will be stored cereal supplies, boxes, etc. The capacity of the mill is 150 barrels daily.

The chop-room, in which is ground feed for shipment and for local trade is most convenient for farmers, as by the arrangements they are enabled to drive in upon the floor. In it, is a McLaughlin Grinder, driven by a 20 horse-power motor. Its capacity is 300 bags per 10 hour day.

A visit to the flour mill is decidedly interesting. The motive power for this is a 50 horse-power C. G. E. motor situated upon the ground floor, and transmitted to a main shaft, and thence to the different machines throughout the mill. The grain enters the mill upon the street floor, and by gravity goes to the cockle machine, and in progressive stages to the scourer, the brush machine and the bin. It here enters the elevators, and after passing through the first break-roll, to the plan-sifter in the attic, dropping by gravity to the second break, where it is further reduced. From here, it travels back to the plan-sifter, this process being repeated until four reductions have been made.

The middlings and flour made on each break, are taken out by a sifter, the unfinished product being sent on. After the fourth reduction, the large farino, or middlings, is gradually reduced in the same manner as the wheat, until all is reduced into flour. From each reduction roll, the product goes to a scalping section of the plan-sifter, the finished flour going to a packer, and the granular stock to the purifier. The tail from these sections enters a tailing roll to be finished into flour and feed.

This is done upon another section of the plan-sifter, the whole system being a gradual reduction of wheat, flour, bran, and shorts, the object being to take the inside of the wheat kernel in all its purity from the bran or outer covering without any heating of the flouring stock in the process.

Upon the third floor are situated the middlings purifiers, by means of which the impurities are eliminated from the partially finished product, by travelling air belts. All the dust and impure matter is collected within, no dust escaping into the mill. The collection from here is carried into the shorts dusters, where it is finished, the flour product going to "low grade" flour and the balance to feed.

In the attic is situated that wonderful piece of mechanism, the plan-sifter through which goes all the separations from the rolls, except the finishing roll. The reductions from these two machines together with the flour from the dust collector, and bran and shorts dusters, is handled on a Goldie & McCullough and Little Wonder mill. There are in all twenty-one elevators, all of which run to the attic.

There is also a travelling grain belt for the purpose of carrying grain from the flour mill cleaners to the cereal mill. Ample provision has been made for future improvements and additions. The wheat cleaning machine has a capacity for a 300-barrel mill: this enables the flour section to do the cleaning for the cereal mill. The machinery throughout the flour mill was installed by the Wm. and J. G. Grecy Co., Toronto, and is satisfactory in every particular. The perfect cleanliness of the mill has been much remarked upon. The entire interior has been whitewashed, and presents an appearance outrivalling "Spotless Town." An Otis-Fensom three-ton elevator has been placed in the mill, serving the purposes of both sections.

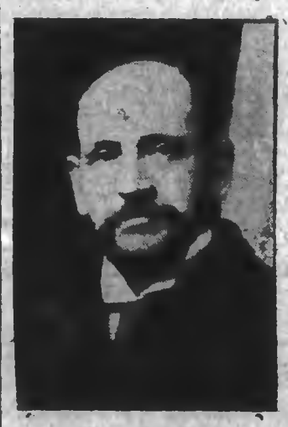
The Cereal Mill.

In the cereal manufacturing section of the mill, its perfect mechanism commands the admiration of the visitor. To follow the process of manufacture requires many trips from ground floor to attic, but the result more than repays the visitor for the labour.

From the top story, in which the wheat is thoroughly cleaned, it enters, upon the floor below, the galvanized iron soaking tanks by force of gravity. Upon the second floor are the steam cookers, which hold ten and twenty bushels, which are situated directly below the tanks. From here the wheat, when thoroughly cooked, enters a cooler, and thence into the cars, stationed below, upon the ground floor, where it is allowed to stand for 24 hours.

After this period, it is taken again to the top story by means of elevators, where it is placed in a "mixer."

Here is situated the laboratory, in which the different ingredients which are used in the "mixer" are prepared. After the "mixing" process is complete, the grain is placed in a hopper, from which it is conveyed to the third floor, where it is flaked.



MR. W. G. FERGUSON
President of Peterborough Cereal Company

The flakes drop upon the carrier belts, which convey them to the oven, which is in itself, a highly interesting piece of mechanism. Its dimensions are 28 feet long by 5 feet wide, and 13 feet high, and in it are six steel wire belts, totalling in length 2,000 feet, over which pass the flakes. The oven is heated by innumerable gas jets, re-inforced by steam coils.

The food thoroughly cooked, enters the box machine upon the ground floor, and with regard to the perfect cleanliness throughout the system, it may be interesting to mention that the product is not touched by hand from start to finish in the process.

The finished product enters a food bin, with a capacity of about 800 cases, and thence to the automatic filler, upon the third floor, where a staff of girls is busily engaged in boxing the product in the familiar packages. These each hold 19 ounces, one-third more than those of the other cereal package foods, and retail at 15 cents. A premium is inserted in each package, this at present being a silver spoon.

After the packages travel the length of a thirty foot table, with carrying belt, they are placed in cases ready for shipment, and removed to a store-room, which will accommodate 2,000 cases. About twenty girls will be employed in the boxing room. There are at present about thirty employees in the flour mill. This number will be increased to about one hundred.

The plans are being prepared for the addition of the buildings required for the manufacturing of the other cereals, which will include shredded vegetables of various kinds.

As an illustration of the popularity which "Canada Flakes" has already attained it may be mentioned that upon the initial trip of the travellers, made last week, every grocery in town placed an order.

Mr. J. D. Bardeau, of Detroit, Mich., the originator of the breakfast food idea, has been in town for a number of days, and pronounces the plant of the Peterborough Cereal Company to be the most modern in operation in any part of the continent. Mr. Bardeau placed a number of the leading cereal foods of the day upon the market, and holds at present 23 different patents upon food machines and processes. He is at present conducting an experimental plant in Detroit, Mich., and was for a long time connected with Dr. Kellogg's Sanatorium at Battle Creek, Mich.

The mill throughout is under the management of Mr. W. H. Meldrum, Mr. W. H. Collier taking charge of the mechanical arrangements.

CANADIAN ELKS HELP HOSPITALS

Giving Street Carnival for the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto.

The Canadian Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, of Toronto, are arranging a big carnival in Toronto next week the proceeds of which are to be placed at the disposal of the Toronto Sick Children's Hospital. The Mundy Shows have been secured for this carnival and will perform every evening next week.

The Mundy Shows are the highest class carnival attraction in the country, requiring 37 cars of two special trains to move from one town to another, and employing over 500 hands. A decided feature is that of the Mundy Trained Animal Show, containing over 100 lions, tigers, camels, bears, hyenas, pumas, leopards and panthers. The press and public have been unanimous in declaring this exhibition as the greatest extant.

There are twenty mammoth attractions in the great Mundy Shows besides the three special features, viz., Diavolo looping-the-loop, Holden's dive of 92 feet in five feet of water, and Chefailo leaping-the-gap 56 feet on a bicycle.

Low railway rates have been secured on the railways.

Canadian Commercial Binder Company

We insert the prospectus of a new Canadian industry in this issue. It is seldom the public are offered shares of a company of this kind, especially one with such a great future before it. This company will have the Canadian rights of the inventions of Dr. Goff. They comprise a machine which does away with twine for fastening packages, a new paper which is of wonderful tensile strength and stronger when wetted. This great discovery has created a profound sensation. The purposes to which this paper is adapted, such as air-tight, waterproof packages for meats, butter, fish, fruits, etc., also its resistance to damp, vermin, mice, microbes, and its cheapness, makes it possibly one of the most valuable discoveries of our day. Farmers will be glad to hear that the substance is also suitable for twine. Practical farmers have declared it superior to that in use. It can also be sold at a lower price than the cheapest binder twine now on the market. We bespeak for the company unbounded success. The directors are men of high standing and no doubt the shares will become very valuable. All agents and employees of the company must be shareholders, the company expecting to avoid labour troubles by this, we should say, splendid plan, making the company into a great industrial co-operative corporation. Those desiring a safe investment and a large interest on their money will perhaps never have a better opportunity than this offering of the Canadian Commercial Binder Company.

The Return of Sherlock Holmes

By A. CONAN DOYLE,

Author of "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," "The Hound of the Baskervilles," "The Sign of the Four," "A Study in Scarlet," Etc.

ILLUSTRATED BY F. D. STEELE

The Adventure of the Dancing Men

No. 3 of the Series

HOLMES had been seated for some hours in silence, with his long, thin back curved over a chemical vessel in which he was brewing a practicularly malodorous product. His head was sunk upon his breast, and he looked from my point of view like a strange, lank bird with dull gray plumage and a black topknot.

"So, Watson," said he suddenly, "you do not propose to invest in South African securities?"

I gave a start of astonishment. Accustomed as I was to Holmes' curious faculties, this sudden intrusion into my most intimate thoughts was utterly inexplicable.

"How on earth do you know that?" I asked.

He wheeled round upon his stool with a steaming test tube in his hand and a gleam of amusement in his deep set eyes.

"Now, Watson, confess yourself utterly taken aback," said he.

"I am."

"I ought to make you sign a paper to that effect."

"Why?"

"Because in five minutes you will say that it is all so absurdly simple."

"I am sure that I shall say nothing of the kind."

"You see, my dear Watson"—he propped his test tube in the rack and began to lecture with the air of a professor addressing his class—"it is not really difficult to construct a series of inferences, each dependent upon its predecessor and each simple in itself. If, after doing so, one simply knocks out all the central inferences and presents one's audience with the starting point and the conclusion, one may produce a startling though possibly a meretricious effect. Now, it was not really difficult by an inspection of the groove between your left forefinger and thumb to feel sure that you did not propose to invest your small capital in the gold fields."

"I see no connection."

"Very likely not, but I can quickly show you a close connection. Here are the missing links of the very simple chain: First, you had chalk between your left finger and thumb when you returned from the club last night; second, you put chalk there when you play billiards to steady the cue; third, you never play billiards except with Thurston; fourth, you told me four weeks ago that Thurston had an option on some South African property which would expire in a month and which he desired you to share with him; fifth, your check book is locked in my drawer, and you have not asked for the key; sixth, you do not propose to invest your money in this manner."

Copyright by Collier's Weekly.

"Well, Mr. Holmes, what do you make of these?"

"How absurdly simple!" I cried.

"Quite so," said he, a little nettled. "Every problem becomes very childish when once it is explained to you. Here is an unexplained one. See what you can make of that, friend Watson." He tossed a sheet of paper upon the table and turned once more to his chemical analysis.

I looked with amazement at the absurd hieroglyphics upon the paper.

"Why, Holmes, it is a child's drawing!" I cried.

"Oh, there's your idea!"

"What else should it be?"

"That is what Mr. Hilton Cubitt of Riding Thorpe Manor, Norfolk, is very anxious to know. This little conundrum came by the first post, and he was to follow by the next train. There's a ring at the bell, Watson. I should not be very much surprised if this were he."

A heavy step was heard upon the stairs, and an instant later there entered a tall, ruddy, clean shaven gentleman whose clear eyes and florid cheeks told of a life led far from the fogs of Baker street. He seemed to bring a whiff of his strong, fresh, bracing east coast air with him as he entered. Having shaken hands with each of us, he was about to sit down when his eye rested upon the paper with the curious markings which I had just examined and left upon the table.

"Well, Mr. Holmes, what do you make of these?" he cried. "They told me that you were fond of queer mysteries, and I don't think you can find a queerer one than that. I sent the paper on ahead, so that you might have time to study it before I came."

"It is certainly rather a curious production," said Holmes. "At first sight it would appear to be some childish prank. It consists of a number of absurd little figures dancing across the paper upon which they are drawn. Why should you attribute any importance to so grotesque an object?"

"I never should, Mr. Holmes, but my wife does. It is frightening her to death. She says nothing, but I can see terror in her eyes. That's why I want to sift the matter to the bottom."

Holmes held up the paper so that the sunlight shone full upon it. It was a page torn from a notebook. The markings were done in pencil and ran in this way:

Holmes examined it for some time, and then, folding it carefully up, he placed it in his pocketbook.

"This promises to be a most interesting and unusual case," said he. "You gave me a few particulars in your letter, Mr. Hilton Cubitt, but I should be very much obliged if you would kindly go over it all again for the benefit of my friend, Dr. Watson."

"I'm not much of a story teller," said our visitor, nervously clasping and unclasping his great, strong hands. "You will just ask me anything that I don't make clear. I'll begin at the time of my marriage last year, but I want to say first of all that, though I'm not a rich man, my people have been at Riding Thorpe for a matter of five centuries, and there is no better known family in the county of Norfolk. Last year I came up to London for the jubilee, and I stopped at a boarding house in Russell square, because Parker, the vicar of our parish, was staying in it.

"There was an American young lady there—Patrick was the name—Elsie Patrick. In some way we became friends, until before my month was up I was as much in love as man could be. We were quietly married at a registry office, and we returned to Norfolk a wedded couple. You'll think it very mad, Mr. Holmes, that a man of a good old family should marry a wife in this fashion, knowing nothing of her past or of her people, but if you saw her and knew her it would help you to understand.

"She was very straight about it, was Elsie. I can't say that she did not give me every chance of getting out of it if I wished to do so. 'I have had some very disagreeable associations in my life,' said she, 'I wish to forget all about them. I would rather never allude to the past, for it is very painful to me. If you take me, Hilton, you will take a woman who has nothing that she need be personally ashamed of, but you will have to be content with my word for it and to allow me to be silent as to all that passed up to the time when I became yours. If these conditions are too hard, then go back to Norfolk and leave me to the lonely life in which you found me.' It was only the day before our wedding that she said those very words to me. I told her that I was content to take her on her own terms, and I have been as good as my word.

"Well, we have been married now for a year, and very happy we have been. But about a month ago, at the end of June, I saw for the first time signs of trouble. One day my wife received a letter from America. I saw the American stamp. She turned deadly white, read the letter and threw it into the fire. She made no allusion to it afterward, and I made none, for a promise is a promise, but she has never known an easy hour from that moment. There is always a look of fear upon her face—a look as if she were waiting and expecting. She would do better to trust me. She would find that I was her best friend. But until she speaks I can say nothing. Mind you, she is a truthful woman, Mr. Holmes, and whatever trouble there may have been in her past life it has been no fault of hers. I am only a simple Norfolk squire, but there is not a man in England who ranks his family honor more highly than I do. She knows it well, and she knew it well before she married me. She would never bring any stain upon it; of that I am sure.

"Well, now I come to the queer part of my story. About a week ago—it was the Tuesday of last week—I found on one of the window sills a number of absurd little dancing figures like these upon the paper. They were scrawled with chalk. I thought that it was the stable boy who had drawn them, but the lad swore he knew nothing about it. Anyhow, they had come there during the night. I had them washed out, and I only mentioned the matter to my wife afterward. To my surprise she took it very seriously and begged me if any more came to let her see them. None did come for a week, and then yesterday morning I found this paper lying on the sundial in the garden. I showed it to Elsie, and down she dropped in a dead faint. Since then she has looked like a woman in a dream, half dazed and with terror always lurking in her eyes. It was then that I wrote and sent the paper to you, Mr. Holmes. It was not a thing that I could take to the police, for they would have laughed at me, but you will tell me what to do. I am not a rich man, but if there is any danger threatening my little woman I would spend my last copper to shield her."

He was a fine creature, this man of the old English soil—simple, straight and gentle, with his great, earnest blue eyes and broad, comely face. His love for his wife and his trust in her shone in his features. Holmes had listened to his story with the utmost attention, and now he sat for some time in silent thought.

"Don't you think, Mr. Cubitt," said he at last, "that your best plan would be to make a direct appeal to your wife and to ask her to share her secret with you?"

Hilton Cubitt shook his massive head.

"A promise is a promise, Mr. Holmes. If Elsie wished to tell me she would. If not, it is not for me to force her confidence. But I am justified in taking my own line—and I will."

"Then I will help you with all my heart. In the first place, have you heard of any strangers being seen in your neighborhood?"

"No."

"I presume that it is a very quiet place. Any fresh face would cause comment?"

"In the immediate neighborhood, yes. But we have several small watering places not very far away. And the farmers take in lodgers."

"These hieroglyphics have evidently a meaning. If it is a purely arbitrary one it may be impossible for us to solve it. If, on the other hand, it is systematic, I have no doubt that we shall get to the bottom of it. But this particular sample is so short that I can do nothing, and the facts which you have brought me are so indefinite that we have no basis for an investigation. I would suggest that you return to Norfolk, that you keep a keen lookout and that you take an exact copy of any fresh dancing men which may appear. It is a thousand pities that we have not a reproduction of those which were done in chalk upon the window sill. Make a discreet inquiry also as to any strangers in the neighborhood. When you have collected some fresh evidence come to me again. That is the best advice which I can give you, Mr. Hilton Cubitt. If there are any pressing fresh developments I shall be always ready to run down and see you in your Norfolk home."

The interview left Sherlock Holmes very thoughtful, and several times in the next few days I saw him take his slip of paper from his notebook and look long and earnestly at the curious figures inscribed upon it. He made no allusion to the affair, however, until one afternoon a fortnight or so later. I was going out when he called me back.

"You had better stay here, Watson."

"Why?"

"Because I had a wire from Hilton Cubitt this morning. You remember Hilton Cubitt of the dancing men? He was to reach Liverpool street at 1:20. He may be here at any moment. I gather from his wire that there have been some new incidents of importance."

We had not long to wait, for our Norfolk squire came straight from the station as fast as a hansom could bring him. He was looking worried and depressed, with tired eyes and a lined forehead.

"It's getting on my nerves, this business, Mr. Holmes," said he as he sank, like a wearied man, into an armchair. "It's bad enough to feel that you are surrounded by unseen, unknown folk, who have some kind of design upon you, but when, in addition to that, you know that it is just killing your wife by inches, then it becomes as much as flesh and blood can endure. She's wearing away under it—just wearing away before my eyes."

"Has she said anything yet?"

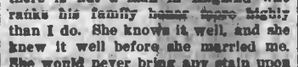
"No, Mr. Holmes, she has not. And yet there have been times when the poor girl has wanted to speak and yet could not quite bring herself to take the plunge. I have tried to help her, but I dare say I did it clumsily and scared her from it. She has spoken about my old family and our reputation in the county and our pride in our unsullied honor, and I always felt it was leading to the point, but somehow it turned off before we got there."

"But you have found out something for yourself?"

"A good deal, Mr. Holmes. I have several fresh dancing men pictures for you to examine, and, what is more important, I have seen the fellow."

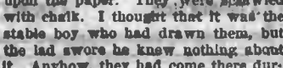
"What—the man who draws them?"

"Yes; I saw him at work. But I will tell you everything in order. When I got back after my visit to you the very first thing I saw next morning was a fresh crop of dancing men. They had been drawn in chalk upon the black wooden door of the tool house, which stands beside the lawn in full view of the front windows. I took an exact copy, and here it is." He unfolded a paper and laid it upon the table. Here is a copy of the hieroglyphics:



"Excellent!" said Holmes. "Excellent! Pray continue."

"When I had taken the copy I rubbed out the marks, but two mornings later a fresh inscription had appeared. I have a copy of it here:"



Holmes rubbed his hands and chuckled with delight.

"Our material is rapidly accumulating," said he.

"Three days later a message was left scrawled upon paper and placed under a pebble upon the sundial. Here it is. The characters are, as you see, exactly the same as the last one. After that I determined to lie in wait, so I got out my revolver, and I sat up in my study, which overlooks the lawn and garden. About 2 in the morning I was seated by the window, all being dark save for the moonlight outside, when I heard steps behind me, and there was my wife in her dressing gown. She implored me to come to bed. I told her frankly that I wished to see who it was who played such absurd tricks upon us. She answered that it was some senseless practical joke and that I should not take any notice of it.

"'If it really annoys you, Hilton, we might go and travel, you and I, and so avoid this nuisance.'

"'What, be driven out of our own house by a practical joker?' said I. 'Why, we should have the whole county laughing at us.'

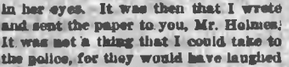
"'Well, come to bed,' said she, 'and we can discuss it in the morning.'

"Suddenly, as she spoke, I saw her white face grow whiter yet in the moonlight, and her hand tightened upon my shoulder. Something was moving in the shadow of the toolhouse. I saw a dark, creeping figure which crawled round the corner and squatted in front of the door. Seizing my pistol, I was rushing out when my wife threw her arms round me and held me with convulsive strength. I tried to throw her off, but she clung to me most desperately. At last I got clear, but by the time I had opened the door and reached the house the creature was gone. He had left a trace of his presence, however, for there on the door was the very same arrangement of dancing men which had already twice appeared and which I have copied on that paper. There was no other sign of the fellow anywhere, though I ran all over the grounds. And yet the amazing thing is that he must have been there all the time, for when I examined the door again in the morning he had scrawled some more of his pictures under the line which I had already seen."

"Have you that fresh drawing?"

"Yes, it is very short, but I made a copy of it, and here it is."

Again he produced a paper. The new dance was in this form:



"Tell me," said Holmes—and I could see by his eyes that he was much excited—"was this a mere addition to the first, or did it appear to be entirely separate?"

"It was on a different panel of the door."

"Excellent! This is far the most important of all for our purpose. It fills me with hopes. Now, Mr. Hilton Cubitt, please continue your most interesting statement."

"I have nothing more to say, Mr. Holmes, except that I was angry with my wife that night for having held me back when I might have caught the skulking rascal. She said that she feared that I might come to harm. For an instant it had crossed my mind that perhaps what she really feared was that he might come to harm, for I could not doubt that she knew who this man was and what he meant by these strange signals. But there is a tone in my wife's voice, Mr. Holmes, and a look in her eyes which forbid doubt, and I am sure that it was indeed my own safety that was in her mind. There's the whole case, and now I want your advice as to what I ought to do. My own inclination is to put half a dozen of my farm lads in the shrubbery and when this fellow comes again to give him such a hiding that he will leave us in peace for the future."

"I fear it is too deep a case for such simple remedies," said Holmes. "How long can you stay in London?"

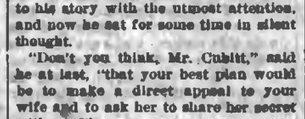
"I must go back today. I would not leave my wife alone at night for anything. She is very nervous and begged me to come back."

"I dare say you are right. But if you could have stopped I might possibly have been able to return with you in a day or two. Meanwhile you will leave me these papers, and I think that it is very likely that I shall be able to pay you a visit shortly and to throw some light upon your case."

Sherlock Holmes preserved his calm professional manner until our visitor had left us, although it was easy for me, who knew him so well, to see that he was profoundly excited. The moment that Hilton Cubitt's broad back had disappeared through the door my comrade rushed to the table, laid out all the slips of paper containing dancing men in front of him and threw himself into an intricate and elaborate calculation. For two hours I watched him as he covered sheet after sheet of paper with figures and letters, so completely absorbed in his task that he had evidently forgotten my presence. Sometimes he was making progress and whistled and sang at his work. Sometimes he was puzzled and would sit for long spells with a furrowed brow and a vacant eye. Finally he sprang from his chair with a cry of satisfaction and walked up and down the room rubbing his hands together. Then he wrote a long telegram upon a cable form. "If my answer to this is as I hope, you will have a very pretty case to add to your collection, Watson," said he. "I expect that we shall be able to go down to Norfolk tomorrow and to take our friend some very definite news as to the secret of his annoyance."

I confess that I was filled with curiosity, but I was aware that Holmes liked to make his disclosures at his own time and in his own way, so I waited until it should suit him to take me into his confidence.

But there was a delay in that answering telegram, and two days of impatience followed, during which Holmes pricked up his ears at every ring of the bell. On the evening of the second there came a letter from Hilton Cubitt. All was quiet with him, save that a long inscription had appeared that morning upon the pedestal of the sundial. He inclosed a copy of it, which is here reproduced:



Holmes bent over this grotesque frieze for some minutes and then suddenly sprang to his feet, with an exclamation of surprise and dismay. His face was haggard with anxiety.

"We have let this affair go far enough," said he. "Is there a train to North Walsham tonight?"

I turned up the time table. The last had just gone.

"Then we shall breakfast early and take the very first in the morning," said Holmes. "Our presence is most urgently needed. Ah, here is our expected cablegram. One moment, Mrs. Hudson; there may be an answer. No, that is quite as I expected. This message makes it even more essential that we should not lose an hour in letting Hilton Cubitt know how matters stand, for it is a singular and a dangerous web in which our simple Norfolk squire is entangled."

So indeed it proved, and as I come to the dark conclusion of a story which had seemed to me to be only childish and bizarre I experience once again the dismay and horror with which I was filled. Would that I had some brighter ending to communicate to my readers, but these are the chronicles of fact, and I must follow to their dark crisis the strange chain of events which for some days made Riding Thorpe Manor a household word through the length and breadth of England.

We had hardly alighted at North Walsham and mentioned the name of our destination when the station master hurried toward us. "I suppose that you are the detectives from London?" said he.

A look of annoyance passed over Holmes' face.

"What makes you think such a thing?"

"Because Inspector Martin from Norwich has just passed through. But maybe you are the surgeons. She's not dead, or wasn't by last accounts. You may be in time to save her yet, though it be for the gallows."

Holmes' brow was dark with anxiety.

"We are going to Riding Thorpe Manor," said he, "but we have heard nothing of what has passed there."

"It's a terrible business," said the station master. "They are shot, both Mr. Hilton Cubitt and his wife. She shot him and then herself, so the servants say. He's dead and her life is despaired of. Dear, dear, one of the oldest families in the county of Norfolk and one of the most honored!"

Without a word Holmes hurried to a carriage, and during the long seven mile drive he never opened his mouth. Seldom have I seen him so utterly despondent. He had been uneasy during all our journey from town, and I had observed that he had turned over the morning papers with anxious attention, but now this sudden realization of his worst fears left him in a blank melancholy. He leaned back in his seat, lost in gloomy speculation. Yet there was much around to interest us, for we were passing through as singular a countryside as any in England, where a few scattered cottages represented the population of today, while on every hand enormous square towered churches bristled up from the flat, green landscape and told of the glory and prosperity of old East Anglia. At last the violet rim of the German ocean appeared over the green edge of the Norfolk coast, and the driver pointed with his whip to two old brick and timber gables which projected from a grove of trees. "That's Riding Thorpe Manor," said he.

As we drove up to the porticoed front door I observed in front of it, beside the tennis lawn, the black tool house and the pedestaled sundial with which we had such strange associations. A dapper little man, with a quick, alert manner and a waxed mustache, had just descended from a high dogcart. He introduced himself as Inspector Martin of the Norfolk constabulary, and he was considerably astonished when he heard the name of my companion.

"Why, Mr. Holmes, the crime was only committed at 3 this morning. How could you hear of it in London and get to the spot as soon as I?"

"I anticipated it. I came in the hope of preventing it."

"Then you must have important evidence of which we are ignorant, for they were said to be a most united couple."

"I have only the evidence of the dancing men," said Holmes. "I will explain the matter to you later. Meanwhile, since it is too late to prevent this tragedy, I am very anxious that I should use the knowledge which I possess in order to insure that justice be done. Will you associate me in your investigation or will you prefer that I should act independently?"

"I should be proud to feel that we were acting together, Mr. Holmes," said the inspector earnestly.

"In that case I should be glad to hear the evidence and to examine the premises without an instant of unnecessary delay."

Inspector Martin had the good sense to allow my friend to do things in his own fashion and contented himself with carefully noting the results. The local surgeon, an old, white haired man, had just come down from Mrs. Hilton Cubitt's room, and he reported that her injuries were serious, but not necessarily fatal. The bullet had passed through the front of her brain, and it would probably be some time before she could regain consciousness. On the question of whether she had been shot or had shot herself he would not venture to express any decided opinion. Certainly the bullet had been discharged at very close quarters. There was only the one pistol found in the room, two barrels of which had been emptied. Mr. Hilton Cubitt had been shot through the heart. It was equally conceivable that he had shot her and then himself or that she had been the criminal, for the revolver lay upon the floor midway between them.

"Has he been moved?" asked Holmes.

"We have moved nothing except the lady. We could not leave her lying wounded upon the floor."

"How long have you been here, doctor?"

"Since 4 o'clock."

"Any one else?"

"Yes, the constable here."

"And you have touched nothing?"

"Nothing."

"You have acted with great discretion. Who sent for you?"

"The housemaid, Saunders."

"Was it she who gave the alarm?"

"She and Mrs. King, the cook."

"Where are they now?"

"In the kitchen, I believe."

"Then I think we had better hear their story at once."

The old hall, oak paneled and high windowed, had been turned into a court of investigation. Holmes sat in a great, old fashioned chair, his inscrutable eyes gleaming out of his haggard face. I could read in them a set purpose to devote his life to the quest until the silent whom he had failed to save should at last be avenged. The trim inspector Martin, the old, gray headed country doctor, myself and a stolid village policeman made up the rest of that strange tribunal.

The two women told their story clearly enough. They had been aroused from their sleep by the sound of an explosion, which must have followed a minute later by the second one. They slept in adjoining rooms, and Mrs. King had rushed in to Saunders. Together they had descended the stairs. The door of the study was open, and a candle was burning upon the table. Their master lay upon his face in the center of the room. He was quite dead. Near the window his wife was crouching, her head leaning against the wall. She was horribly wounded, and the side of her face was red with blood. She breathed heavily, but was incapable of saying anything. The passage as well as the room was full of smoke and the smell of powder. The window was certainly shut and fastened upon the inside. Both women were positive upon the point. They had at once sent for the doctor and for the constable. Then, with the aid of the groom and the stable boy, they had conveyed their injured mistress to her room. Both she and her husband had occupied the bed. She was clad in her dress, he in his night clothes. Both

By A. CONAN DOYLE,

Author of "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," "The Hound of the Baskervilles," "The Sign of the Four," "A Study in Scarlet," Etc.

ing had been moved in the study. So far as they knew, there had never been any quarrel between husband and wife. They had always looked upon them as a very united couple.

These were the main points of the servants' evidence. In answer to Inspector Martin they were clear that every door was fastened upon the inside and that no one could have escaped from the house. In answer to Holmes they both remembered that they were conscious of the smell of powder from the moment that they ran out of their rooms upon the top floor. "I commend that fact very carefully to your attention," said Holmes to his professional colleague. "And now I think that we are in a position to undertake a thorough examination of the room."

The study proved to be a small chamber lined on three sides with books and with a writing table facing an ordinary window, which looked out upon the garden. Our first attention was given to the body of the unfortunate squire, whose huge frame lay stretched across the room. His disordered dress showed that he had been hastily aroused from sleep. The bullet had been fired at him from the front and had remained in his body after penetrating the heart. His death had certainly been instantaneous and painless. There was no powder marking either upon his dressing gown or on his hands. According to the country surgeon, the lady had stains upon her face, but none upon her hand.

"The absence of the latter means nothing, though its presence may mean everything," said Holmes. "Unless the powder from a badly fitting cartridge happens to spurt backward one may fire many shots without leaving a sign. I would suggest that Mr. Cubitt's body may now be removed. I suppose, doctor, you have not recovered the bullet which wounded the lady?"

"A serious operation will be necessary before that can be done. But there are still four cartridges in the revolver. Two have been fired and two wounds inflicted, so that each bullet can be accounted for."

"So it would seem," said Holmes. "Perhaps you can account also for the bullet which has so obviously struck the edge of the window?"

He had turned suddenly, and his long, thin finger was pointing to a hole which had been drilled right through the lower window sash about an inch above the bottom.

"By George!" cried the inspector. "How ever did you see that?"

"Because I looked for it."

"Wonderful!" said the country doctor. "You are certainly right, sir. Then a third shot has been fired, and therefore a third person must have been present. But who could that have been and how could he have got away?"

"That is the problem which we are now about to solve," said Sherlock Holmes. "You remember, Inspector Martin, when the servants said that on leaving their room they were at once conscious of a smell of powder I remarked that the point was an extremely important one?"

"Yes, sir; but I confess I did not quite follow you."

"It suggested that at the time of the firing the window as well as the door of the room had been open. Otherwise the fumes of powder could not have been blown so rapidly through the house. A draft in the room was necessary for that. Both door and window were only open for a very short time, however."

"How do you prove that?"

"Because the candle was not guttered."

"Capital!" cried the inspector. "Capital!"

"Feeling sure that the window had been open at the time of the tragedy, I conceived that there might have been a third person in the affair, who stood outside this opening and fired through it. Any shot directed at this person might hit the sash. I looked, and there, sure enough, was the bullet mark!"

"But how came the window to be shut and fastened?"

"The woman's first instinct would be to shut and fasten the window. But, hello! What is this?"

It was a lady's hand bag which stood upon the study table—a trim little hand bag of crocodile skin and silver. Holmes opened it and turned the contents out. There were twenty fifty pound notes of the Bank of England, held together by an india rubber band—nothing else.

"This must be preserved, for it will figure in the trial," said Holmes as he handed the bag with its contents to the inspector. "It is now necessary that we should try to throw some light upon this third bullet, which has clearly, from the splintering of the wood, been fired from inside the room. I should like to see Mrs. King, the cook, again. You said, Mrs. King, that you were awakened by a loud explosion. When you said that did you mean that it seemed to you to be louder than the second one?"

"Well, sir, it wakened me from my sleep, and so it is hard to judge. But it did seem very loud."

"You don't think that it might have been two shots fired almost at the same instant?"

"I am sure I couldn't say, sir."

"I believe that it was undoubtedly so. I rather think, Inspector Martin, that we have now exhausted all that this room can teach us. If you will kindly step round with me, we shall see what fresh evidence the garden has to offer."

A flower bed extended up to the study window, and we all broke into an exclamation as we approached it. The flowers were trampled down, and the soft soil was imprinted all over with footmarks. Large, masculine feet they were, with peculiarly long, sharp toes. Holmes hunted about among the grass and leaves like a retriever after a wounded bird. Then, with a cry of satisfaction, he bent forward and picked up a little brasen cylinder.

"I thought so," said he. "The revolver had an ejector, and here is the third cartridge. I really think, Inspector Martin, that our case is almost complete."

The country inspector's face had shown his intense amusement at the rapid and masterful progress of Holmes' investigation. At first he had shown some disposition to assert his own position, but now he was overcome with admiration and ready to follow without question wherever Holmes led.

"Whom do you suspect?" he asked.

"I'll go into that later. There are several points in this problem which I have not been able to explain to you yet. Now that I have got so far I had best proceed on my own lines and then clear the whole matter up once and for all."

"Just as you wish, Mr. Holmes, so long as we get our man."

"I have no desire to make mysteries, but it is impossible at the moment of action to enter into long and complex explanations. I have the threads of this affair all in my hand. Even if this lady should never recover consciousness we can still reconstruct the events of last night and insure that justice be done. First of all, I wish to know whether there is any inn in this neighborhood known as Elrige's?"

The servants were cross questioned, but none of them had heard of such a place. The stable boy threw a light upon the matter by remembering that a farmer of that name lived some miles off in the direction of East Ruston.

"Is it a lonely farm?"

"Very lonely, sir."

"Perhaps they have not heard yet of all that happened here during the night?"

"Maybe not, sir."

Holmes thought for a little, and then a curious smile played over his face.

"Saddle a horse, my lad," said he. "I shall wish you to take a note to Elrige's farm."

He took from his pocket the various slips of the dancing men. With these in front of him he worked for some time at the study table. Finally he handed a note to the boy, with directions to put it into the hands of the person to whom it was addressed, and especially to answer no questions of any sort which might be put to him. I saw the outside of the note, addressed in straggling, irregular characters, very unlike Holmes' usual precise hand. It was consigned to Mr. Abe Slaney, Elrige's farm, East Ruston, Norfolk.

"I think, inspector," Holmes remarked, "that you would do well to telegraph for an escort, as, if my calculations prove to be correct, you may have a particularly dangerous prisoner to convey to the county jail. The boy who takes this note could no doubt forward your telegram. If there is an afternoon train to town, Watson, I think we should do well to take it, as I have a chemical analysis of some interest to finish, and this investigation draws rapidly to a close."

He sank with a deep groan on to the settee.

When the youth had been dispatched with the note, Sherlock Holmes gave his instructions to the servants. If any visitor were to call, asking for Mrs. Hilton Cubitt, no information should be given as to her condition, but he was to be shown at once into the drawing room. He impressed these points upon them with the utmost earnestness. Finally he led the way into the drawing room, with the remark that the business was now out of our hands and that we must while away the time as best we might until we could see what was in store for us. The doctor had departed to his patients, and only the inspector and myself remained.

"I think that I can help you to pass an hour in an interesting and profitable manner," said Holmes, drawing his chair up to the table and spreading out in front of him the various papers upon which were recorded the antics of the dancing men. "As to you, friend Watson, I owe you every atonement for having allowed your natural curiosity to remain so long unsatisfied. To you, inspector, the whole incident may appeal as a remarkable professional study. I must tell you, first of all, the interesting circumstances connected with the previous consultations which Mr. Hilton Cubitt has had with me in Baker street." He then shortly recapitulated the facts which have already been recorded. "I have here in front of me these singular productions, at which one might smile had they not proved themselves to be the forerunners of so terrible a tragedy. I am fairly familiar with all forms of secret writings and am myself the author of a trifling monograph upon the subject, in which I analyze 160 separate ciphers, but I confess that this is entirely new to me. The object of those who invented the system has apparently been to conceal that these characters convey a message and to give the idea that they are the mere random sketches of children.

"Having once recognized, however, that the symbols stood for letters, and having applied the rules which guide us in all forms of secret writings, the solution was easy enough. The first message submitted to me was so short that it was impossible for me to do more than to say with some confidence that the symbol ⅄ stood for E. As you are aware, E is the most common letter in the English alphabet, and it predominates to so marked an extent that even in a short sentence one would expect to find it most often. Out of fifteen symbols in the first message four were the same, so it was reasonable to set this down as E. It is true that in some cases the figure was bearing a flag and in some cases not, but it was probable, from the way in which the flags were distributed, that they were used to break the sentence up into words. I accepted this as a hypothesis and noted that E was represented by ⅄.

"But now came the real difficulty of the inquiry. The order of the English letters after E is by no means well marked, and any preponderance which may be shown in an average of a printed sheet may be reversed in a single short sentence. Speaking roughly, T, A, O, I, N, S, H, R, D and L are the numerical order in which these letters occur, but T, A, O and I are very nearly abreast of each other, and it would be an endless task to try each combination until a meaning was arrived at. I therefore waited for fresh material. In my second interview with Mr. Hilton Cubitt he was able to give me two other short sentences and one message, which appeared, since there was no flag, to be a single word. Here are the symbols. Now, in the single word I have already got the two E's coming second and fourth in a word of five letters. It might be 'sever' or 'lever' or 'never.' There can be no question that the latter as a reply to an appeal is far the most probable, and the circumstances pointed to its being a reply written by the lady. Accepting it as correct, we are now able to say that the symbols stand respectively for N, V and R.

"Even now I was in considerable difficulty, but a happy thought put me in possession of several other letters. It occurred to me that if these appeals came, as I expected, from some one who had been intimate with the lady in her early life a combination which contained two E's with three letters between might very well stand for the name 'ELSIE.' On examination I found that such a combination formed the termination of the message, which was three times repeated. It was certainly some appeal to 'Elsie.' In this way I had got my L, S and I. But what appeal could it be? There were only four letters in the word which preceded 'Elsie,' and it ended in E. Surely the word must be 'COME.' I tried all other four letters ending in E, but could find none to fit the case. So now I was in possession of C, O and M, and I was in a position to attack the first message once more, dividing it into words and putting dots for each symbol which was still unknown. So treated it worked out in this fashion:

M . ERE . . E SL . NE .

"Now, the first letter can only be A, which is a most useful discovery, since it occurs no fewer than three times in this short sentence, and the H is also apparent in the second word. Now it becomes:

AM HERE A . E SLANE .

Or, filling in the obvious vacancies in the name:

AM HERE ABE SLANEY.

I had so many letters now that I could proceed with considerable confidence to the second message, which worked out in this fashion:

A . ELRI . ES.

Here I could only make sense by putting T and G for the missing letters and supposing that the name was that of some house or inn at which the writer was staying."

Inspector Martin and I had listened with the utmost interest to the full and clear account of how my friend had produced results which had led to so complete a command over our difficulties.

"What did you do then, sir?" asked the inspector.

Copyright by Collier's Weekly.

"I GUESS THE VERY BEST CASE I CAN MAKE FOR MYSELF IS THE ABSOLUTE NAKED TRUTH."

"I had every reason to suppose that this Abe Slaney was an American, since Abe is an American contraction and since a letter from America had been the starting point of all the trouble. I had also every cause to think that there was some criminal secret in the matter. The lady's allusions to her past and her refusal to take her husband into her confidence both pointed in that direction. I therefore cabled to my friend, Wilson Hargreave of the New York police bureau, who has more than once made use of my knowledge of London crime. I asked him whether the name of Abe Slaney was known to him. Here is the reply: 'The most dangerous crook in Chicago.' On the very evening upon which I had his answer Hilton Cubitt sent me the last message from Slaney. Working with known letters, it took this form:

ELSIE . RE . ARE TO MEET THY GO .

The addition of a P and a D completed a message which showed me that the rascal was proceeding from persuasion to threats, and my knowledge of the crooks of Chicago prepared me to find that he might very rapidly put his words into action. I at once came to Norfolk with my friend and colleague, Dr. Watson, but, unhappily, only in time to find that the worst had already occurred."

"It is a privilege to be associated with you in the handling of a case," said the inspector warmly. "You will excuse me, however, if I speak frankly

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

Vacation Time. Vacation time should bring rest, recreation and comfort; and comfort of the solid and pleasing variety means no high collar, no stiff hat and no—itching scalp. It is for this last discomfort that Newbro's Herpicide becomes a summer necessity, as it stops itching of the scalp and prickly heat almost instantly. Take Herpicide with you on your vacation.

Scalp Warning. Itching of the scalp is not so much a punishment for past neglect as it is a warning for the future. It shows, almost conclusively, that the vine-like, microbic growth that causes dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair has entered the Sebaceous glands and unless this growth is stopped and kept out of the scalp, baldness will follow.

Dandruff is Contagious. The discovery by Prof. Unna (ask your doctor about him) that dandruff is a highly contagious disease, is now recognized by dermatologists everywhere. This important discovery, not only proves the worthlessness of "Hair growers," but it offers an opportunity for scientific hair preservation, in the use of Newbro's Herpicide, the original remedy that "kills the dandruff germ."

Will Not Grow Hair. Newbro's Herpicide is a "Hair-Saver"; it will not grow hair—nature does this—but by destroying the enemies of hair health, it enables to grow as nature intended—except in chronic baldness. Save your hair with herpicide. Wonderful results follow its use.

Hot Weather Troubles. During hot weather the minute sudatory glands are called upon to perform an extra amount of labor. The perspiration that exudes in increased quantities must be handled promptly as it carries out poisonous and refuse matter that would otherwise clog up the pores of the scalp. Incomplete elimination of refuse matter produces a hot and feverish condition of the scalp, familiarly known as Prickly Heat, for which Herpicide gives immediate relief. Ladies will find Herpicide indispensible. It contains no grease, will not stain or dye. It is an exquisite hair dressing that Cools, Comforts and Delights.

A Strong Letter

I desire to make a statement to you concerning the benefits I have received from the patient and careful use of Newbro's Herpicide. It has entirely rid my head of dandruff and has stopped the itching of the scalp. New hairs are appearing from the roots that were apparently dead. I gladly recommend Herpicide to any one threatened with baldness from a diseased scalp.

ONE BOX OF DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS CURED DROPSY.

Dropsy is not a disease in itself, as many people believe, but is an evidence of very severe kidney trouble. Dropsy is caused by watery particles oozing through the walls of the arteries when they are distended by unusual pressure, which can only be caused by obstructions in the kidneys. The symptoms of Dropsy are puffiness under the eyes, swelling of the feet and ankles, urine changed in character and appearance, smothering feeling from exertion or excitement. The only rational method of treating this disease is to reach the kidneys and restore them to a healthy condition.

The most successful remedy for this purpose is Doan's Kidney Pills. Read what Miss Agnes Creelman, Upper Smithville, N.S., says of them:—"I caught a cold, which settled in my kidneys, and turned to dropsy. My face, limbs, and feet became bloated, and if I pressed my finger on them it would make a white impression that would last fully a minute before the flesh regained its natural color. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and found by their use that I was cured in a very short time. I have never had any trouble with it since.

OBSTRUCTIONS TO THE STREETS

Norwood Council Orders Poles to Be Removed.

Method of Paying for Laying Concrete Walks—Council Meeting.

From Our Own Correspondent.

A special meeting of the Norwood council was held Monday evening, at 8 o'clock, pursuant to the call of John Reeve for the purpose of providing means for payment of wages of men employed on construction of concrete walks; to take action to have telephone poles, balcony posts and other obstructions on Peterborough and Colborne streets removed; decide upon width concrete walks on Peterborough and Colborne street; also to consider street watering by-law.

The members present were, Mr. C. E. Fakenham, Reeve A. E. Greenbank, W. J. Webster, S. W. Squires and C. Elliott, Councillors.

The following accounts were laid before the Council.

W. Maxwell, work, concrete walk $6.25
Geo. Peters, teaming, ... 8.40
J. Graham, work, concrete walk 6.70
W. Taylor, " " " 2.25
J. Anderson, " " " .75
C. Hudgins, " " " 1.80
D. Hurley, 1000 feet of plank " 18.00

Moved by Co. Webster, seconded by Co. Elliott, that the accounts as read be paid and orders issued for same and that in future the Council meet weekly and pass accounts for building concrete walks.—Carried.

Moved by Co. Webster, seconded by Co. Elliott, that the clerk notify the agents of the telephone and telegraph companies and the owners of other property obstructing the streets to have same removed at once, also owners of McGregor House properly to have cellarway on Peterborough street closed up.—Carried.

A petition signed by 30 property owners and tenants, asking to have the street watering by-law repealed, was laid before the Council.

On motion of Co. Elliott, seconded by Co. Squire, consideration of this petition was deferred until next regular meeting.

A petition signed by property owners and occupants on Peterborough street was laid before the Council asking that the concret walk from Mr. E. P. Cuffe's store on north side and Mr. C. Elliott's residence on the south side of the above street to the junction on Colborne street, be not less than 8 feet wide.

Moved by Co. Squire, seconded by Co. A. B. Greenbank, that the petition be received and that the concrete walk within the limit above described be 8 feet wide, also that the concrete walk on west side of Colborne street be same width.

The motion was lost.

Councillor Squire asked that the yeas and nays be recorded which were as follows: Yeas—S. W. Squire, A. B. Greenbank, W. J. Webster, C. E. Fakenham.

Movedby Co. Squire, seconded by Co. Greenbank, that the concrete walks on Peterborough and Colborne streets be laid a uniform width.

Motion lost.

Yeas—Messrs. Squire and Greenbank.

Nays—Messrs. Elliott, Webster and Fakenham.

Moved by Co. Elliott, seconded by Co. Webster, that the concrete walks from the Union Bank of Colborne street on south side, and from Messrs Buck and McLean's factory on Peterboro' House corner on north side of Peterborough street by 7 feet wide, and from corner at Messrs. Kirkpatrick & Buck's store to King's Hotel crossing on Colborne street, 8 feet wide. The motion was carried on same vote as above.

Moved by Co. Webster, seconded by Co. Elliott, that this Council adjourn until next Monday evening.—Carried.

A WONDERFUL CURE OF RHEUMATISM

THE CAUSE An excess of uric acid and ureates are deposited in the tissues of the body and joints, causing aches and pains which are called rheumatic.

All the various causes of rheumatism, such as the acute, articular, muscular and gout, have the same common cause—Uric Acid.

To effect a satisfactory cure the uric acid must be removed. This can only be done by introducing into the circulation a remedy which will dissolve the uric acid and stimulate the action of the excretory organs.

No Case That Ferrozone Can't Cure

The remarkable success of Ferrozone is due to the fact that it attacks the disease in the blood. It goes right to the root and cause of the trouble.

Ferrozone is a perfect solvent for uric acid and quickly destroys its evil effect. It stimulates and quickens the sluggish circulation and drives every trace of rheumatic poison out of the system.

Rheumatism Can't Last If FERROZONE is Used.

We have conclusive proof of this. The strongest possible endorsements from people who have been cured after all else failed. If you suffer from rheumatism yourself, or in case you have a friend or relative subject to this disease, read the following—they tell their own tale.

LIFE-LONG CRIPPLE CURED

Mr. Louis Noll, 15 Fulton street, New York, N. Y., writes: "Ever since boyhood I have been a sufferer from rheumatism. My joints were twisted and swollen, and the pain at times was really intense. I used gallons of liniments, vapor baths, and other treatments, but was first noticeably relieved by Ferrozone. It cured me perfectly after taking twelve boxes."

Mr. Henry Heer, Pharmacist, 23 Eldridge Ave., New York, vouches for Mr. Noll's absolute cure. He says: "Mr. Noll has been freed from chronic rheumatism by Ferrozone. For years he has not been so well, and today shows no signs of rheumatic trouble. It is a pleasure to recommend Ferrozone."

The BEST remedy for rheumatism that science has produced is Ferrozone—it is unquestionably the only sure and lasting cure. Sold everywhere by druggists. Price 50c per box or six boxes for $2.50—by mail to any address if price is forwarded to N. C. POLSON & CO., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U.S.A.

FERROZONE, THE ONE SURE CURE.

EDUCATION IN ONTARIO.

Minister's Annual Report — Sketches Out Policy of Government.

The report of the Minister of Education has appeared. Dr. Pyne seems to foreshadow the appointment of a Director of Education for the Province, in a paragraph which says:

"Education is, however, so special a subject that no Minister would claim to be an expert therein, and therefore a comprehensive educational scheme for any State needs to be shaped as regards its general technique and details by a well-directed and far-sighted policy of development. This must proceed from some individual having a commanding knowledge of modern education, and of modern educational method. In the nature of things a Minister cannot devote sufficient time to become an educational expert of the highest order himself, nor is that his appropriate function, either here or elsewhere, so that although the Minister must ever control the great question of departmental policy which represent the decisions of the State as regards the whole issue, the realization of the educational system requires that the chief administrator shall be really director of education."

School children will say amen to the following, which eliminates home work by evolution:

"It would seem, however, as the present movement toward a unification of the interests of the home and school go forward that the school, directly, will furnish less rather than more home work for the children. If the school properly performs its function of giving the pupil a day filled with educative work, it is difficult to see why it ought still to pursue him into the period that he should have for recreation, or into the hours when he would better be asleep."

In regard to the dearth of teachers the report says:—"It is clear the teaching profession does not furnish inducements sufficiently tempting to warrant young persons in incurring the expense necessary to become qualified. The salaries paid, though slightly in advance of some previous years are exceedingly low when compared with what is paid to persons in other callings of life."

It appears that this year the number holding first-class certificates in our public and separate schools is only 613. The number holding second-class certificates 3,976. There are 2,982 holding third-class certificates; 844 holding extensions or renewals of third-class certificates; 56 are teaching on old country Board certificates. There remain 535 who hold only district certificates, and 336 holding only temporary certificates. Four hundred and twenty-two appear not to hold any legal certificates of qualifications. These, however, are mostly teaching in separate schools, and will doubtless soon qualify, in view of the recent decisions of the court. The certificates of 170 are not reported.

From these figures it is clear a great many children in our public and separate schools are not taught by teachers with good qualifications. What, then, should be done? Should a school which employs a teacher holding only a district certificate receive any share of the Legislative grant? Has not the time come when a mode of distributing the $245,000 annually paid should be placed upon a different basis? This is a question for the Legislature to deal with.

Statistics give the number of pupils enrolled in the public schools as 403,-561, a decrease of 4,963. The number of enrolled pupils in Roman Catholic separate schools is 47,117, an increase of 1,155 over the year before. There are 5,734 public schools, or 63 more than in the year previous, and there are 412 Catholic separate schools, an increase of 21.

An investigation of cost per pupil shows that more is spent on public school children. The proportions are as follows:—

Public schools—
Counties, $9.95; cities, $28.96; towns, $10.68; province, $11.54.
Catholic separate schools—
Counties, $7.50; cities, $10.59; towns, $8.93; province, $9.01.

Of the 450,979 pupils in 1903, 209,017 or 57.83 per cent. were enrolled in rural schools and 169,661 or 42.12 per cent. in the cities, towns, and incorporated villages of the Province.

The average salaries for teachers in 1903 in incorporated villages, included in counties, etc., above, were $585 for men and $285 for women. In rural schools they were $372 and $242, and in all urban schools, $742 and $395 respectively.

It will be noticed that the salaries are higher than in any previous year since 1897 in all cases except for men in the rural and village schools, who received considerably higher salaries in the year 1888 to 1890 inclusive.

Descendants of Pocahontas.

It has been suggested that Major-Gen. Baden-Powell's, unrivaled skill as a cavalry scout forms quite a remarkable instance of heredity, seeing that he is descended from Pocahontas, the American Indian princess who has given her name to "the Belle Sauvage" Yard, on Ludgate Hill, and was buried at Deptford. This possession of heredity is further manifested in the hero of Mafeking's features, which, in profile, have a distinct suggestion of the bare-eyed, aquiline-nosed redskin. There is another Englishman who also derives from Princess Pocahontas, and still more clearly portrays his Indian descent. This is Mr. Nesbit, the artist, of Bedford Park, who for many years was a prominent contributor to The Graphic, and is now living in retirement at Yarmouth.—London Chronicle.

JUST TO BE OUT OF DOORS.

Just to be out of doors! So still! So green!
With unbreathed air, illimitable, clean
With soft, sweet scent of happy growing things,
The leaves' soft flutter, sound of sudden wings,
The far faint hills, the water wide between.

Breast of the great earth-mother, here me lean
With no contentions hard to intervene.
Content, with the contentment nature brings,
Just to be out of doors.

And under all the feeling half forseen,
Of what this lovely world will come to mean
To all of us when the uncounted strings
In all our hearts, Joy universal, keen,
Just to be out of doors.

—Charlotte Perkins Gilman.

SHE SPEAKS.

Tell me, tell me, will you love me
When a smudge is on my cheek?
Will you think a whole lot of me
When I'm very far from meek?
When you eat cold fried potatoes
And the steak is stringy, when
I serve you stale tomatoes,
Answer, will you love me then?

When the hired girl is beamy,
Wants to run the whole machine,
When she's impudent and saucy
And gets up and quits the scene;
Then when I have burned my finger
As I'm making angel cake
In the kitchen will you linger
Washing dishes for my sake?

When the time of vernal cleaning
Ushers in the days of gloom,
Me you'll carefully be screening
From annoyance, I presume.
When the bills for foamy laces,
Hats and shoes and dresses fine
Are presented, o'er the traces
Will you kick then, lover mine?

Will your love for me diminish
When the days are dark and sad?
Do you think I'll see it's finish
If I should get hopping mad?
When my temper gets unruly,
When my tongue is hard to hold,
Tell me, darling, tell me truly,
Will you love me when I scold?

KEEN OF EAR.

Hogs Have a Finer Sense of Hearing Than You Imagine.

"Hogs have a much keener sense of hearing than most people seem to think," said a man from the country. "They can see well and at a considerable distance, but the nose and eyes of the hog must give first place to the ears.

"This is so, no doubt, because hearing is probably the most useful of the senses in the hog life, particularly at that season of the year when the hog in the wild state must rely upon the fruitage of trees in the main for food. Even with this advantage it is frequently a fierce race to see which hog can get there first. It would be interesting to know just how far a hog can hear an acorn fall. It is remarkable how quickly they become cognisant of the fact that an acorn has been blown from its outer shell and tumbled toward the ground, and he seems to catch the sound quicker when he knows a competitor is near who will run him a race for the nut. I have witnessed some fierce and interesting races between hogs with an acorn as the stake.

"Put a hog within twenty yards of an oak and in nine cases out of ten he will beat the acorn to the place. In nine cases out of ten the hog will be within a few feet of where the acorn strikes the ground, another fact which argues the superiority of the hog's hearing. He can apparently tell pretty well by the sound where the acorn will fall, and he will rarely need to move more than a few feet."

WORK-WORN MEN

Can Obtain New Health and Strength Through Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

Mr. Edward Martel, 96 St. Peter street, Quebec, is one of the thousands of workingmen throughout Canada who cheerfully admit that they are kept in health and strength through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. To a reporter who interviewed him, Mr. Martel said:—"The present condition of my health contrasts strikingly with what it was nine months ago. Then I felt that I was almost at death's door. Now I am strong and well. This happy change is entirely due to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I am a worker, and it is little wonder that after years of diligent toil my system was gradually run down. My blood got as thin as water, and I grew so poorly that the least exertion would leave me weak and trembling. I consulted a doctor, who said that I was run down through hard work but his medicine did not help me any. A few weeks later I was forced to quit work, and shortly after that had to remain in bed most of the time. One day a fellow workman called to see me, and induced me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Before the second box was finished I had a better appetite and relished my meals, and while this gave new strength in a few weeks I was able to go out again, and in about six weeks from the time I began using the pills I was able to return to work, my health completely restored and my strength as vigorous as ever it had been. I attribute my complete recovery entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I think every hard working man would be better for using a box of these pills occasionally."

Mr. Martel's advice should be taken by every workingman. The only way to have health and strength is to keep the blood rich and pure, and the only way to get rich, strength producing blood is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because they actually make new blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills make tired worn out men and women vigorous and strong. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A Woman's Tongue.

"Woman's tongue is her sword, which she never lets rust," wrote Mme. Necker. "The tongue is not steel, but it cuts," wrote Erasmus. "The tongue kills more than the sword," wrote Vasik, the Ottoman statesman. Solomon, the embodiment of wisdom, wrote, "It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop than with a brawling woman and in a wide house." And St. James wrote, "The tongue is a little member and boasteth great things." However, the good King Arthur said, "Deny not to woman the proper use of her tongue."

70th of Hallman Family Picnic.

Berlin, June 23.—An event of unusual interest took place in Schmeller's Grove, Berlin, yesterday, being a reunion of the Canadian branch of the widespread Hallman family. There were present over 700 descendants of the old Canadian pedantior, Benjamin Hallman. In the afternoon sermons were delivered by Rev. Wendell Hallman of Berlin and Rev. C. N. Good of Aylmer, and Rev. H. S. Hallman of Berlin gave an historical address covering the annals of the family from the time the American progenitor, Anthony Hallman, came from Switzerland to Pennsylvania, 200 years ago.

The Mainspring of the body

Health Depends On The Blood—and "Fruit-a-tives" Insure Pure, Rich Blood.

Correct time hinges on the mainspring of your watch. Gold cases and jeweled monograms look handsome—but it is the homely old steel mainspring that sends you to work on time, and prevents you from missing the train.

Blood is the body's mainspring. People lose arms and legs—eyes and ears—even the entire stomach. But you've got to have good red blood, to have good health. Fruit-a-tives give it to you.

Just see how necessary the blood is. Every organ in the body depends on the blood for its nourishment. It supplies gastric juice to the stomach to assist digestion. After food is properly digested, it takes up nourishment from the intestines and builds up flesh and strength. Prick the skin at any point, and blood will flow.

But—if the bowels don't move regularly, they keep food there until it decays—ferments. Instead of blood taking up nourishment, it carries this decaying matter—poison—all over the body.

The stomach wants clean gastric juice and gets poison—

—indigestion, sour stomach, heartburn, coated tongue.

The kidneys want pure blood to help them, and get poison —pain in the back and then kidney disease.

The muscles want nourishment so they can grow strong. They get poison instead —rheumatism and sciatica

The blood makes a vain effort to get rid of the poison and carries it to the skin —pimples, blotches, sallow complexion.

Fruit-a-tives clean the stomach, and make sure that food is digested properly. They go after the lazy liver—and stop those "bilious attacks." They tone

Fruit-a-tives

Purify the blood because they first of all cure CONSTIPATION, which is at the root of the trouble.

"I find Fruit-a-tives to be the best medicine I have ever taken for my trouble. I have been a sufferer from Constipation for five years and until I used Fruit-a-tives, could find nothing that did me any permanent good. Other remedies helped for a time but the trouble always returned. I find the Fruit-a-tives pleasant to take, and instead of increasing the dose as I had to do with all other medicines, I have steadily lessened it. One Fruit-a-tives tablet every two nights is sufficient now to make my bowels move regularly each day. All my visitors now hear about my new cure for Constipation."

up the bowels—strengthen and invigorate them so they move regularly every day. They keep the kidneys working properly. With all the impurities of the body gotten rid of as Nature intends, there's none left to taint the blood.

That is the Fruit-a-tives way of cleansing and purifying the blood—and it is the only way to get the pure, rich blood that every man and woman and child must have to be well and keep well.

—if you have not your healthy color

—if pimples and blotches mar the complexion

—if the skin is sallow

—if the head aches

—if the tongue is coated and breath bad

—if the stomach is all upset

—if there is distress after eating

—and especially if Constipation is becoming chronic, start NOW on Fruit-a-tives.

One 50c box of Fruit-a-tives will show you how easily and quickly these troubles can be cured, now that you know the right remedy to take. Your druggist has them.

The Old Home.

In going back to the old home after an absence of many years there is much sadness mixed with the pleasure. Faces are changed. Some of the old friends are dead, some are married, while others are in jail.

Boyhood playmates have grown up, accumulated beards and families and are so busy with their own affairs that they can hardly remember the wanderer. Landmarks have been obliterated, trees have been cut down, old swimming holes filled up, and perhaps the nimble trolley car graces the ruins of the nickel over former playgrounds.

But among all of the strange faces there is one that lights up with happy remembrance at the sight of the returned pilgrim. It is the face of the fellow who loaned him a quarter thirty years ago and had long since given up all hope of ever getting it back.

The Afterclap.

"Everybody seemed happy at the wedding but the bride's father. He hated to lose his little daughter."

"Perhaps he was thinking of the bills."

Philosophy.

Be good and you'll be happy
Is true enough, I guess;
Of course, if you are scrappy
You miss the happiness.

The thing looks well in theory,
But really it's too bad, quite sad,
That some folks seem so cheery,
Who are so very bad.

It really is a question,
If things work as they say,
For with a good digestion
They're happy anyway.

A Definition.

"All things' come round to those who wait."

"Yes, 'things' is a good name for them, for they are mostly bill collectors."

Only Sure Way.

"He hasn't lost a cent on the races this season."

"Wonderful! Has he a system?"

"Yes, he only makes mind bets."

On the Pace of Things.

"She must have married him for his money."

"Why do you say so?"

"Because I have seen him."

The Business Method.

The duke was frank; he sought the bank
And into records pried
To find if he should turn and flee
Or make the girl his bride.

Sure Cure.

"I wish I knew something to put in my husband's coffee to break him of the habit of smoking."

"Ever try strychnine?"

ONTARIO'S PUBLIC WORKS.

Interesting Report of the Past Year's Work—Extension of Railways.

The annual report of the Commissioner of Public Works for the year ending December 31st, 1904, shows that a total of $816,522 was expended on capital account on works and buildings, and $111,991 on maintenance account for fuel, light, water, furniture, repairs, salaries, etc., for Osgoode Hall, the Normal Schools of Toronto, Ottawa and London, the School of Practical Science, the Education Department offices, the Parliament Buildings, Government House, and various other branches of the service.

From July 1st, 1867, to December 31st, 1904, the expenditure on capital account for asylums was $4,774,584.48, penal institutions $1,356,979.03, educational institutions $1,791,829.68, agricultural institutions $709,257.51, buildings for administration of justice $459,938.26, Parliament and departmental building and Government House $1,776,476.75; works for the improvement of navigation, such as locks, dams, slides, etc., $1,010,493.50; works for the improvement of transportation, such as bridges, piers, roads, etc., $204,033.58; drainage works and advances to municipalities therefor $413,161.85, miscellaneous $54,590.07, colonization roads $4,059,464.44, aid to railways (actual cash expended) $7,456,173.01—a grand total of $24,071,480.25 expended on the foregoing accounts since Confederation. The amount expended on colonization roads last year was $175,630.74, divided as follows:—East division $57,567.74; Temiskaming district, $38,277.43; west and north divisions, $20,926.36 and $59,749.21, respectively. About 360 miles of new roads were opened, 650 miles of highways repaired, and 17 bridges, aggregating 1,504 feet, constructed.

Though not many miles of new railway were completed and opened for traffic, extension work during the year was active. The G. T. R. did not construct any new lines, but laid a second track between Hamilton and London, sixty miles. The C. P. R. opened the Lindsay, Bobcaygeon & Pontypool Railway, from Burketon, on the main line, to Bobcaygeon, 38.79 miles. Tracklaying is expected to commence at once on the C. P. R.'s fifty-nine miles of railway between Romford, near Sudbury, and Byng Inlet. Revised surveys for a continuation of the line from Byng Inlet to a junction with the Owen Sound section near Kleinburg are nearly completed. The James Bay Railway is constructing a line from Toronto to a junction with the C. P. R. near Sudbury, 285 miles. The Bruce Mines & Algoma Railway made a short extension from Bruce Mines to the shore of Lake Huron, and constructed a commodious dock there. The total of this railway now completed from Lake Huron to Rock Lake, Aberdeen Township, is seventeen miles. The Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Railway, the Government line, was completed and opened for traffic from North Bay to New Liskeard, 113 miles, and a contract entered into for an extension northward from New Liskeard of 80 to 100 miles.

Prior to Confederation there were 1,447.5 miles of railway completed in the Province; 5,876.42 miles have been completed since then; 525 miles are now under construction, and the miles of railway in operation in the Province are 7,323.93.

Canadian Currency.

In the course of a debate on Canada's currency in the House the other day Hon. Mr. Fielding gave the following interesting explanations and statistics: Mr. Fielding said there were two systems of savings banks, the Government savings banks and the postoffice banks. The policy of the Government was to close the former as fast as possible and turn the business over to the postoffice banks.

There was a supplementary vote of $25,000 for printing Dominion notes, bringing the total vote for the year ending June 30, 1905, up to $135,000. Mr. Fielding explained that this was necessary owing to the expanse of circulation and to the policy entered upon last year of giving the people clean money in the Government not circulation. Last year eight million old and dirty Dominion notes were retired and replace by new ones. These were in the denominations of one, two and four. The appearance of the four-dollar bill had been changed so as to prevent its being mistaken for a one-dollar bill.

The rapid increase in the circulation of the Dominion notes was shown in the following figures: 1890, $16,000,000; 1895, $15,000,000; 1900, $26,000,000; 1903, $29,000,000; April 30, 1905, $47,935,000. The notes, Mr. Fielding said, were printed by the American Bank Note Co., a branch of the New York company of the same name, but which was forced to build a factory in Ottawa, and was now practically a Canadian institution. He was informed that 95 or 98 per cent. of the employes were Canadians.

In answer to inquiries, Mr. Fielding said the Government did not make a profit on most of its issue of paper money, because on $30,000,000 of it the Government had to keep a gold reserve of 25 per cent., and for all over that it had to keep a dollar in gold for each paper dollar signed.

Rise and Fall of William.

Knew a fellow, name was Bill,
Raised down yonder by the mill,
Got in devilment and cleared,
And the first thing that we heared
Was that Bill had gone to town,
Sobered up and settled down,
Quit his meanness and his tricks
And had gone in politics.

Heared that he had got to be
Alderman and drew a fee
That was big enough to pay
Fer a shoe shine every day;
We was proud, since things was thus,
That he had been one of us;
That with us he used to mix,
Now he was in politics.

Didn't call him Bill no more;
Called him Mr. William Orr;
All the meanness that he done
We was certain was in fun;
Though his good traits had been slim,
We thought up a few for him—
He was one of our own chicks
Since he'd ris in politics.

Well, sir, word came down by mail
That they had him locked in jail
'Cause he'd stole the city blind.
After that you couldn't find
Not a friend of Bill in town.
Every fellow threw him down;
Every one declared that they
Had been sure he'd end that way.

The Singing School.

While there may be parts of the country in which the singing school still flourishes, yet as a national institution it has gone the way of roller skates and blue glass.

The singing school had its inning when rural communities formed an important part of the nation—in the days before the farmer's boy started for town as soon as he learned to walk to look for a job in a bank.

In those days the young people of the neighborhood got together in the schoolhouse and made melody or something that passed as a substitute for it and then afterward made love as they jogged home in the big farm wagon.

The singing school was a great institution in its day, but modern inventions have made it a back number. Any man with a few dollars and a little credit can buy a phonograph and be his own singing school.

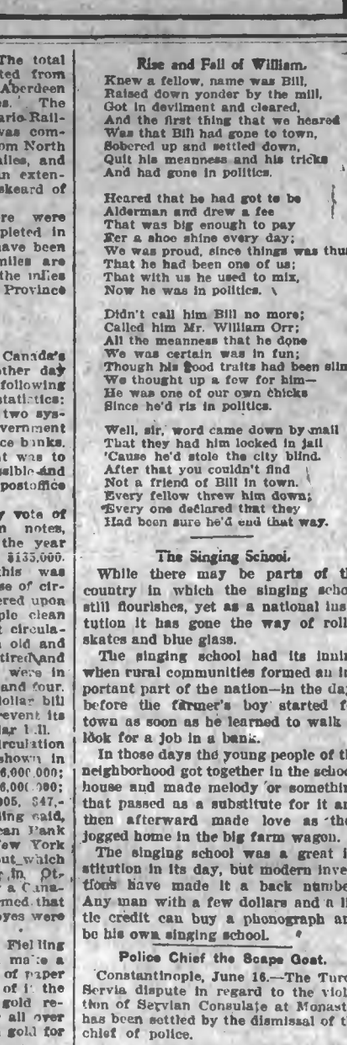
Sunshine Furnace



Don't Sift Ashes;

—ruin your clothes, injure your hands, raise a dust, the meanest, dirtiest job a man can do—and no work for a woman.

What then? Waste good coal? Increase expense?

No, use a furnace that burns all the coal, that does not shake down some ashes and a lot of coal.

Use a furnace with a grate that drops ashes, but holds the coal — a furnace with such perfect combustion that all the coal is burnt and gives off all the heat that's in it.

That is the Sunshine Furnace made by McClary's —the only furnace that's built to burn all the coal and shake down nothing but ashes.

Built with an ash-pan, no shovelling, no sifting, no dust, no spoiled clothes, no exasperating, expensive waste.

The most modern furnace built, the best burner and best heater—the easiest furnace to manage—the very best.

Write for our furnace booklet, it is worth reading.

The Sunshine Furnace is sold by all enterprising dealers.

CRIME INCREASING.

Ontario Inspector of Prisons Says the Prisoners Have Too Easy a Time—Jail Methods Encourage Crime.

Not only is crime on the increase in Ontario, but some of our jails are in danger of becoming harbors of refuge for the idle and criminal classes. This latter evil is due chiefly to neglect on the part of the jail officials to provide work for those who fall into their custody.

Dr. Bruce Smith, Inspector of Prisons and Reformatories, whose annual report has just been prepared, is responsible for the above statements. He charges the jailers with being too lenient. "Custodial care," he says, "is too often looked upon as the whole duty of those in charge. In consequence there is tendency among culprits to look upon a term in jail with little dread. Just as long as prisoners can spend their time in idleness with opportunities for having a sociable time together, jails will be looked upon as refuges where the inmates are reasonably well fed and housed. To remedy this, work should be provided at every jail. Idleness there is a great evil. The rules and regulations for the government of the jails of Ontario not only distinctly specify that work must be provided, but direct that when work cannot be provided on the jail premises prisoners may be employed at extra mural labor carried on under the direct control of the Government of Ontario, the County Council or the City or Town Council. There is surely sufficient latitude then to provide some form of labor in or convenient to every jail in the Province. In several of the jails I have visited I have found able bodied men spending their time in idleness, and on inquiry I was told that the only work these prisoners had was in looking after their cells and sweeping out the corridors. Little wonder then that culprits have any fear of being sent to jail when such conditions prevail.

"There may be instances where it is impossible to provide labor at some of the smaller jails, and when that is the case, I would suggest that district jails might, with advantage, be named where facilities for hard labor might be provided and the work of the prisoners utilized with advantage to the Municipality. Let it once become known that every prisoner committed to jail would have to work, and let those in charge understand that labor is an imperative condition of jail residence, and I venture to predict our jails will cease to be harbors of refuges where the vagrant and victims are made comfortable."

The report states that the commissioners appointed to investigate the admission of insane people to Ontario prisons unhesitatingly condemn the whole method of admitting this class of cases to the jails. The statute enacts that only dangerous lunatics, who cannot otherwise be provided for, shall be sent to jail. Instead of that, many old helpless people, as well as vagrants, are admitted. The latter, the commissioners point out, are first admitted on a charge of vagrancy, but under the Vagrancy Act, they can only remain in jail a limited period. To overcome this objection some jail surgeons alter the charge to insanity and the person is again committed as a lunatic, and may be held in jail for an indefinite period. In one jail they found a person charged at one time with vagrancy and later with insanity, who had spent fifteen years consecutively in jail. Another under similar conditions had spent twelve years in jail, and they were both harmless dements, who should not have been there at all. Attention is also called to the fact that friends of alleged lunatics often send them to jail in order to escape the expense of sending them to an asylum.

Acting on the advice of the commission, the Department issued instructions to each sheriff in Ontario to send in a report on the first day of each month, giving the name and full particulars of each insane person confined in jail, together with a certificate from the jail surgeon certifying to the insanity, and declaring that such insane person is a fit subject for asylum treatment and could not be cared for in a House of Refuge. The sheriffs are also instructed to make a similar monthly return to the medical superintendent of the asylum in the district where the jail is situated. In this way it is expected that when insane are committed to jails the period of their confinement there in will be as short as possible. It is also by those returns expected that those persons who should be cared for in a House of Refuge instead of an asylum will be transferred from the jails to the refuges.

During the last year 924 more males were committed to prison than in the previous year, although the number of female criminals was 39 less. The totals were 8,964 males and 1,182 females.

The commitments for drunkenness were 3,590, an increase of 503.

Of the total number of persons committed, 7,273 were intemperate and 1,578 could neither read nor write.

In criticising the government of the jails the inspector says the two main factors to be ever kept in mind should be to secure and uphold: 1st. Influences that will deter those outside: 2nd, Influences that will have a tendency to reform those inside.

A Curious Document.

A curious document has been received by Archivist Fraser at Toronto. It is a parchment issued by Sir Edmund W. Head in 1859, granting Royal permission to W. D. Moodie, sheriff of Hastings, to hold a "fair or mart" in Stoco. The document abounds in legal phraseology, which appears to have been necessary in those days before a fair could be held. It begins: "We of our special grace, certain knowledge and mere notion, have given and granted," etc. Lieut.-Col. Ponton sent this curiosity to the Provincial archives.

Canada and the Stamp.

The design upon the postage stamp in Canada could be improved. Each stamp, according to its value, should have a Canadian scene printed on it with the word Canada printed across the face. In this way we could advertise the country wherever a letter was sent. To Canadians, Canada should be first, even on the postage stamp.—Fernie, B. C. Ledge.

Try Gin Pills at our expense

We want every man and woman in Canada who suffers from Kidney and Bladder Troubles, to write us for a free sample of Gin Pills.

We want everyone who has sick friends to send us their names and addresses, that we may mail them, free of charge, a sample box of Gin Pills.

100,000 Sample Boxes Given Away.

There are hundreds who are martyrs to Kidney Trouble, having tried everything else without relief. There are dozens in every town who may have Kidney Trouble without knowing it. If you are pale—losing flesh—can't sleep—no appetite—if you constantly desire to urinate—if the urine is scanty, burning or highly colored—if the feet and hands are swollen—if the eyesight is dimmed—if there are frequent pains in the back, through the hips and legs—then you have the most positive symptoms of Kidney Trouble.

These are the people, we hope, who will send in their names that Gin Pills may cure them.

What They Are

Each Gin Pill contains the medicinal properties of one and one-half ounces of best Holland Gin. The harmful substances—and the alcohol—are left out. These medicinal principles are combined with several other remedies of exceptional value—and the whole made up in the form of a small, pleasant pill. These are the famous Gin Pills that have the largest sale—and the greatest number of cures to their credit—of any Kidney and Bladder remedy, ever introduced in Canada.

What They Do

Gin Pills cure "Cold on the Kidneys," Inflammation of the Kidneys, Uric Acid, causing Gout and Rheumatism, Ulceration and Inflammation of the Bladder, Painful and Suppressed Urine, constant desire to urinate, Gravel or Stone in the Bladder, and all other troubles, caused by sick Kidneys and Bladder. They never fail to relieve the sharp, shooting pain, make urination easy, natural and regular, strengthen the organs, and effect a speedy and permanent cure.

Won't you try Gin Pills at our expense? It costs nothing. Simply a post card. Ask us to send a sample box free—say in what paper you saw this advertisement—and sign your name and address. Do it to-day—NOW.

It is Back to Bicycles....

It should be back to Bicycles with everyone who ever rode a wheel — for these particular wheels this year are so far ahead of their predecessors that it would be realizing new pleasures and new and luxurious comforts in the joy of living to ride any of them.

Hon. J. T. Doyle, L.L.M., Secretary of the U. S. Civil Service, Washington, puts the matter in a nutshell regarding bicycles generally, when he says: "Of the things that help to make life more good and agreeable and extend the range of its activities, the Bicycle is among the foremost. It quadruples the aren that one may move in and makes it quick and pleasant to get there."

The Hon. J. T. Doyle could speak particularly of the new wheel—the wheel that is equipped with the Hygienic Cushion Frame, the new Morrow Coaster Brake and the Sills Handle Bar—improvements that makes wheeling an entirely different proposition from that of four years ago.

No breakdowns—every road a smooth road—more speed and less work—no jarring or vibration—better material—better workmanship.

CLEVELAND

This is the exclusive wheel that has the big modern improvements — Cushion Frame, Coaster Brake, Sills Handle Bars. Above all, are made right and of the right material—and don't cost any more than the other kind.

By riding one of these wheels you save money in car fare—save time—get the best exercise on the catalogue—and get all the joy and all the comfort there is in modern wheeling.

INTERNATIONAL S. S. CONVENTION

Auspiciously Opens in Toronto With Record Attendance.

ALMOST 2,000 DELEGATES

Addresses of Welcome in Massey Hall and Metropolitan Church — Breathed a Spirit of Brotherhood and An Evident Desire That This Principle Will Universally Prevail—Welcoming Speeches Were Made.

Toronto, June 24.—All the incoming trains and steamboats brought their numbers of Sunday school delegates, and by noon yesterday it was estimated that almost all of the 2,000 accredited delegates to the Sunday school convention were in the city. Every State and Province on the continent has its Sunday school interests represented at this meeting.

The Entertainment Committee were on hand at Massey Hall, and by systematic handling of the crowd on the part of the Reception Committee's chairman, Rev. W. E. Hassard, were able to send every one to his temporary home.

Convention Opened.

The convention opened yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Metropolitan Church. Rev. B. B. Tyler, president of the International Convention, pastor of Broadway Disciples' Church, Denver, Col., made his annual address, and was followed by an hour's preparation service, led by Rev. Floyd W. Tompkins, D. D., rector of Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia.

Addresses of Welcome.

Last night at Massey Hall addresses of welcome were delivered to the delegates by His Honor W. Mortimer Clark, and Mayor Urquhart. They expressed briefly their pleasure at the presence of the Sunday school workers of the continent in this city of churches and the city of conventions.

The first response was made by Rev. Alan Hussen, an old Toronto boy, and now pastor of the First Congregational Church, Brocton, Mass. He spoke at length of the Anglo-Saxon brotherhood which could conquer the world, and upon which from its very power lay the duty of Christianising the world.

The second reply was by Rev. Carey Bonner of London, England. He spoke very briefly of the duty of saving the children if the nations were to be saved.

Advocates Church Schools.

It was a message of prophesy, a message of advice and a message of hope that Bishop Vincent thereafter gave to the delegates. He prophesied the era of the "church school." Church school, he called it, because it could not be called a Sunday school. It worked not only on Sunday, but all throughout the week. The church school would be less of recitation and more of conversation, where the children were taught by men and women of a strong personality of the Bible with its stirring biographies and its great lessons.

The bishop was received with prolonged cheers. He was introduced by Prof. Hamill, who called for the Chautauqua salute to the Sunday school veteran. In an instant every one of the 4,000 delegates and visitors in the hall was standing. The next the whole auditorium was a billowy sea of pocket handkerchiefs, a deluge of white that seemed to fill the hall. It was one of the prettiest sights ever seen in Toronto.

In Metropolitan Church.

The keynote of the large gathering that assembled in Metropolitan Church in the evening was brotherhood and international amity. After the opening exercises Rev. W. Frizsill called upon Hon. J. W. St. John to extend a welcome.

The Speaker of the Legislature was greeted with hearty applause as he rose to do the chairman's bidding. He was pleased, he said, to welcome the visitors because all were children of the same ancestry. The work of the delegates was for the cause of Christianity, the greatest power on earth. He was glad that while Canada and the United States might vie with one another there was a greater wealth in the integrity and good citizenship of the people of Canada and the United States. The speaker looked into the future and saw the removal of international barriers when no other principle would be known than that of brotherhood.

Canon Cody was glad to welcome the visitors under the old flag that had always stood for truth and righteousness," and he was also glad that the delegates came from the land over which waved Old Glory, a land that was rapidly advancing towards a like standard. Canada should exert an influence to draw the motherland to its long lost daughter. What the convention was bringing about was more than a mere exchange of international courtesies. It was a meeting together for a great work in the cause of humanity. They were all dealing with the great problem of winning and holding the young.

GERMANY DISAPPOINTED.

France Anxious, Over Latter's Note to the German Government—Does Not Settle Anything.

Berlin, June 24.—The French note on the subject of the proposed Morrocan conference was handed to the Foreign Office yesterday morning. Owing to its great length the note had to be sent by mail to Berlin instead of by telegraph. The Foreign Office, while declining to discuss the points of the note in detail, admits that it leaves the situation where it was before. The points of disagreement between Germany and France have not been removed. It is expected that the negotiations will continue for a long time before results are reached. Germany's answers to Premier Rouvier has not yet been considered.

Paris, June 24.—In spite of the reassuring tone of the official communication issued after the Cabinet council public uneasiness has accentuated. This produced a panicky sentiment on the bourse, where heavy offers of rentes sents down prices to the unusual figure of 97.90.

Ominous Signs.

Parliamentary circles also continued to show a feeling of nervousness and apprehension. This was increased by the publication in the sensational afternoon papers of maps showing the dispositions of the French and German military forces along the frontier, accompanied by interviews setting forth the gloominess of the situation and the belief that Germany's reply to the French note would increase the difficulties of the Government.

Berlin Disappointed.

Berlin, June 24.—The evening newspapers frankly express their disappointment with the French note. Much had been staked upon Premier Rouvier's ostensible wish to come to an understanding with Germany, but The vissische Zeitung, discussing the note, says that Rouvier is continuing Delcasse's policy without M. Delcasse.

War Not Necessary.

The National Zeitung, in an evidently inspired statement, calls attention to the warlike aspect which the British press attempts to give to the situation, whereas Germany does not believe that the present complications are such as to justify thoughts of war.

NO ATTENTION TO CALL.

If Police Had Answered Fieldhouse Might Have Been Saved.

Hamilton, June 24.—To the negligence of the police, the death of Fred. Fieldhouse is chargeable, according to the story told by J. A. Williamson. Mr. Williamson keeps a grocery store at the corner of Barton and Bay streets, and he says that he saw Fieldhouse and his friends leaving the hotel on the opposite corner about 11 o'clock. When he saw the other men who took part in the row arming themselves with boards, he called up the police and asked them to send the patrol wagon and officers down at once. If they had responded promptly the trouble would probably have been averted or Fieldhouse rescued in time to save him from death, but no attention was paid to the call.

The police think they will be able to show that Fieldhouse was carried into the home of Neelon, and it is even whispered that he was lying unconscious in that house when the policeman on the beat finally arrived on the scene.

Till He Tried Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets—Now Edward Rousseau is a New Man.

"Yes," remarks Mr. Edward Rousseau, of Bruce Mines, Ont., "I can prove that Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets cure when other medicines fails.

"You remember I was a severe sufferer from Dyspepsia for ten years or more. Well, I doctored and did everything I could think of for it, but I wouldn't get relief till I began to use Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets. Two boxes of them made me feel like a new man. Words cannot express the good they have done me. You don't wonder I am always ready to recommend Dodd's Dyspepsia Tablets, do you?"

To Follow the Douks.

St. Petersburg, June 24.—A letter from the Caucasus says the Molokans have prepared to follow the example of the Doukhobors and are beginning to emigrate to Canada in order to escape official oppression. Count Tolstoi has been largely instrumental in inducing the Doukhobors to go to Canada.

This Binder is designed to fasten packages and parcels, large or small, without the use of twine. It is also adapted as a new method of labelling bottles, cans, packages, etc. The Goff Binder may be regarded as one of the small and staple agencies which revolutionize the methods of doing up packages.

It consists of a patented machine containing a roll of one thousand feet of paper varying in width. This is toughened by a secret process and coated on the under side with glue made by a formula the property of the company. This glue holds tenaciously, dries quickly and is not affected by damp or heat. As the paper is unwound an automatic printing device stamps every two or three inches with any advertisement which may be adopted. At the same instant the glue is moistened and the tape cut. The whole operation can be done in an instant. The essential points of value are: A package is securely fastened in less than one-half the time and at less than one-half the cost of twine. The cost of material for sealing and printing twenty-four thousand packages by this method will not exceed six dollars.

Every package becomes a sealed package, strongly fastened and secure from pilfering or curiosity without breaking the seal.

The Company do not intend to sell machines. They grant the free use of them on conditions of purchasing all necessary supplies, inks, printing rolls and tapes from the Company. The sale of these supplies will give the Company ENORMOUS PROFITS and also save the purchaser at least FIFTY PER CENT. of his present expense both in time and money.

These machines have been tested by large departmental stores as well as by small shopkeepers. All to whom they have been shown declare their intention to put them in use the moment the Company can supply them.

The Company have a new Binder Twine which they expect to place upon the market. It is made by a secret process and is of great strength and will undoubtedly take the place of the twine now used by farmers in harvesting binding machines at much less cost. This twine can be used for all ordinary purposes twine is required for.

The Company intend to manufacture printing inks, gums, papers, twine, advertising rolls of rubber and metal, labels for express parcels, bottles, cans, boxes, and for all purposes that labels are required for. Also waterproof paper for coverings, paper pails for carriage by hand of liquid products. These pails will be air-tight and waterproof. Also air-tight, waterproof packages for parcelling fruit, fish, meat and other quickly tainting foods. Waterproof and vermin-proof papers for the wrapping of goods liable to attack by dampness, moths or mice. Also the manufacture of many new and valuable improvements in the method of handling goods, not one of which has ever been placed upon the market, and at no extra cost to the purchaser than those now in vogue.

The Company will have a monopoly of these goods. The amount of business that can be done will make this corporation in a few years one of the most important in the civilized world.

In the opinion of bankers, manufacturers, merchants and others who have investigated these new inventions no company was ever incorporated with greater prospects.

It is expected that the shares will rapidly increase in value. No such opportunity has ever been offered to Canadian investors to share in a money-making enterprise the profits of which will be indirectly contributed to by every individual in the country.

The Company offer to the public the whole issue of preferred stock at par, with a bonus of one share of Common with every Three Shares of Preferred. Subscription must be accompanied by cheque, draft or money order; 25 per cent. with application, balance on allotment. Shares paid in full will be given the preference.

Subscriptions may be paid to any branch of THE ONTARIO BANK, THE UNION BANK OF CANADA, THE SOVEREIGN BANK (Bankers of the Company), or to order of CANADIAN COMMERCIAL BINDER CO., Limited, 16 Yonge Street Arcade, Toronto, Canada.

Allotment will be made on July 15th, and all refunds and shares issued will be mailed on that date.

Any information required may be had by calling at the Company's Office. Letters addressed to the Managing Director will receive prompt reply.

ESTIMATE OF PROFITS.

After allowing for the manufacture and expense of placing the machines it is estimated the business will produce a profit of at least $200,000 within the first year, or 100 per cent. on the capital. The Company expects to have very large profits on their Binder Twine and numerous other articles.

you feel the good that's done by Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It cleanses, regulates and invigorates Stomach, Liver and Bowels and so purifies the blood. And through the blood, it cleanses, repairs, and invigorates the whole system.

In recovering from "grippe," or in convalescence from pneumonia, fevers, or other exhausting diseases, nothing can equal it as an appetizing, restorative tonic to build up needed flesh and strength. It rouses every organ into natural action, promotes all the bodily functions, and restores health and vigor.

For every disease that comes from foul or Weak Stomach, a torpid Liver or impure Blood, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, and the most stubborn Skin, Scalp, or Scrofulous affections, the "Discovery" is a sovereign remedy. Don't be hypnotised, wheedled, or over persuaded into accepting a substitute only that some selfish medicine seller may make a greater profit on the inferior article. The "Discovery" has a great record of nearly forty years with thousands of cures behind it.

Dear Sir—Several years ago my blood became impoverished and I became run down in health. I had no appetite, could not sleep, and was practically waiting for work. Suffered from innumerable boils and was in bad shape. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery relieved me of my wretched condition. The medicine built up my system and restored me to a normal condition of health. I can speak most highly also of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, as it has been used in my family for years in cases of female trouble.

to you. You are only answerable to yourself, but I have to answer to my superiors. If this Abe Slaney, living at Elrige's, is indeed the murderer, and if he has made his escape while I am seated here I should certainly get into serious trouble."

"You need not be uneasy. He will not try to escape."

"How do you know?"

"To fly would be a confession of guilt."

"Then let us go to arrest him."

"I expect him here every instant."

"But why should he come?"

"Because I have written and asked him."

"But this is incredible, Mr. Holmes! Why should he come because you have asked him? Would not such a request rather rouse his suspicions and cause him to fly?"

"I think I have known how to frame the letter," said Sherlock Holmes. "In fact, if I am not very much mistaken, here is the gentleman himself coming up the drive."

A man was striding up the path which led to the door. He was a tall, handsome, swarthy fellow, clad in a suit of gray flannel, with a panama hat, a bristling black beard and a great, aggressive hooked nose, and flourishing a cane as he walked. He swaggered up the path as if the place belonged to him, and we heard his loud, confident peal at the bell.

"I think, gentlemen," said Holmes quietly, "that we had best take up our position behind the door. Every precaution is necessary when dealing with such a fellow. You will need your handcuffs, inspector. You can leave the talking to me."

We waited in silence for a minute—one of those minutes which one can never forget. Then the door opened and the man stepped in. In an instant Holmes clapped a pistol to his head, and Martin slipped the handcuffs over his wrists. It was all done so swiftly and deftly that the fellow was helpless before he knew that he was attacked. He glared from one to the other of us with a pair of blazing black eyes. Then he burst into a bitter laugh.

"Well, gentlemen, you have the drop on me this time. I seem to have knocked up against something hard. But I came here in answer to a letter from Mrs. Hilton Cubitt. Don't tell me that she is in this! Don't tell me that she helped to set a trap for me!"

"Mrs. Hilton Cubitt was seriously injured and is at death's door."

The man gave a hoarse cry of grief, which rang through the house.

"You're crazy!" he cried fiercely. "It was he that was hurt, not she. Who would have hurt little Elsie? I may have threatened her—God forgive me!—but I would not have touched a hair of her pretty head. Take it back—you! Say that she is not hurt!"

"She was found badly wounded by the side of her dead husband."

He sank with a deep groan on to the settee and buried his face in his manacled hands. For five minutes he was silent. Then he raised his face once more and spoke with the cold composure of despair.

"I have nothing to hide from you, gentlemen," said he. "If I shot the man he had his shot at me, and there's no murder in that. But if you think I could have hurt that woman, then you don't know either me or her. I tell you, there was never a man in this world loved a woman more than I loved her. I had a right to her. She was pledged to me years ago. Who was this Englishman that he should come between us? I tell you that I had the first right to her and that I was only claiming my own."

"She broke away from your influence when she found the man that you are," said Holmes sternly. "She fled from America to avoid you, and she married an honorable gentleman in England. You dogged her and followed her and made her life a misery to her in order to induce her to abandon the husband whom she loved and respected in order to fly with you, whom she feared and hated. You have ended by bringing about the death of a noble man and driving his wife to suicide. That is your record in this business, Mr. Abe Slaney, and you will answer for it to the law."

"If Elsie dies I care nothing what becomes of me," said the American. He opened one of his hands and looked at a note crumpled up in his palm. "See here, mister," he cried, with a gleam of suspicion in his eyes, "you're not trying to scare me over this, are you? If the lady is hurt as bad as you say, who was it that wrote this note?" He tossed it forward on to the table.

"I wrote it to bring you here."

"You wrote it? There was no one on earth outside the Joint who knew the secret of the dancing men. How came you to write it?"

"What one man can invent another can discover," said Holmes. "There is a cab coming to convey you to Norwich, Mr. Slaney. But meanwhile you have time to make some small reparation for the injury you have wrought. Are you aware that Mrs. Hilton Cubitt has herself lain under grave suspicion of the murder of her husband and that it was only my presence here and the knowledge which I happened to possess which has saved her from the accusation? The least that you owe her is to make it clear to the whole world that she was in no way, directly or indirectly, responsible for his tragic end."

"I ask nothing better," said the American. "I guess the very best case I can make for myself is the absolute naked truth."

"It is my duty to warn you that it will be used against you," cried the inspector, with the magnificent fair play of the British criminal law.

Slaney shrugged his shoulders.

"I'll chance that," said he. "First of all, I want you gentlemen to understand that I have known this lady since she was a child. There were seven of us in a gang in Chicago, and Elsie's father was the boss of the Joint. He was a clever man, was old Patrick. It was he who invented that writing, which would pass as a child's scrawl unless you just happened to have the key to it. Well, Elsie learned some of our ways, but she couldn't stand the business, and she had a bit of honest money of her own, so she gave us all the slip and got away to London. She had been engaged to me, and she would have married me, I believe, if I had taken over another profession, but she would have nothing to do with anything on the crook. It was only after her marriage to this Englishman that I was able to find out where she was. I wrote to her, but got no answer. After that I came over, and, as letters were no use, I put my messages where she could read them.

"Well, I have been here a month now. I lived on that farm, where I had a room down below, and could get in and out every night and no one the wiser. I tried all I could to coax Elsie away. I knew that she read the messages, for once she wrote an answer under one of them. Then my temper got the better of me, and I began to threaten her. She sent me a letter then, imploring me to go away, and saying that it would break her heart if any scandal should come upon her husband. She said that she would come down when her husband was asleep at 8 in the morning and speak with me through the end window, if I would go away afterward and leave her in peace. She came down and brought money with her, trying to bribe me to go. This made me mad, and I caught her arm and tried to pull her through the window. At that moment in rushed the husband with his revolver in his hand. Elsie had sunk down upon the floor, and we were face to face. I was heeled also, and I held up my gun to scare him off and let me get away. He fired and missed me. I pulled off almost at the same instant, and down he dropped. I made away across the garden, and as I went I heard the window shut behind me. That's God's truth, gentlemen, every word of it; and I heard no more about it until that lad came riding up with a note which made me walk in here like a jay and give myself into your hands."

A cab had driven up while the American had been talking. Two uniformed policemen sat inside. Inspector Martin rose and touched his prisoner on the shoulder.

"It is time for us to go."

"Can I see her first?"

"No, she is not conscious. Sherlock Holmes, I only hope that if ever again I have an important case I shall have the good fortune to have you by my side."

We stood at the window and watched the cab drive away. As I turned back my eye caught the pellet of paper which the prisoner had tossed upon the table. It was the note with which Holmes had decoyed him.

"See if you can read it, Watson," said he, with a smile.

It contained no word, but this little line of dancing men:

"If you use the code which I have explained," said Holmes, "you will find that it simply means 'Come here at once.' I was convinced that it was an invitation which he would not refuse, since he could never imagine that it could come from any one but the lady. And so, my dear Watson, we have ended by turning the dancing men to good when they have so often been the agents of evil, and I think that I have fulfilled my promise of giving you something unusual for your notebook. Three-forty is our train, and I fancy we should be back in Baker street for dinner."

Only one word of epilogue. The American, Abe Slaney, was condemned to death at the winter assizes at Norwich, but his penalty was changed to penal servitude in consideration of mitigating circumstances and the certainty that Hilton Cubitt had fired the first shot. Of Mrs. Hilton Cubitt I only know that I have heard she recovered entirely and that she still remains a widow, devoting her whole life to the care of the poor and to the administration of her husband's estate.

Why He Pins His Faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills.

Worn out with Chronic Kidney Disease—The Great Canadian Kidney Remedy Banished His Pains.

Acadie Siding, Kent Co., N. B., June 23rd. — (Special.) — Calixte Richard, J. P., one of the most highly respected men in this part of the country, has joined the great army of those who pin their faith to Dodd's Kidney Pills. As usual, Mr. Richard has good reason for what he does and states them as follows:

"I have been troubled with kidney disease for forty years, and the result was that I found myself a worn out man at seventy-two. But after using two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills I find all my pains are gone and I can employ all my days with the best results. I cannot let the opportunity pass of letting the public know the great good Dodd's Kidney Pills have done me."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all rheumatic pains by removing the cause uric acid in the blood. They put vigour and energy in place of the pain.

The Difference.

A clerk one evening tapped a till
And took therefrom a dollar bill—
Of course to jail he went.
Another fellow much more slick,
Purloined a million by a trick—
To congress he was sent.

Keep Growing.

"Fishes are the only animals that grow after they are dead."

"Never heard of that."

"Yes, they are always about three inches longer by the time a man gets back to town and is telling about them."

An Advantage.

And when high water reached the spot
It took his heavy building and Removed it to a better lot.

RHEUMATISM CURE

TORTURE AND HUMILIATION

For Fifteen Years Face and Body Mass of Itching Sores—Could Not Express Suffering—Doctors Did No Good.

CURED BY CUTICURA WHEN HOPE HAD GONE

"My head was one mass of scabs, my forehead was covered down almost to my eyebrows, and I had to wear my hat all the time. My body was covered with spots in size from a pinhead to as large as a silver dollar. A white, crusty scab would form and itch, and words cannot express the torture and humiliation I suffered for fifteen years. I tried many doctors, and all kinds of treatments, but could get no help, and I thought there was no hope for me. A friend told me to get Cuticura. I did, and in three days my head was as clear as ever. I applied Cuticura Ointment night and morning, also taking a hot bath with Cuticura Soap three times a week, and using the Ointment freely after the bath. After using one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Cuticura Ointment I was completely cured, without mark or blemish. I was so pleased I felt like running down the street to tell every one I met what Cuticura had done for me. (signed) H. B. Franklin, 717 Wash'n St., Allegheny, Pa."

2,000 DELEGATES.

All States and Provinces Represented at Sunday School Convention.

Toronto, June 23.—Delegates everywhere throughout the city, men and women from places as near as Hamilton and as far away as San Francisco. Wherever one may go he sees the little two-ribboned badge with the blue button. All bear in common the legend "International Sunday School Convention, Toronto." But in the second inscription there is the widest variety: Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Montana and so on, covering the states of the Union and the Provinces of the Dominion.

There were 2,000 such in the city last night, and when the visitors who come for the love of coming and not to represent any organization arrive there will be 3,000.

It is only the credentialled ones about whom the Toronto reception officials have to worry, and they are devoutly thankful therefor. Last night 1,700 of the 2,000 had been billeted and one last superne effort is to be made to have the remaining 300 entertained.

The preliminary meetings of the International Primary Institute, the field workers' section, the editorial section, and the international lesson committee are all finished.

This afternoon the big convention, the Eleventh Triennial International Sunday School Convention, starts in the Metropolitan Church with a devotional service. It will continue until Tuesday.

Its work is to unite Sunday school workers the continent over and draft the International Sunday school lessons.

The daily meetings will be held in the Metropolitan Church, Queen and Church streets. In the evening twin meetings will be held, one in the Metropolitan Church and one in Massey Hall.

The speakers include nearly every notable Sunday school worker in America.

At the convention will be exhibits of all sorts that have to do with Sunday school work—oil paintings of Biblical subjects, the newest thing in Sunday school appliances and publications.

Giant rallies are to be held in five church on Saturday afternoon.

The first annual reunion of the Jerusalem Sunday School Pilgrims was held last night in the Rosein House. About 200 were present. An informal reception was held in the hotel parlors early in the evening, after which there was a banquet.

Canada and Literature.

The majority of Canadians never read an English paper of any kind whatever; all their literature is American. There can be only one result: Canadians will think "Americanly."—Anglo-Canadian correspondence in London Outlook.

A Mother's Excuse.

When the Toronto truant officer called to see why a certain small boy had been absent from school he received this reply from the youngster's mother: "I have got a new blouse which buttons at the back, and as I don't like to ask the neighbors I have to keep Johnnie home to fasten it for me!"

Pant Collapsed; Man Drowns.

Death of Aged Ex-M. P.

PHYSICAL WORK AT THE Y. M. C. A.

Encouraging Report Presented at the Annual Meeting.

Work has Prospered Under Direction of Mr. P. K. Holmes.

The report of the physical director of the Y. M. C. A., presented at the annual meeting of the Association, shows great progress in that department during the past year, or since the present director took charge. Mr. P. K. Holmes, the director presented the report which is as follows:—

The present physical director commenced his duties here Sept. 1st., 1904.

The first classes of the season in the gymnasium were started Sept. 12th., and were continued without interruption, with the exception of one week's vacation at Christmas, until April 25th.

The junior school boys were instructed as one individual class until Oct. 17th., when the class became so large that it could not be easily handled. It was then considered wise to divide it into two classes, calling the younger and less experienced boys Juniors No. 1, and those more advanced Juniors No. 2. Mr. T. H. Hutchenson was given full charge of Class No. 1 and instructed it very efficiently, with the result of a rapid development.

Class No. 1 had an enrollment of forty and an average attendance of seventeen, maximum attendance at one time, twenty-nine.

Class No. 2 had an enrollment of forty-five members. Maximum attendance for one time, twenty-six. Average attendance, seventeen members. Average attendance of all Jr. school boys for year, from Sept. 12 to April 21, 34.

The Jr. intermediate class had an enrollment of thirty-seven members and an average attendance from Sept. 12th., 1904 to April 17th., '05 of 15.0 members.

The Sr. school boys' class had a membership of twenty-two, with an an average attendance from Sept. 14th., '04, to March 12th., '05, of 9.

The Sr. Intermediate Class had an enrollment of forty-three members, and an average attendance of 13.9 members up to Christmas holidays. After that there was a marked decrease in attendance on account of many of the boys playing hockey. The average attendance from the first of the year to April 17th., '05 was seven members.

The Sr. Men's class had an enrollment of seventy-one members, and an average attendance of 12.35 members from Sept. 23rd., '04 to Dec. 20th., '04. Maximum attendance at one class, thirty. The average attendance from first of year to April 4th., 16.5 members.

The business and professional men's class had an enrollment of 21 members, and an average attendance of 7.25 members. Maximum attendance at one time, 13 members. Class extended from Nov. 24th., '04, to March 20th., '05.

After many repeated requests from Mr. Pringle, Principal of the Business College, a class for the students of that intsitution was formed. These men were to be given a separate class providing that they had an enrollment of at least fifteen men and an average attendance of twelve men. The largest attendance at any one time was only nine, with an average of about five men. These results were not sufficient to warrant the continuance of the class, and after six weeks of existence it was discontinued.

A fencing class was carried on by Sergt.-Major Britton. There was an enrollment of sixteen names, only five of which took any of the classes. They were started on Nov. 12, and continued until March 4th.

On Oct. 29th a wrestling class was started, being instructed by the physical director. There was an enrollment of sixteen members. Maximum single attendance, eight members. This class closed on Feb. 28th., '05.

The "First Aid to the Injured" class was the most encouraging of the whole season. The enrollment consisted of 24 members. The average attendance from Oct. 18th., to Jan. 14, '05, was 15. Throughout the class was instructed by the physical director. It was then found that in order for the men to pass an official examination on the subject, the lectures would have to be given by an M. D. Then Dr. Scott very kindly took the class. Because of his inability to attend regularly the attendance somewhat diminished. Class was continued until the middle of February. Eight men took the examination given by Dr. Greer and passed successfully. Five Leaders' corps men developed and did very efficient work with the various classes right through the season.

Four of these classes were given a practical examination at the end of the season for the whole year's work, and medals were given to the men in each corps who made the highest average in the examinations.

A basket ball league was formed consisting of four teams. A schedule was arranged and games played. Four basket ball games with outside teams were played in our gymnasium. One with Toronto Central, two with Port Hope, (senior and junior teams) and one with Albert College, Belleville. Three games away from home were played with Albert College, Belleville, and Montreal Y.M.C.A., and Westmount of Montreal.

An annual indoor athletic meet was held in each class; records will be preserved and hung in the gymnasium.

An out-door athletic meet was held last November at Nicholl's oval. Eleven medals were awarded to the winners of the different events. This meet had a decided tendency to stimulate athletics in the gymnasium during the winter.

A skating rink was successfully conducted by Mr. T. H. Hutchinson, Assistant Secretary, on the vacant lot to the south side of the building. A great many boys took advantage of this rink.

A very interesting Bible club for gymnasium men was organized on October 4th., '04, with a membership of 23, and an average attendance of thirteen members. Maximum individual class, 22 members. This class was lead by the physical director.

A regular summer schedule of sports was drawn up and pursued. Jumping standards, etc., were placed at Nicholl's oval for the track teams. The vacant lot at the south side of the building was converted into an out-of-door basket ball field and jumping standards, etc., were placed there.

Track athletic teams were organized.

Two field hockey teams were organized.

Out-of-door basket ball teams were organized among all the gymnasium classes.

Two junior baseball teams were formed and league games played.

Two senior field hockey teams were also created and have formed part of the summer schedule of sports.

Three gymnasium exhibitions were held during the year.

Signed,
PERCY K. HOLMES,
Physical Director.

IN the Imperial Oxford we have not only given to the women of Canada the most perfect baking and roasting range but we have also produced the most economical.

The oven of the ordinary range is raised to a baking temperature by the direct heat of the fire on the side of the oven. To keep that oven at a sufficiently high temperature to bake or roast by, you must be continually poking the fire and adding fuel to it.

As the oven of the Imperial Oxford Range is heated by our patented Diffusive Flue, the temperature of the oven remains steady until the baking is done, without the necessity of touching or adding fuel to the fire.

This fact is easily demonstrated. If, when an Imperial Oxford is going, you were to stop the inlet of this flue in the bottom of the range you would find by the thermometer that the oven was getting colder, and that to keep it at a baking temperature you would have to keep poking the fire and adding more coal fast as with an ordinary range.

If your dealer doesn't handle the Imperial Oxford, write to us for catalogue and information as to where you can see it. 20

PETERBORO'S INTERESTS MUST BE CONSIDERED

Hon. Minister of Railways and Canals Says That Navigation Must Be Maintained---Results of the Deputation's Visit to Ottawa---Hon. Mr. Emmerson Promises to Consider the Matter---Common Sense Must Be Exercised---Maintaining Level of the Waters to Satisfy as Far as Possible All the Interested---Navigation's Interests First.

The deputation from the Board of Trade, and Peterborough Water Commissioners, returned from Ottawa this morning, having had an interview with the Minister of Railways and Canals regarding the complaint made to the Department in connection with the waters of Stony and Clear Lakes.

Hon. Mr. Stratton, who was in Ottawa, introduced the deputation to the Minister and explained the position of matters so far as the rise and fall of the streams tributary to the Otonabee River, were concerned.

HON. H. R. EMMERSON

Minister of Railways and Canals, Who Received the Deputation Yesterday

Hon. Mr. Emmerson stated in reply to the deputation that it was the duty of the Department to see that navigation was not interfered with or interrupted, and that the water was kept at a sufficient height, and, as far as possible, to protect navigation throughout the season, and if in doing this the commercial interests of Peterborough and the water supply for its citizens, were benefitted, he was glad of it, as it should be the first aim of the department to see that these interests were first of all considered.

He understood there had been temporarily an extra supply of water from the Mississauga district, and also from Jack's Creek and Eel's Creek, and their small tributaries, and that this had occasioned perhaps an extra supply of water for this season of the year in Stony and Clear Lakes, but that nothing had been done to retain or dispose of the water other than the natural flow.

He would look into the complaint of the Cottagers' Association, and see what rested in their complaint. He quite appreciated the fact that in a stream where the water is said to rise and fall from one to six, seven or eight feet, there is difficulty in maintaining the water at an even height, and that common sense would have to be displayed in the administration by the Superintendent so that to see that as far as possible, all interests were justly dealt with: keeping in view, first of all, the navigation and commercial interests of such an important place as Peterborough.

He promised to look into the matter. He was of the opinion, however, that the natural flow of the river would remove the difficulty complained of in a very short time.

SHOULD HAVE PUBLIC BATH

Magistrate Dumble Deplores Its Absence While Fining Boys.

Two Lumberman Get Drunk But Were Given Another Chance

There was a large docket at the police court this morning, with the usual complement of rail birds.

The first case was that of Robert Godfrey, charged with vagrancy, being drunk and sleeping in an outhouse. He said that he was a lumberman and had come to town to get his time. He immediately got drunk, and while under the influence of liquor, was relieved of his money. He was discharged, and told to go home quickly. He lives at Young's Point.

George Harris for being in a like condition, was discharged. "I'll give you another chance," said Mr. Dumble.

Seven boys, who were caught swimming in the bay, were before the Bench this morning. The three oldest were fine $2, and costs amounting to $2.25 each. Mr. Dumble in imposing sentence, deplored the absence of a proper bathing house in the community, and said that it was a shame that none was in existence. It was too bad, he said, that boys and men could not after a hard day's work, coming home dirty, needing and, longing for a bath, could not be provided with one. He thought the community might go down in their pockets and erect a bathing house, where for a few cents, towels, etc., and the proper attire for bathing could be procured. He said, however, that while a swim was all right and perfectly proper yet it must not be indulged in to the annoyance and discomfort of others, and he therefore imposed a heavy fine in order to stop giving offence to ladies and gentlemen who otherwise would enjoy boating on the lake.

The next case was that of a resident living on Gilchrist street, who preferred a charge against his wife of stealing money. He appeared in court and withdrew his charge, paying the costs, amounting to $2. It was all owing to a misunderstanding over their bank books.

Edward Taylor, a painter, was charged with assaulting Wm. Fredenburg, a young lad. The case was dismissed.

FORAGE CAP FOR THE SERGT.-MAJOR

Sergt.-Major Brittain Honoured by the Collegiate Institute Cadets.

Last evening a very pleasing event occurred in the Collegiate Gym. The Cadets were lined up, and following a short speech by Capt. Miller, in which, on behalf of the Cadets, he expressed the appreciation of their instructor's valuable services, Lieut. Arnott presented the Sergt.-Major with a forage cap. The recipient expressed his appreciation of the gift for which he was very thankful, because it was "just the thing he wanted."

Short speeches were also made by Messrs. Fessenden and Hodgson, in which they expressed their admiration for the splendid work done by the corps under the able instruction of Sergt-Major Brittain and the officers. They were pleased to see so many of the more prominent boys taking an active interest in the work, and hoped that the corps would soon become the finest in the province.

MORRIS CHAIR FOR PTE. FOSTER

Sergeants of No. 5 Company Honour Member of Company.

On the Occasion of His Recent Marriage—A Pleasing Event.

Private Foster, of No. 5 Company, 57th Peterborough Rangers, was on Thursday made the recipient of a handsome Morris Chair by the Sergeants of the Company, of which he is a popular member in honour of his recent marriage.

The Sergeants waited on Mr. Foster at his home and surprised him by presenting him with the address which follows, accompanied by the chair:—

Private Foster,—

Your comrades in arms desire to extend to you their hearty congratulations on your marriage and to assure you that their best wishes follow you for your future happiness.

A long period of fellowship with you has convinced us of your many good qualities and we are not surprised that your soldierly and manly bearing should gain for you the admiration respect and affection of a sweetheart and we feel confident from her good judgment in selecting you for her life partner that marriage in your case will be an unqualified success.

Kindly accept this token as a tribute of our regard for you and as a memento of the happy days we have together served in No. 5 Company and as an evidence that you carry for yourself and Mrs. Foster, our heartfelt prayer that you may both be blessed with a long enjoyable and happy life.

Signed on behalf of No 5 Company,—
Col. Sergt. Sturgeon,
Sergt. Batten,
Sergt. Manly,
Sergt. Dummitt,
Sergt. Warne.

Mr. Foster was taken completely by surprise, but expressed his deep appreciation of the gift and of the good will which prompted it.

He assured them that it was a great pleasure to him to know that they had remembered him so kindly and thanked them sincerely.

LeBrun Fishing Party Report Excellent Fishing

The LeBrun fishing party, who have been sperding a few days at "Bellechasse," Mr. LeBrun's handsome summer home, Stony Lake, returned to town last night.

The members of the part report excellent fishing, and some fine catches were made. With regard to the high water Mr. LeBrun states that if it were three or four inches lower, it would suit him and many others, but would be willing to make some sacrifices in the interests of power-users of Peterborough.

AUXILIARY ELECTS THEIR OFFICERS

Annual Meeting of Charlotte Street Missionary Auxiliary Was Held

On Tuesday afternoon the Women's Missionary Auxiliary of the Charlotte street church held their annual meeting.

The election of officers took place, resulting in the re-election by acclamation of all last year's officers as follows:—

President—Mrs. (Rev.) Kilgour.
1st Vice-President—Mrs. (Rev.) Jolliffe.
2nd Vice-President — Mrs. Campbell.
Recording Secretary — Mrs. (Rev.) Adam.
Corresponding Secretary — Mrs. Carver.
Treasurer—Mrs. Allum.

A very enjoyable part of the afternoon's programme was an excellent report by Mrs. (Rev.) Jolliffe, of the branch meeting recently held at Oshawa.

SMALL MARKET THIS MORNING

But Prices Were Good—Potatoes Higher in Price—Apples Scarce

There was a small market this morning though prices were good. Potatoes were 90c and $1.00 per bag. Apples were 30c. per pack, only one lot being seen.

There was a quantity of garden vegetables offered. Up stairs the attendance was comparatively small. Prices were good, however, and those who had produce for sale find no trouble in disposing of it. Eggs were 15c, and butter was from 16 to 20c per lb. Chickens were plentiful and went for 25c to 50c per pair.

There were several loads of hay of good quality and went at $10.00 per ton.

This is the Best.

FLOWER SERVICE AT ST LUKE'S

Japanese Clergymen Will Preach—To-morrow's Services.

The Rev. P. Y. Mastin, a native clergyman of Japan and a convert of the Canadian church in Japan, will preach at St. Luke's to-morrow morning.

In the evening the annual flower service will be held. The children will assemble in the Sunday School at 6.45, each one bringing some flowers. The friends of St. Luke's are requested to send some flowers on Sunday afternoon.

The annual garden party under the auspices of St. Luke's W. A. will be held on the Rectory grounds on Thursday. Ladies interested in helping to prepare for it will attend a special meeting at the residence of Mrs. F. J. Jamieson, Harvey street, on Monday at 4 p.m.

LATEST SPORT

THE SCORE WAS 14-3 FOR METHODISTS

George Street Defeated St. Andrew's in First Game.

It was easy money for the George Street team that night, when the last three innings of the game in the Guild League with St. Andrew's were played, the score for the three innings being 9-0 in favour of the Methodists with one innings to agare, and the score for the game being 14-3. Swanston pitched last night and pitched good ball, but two errors by him practically brought in the two runs. Parnell, too, pitched good ball, and, although his support was not faultless, it was good enough to win.

At the present rate the George Street team look like winners, but St. Andrew's may spring a surprise on them when the return game is played on their grounds. The teams were practically the same as those of Wednesday night. McKnight figuring on St. Andrew's in place of Miller and Curtis instead of Mulhern on the George Street team.

ST. JOHN'S TO PLAY THE SENIOR CLUB

Game of Baseball at Riverside Park To-night.

Peterborough Midland League team will play the St. John's Guild team on Riverside park at 6.30, sharp. The St. John's are playing fast ball since the addition of Chris. Graham to their list. The teams will line up as follows:—

Peterborough.—Douglas, Quinlan, Rattray, Shea, Rayne, Sheridan, Calahan, E. Pilling, J. Pilling, Connors, Treanor.

St. John's.—Cavanah, Graham, Weller, Waram, Green, Sawers, Simmons, Hodgson, Fitzpatrick, Hutchinson. Umpire, Geo. Lynch. Admission, 10c.

CENTRALS WON FROM SEPARATES

And are Now the Proud Possessors of the Championship Flag.

On Tuesday evening the Central and Separate teams played off their tie for the championship in the senior series of the Public School League, the Centrals winning by a score 3-1, and are therefore entitled to the flag presented by Mr. Pringle.

GALT WITHDRAWS FROM THE W. F. A.

The Club Unfairly Treated by the Association Officials.

The Galt Reporter says:—At a meeting of the Executive of the Galt Football Club recently, it was decided to withdraw the team from the W. F. A. The Galt Club considers itself to have been unfairly treated this season by the Association officials.

Galt has been the strongest club of the W. F. A. for the past few seasons and has consistently entered junior, intermediate and senior teams. There is no club in America that can beat Galt with its full line-up. This has been shown again and again on the various trips taken by this team since 1903.

BASEBALL.

The undefeated Victors added another victory on their list Thursday night, by defeating the Aberdeens by the score of 4-0.

St. Catharines "look good" to win out in the senior series, but with Peterborough and Richmond Hill in the running, there is no easy guessing.

* * * *

Richmond Hill, June 23.—The first home game in District No. 10 of the C. L. A. was played here between the Talagoos of Newmarket and Richmond Hill. The match resulted in a win for the visitors by 3 goals to 1. Richmond Hill were handicapped by the absence of three players, and were forced to press into service men who never handled a stick until this year. Sanderson, one of the new ones, made good, his work in goal being all that could be desired. The referee, Mr. Taggart, understood his business, and, as a result, many players decorated the fence for minor offences. The game was practically an exhibition, two or three of the home players being without certificates.

COTTAGERS ASK FOR DAMAGES

From Government if the High Water is Maintained.

Mr. J. S. Knapman Presents the Views of the Cottagers.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

Since considerable criticism has been given condemning the Stony Lake Cottagers' Association for asking that the water in Stony Lake be lowered, I think it is only reasonable that the cottagers' side of the question should be heard. When different cottagers bought islands and lands, they bought them on the condition of what the water has been in the past. Now the Government find for navigation and power purposes, that the level should be higher, which is all right, and I don't think there is a cottager living in Peterborough who don't want to see the navigation and power improved, but while the raising of the water level may be all right for that purpose, is it fair that the water should be raised, destroying the use of their wharfs and also the benefit of their islands and lands without allowing them damages for the same? The wharves built last year by the Government at McCracken's land Mount Julian have about a foot of water running over the top of them, which makes them perfectly useless. Now, if the Government could not strike the right level for their own wharves, how could you expect the cottagers wharves to be any different. The lowering of the water of a little over a foot would make the greater part of the wharves suitable for landing, and would adjust most of the trouble. This raising of the water is a matter which was bound to come up for adjustment sooner or later, on the completion of the Trent Valley Canal, and I think in the interest of all parties that the sooner it is adjusted the better. If it is necessary to raise the water several feet higher still in the navigation and power, I say do so, but pay the damages sustained by a few for the general good of all. It would pay the Government better to raise the water and pay damages for flooding, than to have low water and be continually dredging the channels. Hoping that the matter will be adjusted in the interest of all, I remain,

MR. J. S. KNAPMAN,
Who Presents the Views of the Cottagers.

Yours truly,
J. S. KNAPMAN.

KHties Band at the Opera House To-night.

The residents of Peterborough are to be congratulated upon the announced appearance of the celebrated Kilties' Band, undoubtedly the most picturesque, novel and popular musical organization now before the public. This wonderful organization which was recruited from the five prinsipal regiments of the Dominion of Canada, has played before hundreds of thousands of people in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Europe. The band in their concerts always give due prominence on their programmes to the compositions of the great composers, but they are equally at home in the popular music of the day, and particularly excel in the rendition of their own peculiar national music, that of Scotland. Aside from the musicians in the band attached to the organization are 7 soloists, 6 Highland dancers, 4 British military burglars, and a splendid vocal choir of 16 voices, who render with skill and effect, exquisite Scotch and American melodies. The band appears in the picturesque full kilted uniform and attached to it, is a giant drum-major, Mr. Roderick Bain McKenzie, who stands over 8 1-2 feet in the feather bonnet which he wears. There is every reason to anticipate a successful engagement for the band at the opera house to-night. Prices 25c, 35c, 50c and 75c.

Mrs. Morrow's Recital.

Choral Class will meet for dress rehearsal, Opera House, Monday at 5.30 p.m.. Full attendance requested.

NEWS NUGGETS.

—Read in to-day's Examiner the third of the series of Sherlock Holmes' stories, "The Adventures of the Dancing Man."

—The excursion of St. Andrew's church, Young's Point, arrived in town this morning upon the steamer Majestic. Only a small crowd was in attendance.

—The Woman's Missionary Society of the George street Methodist church, will hold a lawn social at the home of Mrs. A. E. Micks, 178 Dalhousie street, on Tuesday evening, June 27th. Admission ten cents.

—To-morrow the annual Flower Service will be held in the George street church. In the morning at 10.30 the members of George street and Grace church schools will meet in the Sunday school room, and proceed to church. Every member of the Sunday school is expected to carry a bouquet.

—Last night Mr. Hadlay Scook, who for the last three years has filled the position of foreman of the job room of the Examiner, was on the eve of his departure for Winnipeg, where he goes to accept a position, presented by the staff of this office with a solid leather suit case and fountain pen.

—A large excursion came up from Bewdley yesterday on the City of Peterborough, and went over the Lift Lock. The outing was under the auspices of the Baptist church, of Bewdley, and about one hundred and twenty-five took in the trip. They intended to go as far as Lakefield but arrived in town too late. The boat left on the return trip at 4 o'clock.

Miss Nellie Green, daughter of the late G. W. Green, of this place, visited here for a few days this week with Mrs. Jas. Donaldson. Miss Green has been with her brother, Mr. G. Walter of Peterborough, for some months, but is leaving shortly for Manitoba for the summer.—Millbrook Reporter.

LINEVITCH LOST AN ENGAGEMENT

Rout of Strong Russian Force in First Engagement---Used a Red Cross Flag---Russian Commander Sent Emperor Word That Movement Was Successful---Lost 200 Men, While Jap Loss Was About Nil ---Another British Ship Sunk by Russian Vag Cruiser.

Tokio, June 26.—The following official despatch has been received from the Japanese headquarters in Manchuria:

"The enemy holding the northwest eminence of Manchengou was attacked and dislodged on the afternoon of June 22, but a portion of the enemy holding the hills to the west offered stubborn resistance, and the hills were finally taken by assault. Another force of the enemy holding the hills due north was attacked from the front and we simultaneously resorted to a turning movement from the northeast, intercepting his retreat and causing him heavy loss. The enemy in confusion hoisted the red cross flag, but this did not stop our firing, and he fled north in disorder.

"His strength in cavalry and infantry was some 2,000 men and several guns. Sixty corpses were left on the field. The enemy's loss was fully 200. Our loss was insignificant."

Linevitch to the Czar.

St. Petersburg, June 26.—The Emperor has received the following despatch from Gen. Linevitch, dated June 23.

There is no change in the position of the armies. After the Japanese advance on our right flank, which I have already reported, the enemy advanced against our front, east of the railway, where the Cossacks, noticing the enemy's advantage, had withdrawn slowly.

On June 19 our cavalry having been reinforced, met the Japanese advance, when the enemy hastily withdrew to the south.

On the morning of June 20 our cavalry reoccupied points on the Mandarin road. Japanese infantry began at 9 o'clock on the same day a determined advance against Gulichi, operating an artillery fire on our outposts. At noon our men north of Gulichi withdrew and the advanced guard of the division retreated still farther to the heights north of Seidoukuse, in superior forces, finally falling back as far as Liaoujiae. The fight ended in the evening, the enemy remaining four miles south of this spot. It was found later that two regiments of cavalry with machine, mountain and field guns, had advanced along the Mandarin road.

To the west three battalions of infantry, a squadron of cavalry and three guns advanced. We resolved to advance on June 20, in order to drive the enemy back and, to enable our advance guards to recover their former positions. For this purpose the troops selected began to move towards Liaoujiae. Scouts were thrown out and the Japanese retired before our advance guards.

In the evening of June 20, our advanced troops occupied Menchuagai and a pass to the west of that place. On the morning of June 21 our further advance began near Rescopingao. A lively fire was opened by farmers, four Japanese batteries being engaged. The Japanese showed a disposition to offer an obstinate resistance, and the appearance of our troops here caused confusion among them, compelling them to send for reinforcements.

The object of our advance being fully attained our troops were withdrawn on the falling darkness, the positions which the enemy had occupied before our advance remaining in our hands.

A Japanese battalion and 100 cavalry appeared north of Chajuaben, Corea, on June 20.

No Peace Before Battle.

M. Neraloff, Under Minister of Foreign Affairs and the spokesman of the Foreign Office, in an interview in The Gazette, declares an armistice pending the meeting of the plenipotentiaries is improbable and he comments on the possibility of a battle taking place before a conference is held.

A Jap Plenipotentiary.

London, June 26.—The correspondent of The Morning Post at Shanghai says: "Mr. Odagari, the Japanese consul here, has been recalled. He leaves Tuesday in order to proceed to Washington as one of the peace plenipotentiaries."

Another Russian Ship Sunk.

Singapore, June 26.—The British India Steam Navigation Co.'s steamer Ikhona was sunk by the Russian cruiser Terek June 5, 150 miles north of Hong Kong. The crew was landed here last night by the Dutch steamer Perlak, which the Terek met June 19. The Ikhona was carrying malts and rice from Rangoon to Yokohama.

Sank Only St. Kilda.

Jibuill, French Semilland, June 26.—The captain of the Russian auxiliary cruiser Dnieper says that he examined many ships, but sank only the British steamer St. Kilda. He says he came at full speed from the Yellow Sea on hearing of the dispatch to the Russian fleet in the battle of the Sea of Japan.

Drowned in the Don.

Toronto, June 26.—George Laing, who boarded at 151 Sackville street, was drowned yesterday afternoon. With two companions, James Chisholm and Allen Nedton, he went bathing in the Don in the rear of the Necropolis. He was unable to swim, and while wading around stepped into a deep hole and sank. Deceased was 24 years of age, and had only been in Canada a short time, coming from Scotland, where he left a wife and child. He expected them to join him here shortly.

Voracious Bug Invades Kent.

Chatham, June 26.—Farmers hereabouts are much alarmed over the appearance of a grub hitherto unknown in this locality. The insect seems to be especially destructive to corn plants, attacking the stalks near their bases and consuming the pith. Even Canada thistles have been attacked by the voracious bug. Specimens have been sent to the Agricultural College, Guelph.

Soldiers and Police After Circus.

Quebec, June 26.—A special train carrying about a dozen Provincial policemen and 25 soldiers from the citadel left yesterday afternoon for Grand Mere to arrest a number of the employes and hangers-on of the Lemon Bros.' circus for robbery and other depredations carried on by them while at Chicoutimi and Roberval during the past week.

WAR SPIRIT RISING.

France Begins to Feel it Keenly Along the Border.

Paris, June 26.—La Liberte last night began the publication of a series of articles from the frontier, showing the excited state of public feeling and the activity of the military forces, which are alleged to be constantly drilling and undergoing inspection.

The diplomatic situation remains unchanged, as Germany has not yet presented her answer to the French note. Officials say the negotiations are taking the usual normal course without at present any indications of a marked change. It is definitely known that the French Ambassador to Germany was cordially received by Chancellor Von Buelow on Friday. This is considered to be a most reassuring symptom of Germany's conciliatory intentions.

SANK A FISHING SCHOONER.

Norwegian Steamer Sverre Runs Down the Columbia Off Low Point.

Halifax, June 26.—The Norwegian steamer Sverre, outward bound from Sydney with a cargo of coal to Montreal, ran down and sank the Gloucester fishing schooner Columbia, inward bound to Sydney, at 2 o'clock yesterday morning, two miles off Low Point light station. The captain and four of the crew were on deck and fourteen men were below asleep.

Two of the sailors went into the rigging and jumped on the deck of the steamer and threw ropes to other men who were now scrambling for life as the vessel was sinking rapidly.

The Columbia had 200,000 pounds of cod on board.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGES.

Train Despatcher and Operator Are Charged.

Kenora, June 26.—As a result of the coroner's inquest, held Friday night to enquire into the cause of the recent wreck at Kalmar, the jury brought in a verdict that the wreck was due to the negligence of George S. Morris, despatcher at Fort William, or Operator W. Bowen of Rennie, or both.

The despatcher claimed his order gave the stock train rights over all trains, except first-class trains, while the operator claimed the order did not contain the words "Except first-class trains."

Both men were arrested on a charge of manslaughter and released on bail.

Unknown Boy Killed by Train.

Kingston, June 26.—Early Saturday morning the dead body of a boy, 14 or 15 years of age, was found alongside the C. P. R. tracks near Sharbot Lake. The left arm and left leg had been cut off. No one could identify the remains, which were placed in charge of the coroner. The boy had a small bundle containing a change of clothing and a piece of soap. It is supposed he was beating his way west on a freight train in search of work.

Returns to 10 Hour Schedule.

New York, June 26.—The following announcement was made yesterday by President W. H. Newman of the New York Central Railroad: An investigation has shown conclusively that the accident was not caused by the speed of the train; it is now decided unnecessary to longer continue the slower schedule of the Twentieth Century train. Its schedule of 16 hours between New York and Chicago will be resumed Monday, the 26th.

DROWNING OF TWO LADS.

Had Been Playing on Log Booms at Victoria Harbor.

Victoria Harbor, June 26.—A double drowning accident occurred here Friday. Earle Brown, aged 12, only son of Byron Brown, and Willie Evans, aged 13, only son of Robert Evans, were drowned while playing on the booms. The two children were missed after school, and search was instituted, but no trace of them could be found. Saturday at noon the hats of the unfortunate boys were found floating on the bay. The searchers started to grapple, and at 6 o'clock both bodies were found about 30 feet apart, one at each end of the boom.

LODZ HAS A BLACK FRIDAY

Streets a Battlefield and 100 to 200 Are Killed—Warsaw Flies Red Flag—Social Democrats by Proclamation Call on Workingmen for General Strike, as Protest Against "New" Crimes of Emperor's Government—People Inflamed and Clashes Already Occurring With the Police.

Lods, Russia Poland, June 26.—"Black Friday" in Lods, surpassed all the horrors of "Red Sunday" in St. Petersburg. While it is not yet possible to ascertain the exact number of victims estimates place the killed at over 100, possibly 200, and the wounded five times that number. The trouble here was initiated by the Social Democrats and Jewish Bund, who determined to avenge their comrades killed in the rioting on Wednesday. Thursday, the Feast Corpus Christi, passed off quietly, but during the night workmen attacked the patrols. In this fighting two officers and seven Cossacks were killed. One of the latter was shot by a girl of 13 years.

The city resembles a shambles and the terrible scenes of the last two days will never be wiped from the memory of the Polish people.

The most serious phase of the fighting between the military and strikers is at an end, but there are still isolated attacks in the suburbs. At Baluty yesterday morning Cossacks attacked a Jewish family of five persons who were driving in a cab to the railway station and shot and killed all, including the cabman. At Pabjanice, near Lods, workmen attacked two police men and shot and killed one and wounded the other.

There is general exodus from Lods. Twelve thousand persons have already left and all trains are crowded. During the disturbances 25 Government liquor stores were destroyed by the mob, who appropriated all the cash and stamps found on the premises which they added to the funds of the agitator party. The workmen in all the factories will strike to-day.

Soldiers Are Brutes.

Some prominent citizens this morning telegraphed Gen. Rennenkow, commanding the troops here, asking for protection against the brutality of the soldiers, especially the Cossacks, who in one instance killed and robbed the servant of a millionaire named Rosenblatt, who was carrying 25,000 to the bank. The general promised to punish the offenders, but said he required witnesses of the occurrence to testify against the Cossacks.

Altogether there are 10 regiments encamped in Lods. The fighting spirit of the people is fully aroused. They have tasted blood and want more. Certainly the revolutionary spirit is abroad, and it remains to be seen whether military measures will have the same effect as they previously did.

Yesterday at Baluty, a suburb of Lods, four Cossacks were killed and 16 wounded by a bomb which was thrown into their barracks. Twenty-three of their horses were killed. Occasional volleys are still fired by police or gendarmes in response to shots from houses. The soldiery are showing what appears to be wanton cruelty. Late yesterday afternoon they shot and killed four women a mother and her daughter.

The funerals of the victims of the shooting of Thursday and Friday took place yesterday surreptitiously in the suburbs outlying villages.

An official report says that the number of casualties was largely increased by the neglect of persons to remain indoors and who insisted on looking out of doors and windows when volleys were being fired by soldiers or rioters. Residents of the city say they received no orders to remain indoors.

Shooting was renewed last evening. Cossacks are robbing the dead of money and money.

LEGAL TROUBLE OVER COBOURG LADY'S WILL

One of Her Daughter's Inherited One Dollar and Now Wants to Know if She Has Other Rights.

There is seldom much trouble over a lady's will—it's her "won't" that gives the trouble.

The construction of a most involved will is the unpleasant task with which Mr. Justice Street entered upon at Osgoode Hall on Wednesday. The will is that of Mrs. Mary Waldie of Cobourg, and it was made in 1886. Mrs. Waldie died only recently.

The terms of the will say that the home is to be left to John Waldie, husband of the deceased, and he and the children who remained single were to receive the interest on $7000 cash included in the estate. If the husband was to marry again he was to be cut off from the legacy, and if the children were wedded they were to be cut off with their personal effects. Jemima, a daughter, who was married, was the exception and the will expressly stipulated that she was to receive one dollar out of the estate. This daughter is now asking Judge Street to say what her rights are under existing circumstances, for since the making of the will three of the sons have died.

IN MEMORIAM.

Lines written on the death of Mr. William Batten, Sr., who died May 14th, 1905, aged 86 years.

Another aged pilgrim
Is gone to his reward
To join the ranks of the redeemed
And dwell with Christ the Lord.

Long years ago he sought and found
And chose the better part
And until death he served the Lord
With true and faithful heart.

This happy spirit now is free
From all sorrow and care;
Temptations ne'er shall trouble him
In that home over there.

He loved unto God's house to go,
On the blest Sabbath day
And listen to God's word proclaimed
And sing and praise and pray.

Light of the sun he does not need
In that fair land sublime,
For Christ the Lamb, Who is the light
Doth there forever shine.

The rest for God's people prepared
His spirit now enjoys
And now to all eternity
His time for God employes.

Sorrows no more shall trouble him
In that fair clime on high.
For God will wipe, the Bible says,
All tears from every eye.

How swiftly did he pass away,
Unto the spirit land,
To join the loved ones over there
Upon the shining strand.

A happy, joyous Christian he
Who loved to talk of Heaven,
And of the joys of those on earth
Who knew their sins forgiven.

A father kind and true was he
To all his children here,
And an indulgent husband too,
Unto his wife so dear.

He preached unto the people here
The precious word of God,
A faithful labourer was he
In duty's path he trod.

His labours are all ended here
His work on earth is done
And God rewards him now in Heaven
With an immortal crown.

Farewell, dear uncle, we on earth
Thy face shall see no more,
But hope again to grasp the hand,
Upon the other shore.

May all his children left behind
The love of Christ receive,
And meet their dear parents in Heaven
And there with Jesus live.

BENEFITS OF FRATERNALISM

Sermon to Ancient Foresters by Rev. F. J. Scott.

Annual Church Service Held in Murray Street Baptist Church—An Appropriate Sermon.

The members of Court Stanley, Ancient Order of Foresters, attended Murray Street Baptist Church in a body last evening, when the annual sermon was preached by Rev. F. J. Scott. The members of the Order attended in large numbers and in addition, many of the congregation were also present. Rev. Mr. Scott preached a forcible and earnest sermon from the story of the good Samaritan, St. Luke, X 25-37.

In opening, Mr. Scott said, that his sermon would not be entirely for the members of the Order but for the congregation as well. It was a wonderful question that was asked by the lawyer in this portion of the Scriptures, "Master what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" The question was asked coldly and professionally, with no debt of religious feeling. There was no sense of guilt there. And Jesus replied "What is written in the law? How dost thou?" The lawyer's answer was a most remarkable one. "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind and thy neighbour as thyself." This answer contained two elements, love to God and love to man. The Jews recognized both these elements but they seldom appeared in conjunction. "Are we not too prone," asked the speaker, "to separate the religious from the ethical?" The religionist says "If I love God, I fulfil all the law," He attends church, and cries amen and hallelujah, but on Monday we may find him not using square weights and refusing to relieve the needy. On the other hand, the moralist says, "I am kind and charitable towards my fellow men. I am doing all that is required of me." But the two need to be combined. The law of Christianity emphasizes love to God and love to man.

After receiving the answer, Jesus replied "Thou hast answered right." At that answer a thrill of alarm must have shot through the lawyer's being, and with it a sense of sin. But the lawyer, although alarmed, anxious to justify himself, said "and who is my neighbour?" Jesus had replied with the story of the good Samaritan. There are many reasons why we admire the centre figure in that story. One is that he had compassion. "God bless the man with a heart," said the speaker, "never despise an emotional man. There is continual opportunity for exercising the spirit of compassion. Men are in need of help physically and need much more help spiritually. Then, another reason that we admire him is that he served directly. There is much need of professional serving, but we ourselves can also serve. Every man should be able to help the poor and needy. The evangelist is a professional soul-leader, but every Christian should be able to point the way to Christ. When you have served yourself, you may do as the Samaritan did, pay others to serve." The speaker here emphasized the fact that it would not do to serve only by paying others, we must also serve ourselves.

In concluding his sermon, Mr. Scott briefly addressed the members of the Order. He advised them to have compassion. "Do not belong to the Order for what you can get out of it. Don't be a professional Forester, but have compassion upon, and love your fellowmen and serve both directly and indirectly. Do good to your fellow Foresters and also to your fellowmen. He thought that there was a certain weakness in the order as in all fraternal societies. That was the weakness of a one-sided emphasis. We often heard of Foresters helping Foresters, and Oddfellows helping Oddfellows, but seldom of kindness of either to men. You have a fund for the relief of Foresters, don't let it be confined to Foresters alone.

The desperate need of this poor old world is the salvation of God. When you have been a good Forester to other Foresters, and a good man to other men, you have not fulfilled the whole law unless you have loved God. whole law unless you have loved God.

Upon return to the hall, a resolution of thanks was passed to Rev. F. J. Scott for his sermon.

THE ADJUTANT SAID FAREWELL

Officer in Charge of Local S. A. Corps Gets Furlough.

Great Progress of the Work During His Period of Service Here.

Yesterday at the Salvation Army Barracks, Adjutant and Mrs. Jennings, who for the last nine months have been stationed here, the former being in charge of the district, held their farewell services. Adjt. Jennings has been granted a year's furlough on account of poor health, and he will spend that year in town, and will take up lighter employment. At the service last night he gave a review of the work since he had been in charge of the corps here.

After a selection by the band, "Memories of Childhood," Adjutant Jennings addressed the meeting, which was largely attended. He stated that since he came here nine months ago 161 had come forward for salvation, and 100 seeking holiness; 47 members had been added to the Corps, and the attendance of soldiers in the open air and at the inside meetings were much larger than it was a year ago. The finances had also improved considerably. Junior work in the Sunday School has increased in the number of companies; finances were better and the attendance larger.

Three special efforts had been made during his term, the first, that of serenading by the band at New Years, the second being the Siege efforts in February and March, and the Self Denial in May.

The speaker wished to publicly thank the different editors and the town officials and police for keeping order at the open-air meetings held by the Army. He referred to his successor, and asked that the soldiers rally around him and support him in the way they had helped him.

Band Instructor Packham followed with a cornet solo, "My Lodging on the Cold ground, after which Bandmaster Greene spoke on behalf of the band, expressing regret that Adjt. Jennings had found it necessary to retire temporarily from the work. Mr. R. C. Braund, the Sergt.-Major, spoke of the work in connection with the juniors, which had made great progress since Adjt. Jennings had taken charge of the corps.

A trombone solo, "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," by Bandmaster Greene, was followed by an address by Sergt.-Major Brooke of the senior corps, who referred to the good work done by the Adjutant. A vocal quartette, "Pilot Me," by Messrs. Packham, John Boorman, Wilfrid Boorman and Jas. Richardson was given.

Ald. Batten spoke on behalf of the friends of the Army, and said that he could not but regret that it had become necessary for the Adjutant to give up his work in connection with the corps here. The work had been most successful under his leadership.

A number of the friends of the Army spoke in similar terms, all expressing regret that the Adjutant was giving up the work.

The meeting closed with a selection by the band, "Crown Him Lord of All."

Adjt. Jennings has been connected with the Army for 16 years, during which time he has worked principally in the Maritime Provinces, coming to Peterborough from St. John, N.B.

The final meeting under Adjt. Jennings' charge will be held on Thursday evening, when Brig. Turner of Montreal, will also be here, and the new officer in charge, Staff-Captain McAmmond of Bracebridge, will be welcomed.

Adjt. and Mrs. Jennings will live over Mr. J. T. Braund's store, at the corner of George and Smith streets.

THE TONIC OF HEALTH

Must be more than a stimulant—must be a food as well.

The "Best" Tonic is FERROZONE, which is both a food and a tonic; it aids digestion, promotes assimilation and converts food into blood, muscle, bone and nerves. No wonder it builds up the weak, makes them strong and vigorous!

FERROZONE

THE GREAT FOOD TONIC

FERROZONE contains exactly what your run-down system lacks. It supplies oxygen to purify the blood, phosphorus to develop the brain, iron to harden the muscles.

No combination of strength-giving, life-sustaining elements can surpass FERROZONE. Instant in effect, lasting in results, no medicine can benefit so much. You'll eat, sleep, think and feel better by using FERROZONE, which is a true tonic. Try it—now.

Ferrozone is sold everywhere in the house or six for $2.50. Prepaid to any address from N. C. Polson & Co., Hartford, Conn., U.S.A. and Kingston, Ont.

BREAKING PLATFORM CAUSED A TUMBLE

Messrs. Cook and Larone Had Unpleasant Experience This Afternoon.

Considerable excitement was created this afternoon in front of the new premises of the Bank of Ottawa, the front of which is being beautified by the brushes of Mr. F. Cook and Mr. Larone.

These two gentlemen were upon an improvised platform upon the tops of two step-ladders, when the plank upon which they were standing broke in the centre and both were precipitated violently upon the pavement. No serious results fortunately resulted, but a river of black paint lent an ebonite hue to the surrounding real estate.

A RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE

Was Passed to Worshipful Master John Leeson.

At the last meeting of Nassau Lodge No. 457 L.O.L. the following resolution was introduced and carried unanimously:—

TO Bro. John Leeson, Worshipful Master, L. O. L. 457, Nassau.

Dear Sir and Brother,—The Divine Master having seen fit to remove from the trials and tribulations of this world, your beloved father, we, the officers and members of Wellington Loyal Orange Lodge No. 457, take this opportunity of extending to you our heartfelt sympathy in this your time of sad bereavement. We pray that you may be enabled to bow in humble submission to the will of God, feeling that your dear father has only left this weary world to join those on high and sing the praises of his Redeemer.

That our Heavenly Father will comfort and sustain you under this, His dispensation and when our brief span of life on earth is over, we may all join with loved ones gone on before to the realms of eternal bliss to be forever with the Lord.

Signed on behalf of the Lodge,
ANDREW ROBINSON,
E. G. DORMER.

THE GIRL AND THE BEE

A Story of the Ignorance of a City Girl.

The city girl coming down to breakfast at the farm house and observing a plate of honey on the table said, "Oh; I see you keep a bee."

That's about the way some people just as if a bald head was something one got all at once instead of being the result of long depletion by an insidious germ which thrived upon the roots of the hair until succumbed to only one known remedy Newbro's Herpicide.

Newbro's Herpicied is not a tonic any more than electricity is a fluid. It is an exterminator, pure and simple.

"Destroy the cause you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Mich. Osmond & Walsh, special agents.

RESULT OF LAST NIGHT'S STORM

Residence of J. Goodwin Struck by Lightning.

Last evening during the severe electrical storm, which passed over this locality, the residence off James Goodwin, Sherbrooke street, near the boundary, was struck by lightning.

The bolt shattered the chimney, and, entering the kitchen partly destroyed the stove, and burned part of the carpet.

A RAILWAY SCENIC MULTIPLIER

A Western Writer's High Tribute to the Magnificence of the Canadian Rockies.

A well-known western author, Mr. de Putron Gliddon, writing from Banff to the officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway, pays the following tribute to the magnificence of the scenery of the Canadian Rockies:—

"No matter what superlatives you use you cannot exaggerate the grandeur and glories of the scenery on the Canadian Pacific Railway between Banff and Vancouver. I do not claim to be a globe trotter, who has seen it all, or knows it all, for my little travels have been confined to a few trips in Switzerland and Austria, and most of the European countries, and I think that I have been on all the transcontinental lines in the United States of America, certainly all the mountain lines, including the Denver and Rio Grande, which takes in the greatest mountain scenery of Colorado, and I also have run by the Japanese scenery; including wonderful Fujuyama, but put them all together and they do not excel, and I think do not equal, the C.P.R.'s scenery. That scenery seems to be a sort of Railway Scenic Multiplier, for the Fraser River Canon is the Royal Gorge multiplied, and enlarged and glorified. The trip up the Kicking Horse Canon is Marshall Pass magnified, and the awesomeness intensified to the highest power, and so it is throughout the whole trip, to say nothing of the attractiveness of the Bow Falls right by this hotel, that for swiftness and beauty and surroundings, are as fine as the far-famed Falls of the Rhine. But, there, I must not weary you with a description, for no one can adequately describe what he sees from the C. P. R. trains from here to the coast. He can try, but the best will be to the reality just about what stage scenery moon is to the original."

—A proposal is being made to thoroughly overhaul and repair the pipe organ of the George Street Methodist Church. It is expected that it will require six weeks to complete the work, which will make the instrument as good as new.

RED FLAG, NO WORK IN WARSAW.

Protest of the Workers Against the Massacres At Lodz.

Warsaw, June 26.—The proclamation issued Saturday by the Social Democratic party of Poland and Lithuania, calling out workmen as a protest against the Lodz massacre, declares that in order to show the solidarity of their brethren and to protest against "the new and incessant crimes of the Emperor's Government," all Warsaw must stop work to-day. The proclamation orders that not a single factory or workshop shall be operated and that offices, shops, restaurants and coffee-houses must close and all traffic must cease. It says that the red flag, the flag of the workingmen must float in the streets of Warsaw and calls upon all workmen to help their brothers arrange a general strike.

The military is patrolling all the streets in the factory and Jewish districts. In the suburb of Praga yesterday workmen shot and wounded two policemen. In Ogrodowa street there was an encounter between gendarmes and a crowd and shots were fired on both sides. Three civilians and one gendarme were wounded. In other streets processions of workingmen were dispersed.

Beginning of Bloodshed.

Rioting commenced Saturday night. Gendarmes charged a crowd and infantry patrols fired two volleys. Three men were wounded. The crowd was also armed and fired upon the troops. A secret police agent was stabbed.

The situation here, with a majority of the workmen striking, the walkout threatening to become general and the working class inflamed by the news of the fighting at Lods, is extremely critical.

The strike was ordered by the Social revolutionary committee as a demonstration to affect the trial of Stephen Okrjeia, the locksmith who threw a bomb into the Praga police station on March 26, injuring six policemen, and his conviction and sentence to death Saturday has still further enraged the revolutionary leaders.

Workmen are wearing mourning for those killed at Lods. All the street railways except on the principal thoroughfares in the city have been stopped and the newspapers have suspended publication. All shops are closed and intense excitement prevails. Disturbances similar to those at Lods are feared.

His Life is Saved.

London, June 26.—The Warsaw correspondent of The Standard says that the court-martial which tried Stephen Okrjeia, the locksmith, who threw the bomb into the Praga police station on March 6, injuring six policemen, has reduced his sentence from that of death to 20 years at hard labor.

Russian Convicts Mutiny.

Libau, June 26.—The convicts in the prison here mutinied Saturday, and with the assistance of a mob of roughs demolished eight cells. The police and military restored order, using their swords. Twelve persons were wounded.

CASE AGAINST ADAM LLOYD.

Evidence Concluded and Magistrate Takes a Week to Consider.

Belleville, June 26.—The investigation into the case of Adam Lloyd, the old farmer charged with the murder of his wife, went on again before Magistrate Flint Saturday. Physicians and neighbors gave the testimony, and then the defence and the Crown Attorney made their addresses.

Mr. Porter, for the defence, claimed that there was only ill-defined suspicion against the prisoner, and he claimed that no man could be committed on suspicion. The Crown had proved no desire on the part of Lloyd for his wife's death and no motive for his killing her.

The Crown Attorney said the most likely theory was that Lloyd had killed his wife and then poured coal oil over her to try to burn her up and cover evidences of the crime. It could not have been accident, the Crown Attorney said. It was not suicide, for the doctors agreed that the woman was unconscious when the burns were made. There was only one theory left, murder. Who could have done that? There was no one there, according to Adam Lloyd, but his wife and himself.

Adjourned a Week.

The magistrate said the case was one of much gravity, and he must have time to carefully review the evidence before giving a decision. He would remand the prisoner till next Saturday, which he did.

NORWAY INCITES HUNGARY.

National Party Calls on the People to Follow Lead.

Buda-Pesth, June 26.—The most radical faction of the National party of Hungary is circulating literature calling upon the people to demand that Parliament follow the example of Norway and decree the dissolution of the Austro-Hungarian union. It is pointed out that the cases are exactly parallel and that the question of military independence, claimed as a birthright by Hungary, was the counterpart of Norway's demand for a separate consular service.

Electrical Officers.

Montreal, June 24.—The election of the officers of the Canadian Electrical Association took place yesterday as follows: A. A. Wright, M. P., president; R. G. Black, superintendent Toronto Electric Light Co., first vice-president; John Murphy, Ottawa Electric Co., second vice-president; C. H. Mortimer of the Toronto Electrical News, secretary-treasurer. The association decided to hold its convention next year at Niagara Falls.

King's Trial Near Close.

Edmonton, June 24.—King's trial is drawing near its end. Yesterday morning, Dr. Alexander Primrose of Toronto University, and Government expert, testified and positively swore that certain bones were parts of a human skull, and local doctors corroborated him. The defence is putting up a stiff fight. The taking of evidence will probably be concluded to-night.

New Spanish Cabinet.

Madrid, June 24.—King Alfonso yesterday approved the new Cabinet, as follows: Premier, Gen. Montero Rios; Minister of Interior, Senor Garcia Pietro; Minister of Foreign Affairs, Senor Sanches Roman; Minister of Finance, Senor Urzais; Minister of War, Gen. Weyler; Minister of Marine, Senor Villaverde; Minister of Agriculture, Senor Romanones; Minister of Justice, Senor Gonzalez-Pulido; Minister of Public Instruction, Senor Mellado.

THE WAR AFFORDS OPPORTUNITIES

Japanese Preacher Says the Effect Will Be the Spread of the Christian Religion---Rev. P. Y. Matsui Speaks Interestingly of the Work of Christian Missionaries in Mikado Empire—Its Growth in 39 years Has Been Marvelous—At the Present Time There are 55,000 Christians—An Optimistic Forecast of its Future.

The work of the Christian Church in Japan, past, present and future, was dealt with most interestingly last night in an address in All Saint's church by Rev. P. Y. Matsui, one of the first converts to the Christian faith in the Island Empire, as the result of the work of the church of England. That the work of the church has progressed to such an extent in the thirty-nine years since 1866, when the first Christian Missionary landed in Japan, was described by the speaker as nothing short of miraculous, and, indeed, when the results achieved are considered, this claim does not seem to be an extravagant one by any means.

The church was filled last night on the occasion of the visit of the clever Japanese speaker, and his address was intensely interesting. He was decidedly optimistic in his references to the prospects for the work in the future, and believed in it one of the results of the war at present being waged between Japan and Russia would be the further development of the Christian church in that empire.

55,000 Christians.

Some pertinent facts were quoted in the course of the address, among them being the statement that at present there are in Japan in the neighbourhood of 55,000 Christians, out of a population of 50,000,000, or at the rate of a little more than one Christian in every 1,000 of the population of the country. There are 514 churches, 95 of which are self supporting, and the balance partly so. Last year $70,000 was contributed by these churches to the work, and for the maintenance of the 800 Missionaries.

A most encouraging sign was the fact that among the public men of Japan, a great many have become converts to the Christian religion, and many men occupying high positions in the state have identified themselves with the church, the influence of these men being very materially felt as a result. The Christian literature of Japan is described as voluminous, and, although it is only 39 years since the Bible was first translated into the Japanese language, it is now read very generally, and its translation has led to the introduction of a very large quantity of religious literature. A few years ago it was different to induce non-Christian booksellers to handle the Bible in their stores, but now it is very different the stationers finding the sale of the Bible most profitable, because of the large number in demand. It is a pleasing fact that a number of editors of newspapers are Christians, and their influence is being exerted along those lines.

Educational Work.

The Japanese are not neglecting the educational work of the church, which is recognised by them, as it is also recognised by the church in other lands to be a necessary adjunct to the religious training, and a number of colleges has been established, as well as 85 boys' schools and 69 girls' schools. The philanthropic side of the work is also carried on, and asylums, poor houses, etc., have been established.

Speaking of the past history of the work of the Christian church in Japan, Mr. Matsui referred to the first Christian baptism which took place on May 14th, 1866. A most interesting recital of the events leading up to this baptism, which was soon followed by many others, was given by the speaker. For 200 years Japan had been practically an isolated country, since foreigners were not admitted, nor were the natives allowed to leave their country. A Japanese, in high authority, however, was sailing one day when he found floating on the water a book, which attracted his attention by its strange appearance. He recovered it and afterwards found that it was a copy of the Bible, which he became interested in, and studied for 12 years, at the end of which time he was baptized a Christian, and thus the man who before was guarding his people against the Bible and Christianity, was the first convert to that faith.

Christianity's Progress.

From this time, the growth of Christianity has been very rapid, and, although at times it has been bitterly opposed it has always made progress, and the state of the work at the present time, as well as the prospects for the future, are described as being highly satisfactory.

The present war has afforded opportunities for the Christianization of the people which would otherwise have been impossible, and during its progress many Missionaries and native teachers have been engaged in work among the soldiers with splendid success. A tribute was also paid to the work accomplished by the Y.M.C.A. One of the effects of the war on the church will be that it will make it self-supporting. The speaker thanked the people of this country for what they had already done for the work in his native land and asked for further help by their prayers and their substance in the furtherance of the work of the Christian Missionaries in Japan.

County Council Makes Many Grants for Roads and Bridges.

At the closing session of the County Council on Saturday, the following report of the Committee on Roads and Bridges was presented by Mr. Moloney and adopted:—

1.—That the communication from the County of Victoria, regarding a claim of Alexander Millage for damages, be received, and that this Council expresses its willingness to pay this county's share (one-fourth) of the amount of the claim.

2.—That Mr. Gilbult be authorized to have the old bridge timber at Chemong Lake taken out and piled on the shore.

3.—That this council expresses its concurrence in the proposed action of the Council of Victoria in re-flooring "Little Bob" Bridge as set forth in the letter of the County Clerk of Victoria, and declares its willingness to pay this County's share (one-fourth) of the expenditure.

4.—The Dominion Government having passed an Order-in-Council to assume the operation of the structures comprised in the swings themselves, and the operations of the works upon which they rest, of the following bridges, namely:—The Benefort Bridge, the Wallis' Point Bridge, the Locke Bridge (Peterborough) the Gannons' Narrows Bridge, and the Chemong Bridge. This council expresses its approval of the action of the Government, and the Warden and County Solicitor are authorized to take such steps as may be deemed necessary to formally transfer the same to the Government.

5.—That the matter of repainting the Benefort Bridge, and Wallis' Point Bridge, be left in the hands of Mr. Hinson, with power to take such action as he thinks best.

6.—That in view of the possibility of the Dominion Government constructing a new dam at Buckhorn, steps be taken to ascertain if, in that event, the Government would permit the county to place thereon a new bridge, and that Messrs. Shaw and Garbutt be a committee to make enquiries and ascertain if such an arrangement can be made.

7.—That Mr. Carey be appointed to superintend the Benefort, Rhone, Keene Station and Allandale Bridges, in the place of the late Mr. Devell.

8.—That Drown's Falls Bridge in the Township of Burleigh be assumed by this county.

9.—That a special grant of one hundred dollars be made to the Township of Smith to assist in constructing the road at Finlay's Creek, West Communication Road, provided that one hundred dollars be granted by the Township of Smith and two hundred dollars by the Provincial Government towards the same purpose.

10.—That a special grant of one hundred dollars be made to the Township of Dummer towards the building of the bridge on the North Stony Lake Road, provided the Provincial Government grant two hundred dollars to the same purpose.

11.—That a special grant of one hundred dollars be given to the Township of Belmont towards the improvement of the Stony Lake Road in that township, providing the township grant fifty dollars, to the same purpose, and the persons signing the petition presented to this council furnish free the fifty-four days labour set forth in the petition.

12.—That a special grant of fifty dollars be made to the Township of Harvey to assist in improving roads and bridges in that township and a special grant of fifty dollars be made to the Townships of Galway and Cavendish, provided the Provincial Government grant two hundred dollars for the same purpose to each Municipality.

13.—That a special grant of fifty dollars be made to the Township of Ennismore to assist in improving the roads between Gannett Narrows Bridge and Chemong Lake Bridge on condition that the Township grant fifty dollars and the Provincial Government one hundred dollars towards the same purpose.

14.—That the special grant of seventy-five dollars to the Townships of Galway and Cavendish given by paragraph eight of the report of this committee dated 3rd February last be paid to the Treasurer of the said united townships.

15.—That a special grant of one hundred dollars be made to the Township of Douro towards the improvement of roads and bridges in that Township and that Mr. Moloney be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

16.—That a special grant of one hundred dollars be made to the Township of Otonabee to assist in improving the roads known as the base line in that township and that Mr. Carey be commissioner for the expenditure of the same.

17.—That a special grant of one hundred dollars be made towards the improvement of the boundary road between the Townships of Dummer and Asphodel East at the Ninth Lines provided the said townships give fifty dollars each towards the same purpose and that Messrs. Webster and Andrews be commissioners for the expenditure of the same.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THE EFFECTS OF LOCAL OPTION

Meeting Held in Selwyn on Tuesday Last.

Rev. J. G. Potter Spoke of the Results of Passing the Local Option By-Law.

A very enthusiastic meeting under the auspices of the Local Option Alliance, was held in Selwyn Methodist Church, Tuesday evening, June 20th. Rev. Elwood Bowerman, the retiring secretary, occupied the chair. After the routine of business, in which Rev. O. R. Clare, of Wesley, was elected secretary, the meeting was addressed by Rev. J. G. Potter of Peterborough and Rev. Mr. Campbell, of Lakefield.

Mr. Potter congratulated the people of Smith upon their great victory for truth and righteousness, and continuing he said, "If the law had not carried, it would have meant the same old condition of things. It would have meant a set-back for the cause of temperance and moral reform for every defeat means a serious reverse and retards our progress. But we did not fail and I am looking forward to the time when our fair land will be free from the curse of strong drink. The passing and enforcing this law means the coming of God's ideal in the lives and homes of our people. It will be a great factor in developing the highest and noblest life. However, we must not stop at a single victory but rather push the battle to the gates".

After appealing very forcibly to the people of Smith to see to it that the law be rigourously enforced, he said by way of encouragement, "the great work of Jesus Christ was to save individuals. As that great country Preacher went up and down in the land, He realized the value of the individual." The speaker then referred to the great work of Spurgeon and Wesley as the work of individuals, implying that if by this law they had saved one man, they had done a great deed. Therefore," said he "if you have saved one life; if you have lifted the burden of one drunkard's wife and brightened one drunkard's home; if you have saved from disgrace one drunkard's child, you are well repaid for all that you have done." Mr. Potter then spoke of the great change that had come to so many homes and the marked improvement in morals throughout the township. He referred to many who had opposed local option, and some that had been engaged in the traffic of strong drink, who now thanked the electors of Smith for what they had done for them and their homes. After pleading again that they would stand by and enforce the law that had brought such a change, and in which he had so much confidence, he said in conclusion "We have a right to rejoice. Let us hold fast our intimacy with God. Let our hearts be stout and our lives be strong and true in this great work of saving our fellowman."

Rev. Mr. Campbell said he did not want to speak for long, but would simply indicate a few thoughts. "Firstly and lastly is it right? Some have suffered because a source of revenue has been cut off. They were in the wrong, and when right steps in and stops a man's business, it is evident that it ought not to exist. Is it not better to have a few such persons thus to suffer than to have the whole community suffer through the iniquitous traffic? And there may be some liquor brought in from Lakefield and other places, but you are free and we are to blame and we are responsible for it." Mr. Campbell stated that on the whole the conditions in Smith are much improved while in Lakefield they are rapidly growing worse. He complained of the lawlessness there and hoped and expected to see a local option campaign in the village during the year and he wanted the temperance workers of Smith to lead a hand.

The secretary stated that the Alliance was not crippled for funds to enforce the law, since the council at its last meeting had enacted that one half of the fine arising from private convictions should be returned to parties convicting. Therefore he urged that all convictions be made through the president and officers of the Alliance. He also asked them not to believe half the reports they heard, since the enemies of the movement would try to make it appear as a failure. "We must see to it," said he "that it is successfully carried out."—Com.

Appetite Was Poor.

Dizzy Most of The Time.

Could Not Sleep at Night.

Many people are deterred of having anything wrong with their heart or nerves till some little excitement or overwork makes them feel faint and dizzy, or perhaps simply going up or down stairs causes dizziness and spells to float before the eyes. People troubled in this way should heed the warning, and not fail to take treatment before something more serious appears.

For all heart and nerve troubles there is nothing to equal

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

We do not claim that they will cure chronic heart disease, but we do claim that they will strengthen the weak heart, and build up the shaky nerve system.

Here is what Mrs. Sidney Hoffman, Hillside, Ont., says:—

"I was troubled greatly with my heart, and was so very nervous that the least little thing startled me.

"My appetite was very poor; I could not sleep at nights, and was dizzy most of the time. I took three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I am very pleased to say that they did me a wonderful lot of good."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25. All druggists, or mailed direct.

A Problem Solved

Ozone is ozone and in buying it the problem is to get the purest form. "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" is the purest form in which Ozone is put up. In addition each bottle contains a coupon entitling you to a package of "Celery King" free, and it is well known that you should take "Celery King" along with Ozone.

We put "Celery King" coupons in our Ozone bottles because no other firm can give "Celery King" with Ozone. By buying "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" you get the purest and most concentrated form of Ozone, and in addition, you save the expense of buying "Celery King" to use with it.

No other kind of Ozone offers this advantage. Ask your druggist for it, and if he hasn't it, write to the Public Drug Company, Bridgeburg, Ont. Sold by W. B. WARNE. 4

We advise everybody to use Sunlight Soap—It makes child's play of work.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

We have used "Sunlight Soap," and we want to tell you that it is the best soap made, that's why we are writing. We found out that the Sunlight way is the best way to wash with "Sunlight Soap." At first we used to wash with Sunlight Soap in the old way as we did with common soap, but after we washed according to directions printed on the package, we would never wash the old way again. We first soap the articles, leave them to soak and then rub out lightly on the wash board. Not much to do and it makes the clothes white as snow.

ASK FOR THE OCTAGON BAR

Sunlight Soap washes the clothes white and won't injure the hands.

A CONSTABLE FOR THE PARK

Mr. Robt. Wilson Appointed for Jackson Park.

Seats to be Furnished in Central and Victoria Park.

A meeting of the Supervision Committee was held Saturday night at the town clerk's office, when the question of appointing a special constable for Jackson Park, was discussed. Two applications were received —one from Robert Wilson and one from David Allison, at $1.75 a day. Robt. Wilson was appointed on motion of Ald. Johnston, seconded by Ald. Leary at $1.50 a day, his work to be at Jackson Park, and his duties to be from 1 o'clock to 11 o'clock p. m. His appointment to be for three months and if he is not required at the park for the full three months, he shall be employed in the town under the direction of the chief of police.

It was decided to purchase twelve seats for Central Park and six for Victoria Park.

Those present at the meeting were, Ald. Hall, chairman, Mayor Best, Ald. Leary, Begley, Johnston and Mason.

THE SERVICE OF THE FLOWERS

Annual Flower Sunday at St. Luke's Yesterday.

Lessons to be Drawn From the Lillies of the Field.

The annual floral service held in St. Luke's church last evening was of special interest to young and old. The pretty edifice was filled with a large and attentive congregation and very impressive were the special hymns. The service was conducted by the rector, Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, who delivered an earnest, helpful address to the children from the words 'Consider the Lilies," — St. Matthew vi, 28.

The members of the Sunday school at the opening of the devotions, marched around the nave, each carrying a pretty floral contribution, which was deposited in a large basket, prettily draped with the Union Jack. The girls were attired in white and the boys in black. The scene was a most impressive one. The scholars and teachers entered from the Sunday school room, while the following hymn was being sung by the choir and congregation, and occupied the central row of seats:

"Oh, gather the flowers together,
And place them near the Shrine,
In the midst of the wondrous glory,
And the radiance all divine,
There are saintly lilies and roses,
Of fragrant red and white,
That tell of the Rose of Sharon
And the Lily's Holy Light."

In a short sermon Mr. Langfeldt said that the words "Consider the lillies" formed a sort of children's corner in the Holy Gospel. It was the custom at the present day for newspapers and magazines to set apart a portion of their space and call it "The Children's Corner." The Bible was more precious than any other book and had many a passage for the children. There were many children to whom God had spoken, and who had done numerous things for Him. They might all do something for Christ. One of the most touching and sweetest offerings was a floral one. How beautiful flowers were. What a pleasure and a comfort to the sick and to the weary. The gifts of this evening would be sent to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto. When Christ said to the people years ago, "Consider the lilies." He meant that there were many lessons from the great work of nature which we all could learn. We would all be wiser and happier if we studied these lessons. "Consider the lilies," also meant that we should look at them carefully, earnestly and attentively. How fragrant, and charming and beautiful they were. They were typical of innocence, of purity and of sweetness. We should lead lives of purity, possessing the sweetness of an unselfish disposition — giving to others. There was nothing grander or nobler than a humble, pure, unselfish and sweet life which helped to brighten the dreary and cheerless conditions of others and to lead the world to Christ. We could all be taught from the flowers and could all strive to make mankind better stronger and truer through the love and blessings of our dear Redeemer."

W. O. W. EXECUTIVE TO MEET HERE

The Annual Business Meeting Here To-morrow.

To-morrow an important meeting of the Woodmen of the World will be held here. The executive of the Order will hold their annual meeting in Peterborough, the sessions meeting in the National Hotel. A number of the head officials of the Order will be in town, and on the following day, at the conclusion of the business, they will be the guests of the local camp to an excursion around the Lakes.

Elite Ladies Tailor System.

Mr. George Ball has been appointed Canadian representative of the Elite Ladies' Tailor system which took the gold medal prize at St. Louis. This is claimed to be the simplest, most accurate and practical system of cutting ladies' and children's dresses and is adjustable to measures for any form. Mr. Ball will teach the system free to anyone calling at his rooms, over Madill's drug store, in the evenings. mws

THE EXAMINER'S LETTER BOX

COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

To the Editor of the Examiner:—

As a citizen in no way connected with the schools or the School Board, I should be glad if we could have so important a matter as the erection of a Collegiate Institute discussed without having improper motives attributed to the members of the Board.

I am sorry as other ratepayers must be that the new building cannot be put up without calling for extra money. But it is evident that we must have an Institute Building, and to get it we must pay the price required for it, and when building it we must plan, not for to-day not for to-morrow merely, but for many years to come. It is proposed to spread the payment over a number of years, and that being the case, the ratepayers of fifteen or twenty years from now, who will have to bear their share of the burden now created, are entitled to have a building that will answer their purposes. Anything less would mean being penny wise and pound foolish.

I see no objection to the Drill Hall being erected on McDonel street and the Institute on Murray street, but I think that both buildings should be put at the back of the grounds, and not in the middle. But wherever placed we must have a new Institute that will keep pace with the growth of Peterborough, unless we are prepared to reverse the whole policy of the country, which gives to the son of the poor man an equal chance with the son of the rich man to obtain an education that will fit him fully for the battle of life.

Yours truly
CITIZEN.

EXAMINER FOUND LONG LOST UNCLE

Englishman Writes to Thank This Paper for Its Services.

Readers of the Examiner will remember that early in the year a letter was published in this paper from Mr. Charles James of Halstead, England, in which he made enquiries in reference to his uncle, who it transpired had died about a year ago. Through the medium of this letter, however, another uncle of the writer, Mr. C. James, of town, was found. To-day the following letter was received from Mr. James:—

20 Halstead Road.
Enfield Tower.

To the Editor of the Examiner,

Sir,—I thank you very much for inserting my letter in your valuable paper and finding my uncle, Mr. James, or me, the beginning of this year. Please accept my best thanks. I remain

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES JAMES.

This is the Best.

Remnant Sale of Carpets and Rugs
For The Next 15 Days.

A Remnant Sale in the Carpet Department is something worth while. The quantities of Carpets are made up of short lengths and others quite long enough to carpet a large room. We have designs enough, and more than we require for a complete carpet assortment, so for the next 15 days we make a special clearing of all ends of carpets and odd rugs (one of a kind).

It takes courage to keep a Carpet Department "clean." This is one of our ways of doing it. We don't put aside the short lengths and re-order the same pattern, so as to get full price. We ask you to come and take the remnants of New Spring 1905 Carpets at reductions that make their clearance sure.

HERE IS PART OF THE LIST FOR THE 15 DAYS SALE:

21½ yards English Axminster Carpet, regular $1.75 yard, 15 days' sale price per yard	1.25
70½ yards English Axminster Carpet, regular $1.25 yard, 15 days' sale price, per yard	1.12½

NEW OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

At Semi-Annual Meeting of the T. A. S.

Delegates to Annual Meeting in Wilkesbarre, Pa.—A Successful Year.

Yesterday the semi-annual election of officers of St. Peter's T.A.S. took place in the rooms, the meeting being very largely attended. The retiring president Mr. Maurice O'Heern occupied the chair, and thanked the members for their co-operation with him during his term of office, and expressed the hope that the same treatment would be accorded his successor. The election which followed resulted as follows:—

President—T. J. Begley.
1st Vice-President—John Grysdale.
2nd Vice-President—Daniel Cushing.
Recording Secretary—L. Bowlin.
Financial Secretary—J. P. Brecken.
Marshall—P. O'Donnell and Wilfrid Grysdale.
Trustees—E. Argus and A. Sharpe.

Rev. Dr. O'Brien was elected delegate to represent the Society at Wilkesbarre in August on the occasion of the annual convention of the Total Abstinence Union of America and Messrs. T. J. Begley and Jos. Maher alternates.

Rev. Dr. O'Brien addressed the members briefly, referring to the present satisfactory state of the Society's work, and spoke of the coming excursion and picnic on July 1st, and asked them to keep it in mind and work for it.

Oddfellows Return Thanks.

The Decoration Committee of the Oddfellows wish to return their sincere thanks and appreciation to the merchants of the town, for having unsolicited, given their employees the opportunity of participating in the Decoration ceremonies on Thursday last, and also to the town officials for having the streets leading to the cemetery, sprinkled for the parade.

PIANO RECITAL BY THE PUPILS

A Delightful Programme Rendered at Conservatory.

Pupils of Mr. Gliddon and Miss Rogers —Assisted by Miss Kendry and Miss Helen Hay.

On Saturday evening an interesting recital was given at the Peterborough Conservatory of Music, by pianoforte pupils of Mr. Gliddon and Miss Helen Hay. There was a small but interested attendance, composed of the friends of the performers and of the Conservatory, who were much delighted with the manner in which the programme was presented, testifying at once to the industry and talent of the pupils and the excellence and thoroughness of the instruction received. Miss Sisson is a first year pupil of Mr. Gliddon and Miss Aylmer a second year pupil of Miss Roger. The assisting pupils were Miss Kendry, vocal, pupil of Herr Wilhelmj, and Miss Helen Hay, mandolin, both of whom acquitted themselves most creditably. The following is the programme given:—

Grieg ... ... Norwegian Bridal Procession
Miss Sisson
(a) Schutt ....Valse Tente
(b) Sinding ... .
Miss Aylmer
Jensen-Nieuraal ...Murmuring Zephyrs

LAMENTED DEATH OF HENRY VOYZEY

Passed Away Sunday Morning at the Residence of His Daughter.

The death occurred at two o'clock on Sunday morning of Henry Voyzey, aged 62 years. Death was the result of cancer of the stomach, from which malady deceased has been a sufferer for a number of months, having removed to Peterborough from his home in Minden about one month ago for hospital treatment. About two weeks ago he was removed to the residence of his daughter, Mrs. John Howland, 230 Edinburgh street, where his condition gradually grew more critical, till dissolution occurred.

The late Mr. Voyzey was born in England, removing to Canada about 35 years ago and was married here to Miss Lenora Welsh.

Sorrowing members of the family are Mrs. John Howland, of town; John, Mary Ann, Barry and Arthur, of Minden. He was pre-deceased by one brother and one sister. Mrs. John Cowan, of Minden is a sister.

The funeral will take place from the residence of his daughter, 230 Edinburg street, to-morrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock to Little Lake Cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Crothers.

THE BIBLE CLUB HELD A SOCIAL

Delightful Evening was Spent at the Y. M. C. A.

Bible Study Combined with Social Evening was Enjoyed.

The social of the Summer Bible Club at the Y.M.C.A. on Saturday night was well attended, and a delightful hour was spent. The fore part of the evening was taken up with the regular Club session, a review of Paul's first journey having been given by Mr. W. Oswald. Mr. Williamson the leader then led a brief study of the lesson for the evening.

Mr. Chas. Coleman ably presided over the social hour and Mr. Robertson, another member of the Committee, explained the aims of the Club.

The following was the programme, several numbers being encored and all the selection proving of a high order:—

Piano..... ... .Mr. F. S. McCoy
Recitation ... ...Mr. D. Maitland
Duet... Messrs. Clarke and Dormer
Song ... .Mr. Jackson
Recitation ... ...Mr. D. Maitland
Song ....Mr. Dormer
Piano ... .Prof. Milner
Song..... ....Mr. W. J. Coleman

At the close ice cream and cake were served.

The Bible Club Committee had charge of the arrangement the members being, Messrs. Robertson, Crafts, Coleman, Sanderson and Haddon.

As next Saturday is the first of July, the Bible Club will meet on Thursday evening this week at 8 o'clock.

LEG BROKEN ON SATURDAY NIGHT

Mr. Thackeray Hunter, of Apsley, Suffers Severe Injury.

Mr. Thackeray Hunter, of Apsley, was the victim of a painful accident on Saturday evening.

Mr. Hunter was starting for Lakefield, when his team which are somewhat spirited, took fright suddenly and commenced to run. The injured man was thrown heavily to the ground, his foot catching in the spokes of the front wheel of the waggon, and breaking his leg. He was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital, where he is this morning resting as easily as may be expected under the circumstances.

"KILTIES" BAND ON SATURDAY

Scotchmen Played to a Small Crowd.

A Good Programme was Rendered—Some Famous Musicians.

The "Kilties" Band, fresh from their European tour of five hundred concerts, were greeted by a disappointingly small audience on Saturday night in Bradburn's Opera House, as was to be expected from the night selected, when all the shops are open, and a large number of citizens doing their shopping, and as was not to be expected, considering the high reputation of the band. But, small, as was the audience, it was enthusiastic, the programme presented, and the manner of its presentation, seeming to give great satisfaction. The entertainment can hardly be called a band concert, for half of the fourteen numbers consisted of songs, part songs, choruses and dances, the latter being especially well executed and appealing strongly to the audience. The high class music performed with considerable good effect by the band, consisted of two opening numbers to each part of the programme, a Wagner overture in the first part, and in the second part a selection from Gounod's works. The bagpipe solo of Pipe Major Johnstone was enthusiastically received. "Ye Banks and Braes," arranged as a part song, and sung by the Kilties' choir was very enjoyable, and Mr. Lockhart's tenor solo, "McGregor's Gathering," was sung with judicious spirit. The dancing of the Clan Johnstone troupe was very skilful and the tremendous tempo at which they were taken was quite head-swimming. Mr. Leick's cornet solo, incidental to the Columbia Fantasia, was worthy of special mention, and especial praise.

Taken as a whole, the ensemble work of the band, was excellent, the Buy Bias number being specially well performed, and the entertainment throughout was of a popular and pleasing character. It is unfortunate that the Kilties came to Peterough under such unfavourable conditions for they deserved a crowded house, both on the merits of their entertainment, and also for the good work they have done in so creditably and effectively advertising Canada in Great Britain and Europe.

Nicholls Hospital.

The graduating exercises in connection with the Nicholls Hospital Training School for Nurses, will be held in the Y.M.C.A. Hall on the evening of Monday, June 26th, at 8 o'clock. Those interested in the hospital are kindly invited to be present. 5d

LOCALS WON BY A SCORE OF 17-1

Bowmanville Team Was Out-Classed in Saturday's Game—Homesters Are Playing Lacrosse Which Should Carry Them to the End of the Series—Game, as the Score Indicates, Was a One-Sided Exhibition.

The Peterborough Lacrosse Team is delivering the merchandise in a manner which more than justifies the promises, or even the expectations of its most ardent supporters. That they would win from Bowmanville on Saturday, was a generally conceded fact, but a charge of somnambulism would at once be registered against anyone, who had the hardihood to let his imagination run to the extent of the actual score, 17—1.

As the score indicates, the visitors were completely outclassed at every stage of the game. The locals, although not forced to exert themselves to anything like their full extent, exhibited some team play which looked a little better than anything which may be expected from other points in the junior series. The team is well balanced, and has rounded out considerably in form since the last game. Some of the speedy ones of "Ye olden days," who have again donned the blue, show the results of the recent practice, and are playing the lacrosse of their lives. The visitors are a most gentlemanly aggregation and play a clean game — but, (to use the great Canadian lexicon of the English language), only one thing remains to be said — the pace was too fast.

The town on the lake shore has, however, done some good things in the line of sport this season, and though a defeat like that of Saturday may somewhat crush their hopes as to lacrosse, they still have a baseball team which looks good to hand out some pretty sultry stuff.

The locals were re-inforced by the addition of several players, who made their first appearance of the season. Several phagoning line-ups have been made, which appear to have brought excellent results.

The shooting on the whole, was much more accurate than in the game of the week previous. Every man played his position well. Boyle, in goal, was not forced to any strenuous exertion, but stopped a few hard ones. Dillon made a good showing and gives evidence of a continuance of his old-time ability as a stick-handler. He intercepted passes well, and did good work also in relieving several dangerous situations. Meagher at cover also did good service in the breaking up of the few rushes which reached his territory. "Shockey" Mein played excellent lacrosse, and was as trickey as of yore. His passing was fast and accurate and his individual work brilliant at times. Crowley was also a most valuable man on the defence, his long sprints were always a dangerous proposition to the visitors. Donovan played a steady and consistent game throughout and his work was most effective. Ford played a dashing game at centre, his checking and passing being a feature of the game. Judd, though not compelled to exert himself to the extent which was necessary in the Newmarket game, played fast lacrosse, particularly in the latter half. Cavanah's style of play was most aggravating to the visitors. He always figured prominently in nearly all the combination efforts of the locals, and had the happy faculty of being on the spot whenever his services were required. In checking [illegible] this four [illegible] mundonbeckly [illegible] Mcdabbe with [illegible] and shooting he was fast faster lacrosse than ever before. He sprints with all his old time velocity, while his shooting was always effective. Glover showed a much improved condition since the last game. His shooting was always accurate, and everything which left his stick ticketed for the nets never failed to arrive. He, as usual, figured prominently in the combination work. Stroud demonstrated his knowledge of the fine points of the game, and will undoubtedly improve in condition as the season progresses. His checking was always effective.

The visitors have several fast players in their line-up, and displayed at times some clever bits of combination work, but this was always broken up before it got far into Peterborough's territory. The team never recovered from the effects of the whirlwind stunt of the locals at the very commencement of the game, when three goals were scored in about as many minutes. Though up against a heart-breaking proposition they struck gamely to their work.

The line-up was as follows:—

Peterborough		Bowmanville
Boyle	goal	Neades
Dillon	point	Large
Meagher	cover point	Mayers
Mein	3rd defence	Hunter
Donovan	2nd defence	Porterfield
Crowley	1st defence	Miner
Ford	centre	Lang
Judd	3rd home	Maynard
Cavanah	2nd home	J. Lunney
McCabe	1st home	C. Lunney
Glover	outside home	LePlant
Stroud	inside home	Michel
Lynch	field captain	Canning

Referee— Burt, Port Hope.

The Play.

It was pretty easy guessing right from the face-off and after the first few minutes play, all traces of anxiety faded away from the countenances of the local enthusiasts in the grand stand and they were enabled to lean back in their seats and drink in the beauties of the Otonabee, with smiling faces. The ball travelled almost directly from the face-off to Glover, who promptly found an opening and did the needful after about one minutes play. Score 1-0.

The second was secured in about the same time by Jack McCabe. The ball travelled almost straight from centre into the nets, in a series of four or five pretty passes. Score 2-0.

Scarcely two minutes were required for the next. After a faint show of resistance, by the visitors, the ball whirled back into their territory and was secured by McCabe, who threw to Glover, who scored. Score 3-0.

The next required a somewhat longer period of time, the visitors evidently deciding that one per minute was slightly too fast. After a few minutes of supreme exertion, they worked the sphere down to Peterborough territory, but it came back just as speedily and Neades got in the way of a fast one. After about 10 minutes play, Cavanah found the nets on a pass from McCabe, from Judd, from Mein. Score 4-0.

Glover secured the next in about two minutes on a pass from McCabe, from Mein, from Crowley. Score 5—0.

Ford was the first player to be penalized, receiving a two minute assignment to the fence. Cavanah also of necessity tore himself away from the delights of the game for three minutes for tripping. He was shortly afterwards followed by Meyers of the visitors for a similar period.

The visitors first and only goal was scored by Michael after about six minutes play. Score, 5—1.

The remainder of the game was an unbroken succession of scores for the locals. Stroud took three minutes in which to gaze upon the game from afar off. The next goal resulted from one of Crowley's long sprints, after which he threw to Cavanah, who sent it on to Glover, who scored. Score 6—1.

Neadas, in the Bowmanville nets, stopped a hard one. Crowley got away on another dash, passing to Judd, who placed the sphere between the poles. Score, 7—1.

Stroud again retired for five minutes and was followed quickly by Glover for two minutes.

This concluded the first half. The play during the second half was of a languid order, the visitors appearing completely broken spirited by the crushing defeat administered in the first half, and were at the mercy of the homesters. The play was not of a fast quality, except in occasional spots.

A summary of the goals scored follows:—

First Quarter.

1—Peterborough, Glover, 1min.
2—Peterborough, McCabe, 1 min.
3—Peterborough, Glover, 3min.
4—Peterborough, Cavanah, 10 min.

10—Peterborough, Glover, 7 min.
11—Peterborough, McCabe, 3 min.
12—Peterborough, Stroud, 1 min.

Fourth Quarter.

13—Peterborough, Glover, 4 min.
14—Peterborough, McCabe, 1 min.
15—Peterborough, Glover, 1 min.
16—Peterborough, Stroud, 1-2 min.
17—Peterborough, McCabe, 4 min.
18—Peterborough, Cavanah, 2 min.

Chamberlain's COLIC, CHOLERA AND Diarrhoea Remedy

A few doses of this remedy will invariably cure an ordinary attack of diarrhoea.

It has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery with perfect success.

It can always be depended upon, even in the more severe attacks of cramp colic and cholera morbus.

It is equally successful for summer diarrhoea and cholera infantum in children, and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.

When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take.

Every man of a family should keep this remedy in his home. Buy it now. It may save life.

PRICE, 25 CENTS.

BILLIE P. SECURED BY DR. JOHNSTON

Speedy Pacer will be Entered in Eastern Circuit Races

The Buffalo Horse World, of June 19 remarks in the following complimentary terms regarding local "doings" in racing circles:—

Mr. John Aldous, the king pin horse man, of Preston, Ont., who brought out Little Hector, 2,13 1-4, and raced him successfully for several years, has sent his fast green pacer Dan Flanster, by Roadmaster, to the Peterborough track to be trained. Mr. George Liggett also has swift Miss Paisley stabled at the same track, and she stepped three heats in job time the past week, the last one being in 2.17 1-2—not bad for the 2.40 class. Dr. Johnston is campaigning Donna Belle again this year, and winning plenty of taste and money. Mr. R. J. Munro, President of the Turf Club, has a crack trotter in training. Secretary A. Rountree is doing some tall hustling for the July race meeting in Peterborough, and all of the horsemen will point their compasses that way. Peterborough is one of the crack racing towns in Canada.

Dr. Johnston has returned from Western Circuit to join the circuit formed in the east and has secured a fast pacer, Billie P., mark 2.13 1-4, who drove Irene D. to a mark of 2.16 1-4. The deter won both money and fame with his favourite Donna Belle, giving her a mark of 2.13 1-4. We congratulate the doctor on his success as he was up against the fastest class of horses in America. They were making faster time in the west than down in Baltimore. Donna Belle made Darkey Hall go in 2.16 3-4 to beat her at London, but we understood it was in Listowel that the doctor got the money.

Billie P., and Donna Belle are both at present in Port Hope, where they were shipped from Listowel, and are both in splendid form for the races, there on July 1st.

To Protect Non-Swimmers.

Kingston, June 26.—As a result of the recent drowning of two members of "A" Battery, Col. Fages has issued instructions that no soldier who is unable to swim shall go sailing or bathing unless accompanied by some one who can swim. Instructions in swimming will be commenced after the camp closes.

One Came Out After The Other.

Suffered with Boils for Six Months.

Mr. Elie Braizeau, Meadowside Station, Ont., tells of his experience with Boils and Burdock Blood Bitters.

He says:—"In the Spring of 1899 I was continually troubled with boils—one coming after another for about six months. I suffered terribly, and was in a very bad condition. In August I got a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and began to feel better after taking it. I kept on until I had used five bottles, and can truthfully say that I was cured, and have remained so ever since. I have not had the least sign of a boil."

There is nothing like Burdock Blood Bitters for bad blood, boils, pimples, dyspepsia, indigestion, or any trouble arising from the Stomach, Liver, Bowels or Blood.

J. J. MACLAREN WAS SELECTED

The Sunday School Convention Elects Him President.

HIS SPEECH FOR THE HONOR

Rallies of Sunday School Pupils at Massey Hall and at Various Toronto Churches on Saturday Afternoon —Toronto Sunday Schools and Churches Heard Visiting Delegates at Sunday Services.

Toronto, June 26.—Until the year 1908 a Canadian in the person of Justice John James Maclaren will guide the ship of the International Sunday School Association of America along on its way. The nominating committee on Saturday morning spent only a brief time upon the work of selecting a president for the next three years, and without going any further in the selection of the officers they came in and announced their choice of a president. Judge Maclaren had been elected by acclamation. The announcement was greeted with prolonged applause by the immense crowd gathered in Massey Hall. President D. E. Tyler conveyed the announcement, and at the insistent demand of the delegates the judge made a brief address.

He thanked them for the honor they had conferred upon him. The honor had come late in life, and he had little dreamed when, as a boy, he used to split and carry in wood in the little Sunday school in Lachute, Que., where he was born, that he would one day be at the head of the S. S. of America. His interest in Sunday school work had been of the keenest kind from that time, until this last honor had been done him. He was sensible of the difficulties of his position, and would do his best to carry out the work entrusted to him, and use every effort to extend the international until it reached every school on the continent.

In the afternoon the delegates attended conferences, at which suitable papers were read and discussed, held in various churches. The general subject was the interest of home training on the child.

Children's Rallies.

Gathered together into five great mass meetings the children of the Sunday schools of the city listened to addresses by speakers from every part of the continent on Saturday afternoon. The attendance was for the most part drawn from the girls, a great many of the boys having for some reason or another chosen to stay away. Each child who attended was given as a souvenir a card, on which was a little pressed flower from Palestine.

At the rally at Massey Hall Premier Whitney presided and Mrs. Foster Bryner, Peoria, Rev. John C. Carman, Denver, for 20 years' missionary in Palestine, were the speakers. H. M. Fletcher conducted the musical program.

At St. Paul's Anglican Church Dr. Carman presided. After devotional exercises by Rev. Canon Cody, addresses were delivered by Bishop Vincent and Rev. Dr. Carey Bonner of London, England.

At Walmer road Baptist Mayor Urquhart presided, and the speakers were F. S. Brown of Brooklyn, Rev. Archibald Forder of Palestine.

In Duan avenue Presbyterian Church Judge Winchester presided. Rev. Dr. Forder spoke and Rev. Dr. Clark, known throughout the Sunday schools by his nom de plume "Timothy Standby," delivered a short address.

At Woodgreen Methodist Church A. E. Kemp, M. P., was in the chair, H. T. Heins of Philadelphia spoke and Prof. Hamill of Nashville, Tenn., followed with a brief and interesting talk to the children.

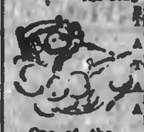
Filled Toronto's Pulpit.

Yesterday most of the city pulpits were occupied by reverend gentlemen attending the conference, and their sermons made apparent the importance of the Sunday school as an aid to the churches. The Sunday schools were also presided over by delegates, who delivered special addresses to the children.

Mowing Machine Inventor Dies.

Olean, June 26.—Joseph Miller, the inventor of the first mowing machine, died at his home here Saturday, aged nearly 96 years. He was also the patentee of the Miller coupler for railroad cars and many other valuable inventions.

The Song of the Cradle.



Bye, bye! Hopeless night!
There's a sweet little cradle hung up in the sky!
A dear little life that is a comfort to bless;
Two soft chubby hands
that will pat and caress!
A pure little soul winging down from above;
A darling to care for, a baby to love.

One of the grandest agencies which enlightened Science has discovered to relieve motherhood from excessive suffering is the "Favorite Prescription" devised by Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y.

"This wonderful "Prescription" imbues the entire nervous system with natural, healthy vitality; gives elastic vigor to the delicate organism specially concerned in motherhood, and makes the coming of baby entirely free from danger and almost free from pain.

"I wish to state, that I have used Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription with very good results," writes Miss Estelle M. Annis, of Lebanon, New Hampshire. "I filled them in your name, ran over four times and had them taken to the hospital. My husband brought some of your 'Favorite Prescription,' and in three days I was quite through my hard time confinement. We are now blessed with two healthy children, and I can safely say your medicine has done me more good than all the other treatment I have ever received."

BAD HEADACHES promptly relieved by Carter's Little Liver Pills. Don't suffer from Sick Headache, Dizziness, Coated Tongue, Sour Stomach or Indigestion, if you are troubled with these symptoms though not all of them, you will surely find relief by taking one of these little pills after each meal. Only one pill a dose. Try them. Sold by druggists everywhere. Price 25 cents. Genuine must bear signature of Brent Good. See Fac-Simile Wrapper Below.

WHIP WIELDED BY CHINESE.

See How Soon It Was Brought Yankee Business Men to Time.

Washington, June 24.—That the threats of the Commercial Guilds of China to boycott American-made goods has raised a serious question in the minds of the United States business men and manufacturers is indicated by a telegram received Saturday by President Roosevelt from the Portland, Ore., Chamber of Commerce, urging "immediate action on your part with respect to this country's relations with China, the first consideration being a regard for the nation's honor, which demands faithful and fair performance of its treaty obligations. Secondly, our commercial interests are seriously threatened by the severe manner in which our present laws regulating the admission of Chinese into this country are executed, which seem in their practical working to contravene treaty obligations."

By direction of President Roosevelt action has been taken by the administration which not only will facilitate the landing in the United States of Chinese of the exempt classes, but also will eliminate from the immigration bureau such administrative features as have been the subject of criticism by Chinese.

FATAL CROSSING ACCIDENT.

Farmer William Walker Is Killed Near Lucknow.

Lucknow, June 26.—A farmer of the 6th concession of, Kinloss, William Walker, 65 years of age, was driving a team to Lucknow Saturday afternoon. When nearing the Grand Trunk Railway crossing, near Lucknow, the team started to run towards the track and ran against the engine of the afternoon train going south.

The man was thrown against the wire fence at the crossing and was unconscious till he died an hour later. One horse was hurt so that it had to be killed.

CARNARVON RAMS COBLENTZ.

Accident in a Fog—Steamer Towed to Drydock.

Ferrol, Spain, June 26.—The British cruiser Carnarvon ran down the North German Lloyd steamer Coblentz in a dense fog at 4 o'clock yesterday morning off Cape Prior on the northwest coast of Spain, 10 miles from Ferrol.

The Coblenz was badly damaged and sprang a leak. The passengers were transferred to the cruiser, which towed the liner here. The injury to the cruiser is trifling, but the Coblenz will have to go into drydock.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. FLORAL SERVICE MUCH ENJOYED

Annual Floral Sunday at the George Street Methodist Church.

A Beautiful Service Participated in by Many Hundreds of Children.

The annual Flower Service, in connection with the Sunday school of the George street Methodist church, is an event which is looked forward to from year to year, not only by the members of the school, but by the adherents and members of the church, with pleasure, and, invariably, the day is a success, and the service incidental to it thoroughly enjoyed by those participating in it.

That of yesterday was no exception to the general rule, and, added to the beauty of the service, was the additional advantage of a delightful June day, when nature presented herself in all her varied forms of loveliness.

A Large Congregation.

The church yesterday morning, for the occasion of the annual children's flower service, was filled to its utmost capacity, all those wishing to attend finding difficulty in securing seats. In addition to the regular attendants of the church, there were many from other congregations. The centre portions of the church had been reserved for the members of the George street and Grace church Sunday schools, the members of which were present in full force. A large platform was erected at the front of the church, and it was prettily decorated with plants, foliage and cut flowers, which were supplemented by the beautiful floral offerings of the children, every member of each Sunday school carrying a large bouquet, which, as they marched around the platform prior to the service, was deposited, and helped to swell the array of flowers. They were taken in charge by a number of young ladies, who formed an immense bank of many hued flowers, the fragrance from which permeated the whole building, like sweet incense.

Address to Children.

The address, which was given by the pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. Crothers, was one appropriate to the day, and was directed to the members of the schools assembled, who were given some good advice. The musical part, too, was a particularly enjoyable one. In addition to the choir, an orchestra of fourteen pieces, under the direction of Mr. Rupert Gliddon, was present, and rendered a number of selections, besides leading the singing, which was joined in heartily by the immense congregation assembled.

The two selections by the choir were particularly enjoyed. The anthem was "Glory in Excelsis," in which a duet by the Misses Chasty and solo by Miss Parnell were well rendered, and much appreciated. During the offertory an adaptation of the "Last Chord," was rendered, solos being taken by Miss Grey and Miss Chasty.

After the opening hymn, prayer was offered by Mr. Geo. Powell, superintendent of Grace Church School, and the lesson was read by Mr. F. W. Robinson, superintendent of George street School.

"The King's Garden".

The address to the members of the Schools given by Rev. Dr. Crothers was from the text "By the King's Garden," Nehemiah, 3: xv. The speaker remarked that the Bible frequently spoke of gardens and mentioned three, the Gardon of Eden, Gathsemane, and that referred to at the close of the Bible, in which the tree of life bloomed and through which the river ran over golden sands.

Gardens, he said, were for both use and beauty. God has ministered to the love of the beautiful and wants us to look nice. He has made a great many beautiful things in the world, and a great variety of them.

Some lessons were drawn from gardens, the first of which was that they were selected. Gardens are not found everywhere, but only in places which are thought to be adapted, and in the second place they were prepared. Great care was taken in the preparation of the soil in the garden. Then after the selection and preparation they must be kept free from weeds and insects. The lesson drawn from this garden was that while the gardens were to be kept from these influences which would be detrimental to their development, the hearts of his hearers must be kept from bad company, and from the beginnings of evil, which always spring from the heart.

The Flowers Expected.

In a garden one expects to find flowers, and in the human garden four kinds of flowers were looked for, viz., obedience, reverence, purity and faith in God. In the first place obedience to God must be practiced, as well as obedience to parents, teachers and the laws of the land. Then there should be reverence for God's Day, His Book and His House. Speaking of purity Dr. Crothers condemned strongly the use of cigarettes to boys, which habit, he said, was ruining the boys and weakening their intellects. The body must be kept pure as well as the mind.

Rev. Dr. Crothers' address was interesting and was listened to with close attention by the large number of children as well as the adult portion of the congregation. There was no session of the Sunday School in the afternoon, and the floral decorations were allowed to remain in the church until after the evening service, when they were sent to the sick members of the school and congregation.

It is expected that the new general secretary will arrive about September 1st, in order to get her plans for the fall campaign, in shape as early as possible.

GEO. McBURNEY DIED TO-DAY

A Former Peterborough Man Dies in Toronto.

The Deceased Was Highly Respected—Funeral Probably in Peterborough.

Mr. Alf. Johnston received a telegram this morning conveying the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. Geo. McBurney, in Toronto. Mr. McBurney was, until about four years ago a resident of Peterborough, and removed from here to Toronto at that time. The deceased was a builder and was injured about ten weeks ago by a fall from a building, from which he never recovered.

The late Mr. McBurney was 55 years of age and was born and raised in Peterborough, where he was very widely connected. He was a member of Peterborough Lodge of Oddfellows, and was Vice-President of the Peterborough Old Boys' Association.

He leaves to mourn his loss, a wife and four daughters, Misses May and Gertrude at home; Ruby of Fernie, B.C. and Verna, attending the Peterborough Business College. Mrs. Col. Edgar Peele is the only sister of the deceased, and Mr. Ed. McBurney of Lodo, Pa., is his only surviving brother.

The funeral will probably take place in Peterborough, and will be under Oddfellow auspices, but the date has not been decided yet.

THE VICEROY HAS RESIGNED

A Rumour That Lord Curzon Is to Leave India.

A Result of Home Government's Decision to Place Kitchener in Command of Powers.

Special to the Examiner.

Simla, India, June 26th. — It is freely rumoured that the Viceroy, Lord Curzon, either has already tendered his resignation, or will resign shortly, in consequence of the decision of the Home Government, whereby Lord Kitchener, commander in chief of the forces in India, has received complete control of the army in India.

SPORT NOTES.

On Saturday, Peterborough's Junior C. L. A. Lacrosse Team, junior in name only, for their work on Saturday did not resemble that of Juniors, played their first home championship game of the season, and defeated the Bowmanville team easily. This victory removes the sting caused by the trouncing which the Bowmanville baseball team gave to Manager McEgan's nine a week ago Saturday. The lacrosse team has now gotten off to a good start, and the prospects are that this season will be a successful one for them, at any rate as far as playing winning lacrosse is concerned. This district should be won easily. The local team, as constituted on Saturday, is much stronger than either of the other two teams in the district, and it is not going beyond the limits of reason to suggest that when Oshawa comes here, the team will give them another such a game as that of Saturday, although, perhaps, of course, the score will not be quite as gigantic.

This year the team is composed of the pick of the players in town who wish to play, and deserves the support of the public to a greater extent than has as yet been accorded this season. The attendance at the game on Saturday was not as large as it deserved, and if the lovers of Canada's great national game in Peterborough want to see a winning team, there will have to be a more general support of the team. The management of the Peterborough Lacrosse Club is in the hands of some of the most enterprising and progressive business men of the town and both they and their team deserve encouragement.

The contest for the Examiner trophy this season, and the championship of the Guild Baseball League is proving decidedly interesting, and the five teams in the race are proving themselves hard fighters. The quality of baseball has been raised considerably over that of last year, as was predicted by this paper would be the case, and any of the Guild League teams could give the majority of amateur teams a good game. George street team, which last year was the tail-ender, has proven itself a factor to be reckoned with this year, and with Charlotte Street team, heads the league, each team having two wins to its credit. It will be a battle of the giants to-night, when St. Andrew's and St. Paul's meet.

Peterborough and Lindsay, both with a record of two losses and one win this season in the Midland League, and an average of .333, meet next Saturday night, in what will doubtless prove one of the best games of the season. Many have a recollection of the game on July 1st, last year, when the Red Shins were defeated here by the score of 7-2, after having won by a narrow margin at home on May 24th. This year, the condition has been reversed, and the Lindsay lacrosh was defeated at home by MacEwan's team on Victoria Day. Reports say that they are determined to win out from Peterborough on Dominion Day if possible, and since they are evidently playing better ball than they were earlier in the season, they will in all probability give the locals a hard run.

POLES TREATED TO THE BULLETS

Business Ceases in Lodz and Martial Law Proclaimed---Victims at Lodz Are 1,200 ---Bombs Thrown Injure Police at Two Places---Police Shoot Down Many at Lodz and Warsaw---Barricades Are Erected in Warsaw's Streets---Five Non-Strikers Were Stabbed to Death.

Warsaw, June 27.—Disorderly crowds thronged the streets since early yesterday morning. They erected barricades at Ogrodowa, Krochmalna and Wronia streets, on top of which they placed red flags. The police and soldiers stormed these barricades, and ten persons were wounded by bullets or bayonets. Another affray occurred at Zelasna street, where Cossacks charged the crowd and wounded three persons. In the central portion of the town a crowd attacked a patrol with revolvers, to which the patrol replied with volleys, wounding three persons and killing a boy.

Five workmen, who refused to strike, were stabbed to death by their comrades.

Revolutionary proclamations have been posted on the walls, and two hundred persons have been arrested. A heavy rain fell all day, and this is believed to have prevented worse collisions. The Social Democratic party and the Jewish Bund announced that the fight against the Government must continue, but it is believed that with the present show of military force, the situation will be controlled. Business is at a complete deadlock.

A bomb was thrown Sunday night at a carriage occupied by the chief of police, M. Pavloff, of the Town of Czenstochowa, Government of Piotrkow. The chief and several other persons were seriously wounded.

1,200 Victims at Lodz.

Lodz, June 27.—The victims of last week's outbreak total over 1,200. Thus far the bodies of 343 Jews and 218 Christians have been buried. The wounded number over 700. Some semblance of order has been restored, and the workmen are gradually returning to the factories, but the Governor-General has proclaimed a state of siege, and Lieut.-Gen. Suttlewerth, commander of the First Cavalry Corps, has assumed command.

Starlata, Russia, June 27.—Revolutionists from Tver (Central Russia) are scattering proclamations broadcast among the peasantry, calling on them to rise. The proclamations are apparently signed by Father Gapon, but his name is believed to have been forged.

Rostoff-on-Don, Russia, June 27.—The police have discovered that large quantities of arms and ammunition have been purchased here and shipped to the Caucasus.

Bomb Thrown at Police.

Chenstohoff, Russian Poland, June 27.—A bomb was thrown into the police station here yesterday. It wounded several policemen and broke all the windows for blocks around the station.

Saratoff, Russia, June 27.—Troops have hurriedly been despatched to three district in this Province to suppress agrarian disturbances.

Minsk, Russia, June 27.—The peasant disturbances in this vicinity are spreading.

Mob Attack Police Station.

Kovono, Russia, June 27.—A mob of 1,000 persons surrounded and attacked the police station and the Governor's palace yesterday. All the windows were broken before the rioters were dispersed. Five policemen were wounded.

Ekaterinoslav, Russia, June 27.—A semi-panic has been created here by the distribution of proclamations by thugs and rowdies, calling on the people to fight against treason, and fears are expressed that the lowest classes of the people are being incited by the police against the educated classes.

Refuse to Fire on Rioters.

Lods, June 27.—A case of disaffection among the troops was reported yesterday, when officers of one regiment informed their commander that they would refuse to fire on defenceless people. The regiment was at once transferred to another place.

THE 14th FIELD BATTERY DEPART

Local Section Went to Cobourg This Morning

Battery is up to full Strength—And in First Class Shape.

The local section of the 14th Field Battery left this morning at 8.15 o'clock for Cobourg, in command of Lieut. Mulholland, of Campbellford. The Battery left in full strength and first-class shape, with full complement of 33 men and 18 horses.

The local section joined the remainder of the Battery at Cobourg, entraining there at 12.30 o'clock for Kingston. The balance of the Battery stores and guns were taken from there.

The Battery has this year been reduced from a six to a four-gun strength, owing to the establishment of the new battery. For this reason several of the local officers, including Captain W. C. Ackerman and Lieut. Mulholland, and Lieut. Colville, of Campbellford, will not accompany them to camp. These officers while still on the strength are not on the training establishment. The reduction in strength will be from the 125 men and 103 horses of last year to 102 men and 75 horses this year.

Lieut. Mulholland will return this evening to Campbellford.

The Battery which is up to its fighting strength, will remain ten days in camp and is in command of Lieut.-Col. N. D. McNachton.

THE FUNERAL WAS LARGELY ATTENDED

Remains of Mr. John S. Dawson Laid to Rest Yesterday.

The funeral of the late John S. Dawson took place yesterday from the residence of his father, Wm. Dawson, Concession street, Fifth Ward. A large number of the friends of the deceased was present at the funeral, the service being conducted by Rev. J. G. Lewis, of Mark street Methodist church. The pall bearers were Mr. Freeman Thompson, Mr. Chas. Huffman, Mr. W. Thompson, Mr. H. Gibbs, Mr. J. Henthorne and Mr. D. Mason.

The deceased was born 51 years ago in Otonabee and was a resident of Peterborough until August 1901, when he and family moved to Midland where he resided for one year then moving to North Bay, where he lived until March 1905, when he came to Peterborough to visit friends and suffered continually until death came. He married Martha Hamilton, daughter of Frank Hamilton, Peterborough. Besides the widow he leaves three daughters, Mrs. Chas. McFarland, Sarnia, Ont.; Mrs. John Brown, Barrie; and Mrs. D. J. Hamlin, Toronto; father, mother and four sisters and three brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Freeman Thompson, Bennfort; Mrs. J. Henthorn, Mrs. Wm. Robinson and Mrs. Harry Gibbs, of town. The brothers are William A., and Hilliard, in the Northwest, and Thomas, of Chicago.

3rd DRAGOONS ARE NOW IN CAMP

"C" Squadron Left Town at 9 o'clock This Morning.

The Third Prince of Wales Dragoons went into camp to-day at Kingston, along with the Fourth Hussars, of Kingston, and a number of infantry regiments.

"C" Squadron, to the strength of 72 men and 64 horses, commanded by Major George Hall, entrained about nine o'clock this morning at the G. T. R. station. "B" Squadron, under the command of Major W. F. Hall, were taken on board at the Squadron headquarters, Millbrook. The staff officers of the Third Dragoons resident in Peterborough, are Sergt.-Major Young, Quartermaster Capt. J. W. Garvin, and Veterinary, Captain Poole.

This is the Best.

The Murray Street Baptist Sunday School hold their annual excursion on Tuesday, July 4th, per G. T. R. and steamer "City of Peterborough" to Stony Lake. This excursion is always a very attractive one and everyone is assured of a pleasant outing. Ticket to children not members of the Sunday School, 50c; adults 75c. 3d

HONOURS FOR MISS DAVIES

Her Success in Toronto University Examination.

Took First-Class Honours—Pleasing News to Her Friends Here.

The Toronto papers to-day give the results of the University of Toronto examinations for Licentiate in Music and it will be delightful news to Miss Helen Davies' many friends here that she passed the examinations successfully, taking first-class honours.

Miss Davies is a musician of whom the town may well be proud, and her success in this difficult examination will be pleasing news to those of her friends here who have watched her career with interest.

MERRY PARTY FOR BIRTHDAY

Miss Mabel Brown Celebrates in a Very Enjoyable Manner.

Last evening a very enjoyable time was spent at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Brown. The occasion was the tenth anniversary of the birthday of their daughter Mabel. There were about twenty-eight young people present, and many pretty presents were received. After tea the party enjoyed a round trip on a special street car, and made the joints lively with their merry laughter.

NO ACCIDENTS IN NATURE

Every Calamity, No Matter How Great, Has a Definite Beginning.

There are no accidents in nature.

The avalanche that without a moment's warning rushes headlong down the mountain side is not an accident.

For years previous tiny atoms have been crystallizing, and adding their minute weight to the mass which left its base when the accumulation reached a certain point.

Neither is baldness an accident. The infinitesmally small germ which is the cause of Dandruff and Baldness, feeds silently and long before the result is seen.

The small germs which thrive on the scalp and which are the cause of Baldness and Dandruff cannot exist, however, when Newbro's Herpicide is applied.

BRITAIN ALONE WANTS A WAR

That Nation Alleged to Be a Judas-Friend of France---Profit at Latter's Expense---German Press Again at Its Congenial Work of Baiting Britain---Germany's Reply to France's Note Received at Paris, But Contents Securely Guarded---France Warns Belgium to Vigilance.

Berlin, June 27.—The second interview of M. Bihourd, the French Ambassador, with Chancellor Von Buelow, was devoted to a detailed discussion of the French note, but the Foreign Office abstains from giving any information regarding the results reached. It is semi-officially stated that the German answer has not yet been drawn up.

The Government and press, therefore, resent the assertion in the London newspapers that the German Government refuses to take into consideration every point raised by Premier Rouvier, and throughout the German press a growing impatience is manifested at what is regarded as a British attempt to embroil Germany and France. It is noted, with satisfaction that some of the French statesmen begin to interpret Great Britain's interest in the Franco-German difficulty in the same way. The newspapers quote approvingly the words of Gen. De Galliffet, the former War Ministry of France, that Great Britain alone wants war between France and Germany, for, he would be to her own advantage and at France's expense.

Accused of Incendiarism.

Similar views are expressed in the German press, the writers arguing that Great Britain, having gotten rid of Russian for a generation through the war in the Far East, is deliberately working to fan the flames of the old hate between France and Germany, and cause another war which must weaken her only formidable rivals in Western European politics. It is noted that the relations between Germany and Great Britain have never been worse than at this moment. Hints dropped in official circles indicate that chagrin was felt at the Berlin court at the fact that King Edward sent no more important representative to the Crown Prince's wedding than the young Prince Arthur of Connaught, while it is plainly intimated that the fatigue of Emperor William to mend his friendly relations at all to the wishing of Princess Margaret of Connaught was intended to give expression to his resentment at this slight.

Concessions to France.

In view of this tension between Berlin and London it is believed that Germany will make many concessions in order to reach an understanding with France.

French Public Tension Lets.

Paris, June 27.—Although Germany's formal reply to the French note has not yet been received, there is reason to believe that the interview between Chancellor Von Buelow and M. Bihourd (the French Ambassador to Germany) resulted in quite fully foreshadowing Germany's intentions. The results of the interview are now in the hands of Premier Rouvier. Public feeling is much relieved, the bourse showing the improvement.

Denied From St. Petersburg.

St. Petersburg, June 27.—The French Consul-General denies the report that the French reservists in Russia have been notified to get ready for active service.

Germany's Reply in Paris.

Paris, June 27.—A strong impression prevails that Germany's reply to the French note regarding Morocco reached Paris last night, and that it will be presented during an interview between Prince Radolin, the German Ambassador, and Premier Rouvier to-day. The officials neither confirmed nor denied the report that the reply had been received, maintaining the strictest reserve.

Belgium Incited to Vigilance.

London, June 27.—The Brussels correspondent of The Daily Mail says that France, fearing sudden attack through Belgium, has officially warned the Belgian Minister at Paris of the necessity of rendering effective the fortifications of Antwerp and along the River Meuse.

ST. ANDREW'S GET A GOOD LEAD

Defeated St. Paul's by 8-1 Last Night.

Last night on the McDonel street grounds St. Paul's and St. Andrew's played the first league game of the season, resulting in an easy win for St. Andrew's in three innings, the score being 8-1. The game was the most uninteresting of the whole series of Guild League games, St. Paul's team playing decidedly dopey ball. Simpson, who pitched, was in very poor form, passing seven men to first base on balls and hitting one. Two runs were forced in, and the game was practically donated to St. Andrew's, and unless their opponents play better ball in the succeeding innings of the game it will be an easy win for St. Andrew's. Swanston was in the box for the winners and pitched good ball, only giving one man a base on balls. St. Andrew's failed to hit him to any extent too. The teams were:—

St. Andrew's.	St. Paul's.
McDonald, c.	Stacey, 1 b.
Thornton, 2 b.	Simpson, p.
Dunsford, 1 b.	Gillespie, c.
Dobson, s. s.	Rosenburg, 3 b.

AN EASY WIN FOR THE LOCALS

Peterborough Business College Team Won Another Victory.

Last night's Zion vs. Business College match was about the worst fiasco ever foisted on an innocent public. The score or so of enthusiasts who wended their way to the Oval were treated to an abundance of scoring but saw nothing else worthy of note. The P. B. C. forward line is about as fast and tricky a proposition as one encounters and the way they romped through the Zion defence was heartrending. The slaughter ended with a score of 8-1, and had not goal tender Sales obligingly stepped out of the road of a slow grounder the visitors would have been whitewashed.

The Business College pressed from the start and their defence served only for ornamental purposes. Zion worked from start to finish but about the kindest thing one can say of them was "they were completely outclassed". Morrow was the pick of the bunch.

McIlmoyle was the chief instrument of torture for the Business College and secured half the goals.

But one more game will be played by the P. B. C. this season—a home match with Lakefield.—Com.

BASEBALL.

The final innings of the game between Charlotte Street and St. John's in the Guild League were played last night. No scoring was done, thus leaving the final score:—

	R.	H.	E.
Charlotte Street	2	5	10
St. John's	0	10	2

The teams lined up as follows:—

Charlotte Street.	St. John's.
Lang, c.	Cavanah, p.
A. McWilliams, c. f.	Graham, c.
N. McWilliams, s. s.	Sawers, 3rd
Crowe, l. f.	Greene, s. s.

Thornton, 1st	Weiler, 1st.
H. Roddy, p.	Simmons, r. f.
Ryan, r. f.	*Hutchinson, l. f.

*Hutchinson played l. f. in last night's game instead of Hodgson.

Charlotte Street are now winners of District No. 2, having won 3 games and lost none.

The Port Hope Guide rises to remark that on the 13th of June a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Midland League was held in Bowmanville, and at that meeting Bowmanville asked for a permit to play Strouger, who was expected to lead in Bowmanville about the middle of the summer. The other day the Secretary received a letter from Bowmanville informing him that Strouger had arrived on the 14th of June and would therefore be eligible 30 days after that. It must have been an unexpected arrival to the Bowmanville management and it certainly looks rather thin.

MR. W. H. MOORE DEFENDS THE BOARD

Believes That Board of Education Acted in Best Interests of the Town---Mr. Dumble's Letter is Subjected to Some Criticism---Town Demands a Modern Collegiate Institute—A Saving Will be Made by Erecting Institute Such as is Contemplated.

To the Daily Examiner:—

A public discussion and criticism of the acts of the Council, School Board, or other body occupying an official position, is always desirable, and so long as the facts in relation to the matters dealt with, are not exaggerated, but truly set down, they cannot be too openly ventilated.

Herein I take exception to Mr. Dumble's rather hasty and unreflective letter of last Saturday, for he either gives no reason for his appeal to the electors to vote down the bylaw or making many errors in his presumed facts, draws unjust inferences and conclusion, with a like appeal. This is not a fair way of dealing with a matter of importance. It suggests a personal feeling which should destroy the influence from his request to follow his lead.

Mr. Dumble was on the Board of Education for several years, and economy was never a feature in his actions while there, at least I never heard it charged against him. I do not say this by way of censure upon his conduct, for there has always been a sufficient leavening the other way. At that time the town was not nearly so prosperous as now and was only assessed at about two-thirds of what it now stands at, yet he advocated the erection of a fine, artistic Institute. In some respects he is quite consistent, for, in the letter referred to, he more than once says we do need a new Institute and a good one, only it must be one "with the rear third of the proposed building cut off." In a word, a deformitory would now be quite suitable. Then he says in relation to the outside country pupils "there you have touched the core of the matter," and states that they pay $15 per annum, fees, for the privilege of attending the Institute. The fact is that when he was on the Board the charge was, and still is, $25 per annum; also he says the attendance is 221, whereas the number is nearly 250; and adds that the Separate School on the south side of the lot, which 25 years ago cost less than $4,000, is now worth $8,000, though no improvements have since been made on it.

If criticism should be fair, it should be fair, and I do not think there was justification for Mr. Dumble to say indirectly, that the Board has not been acting in good faith. I have not a particle of doubt that every member of the School Board has been, to the best of his ability, using his honest judgment in this matter, and that each member has no other motive than the good of the town at heart. Nor do I believe there was ground for saying the Trustees are "engineering" this matter, and intend to hire rigs on polling day to get out the voters. I have mentioned this to several members of the School Board and they indignantly declared that the statement was without a particle of foundation, and that the Board would on that day simply act as other private individuals.

The present Institute is incapable of advantageous teaching in it, with any increase of attendance, in fact the rooms contain from 20 to 25 per cent. more pupils than can be taught with full measure of success. Therefore there can be no advance with the present school, either in attendance or with that profit which the parents have a right to expect.

Everybody who knows the existing conditions, (and I include Mr. Dumble in the number) admits that we must have a new Collegiate Institute. We should reflect that when the Central Public School was erected many years ago, the cost was $35,000. Some people then cried out that the School Board had an attack of temporary delirium, as proved by such extravagance. True, the town at that moment did not need so large a school, but within twenty years after ward schools had to be erected at the cost of another $35,000, to accommodate the increased demand, and I confidently predict that within fifteen years the designed Institute will be taxed to its utmost capacity.

Mr. Dumble blames the board for not taking the south side of the lot and for not obtaining the benefit of the old Separate school, and says they made a terrible mistake; but, if he had enquired, he would have found that their's was only a "Hobson's choice." It was very difficult to persuade the Government to put up $10,000, as part of the price of the land, and when they did agree to do so, it was condition that they should have the south side of the lot, and that the Separate school, which might, for a time, remain, and be used by the Board, should eventually be removed, so as to provide a parade ground for the troops from street to street, free from obstruction, and, if strong language had to be applied to anyone, it should have been directed rather against the Government, than the School Board. Besides, everyone must recognise that the side next McDonel street is much more desirable than the other.

The figures given of the annual maintenance, are very misleading, and it can easily be shown that his estimate of the cost to the town (not the parent) is not nearly $44. However, that is beside the question, for Mr. Dumble repeats that we need a new Institute, and a good one, but he wants it to be a temporary affair, just enough, and no more, than will answer present requirements. If this is the condition on which the vote is to be taken, I am sure that the ratepayers will not seriously regard his entreaty to follow him, and vote against the bylaw. Having discussed the subject with many persons, whose opinion deserve respect, and having given the matter much consideration, I have arrived at the following conclusions:

1. That the town requires, and must have, more public school accommodation, and that this cannot longer be put off.

2. That the building now used as a Collegiate Institute, which has to pay a rental to the Public schools of $1,100, will, when the Institute is erected, fill the demand for other Public schools.

3. That this will relieve from a cost and loss of $600 yearly in respect of the Menzies school.

4. That the saving thus made of $1,700 per annum, will represent $40,250 of the cost of the new Institute.

5. That the Institute, if erected, should not be a mere makeshift, but one to answer our requirements for many years to come, and should be of a character, substantial and convenient in all respects, and of such impressive character, that we can point to it with some degree of pride and as an indication to the world of that well-founded trust the whole town has in our future growth and prosperity.

Yours,
W. H. MOORE.

MR. PRINGLE ON THE INSTITUTE

Some Advantages to Be Gained By Its Erection.

Manual and Physical Training Could be Added.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Sir, — As there appears to be an impression among some people that Public schools are being sacrificed for the Collegiate Institute, permit me to give a few words of explanation.

The Supervision Committee has, for some time, given considerable attention to the important question of raising the standard of work in our Public schools, as they are conscious that under present arrangements it is next to impossible to give the pupils that thorough grounding in general education so necessary afterwards, no matter what occupation, trade or profession may be engaged in. At a recent meeting of the Board, the committee recommended the centralization of the fourth book classes as the best means to this end. In order to do this, it is necessary to have a suitable building, and as the present Collegiate Institute (which belongs to the Public schools) is well suited for the work, the committee recommended it being used for this purpose.

There are at present attending the Fourth Book classes some 230 pupils and by providing accommodation for these the congestion in the South Central would be relieved for some time, as well as providing a room for those attending the Menzies school, which will not, I understand be available for school purposes after next year.

The advantages gained by centralising the Fourth Book classes are readily apparent to anyone, the principal being:

1. The provision for uniform and more efficient instruction, by placing in charge of the classes teachers having special aptitude for particular subjects,

2. The enabling of pupils to receive systematic physical training—an important branch of education now almost entirely neglected in these classes.

3. The introduction of manual training and domestic science—subjects which must soon receive attention.

The committee also recommended that the First Form in the Collegiate Institute be free to town pupils, which would enable them to spend on an average, two years in the Collegiate at little more than cost of attending the Public schools.

If this plan were adopted, Mr. Editor, I am satisfied that the general education of our boys and girls would be very greatly improved.

Thanking you for your valuable space,

WM. PRINGLE,
Chairman Supervision Committee.

LACROSSE.

The next league game for the locals will be held here on July 19th. The increasing interest which is being manifested by the local enthusiasts is evidenced by the donations received recently by secretary E. M. Best. Several of these which have been entirely unsolicited have been accompanied by the kindly well-wishers of the donors

The secretary has also received a communication from Mr. Laplante, secretary of the Bowmanville Lacrosse Club with reference to the splendid treatment which their team received in Peterborough on Saturday. The writer stated that while the team was scarcely prepared for such an overwhelming defeat, they hope for better things in the return game.

The competition for places upon the team keeps growing more keen. There is at present an abundance of players, there being four extra home and four extra defence players — and all good ones too. A team committee will be appointed within a few days. The recent practices have been very satisfactory.

WHY DOCTORS FAIL
AND MRS. PINKHAM SUCCEEDS

Plain Reasons Are Here Given to Explain Why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cures When Doctors Are Powerless

A woman is sick: some disease peculiar to her sex is fast developing in her system. She goes to her family physician and tells him a story, but not the whole story.

She holds something back, loses her head, becomes agitated, forgets what she wants to say, and finally conceals what she ought to have told, and thus completely mystifies the doctor.

Is it any wonder, therefore, that the doctors fail to cure the disease? Still we cannot blame the woman, for it is very embarrassing to detail some of the symptoms of her suffering, even to her family physician.

It was for this reason that years ago Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., determined to step in and help her sex. Having had considerable experience in treating female ills with her Vegetable Compound, she encouraged the women of Canada to write to her for advice in regard to their complaints, and being a woman, it was easy for her ailing sisters to pour into her ears every detail of their suffering.

In this way she was able to do for them what the physicians were unable to do, simply because she had the proper information to work upon, and from the little group of women who sought her advice years ago a great army of her fellow-beings are to-day constantly applying for advice and relief, and the fact that many thousands of them have been cured by following the advice of Mrs. Pinkham during the last year is indicative of the grand results which are produced by her unequaled experience and training.

No physician in the world has had such a training, or has such an amount of information at hand to assist in the treatment of all kinds of female ills, from the simplest local irritation to the most complicated womb diseases.

This, therefore, is the reason why Mrs. Pinkham, in her laboratory at Lynn, Mass., is able to do more for the ailing women of Canada than the family physician. Any woman, therefore, is responsible for her own suffering who will not take the trouble to write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice.

The testimonials which we are constantly publishing from grateful women establish beyond a doubt the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to conquer female diseases.

WOODMEN RATES ARE SATISFACTORY

Semi-Annual Meeting of the Executive Committee Being Held in Peterborough To-day—C. C. Hodgins, Head of the Order, Says a Levelling Up Process May Be Necessary—Report of the Progress of the Order During the Last Six Months is Encouraging—A Number of Visiting Members of the Order—To-morrow the Visitors Will be the Guests of the Local Camp.

Peterborough seems to be a popular place with the executive members of the Woodmen of the World. To-day for the second time in the last two years, the semi-annual meeting of the Executive Council of the Order is being held here.

This morning at ten o'clock, the session opened at the Oriental Hotel, which is the headquarters of the visiting members of the Order.

C. C. HODGINS, M. P. P., Lucan, Head Council Commander.

Those attending the meeting are C. C. Hodgins, M.P.P., Head Counsel Commander, Lucan, Ont.: W. C. Fitzgerald, Head Clerk, London: J. B. Hoover, Mayor of Clinton, chairman Board of Managers: J. H. Saunders, London, Head Watchman: Dr. Wiley, Dresden, Head Sentinel: Dr. Harrison, Toronto, Head Physician: D. Cinnamon, Lindsay, Head Advisor: L. H. Taylor, Brantford, Head Manager: Jas. A. Pamplin, Toronto, Head Manager: R. H. Blackmore, St. Thomas, Head Escort.

J. B. HOOVER, Mayor of Clinton, Chairman Board of Managers.

One of the matters to be discussed by the meeting will be that of deciding the place of the bi-ennial meeting which will be held on the third Wednesday in March, and the places under consideration are St. Catharines, St. Thomas, Guelph, Toronto and Peterborough. Invitations have been received from the places named, and one of them will be selected as the meeting place for the Head Camp.

The semi-annual statement will be presented at the meeting to-day, and the report of the Head Clerk will be submitted. This report will show that the Order has added this year, up to date 800 new members, an increase of 100 over 1904 for the same period.

The deaths have been 26 in number, amounting to $20,500, or $6,000 less than for the same period last year, and the death rate so far is less than 4 1-2.

There are now 409 ladies in the Order.

There have been organized 13 new Camps, and four Camps have been disbanded. Four new Circles have organized.

The expense fund has taken care of itself admirably, the receipts exceeding disbursements by $327.

The officers of the Order state that the finances are in good condition, and the financial statement presented to-day seems to bear out this assertion. It states that for the term ending June 23 $50,491.00 has been collected from assessments, and $20,500.00 paid for death claims.

Mr. Hodgins stated this morning in answer to a question as to whether the rates were satisfactory, that as far as the present rates were concerned, no changes were necessary, those coming into the Order now paying sufficient to meet all death losses and to provide a satisfactory surplus to meet all death claims. He intimated, however, that in the not distant future there might be a levelling up process, and those who joined the Order at the time of its institution at low rates, may have to pay the present rates in force, as the Order is losing money on those taken in at the lower rates. In any case the present meeting has no authority to deal with this matter, that being a matter which the Head

D. CINNAMON,
Lindsay, Head Advisor.

Camp will legislate on as soon as it becomes necessary.

The financial statement presented to-day was as follows:—

BLOOD DISEASE CURED.

If you are contracting any Blood or Private Disease, you are never safe until the germs of poison are taken entirely from the system. Don't be satisfied with a mere spell by some family doctor. Our New Method is Guaranteed to Cure or No Pay. No Names Used without Written consent.

Cured When all Else Failed

"Could I live elegantly life over, this testimonial would not be necessary. Suffice it to say I was no more sinful than thousands of other young men. Mercury, indiscretion, late, excesses, exposure to contagion, had all helped to break down my system. When I commenced your treatment my condition was almost frantic. Doctor after doctor treated me but only gave me relief—not a cure. Hot Springs had been used, but did not cure me. The symptoms always returned. Sarsaparilla and Potash drove the poison like my system instead of driving it out. I then the day your New Method Treatment was recommended to me. I investigated who you were first, and finding you had over 25 years' experience and no question reasonable, I gave you my case under a guarantee. You cured me permanently, and to-day I have not been a week ill, sick or any other symptom of the blood disease."

Mrs. S. Margaret Coleman.

Assistant

Miss Helen A. Coleman.

The closing exercises of the Graduating Class of the nurses of the Nicholls Hospital, held last night in the Y.M.C.A. Hall, were of a charming character. The large audience manifested the keen public interest taken in the noble work of those who devote their lives to the self-sacrificing purpose of ministering to the afflicted in health.

The programme was pleasingly varied in character, the musical numbers contributed by several local artists being a feature, which lent to it an added charm. The presentation of the diplomas and medals was, of course, the event around which the greatest interest centred, and the successful holders of the parchment were the recipients of many hearty congratulations to which were added a number of tangible evidences of the esteem in which they are held. Amongst these were the exquisite floral tributes which were tendered the trio of fair graduates.

At the commencement of the programme, the nursing staff of the hospital assembled upon the platform, appropriately attired in the costume of the profession. The following ladies, of the staff were present:—Miss Wilson, of town; Miss Foster of Cannington; and Mrs Doyle, of Campbellford, graduates; and Miss Dempster, Miss Berry, Mrs. Douglas, Miss Radcliffe, Miss Mowry, Mrs. Beacham and Miss Steele, of the regular staff. The chair was occupied by Mr. Richard Hall, chairman of the Hospital Board, who, in opening the programme, delivered a short address.

Ladies and Gentlemen,—

It is exceedingly gratifying to me as I am sure it must be to the other members of the trustee board, as well as the medical and nursing staffs of the hospital, to see the interest in the work of the hospital, manifested by your presence here to-night.

The work of the hospital has for some years been steadily growing, each year a larger number of patients have been treated and the institution has enjoyed a large measure of success in the treatment of those entrusted in its care.

Last year 425 patients entered the hospital, of these 94 were free patients. 193 oporations were performed of which 52 were major and 140 minor.

Everything has been and is still being done so far as lies in the power of the trustees and medical and nursing staff, to bring the hospital to a high state of efficiency, and while we expect criticism, and get it too, we are glad to accept such when given in a kindly spirit. But, too often, criticism is indulged in by those who have no conception of the difficulties pertaining to the treatment of the sick, and that fault is often found by those in sickness which would not be thought of in health.

The present function is one of several held under the auspices of the hospital during the past few years. The first class graduated in 1893, and from that time forward the Nicholls Hospital and its friends have good cause to be proud of its graduates, who have passed through and out into the world. Something like 44 have received the course and held our diploma, and the diploma stands for everything desirable in a nurse—even in the matrimonial market our graduates are sought after, for eight of the number are married and others are to be soon.

An interesting programme is before me, and I again thank you on behalf of the hospital staff for your presence here this evening.

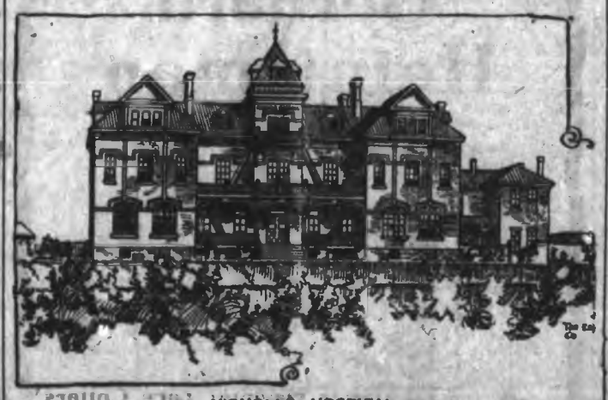
Mr. Hall's address was followed by a piano selection by Miss Isabella Coleman, of Port Hope, sister of Miss S. Margaret Coleman, Hospital Superintendent. The number was executed with beautiful expression and artistic feeling.

This was followed by an able address to the nurses by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, of St. Luke's church, which was listened to with close attention.

Rev. Mr. Langfeldt Address.

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen:

I consider it a great privilege as well as an honour to be here to-night to say a few words of encouragement to the graduating nurses, and to add my humble tribute to this excellent institution which we owe to the philanthrophy and generosity of the late Mrg. Nicholls, rightly called after her, Nicholls Hospital. I am sure that the young lady-graduates have realized the benefit of having been trained under the offisient and talented superintendent, Miss Coleman, through whom our hospital has obtained an ever increasing reputation for careful and kind treatment of patients, with the help of the excellent medical staff, consisting of our local physicians. I have no doubt that the graduating nurses have obtained an efficiency which will bring credit to their Alma Mater in their future work. Nicholls Hospital is an institution that deserves and is entitled to loyal attachment of Peterborough citizens, and, I sincerely trust, will always meet with a hearty co-operation on the part of all who believe in non-sectarian institutions. I must not let the opportunity pass without expressing on behalf of the clergymen of Peterborough our hearty appreciation of the kindness and co-operation extended to us in our ministerial work in Nicholls Hospital by Miss Coleman and her nurses.



NICHOLLS HOSPITAL

At a dinner party the host was asked "Don't you think that a man is the best judge of other men?" to which the gentleman replied, "Ah, sir he is not only the best judge, but the best executioner."

Of one thing I am certain; I do not ask for that remarkable confidence which the young English labourer showed in his family physician. He went to the registrar office to record his father's death and when the registrar asked the date of death, said, "Well father ain't dead yet, but he will be dead before morning and I thought it would save me another trip if you would put it down now." "Oh, that won't do at all" said the registrar. "Why, your father may be well before morning." "Ah, no, he won't, said the young laborer. "Our doctor says he won't and he knows what he has given father."

REV. E. A. LANGFELDT, M.A., Who Delivered the Address to the Graduating Nurses Last Night.

Now, my friends, it is a position just between these two that I would like to take this evening. You will no doubt admit that I have some claim to being able to judge as well as to be an executioner upon the possibilities and abilities of women. As a young man in the thick of the battle or success, who leaves the battlefield just for a few moments to talk with his friends and to address a few words of advice to this graduating class and to strike that keynote which a prominent man struck the other day when he was asked—"What is the secret of success," he was told—"There is no secret to it. It is just did, dig, dig."

And that is exactly the key note to which every one must turn who is trying to succeed. He must put success in its rightful, simple place. For there is nothing simpler: so long as we do not give it a wrong meaning.

Now, everyone before he starts out to succeed must get that truth well fixed in his head. He must fix success in its rightful place, then it becomes possible to him. Let him fix it too high and it becomes an impossibility, a discouragement instead of a stimulus. The correct definition of success is accomplishment; the favourable termination of anything attempted—anything. remember—a result, in other words, which answers the particular purpose intended.

Nor must we compare ourselves with others or measure our success by theirs. It makes no difference how others succeed. We must not get ourselves into the point of mind of the two little English girls, one the daughter of a bishop and the other the daughter of a curate, who were quarrelling over the comparative success of their fathers in the ministry. "My father can preach better than your father because he is a bishop," said one. That was too weighty a reason for the curate's little girl. But she quickly recovered and said: "Well, anyhow, we have got a hen in our yard, which lays an egg every day." That's nothing," retorted the bishop's daughter, "my father lays a corner-stone every week."

Nor must you get the idea that if a man is known, he is a success. Reputation is not success. Many a man has achieved reputation without having achieved success. True success is earned slowly, and by doing everything we do the very best we can, that is success. And that is all there is to it. It has no secret. There is nothing mysterious about it. All it has is a price. Any one of you can make a success in proportion to his capacities, as he is willing to pay the price: First, hard work; and, second personal sacrifices.

It is one thing to work hard when things are all going our way. But when everything seems to be going the other way, then there is so much to discourage and so little to encourage—then hard work becomes doubly hard. The only thing then that can save us is our enthusiasm for our work, our love for it. That is the power which impels man onward. He must have confidence in his work; more confidence than did the little boy who had been put to bed during a violent thunderstorm; the poor little chap was scared half to death, but his mother told him that he need not be afraid; that God was with him and would take care of him. "Yes, I know," said the little boy, "but why can't I go down stairs and stay with papa, and you stay up here with God?" Now, that boy lacked confidence. Now, someone may ask, "Is success worth the price? Is it worth while?" That, my friends, you must decide for yourselves. I believe it is. I think it is a magnificent thing for one to rise to the very best that is within him; to make the most of what he is. This hard work does for him. It brings out what he has in him. See what hard work will do for a nation. Into the soil of no other nation on this earth has there been put more hard work, than the Canadian pioneer has put into this country of ours. What is the result? We cannot begin to eat what we grow. We cannot begin to use what we produce. We have become the granary of the Empire—might I say of the world.

There is everything in that word, thoroughness, personal interest, concentration, patience, forgetfulness of self, close application, honest work. It completely does away with those two unfortunate sayings, "That will do," or "That is good enough." A thorough workman never says it. And this is what everyone in any walk of life should learn, that absolutely nothing is good enough, if it can be made better, and better is never good enough if it can be made best. The real peril of many of us is that we are too content to be of the average rather than of the best. We are satisfied to do what we are told to do. We are the same yesterday and to-day. No special fault can be found. Many there are who work like a mere "drop-a-nickel-in-the-slot machine." They get paid so much; therefore so much and not more they have to do. I venture to say that it is the extra service rendered that tells; not giving exactly what is bargained for, but a little more, a great deal more if necessary; doing one's business thoroughly, no matter what times it takes.

I said before that success called for certain sacrifices, and this applies to one's social life. No man or woman can be entrusted with responsibilities in the daytime who endangers them by social habits after nightfall.

The average person is very apt to go to extremes in this. On the one hand there are those who so immerse themselves in work that they shut out every social pleasure. They get so weighted down with the serious problems of life that they become impatient with the lighter side of living as being silly. The stagnate work is like water and fire, my

For The Next 15 Days.

A Remnant Sale in the Carpet Department is something worth while. The quantities of Carpets are made up of short lengths and others quite long enough to carpet a large room. We have designs enough, and more than we require for a complete carpet assortment, so for the next 15 days we make a special clearing of all ends of carpets and odd rugs (one of a kind).
It takes courage to keep a Carpet Department "clean." This is one of our ways of doing it. We don't put aside the short lengths and re-order the same pattern, so as to get full price. We ask you to come and take the remnants of New Spring 1905 Carpets at reductions that make their clearance sure.

HERE IS PART OF THE LIST FOR THE 15 DAYS SALE:

31½ yards English Axminster Carpet, regular $1.75 yard, 15 days' sale price per yard	1.25
79½ yards English Axminster Carpet, regular $1.50 yard, 15 days' sale price, per yard	1.12½

OLD TAVERN BEING REMOVED

Time Honoured Relic will be Converted into a Billboard.

Mr. Walter Stocker is a vandal. He has torn down what is, perhaps, the oldest building in Peterborough—on Charlotte street — and, although it was only a tavern in its early days, was old enough to be respected and spared, and not desecrated by being converted into the framework of a bill board, when the raw and modern mysteries of breakfast foods, very like sawdust, and flamboyant pictures of circus girls, largely composed of sawdust, are displayed. But, 'twas ever thus, old age and venerability must give way to modern methods, and the necessities of advertising, which, by the way, is best done in a live newspaper, like the Examiner.

I. O. O. F.

The members of Peterborough Lodge, No. 111, I.O.O.F., are requested to meet in the hall this evening at 7.45 o'clock, to make arrangements for the funeral of our late Bro. Geo. McBurney. Otonabee Lodge members are also requested to be present. F. SOLLITT, N. G.

AN ENJOYABLE MONLIGHT TRIP

Epworth League's Successful Monlight Excursion

A Delightful Waters Trip Down the Otonabee.

Last night the Epworth League of George Street Methodist Church ran a most successful excursion down the river. About seventy-five persons boarded the steamer Water Lily at the Wolfe street wharf and enjoyed a delightful sail of six miles down the river. The Sunday School orchestra accompanied the excursion and during the trip down and return rendered a number of selections which were much appreciated by those on the steamer. Vocal selections were also given which were thoroughly enjoyed.

Upon the return of the steamer, which was shortly after eleven o'clock street cars were in waiting at the wharf to convey the passengers up town. The committee in charge of the excursion were Misses Goodfellow and Messrs. R. Blewett, S. Young, G. Robertson, and G. L. Galley.

ENNISMORE WON FROM OMEMEE

Defeated Latter in Football Game at Bethel.

On Tuesday, June 20, took place one of the most exciting games of football of the season at Bethel picnic. About five o'clock in the evening the people all assembled on the field where the game was held. The contending parties were Ennismore and Omemee the former defeated their opponents by a score of 1 to 0, the goal being scored by B. Irwin. Great cheers were heard throughout the crowd over the success of this young team, who have not been on the field before this season. They gave ample proof of their ability in this line. The line-up was as follows:—

Ennismore.		Omemee.

CAR DERAILED LAST NIGHT

Slight Mishap at Brock Street Crossing of G. T. R. Tracks.

A box-car was derailed last evening at the Brock street crossing of the G.T.R. tracks, and though slight damages were occasioned, they might easily have been more serious.

The mishap was caused by a heavy chain which was lying upon the track which derailed the car, the rear axle of which was also broken.

Beyond the annoyance caused by the blocking of the train, little serious damage resulted.

The broken car was removed by an auxiliary.

A WEDDING AT AUBURN

Miss Alice Carter Married to Mr, W. H. Andrews

Pretty Social Event This Afternoon—Will Reside in Town.

This afternoon at two o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Carter, Auburn, a pretty wedding was celebrated, when her daughter Alice was united in marriage to Mr. W. H. Andrews of town. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. E. A. Langfeldt of St. Luke's Church, in the dining room, which was prettily decorated with palms and orange blossoms. About thirty guests, immediate friends of the bride and groom, were present. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Wm. Carter, and was dressed in a becoming gown of white silk Organdie, and carried a bouquet of white roses. Miss May Carter, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore dove coloured crepe de chine, and carried pink roses. Mr. Geo. Hounsell acted as groomsman.

After the wedding ceremony a dainty wedding dejeuner was served, table being waited on by four young lady friends of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews left on the 5.12 C. P. R. train for Toronto and the west. The bride's going away dress was blue crepe de chine, with hat to match.

The bride and groom were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews on their return will take up their residence in Auburn.

Bridgenorth Methodists Express Regret at Losing Their Pastor.

On Friday evening a large company of the Bridgenorth Methodist congregation gathered at the parsonage to say good-bye to their departing pastor his wife and family. During the evening the company were called to the lawn and Mrs. Bunner was presented with a purse containing $20.00 and the following address:—

Mrs. Bunner—

Dear Friend.—We, the members of this congregation have heard with regret of your removal from our midst and we feel that we could not let you go without in some way expressing our sincere appreciation of your services, which you have so kindly and unselfishly rendered in our midst.

By your tact and patience, and the readiness with which you have always assisted in any cause for our religious or social benefit, you have won a very high and permanent place in our esteem.

However, feeling that our appreciation should assume somewhat tangible form than that of words, we beg of you to accept this purse, not as compensation by any means, since God alone can suitably reward such valuable service, but as a slight token of the high place you hold in our regard.

On behalf of the congregation,

MRS J. N. MUNN,
MISS P. UDY.

Mrs. Bunner replied in a few well chosen words thanking the people for the kind feeling expressed in the address and before the gathering dispersed Mr. Bunner was presented with a purse also to which he made suitable reply.

CITIZENS' VIEWS ON THE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

MR. DUMBLE IS CRITICIZED SOME

Mr. H. P. Kennedy Replies to Letter Written by Mr. Dumble in Reference to the Collegiate Institute Question—Was He Trying to Mislead the People—Some Strong Reasons Given Why New Collegiate Institute Should be Erected—Some Inaccuracies Pointed Out.

To the Editor of the Review.

Sir.—In reading Mr. Dumble's letter to the Review on Saturday evening regarding the new Collegiate Institute building, the first question which arose in my mind was why does Mr. Dumble try to mislead? One can hardly imagine that Mr. Dumble, a man of education, a man of ability, a man of broad experience, could make such a statement and take such a stand against public interests through ignorance, so I am forced to believe that this letter was prompted by the spirit of animosity, either toward some individual member of the Building Committee or also toward the Committee as a body.

Mr. Dumble says: "You will remember that many of the great universities of the United States have had very indifferent buildings, but their boast was that not the buildings but the professors made the university. Ivy-covered oak and plate glass are very nice, but they don't make the college."

Quite true, but why does Mr. Dumble wish to compare the conditions of today with the conditions which existed half a century ago? 'Tis time that the universities of the United States, most of which were erected half a century ago, had no ivy-covered oak or plate glass. However, he forgot to explain that there was a very good reason for this, owing to the fact that at that time such things were almost an unknown quantity. But because such conditions existed in those days why should we cave to the old fashioned in this modern age. He evidently forgot to state that also in those days he read by the dismal light of a candle dip, which by the way I myself have done not over a quarter of a century ago, yet neither he nor I would be satisfied with such an old fashioned conveyance today. In fact nowadays we feel as though the electric light is a necessity. He also forgot to state that in those good old days he was satisfied with a common, but since Mr. Dumble today advocates homespun for his boys I feel that Tweeds are still the best. Then why should Mr. Dumble wish to progress along every line but this one of having a Collegiate Institute built according to the customs of the 19th century instead of the customs that existed during the times of our forefathers.

In the United States universities [illegible] as Mr. Dumble puts it, they did find the professors made the university, not the building, then why have the millions of dollars been spent during the past 25 years for modern buildings in the great American universities? Does Mr. Dumble for one minute think that a man so clever and far sighted as Mr. John D. Rockefeller would spend millions of dollars for the erection of buildings and appliances for the great Chicago University were it not an essential benefit? I would think Mr. Dumble if he could name one university in the United States that made such a boast. As a general statement the above quotation sounds well, but it is very inaccurate and misleading. It is true a good staff is the essential element of a good school, and Peterborough Collegiate Institute may well boast of having one of the best staffs in the Dominion, which is all the more reason why the citizens of Peterborough should desire and insist upon having the very best building and the most modern appliances with which to give our excellent staff an opportunity and an assistance to make the Peterborough Collegiate Institute second to none in the Dominion.

Mr. Dumble was for many years a member of the School Board, and has always been a strong advocate of anything that would further the interests of the Collegiate Institute, and was very much in favor of suitable buildings until recently. Possibly he has a grievance against the Committee because they did not pay his property for a school site. But then he should not feel grieved about that because the Committee purchased the best possible site in town believing, of course that Mr. Dumble would appreciate what was best for public interests regardless of personal gain.

If we were living in the times of our forefathers, or even living in the present city, then I think Mr. Dumble's idea of a cheaper building might be worthy of consideration. But as it is, the citizens of Peterborough desire to erect a building that will not be torn down in a few years, but will be suitable for the City of Peterborough, 25 years hence when our progressive city will undoubtedly have a population nearer 30,000 than 15,000. Such a building as Mr. Dumble says he approves of would in a very few years be inadequate. However, I believe that the citizens of Peterborough are progressive, even though Mr. Dumble would lead us to believe he is not. Mr. Dumble's own figures would again try to mislead us. These are his figures—actual cost for running expenses for last year for the Institute $13,450; less Government grant $1300; fees $3150 and cash on hand $300 making a total of $4750 which leaves a balance of $8100 to be paid by the tax payers. The total number of pupils was 221 which would make the expense per each pupil a little over $36 although Mr. Dumble states the expense is $44 and even this amount is not an expense to the city because the county pupil has already paid $25 fees.

Grant when our new building will have a capacity to take care of increased numbers of county pupils and that it may even have such advantages over other Collegiate Institutes in our Province as to attract families outside of our county to become citizens of Peterborough would it not be a good thing for our city? It takes population to make large cities and certainly first class schools and modern school buildings tend to more apt to attract citizens than otherwise. Mr. Dumble states that each county pupil is a trifling expense to the city, but forgets to state that each county pupil would be living in Peterborough and would spend from $200 to $300 a year in our city which would mean a great deal more than the trifling expense to which he takes exception. Mr. Dumble makes another inaccurate statement when he says county pupils pay $15 a year for fees they pay $25 a year each.

Again Mr. Dumble states that if we spend $100,000 for a new Collegiate Institute it means a payment of approximately $6000 a year for 30 years or in other words the $50,000 by-law we are asked to vote on, if passed, would increase our expenditure $3000 a year for 30 years. This means an increase in taxes of about 50 cents a year to the average tax payer, which Mr. Dumble's taxes would be increased from $8 to $10 a year. Is this the reason why Mr. Dumble opposes the expenditure of merely 50 cents? Why, if only a few weeks ago that a great many of our citizens were opposing our town becoming incorporated as a city on July 1st that Mr. Dumble was most energetic in supporting the by-law.

Of course it is true the salary of our Chief Magistrate will be increased $400 a year when our town becomes a city, although I for one do not believe the salary will be too large for our capable and very efficient Chief Magistrate. Yet it requires no great Mr. Dumble is interested when he suggests a possible increase that means his pocket, but opposes a proposition when it increases his expenditure, although the increase is a good one for the city, one-twentieth of the interest which again I quote Mr. Dumble's letter:—

"The trustees have been away looking at half million dollar schools in Buffalo and Detroit, and they have lost their heads. When they come back their heads touched the ceilings of the architect's new building, and they ordered them rounded. Like air, it is said, it does not, which with a lot of additions, is unnecessary and doubles the expense of heating."

How thoughtless of him to think that half million dollar buildings in Buffalo and Detroit would cause the Committee to lose their heads. Most of the Committee are men who have visited the largest cities in the United States and Europe and I can assure Mr. Dumble that it would take more than the sight of half million dollar buildings in small cities to cause any one of the gentlemen on the Committee to lose his head, as most of us have had the pleasure of gazing upon educational buildings in other parts of the world that cost millions. However, if Mr. Dumble had travelled more in recent years and kept abreast of the times I believe he would be better able to appreciate the point and possibly make better comparisons. He says when we returned from Detroit that Sir Beade thought the ceiling of the architect's new building and we ordered the ceiling raised to 17 feet. If Mr. Dumble had read the published statement he would have known that the [illegible] was not true. The following are the exact figures:—

Basement, first plan ceiling 10 ft.; present plan 12 ft. from floor to floor.

1st and 2nd floors, first plan, ceiling 14 ft., present plan 16 ft. from floor to floor.

Assembly Hall, first plan, ceiling, 12 ft.; present plan 16 ft. from floor to floor.

Halls, width increased from 12 to 16 feet.

Hot water heating by the new system in accordance with Government requirements. Would any parent say that these changes would not be an advantage to their children, as good light and good ventilation are a benefit, not a disadvantage.

While in Windsor the Building Committee called upon the School Board in that city and were informed that 10 years ago Windsor, which now has a population of only 13,000 built a Collegiate Institute at a cost of approximately $50,000 (at a time when building material was much cheaper than it is today) and now they regret that a better building had not been erected, with wider halls and higher ceilings. They advised the Committee not to make the mistake they had made, but to prepare a plan that would be adequate for the near future.

Mr. Dumble ends his letter with the following carefully worded paragraph—I mean carefully worded from a legal standpoint.—

"N.B. — I have been told that the Trustees who have engineered this matter advise keeping quiet until polling day, then they would hire a hall or rig and force the vote. I can not think of the people's servants attempting to insult their masters by such an illegal and improper action. It might be well to watch their actions—but the only safe course is for the people to turn out and vote down the by-law.

It might seem to some as though there was an intended reflection on the integrity of the Committee. But I do not believe that Mr. Dumble would accuse such men as W. G. Ferguson, J. J. Hartley, E. M. Hayes, John Crane, Dr. M. A. Morrison, Wm. Pringle and R. H. Rogers of insulting their masters by an illegal and improper action. So far as supporting the by-law is concerned, I can only voice the sentiments of the Committee when I say that we are citizens and members of the Board intend to support the by-law, because the plans which we have prepared and submitted have met with the unanimous approval of the Board, and in asking for the additional grant of $20,000 it was opposed by only 3 members out of 17 and I understand that these two opposing members will vote for the by-law on Thursday.

In wishing this by-law passed it is not with any hope of financial gain for the Committee either individually or as a body, but merely to give to all classes in the community the privileges of the best and most modern. The department of Manual Training alone will be one of the greatest advantages ever offered the children of Peterborough was wish to take up that particular line of study. It is the duty of every voter in Peterborough to go to the polls next Thursday and vote for the by-law. It is a fact that the Board have already purchased the site which is ideal. After paying for it there remains $40,000. According to the most economical estimate it is admitted that $20,000 of this amount would be required for equipments, furnishings, heating plant and incidentals. This would leave only $20,000 to erect the building, which everyone knows would not be nearly sufficient, therefore the defeat of this by-law would mean the submitting of another one for a less amount which would entail a great deal of unnecessary expense.

The lot contains six acres located in the heart of the city, one-third of which will be used as a public park, one-third for the site of a manual training armory and the balance for the Collegiate Institute, and certainly the citizens of Peterborough should credit us the school site a building which would not only be in keeping with the surlery, but be a credit to the city, as we have no public buildings to which we can point with pride. We should have sufficient public spirit to not allow our neighboring towns of even one-half the population to compare as in the point of public buildings.

Believing that every citizen who has the interests of our city at heart will vote for the by-law on Thursday,

I remain,
Yours truly,
H. P. KENNEDY.
Chairman of the Building Committee, Board of Education.

YOU NEED THE OTHER

Ozone is a germ killer and a valuable remedy, but to get the best results from it you must have a tonic laxative to take with it. "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" is the purest and best form in which Ozone is sold. Every bottle of this remedy contains a coupon which entitles you to a package of "Celery King" the well known remedy, free.

In buying this solution, you get about twice as much Ozone for your money as by buying other brands, in addition to getting a package of "Celery King" for nothing. You thus save money in two ways besides getting Ozone in its purest and most concentrated form.

Ask your druggist for "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" and if he does not keep it you can get it from the Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg, Ont., by writing for it. Sold by W.B. WARNE. 5

HOW TO CURE A TERRIFIC HEADACHE

Many people suffer with an aching head week after week, occasionally getting relief from so-called headache powders and nerve-stupefying drugs. They never get cured because they start wrong. Such people should do a little common-sense thinking. Headache is simply the result, a warning signal, of a far more serious trouble. Usually it means bad blood, poisoned by an inactive or sluggish liver. Headache sufferers are often nervous, cross and irritable. Their sleep is disturbed and digestion impaired. The liver doesn't do its work right, and the bile elements poison both nerve and brain. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills cure headache by removing the cause. They are Nature's true laxative, and give tone to liver activity, are a positive specific for biliousness and a torpid liver. Get your liver right by using Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills and your head won't ache, your nerves won't weaken, nor your food distress you. They cure headache, constipation, and biliousness in one night. Price 25 cents at all dealers.

STEAMER ANCONA SINKS THE DANE

British Steamer Rams Cadet-Training Schooner.

22 DANISH CADETS DROWNED

In One and a Half Minutes After Being Struck the Georg-Stage Went to the Bottom — Fifty-Seven Cadets Were Rescued—Embargo on Ancona Until the Inquiry is Held —Ancona Slightly Damaged.

Copenhagen, June 27.—A serious disaster occurred Sunday night here, when the Danish cadet training schooner, Georg-Stage, was rammed and sunk by the British steamer Ancona. The Georg-Stage sank in one and one-half minutes. Twenty-two cadets were drowned and fifty-seven rescued. The boys were all in their bunks at the time of the disaster. The night was overcast, but it was not so dark that objects could not be seen at some distance.

The Ancona was considerably damaged along her water line. The port authorities have placed an embargo on the Ancona, which will remain here until the inquiry into the collision is completed.

The Georg-Stage was a schooner of 206 tons register and was 102 feet long. Apparently she was a training vessel for the mercantile marine, and was owned by a private firm of Copenhagen.

Found After a Week.

Chatham, June 27.—The body of Peter Clapperton was found floating in the river here yesterday morning at a spot just across the river from where Earl Mitchell lost his life a week ago. Clapperton was a farm laborer and inclined to liquor. He had been missing for about a week.

Fell in Well.

Innisfil, N. W. T., June 27.—On Sunday evening W. J. Cochrane, a few months over three years old, was drowned in an old unused well. It is supposed that the boy was walking on the edge, lost his balance, and fell in the old well, which was barely three feet deep.

Two Farmers Drown.

Lanark, June 27.—John White of Lanark and Isaac Menar of Darling Township, while bathing two miles from Lanark Village Sunday morning, were drowned in about ten feet of water, above Drummond's Rapids, on the River Clyde. It is thought that neither could swim and got into deep water. The bodies when found were only two feet apart.

BUFFETED ON STORMY BILLOWS.

Kingston's City Treasurer and Brother Scare Their Friends.

Kingston, June 27.—There was great anxiety felt for several hours in the city yesterday over the absence of Frank Ireland, the city treasurer, and his brother, Kenneth, traveler for Dalton & Sons. They had been camping near the head of Wolfe Island and left in a skiff at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. There was a violent sea on, and after a time the boat disappeared. In the afternoon the ferry boat and a tug were sent to search for them, and they were found near Snake Island, four miles away. Their boat had become unmanageable, and they had been driven out into the lake, but were able to reach this island.

Excitement in Church.

Shelburne, June 27.—Rev. C. W. Watch preached his farewell sermon in the Methodist Church Sunday night. The church was crowded to the doors. Shortly after the service commenced the transformer in front of the church was struck by lightning, which produced a terrible crash and immediate darkness. For a short time a panic was feared, but it was soon learned the church was not struck. A few ladies were assisted from the church in a fainting condition. The pastor proceeded with his address without the use of the electric light.

Causes a Fire.

Brampton, June 27.—At midnight Sunday night during a heavy thunderstorm lightning struck the drygoods store of T. H. Shields & Co., it is thought, by the electric light wire. In an instant the contents of the window were in a blaze. The loss will not exceed $2,000.

A SUDDEN TWINGE
Of pain is generally the first warning of the coming of rheumatism. It feels as if the disease were in the bones or muscles, but the real cause of rheumatism is found in impure blood. In order to cure rheumatism the blood must be cleansed of the poisonous impurities which are the cause of the disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very successful in the cure of rheumatism, because it entirely cleanses the blood from the poisonous uric acid which is the cause of the disease.

"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' cured me of rheumatism after I had tried a dozen remedies without relief and the cure Went in search of health," writes Harry Risser of No. 228 6th Street, Denver, Colo. "Only those who have suffered from this dread malady know the pain and misery I endured for over two years. Whenever the weather was damp or cold my troubles were increased and my joints would become stiff and sore that I was barely able to move myself, and often would be drenched myself. I used a number of highly recommended medicines but they had no effect whatever on me and I came to Colorado hoping to regain my health, but failed to receive the benefit I had expected. In addition to home troubles I suffered physical pain to me Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and in four months and a half after I began using it I was a well man, and have had no touch of it for the past seven months."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure biliousness, sick headache, dizziness, constipation, indigestion, bad breath. They're tiny, sugar-coated granules. Easy to take as candy.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, June 26.—(Special.)—Cable advices came about steady. American cattle in London sold at 12½c, and Canadians sold at 12c, while in Liverpool Americans brought 11¾c to 12¼c, and Canadians 11¾c to 12c. The exports for the past week were 3468 cattle, 6284 sheep. There has been a decided improvement in the demand for ocean freight space, and it is well booked up for July at 32s 6d and 35s 6d to Liverpool, with agents now asking 35s for any small lots left. London has let at 32s 6d and Glasgow at 30s for the first two weeks in July and 35s for the balance of month. The receipts were 620 cattle, 200 sheep and lambs, 100 calves, 2300 hogs.

The wet weather had a depressing effect on the trade in cattle and prices are lower; prime beeves sold at 5¼c to 5½c; good cattle, 5¼c to 5c; common, 2¼c to 2¾c per lb. A load of distillers, averaging 1100 lbs, were bought by a packer at 4¾c per lb. Milch cows sold at $30 to $45 each. Calves sold at $2.50 to $10 each. Shippers paid 3¾c for large sheep, and the butchers paid 3½c to 4c per lb. Lambs sold at $3.25 to $4.50 each.

There was no actual change in the market for live hogs; the demand was slow, but, as the supply was small, prices were maintained. Selected lots sold at $7 to $7.12½, and mixed lots at $6.90 to $6.75 per cwt., weighed off cars.

EAST BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

East Buffalo, June 26.—Cattle—Receipts 4700 head; prime and shipping steady; butchers' grades 15c to 25c higher; prime steers, $5.30 to $5.75; shipping, $4.75 to $5.40; butchers', $4.25 to $5.25; heifers, $3.50 to $4.25; cows, $2 to $4.25; bulls, $2.75 to $4.25; stockers and feeders, $2.75 to $4.25; stock heifers, $2.50 to $3.25; fresh cows and springers steady; good to choice, $40 to $55; medium to good, $35 to $40; common, $20 to $25.

Earl Grey Gets a Pardon.

Montreal, June 27.—Owing to the direct intervention of the Governor-General, Sheldon T. Bent, who was last fall sentenced to 23 months' imprisonment for embezzling the funds of the Shawinigan Carbide Co., of which he was secretary, has been released. Bent was about $30,000 behind in his books, and his extravagant living led to his apprehension and conviction. When Lord Grey visited the jail here a short time ago Bent implored His Excellency to secure him his freedom.

An Investigating Committee.

London, June 27.—The following have been appointed members of a commission to enquire into the South African army stores scandal: Justice Farwell, of the High Court of Justice, chairman; Sir George Dashwood Taubman Goldie of the Privy Council; Field Marshal Sir George White, Governor of Gibraltar; Sir Francis Mowatt, a member of the Senate of the University of London, and Samuel H. Morley, former Governor of the Bank of England.

Binder Twine Comes Down.

Kingston, June 27.—Owing to a reduction in the price of hemp and a very lucrative purchase made by the Government for its binder twine factory at Kingston Penitentiary, it has been decided to cut the price of warranted pure manila binder twine by three-quarters of a cent. The new price will be 11 1-2 cents per pound.

Killed by Fast Train.

Tottenham, June 27.—John Williams, 70 years of age, was killed by the northbound express at 8.30 last evening about two miles south of Tottenham. Deceased was walking across the track carrying some parcels, one of which he dropped on the track. He was just in the act of picking it up when the train struck him.

Cured Kidney Disease.

Mrs. Fred Hills, Walton Street, Port Hope, Ont., states:—"I was troubled for some time with kidney disease, and though I tried a great many different medicines, never succeeded in obtaining relief until I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By the regular use of this preparation for a time I was completely cured of kidney disease.

CURZON'S RESIGNATION.

Rumor That India's Viceroy Feels Keenly Kitchener's Success.

Simla, India, June 27.—It is freely rumored that Viceroy Lord Curzon has already tendered his resignation, or shortly will do so, in consequence of the decision of the home Government, whereby Lord Kitchener, commander-in-chief of the forces in India, has been given complete control of the army in India.

The Times of India declares that India cannot afford to lose "either of the great men, Lord Curzon or Lord Kitchener, who dominate her affairs."

Attempted Suicide or Escape.

Montreal, June 27.—Harry Felton, who was seven years in the British navy, and says he instructed the Prince of Wales to box when His Highness was a sailor, was charged in court yesterday by officers of the steamship Savorona with attempted suicide. Felton, however, claims that when inward bound he decided to make for shore owing to bad treatment and plunged from the ship.

Administrator of Ontario.

Toronto, June 27.—Lieutenant-Governor Mortimer Clark leaves on Saturday to spend the summer in Europe. Yesterday Chief Justice Moss was sworn in as chief administrator during his absence.

Rain in Alberta.

Winnipeg, June 27.—Warm rain is falling all over Alberta, and ranchers claim that while it will delay cattle shipments it is very much desired. Grass is coming along nicely.

WHEN buying a range the oven construction should be your first consideration. Its baking and roasting qualities are of the utmost importance to you. A poor oven means ruined food, waste of coal, late meals and many heartaches. The Imperial Oxford Range is the result of years of experience and scientific study. It has taken years to evolve it, and years of use have proven it without a peer. There are a number of exclusive features in the construction of the that give it advantages found in no other. Of these exclusive features the most important is the heat-diffusing oven flue. This flue draws the cold air in from outside the range, superheats it and distributes it through perforations in the top of the oven. This insures fresh, heated air evenly distributed throughout the oven, the moist vapors of the oven being drawn off by openings provided for the purpose.

The Imperial Oxford Range, by this construction, gives a dry, even heat, which roasts or bakes an article thoroughly and evenly, the heat in all parts of the oven is equal, the fire side being no hotter than the other side.

If your dealer doesn't handle the Imperial Oxford Range, write to us and we will send [illegible] and tell you where you can see the range.

No Waste of Heat In the "Bison" Hot Water Heater

The "Bison" has two drafts—a center draft to burn quickly, and a side draft to heat quickly.

The side draft carries the heat up a side flue passing up and down, and up again through a center flue, always in contact with water surfaces, trapping the heat and burning the gases. See illustration.

The draft is continuous, cyclone-like in action, but always under easy control.

Not a particle of heat is lost—the sections get it all, the water heats quickly—the effect on the radiators is almost instantaneous — The "Bison" has more good heating points than all other heaters combined.

CLOSING EXERCISES OF GRADUATING CLASS.

friends an excellent servant, but dangerous if you allow it to become your master. Nothing in the world can make us more thoroughly selfish and so forgetful of the rights and comforts of others as too close an application to work.

Everyone must have a certain amount of social life. It is good for him. His nature demands it. We must play in order to work better. The mind needs a change of thought, just as the body needs a change of raiment. A wholesome social life broadens us. But, on the other hand, there are people who go to excess in their social life, and this is just as deadly as the other is stagnating. Social pleasures are like everything else in the world, their danger lies not in their use but in abuse. No mind can be fresh in the morning that has been kept at a tension the night before by late hours. Sleeping is only nature's banking system of principal and interest. Anyone to be a factor in his work must have a fresh mind and a clear brain, and it is only possible where he gives them proper rest. Social excesses make this impossible. I care not how strong or how robust you are social dissipation will sooner or later influence your work.

The confusing assertion is sometimes made that religion is on the decline. But the fasts are that true, honest, practical religion actually holds a more secure place in the hearts of strong men and women than ever before. A true belief in God is one of the best qualities anyone can possess. Religion is too much a matter of one's innermost feelings to be governed by rule. But in these days, when many of the truths which our forefathers held sacred are being discussed in so called "new light" and when the beliefs of many are disturbed by reason of these "new doctrines," it is well that you should have it said to you to bear in mind one on two fundamental truths.

No matter what present revelations or subsequent discoveries may prove or seek to disprove as to religious teachings, one great essential can never be altered, the necessity of a firm faith, an absolute belief that a wise God rules over the universe and over the destiny of each man, woman, or child.

Have then absolute faith in God and in prayer, and only one thing more is needed to complete the fundamental basis of all religions; an honest effort to live according to our conscience, to the best and truest that is within ourselves and to do for others what we might wish they would do for us. For the greatest and final test of a true life in that, the love of one for another.

And now, my friends, I have tried to give, not a few interpretation of success and the keys which are factors in it, for that is hardly possible for any man to do. But I hope that from it you will find out for yourselves what success enables its possessor to do for others as well as for himself; that success is only satisfying to its possessor as it is made the instrument of helping others.

The best way to help others, the community at large, as well as those of one's own immediate environment, is to one's simple duty in one's own proper sphere.

Nothing hinders others so much as our own failures; nothing on the other hand, can make the success of so many possible as our own success. But it all comes back to ourselves first. We must achieve success for ourselves before we can apply success to others and in its very best sense. We ourselves must learn before we can teach others. All great men, whose lives meant something for others, had to make their own way first. And as they made their own way they did what all should do and must do to get the only pleasure and reward there is in any success—they practised that great altruism that made their names immortal and their memories sweet.

And so I leave these words with you. I hope they will be of some help and encouragement to the graduating nurses, who now enter upon their life's work. The message is simple. There is nothing impossible about it to you or anybody so long as you bear in mind the salient points. First, that success means the successful doing, the doing well of whatever you do in whatever position you are.

Second: the price of success, hard work and a few sacrifices.

Then for your keys. In your religious life. A firm, unwavering belief in God and prayer, and a life consistent with that belief for yourselves and others. In your social life; moderation. In your profession; thoroughness. Not thoroughness alone in large things or what is apparent to the eye; but thoroughness in all things; not slighting the small things. I wish you God's choicest blessings upon your life-work, and that success which will be assured to the faithful servant in the work God has given him to do.

A vocal solo by Miss Gertrude Kendry, was rendered with charming effect and greatly delighted the audience.

The charge to the nurses, preliminary to the presentation of the diplomas, was then given by Dr. W. Caldwell, as follows:—

Lady Graduates:—

It is my privilege to say a few words to you on the important occasion of your graduation. And first I would congratulate you on having completed your course of training and especially on the high standing you attained at the recent examinations, the results of which were creditable indeed.

You are now about to enter the field of labour for which you have so well prepared yourselves during the last three years. In this new sphere of activity you will find ample opportunity for the exercise of your skill in ministering to the needs of those suffering from disease.

Knowing, as we do, how interested you have been in the work, how cheerfully and conscientiously you have discharged your duties, we are confident your success is assured.

You have acquired the practical knowledge, the actual experience, and the qualifications which can only be gained by such a course as you have taken, all of which entitle you to the confidence of the public.

I would, however, call your attention to qualities of character that are essential to the ideal nurse. I presume you each have an ideal. Tact is one of the characteristics which is well worthy your while to cultivate, and to study in its various phases. You should be quick to appreciate what is fit, proper, or right: you should have a ready discernment in what you say and do, so as to avoid what would offend or annoy. You should serve to the best interests of those placed under your care, with firmness, yet without wounding the sensibilities of patient or friend. You should assert your authority with prudence and a courteous consideration for the feeling of others who may be very anxious or in great distress. You should have a care for the little things, and to impress this particularly I am going to quote from an address made a very short time ago in the city of New York, at a very remarkable medical meeting. It is said to have been the most important medical gathering of this generation, and the object was to do honour to the greatest medical teacher living, Professor William Osler, who, as you know, is a Canadian, and a graduate of whom the profession in Canada feels proud. In speaking of Prof. Osler, as a teacher, it is said that he realized better than any medical teacher, and made others realize, that trifles make perfection, and though perfection may be no trifle, yet it is constant care for little things that makes the difference between the ordinary practitioner and the serious medical teacher. This is equally true in the profession of nursing. The constant care of what may seem trifles will mark the ideal nurse from those who do not take their profession seriously.

One of the speakers referring to Prof. Osler's great influence, said, "the source of that influence was to be sought not merely in his accomplishments as a physician, not in his learning, not in his wisdom, not even in his well balanced mind and buoyant temperament; but in that basic principle which all recognise, but none can define, and for want of a descriptive name we call character. It is character that tells and to character all things are added. Now that he is going away we notice he has a trait which so many of us lack—greatness in little things—method, system, punctuality, order, economical use of time. These have been the handmaids to his greater gifts. These have enabled him to widen his usefulness to lands beyond the seas."

Now, while all are not blessed with the greater gifts of such men as Dr. Osler, you all can have method, system, punctuality and order. And you will find these great helps to your gifts, to your success and to your usefulness.

In conclusion I would urge you to be true to your patient first and under all circumstances; true to the family which receives you into its home; loyal to the medical attendant who must depend so much on you; be worthy of your Alma Mater which has qualified you for your important work, and you will find you have that which if none can define all will recognize, character, to which we hope all good things will be added.

The presentation of Diplomas and Medals then took place amid general enthusiasm, the former being handed to the graduates by Dr. Caldwell and the medals were affixed by Miss Coleman. The ladies were also presented with a number of most exquisite bouquets, among those being a beautiful tree of roses for each of the successful candidates and Miss Coleman from the Hospital Board of Trustees. The bouquets which were presented by Master W. L. Hall, formed when complete, a bank of the choicest bloom, of formidable proportions.

A violin selection was then rendered with beautiful effect by Mr. Gilbert Markle, of the Conservatory of Music staff, in which the performer displayed a highly cultivated technique, combined with great power of expression. Mr. Markle's first number was "Sarabande Tambourine' by LeClair, and in response to the enthusiastic recall which he received gave "The Swan" by Saint Saens.

Mr. W. Mollroy followed with a vocal solo, "Heroes and Gentleman," the martial character of which brought out, with exquisite effect, the splendid qualities of his voice. He was also forced to respond to a vigourous encore.

Then followed one of the prominent events of the evening, the presentation of the bandaging prize, for the highest proficiency in this art, which annually occasions great interest. It was this year won by Miss Mabel Jean Foster, of Cannington, whose success was well-merited and popular. The prize, which was a beautiful nurses' wallet, containing the instruments of the profession, was presented by Dr. T. N. Greer, the latter making a few appropriate remarks. The speaker referred to the contest, in which the three competitors had this year given most creditable exhibitions of the art—Miss Foster, the successful candidate, evidencing in her work a dexterity which approached perfection in every detail. The presentation was then made amid prolonged applause. The bandaging contest which was held on Tuesday evening last, was this year a most interesting exhibition, all the candidates exhibiting a skill and proficiency greatly in advance of that in the contests of previous years. The different bandages applied, were foot and leg, fingers, hand and arm, clavicle and cap. In all of these the work was of a high order, and in several of the events that of Miss Foster, the successful candidate, reached the perfection point.

Mr. James Dawson then rendered "The Banks and Braes o'Mar" with charming expression, and in response to a merited recall, gave "Will ye no come back again?"

The valedictory was then read by Miss H. D. D. Wilson, as follows,—

Mr. Chairman, Lady Superintendent, Ladies and Gentlemen,—

The honour has fallen to my lot, of reading the valedictory and of expressing for the class of 1905 our feeling of kindliness towards the hospital.

The care of the sick may not be a calling which appeals to the ambitious or ultra-intellectual, but the fact remains that nearly every woman, has in her lifetime a certain amount of nursing to do. Therefore, would it not seem a wise precaution to learn it properly?

In the career of the ordinary girl, occur so few opportunities of doing heroic deeds, that it is rather a waste to spend one's best days in waiting and in dreaming of a future greatness which may never materialize.

In all those hundreds of years there was but one Joan of Arc; and, there are other voices are there not, than those which spoke to the Maid of Orleans?

May I be permitted to quote but two of these? A great American, in describing the woman of his love, places first this attribute, "She doeth little kindnesses which most leave undone or despise," while another voice triumphantly asserts a truth, old as the teaching of our Lord, that in every suffering human being there "Dwells the true Shechinat, the present home of God."

But, a valedictory is a farewell, and not a homily. In leaving the sheltering roof-tree of the hospital, we wish gratefully to acknowledge the many kind acts shown this class.

To the Lady Superintendent we owe sincere thanks for the time and trouble which she has spent in our training. Miss Coleman has taken the greatest pains to perfect us in all the little points of nursing, as well as in giving us careful instruction in technique.

While our gratitude is proffered to Miss Helen Coleman for her unfailing kindness and sympathy, pupil nurses are always deeply indebted to the medical staff for lectures, as well as for many other benefits, but, added to these, the present graduates are especially grateful for professional services and for the kindest of care and attention during illnesses. For all of this, gentlemen, please accept our warmest thanks and appreciation.

To the Hospital and Faculty we wish every success, and may we beg of the pupil nurses remaining to try and raise the standard of worth, so that in time, to be a Nicholls Hospital graduate may be a synonym for being a first-class nurse, and may one who is herself a native-born urge upon any other of the Peterborough girls who think of qualifying, to be loyal to their own hospital and town and apply here, remembering that often that is best which lieth nearest.

For their encouragement, Mr. Chairman, may I relate the following little incident?

A former graduate of the Nicholls Hospital, who now holds a responsible position in a large New York institution, was asked by the operating surgeon, "Whom did you receive your training?" The nurse replied "Oh, in a little Canadian town." "Possibly so," answered the doctor, "but your methods are all right wherever you got them." And, as for us, who are now to learn the meaning of individual responsibility, we realise that we are but on the threshold of knowledge in this, as in all other walks of life, one's education is never really complete.

We hope that familiarity with suffering may never render us hardened to it, nor lacking in sympathy intelligently expressed.

Thanking you ladies and gentlemen for your patient attention, I would beg to say good-night and good-bye.

The accompaniments of the evening were played with skill and sympathetic expression by Miss Kate Graham, Miss Gamplin'at and Mr. John Crane.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers, flags and bunting. The gathering dispersed after the singing of the National Anthem.

The graduates are this afternoon being entertained to a trip down the river by Dr. T. N. Greer, of the staff of examiners, in the "Rose May." A delightful outing is anticipated.

PARK STREET'S EXCURSION

Baptist Sunday School Will Hold It During July.

At the regular meeting of the Park Street Baptist Sunday School, the Excursion Committee reported in favour of Jubilee Point for the picnic on near the second Thursday in July as convenient for the boat.

A great interest was taken in the launching of a "Cradle Roll" in connection with the Primary Department, the rector and Superintendent fully explaining its workings and on motion Miss Mabel Gillespie was unanimously chosen Cradle Roll Superintendent.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S INTERESTING MEETING

Park Street Young People Will Continue Their Weekly Meetings.

Park Street Young People's Society have decided to continue their weekly sessions during the summer months and by the large and interesting attendance during the hot nights of June it looks like a wise decision.

The meeting last night was most edifying, "Subject, "The making of a Christian", was taken up by Miss Hetta Davis and Mr. Robt. Smith, a number of the members also taking up the subject.

Two new members were voted in and a roll call and copper collection was announced for next Monday. The address will be taken by the president and Miss M. Emerson.—Com.

THE ALL SAINTS' ADVISORY BOARD

Meeting Was Held Last Night—A Congregational Meeting.

Last evening a meeting of the Advisory Board of All Saints church, was held in the Sunday school room. Nothing definite was decided upon but a congregational meeting will be called in a week, and the question of erecting a new church will probably be discussed.

Mrs. Hatcher, Sherbrooke St.

Was Exhausted and Worn Out, But Dr. Chase's Nerve Food Restored Health and Strength.

Mrs. J. Hatcher, 224 Sherbrooke street, Peterborough, Ont., and whose husband is a moulder at the Hamilton Foundry, states:—

"I had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism which left me in a very run down state of health, and in fact my whole nervous system seemed exhausted and worn out. I could not sleep, and at times the pains in my head were unbearable. As a result of these symptoms I was unable to attend to my housework, and felt miserable most of the time. On the advise of a friend I began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and can say that it has proved a very great benefit to me. I am able to do my own work now and feel stronger and healthier than I have for years. I can truthfully say that this is due to the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which I consider a great health builder." 7

FRANCE RECEIVES GERMANY'S REPLY

Von Buelow's Answer Handed to Premier Rouvier—Is Most Friendly in Form, But It is Said That a Conference of the Powers Will Be Insisted Upon, Without Any Agreement, in Advance Limiting the Scope of Such Conference—Tension Diminished.

Paris, June 28.—Germany's reply to the French note on the subject of Morrocco was presented during a conference at the Foreign Office yesterday between Prince Radolin, the German Ambassador, and Premier Rouvier. While most friendly in form and entirely lacking a peremptory tone, Germany's response maintains the position that the Moroccan question must be regulated by a conference of the powers without any agreement in advance limiting the scope of such conference. This was accompanied by the presentation of Germany's general point of view in such an amicable spirit as to disarm suspicion entertained concerning Germany's ulterior motives.

It is thought that Premier Rouvier will be prepared to terminate the dead-lock, either by accepting the conference or submitting counter proposals. However, be informed Prince Radolin that no decision will be taken until the German note had been submitted to the council of Ministers Friday.

Tension in official quarters has notably diminished.

AN IMPORTANT JUDGMENT.

Light Co. Must Put Wires Underground Or Be Liable for Damages.

Montreal, June 28.—The Court of Review yesterday morning gave a very important judgment in a case against the Montreal Light, Heat & Power Co.

Last year a man named Curtis, operating a derrick, struck a live wire and was killed. Another ran to his rescue and was stunned, while yet a third, in trying to rescue them got a shock though their bodies and was killed. A jury gave Mrs. Crude $5,000 damages, but as this was the first case of the kind in the Province the judge referred it to the Court of Review.

The company applied to have the judgment reversed, not only on the facts but on the extraordinary argument that their charter gave them the rights to put up their wires as they pleased, and it was for the public to avoid accidents.

The Court of Review replied to this that any powers obtained from the Government were subordinate to the civil law, that special law or no special law the company must take the best way to avoid accidents with its wires, which was to put them under ground. They therefore upheld the judgment for the full amount.

MORENGA FOUGHT 14 HOURS.

German Force Defeats Insurgents—Numerous Casualties.

Berlin, June 28.—Official despatches received yesterday from German Southwest Africa report heavy fighting resulting on June 17 in the defeat of the insurgent chief, Morenga.

The Germans took the native position after 14 hours' fighting, losing fifteen men killed, twenty-five wounded and three missing. Major Von Kampts was among the wounded. Capt. Eckbert assumed command of the German forces and pursued Morenga to his stronghold at Narus, on the Karo River, which the Germans captured on June 19. The Hottentots fled southward.

An official denial is now published of the reports from Cape Town of the capture of Warmbad, German Southwest Africa, by Hottentots.

NO GUARANTEE OF PEACE.

Situation Looks Bad—Fiery Speeches in the Riksdag—Baron Kennedy's Outspoken Menace.

Stockholm, June 28.—Both houses of the Riksdag yesterday elected extraordinary committee to which were referred the Government bill looking to a settlement with Norway.

The debates on the bill brought out fiery speeches, in which the action of the Norwegian Storthing was condemned and the Swedish Cabinet severely criticised.

The tenor of the speeches in both houses leaves the impression that the majority of the speakers were of the opinion that a peaceful solution of the difficulty was extremely improbable.

Baron Kennedy, speaking in the Senate, said: "If the King's message expresses his opinion, he has lost two crowns instead of one."

Joint Committee Appointed.

Stockholm, Sweden, June 28.—A joint committee of the two Houses of the Riksdag was appointed at yesterday's session to deal with the bill seeking authority for the Swedish Government to negotiate with the Norwegian Storthing for terms of settlement of the separation of Norway and Sweden.

Panama Engineer Resigns.

New York, June 28.—John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama Canal, and member of the commission, has resigned both these positions, to accept a $50,000 office with a New York corporation. Mr. Wallace was asked the cause of his resignation. He replied that his position in the matter was a delicate one, and referred his questioner to Secretary Taft.

EXCITING RUNAWAY THIS AFTERNOON

Cox's Milk-waggon Badly Damaged as a Result.

About two o'clock this afternoon the horse attached to Cox's milk waggon took fright while the driver was delivering some milk at a house on Charlotte street. The horse dashed along Charlotte street, across the market square, and onto the sidewalk in front of the police station. It then turned across the road and was brought to a stop on Simcoe street.

Two wheels and the whittle tree were broken as the result of the wagon colliding with a fence and a pole.

FROM FOUR STATES

FUNERAL OF GEO. McBURNEY

Conducted This Afternoon by Members of I. O. O. F.

Services Conducted at the House by Rev. Dr. Crothers—Funeral Largely Attended.

The remains of the late George McBurney, arrived in town upon the C. P. R. train at noon to-day, and were interred at the Little Lake cemetery this afternoon.

The services which were of an impressive character were conducted by the members of the I.O.O.F., of which society the deceased was a prominent member.

Services were conducted last night at Mr. McBurney's late residence, Mr. Alexander street, Toronto, by Rev. Dr. Smith, of the Carlton street Methodist church, and by Mr. J. F. Leader, chaplain of the society.

The remains were accompanied from Toronto by Mrs. and Miss Maggie McBurney, wife and daughter of the deceased, Mr. Leader, Mr. McCormack, and Mr. C. L. Owen, who were met at the station by a number of the members of the local lodges of the I.O.O.F.

The funeral took place at three o'clock this afternoon from the residence of Mrs. Poole, 238 George street. Services were conducted at the house by Rev. Dr. Crothers of the George street Methodist church, after which the cortege moved to the cemetery where the last sad rites were conducted at the graveside by Mr. Leader.

The pall bearers were Bros. Albert Johnston, P.G., William Cowle, Wm. Green, Wm. Battisby, Wm. Hill and John Brownelee.

Deceased was also a member of the Alpha Masonic Lodge, Toronto.

This is the Best.

The Murray Street Baptist Sunday School hold their annual excursion on Tuesday, July 4th, per G. T. R. and steamer "City of Peterborough" to Stony Lake. This excursion is always a very attractive one and everyone is assured of a pleasant outing. Tickets to children not members of the Sunday School, 50c; adults 75c. 64

LINDSAY BOARD IN GREAT DANGER

Cheese Board of Victoria County May Be Disbanded.

A Feeling of Dissatisfaction Evidenced Number of Cheese is Decreasing.

(Lindsay Post.)

Things are not looking just as bright for the future of the Victoria County Cheese Board as might be. The Board met this morning with four factories not represented, viz., Mariposa, Cambray, Red Rock and North Verulam, but probably the last one will be represented at next meeting as they only started to make cheese last Monday. Besides being four factories fewer at todays' meeting than at the corresponding meeting last year, the Board were also short of a couple of buyers—Messrs. Whitton and Cook—and what is still worse, were behind in the number of boxes boarded, as is shown by the following:—

	1904	1905
Star	110	95
Cameron	127	75
Dunsford	135	138
Mariposa	135
Cambray	82
Omemee	170	145
North Verulam	125
North Ops	85	60
Pine Grove	59	40
Realboro	153	125
Bobcaygeon	190	185
Maple Leaf	150	99
Palestine	122	92
Red Rock	200
North Harvey	84	72

The cause of the above dropping off is probably that the farmers do not think it worth while to send all their milk to the factories and are fattening their cattle and selling them. Anyway it causes much speculation on the side at the board and in conversation with a seller at the meeting we were told that he would probably sell off board, as he could get a better price for his cheese.

Messrs. Fitzgerald, Flavelle, Gilleapie and Brown were the buyers present. The cheese sold at from 9 1-16 to 9 5-16.

"TOMMY ATKINS" WERE ON PARADE

Large Turn-Out of the 57th Regiment Last Night,

Preparation for the Trip of the Regiment to Ottawa.

Last night the 57th Regiment held their last drill before taking their annual trip, which this year will be to Ottawa. The turn-out of members was exceptionally large, the parade state showing that 344 officers and men were out, and a most satisfactory night's drill was held.

After the regiment had gathered, a march-out took place, the regiment showing up well, and their marching being an improvement over that of the last march-out.

Headed by both bands, and in command of Lieut.-Col. J. W. Miller the regiment paraded east on Murray street to Water street, down Water to Charlotte and north on George to the drill hall, where a number of exercises were taken up, including company drill and guard mounting.

The men are in bright spirits about their trip to Ottawa and are looking forward to a most delightful trip. The last time Ottawa was visited an enjoyable time was spent, and those of the men who were in the regiment at that time are looking forward to renewing the acquaintances formed at that time, while to those to whom a trip to the Capitol will be a novelty are equally enthusiastic. It is expected that the strength of the regiment on this trip will be about 375.

After the drill the following orders for the direction of the regiment during the week and for the trip were read:—

Headquarters, Peterborough,
June 27th, 1905.

Orders by Lieut.-Col. J. W. Miller, Commanding 57th Regiment, Peterborough Rangers:

1. Regiment will parade at the armouries with both bands and stretcher section, at 9 p.m. sharp, on Friday, June 30th, 1905, and will then proceed to the C.P.R. station, there to entrain for Ottawa, where the Regiment will camp for two days, July 1st and 2nd.

2. The dress for this parade will be review order, with leggings — serges will be worn instead of tunics, which will be packed in the Companies kit boxes. Black leather boots must be worn, and on this parade as well as at all other times during the continuance of the camp, all ranks must give proper attention to shaving, and to the cutting of hair, as well as to the proper cleaning of buttons, brasses, clothing and accoutrements.

3. For the camp all ranks will provide themselves with all articles necessary for their toilet and for the cleaning of clothing and accoutrements. Rifle oil will be procured from the regimental stores.

4. All baggage must be in the drill hall, ready for shipment not later than 8 p.m. on Friday, June 30th.

5. The following orders for the trip to and from Ottawa and for the camp while at Ottawa are promulgated for the information of all concerned:—

I. Lieut. McLean is hereby detailed as Transport Officer.

II. Orderly officers are detailed as follows:—

(a) Captain Clegg and Lieut. Comstock.

(b) Captain Mills and Lieut. Higgins.

(c) Captain Hounsell and Lieut. Watt.

(d) Captain McWilliams and Lieut. Wallace.

(e) Captain Claxton and Lieut. Langford.

III. The hour of duty will extend from 9 p.m. to 9 a.m., and from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily.

IV. The Adjutant's duties will be taken by Major Stevenson in the absence of Captain Walker.

V. An advance party, consisting of the Quarter Master, Major Hayes, Capt. Bennett, Sergt. Edwards and Sergt. Sharpe, and eight men will proceed to Ottawa by the midnight train on Wednesday to make the necessary preparations for the accommodation and reception of the regiment.

VI. On entraining officers commanding companies will remain with their respective companies fifteen minutes after the train leaves Peterborough and rejoin them fifteen minutes previous to arrival at Ottawa.

VII. It will be the special duty of the orderly officers to have control of the conduct of the men while in camp. They will inspect, march off and dismiss all guards and other duties and they will attend all parades and be present at the messing of the men.

VIII. The roster for duties of Non-Commissioned Officers and men will be furnished by the Sergeant Major.

IX. A baggage party to consist of one man per company and one man from bugle band, stretcher section and band, will be detailed and will report to Lieut. McLean at the drill hall at 8 p.m. on Friday, June 30th, 1905.

X. The Regimental Guard will consist of one sergeant, one corporal, one bugler, and ten privates. The first guard will be mounted at the drill hall at 9.15 p.m. on Friday June 30th, and will report to the Adjutant for instruction.

XI. Issues of blankets and rubber rugs will be made immediately upon arrival of the regiment at camp, from the Quartermaster stores. Pails, wash-basins and lights will be furnished at the same time. Officers commanding companies will before the Regiment detrains make out a requisition for three issues, and hand the same to the Adjutant, and, on arrival of the Regiment in camp, they will detail one sergeant and two privates from each company to attend to the Quartermaster's stores, to receive the issues, and the sergeant giving a receipt therefor.

XII. Arrangements have been made for messing the Regiment upon the camp grounds. Colour Sergeants will parade their respective companies 15 minutes before the meal hour, and will march them to the tables assigned for the different meals, and will be responsible for seeing that such mess parades are regular and orderly. The call for mess parades will be sounded by the duty bugler at the hours named.

XIII. The daily routine for the camp will be as follows:

Reveille, 6.30 a.m.
Breakfast, 7.30 a.m.
Guard mounting, 9 a.m.
Dinner, 12.30 p.m.
Supper, 6.30 p.m.
Retreat, sunset.
Guard mounting, 9 p.m.
Tattoo, 1st post, 10.30 p.m.; last post, 10.45 p.m.

XIV. Reveille and retreat will be sounded by the regimental buglers, the time to be taken from the duty buglers. At tattoo the regimental band will play some selections on the parade grounds.

XV. Immediately after reveille, all are expected to be up, and, if the weather permits, tent curtains will be rolled up, blankets and rugs folded, and placed at the right side of the doorway, and the rifles piled beside the blankets. Clothing and accoutrements will be cleaned, and everything about the tent put in perfect order.

XVI. The programme arranged for the camp is as follows:

Saturday, July 1st, the regiment, as the guests of the Governor-General's Foot Guards, will in the forenoon visit Brithania, and in the afternoon Rockcliffe.

Sunday, July 2nd, the Regiment will parade in divine service order, at 10.30 a.m., and accompany the Foot Guards in attending Christ church cathedral. In the afternoon the Regiment will visit Aylmer.

XVII. In the afternoon proper walking out dress must be observed, when not on duty, and when outside of camp limits.

XVIII. The regimental guard will:—

(a) Remain constantly in readiness for any alarm or emergency that may require them.

(b) Place two sentries, to be relieved every hour.

(c) Take charge of all governmental and regimental property, and see that nothing is misused or stolen.

(d) Pay proper compliments to all entitled thereto.

(e) Allow none to leave the camp unless properly dressed.

(.) Take into custody and confine any disorderly or intoxicated men.

(g) Allow no loitering at or near the post, and

(h) See that the men use the proper latrines provided.

XIX. The guard will turn out at reveille, retreat and tattoo, and at such times as they are inspected by the orderly officers or commanding officers.

XX. The commanders of the guard will see that the guard get their meals by reliefs with their respective companies.

No. 6. In issuing these orders the Commanding Officer takes occasion to impress upon all ranks the great necessity of the observance by all of such conduct as is dignified, manly and soldierly. He therefore solicits the utmost vigilance of officers commanding companies to see that the men under them will practice in the city of Ottawa — the headquarters of the militia of Canada — such deportment as will reflect the highest credit upon the town of Peterborough, and more particularly upon the regiment itself.

No. 7. — The Commanding Officer has been pleased to make the following promotions:

To be corporals — Drummers Armitage and Thornton.

By order,
D. WALKER,
Capt. and Adjt.

WERE WEDDED IN NORWOOD

Miss Theresa Fitzpatrick Married to Mr. Cornelius Quinlan.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Norwood, June 28. — A very pretty wedding was celebrated in St. Paul's church on Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Theresa Fitzpatrick, eldest daughter of Mr. John Fitzpatrick, was married to Mr. Cornelius Quinlan. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Conway. The bride was given away by her father, and was attired in a beautiful gown of white silk. The bridesmaid was her sister, Miss May Fitzpatrick, who wore a gown of champagne voile. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Andrew Quinlan. After the ceremony the wedding party with a large number of guests, repaired to the home of the bride's father, where the wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Quinlan will take up their residence in Dummer. The bride was the recipient of a number of pretty and costly presents.

BE BRIGHT—WELL—STRONG

BUILD UP WITH FERROZONE

Ferrozone Adds Vigor and Strength to the System, Purifies and Enriches the Blood, Vitalizes the Nerves and Assures Permanent Good Health.

Let your fight for health begin now, before you feel any warning of physical collapse.

Your whole system needs a thorough cleansing. Likewise, the blood should be purified, made rich and nutritious.

The one cure for that tired, drooping feeling is Ferrozone, the acknowledged king of all tonic medicines.

To restore your appetite you need Ferrozone, certainly you do.

You need it to restore your nerves and to enrich your depleted blood.

The strongest reason why you need Ferrozone is because it will build up your run-down system and make you well.

It's because we know Ferrozone is absolutely certain to cure that we urge everyone in poor health to use it. If depressed, tired, nervous, sleepless, Ferrozone will make you cheery, bright and happy, because it will make you well.

FERROZONE

A Good Appetizer.

MR. AUBREY E. TEMPLEMAN, of Mechias, writes: "I have found the greatest satisfaction in using Ferrozone, and consider it is the best tonic made. I was all run down a few months ago, and in a very miserable state of health. I took a few boxes of Ferrozone, and was surprised at the result. Ferrozone drove away that dull, heavy feeling, and put my system in splendid order. I am never nervous or sleepless, and have a hearty appetite. This is all due to Ferrozone, which I recommend in the strongest way possible."

FERROZONE

Gives Real Vigor.

MRS. NORMAN MACADAM, of Bridgeport, writes: "I am in good health to-day as the result of Ferrozone. Before using Ferrozone I was tired and miserable, lacked energy and ambition. But Ferrozone altered all that. It has built up my system, and given me more real vigor than I ever had before. Ferrozone is a good tonic."

Ferrozone Makes the Weak Strong—the Sick Well.

CITIZENS' VIEWS ON THE COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

A HALF-HEARTED POLICY CONDEMNED

Ex-Mayor Roger Writes Strongly in Favour of the Collegiate Institute By-Law—A Sign of Retrograde if the Proposal is Defeated—A Crying Need for Better School Accommodations—Some Pertinent Facts in Connection With This Matter—Ratepayers Cannot Afford to Neglect Their Educational Interests.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—If Peterborough was a retrograde, or a stagnant town, there might be some grounds for the pessimistic views expressed by Mr. Dumble regarding the outlay for a new Collegiate Institute, but, considering that it has doubled its population by natural development in the last twenty years, that it gains speed as it goes, and is now growing faster than ever, and will probably double itself again in ten or twelve years this time, it would surely be the very height of folly to withold our hands and deal with this matter in a timid and halting manner.

When the makers of Canada, in laying out the country originally, came to the spot where Peterborough now stands, before there was a tree cut, a furrow turned, or a house built, they saw the natural possibilities of the place, and, instead of laying it out in farm lots, and concessions, as they had done the surrounding country, they laid it out as a town site on generous and liberal lines. Are we, who have lived to see the realization in admittedly the most prosperous town in Ontario, already grown to twice its original dimensions, with Canada as yet only entering on the threshold of a great future, to be the foremost in discrediting our town, and build so that we may have reason to regret our own timidity before the foundations are settled?

There isn't a municipal building in Peterborough to-day that is equal to present requirements, or a public building of any kind, over ten years of age, in which more room could not be utilized with advantage. Religious congregations are continuously burdening themselves, almost beyond the point of endurance, in the effort to make reasonable provision for the future, and yet, instead of overdoing it, it has seemed almost impossible to keep pace with the needs of so vigorous and healthy a community.

We have a School Board of as responsible and capable business men, as we are ever likely to have; they have made it their business to study this matter more thoroughly than a private citizen can very well do, and they have come to an almost unanimous recommendation on the subject, and citizens will do well to give their recommendations the most careful consideration.

Opposition there will always be, no matter what scheme is submitted. Building is costly at the present time, no doubt, but, on the other hand, the building is required now; there is no prospect that building will be cheaper in the near future, and, in any event, the people are better able to bear the expense in prosperous times than in dull times. The building that was insufficient and unsuitable for local Separate school purposes, is equally so for Collegiate Institute or Public school purposes, and is not available in any case, as the inducement held out to the Government to contribute, and the bargain with them, was that the four town lots, or two acres at the rear of the block, is to be left clear of buildings for drill and play ground purposes, which necessity involves the removal of the Separate school building. As additional accommodation is wanted for Public school, as well as for Collegiate Institute purposes, every foot of space not now required for the latter can be advantageously used for the former purpose, until further extension becomes absolutely necessary, and thus the building can be made to pay its own way from the beginning.

It will be our most conspicuous municipal building. It will stand alongside an imposing Government structure. It will represent Peterborough's own estimate of its own future, and we simply cannot afford to pursue any narrow or half-hearted policy. It is a case in which it is an economy, and not an extravagance to put our best foot foremost and do the thing handsomely for all it is worth.

Yours truly,
G. M. ROGER.

ENDORSATION OF A BUSINESS MAN

Mr. A. W. Cressman Writes in Favour of Supporting the Board of Education in Their Action in Asking the Ratepayers to Vote $50,000 for Collegiate Institute—An Evidence of Stagnation if the By-Law is Defeated—No Question of its Necessity—A Sensible Proposition.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

I have as a citizen and ratepayer followed somewhat closely the arguments for and against the voting of an additional $50,000 asked for by the School Board to give them sufficient funds to proceed with the erection of a new Collegiate Institute Building.

That a new Collegiate Institute is a necessity and an immediate necessity appears to be generally admitted. The only matter in which difference of opinion exists is the amount proposed to be spent; nor do we hear any person seriously questioning the ability of the School Board to expend the money voted to the best advantage and giving the citizens value for their money—the point of difference appears to be the amount asked for, and the somewhat contradictory view that the whole amount was not asked for in the beginning. The error in not asking for the larger sum at first is not a serious one, and would point to lack of material for argument. It in no way affects the vital point—that the added sum is required to give us an institute that is in keeping with our progressive and growing city.

Comparisons are always useful in arriving at a decision. Several Ontario towns of less population, (and we do not feel like admitting that they have more enterprise) have erected new school buildings costing a similar amount to that proposed to be spent here. They must be either very extravagant or we very penurious, if we fail to endorse the action of our School Board.

Another comparison which is legitimate argument. Some three or four of our religious denominations each have property in town, totalling more than the amount asked for, in an institute building for the entire community. If then, each of these several denominations voluntarily spend such sums on their public place of worship, each for only a section of the people, surely the amount is not too large to ask the entire community for these public buildings which are for the use of all.

One more comparison. The town of Calgary, 6,850 to 7,000 population, is this summer building seven churches, each costing from $20,000 to $35,000, and also putting up a public school costing $100,000. This place is spoken of as a progressive, go-ahead town, a place that has faith in its future—as I believe the majority of the ratepayers of Peterborough have.

The suggestion to put up a cheaper building and add to it would be most doubtful economy—to build for, say, the next five years with no thought of the requirements of ten years hence, would certainly be most unwise.

In conclusion I shall vote for the bylaw, because I believe our educational interests are vitally important, because the age, the city and the conditions demand the best we can give our children, and intelligently.

A. W. CRESSMAN.

TRUSTEE'S PLEA FOR COLLEGIATE

Explains Why it is Necessary to Ask for $50,000.

Board Has Acted as Any Body of Business Men Would Act.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

I notice several of your anonymous correspondents ask why the School Board are now appealing a second time for money to build the Collegiate Institute. The matter is very easily explained. Nearly two years ago the Board asked the architect to prepare sketch plans for a collegiate institute, for which he was to receive $300 if his plans were not accepted, and if the plans were accepted he was to receive a commission on the cost of the building. The plans were received about the beginning of the year. Only an approximate sum was named for the cost of the building. These plans were put before a meeting of the Board at which the architect was asked how much would it be necessary to ask the council for in order to buy the site, build and equip the institute. The architect advised the Board to ask for $50,000. At this time it was not suggested to pay more than $2,000 or $3,000 for the site. The Board acting on the advice of their architect, asked for the sum of fifty thousand dollars. The bylaw was accordingly voted on and passed for fifty thousand dollars. Sometime after this, the agitation for new armouries was started and the proposal was made that the town, School Board and Government should join together and purchase the Separate School grounds and add it to the Central Park and put the collegiate institute and the armouries on this site. This opinion seemed to be almost unanimously approved of. But, this ran over $7,000 above what it was originally calculated to pay for the site.

Up to the time the bylaw was passed, the Board had no assurance that the public would approve of the building of a new collegiate institute or would vote the $50,000 to build it. The Board, therefore, did not feel justified in going to any further expense in sending a deputation to visit other schools in order to get suggestions for the plans of the new building, or of going to the expense of having the architect prepare detail plans for the building. As soon as the people showed by voting the $50,000 then asked for, that they wanted a new collegiate institute, the Board then felt justified in going ahead and making such expenditure necessary to find out the proper details to give the architect in order to prepare the detail plans. In order to do this a deputation was appointed to visit different parts of the country in order to get the most up-to-date ideas for the new building as it was felt that in such a progressive town, no other but an up-to-date building would satisfy the public. The architect also accompanied the deputation. The architect was then given instructions as to the necessary details and was ordered to go ahead and get out the necessary detailed drawings and specifications on this basis. Some may say why was this not done before the council was asked for any stated sum. Well the answer is simply this, the committee had no assurance that the people wanted or would vote for the institute, and they did not feel that they were justified in going to such a large expenditure as would be necessitated by sending a deputation to visit other towns or on having detail plans or specifications prepared. If all this expense had been incurred and the bylaw had been turned down by the people it would make the Board a laughing stock. The Board took all reasonable means to find out the approximate cost of the building, viz, by employing an architect, to give them such estimate. If the Board was mislead, why should they be

This Binder is designed to fasten packages and parcels, large or small, without the use of twine. It is also adapted as a new method of labelling bottles, cans, packages, etc. The Goff Binder may be regarded as one of the small and staple agencies which revolutionize the methods of doing up packages.

It consists of a patented machine containing a roll of one thousand feet of paper varying in width. This is toughened by a secret process and coated on the under side with glue made by a formula the property of the company. This glue holds tenaciously, dries quickly and is not affected by damp or heat. As the paper is unwound an automatic printing device stamps every two or three inches with any advertisement which may be adopted. At the same instant the glue is moistened and the tape cut. The whole operation can be done in an instant. The essential points of value are: A package is securely fastened in less than one-half the time and at less than one-half the cost of twine. The cost of material for sealing and printing twenty-four thousand packages by this method will not exceed six dollars.

Every package becomes a sealed package, strongly fastened and secure from pilfering or curiosity without breaking the seal.

The Company do not intend to sell machines. They grant the free use of them on conditions of purchasing all necessary supplies, inks, printing rolls and tapes from the Company. The sale of these supplies will give the Company ENORMOUS PROFITS and also save the purchaser at least FIFTY PER CENT. of his present expense both in time and money.

These machines have been tested by large departmental stores as well as by small shopkeepers. All to whom they have been shown declare their intention to put them in use the moment the Company can supply them.

The Company have a new Binder Twine which they expect to place upon the market. It is made by a secret process and is of great strength and will undoubtedly take the place of the twine now used by farmers in harvesting binding machines at much less cost. This twine can be used for all ordinary purposes twine is required for.

The Company intend to manufacture printing inks, gums, papers, twine, advertising rolls of rubber and metal, labels for express parcels, bottles, cans, boxes, and for all purposes that labels are required for. Also waterproof paper for coverings, paper pails for carriage by hand of liquid products. These pails will be air-tight and waterproof. Also air-tight, waterproof packages for parcelling fruit, fish, meat and other quickly tainting foods. Waterproof and vermin-proof papers for the wrapping of goods liable to attack by dampness, moths or mice. Also the manufacture of many new and valuable improvements in the method of handling goods, not one of which has ever been placed upon the market, and at no extra cost to the purchaser than those now in vogue.

The Company will have a monopoly of these goods. The amount of business that can be done will make this corporation in a few years one of the most important in the civilized world.

In the opinion of bankers, manufacturers, merchants and others who have investigated these new inventions no company was ever incorporated with greater prospects.

It is expected that the shares will rapidly increase in value. No such opportunity has ever been offered to Canadian investors to share in a money-making enterprise the profits of which will be indirectly contributed to by every individual in the country.

The Company offer to the public the whole issue of preferred stock at par, with a bonus of one share of Common with every Three Shares of Preferred. Subscription must be accompanied by cheque, draft or money order; 35 per cent. with application, balance on allotment. Shares paid in full will be given the preference.

Subscriptions may be paid to any branch of THE ONTARIO BANK, THE UNION BANK OF CANADA, THE SOVEREIGN BANK (Bankers of the Company), or to order of CANADIAN COMMERCIAL BINDER CO., Limited, 16 Yonge Street Arcade, Toronto, Canada.

Allotment will be made on July 15th, and all refunds and shares issued will be mailed on that date.

Any information required may be had by calling at the Company's Office. Letters addressed to the Managing Director will receive prompt reply.

ESTIMATE OF PROFITS.

After allowing for the manufacture and expense of placing the machines it is estimated the business will produce a profit of at least $200,000 within the first year, or 100 per cent. on the capital. The Company expects to have very large profits on their Binder Twine and numerous other articles.

MISS HELEN DAVIES' SUCCESS EMPHASIZED

She Wins the Highest Distinction Conferred on a Vocalist in Canada.

Miss Helen Davies, mention of whose conspicuous success at her examination in music at Toronto University, was made in these columns yesterday, returned home from Toronto last night. The diploma of "Licentiate in Music," is the highest academic distinction conferred on a vocalist in Canada. The examination is a very exacting one, and is divided into three sections — singing, advanced harmony and counterpoint—and Miss Davies was the only candidate taking first class honours in each subject.

REASONS WHY COLLEGIATE BY-LAW SHOULD BE SUPPORTED

The present is an epoch in the history of Peterborough. In a few days we shall enter cityhood and in view of that fact we have a position and a credit to uphold. Citizens of the town do not perhaps reflect upon or realize the growth of the town and the importance to which it has attained, and many doubtless are unconsciously influenced by the reflection of conditions of the past, long since disappeared.

To-morrow the bylaw to authorize the raising of $50,000 for the erection of a Collegiate Institute is to be voted upon by the qualified ratepayers, and the subject should be looked upon in three ways by the ratepayers—the past, the present, the future. In 1880 the town, when the population was only about four thousand, and the assessed value of the town was only a little over a million dollars, erected a pile of school buildings costing $35,000. They were wise in their generation, the people of these days; they built not only for the present but the future, and the accommodation they then provided has been good for fifty years—till the town has outgrown it. Our present needs demand a new Collegiate Institute, and it is the question whether we are to emulate the enterprise of 50 years ago and spend a sufficient sum to erect a building adequate to present needs and good for another half century, or expend a lesser sum in a building which will speedily become inadequate if the city maintains the present and recent rate of expansion.

The public will remember that the $50,000 voted a year ago for a Collegiate Institute was at that time considered approximately adequate, but for various reasons it appears that that sum is not sufficient for the purpose of providing the modern and well equipped Collegiate Institute building which a city of the importance of Peterborough should possess. Of the $50,000 voted, $10,000 has been expended in the purchase of a site—a splendid site too—and the balance, $40,000, is quite insufficient for the erection of such a building as the City of Peterborough must have. It is considered on the best of grounds that an additional $50,000 will be needed to construct and equip a new Collegiate Institute, and the School Board has decided to ask the Council to furnish that amount, and has submitted the bylaw to be voted upon to-morrow to the people.

The School Board and the Town have invested $20,000 in procuring a $20,000 site for a new Collegiate Institute building, one of the best sites for such a structure in the Province, and a building in keeping should be erected. Plans have been prepared for a first-class, modern building to meet the requirements of the city for half a century. A great deal of investigation and research, thought and consideration have been expended in perfecting these plans. The Board of Education contains some of our best business citizens and after giving the subject the most mature thought with a view of meeting the educational wants of the City, and providing a building that will not only meet these needs but in all respects be a credit to the city, have decided to appeal to the people for their sanction in carrying out this desirable enterprise.

Peterborough is entering upon cityhood and it is to be confessed, with abasement, that we have not the educational facilities and equipment worthy of a good town—and far short of many towns in the province—not to speak of a city. There is no one other thing that makes for the prosperity and standing of a town or city so greatly as thoroughly modern and adequate educational facilities, and Peterborough must in this as in other respects keep in the lead, or at least on even terms with less important towns and cities.

Under the circumstances it would be criminal extravagance to erect a Collegiate Institute building to last eight or ten years — that is, which would have ceased in that time to serve the wants of the town. There is, as has been remarked, no town or city in the province with a better site — in Central Park — on the main line of a street railway, and, in all respects central, and easily accessible: and it would be unbusiness folly to burden such a site with a small, mean, and discreditable building. Other towns, and the province itself, are alive to keeping pace with modern progress in educational requirements. The present Provincial Government has contributed a million and a half to place the Provincial University on a sound financial footing, in addition to the income from an equivalent sum granted by the late Government.

Peterborough should therefore keep up to its position in educational matters, and there should not be a single brick laid towards the erection of any building that will not represent a first class, thoroughly well-equipped Collegiate Institute building which, with the help of the excellent staff we now possess, will give this city the best Institute in the province: one that will attract students from all parts of the district, and make the city of Peterborough the educational centre of this district, with all the attendant advantages, as the city of Toronto is the educational centre of the province.

This is an age when scientific advance, makes a knowledge of such subjects, a necessary part of the educational equipment of every young person who is to make his way in the world. We want to provide here in Peterborough the elements of such a training as will give the students of our Institute at least an even chance with the pupils of other cities, and even towns, in the province, which in the respect in question, have outstripped and stand ahead of the, otherwise, most progressive city in the Dominion. No business man would think of building a business home at large expense, which would only meet the requirements of his expanding business for a few years, but he would make special effort to erect a structure that would be lasting and sufficient.

Arguments in justification of the position taken by the School Board, could be extended indefinitely, but the Examiner contents itself with suggesting the salient general argument, in favour of providing additional capital to permit of the erection of a Collegiate Institute building which will meet the educational requirements of the city for the next fifty years — a wiser course than wasting an insufficient sum in providing a temporary structure, which would soon have to be replaced, and which, at the best, would in the meantime, be entirely unsuitable and inadequate.

LAWN SOCIAL LAST EVENING

Pleasant Evening Spent by Ladies of George Street Church.

Last evening at the residence of Mrs. A. E. Mieks, Dalhousie street, a lawn social was held in aid of the Women's Foreign Mission Society at George street Church. Owing to the unfavourable weather conditions the attendance was not large, and consequently the affair was not a financial success.

Both lawns were illuminated by Chinese lanterns, and an ice cream booth, conducted by the ladies, and a candy stand, in charge of members of the Mission Band, supplied refreshments to those present. There was also a short musical programme, which included two vocal solos by Miss Clara BeHeghem, and a solo by Miss Muriel Crothers.

Mrs. A. E. Mieks and Mrs. M. A. Turner, the committee in charge, did everything in their power to ensure a pleasant and social evening.

179 ARE TRYING THE ENTRANCE

Examinations Started This Morning—17 More Than Last Year.

This morning 179 pupils in the Public School started to write on the entrance examinations. Mr. D. Walker is in charge of the examinations, and the examining officers are Miss Cahill and Messrs Kenner and Scrigley. The number writing this year is seventeen in excess of that of last year when 162 tried the entrance, an evidence of the fact that the demand for space in the Collegiate is increasing.

TALENTED MUSICIANS SCORE SIGNAL SUCCESS

Recital by Mrs. W. J. Morrow's Choral Pupils Last Night Was Much Enjoyed—A Delightful Programme Rendered—Local Artists Were Assisted by Mr. David Ross, of Toronto—An Eloquent Tribute to the Work of Mrs. Morrow in Training Her Pupils—Audience Thoroughly Appreciated the Musical Treat.

The recitals given by the pupils of Mrs. Morrow are always thoroughly enjoyable musical events, and are attended by those who enjoy good music, well rendered. That of last night was no exception to the established rule and those who attended the delightful evening's concert given in the opera house by Mrs. Morrow and her clever pupils, assisted by Mr. David Ross, English concert baritone, were well repaid and could not but thoroughly enjoy and appreciate the really excellent programme which was rendered.

That the town possesses a lady of such decided musical and executive ability as Mrs. Morrow is a matter for congratulation, and last night she amply demonstrated, as indeed, she has on many previous occasions demonstrated, her peculiar fitness for this work.

The attendance was not as large as the excellence of the programme deserved, this somewhat meagre attendance being attributed doubtless to the fact that the holiday season is approaching and practically upon us now, but those who were fortunate enough to attend the opera house last night were favoured with a musical treat the equal of which, considering the fact that it was practically all local talent, has seldom, if ever been heard here.

The fact that Peterborough possesses musical artists capable of providing a concert similar to that given last night is a decided tribute to the teaching abilities of Mrs. Morrow, whose pupils the artists who were heard were. The recital, which was a pronounced success also bore testimony to the energy and enterprise of Mrs. Morrow, in an eloquent manner, for without the exercise of almost unlimited activity such a success as that scored by she and her pupils last night would have been an impossibility.

The Choral class, the members of which were heard in two numbers, the opening and closing of the programme gave abundant evidence of the work which has been spent in training, and was a great credit to the teacher, as it was also a tribute to the ability of the individual members. The first number was "The Three Knights," by McLean, while as a fitting close to a programme, in which the classical predominated, the stirring "Hallelujah Chorus" was rendered with excellent effect, and with good spirit, the whole audience being impressed with the depth and soul-starring strains of that masterpiece of sacred music, Handel's Messiah.

To particularize would be impossible, for every number was rendered in a manner which left nothing to be desired, and every artist on the programme gave ample evidence of the possession of a genuine musical talent, developed by careful training.

The audience, though not large, was composed of the majority of the musical critics of the town, and the applause which was accorded the artists was well merited. The programme was principally composed of vocal selections, but the instrumental numbers were thoroughly enjoyed, and added a variety to the programme. Little Miss Alma Levasseur and Mrs. Morrow, in the first part of the programme rendered a most difficult piano duet, "Tranella," which displayed the musical talent of the young performer to a marked degree, and literally brought down the house. The work of Miss Myrtle Kline, too, was worthy of special reference. She gave two piano solos in the first part of the programme, and later, with Mrs. Morrow rendered in a most musically manner a difficult duet, "March Triumphale," Miss Kline taking the first, and Mrs. Morrow, the second piano. The time, as well as the execution in this number was well nigh perfect, and well merited the rounds of applause with which it was greeted.

Pleasing features of the programme were the solos by Mr. David Ross, of Toronto, the noted English Baritone, who has been heard before, and always with pleasure by Peterborough audiences. Mr. Ross favoured the audience with a much enjoyed double number in the first part and a popular song in the second part, both numbers being exceedingly well received, and rendered in a manner which warranted the reception accorded them. Mr. J. H. Scriver, a former Peterborough County boy, was also heard in one number. "The Veteran's Song," which he rendered with spirit, and in splendid voice, and to which he was obliged to respond to an encore. Mr. Scriver possesses a rich, full high baritone voice, and one which gives promise of bringing him into considerable prominence as a vocalist. It will be pleasing intelligence to Mr. Scriver's many friends here to learn that he has been appointed soloist in Grace Church, Winnipeg, and he will leave shortly for the west to take up his duties there.

Mrs. Morrow's choral class constitutes an important body in the musical life of Peterborough, and that they have scored such a signal success is a fact of which every member has ample reason to feel proud. The members of the class are as follows:

First soprano—Misses Dawson King, H. Cahill, Coleman, Gardner, Hallahan, Kline, Harley, Susie Hurley, Sullivan, Kylie, May Sullivan, Donoghue, Moher, Crowley, V. Donoghue, C. Cahill, M. Lagney, E. Lagney, Clarke, Clancy, Bryce, Morrow, Maloney and Mrs. Callander.

Second soprano—Misses Fitzgerald, Kenneally, Bell, Wilson, Kenner, M. Cahill, Delaire, Mrs. Seward.

Tenor—Messrs. Morphet, Scriver, Miller, Waram, Biederman, McGregor.

Bass—Messrs. J. Hanrahan, M. J. McDonald, J. Moher, Wesley, Maskey, A. Elliott, J. M. Watt, Faux, King, Deyell.

The opening number on the programme, after the members of the class had taken their places on the platform, the ladies robed in appropriate and becoming white gowns, and the T. A. S. orchestra had played the opening selection, was the chorus, "The Three Knights," in which the harmony was most pleasing and the effect of the whole blending of voices was beautiful. A humming chorus was particularly effective. A vocal solo, "Spring Tide," by Moir, sung by Miss A. Moloney followed and was thoroughly appreciated. Miss Moloney was given opportunity in this selection to display the sweetness in her voice, and this was a pleasing feature of the number. Mr. J. M. Watt, in the old, but ever new song, "They all love Jack," was next heard, and was given a most flattering reception. His selection was given with spirit, which with his musical baritone voice made the number a most delightful one, and Mr. Watt had to repeatedly bow his acknowledgements to the audience.

A vocal solo, "So Robin Sang," rendered by Miss B. King, was the next number, and this pretty selection was done full justice to by the talented young vocalist, who possesses a voice of rare range and power, and delighted her friends by the ability which she displayed. In the piano duet which followed and to which reference has already been made, the audience was treated to a thoroughly enjoyable number, a fact, which was amply evidenced by the applause which greeted its rendition. Miss Alma Levasseur and Mrs. Morrow, the former playing first piano and the latter the second part, playing with perfect time and excellent effect.

A number which was much appreciated was a vocal solo, "Von Dir," by Kummer, and rendered by Miss K. Wilson, to piano accompaniment and flute obligato, the latter being played by Mr. J. Butcher. Miss Wilson's voice, which is a high mezzo soprano, was heard to good advantage in this selection, and that it was enjoyed, was given full evidence of. "The Reaper Song" was given by Mr. Vernon Morphet, whose young baritone voice gives much promise. The number was a most pleasing one, and the singer was warmly applauded. Mr. H. Morphet, and Mr. A. Elliott gave as a duet "The Battle Eve" in a manner which thrilled the audience with the spirit of the number. Their voices blend perfectly, and the selection proved to be one which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Calander, of Norwood, one of the most talented pupils of Mrs. Morrow, was next heard with delight in the beautiful, but difficult song, "Daisy," to which the singer did full justice, her high soprano voice being heard to good advantage in this selection, which gave her good scope. Miss Kline's part in the programme has also been referred to. This young lady gives promise of developing into a musician of unusual ability and in the piano numbers which she gave after Mrs. Callander's solo, she pleased those who heard her to a remarkable degree.

In the sacred selection, "Rejoice, Oh Daughter of Zion," from Handel's Messiah, Miss Ruth Dawson was quite at home, and rendered this most difficult number with excellent expression, and in a voice which is remarkable for its sweetness. Mr. David Ross, who was already a prime favourite with a Peterborough audience, gave the next number, singing to the delight of those gathered, "To Anthea" and a "Love Song," in both of which he was heard in splendid voice, and an encore was demanded and graciously responded to.

The last number on the first part was a much appreciated vocal trio, by Misses M. Bryce, R. Dawson and L. Bell, the selection being, Marchetti's "Oh, Blessed Redeemer."

The second part opened with a ladies' chorus, taken part in by the lady members of the class and sang unaccompanied. It was very sweetly rendered and was a number much enjoyed.

Mr. J. King sang in good voice and with splendid effect, in his deep bass voice, Bohm's "Calm as the Night," and was given a good reception. A vocal solo, "Son Virgin Vezzosa," by Bellini, sung in the Italian by Miss Myrtle Kline, was a decidedly pleasing number. Miss Kline has a voice which will undoubtedly bring her in to prominence in the musical world. She sings with an ease which is pleasing to the audience. Miss V. Hallahan was next heard in Mulder's "Staccato Polka," which difficult number she rendered in a most musicianly manner, taking the runs clearly and correctly. Miss Hallahan's voice is sweet and rich and her singing was much appreciated.

Mr. J. H. Scriver's contribution to the programme, "The Veteran's Song," was next enjoyed. Reference has already been made to this number. Mr. Scriver was obliged to respond to an encore, and rendered "Far Away" with good effect. A number which delighted the audience was the solo "Le Parlate d'amor," from Gounod's Faust, sung by Miss L. Bell. Miss Bell's reputation as a vocalist of note has already been established and that her contribution to the programme would be one worthy of that reputation was fully assured. That her selection was appreciated by the audience was fully evidenced. Mrs. Morrow and Miss Kline followed with a well executed piano duet. Miss Margaret Bryce was in good voice in her solo, "Une Voce Poco Fa" by Rossini, and her high notes especially were very pleasing. Miss Bryce possesses an exquisite soprano voice, which was heard to good advantage in this number.

Mr. David Ross' last number was "Danny Devers," by Damrosch, and in this song he delighted the audience. A vocal duet "Oh, Hasten Crimson Morning," by Messrs. H. Morphet and A. Elliott, was the next number and was given in a manner which added still further to the musical reputation possessed by these two local vocalists. The closing number of the delightful programme was the rendering of "Hallelujah Chorus" from the Messiah, by the members of the choral class, which again scored a great success.

At the conclusion of the programme those who took part were entertained by Mrs. Morrow at the T. A. S. rooms, when ice cream and cake were served, and Mr. Ross addressed a few words to the gathering, complimenting the singers on their work, and speaking highly of the training Mrs. Morrow had given them, which had resulted in such a delightful concert as that which all had enjoyed.

The accompaniments at the evening were played by Mrs. Morrow, and no small praise must be given her. She had a most trying evening's work and performed it perfectly. Future concerts under her auspices will be looked forward to with pleasure.

INTEREST IN TEMPERANCE

Prof. Hales Believes That a Revival is on the Way.

Open Meeting of the Royal Templars Last Night—An Enjoyable Evening.

A special meeting of the Royal Templars of Temperance was held last evening in the old Foresters' Hall on George street. The attendance was not large but the meeting was successful in other respects and a most enjoyable evening was spent. The feature of the programme was an address on temperance by Prof. Jas. Hales of Toronto, which proved most interesting and helpful. Bro. J. A. Carey, Past Councillor, made a very effective chairman.

The programme opened with a brief but spirited address from the chairman who referred to the necessity of greater effort on the part of the members.

Miss Maud Titterson contributed a vocal solo which was received with a manifestation of appreciation. A recitation was given by Miss Bessie Powell, in a manner that evidenced that she is an elecutionist of no mean ability. Prof. Milner delighted the audience with a violin solo played with his usual brilliancy and cleverness. A reading by Miss Lizzie Smith was a greatly enjoyed contribution to the programme. Mrs. McCall gave a vocal solo in fine voice and with much expression. The number was greeted with warm applause.

Prof. Hales was then called upon to give his address which was based on the importance of temperance work. He referred to the great need existing at the present time for a greater number of temperance workers. He was glad however to be able to say that indications of a revival in the interest in temperance circles were apparent.

The temperance people had been very lax in the past, but there were signs that they were working around towards a revival along these lines. The speaker commented upon the fact that while Canada is considered by other countries to be a land of almost prohibition, yet men are allowed to make drunkards wholesale It had been formerly found very hard to get people to work for the cause of temperance, but he was pleased to be able to say that during the past three years there had been a vast improvement and the order had steadily advanced in size and importance.

The speaker told of the effort that was being made by the Royal Templars of Temperance to secure 10,000 members. He made an appeal to the members for volunteers to help in this effort. Eleven agreed last night to try and get from one to five new members.

At the conclusion of Mr. Hales' address, Miss Maud Titterson contributed another well rendered recitation. Mrs. McCall was heard to advantage in a vocal selection which was greatly enjoyed, and an effective rendered recitation by Miss Bessie Powell closed the programme.

Refreshments consisting of ice cream and cake were then served by the ladies, after which the meeting was concluded with the singing of the National Anthem.

DEATH OF AN OLD RESIDENT

Robt. Stebbings Passes Away After a Long Illness.

This morning at two o'clock, the death occurred of Robt. Stebbings at his home, 21 Kirk street. Deceased, who had been ill for seven weeks with bronchitis, is survived by his wife and an only daughter, at present living in Tilsonburg.

The late Robert Stebbings came to this country from England with the Prince Consort's Rifles, and was stationed at Quebec during the Fenian Raids of '66. He has resided here for fourteen years and has been highly respected by all who knew him.

The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon.

PIONEER RISES TO REMARK

Upon the Unusual Period of High Water Marks at Stony Lake.

High Water a Benefit to One Camper —A Discussion of Conditions Past and Present.

"Talkin' of high water," said Mr. McCracken, setting down his milk can and swatting with his hat a mosquito which had just lit on the neck of the shy camper, "talkin' about high water reminds me of forty years ago. In dry weather, the water was no blame low the cows used to walk from where we're now settin' to Gemmell's Island, and go over to Gin Island, or what they call Juniper now, and never damp a heel. You'd catch more grasshoppers out there than you would 'nuage in these days. Now look at the wharf—a foot under water—and the spring full of eel weed and Burleigh drift wood. Damages? I should say so. Who wants to handle speckled milk; or to have to strain eel weeds and minnies out of it every day? Why, say, some of the campers go low ilings 'll either have to anchor their cottages in three foot of water this spring or fix rudders onto 'em, take out a license and cruise. It's a holy fright.

"Billy Crow was tellin' me on'y yesterday that up his way they found a wood duck's nest that had been carried half way 'cross th' farm in a pile of drift. In a stump! No sir, in a furge's mouth—the skeliton of one mind you, that had got tangled up with an old hemlock root and was held out of the water by a rusted troll an' about twenty-three feet of rotten line. Billy knowed his spoon the minute he set eyes on it for the one he lost in Dunford's bay five year ago. Eh? Well, I'm givin' it to you just the way I got it. The only mink that I've seen that ain't mickin' about high water, is a feller up round the head of the lake. He bought one o' them little, dinky 8 x 10 red warts of islands, it seems, last year, and put up a nice cottage onto it. Then nothin' would do the woman but she must have some purty minny-ha-ha kind of an injun name for the place. All weemen is built that way. Wasn't partiekler whether she knowed the meanin' of the name or whether it had any in' to long's it was romantic sounding and would look well in Saturday Night or on the On Dit column of the home paper. William Henry, she says, how would Belle-i-a-chee Villa do, meanin' beautiful scenerie? Belle-i-a-chee it is, said William Henry, an' give an order to a Lakefield man to have it painted on the face of the rock last fall after they left. When he come up ahead of the wife this spring to fix things up and see the name painted just above the low water mark, William Henry just about threw a fit. That Lakefield dub had painted in large red letters you could read three miles off, "Belly-ache Villa."

But the water's over it now, and the husband is praying that it'll stay over it till he can get a diver to go down and scrape or hammer it off.—Com.

DISCOVERY OF THE NEW MINES

Mr. T. H. Crowley Finds Copper and Nickel in Rainy River.

Mr. T. H. Crowley, of Steeltan, Ont., is at the King Edward Hotel, and will leave to-day for Peterborough. Mr. Crowley is well known in mining circles, and has just returned from the Rainy River District, where he discovered one of the richest mineral deposits in Canada. He has located a copper and nickel mine which runs $30 to the ton, and intends to form a syndicate to work the mines. The mine is situated in the Rainy River District, north of Fort Francis, and in addition to copper and nickel, contains gold, silver, galena, iron, and other minerals. An expert geologist has been engaged, and is now examining the land. Millions of tons of copper are in sight, declares Mr. Crowley, and he intends to dispose of the shares in the syndicate to persons of limited capital. While in Peterborough, his business will be conducted here by Dr. Hamilton.—Mail and Empire.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle.

VERY PRETTY WEDDING IN DOURO

Miss Bridget Tobin United in Marriage to Mr. James Meade.

A pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at St. Joseph's Church, Douro, when Miss Bridget Tobin, daughter of the late Michael Tobin, was united in marriage to Mr. James Meade, of town.

The ceremony took place at nine o'clock, and was performed by Rev. Father Torpey, this being the first marriage which he has solemnized since his ordination. The bride was charmingly gowned in grey silk with white yoke and lace trimmings. The bridesmaid was Miss Anna Crowley, who was beautifully attired in dark blue. The groom was assisted by his brother, Mr. Maurice Meade. About 50 relatives and friends of the bride and groom were present at the ceremony.

At the conclusion of the service the wedding party drove to the residence of the bride, about two miles north of the church, where a sumptuous breakfast was served.

The happy couple were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents and congratulatory favours, testifying to the esteem in which they are held by their large circle of friends. Mr. and Mrs. Meade have taken up residence in the 5th Ward.

MANUFACTURERS' ASSOCIATION

Canadians Visit the Preferential Trade Apostle.

MAKE PROMISES OF SUPPORT

Mr. W. K. George of Toronto at Birmingham Said Canadian Manufacturers Were a Unit in Favor of Mr. Chamberlain's Policy—Entertained at Luncheon and Mr. Chamberlain Addressed Them.

Birmingham, June 28.—(C. A. P.)—The Canadian Manufacturers' Association had a great reception at Birmingham yesterday. Wherever they went crowds watched them. They were received at the Town Hall by the Mayor. Mr. W. K. George, replying to the hearty welcome, complimented Birmingham on having produced the greatest living statesman. Speaking on behalf of the Canadian manufacturers, he vouched that they were a unit in favor of Mr. Chamberlain's policy.

Afterwards the whole party were entertained at a luncheon by Mr. Chamberlain. Mr. Jesse Collings, who presided, said that if Mr. Chamberlain's ideas could be carried out they would weld the Empire together.

Mr. Chamberlain's Address.

Mr. Chamberlain was received with tremendous applause, the whole audience rising and cheering. He said he attached the greatest possible importance to the visit. It was necessary to get a perfect understanding. He commented on the great opening which Canada offered for the redundant population which the Mother Country exported. The Canadian Manufacturers' Association should make the people of the Mother Country acquainted with the conditions in Canada. Referring to the Colonial conference, he said it must meet without any restrictions whatever. Closer union with the Colonies was the greatest issue now. The question was whether we shall be able to maintain the relation. There are no Colonies now in the old sense, but sister States. The great question was to weld together diverse interests for the common good. This was the greatest question since the beginning.

Our Loyalty Not Doubted.

The Canadian Manufacturers' Association should speak on such a question. There was no reason why their mouths should be closed on a question which concerned the Empire as a whole. Were they as business men satisfied with the relations of the present time? Were they certain that they provided for the future? In spite of contemptible criticism, he never doubted the loyalty of Canadians. Sentiment, the ties of blood, language and law were slender, but strong. Yet might not this in a great crisis prove insufficient? (Some cries of "No.") Sentiment must be organized and consolidated. They could not dare to face the possibilities of separation.

Opposed to a Treaty.

United, no man shall make us afraid. Empires are not made in a day. If they advanced one step in the direction of his policy it would be a step for the peace and prosperity of the world. Sir Wilfrid Laurier offered to make a treaty with the Mother Country, a mutual Empire was the fundamental principle of his plan. Only its friends should recognise the difficulties in the way. He could not expect Canada to make a treaty to mortgage its future. The question should be fully discussed by the whole people and he thought the Mother Country should be treated a little better than its competitors. The question should be fully debated by the people of both countries. He hoped the Canadian manufacturers, as business men and patriots, would help to explain away some of the prejudices on this side.

A Self-Contained Empire.

The Empire could produce everything required in the way of luxuries and necessities. A self-contained Empire would be unique in the world's history.

"Are you," he said in conclusion, "going to allow the great sceptre of the great Dominion to fall from power in able hands."

Canada in Pennsylvania Fair.

Ottawa, June 28.—Canada's fine exhibit at the St. Louis Exposition is to be followed up this year with a strong representation at the Western Pennsylvania Exposition, held during July, August and September at Pittsburg.

When life's autumn comes, women, worn out by the burdens of motherhood, yet shrink from that second "change of life" which will banish these burdens forever. They fear a change in form, in feature, in personal attractiveness. Such fears are largely warranted by the effects which this change produces in many women. But no woman need let these fears fret her.

Those who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription do not suffer from the change of life either in face, form or feelings as do other women. This fact is due to the intimate connection of the general health with the health of the organs peculiarly feminine. By preserving the health of these organs, and relieving the system from the debilitating drains, ulcers and inflammations which sap its health, "Favorite Prescription" paves the way for this natural change to come in Nature's way, without the loss of capacity to please others or personal inability to enjoy life.

"Your 'Favorite Prescription' brought me safely through that difficult period, called 'change of life,'" writes Mrs. Mary Kaemmer, of 344 E. Ankeny St., Portland, Oregon. "This change made a very unpleasant disturbance through my entire system. I had hot and cold flashes, sick headaches, became excited, frustrated, nervous and irritable. My appetite was fitful and for days I was unable to eat a fair meal. My aunt recommended me to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it made a great change for the better. Within two weeks the unpleasant feelings had disappeared. I have a husband and eight children so have the care of a large family but was able to attend to my household duties without any difficulty and passed the period without any more trouble. I can recommend your 'Favorite Prescription' as a grand medicine for women."

You may be willing that somebody else shall say that their baby is "just as good" as yours, but you don't want that baby substituted for yours. Let dealers say what they like about other medicines being "just as good" but don't let them substitute anything for "Favorite Prescription." It is absolutely unequaled.

NEW STORM CENTRE.

Bloodshed and Disorder at Odessa—Official List of Killed at Lodz 164—Other Estimate 500.

St. Petersburg, June 28.—The wave of disorder rolling over Russia has appeared at Odessa, where a general strike, accompanied by bloodshed and disorders, has broken out.

A telegram to the official agency gives the number of killed and those who died of their wounds at Lods on Friday at 164. It adds that others were killed on Saturday and Sunday, and that the complete number of victims cannot be stated definitely. Other accounts gave a total estimate of 500 dead at Lods.

Fired Into Socialists.

Warsaw, June 28.—A secret meeting of 200 Socialists in the forest of Zalers, near Lodz, was surprised by Cossacks at noon yesterday. Eighteen of the Socialists were wounded and 180 arrested.

Warsaw Prisons Full.

Warsaw, June 28.—All the prisons are full to overflowing, no less than 672 persons, mostly Jews, having been arrested during the past 24 hours. It is expected that a state of siege will be proclaimed as great riots are anticipated during the mobilization. The laborers on thirty-two beet root plantations in the Government of Podolia have struck, and it is feared that lives will be lost. The peasants in the Government of Kovno are forcibly occupying pasture and other lands of the proprietors of estates.

Peasants Sack Estates.

Karkoc, Russia, June 28.—Troops were despatched from here yesterday to three adjoining districts, where the peasants are sacking estates and burning buildings.

CHOICE IS LOUISVILLE, KY.

For Next Triennial Session of International Sunday School Convention.

Toronto, June 28.—Amid a turmoil of songs and banner waving, the City of Louisville, Kentucky, was chosen as the next meeting place of the international triennial Sunday school convention. San Fraciaco, the loser, was defeated by a vote of 647 to 469. The speeches of the champions of the two cities were enthusiastic, and the president, Judge Maclaren, had some difficulty in securing order. The delegates from Louisville and the vicinity rose in a body, and, waving their banners, united in a strenuous rendition of "Dixie." The San Francisco delegates sang "My Country, 'Tis of Thee." The first ballot showed San Francisco 432, Louisville 480, Winona Lake 363, and Little Rock, Ark., 150. The vote was insufficient, and the voters for the last named two threw themselves into the scale for one or other of the leading cities. Whereupon, Louisville won.

The second feature of the morning was the increase of the yearly pledge fund to $75,000 instead of $50,000, as previously pledged. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed. The increased capital will be used for work in Japan and for negro work.

Linked hand in hand, six thousand people stood up in Massey Hall last night, and in one mighty chorus, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," ended the last session of the eleventh international triennial Sunday school convention. The big congress of Sunday school workers is over. To-day the delegates will scatter to their homes in every Province of Canada and every State in the Union, to await the next meeting, in 1908, in Louisville, Kentucky.

Cured Kidney Disease.

Mrs. Fred Hills, Walton Street, Port Hope, Ont., states:—"I was troubled for some time with kidney disease, and though I tried a great many different medicines, never succeeded in obtaining relief until I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By the regular use of this preparation for a time I was completely cured of kidney disease.

Farmers Before Sportsmen.

Toronto, June 28.—The Government has decided not to accede to the request of sportsmen who desired to purchase 2,000 acres of Crown land in Cardwell Township, Muskoka, to be held as a private game preserve. The land is said to be good agricultural land and some parts of it are well timbered.

Hill Wins in Railway Fight.

LEAKING joints are the natural outcome of the old style of boiler construction; two smooth surfaces squeezed together on a sheet of rubber. This rubber in a short time became dried out and left a leaky joint.

Oxford Hot Water Boiler

Nothing but iron and steel enters into the construction of the Oxford Hot Water Boiler—no rubber or composition washers are used.

Smooth, tapered steel nipples pressed into smooth, tapered holes make an absolutely indestructible joint. We would like to tell you the many other advantages of the Oxford Boiler. Our illustrated catalogue, "The Gurney Oxford Book of Steam and Hot Water Heating Apparatus," tells the whole story. It's free. 1001

100,000 People.
There are a lot of people who have realized this year what modern bicycling is. There are also at least 100,000 who think they know, but who really do not know, what bicycling means to-day.
These people rode wheels five or ten years ago, when bicycling was in its infancy. They stopped because they thought it too hard work, that the bicycle was hard on the arms, or was uncomfortable to ride on uneven roads, or was unreliable. It's a different proposition to-day.

The fact of the matter is that the bicycle is as far ahead of its predecessor of 1895 in point of safety, reliability, comfort and easy riding as a Pullman is over a freight caboose.
THE COASTER BRAKE has cut out one-quarter of the pedalling, and has made even mountain descents perfectly safe.
THE CUSHION FRAME has made all roads smooth by absorbing the vibration. It adds besides luxurious comfort.
THE SILLS HANDLE BAR takes the strain off the arms and absorbs the jarring of the front wheel.

censured for not knowing the proper cost of the building? The Board acted like any business man would act if he were doing it for himself. They went to an expert to find out the approximate cost of the building and when they were given the information they acted upon it. It's so easy to ridicule the actions of others when the facts are not known. In justice to the architect it should be stated that when the deputation which visited other up-to-date schools in the province and the United States returned home, they demanded that certain changes be made in the plans. This increased the cost of the building to some extent, but what representative body of men would have acted otherwise? For instance, many places much smaller, and with not half the future before them that Peterborough has, would come home and recommend antiquated plans for an Institute that is intended not for the present only, but for a number of years to come. The Board felt that they would not be supported in recommending anything but such a building as would be a credit to what our citizens are so fond of styling, the most up-to-date town in Canada. If such statement is true, the citizens as a body cannot claim any credit for it. For what has the town, as a town, done, to which it can point with any degree of pride, and say "The town did that?" We have beautiful parks and other institutions of which we are proud to point to, but the town itself cannot take any credit for them.

Look at our town buildings, our market, our school buildings! Well, they might do for such places as Cobourg or Port Hope, or such other antiquated towns, but for a town which does so much blowing about it great progressiveness, what can we point to with any degree of pride and say that it belongs to the town?

Surely we might have one building belonging to the town that we could point out to visitors with some degree of pride, as being the property of the town.

With such a lot of ramshackle buildings for schools, the Board thought that the town should have one school building that they could be proud of, and I feel that there is enough pride in our fellow citizens to back them up. We are not building for the present, nor are we paying for the present. Our future citizens will have to pay their share the same as the present have to pay for their share. But what does this amount to? About fifty cents on the $1000 assessment, which will not be felt by the great majority. I think those who are better off, and who are better able to pay, should help to pay for the education of the poorer classes, as that is what the Institute is for.

Thanking you for the space you have given me, I am, yours,

TRUSTEE.

Important! Unusual!

EIGHT STRONG REASONS WHY EVERY VOTER WHO HAS THE INTERESTS, OF PETERBOROUGH AT HEART SHOULD VOTE FOR BYLAW. TO-MORROW

I. Because the city should progress, not retrograde.

II. Because the congestion in the public schools will be relieved.

III. Because the Menzies' school property has been sold, and the Board has the lease of it for only one year more, therefore Peterborough must have increased school accomodation before that date.

IV. Because the site for the Institute is paid for at a cost to the City of Peterborough of $20,000, and it is not utilized for school purposes the city would lose $800 a year in interest.

V. Because the present Murray Street school building cannot be used for school purposes as it has to be removed, according to contract made with the Goverment

VI. Because unless more is voted no Institute can be built that will meet even present requirements.

VII. Because the Board of Education is practically unanimous on the question, after an exhaustive study of the whole situation, and the absolute need of increased facilities and up-to-date equipment.

VIII. Because the $50,000 additional is essential to complete and equip a substantial building, without any extravagant out-lay for quartered oak doors or plate glass panels, as the doors throughout the building, with the exception of the main entrance, will be of white pine.

MR. E. A. PECK WRITES LETTER

Presents His Views Regarding School By-Law.

Adduces a Number of Reasons Why it Should be Supported by Ratepayers—Children Should be Considered.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir, — Will you permit me to give a few reasons why, in my opinion, the ratepayers should support the school bylaw to-morrow.

Many of the letters which have been addressed to you have contained reflections on the trustees, and pleadings for the poor ratepayer. It seems to me that the children who are to be educated are the ones who are most to be considered. It is generally admitted that there is a want of adequate school accommodation in this town. The boys and girls are entitled to have school houses which are commodious, properly ventilated and otherwise in a sanitary condition, and weighed against these things the question of a slight additional expense to the ratepayer should be of little moment. If the Collegiate Institute is not built, additional ward school accommodation will have to be provided, and the ratepayer will practically save nothing by voting down the bylaw.

It has been stated that the plans of the new Institute are for a building larger and more expensive than is necessary, but it must be remembered that the town will in all probability advance, and it is well to provide now a building that will answer the purpose for many years to come. Speaking for myself I am quite prepared to leave that matter in the hands of the trustees. They are all responsible and intelligent citizens, with no personal interests to advance by advocating this scheme, but merely doing all they can for the benefit of the children of the town.

Yours truly,

E. A. PECK.

Peterborough, June 27, 1905.

CANNOT AFFORD BACKWARD STEP

Mr. T. F. Matthews Strongly Endorses Position of the Board.

Will Support the By-law to Raise $60,000—A Business Man's Letter.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir.—I have read with considerable interest the various letters recently published respecting the bylaw to raise an additional fifty thousand dollars, for Collegiate Institute purposes, to be voted on to-morrow. After carefully considering the whole matter from a taxpaying citizens standpoint, I have decided, that in my opinion, the School Board have acted wisely in asking for the increased amount, and I intend to vote for the bylaw. This city cannot afford to take a backward step, which it will be taking, if the bylaw is defeated.

Yours truly,

T. F. MATTHEWS.

MR. D. W. DUMBLE ANSWERS CRITICS

Repeats His Figures and Defends His Position.

Gives Reasons Why He is Opposed to Collegiate Scheme in its Present Form.

To the Editor of the Examiner:

Dear Sir,—I have read the letters of Messrs. Kennedy, Moore, Rogers and Citizen and none of them deal with the merits of this question. All that is said as to the growth of the city and the necessity for building an institute that will be worthy of this growing town in the future, I heartily agree with; and no one has more cheerfully helped to build up the town than I have. My figures are questioned. I repeat them and challenge anyone to show they are incorrect. The Institute cost last year $12,000, made up as follows:

Government Grant	$ 1,300
Cash on hand	550
Fees from pupils	2,150
Amount raised by taxation ...	8,000
Total	$12,000

Now, if you deduct the fees and Government Grant you have $8,850 as the amount raised by taxation. Divide that by the average attendance, 221, and you have $40.33 as the actual cost per pupil. In addition to this the town pupils paid $10 per head making the cost for town pupils $54.33. The country pupils paid $30 per head only.

I ask is it necessary to build a big school to accommodate country pupils at an annual expense of $30.33 per head to the town taxpayers.

The Government has already received a deed of the lot on which the drill shed is and three other lots on Murray street having on them the Separate School, and the Institute will get simply two lots on McDonel street, one off the old Park and other off the separate School property, and on this acre the new Institute is to be built at a cost approximating $160,000.

The cost is too great. The School Board, when they asked for $50,000 thought that was enough, but they have doubled the estimates. Where will they stop?

The town has been lavish to the Government and wasteful in not arranging to save the Separate School building. Mr. Moore says that building only cost $4,000. He forgot the great addition in the rear that was subsequently added.

I do not approve of the action of the Board; they are reckless and I will vote against the bylaw as a protest, believing that a better and more economical scheme can be worked out.

Yours truly

D. W. DUMBLE.

GUNS MENACING CITY OF ODESSA

Russian Mutineers on Kniez Potemkine Command Odessa—The Harbor is in Flames—Battleship Crew Murder Officers and Throw Their Bodies Into the Sea---Then They Hoist the Red Flag From Masthead and Train Guns on Town---A Battle Expected---Officer Shot Sailor the Cause.

Odessa, June 29.—The red flag of revolution is hoisted on the masthead of the Kniaz Potemkine, Russia's most powerful battleship in the Black Sea, which now lies in the hands of mutineers. The captain and most of the officers were murdered and thrown overboard in the open sea and the ship is completely in the possession of the crew and a few officers who have thrown in their lot with the mutineers. The guns of the Kniaz Potemkine command the city and in the streets masses of striking workmen who Tuesday fled before the volleys of the troops are now inflamed by the spectacle of open revolt on board an Imperial warship and are making a bold front against the military. All day long firing has been heard in many quarters of the city. A number of barricades have been erected and tumult and disorder reign.

The main squadron of the Black Sea fleet, consisting of the battleships George Pobiedonosetz, Trivziatitelia, Rostislav and Ekaterina II., with two cruisers were expected to arrive here last night and a naval battle is in prospect.

Sailor Was Shot.

The mutiny arose from the shooting of a sailor who was presenting, on behalf of the crew, a complaint against bad food. According to one version, this sailor objected to the quality of the soup, and was immediately shot by a mess officer. The crew then rose and seized the ship and the officers, eight of whom were spared on condition that they would join the mutineers. The others were killed and their bodies thrown overboard.

The Kniaz Potemkine arrived here Tuesday night accompanied by two torpedo boats. Early the body of the sailor was brought ashore and landed on the new mole, where it has been exposed in consequence all day. It was visited by thousands of persons, many of whom placed coins in a casket at the head of the body towards a fund to defray the cost of the funeral, which the sailors propose to hold today, and which the strikers will make the occasion of a great demonstration.

Under the Ships Guns.

The authorities have made no attempt to remove the body, the sailors having served notice that the ship would open fire on anyone seeking to interfere with it. A police agent visiting the spot was killed by strikers.

During the day a red flag was hoisted on the Kniaz Potemkine and members of the crew rode from ship to ship in the harbor, stopping all work thereon. The strike is now general here and the rioters are growing in numbers and boldness. There were shots all day. Last night a bomb was thrown in Cathedral place, killing its thrower and a policeman.

During the day one of the torpedo boats which accompanied the Kniaz Potemkine seized the Russian steamer Esperanza, laden with two thousand tons of coal, which the battleship has taken on board.

The Harbor in Flames.

London, June 29.—A despatch from Odessa says:

The whole of the quays and the buildings around the harbor, as well as much shipping, are in flames. Mobs of incendiaries by armed force prevented the fire brigade from working. The troops are completely terror-stricken and are afraid to approach within range of the Kniaz Potemkine's guns.

"It is rumored," says The Standard's correspondent, "that the men of four other battleships mutinied at Sebastopol and that two of the ships are on the way to join the Potemkine.

"Two hours ago a huge mob broke through the military cordon round the town and looted two large customs warehouses.

"Last night the Potemkine moved closer to the breakwater with her guns still trained on the city."

May Precipitate Crisis.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The news of the mutiny coming when Poland is in a state of ferment, when agrarian disorders are coming to a head and when the Government is attempting a mobilization involving about 800,000 men, may easily precipitate a crisis, and the authorities are endeavoring to keep it from the public.

Nevertheless the Liberals and agitators have ways of spreading the tidings and the news was known here in all the cafes at midnight.

The Radicals hail the event as the dawn of an actual armed revolution and say Smitchuk's (the sailor who was shot) name will go down in history as that of a martyr who precipitated a Russian revolution.

AUDITOR-GENERAL AGAIN.

Mr. Macdougall Contrasts England, States and Canada.

Ottawa, June 29.—The Auditor-General was again heard yesterday before the public accounts committee in reference to his suggestions that the Audit Act be amended in certain directions. He said that he considered his duty ended when he was satisfied that the money voted was expended.

In reference to the Davis contract, he said that it would have been impossible in the United States or Great Britain for such a thing to have taken place. He quoted from the British and American decisions affecting the Audit Act. His idea was to show that in Britain and the United States the auditor had greater powers than in Canada.

In the Davis contract more money was to be paid the contractor without there being any real change in the contract. He did not object to payments for extras and subsidiary work. But he did object to changes which meant only giving more money to the contractor.

To Be Extradited.

London, June 29.—Crown Attorney McKillop Tuesday night received instructions from the Attorney-General's Department to proceed with the extradition of Harry Burdell, alias "Texas," in jail at Port Huron and wanted here on charges of burglary and shopbreaking.

THREE HUNDRED RIOTERS KILLED

Entire Harbour at Odessa Gutted by Fire.

General Marmusoff Commanding Troops at Lodz Said to be Assassinated.

Special to the Examiner

Odessa, June 29th.—Practically the entire harbour was gutted by the fires started by the mob last night. All the warehouses with large quantities of merchandise, as well as four or five Russian steamers were burned. Probably three hundred rioters were killed. Several Cossacks also were slain. The troops are rapidly restoring order.

The Commander Killed.

Berlin, June 29th.—According to the Morgan List, Gen. Marmusoff, commander of the troops at Lodz, has been assassinated. Rebels attacked the general while he was driving through the city, according to the account received here, and after dragging him from his carriage, stabbed him through the heart.

BOURASSA HAS ONLY SIX FOLLOWERS

House Emphatically Votes Down His Amendment—Gospel of Compromise—Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Solicitor-General Lemieux Urge Their Co-Religionists to Accept a Moderate Settlement—Premier Strongly Opposes Mr. Monk's Proposal to Use the French Language.

Ottawa, June 29.—After an extended holiday from its too lengthy service as chief subject of debate in the House, the school question came up again yesterday with an unexpected vigor and freshness. The House, however, disposed of Mr. Bourassa's long-promised amendment, which was intended to continue in the bill the Government's original school clause, and which found only seven supporters. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in an hour's speech, defined the difference between the original and the amended school clauses, and advised his co-religionists to accept the latter as within the four corners of the constitution. He rattled the Conservative party upon having no policy on the question, a reference which Mr. R. L. Borden resented in a brief reply.

Mr. Bourassa made his long expected deliverance in moving his amendment, and took the extreme view of condemning the Government for yielding to Mr. Sifton, and left a panic and scare underlying the clause. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux gave the Governmental reply, and preached the gospel of compromise. Mr. Bourassa's amendment was defeated by 128 to 7, five of the majority being Conservatives. Mr. Lavergne was the only Liberal who voted with him.

Of perhaps even more importance than the voting down of Mr. Bourassa's amendment was Sir Wilfrid's reference to the dual language question. The Premier in the most emphatic way indicated what would be the fate of Mr. Monk's amendment favoring French as an official language in the new Provinces. He said in part:—"There is a provision in the British North American Act guaranteeing separate schools, but there is no such provision with regard to the French language. And, speaking here as a supporter of the minority in this country, I would make a strong appeal to my fellow-countrymen of the same race and language to stand by the constitution, and by all rights which is not to be found within its four corners. I do not want to have any privileges which are not granted any other class of subjects, but only privileges and rights which are given in the distinct North American Act."

Mrs. J. R. Taylor Loses Grandmother and Grandfather.

Both Died on the Same Day—Were Respected Residents of Northumberland.

Mrs. J. R. Taylor of town was recently called upon to mourn the loss of her grandfather and grandmother, their deaths occuring within a few hours of each other. The Cobourg World referring to their death says:

To pledge in youth's gay morn their mutual vows of love and honour "till death do part", to toil hand in hand through sun and storm up the steep eastern slope of life's long hill, to journey gently down the western declivity watching with loving clasp unloosed the shadows lengthening o'er their way and the sunset radiance on the nearing horizon; and then from out the deepening dusk to hear the voice of Jesus calling both to higher service in a holier sphere, neither having opportunity to mourn the other, and at the last to have all that is mortal of them laid to rest in one grave; this is the ideal married life which falls to few. But this happy lot was the portion of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brisbin, the subject of the following memoir. Mr. Brisbin, who was a son of the late John Brisbin, was born in Lower Canada, Nov. 12, 1822, but was brought by his parents while but a babe to the home north of Baltimore, where on June 14, 1905, his long and useful life was glory crowned. Mr Brisbin resided all his life upon that farm save a few years immediately following his marriage in 1845 during which Mr. and Mrs. Brisbin lived in Alnwick Tp., after which they purchased the homestead. Mrs. Brisbin, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Burkell, was a daughter of the late Robert Burkell, Hull's Corners, and was born in 1829. To Mr. and Mrs. Brisbin were born four daughters and three sons. Of these two sons passed away in infancy and Frankie went home while childhood's grace lay yet upon his lovely face. The daughters, Mrs. D. Stott, Cobourg; Mrs. J. F. Fraser and Mrs. W. H. Smith, Baltimore; and Mrs. Herb. Rosevear, Port Hope, survive. Mr. Brisbin, though not a notably robust man, was seldom ill and never seriously for the last forty years and on Wednesday morning was in about his usual health, while Mrs. Brisbin, who had been seriously ill since February, was known to be dying and the family were waiting by her couch for the long expected end, But shortly after five a. m. Mr. Brisbin was seized with hemorrhage of the lungs. Drs. Ivey and Lapp and a trained nurse, Miss Duncan, were soon in attendance, but despite their most earnest efforts heart failure followed and ere the sun went down Mr. Brisbin instead of, as he feared, mourning here the loss of his best beloved was waiting to welcome her there. Mr. and Mrs. Brisbin were converted in early life and joined the Methodist church of which they were devoted members. Mr. Brisbin was for forty years a member of the Quarterly Board and of the Board of Trustees of Baltimore church. He was a man of most lovable character possessed of a peculiarly sunny disposition. In politics he was a life long Liberal.

The news of Mrs. Brisbin's demise which occurred about thirty-six hours that of personal loss to the heart of every hearer as was born by the news of Mr. Brisbin's passing for Mrs. Brisbin had fled for years largely the life of a recluse. Severe nervous strain induced by a serious physicial condition weakened her mentality and loss of memory ensued.

The service at the house was conducted by Rev. G. Nichol, assisted by Rev. R. L. Edwards. Mr. Nickle delivered an excellent discourse from Ecclesiastes 7-1. Mr. Edwards pronounced a brief eulogy and Chancellor Burwash who had come from Toronto on purpose to attend the funeral added a few mighty words.

The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. G. Nickle and Chancellor Burwash. The floral tributes were very beautiful. The pall-bearers were their sons-in-law, Messrs. D. Stott, J. F. Fraser, W. H. Smith, H. Rosevear, Mr. W. Brisbin, brother of Mr. Ira Brisbin and Mr. R. Burkell, brother of Mrs. Brisbin.

Impurities in the Blood.

When the action of the kidneys become impaired impurities in the blood are almost sure to follow, and general derangement of the system ensues. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will regulate the kidneys so that they will maintain healthy action and prevent the complications which certainly come when there is derangement of these delicate organs. As a restorative these pills are in the first rank.

MANY SIDEWALKS AND SEWERS ORDERED

Big Programme of Work Planned for This Summer—Numerous Requests for Local Improvements Were Granted—Water Commissioners Requested to Erect the Stand Pipes at Once—Lengthy Meeting of the Board of Works Last Night—Some of the Work to Be Carried Out.

When the programme authorized by the Board of Works, at its meeting last night, is carried out, the town will have considerably more sewers and sidewalks than it now possesses. Numerous applications for these improvements were considered and, in the majority of cases, granted.

Those present were Ald. Adams, chairman, Battens Hicks, Hall, Johnston, Mason, Crowe, and Mayor Best.

The question of the construction of a sewer on Rogers street, south of Hunter street, in the fifth ward, from Hunter street south to lot 46, on Rogers street, was discussed, and it was decided to advertise that it was the intention of the town to construct it.

The chairman called the attention of Board to the fact that although eight standpipes had been ordered for months, not one had yet been erected, and the street watering men had been kicking, because they could not cover the ground. The summer was now well advanced, and he suggested that in order to make the authorities hurry the work a little the quarterly cheque due the Water Commissioners, be withheld until the standpipes have been erected. It was stated that Mr. Matthews had instructed the superintendent to have the pipes erected, but it had not yet been done, although the fittings were all here. It was decided that the Commissioners should be notified again that the town wants the pipes erected at once.

It was decided on motion of Ald. Hall, seconded by Ald. Hicks, that a sewer be constructed on Park street from Charlotte to King.

Application from a number of residents in the portion of the town affected, was received that the proposed sewer on Park and Sherbrooke streets, be not constructed. A motion was passed to the effect that the sewer referred to be constructed, notwithstanding the petition noted above, as it was not sufficiently signed to block the construction.

A petition was received from property owners asking for the construction of a pipe sewer on King street from Park to William street, which was granted.

For the construction of a sewer on a lane running from Charlotte to King streets, a petition was received, but no action was taken on the application.

Three ratepayers protested against the proposed sewer on Barnardo avenue from George street west to Church street. It was explained that the Board of Health had recommended to the council that this sewer be built, but those petitioning against it were sufficient to block it.

A number of ratepayers wrote asking the council not to construct the proposed granolithic walk on Aylmer street from McDonel street to half way between London and Dublin. A motion, however, was passed in accordance with notice previously given.

The residents of the west side of Stewart street from Dublin to Edinburgh, petitioned for a walk, which was granted.

A motion will be given that it is the intention of the town to construct a sewer from Bethune street to Stewart on Simcoe.

The residents on the east side of Downie street want a sidewalk from Charlotte street to Simcoe, and their request will be granted—sometime.

No sidewalk will be constructed on King street east to George in response to a petition to that effect.

A petition was received from a number of ratepayers on Water street from Smith street to Victoria avenue, asking the town to give notice that a sewer will be constructed, and the notice will be given.

A notice will also be given for the construction of a sewer on Park street from William street to the Boundary.

The street watering contractors who were fined for not attending to their duties on Victoria Day asked that their fines be remitted, but their request was not granted.

The granolithic walk on Reid street to the bridge on the east side, will be built on the outside of the tree line, and from that point north to McDonel on the outside of the trees.

A granolithic walk will be constructed on the west side of Rogers street from Hunter street, south, on the inside of the tree line, or at the discretion of the ratepayers affected.

A motion was passed authorizing the construction of the sidewalk on Simcoe street on the south side.

Notice will be given that a sewer will be constructed on Rubidge street from Simcoe street to Brock.

Residents of Jackson avenue are asking for a granolithic walk on the west side and their request will be granted on motion of Ald. Johnston and Hicks.

Mr. George Syer wrote, asking for a sidewalk, and Mr. W. S. Northey requested street repairs. No action was taken on either of these requests.

A petition for a sewer on Charlotte street from the end of the present sewer to the boundary, was granted, as was also that for a sewer on Hunter street east.

Mr. Jas. Goodwin asked for an extension of the plank walk, on the south side of Sherbrooke street, and the present walk on the north side of the street will be used for the south side, when the granolithic walk has been laid on the north side.

Notice will be given that a sewer will be constructed on Edinburgh street from George to Union street, and on Union street from Edinburgh to Dublin.

A petition was received for sewer on Bolivar street from Park street to lot 24, plan 60. This was granted, as was the request for a sidewalk on Dublin street from Bethune street 114 feet west.

A sidewalk on the east side of Stewart street from London to McDonel street will also be constructed.

This completed the business of the meeting last night.

BOYS' CAMP TO BE A RECORD

Eighth Annual Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp at Sandy Point.

Prospects are That This Year's Camp Will Surpass any Other.

The eighth successive Y. M. C. A. Boys' Camp of the Peterborough Association will be held at Sandy Point July 12th to 26th. "The best ever held" is the key note this year in the preparations for this great annual outing and it is safe to say that such it will prove.

The merits of Sandy Point as a safe, pleasant location for a boys' camp, have been illustrated by the experience of the past seven camps at that spot. Mr. Williamson, General Secretary, and Mr. Holmes, Physical Director, will have charge of the camp and will have the assistance of several capable senior members as leaders, who will have charge of the sections. The camp will be limited to 40 and will only include members of the Y. M. C. A. seventeen years of age and under.

The cost will be $5.00 payable by July 10th. This will include everything.

The party will go by Grand Trunk Railway to Lakefield and take the Majestic to the camp grounds.

A special feature of the stage of the camp will be a round trip of the lakes on the day before camp breaks up. There will be no extra charge to boys for this.

Here are only a few of the features:—A baseball league and other games; ample provision for safe boating and swimming; concerts, excursions, fishing, etc.

Mr. Holmes will give instructions on water precautions and first aid in accident, a most important education for all boys. Those who do not know how to swim will be taught.

The chute will be in operation again this year, and the General Secretary will tell anyone of the fun in connection with it. A professional shanty cook will accompany the party and surpass the excellent bill-of-fare of other years.

A large dining tent is being secured for the outfit and it will prove a valuable and in the conquest of the Bible class, concerts and other evening features.

Full particulars in regard to outfit etc., can be had at the building. Parents should see that their boys get this fine outing.

Application cards can be had at the Y.M.C.A. office which must be signed by parents or guardian giving their consent.

TO RAISE LEVEL OF RICE LAKE

Survey Being Made Now with That in View.

Water to be one Foot Above High Level and Five Feet Above Normal.

A party of eight surveyors, working under instructions from the Dominion Government, has been surveying on the shores of Rice Lake, starting at Harwood, the object of this work being to survey the shores of the lake with a view of raising the water one foot above the present high water mark, which will be equal to a raise of five feet above the normal height.

It is stated that this survey is being made in view of the possibility of the canal being taken to Port Hope and, in which event, it would be necessary to raise the water to the point mentioned.

If this is done it will change the present bounds of the lake very materially, and many portions of land now high and dry will be inundated. It will also do away with many of the rice beds, and the saw mill at Keene will be put out of business.

When the survey is completed an estimate of the amount of compensation which the Government would have to pay in the event of the water being raised, will be made.

ONE THOUSAND FEET PER DAY

Granolithic Walks Being Laid at This Rate.

Force of 24 Men and 7 Teams Under Superintendent Evans.

Mr. H. Evans, superintendent of sidewalk construction for the town, is a pretty busy man these days. He has a force of twenty-four men working for him and seven team of horses, and the work of constructing sidewalks is proceeding apace. Probably more walks will be laid this year than in any one year in the town's history up to the present time, and at present Mr. Evans is advancing the work at the rate of 1000 feet per day, or 6,000 feet each week, including the steps occasioned by moving the outfit from place to place. Four men are at work in the gravel pits loading the waggons, and twenty men are required to do the work of laying the walk, which is now down to a science and is being done most satisfactorily, since the town undertook the work by day labour instead of by contract.

At present the work is being done on Simcoe street from Bethune to Rubidge, and here the somewhat unique experience is being met with, in the shape of a strong opposition to laying the walk. A petition was presented against the proposed walk from Stewart to Rubidge, but since it was not sufficiently signed, the work was ordered to be proceeded with by the Board of Works last night and Mr. Evans must carry out the council's instruction, even though it does gain for him some temporary unpopularity, as it will do in this case. The persons referred to objecting most strenuously to the construction of the work and it was suggested that an injunction might be issued ordering the work on that particular part of the street stopped.

Gladly Recommends Dr. Chase's Kidney-Pills Because they Cured Her of Kidney Disease and Backache.

Mrs. H. Trollope, 350 Water street, Peterborough, Ont., states:—"I have used two boxes of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and found them an excellent medicine. I had very severe pains across the back which came from my kidneys being out of order and after using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for a time I began to feel a wonderful improvement in my health.

"I have no more pains in my back now and am feeling as well as ever I did. Consequently I am glad of an opportunity to recommend Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills."

THE NEW BY-LAW TESTED THIS MORNING

Business Men Charged with Violating Law Regulating Condition of the Streets.

The efficiency of the new bylaw, prohibiting merchants and others, from allowing obstructions to be placed on the sidewalk, was tested this morning. Several local merchants appeared at the police court for violating the bylaw.

A. H. Stratton was first called, charged with allowing waste paper to blow upon the street. It could not be proved that the paper came from his premises, and the charge was dropped. W. H. Hamilton and Municola Brothers did not fare so well. They were charged with allowing boxes to stand on the sidewalk in front of their stores and were each assessed $1.

Why furnaces crack in Summer.

In the old fashioned hotwater heaters with wide, flat surfaces, the soot finds a splendid resting place. A scraper and brush jams soot into the interstices between the water sections. There it cakes and hardens, absorbs moisture, then it expands, and you have a cracked waterpot. If you have a "Bison" hotwater heater you won't have any furnace troubles. There are no flat soot collecting surfaces in the "Bison"—no crevices where soot can lodge; there will be no cracked waterpots, no delays, no mess, no plumbers' bills.

H. S. STRATHY,
General Manager

Toronto, 31st May, 1905.

"Your Directors have much pleasure in submitting the accompanying statement shewing the results of the business for the year ending May 31st, 1905, and feel assured it will prove satisfactory.

At the last annual meeting authority was given the Directors to increase the capital stock of the bank (to the extent of a million dollars. This was allotted to existing shareholders at a premium of 30 per cent., was promptly taken up and largely over-subscribed. The amount allotted is now practically paid in full, making the paid-up capital of the bank three million dollars.

A very considerable portion of the bank's funds has been invested in Government bonds and other high-class securities readily available. The cash reserves have been maintained at a proper strength, and placing the bank at all times in a position to take up such business of a high character as offered.

The premises lately occupied by the bank have proved quite inadequate for its growing needs, nor did they afford the necessary protection against fire. Satisfactory arrangements have about been completed for the erection of suitable premises, fire-proof as far as it is possible to make them, and with all the protection modern science suggests. The new edifice will give the bank most attractive premises, with every convenience and accommodation for its clients and staff, and it is anticipated will yield a reasonable return for the money invested.

During the year three new branches were opened, making 64 branches all in the province of Ontario.

All the offices of the bank have received their usual careful inspection.

C. D. WARREN, President.

The usual resolutions were moved and carried.

The scrutineers reported the following gentlemen duly elected to act as Directors for the ensuing year, viz.:—Hon. D. Warren, Hon. J. R. Stratton, C. Kloepfer (Guelph.) W. J. Sheppard (Waubaushene,) C. S. Wilcox (Hamilton,) E. F. B. Johnston, K.C.

The meeting then adjourned.

At a subsequent meeting of the newly elected Directors, Mr. C. D. Warren was re-elected President, and Hon. J. R. Stratton, vice-president, by a unanimous vote.

H. S. STRATHY,
General Manager

The Traders' Bank of Canada, Toronto, June 20, 1905.

The following comparative statement will show the progress of the Bank from 31st May, 1897:—

THE AMERICANS AFTER AN ISLAND

Want to Purchase Jacob's Island on Pigeon Lake.

Preparations for July 12th at Omemee —Other News.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Omemee, June 28th. — The weather is all that can be desired for vegetation.

Our local volunteers mustered 23 rank and file when they entrained for the Kingston camp.

A few of our citizens attended the Kitties band concert at Lindsay.

The 12th of July preparations continue to become more elaborate, in view of the large number of visitors who are expected here from the central portion of Ontario. The ladies of the Presbyterian church are preparing to give refreshments.

Fred Rowan, divinity student, conducted the services for Rev. Mr. Locke in the Methodist church, in a most appreciative manner on Sunday evening. There was a large and appreciative audience.

Some American visitors here from Buffalo would like to purchase a portion of Jacobs' Island, on Pigeon Lake, from Mr. J. J. Landy, Peterborough. Then up would have the Trent Valley Canal opened up.

Some boy burglers have been detected in the commission of crime. Although their pilferings may be small at present, they will eventually suffer.

Our cheese factory is running full swing. There was never better pasturage than there is at present.

The water is from five to six feet higher than usual on Pigeon Lake.

Never did the country between this village and Peterborough look better than it does at the present time. We doubt if there is a more charming drive in Ontario.

APSLEY HAS A SENSATION

A Dispute Over Cattle Leads to an Assault.

Defendant was Fined $6.73 and Bound Over to Keep the Peace.

Special to the Examiner.

Apsley, June 28th. — Some time ago a quarrel arose between Mr. William Steele and Mr. William Masters over some young cattle. On June 14th Mr. Masters was doing road work, and saw Mr. Steele passing on a milk waggon on his way to Apsley, and decided to wait for Mr. Steele on his way back from the village, to decide the dispute. Mr. Steele came back alone and did not notice Mr. Masters, until the latter stepped across the road in front of him. Mr. Masters threw Mr. Steele down, and to use his own expression, "gave him a few tappings."

Mr. Steele went to Mr. Booth, and brought an action against Mr. Masters for assault. The case was tried in the Apsley town hall on June 19th. Mr. Masters was found guilty and was fined $5 and costs, amounting in all to $6.73, or thirty days in gaol. He asked for time in which to pay it and was given one month.

After the trial, Mr. Steele swore he was afraid of Mr. Masters, and wanted him to be bound over to keep the peace. Evidence was given that Mr. Masters had threatened Mr. Steele's life, so he was bound over to keep the peace, himself in $50, and two bondsmen of $75 each, for twelve months.

DEMONSTRATION AT HAVELOCK

Dominion Day Will be Celebrated in Loyal Manner.

Latest News from the Railway Town—Personal Notes.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Havelock, June 28th. — The Rev. W. Johnston, of the Methodist Church, preached his farewell sermon on Sunday night last to a large congregation. In the course of an exceedingly able sermon he thanked his flock for their sociability during his stay in Havelock.

Miss Annie Mathison returned home on Monday to spend her holidays after finishing her term in the Ottawa Ladies' College.

Owing to the numerous parties that go down to the Trent Bridge during the summer months, it is a wonder that some person does not erect a pavilion for dancing. This would be a good investment for some one at Trent Bridge as larger crowds would go down and much oftener than they do at the present time.

Quite a number of new houses are being erected back of the school house. Mr. Carter is the owner of the second all cement block house which is going up on this new street.

The local baseball club go to Norwood on Wednesday, where they will meet the Norwood bunch in a T. M. L. game. The boys are out to win and a good game is expected.

We are pleased to learn that one of our citizens has been appointed by the county council as a trustee for the Norwood High School.

Another change—Mr. Elias Williams has secured the license inspectorship which position has been filled for so long by Mr. J. J. Crowe.

The Knox Block is undergoing some improvements in the line of trimming up and painting.

The council this week will have an oil lamp installed at Scott Hall in the vicinity of Old Methodist corner.

A good magician should go for the people as per the cards around the town in aid to treat at their premises.

At the present time it looks as though Mr. J. Armstrong, the manager of the Stratton Cash at the Rink Association, last year, is going to keep it as the club is very slow in getting started this season.

Mrs. Jas. Mahaney and son, of Toronto, have arrived in town where they will spend the summer months.

Owing to the reduction in staff in the traffic department of the C. P. R., two are effective July 1st.

Mr. D. L. Summerville leaves for Keene in the morning to preside at the entrance examinations there.

The Chinese brass band which starts again [illegible] is [illegible] and will be in first-class shape for the 1st July.

Owing to the Millbrook-Lindsay team not being in shape, the local bunch did not go up last Friday as was expected.

We are pleased to hear that Mr. Alex. Anderson has been under an operation for appendicitis recently is doing nicely.

Mr. D. L. Summerville will have about 12 pupils to try the entrance examination and all are confident of getting through.

A monster Dominion Day celebration will be held this year in Havelock, among the special attractions of which will be a football match, Norwood vs. Havelock at one o'clock p. m. A baseball match Norwood vs. Havelock will take place at 2.30, and a tug-of-war between Peterborough vs. Havelock at 4.30. An interesting [illegible] vs. All Comers will also be a feature. A voting competition is also arousing much interest. The balloting will be upon the subject of the respective popularity of the heads of the locomotive and traffic departments of the C. P. R. at Havelock. These are Messrs. W. W. Webster and P. G. Cromar. The prize to the winner will be a beautiful gold-headed walking stick valued at $12.00 on exhibition at present in the window of Denike's drug store. In addition to this a long list of races which promise to be closely contested and interesting will be run off for substantial prizes.

Specialists in the Treatment of Nervous, Blood, Private and Special Diseases of Men and Women. 18 Years in Detroit.

No Names used without Written Consent. Cures Guaranteed.

Thousands of young and middle-aged men are annually swept to premature graves through early abuse or later ignorance. Close, Address you one of the victims, but was rescued in time. Be sure: if learned as evil habit. A change soon came over me. I could feel it, my friends noticed it. I became nervous, despondent, gloomy, had no ambition, easily tired, evil forebodings, poor circulation, pimples on face, back weak, dreams and drains at night, tired and weak mornings, bashful sensation. To make matters worse, I backed recklessly and contracted a blood disease. I tried many doctors and medical firms—all failed till Drs. Kennedy & Kergan took my case. In one week I felt better, and in a few weeks was entirely cured. They are the only reliable and honest specialists in the country."

CONSERVATIVE CURTAIN LECTURE.

The Montreal Gazette a staunchly Conservative journal for nearly one hundred and thirty years, has lost patience with the folly—not to speak more strongly of its leaders and chief spokesman. In an issue of a day or two ago it reads the party a lesson of which it seems to be sorely in need. This article is reproduced below because it touches the situation so aptly and acutely. The Gazette a journal friendly to the Conservative party, takes the same general ground as has been taken by the Examiner, a journal in a party sense, hostile to the Conservative party. It indicates the stupendous folly or rather criminality of the course of the Conservative leaders in raising the race and religious cry without warrant, and, for the sake of party gain, dividing the people of the Dominion upon the most dangerous and inflammatory lines. In doing this the Conservative leaders and journals have raised the uncalled for cry of coercion in regard to the constitution of the new provinces, forgetting that they themselves were the true coercionists ten years ago when their aim was to override an act of the Manitoba Legislature, while the aim and result of the autonomy legislation in regard to North-west schools is to confirm the acts and ordinances of the North-west Territories. These, too, the Examiner has frequently pointed out the great waste of the time of Parliament caused by the harmony-killing policy of the over-talkative members of that body, who make up for paucity of numbers by superfluity of talk and that, too, of the most vicious and injurious character—a two-edged weapon, killing with one edge the time of Parliament, and with the other national harmony. We shall let the highest Conservative journalistic authority in the country set forth its views as to the blundering and mischievous policy of the Conservative party, both to itself and to the country at large. The Gazette says:—

"The Opposition has even more than the Government to gain by the recess coming at an early day. It is demoralized. Its criticism has degenerated into vain and obstructive talk. It has lost in the country, and it is losing more. The sympathies of the Catholic voters have been divorced from it. If there were a general Parliamentary election next month it is doubtful if five Conservatives would be elected in the great and growing Province of Quebec. What it has lost among the Catholics and in Quebec has not been made up for with any other class or in any other part of the country. Edmonton, London and North Oxford all tell one tale. Even in the latter constituency, while the Liberal majority was reduced, the Liberal voting strength was not shaken. Mr. Smith got more votes in June than did Mr. Sutherland, a Minister, in November. Whatever defections there were from the Liberal ranks were offset by accessions from some other section of the voters. It is not necessary to discuss at length the cause of this state of affairs. It is a condition, and not a theory, that confronts the party. Mr. Borden, in his amendments to the autonomy bill, laid down a safe principle in regard to the education system of the Provinces to be. Catholics may have reason to understand this before long.

"But the party got away from the safe issue. Some of its members in Parliament led the divergence. Newspapers and men who were not of Parliament aggravated it. The campaign in London and North Oxford assumed some of the features of an anti-separate school agitation. This was not justified by the traditions of the Conservative party, by the utterances of its Parliamentary leader, nor by considerations of policy. It meant party loss without party gain, and as long as the autonomy bills are a subject of discussion the opportunity for retrieving that loss will not be found. There is nothing to be gained by prolonging a hopeless fight against an unbreakable majority in the House of Commons. Especially is there nothing to be gained by such useless repetition of what once was argument as marked the closing debates of last week, that is, unless the early adoption of closure be counted a gain."

"There is one duty before the Opposition; it is to plainly state its position on the clauses of the autonomy bills that are yet to be dealt with, take the sense of the House of Commons on the case as stated, leave it the Government the responsibility of its policy, and help to expeditiously finish the rest of the session's work got home. So only can the mistakes that have been made be put on the way to be forgotten, and the party be placed in a position to deal effectively with the financial and economic issues that impending events promise to bring to the front at an early day. Above all, Parliamentarianism stands to benefit from an early ending of the session.

"Not only does the waste of time that has characterized recent proceedings weary the men of business who are members, but the prolonging of the sessions to six, seven and eight months as has been the case for the past three years, will have the effect of driving such men out of Parliament altogether, and of increasing the proportion of those members whose private affairs are not sufficiently important to cause them to worry. That cannot be an advantage. Nor is it an advantage to Parliament that the people should be worried into indifference in regard to what it is dealing with, as the people were wearied last year, and the year before, and as they are being wearied now. There are included in the membership of the House of Commons many men who, though a little weak in talk, are strong in common sense. They are sufferers from the present state of affairs. They will never have a better opportunity of serving themselves, Parliament and the country than by using their moral force to compel these overtalkative fellows into a course that the common sense of the community can approve of."

A SUCCESSFUL INSTITUTION.

The report of the annual meeting of the Traders' Bank, which appears elsewhere in this issue, will be interesting reading. It shows that this institution during the years covered by the report, and the comparative statement, has made great progress. Starting with a paid-up capital of $700,000 in 1867, this year it has reached the splendid sum of $2,895,715, while the deposits have increased to $15,689,748. The assets of the bank are now $22,320,916, an increase of nearly $5,000,000 during the last year. The present rest account is $1,100,000, a most satisfactory figure indeed, in view of the length of time that the bank has been doing business. It is now recognized as one of the potent features in the financial life of the Dominion, and is rapidly spreading its sphere of usefulness

"CHRONIC" HAS A KICK COMING

Thinks the Town is Not Getting Enough Band Concerts.

Only Two This Month Instead of Five —The Street Railway and Jackson Park.

Editor Examiner:

I noticed in the daily papers of yesterday advertisements announcing that the band would play in Jackson Park to-night. Now Sir, I should like to have some information concerning this matter. Early in the spring, I think it was, I saw in the reports of the council proceedings a statement that the band had been given their usual grant on condition that they play once each week in one of the town parks. At a later meeting Ald. Crowe moved a resolution that if by reason of wet weather or from other causes the band was unable to play on the regular night they should be instructed to play on some other night, and that the total number of concerts, an average of one each week from June to September inclusive, should be given. There are five Fridays in June, four of which have passed, and two concerts have been given, and to-night the band is to play in Jackson Park. The question I would like answered is, did the council or the committee in charge of this matter order the band to play in Jackson Park to-night, and is it to be given instead of the regular concert to-morrow night?

Two years ago the town erected a band stand in Victoria Park at a cost of $500, with the understanding that the band concerts were to be given there. Now it appears that this practice is to be abandoned, for out of five nights in June on which concerts should have been given, only two materialized in the park provided for that purpose.

If the town ratepayers are obliged to pay the band to play in Jackson Park to benefit the Street Railway Company, then the people have a right to know it. Surely no one would suggest that with two cars in that line the general public will be able to attend the concert in comfort, to say nothing of the expense of reaching the park.

Is the Council or the committee working in league with the Railway Company to make those who wish to hear the concert pay the Company for carrying them to the park to enjoy the music which they have already paid for?

Yours truly,
"CHRONIC."

Ald. Mason, chairman of the Finance Committee informed the Examiner to-day, that the Band had not been ordered by the town to play in Jackson Park, the only park in which they had been given instructions to play in by the town being Victoria Park.

In reference to the statement that only two concerts had been given this month he said that he was looking into the matter, and the band had promised to give thirteen concerts during the season.

Mr. Glidden was also communicated with and said that for the last seven years the band had given not less that twelve concerts each year, and that to-morrow night a programme from 8 to 9.30 o'clock would be given. A small detachment of the band would play in Jackson Park to-night, paid by the Railway Company.

MR. JAMES KENDRY'S OPINION GIVEN

Says People of the West are Not Worrying Over the Autonomy Bill—Simply an Ontario Fight—People in the West Are Too Busy Attending to Their Crops and Ranches to Bother About the Matter—Prospects for Crops are Good—Ex-M. P. Talks to a Montreal Newspaper Man.

Here's a poser for the local Conservatives, who have been exercising themselves over the autonomy bill and the imaginary hardships which its clauses imposed on the poor (?) people of the West.

The Montreal Herald says:

"Mr. James Kendry, ex-M.P., for Peterborough, Ont., is at the Windsor, en route from a business trip through the Northwest Territories. He remarked to the Herald that there was every indication of a bumper wheat crop, especially in the sections recently visited by rain. In many districts he passed through, however, especially in Alberta, the country was suffering much from drought, having practically had no rain since spring. In one district Mr. Kendry drove over seventy miles through land where for the entire distance there was not a vestige of water, and the least breeze raised the soil in clouds of dust. In these districts the fear of late frosts was a small affair compared with the ever-present danger of ruin to the crops from lack of rain.

"Asked as to the popular opinion in Alberta anent the school clauses of the Autonomy Bill, Mr. Kendry, life-long Conservative though he is, laughed, and remarked that he had never heard the subject mentioned. It was simply an Ontario fight, he said, and the people of the West were far too busy attending to their crops and ranches to spend much time on it."

THE CONTRACTS WILL BE LET SOON

New Opera House is Progressing Rapidly.

Mr. Claflin Will Let Contracts in a Few Days—Foundation is Nearly Completed.

Mr. Fuller Claflin, of the New Theatrical Stock Exchange, New York, who has charge of the erection of the new opera house, will be in town in a few days and has sent the plans and specifications for the new building on ahead. The work of constructing the foundation is proceeding rapidly, and Mr. Rebill will have the work completed in a short time. Mr. Claflin will on this trip let the contracts for brick and carpenter work, plans and specification of which may be seen after 9 o'clock to-morrow morning in the room over the G.T.R. ticket office.

It is the intention of the promoters to rush the construction of this work as quickly as possible.

Those who have visited the site of the new opera house have seen a transformation wrought, and in the course of a short time work on the walls of the structure will be commenced.

The vote on the bylaw to raise $50,000 for the Collegiate Institute to-day, is not large. A tour of the principal polling places this afternoon at 2.30 resulted as follows:

	Votes polled
Town Council chamber.....	29
Town Hall, Ashburnham	27
Metheral's shop...	50
Spry's shop...	60
Halpin's...	73

The general impression seemed to be at the polling places that the vote in favour of the bylaw was small, and that it would be defeated.

WILL THE BARBER SHOPS BE OPEN?

Bosses Say Yes and the Men Say No!

Some Difficulty in Reference to Attitude on Saturday, July 1st.

Some little trouble has developed in reference to the action of the Barbers' Union, in ordering that all Union shops should close all day on Saturday, July 1st. It appears that on Monday night a meeting of the Barbers' Union was held for the purpose of discussing this question, and it was then decided that all Union shops must close all day on Saturday. This action was not entirely satisfactory to a number of the boss barbers, and it is stated that some of them have decided, in spite of the order of the Union, to keep their shops open during Saturday morning and run the risk of having to pay the fine, which will be imposed for a violation of the orders of the Union in this respect, which will probably amount to $5 for each shop.

It is explained by the bosses, that while they run Union shops, they have no vote in the Union, except it is in the case of a man who employs no journeymen and only one apprentice, in which event the boss would be able to vote.

It is therefore felt that it is somewhat of a hardship upon the shops to have the men dictate to the bosses whether they shall keep open on Saturday or not and it is stated that some of them have decided to defy the order of the Union in this particular, and will do business on Saturday morning.

Later.—This afternoon a deputation of the barbers waited on the bosses and an effort was made to have the Union consent to work Saturday morning, but the endeavour failed, the members of the Union declaring that they would not consent to working on Saturday at all.

DIVERSION TO COST OVER $3,000

Engineer's Estimate of Cost of Diverting Aylmer Street.

Two Alternate Routes Suggested—Cost Will be $3,400 or $3,125.

Mr. Hay submitted to the Board of Works a plan for the diversion of the creek from Barnardo avenue to the river and the cost is estimated at $3,400, for 1,100 feet, which will be the length. If the creek is diverted at Edinburgh street to the river the distance will be 1,000 feet, and the cost is estimated at $3,125. He proposed to lay a 42 inch round concrete drain, which, it is expected would relieve to a considerable extend the rush of water along the Aylmer street drain. If the Edinburgh street diversion is decided on, the cut will be fifteen feet deep at George street. It was decided to allow the matter to stand until Mr. Tiffin, of the G.T.R., had been conferred with.

CHEAP BEER WOULD NOT GO

Freeze-Out Efforts of Toronto Combine Unsuccessful.

Calcutt Company Doing More Business Than Ever Before in Its History.

The lager beer wagon belonging to the Toronto brewing combination has been in town for the last few days, and the local hotelmen have been solicited for orders by this combine, the prices quoted being so low as to practically mean giving it away. The Toronto concerns have been taking this means of trying to freeze out the local brewery. Mr. Neil, manager of the Calcutt Brewing Company, states, however, that the hotelmen in the town and county to a man have stood by his company and have refused to buy from the price slaughterers from Toronto.

The local brewery is busier now than it has ever been in the history of the concern, and six brews a week are necessary to obtain the orders for the product. The visit of Wednesday last was the record brew for size, none previous having equalled it. The brewery is now running at its full capacity, an evidence of the fact that the quality of the product is satisfactory to the customers.

Not only is the domestic trade increasing, but a large business is being done in export orders, goods being sent to Toronto, Port Hope and other places. The Calcutt Company maintains a uniform price for all towns, while the combine, in every place except Peterborough charges a higher price than the Calcutt concern, the lower price here being made in order that trade may be diverted from the local company. As has been stated, however, this effort has not succeeded. The Calcutt Company prescribes the policy of keeping the money at home and building up the new city.

LABOUR COUNCIL DISCUSSES COLLEGIATE

No Sentiment Expressed—Labour Day Demonstration.

The regular meeting of the Trades and Labour Council was held last evening with President Murty in the chair. The question of the new Collegiate Institute was discussed, but there was no expression of opinion by the members either for or against the bylaw.

The question of having a demonstration on Labour Day was brought up, but no definite action was taken and the probabilities are that there will be no celebration.

Ozone is a germ killer and a valuable remedy, but to get the best results from it you must have a tonic laxative to take with it. "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" is the purest and best form in which Ozone is sold. Every bottle of this remedy contains a coupon which entitles you to a package of "Celery King" the well known remedy, free.

In buying this solution, you get about twice as much Ozone for your money as by buying other brands, in addition to getting a package of "Celery King" for nothing. You thus save money in two ways besides getting Ozone in its purest and most concentrated form.

Ask your druggist for "Solution of Ozone (the coupon kind)" and if he does not keep it you can get it from the Public Drug Co., Bridgeburg, Ont., by writing for it. Sold by W.B. WARNE. 5

PATRICK McAULIFFE COMMITTED FOR TRIAL

Preliminary Hearing on Charge of Murder at Police Court This Morning—Evidence of Manley Cole, of Havelock, Considered Sufficient for Commitment—Effort is Being Made to Secure Bail for Prisoner—Many of McAuliffe's Friends Express Sympathy.

The case of Patrick McAuliffe, who is charged with the murder of Frederick Hudson, received a preliminary hearing at Police Court this morning before Magistrate Dumble.

The evidence of only one witness, Manley Cole of Havelock, was heard, and upon this, which was considered sufficient, prisoner was committed for trial at the Fall Assizes. The indictment has since his appearance last week, been altered from that of assault to one of murder.

Cole's evidence was practically the same as that given in his first examination at the inquest.

Crown Attorney Weed conducted the examination for the Crown. Mr. R. M. Dennistoun appearing for the prisoner.

Manley Cole, sworn, testified that he is a railway man employed at Havelock. He was in Peterborough on the evening of June 1st, and was in the Royal Hotel in company with George Thoma and Peter White. He had entered the bar of the hotel and went from there to the wash-room. There, Hudson stepped up to witness and shook hands. He said he had had a little trouble with some fellows and that he wished witness had been there sooner. While standing there, a man walked past into the bar. He had a black or brown moustache. He thought it was McAuliffe. The man walked into the bar and called Hudson an obscene name. The latter replied that he could not take that. The other man backed up beside the bar with his head in his pocket. Hudson following. He kept crowding back and pulled something from his pocket and struck Hudson upon the head. He did not know what it was. Hudson's head went back and he fell to the floor. He was picked up by two men.

To Mr. Dennistoun, witness stated that he is a brakesman. He had seen Hudson some years ago in Havelock. He had come from Gravenhurst that evening, arriving about 8 o'clock. He was in Gravenhurst for two or three hours. He did not have a drink that day. Neither witness, Thoma, nor White had had a drink upon the evening. He could not say whether Hudson had been drinking upon the evening of June 1st. McAuliffe had come from the sitting room into the bar, walking around the corner of the bar. Hudson came out of the wash-room and followed McAuliffe, who was walking sideways beside the bar. Hudson was walking along with his hands down. He had told McAuliffe to "put his dukes up, or get out of the place." Hudson made no attempt to strike. Hudson was not trying to make him fight. Both McAuliffe's hands were behind, beneath his coat. McAuliffe was about three feet from the screen door when Hudson was struck. McAuliffe did not hit him with his hands. He was too far away to reach him with his fist. He hit him with some kind of weapon. McAuliffe and Hudson were 3 or 4 feet apart, when the missile struck Hudson. McAuliffe's hand was a foot or two feet from the former's head. When the missile had struck Hudson, it bounced from his head and struck the bar. The missile was dark in colour. It might have been a stone. He could not say whether the screen doors were on or not. One of the outside doors was open. Witness had formed the opinion that McAuliffe had thrown what ever it was that hit Hudson.

By mutual consent of the respective counsels, no further evidence was taken, prisoner being committed for trial.

Considerable sympathy is manifested toward the prisoner, and today a large number of his friends and neighbours from Enniscorthy, were present in the court room and took advantage of the occasion to shake hands and express their kindly regard. It is hoped by his counsel and his friends that bail may be secured. To obtain this however, application to the Department of the Attorney-General, Toronto, is necessary. This has already been done, and the request it is understood will not be opposed by the Crown.

LATEST SPORT

BOWLING-ON-THE-GREEN.

The interest in the bowling games is certainly on the increase, as last evening about forty bowlers were on the green and some very interesting play was witnessed by a large audience. The following games were run off:—

J. Cunningham	A. R. Kidd
H. McBain	H. Fitzgerald
W. O'Brien	J. E. A. Fitzgerald
G. H. Giroux, sk.—13	J. E. Oles, sk.—10

The rinks for to-night will be,—
A. Moore vs. J. Gibson.
R. Sturgeon vs. Dr. T. M. Greer.
W. F. Talbot vs. Robt. Kerr.
J. McIntyre vs. G. K. Martin.
D. H. Moore vs. J. McClung.

BASEBALL.

Chris. Gresham will again be seen in a Peterborough uniform in the games against Lindsay. Chris will likely hold down first bag. With his addition the team will be strengthened considerably.

Green, the young short-stop of the St. John's team will be given a try-out with Peterborough at second base. Sheridan going to the field where he will show to better advantage.

"Mull" Douglas will pitch in the afternoon game on Saturday. Quinlan will do the slab work in the morning game.

An important meeting of the Guild League executive will be held to-night to decide on the St. John-Charlotte street protest.

The Peterborough team will be greatly strengthened for their game with Lindsay, and with "Mull" Douglas next in the game the Scugog bunch will be kept guessing.

Peterborough and Charlotte street will play a game on Riverside Park to-night at 6.30. The following players will represent Peterborough:—Quinlan, Douglas, Rattray, Graham, Green, Shea, Smyne, Sheridan, Connors, Filling, Callahan. The game will be called at 6.30 sharp. Admission 15c.

Bill Cinamon's Red Skins, fresh from their victories over Port Hope and Orillia, will be here on Saturday. They expect to wipe out their defeat on Victoria.

As the baseball game is the sole attraction for the holiday there should be a record crowd in attendance.

Lindsay plays a double header with the locals on Riverside Park on Saturday. An exhibition game will be played in the morning, commencing at 10.30, and the league game in the afternoon commencing at 3 o'clock.

An exciting game of baseball was played last evening on the Old P. A. A. A. grounds, when the Young Mens put it all over the Nationals to the tune of 11-8.

The Elms lined up as follows:—

Pitcher, A. Fergusen; catcher, J. Primeau; 1st base, F. Geerin; 2nd base, F. Conroy; 3rd base, A. Coughlin; short stop, B. Clancy; right field, P. Gorham; centre field, F. O'Shea; left field, A. O'Toole.

David Quinlan, umpired.—Com.

To-night at the McDonald street grounds St. Andrew's and St. Paul's will finish their first game. St. Paul's players will be:—Gillespie, Storey, Simpson, Laing, Logan, Rosenberg, Watt, Ferguson, Whitman, Cameron, Walkey, Stenson and Shea.

* * * *

Last night on the Central School grounds the Arrows defeated the Aberdeens, the score being 5-4. The lineups of the teams were:—

Arrows.		Aberdeens.
F. Graham	Pitcher.	E. Harris
H. Dennett	Catcher.	S. Ede
H. Anderson	First Base.	Harris
J. Sewly	Second Base.	G. James
W. Taylor	Third Base.	F. Heffernan
W. Conroy	Short Stop.	Wode
J. Gorelin	Right Field.	J. James
E. Heenan	Left Field.
E. Legrandeur	Centre Field.

F. Graham for the Arrows pitched a good game, striking out five of the Aberdeens heavy batters. Umpire, F. Hall.

LACROSSE.

The lacrosse team held the best practice of the season last night. The next regular practice will be held on Monday evening and regularly after that on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

The club is trying to arrange an exhibition game with some fast team before the next league game.

The Shamrocks of Toronto Junction defeated the Young Toronto's yesterday by a score of 5—4. If the locals win their district there is a strong probability that they will be drawn with the Shamrocks.

LAWN TENNIS.

The members of the Nicholls Oval Tennis Club will hold their second ten of the season on Monday next. All the members intending to compete in the tournament are asked to hand their names in to the secretary on Tuesday.

EXCURSION WAS MUCH ENJOYED

Woodmen of the World Trip Yesterday Was Well Patronized.

Over 200 in Attendance—Members of Executive Council Had Enjoyable Outing.

The excursion of Sherwood Forest Camp Woodmen of the World, held yesterday to Stony Lake via the Lift Lock proved one of the most enjoyable trips of the season. The excursion was extensively patronized, over 200 pleasure-seekers embarking at the Wolfe street wharf, from which the boat departed at 8 o'clock yesterday morning.

After a pleasant sail to the Lift Lock the party made the ascent, watching with keen interest the operation of the mechanism of the gigantic structure.

The weather conditions were ideal and this together with the perfect arrangements which had been made by the committee in charge went together to make one of the most enjoyable outings of the season. After a pleasant sail up the canal, the party continued their journey to Stony Lake, where brief stops were made at various points, including Burleigh, McCracken's Landing, Juniper Island, Beaverbank, and Crowe's Landing. The party reached town after the return trip about eight o'clock.

Accompanying the excursion were the visiting members of the Executive Council of the order, who have been in session here, among whom were:—G. C. Hodgins, M.P.P., Head Council Commander, Lucan, Ont.; W. J. Fitzgerald, Head Clerk, London; J. B. Hoover, Mayor of Clinton, chairman Board of Managers; J. H. Saunders, London, Head Watchman; Dr. Wiley, Dresden, Head Sentinel; Dr. Harrison, Toronto, Head Physician; D. Cinnamon, Lindsay, Head Advisor; L. H. Taylor, Brantford, Head Manager; Jas. A. Pamplin, Toronto, Head Manager; R. H. Blackmore, St. Thomas, Head Escort.

The visitors upon their return were most enthusiastic over the beautiful nature of the trip, which they appeared, without exception, to have thoroughly enjoyed.

The members of the Executive are to-day engaged in ministerial pursuits down the river, and an abundant supply of fish stories may be expected for some days to come. The expedition is accompanied by Bro. Ald. Hamlin, whose raids always read disaster to the finny tribe.

Pain Across the Kidneys For Three Years.

Suffered Great Agony. Could Not Stoop or Bend.

No disease is so quiet and stealthy in its approach as kidney disease. That is why it is so dangerous. It may become deep-seated before you realize the danger.

It is therefore of great importance to recognize the early warning symptoms, because in the early stage kidney disease is easily curable. Pain or dull ache in the back is one of the first signs. So are bladder pains, bearing-down pains, smarting sensation when urinating, frequent or suppressed urination, and gravel or sediment in the urine, etc. You cannot be well if your kidneys are not performing their functions properly. In all ordinary cases of any derangement of the kidneys, a few doses of will put the patient right; in old or chronic cases, the treatment should be persisted in.

Mr. Michael A. McLeods, Woodbine, Marden Bridge, N.B., tells of his experience: "For the last three years I suffered great agony with pain across my kidneys, and was so bad that I could not stoop or bend. I consulted and had several doctors treat me, but I got none the better. On the advice of a friend I procured a box of that valuable life-giving remedy, Doan's Kidney Pills, and to my surprise and benefit I immediately became better. In my opinion Doan's Kidney Pills have no equal as a cure for any form of Kidney disease.

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25. All dealers, or direct by mail.

SITUATION IS GROWING WORSE

Population At Odessa in a State of Panic.

WARSAW WORKMEN GO BACK

Landlords Fleeing From Their Country Estates Into the City—Eight Sailors Sentenced to Three Years For Mutiny — Mobilization Has Begun But There Are Many Unwilling Reservists.

Warsaw, June 29.—The conditions of Lods are unchanged excepting that most of the workmen have returned to work. Out of 60,000 strikers about 7,000, from 32 factories, remain out. Martial law still prevails, the streets are constantly patrolled and the liquor shops are all closed. The universal condemnation of the strike movement at Lods has had the effect of quieting the situation and it is expected that the remaining strikers will soon resume work.

A strike was declared yesterday at the coal and iron mines, founderies and factories in the districts of Dombrowa, Strzemieszyce and Sosnowice.

The excitement arising from the events at Lods and Warsaw has spread to the cities in all the old Polish Provinces along the western border of Russian Poland proper. At Minsk and Kovno policemen have been attacked in the streets and at the latter place a jail delivery occurred. At Kieff about two hundreds Jews making a demonstration and carrying a red flag were ridden down by gendarmes and Cossacks. Many arrests were made but no loss of life has been reported.

Worse at Odessa.

The strike situation at Odessa is growing worse. Some collisions between strikers and Cossacks have occurred, but the details received are meagre. The population is in a state of panic.

Elizabetgard, Government of Kherson, Russia, June 29.—On account of the threatening nature of the agrarian movement in the adjoining districts the Governor of Kherson, M. Lewaschew, has arrived here and Cossacks have been summoned. Many landlords are fleeing from their estates into the city.

Sebastopol, Russia, June 29.—Eight sailors found guilty of mutiny were sentenced here yesterday to three years' imprisonment.

Ekaterinoslav, Russia, June 29.—The peasants have set fire to the buildings of several land owners.

Yuzovka, Russia, June 29.—The workmen in the Karpoff mine have gone out on strike.

Mobilization Begun.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—The mobilization in St. Petersburg and Moscow began at midnight yesterday. Many of the reserve men who did not respond were seized during the night at their homes. All day long men have been marched to barracks under escort. The mobilization includes Tsarkoe-Selo, Peterchof and other towns in St. Petersburg Province. The workmen are grumbling and trouble is expected, but nothing thus far has occurred. Sixty thousand men have been called to the colors.

The proposed mobilization in Russian Poland will be confined to certain country districts of the Southern Provinces of Poland, exempting Warsaw and Lods, where orders have been given to take in from the reserves the sufficient number of men to make up the regular compliment of regiments which have been reduced in strength by sending men to the Far East, thus keeping up the full strength of the regiments in Russian Poland.

The efforts of the Socialists since Friday to bring about a general strike here have failed completely. The strike, however, among the coal workers in Southern Poland near the German and Austrian frontiers has again broken out and it is reported here to be serious.

Vice-Admiral Chouknin, commander of the Black Sea fleet, has declined to accept the post of Minister of Marine in succession to Admiral Avellan, who recently resigned.

News comes from Tambov Province that M. Besobrasoff, president of the Yafu Timber Co., who has been living on his magnificent estate in that Province, has been obliged to invoke the aid of the military not only to protect his property but to save his life.

STOMACHS ON STILTS.

The man who puts on stilts does not increase his actual stature. He only feels taller. Stimulants are the stilts of the stomach. They make a man feel better for the time being, but he feels a great deal worse for them afterward.

The need of the man whose stomach is "weak" is not stimulation but strength. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery perfectly answers that need. It contains no alcohol or whisky. It cures the weak, foul stomach with its attendant bad smelling breath, coated tongue, bad taste, poor appetite and kindred symptoms.

In the year 1899 I had an attack of indigestion and got so bad that my stomach would distress me all the time, would not let me eat, and I was very weak. I suffered terribly with pain in my stomach, and would commence to vomit and throw up my food. I was so weak I hardly walk across the floor. By the time I had used one bottle my stomach was relieved, commenced to eat and could keep food down. I was so much encouraged that I used three bottles and was entirely cured. I have not had any other sickness since, and it was over three and a half years ago. I was troubled with a bad cough, which I had had for a number of years, and it was very much the best I was ever troubled. I have not coughed since I took the "Discovery." I am now 51 years old and never was troubled that way since I was a lad of ten, until last fall. I tried two different kinds of kidney pills since and they did not help me much. So one of your books was left at the house. Sometime after that I saw that your pills were a specific for this trouble and I resolved to try them, and must say they have entirely cured me."

P. J. COGAN,
29 Perkins Ave.

The only medicine for substitution is to permit the dealer to make a little more profit. He will tell you, "Just as good." Insist on having Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Are Easier—Cattle and Hogs Firmer in U. S. Markets.

London, June 29.—Cattle are quoted at 10¾c to 12½c per lb.; refrigerator beef, 9¾c to 9¾c per lb.; sheep, 13c to 14c per pound.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, June 29.—(Special.)—The receipts were 500 cattle, 50 milch cows, 800 sheep and lambs, 600 calves, 400 hogs, 30 store hogs, 100 young pigs. A feature of the trade was the scarcity of choice cattle, there being no stall-fed on the market, and all the offerings were grass cattle, of which the quality was not of the best. Quality prices reached lower for the class of stock offered, but this does not indicate that the market was weaker, as buyers of choice stock would have willingly paid 5¼c for them if they could have been had. The top figure realized for the best beeves was 5c, and the lower grades sold at from that down to 2¼c per lb. Calves were plentiful and generally of indifferent quality. Prices ranged at from $2 to $10 each. There were some very good milch cows on the market, but there was little demand for any kind. Prices ranged at from $25 to $55 each. Sheep sold at 3¼c to 3¾c per lb. Lambs brought from $2.50 to $6 each. The store hogs sold at $7 to $10 and young pigs at $1.50 to $2.50 each. The supply of hogs was scarce again, and choice stock was scarce; in fact, there was none on the market. The feeling was firmer and packers would have paid $7.25 for choice, selected lots, but there was none to be had. The best selected lots sold at $6.87½ to $7, and mixed lots at $6.50 to $6.75 per 100 lbs., weighed off cars.

EAST BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

East Buffalo, June 28.—Cattle—Receipts, 100 head; good demand and stronger; prime steers, $5.60 to $5.75; shipping steers, $4.75 to $5.40; butchers', $4.25 to $5.25; heifers, $3.50 to $4.85; cows, $3 to $4.35; bulls, $2.75 to $4.25.

Veals—Receipts, 100 head; active and 25c higher, $4.25 to $6.75.

Hogs—Receipts, 1200 head; active and 10c to 20c higher; heavy, $5.25 to $5.30; mixed yorkers and pigs, $5.05 to $5.10; roughs, $4.90 to $5.15; stags, $3.25 to $3.75; dairies, $5.30 to $5.37½.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 200 head; active; spring lambs, $6 to $6.50; yearlings, $5.75 to $7; wethers, $5.50 to $5.75; ewes, $4.25 to $4.50; sheep, mixed, $2.50 to $5.

NEW YORK LIVE STOCK.

New York, June 28.—Beeves—Receipts, 2057; steady to a shade higher; fat bulls and good cows firm; others steady; steers, $4.40 to $5.40; tops, $5.60; bulls, $2.50 to $4; cows, $1.75 to $5.75. Exports to-day, 2700 quarters of beef; to-morrow, 620 cattle.

Calves—Receipts, 2010; veals generally higher; buttermilks a shade higher; veals, $4.50 to $7; extra, $7.20; few tops, $7.25; culls, $3 to $4; buttermilks, $3 to $3.87½; mixed calves, $3.50 to $5.25.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 4264; sheep 15c higher; lambs 25c higher; sheep, $3.50 to $5; culls, $3; lambs, $6.75 to $8; general sales, $6.25 to $8; culls, $5.25.

Hogs—Receipts, 4177; market firm; state hogs, $6 to $6.10.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK.

Chicago, June 28.—Cattle—Receipts, 15,000; good to prime steers, $5.25 to $6.25; poor to medium, $3.75 to $5.15; stockers and feeders, $2.75 to $4.40.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 12,000; good to choice wethers, $4.75 to $5; fair to choice, mixed, $4.25 to $4.65; native lambs, including spring lambs, $5.25 to $8.

IMMIGRANTS RETURNED.

Those Suffering From Trachoma Must Go Back to Scotland.

Quebec, June 29.—The medical branch of the Quebec agency of the Dominion Immigration Department is getting ready to deport a number of diseased immigrants at present undergoing treatment for trachoma at the Savard Park house of detention.

Yesterday afternoon, one immigrant, a Scotchman, was placed on board the Allan steamer Pretorian, sailing for Glasgow, and to-day several others affected with the same disease will go.

There are 180 foreign immigrants undergoing treatment at the house of detention and quite a number will have to be deported.

STATUTE LABOR OUT OF DATE.

Tenor of Belief at Eastern Counties Good Roads Conference.

Brockville, June 29.—The Eastern Ontario Goods Roads Association opened a two days' convention yesterday morning with a large attendance of municipal officers, principally clerks and wardens from not only the eastern, but many western counties. The meetings are under the auspices of the Leeds and Grenville Council. The president, ex-Warden Cummings of Carleton County is ill, but he sent along his address, which was read, referring to the increased interest taken in road improvement since the organization of the association five years ago. When the association started not a township in the counties east of Kingston had commuted statute labor or constructed cement culverts. There was not a mile of road except that built by the tolls road companies. Now fully one hundred municipalities are using concrete exclusively. Half the townships of the County of Carleton have commuted statute labor and others are following the example. The association has given examples of scientific road construction. The County of Lanark last year expended several thousand dollars for the construction of a leading system of county macadamized roads and purposes expending $100,000 in this work.

The commutation of statute labor and the construction of permanent roads were the two leading topics of the day. The commutation system in Blanchard Township, County of Perth, was explained in an admirable manner by Reeve Bonis of St. Marys, and "How Commutation Has Succeeded in Fitzroy Township" was handled by Clerk A. Murphy of Antrim. Both were strong believers in the abolition of statute labor. Provincial Highway Commissioner Campbell of Toronto talked on the progress of the good roads movement. He thought the time had arrived in older Ontario, when economic road building should be studied and practiced by the commutation of statute labor, which has long since served its usefulness. Road building should be let by tender and conducted in business like manner. The Government stood ready to aid counties willing to buy toll roads off.

The other main speakers were Highway Commissioner McDonald of Connecticut, and Warden James McEwing of Drayton, Ont. After each address there was a lively discussion.

Sheffield's Trade Trebled.

Sheffield, June 29.—(C. A. P.)—Sheffield's reception to the Canadian Manufacturers' Association was fully equal to that received in other places. A magnificent luncheon was prepared at Cutler's Hall, where Mr. Ballantyne, in replying to the toast of the association, said Sheffield's trade with Canada on account of the preference had trebled within the last seven years. He expressed the opinion that they should put it to still greater advantages.

Cured Kidney Disease.

Mrs. Fred Hills, Walton Street, Port Hope, Ont., states:—"I was troubled for some time with kidney disease and though I tried a great many different medicines, never succeeded in obtaining relief until I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By the regular use of this preparation for a time I was completely cured of kidney disease.

King Found Guilty of Murder.

Edmonton, June 29.—"Guilty" was the verdict of the jury in the Charles King murder case yesterday afternoon. The judge summed up strongly against the prisoner. King showed apparently little concern at the announcement of the verdict.

His Lordship asked the prisoner if he had anything to say why the sentence of death should not be passed. King said:

"I am not guilty. Last time I saw Hayward he was alive. I hope, if he is dead, and has been murdered, that the murderer will soon be found."

The judge sentenced the prisoner to be hanged Aug. 31, next, and said he could hold out no hope of executive clemency.

E. C. Stretch is Dead.

Toronto, June 29.—E. C. Stretch, the Sunday School Convention delegate who was stricken with paralysis on Sunday, died yesterday afternoon at the home of Rev. Dougald Brown, 23 Langley avenue. The body will be conveyed back to Venite, Indian Territory, by friends. Mr. Stretch was 48 years of age and leaves a wife and family.

THE best range thermometer ever invented will not produce satisfactory baking from a poor oven. A fluctuating oven heat means guess-work baking.

The Imperial Oxford oven has a steady, even heat. You don't require to touch the fire or move a damper. Baking with an Imperial Oxford is an exact science. Just place the article in the oven and time it—the oven does the rest. It is the Diffusive Flue of the that makes this possible. This flue draws in fresh air from outside the range, it is superheated and discharged through a grating into the oven. This heated fresh air permeats every part of the oven and keeps it at an even high temperature.

THE IMPERIAL LIFE ASSURANCE COMPANY

HEAD OFFICE - - TORONTO

THE Imperial Life's Policy of assurance is the most liberal policy issued consistent with safety; it has NO restrictions in regard to residence, travel or occupation; it contains definite guaranteed cash values, loan values, and paid-up value, increasing annually after the third year; its automatic, non-forfeiture provision prevents the Policy from lapsing.

AMERICAN CEREAL CO. APPEAL TO COMMISSION

Appeal Against Freight Rates of Canadian Railways Heard Before Railway Commission at Ottawa—Argument Concluded Yesterday—Judgment Being Looked Forward to With Keen Interest—Will be Delivered at An Early Date.

The appeal of the American Cereal Company against what they claim to be the unreasonable freight rates charged by the Railways has for the past two days been in progress before the Railway Commission in Ottawa. The arguments on both sides were heard and the judgment which will be delivered in the near future will be looked forward to with keen interest by reason of its great importance industrially to the town.

A new tribunal has been created with the powers of Court of Record with jurisdiction over all railways doing business in Canada, with which it is necessary for all railways doing business in the Dominion to file their freight and passenger tariffs. These must be allowed by the Commissioners as just and reasonable, before any toll can be collected by the railway from any passenger or shipper. It is further provided by the Act that application may be made at any time to the Commissioners to disallow any tariff on the ground that it is unjust or unreasonable and the Commissioners have the power to set aside the tariff and to substitute a new rate if they desire to do so.

For a considerable period of time the American Cereal Company has complained that the rates charged by the railways were unjust and unreasonable, not only as against their Company, but as against the Canadian manufacturer of cereal product; that the Canadian railways were carrying grain, grown in the Western States across the Dominion of Canada for export to Europe at such a low rate that many capitalists have found it advantageous to erect their mills in the British Isles, and on the Continent of Europe. On the other hand the Canadian railways have made such a low rate on manufactured product made for export and shipped from the United States through Canada, that Canadian mills which pay much higher freight rates to the seaboard are unable to compete. The policy of the G.T.R. and C.P.R. has therefore been to favour the European mills, and the mills in the Western States, and to slaughter the Canadian export trade.

The American Cereal Company therefore lodged a complaint which was heard by the Railway Commissioners on Tuesday and Wednesday, of this week. The case excited great interest in railway and shipping circles and evidence on the rate question was taken from all the experts of the great Canadian railways. Mr. Robert Stuart, treasurer and Mr. Lincoln Richards, of Chicago, gave evidence on behalf of the American Cereal Company. Mr. Cassels, K.C., of Toronto, and Mr. S. M. Dennistoun, of town, represented the Cereal Company, and Mr. M. K. Cowan, K. C., General Counsel, for the G. T. R., represented the railway.

The evidence showed that the American Cereal Co. can export their manufactured product to the seaboard from the United States for 11.9 cents per cwt., when sent by the all rail water, but when the grain travels over the identical rails and track, but is milled at Peterborough, instead of Cedar Rapids or Akron, the freight charged the company is 16.6 cents per cwt., as compared with 11.6 when manufactured in the United States. As it takes 400 lbs. of whole oats to make a barrel of Quaker oats, this difference in rates means a handicap against Canadian mills of 58.8 cents per barrel. When the grain travels, as the Cereal Company would like to have it do, from Chicago by water to Georgian Bay ports, and thence to Peterborough, the rate is equivalent to 16 cents per 100 lbs, from Chicago to Montreal, or a handicap of 16.4 cents per barrel against Canadian mills.

These startling results are not apparent to ordinary people who study a railway freight tariff, and it would be quite in order for a railway man to say that the tariff shows no such excessive rates, but when the figures were analyzed by Mr. Robert Stewart as a milling proposition, it was made clear to the commission that the above is the real discrimination against the milling trade in Canada, and no effort was made by the railway to contradict his evidence. "It takes," said Mr. Stuart, "400 lbs. of oats to make a barrel of rolled oats, which weighs but 180 lbs. Of the remainder, 80 lbs. are light oats, and 140 lbs. offal. These different constituents are shipped out of Peterborough at varying rates. The light oats go to Montreal, the rolled oats to Europe, and the offal goes to the New England States, where it is mixed with western corn to make cattle feed. It is, therefore, only by figuring out the freight rates as they are actually applied to the different classes of product that the real discrimination against the Canadian miller can be ascertained."

The Commissioners and the railway experts were bound to admit that on the evidence tendered the Peterborough mills cannot be operated on an export basis when oats from the Western States are used, and can only be operated at all when there is a sufficient quantity of low priced oats in Ontario to take care of the mill. The Cereal Company therefore asked the Commissioners to make a rate which would place Peterborough on the same footing as Cedar Rapids and Akron—that is, to make an export product rate, which will not exceed the grain rate. It was pointed out that the operation of the mills in Canada brings to the railways a large amount of incidental freight in the form of supplies for the mill as well as for the hundreds of operatives who derive their living from it, and that by reason of the packages in which the product is placed, that the railways earn at least 20 per cent. more freight out of Peterborough than they do in—thus making up for any excess in bulk of the manufactured product over bulk grain.

The only answer which the railways attempted to make was that they are now carrying the grain and product from Chicago to the foreign market at a loss; that they were forced to endure this loss by reason of their traffic arrangements with the railways in the Mississippi basin, with whom they exchanged freights, and they urged upon the Commissioners that the loss occasioned by the Chicago competition should not be used as a lever against them to compel them to do more business on unprofitable terms.

The Commissioners intimated that they were satisfied that the terms asked by the Cereal Company were less than the railways could supply them at a profit. They would not so alter the rates as to bring about the result, but they would go into the whole matter with the experts attached to their Board, and deliver judgment in the near future.

MID-SUMMER WEDDINGS IN PETERBORO' COUNTY

MISS A. BURNHAM A JUNE BRIDE

Pretty Wedding Solemnized in Otonabee Yesterday.

An Interesting Social Event—Many Guests From a Distance.

A social event looked forward to with interest was the marriage of Miss Annie L. Burnham, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. Burnham, to Mr. George Wimle Nickels, of Toronto, which took place yesterday afternoon, and if "happy is the bride whom the sun shines on," then the happiness of this couple is assured, for the clouds of the previous day had dispersed for the occasion and the brightness of the day was reflected in the countenances of all assembled at the pretty residence of the bride's parents, where the ceremony took place in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with maiden-hair ferns, daisies and roses. Above the bride, suspended from a garland hung a wedding bell, under which the marriage was solemnized. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. E. A. Langfeldt, M. A., rector of St. Luke's church, of which church the bride was a devoted member.

The groom was supported by Mr. Mark Burnham, brother of the bride. Miss Annie Burnham, who made a charming bride, wore white silk collenne over white chiffon taffeta and silver sequin hat, and carried a bouquet of white bridal roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Florence Burnham, sister of the bride and Miss Sybil Statham of East Orange, were dressed in pink chiffon organdie, over white taffeta and wore hats of white chiffon, with wreath of pink roses. Both carried bouquets of pink roses.

At the close of the ceremony, a reception was held, followed by a very sumptuous wedding breakfast. Then Mr. and Mrs. Nickels left by the 5.12 p. m. train for Toronto and western points to spend a short honeymoon before taking up their residence in Parkdale. The bride's travelling dress was a blue silk shirt waist suit with blue hat to match. The large array of costly and exceedingly beautiful wedding presents testified to the popularity of the bride, not alone in the native place, but in every place where she is known. Conspicuous among them was a very costly pearl pendant, the gift of the groom to the bride. A large number of friends gathered at the C. P. R. station to see Mr. and Mrs. Nickels depart and to wish them good-luck. Among the invited guests from a distance, were Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Regan, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Campbell, Toronto; Mrs. Charles Winle, Toronto; Mrs. A. C. Wilmot, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Winle, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Goals, Toronto, Mrs. Geo. Winle and the Misses Winle, London; Mr. and Mrs. Yeoman, Buffalo; Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Tyrer, Montreal and Mr. W. F. Scott, Dunville.

MISS KERR A PRETTY BRIDE

Lady Well Known in Peterborough Married Yesterday.

Sister of Mr. F. D. Kerr Made the Bride of Mr. D. W. MacDonald.

The bride mentioned in the following despatch is well known here, having visited in town frequently:—

Cobourg, June 28.—This afternoon St. Peter's Church, Cobourg, was the centre of interest for one of the prettiest and most fashionable weddings in the history of the town, the occasion being the marriage of Edith, second daughter of Hon. Senator Kerr, to Donald W. MacDonald, only son of Donald MacDonald, of Minneapolis. The church, which was beautifully decorated, was filled to its utmost capacity. At the hour appointed the bridal party entered the church, the bridesmaids being Miss Minnie MacDonald, Cobourg; Miss Marian Wellbridge, Ottawa; Miss Lillian Jaques, Montreal, and Miss Lulu Fraser, Cobourg. Miss Mabel Kerr, youngest sister of the bride was maid of honour.

The bridegroom's presents to the bridesmaids were dainty hand-painted fans and to the maid of honour a pearl crescent brooch. The two flower girls, Miss Elsie Heath, Toronto, and Miss Kathleen Atmore, Cobourg, were in white with plaid sashes and wreaths of pink roses were on their heads; they wore white veils and carried baskets of pink flowers. The bridegroom's presents to the flower-girls were silver padlock bracelets.

The groom's present to the bride was a magnificent pearl necklace with pearl pendant.

The two pages were Master Jack Kerr, son of Mr. J. M. Kerr, Toronto, and Master Teddy Ketchum, son of Judge Ketchum, Cobourg. Both were dressed in white sailor suits, with caps, and carried silver tipped, white ebony sticks, presents of the groom.

The groomsman was Mr. Herbert Ketchum, of Toronto, cousin of the groom, and the ushers were Mr. F. F. Kerr, Cobourg; Mr. F. D. Kerr, Peterborough, brothers of the bride; Major Herman Rogers, Grafton, and Mr. Ross McKinnon, Toronto. The groom's presents to the groomsman and ushers were symbolic of the most, being handsome gold nugget scarf pins.

A Beautiful Ceremony.

The marriage ceremony was performed by the Rev. Canon Spragge, rector of the parish.

Among the invited guests were the Premier and Lady Lemieux, Sir Richard and Lady Cartwright, Sir William and Lady Mulock, Sir Louis and Lady Davies, the Minister of Inland and Madame Lemieux, Hon. Mr. Fielding and Mrs. Fielding, Hon. Mr. Oliver and Mrs. Oliver, Hon. Mr. Emmerson, Hon. Henry Lambart and Mrs. Lambart, Sir John Carling, Sir Mackenzie Bowell, Speaker and Madame Dandurand, Senator Gowan, Senator W. J. Macdonald, Senator Lovitt, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ruseff, Mrs. Geo. M. Clark, Miss Dennis and others.

Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald left by the evening train for the Highlands of Ontario, and after a short stay at the Royal Muskoka, they will return to Cobourg for a week or ten days after which they will take up their residence in Edmonton.

JUNE WEDDING IN CAVAN TP.

Miss Myra Berry Married to Mr. Edward Helem.

Lochinvar Came From the West for His Bride—An Interesting Social Event.

A pretty house wedding was solemnized at "Glenhurst," Cavan township, on Tuesday, when Miss Myra Berry, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Berry, and Mr. Edward Helem, of Dalcraine, Man., plighted their troth in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The ceremony was performed at four o'clock by Rev. Mr. McIntosh, formerly minister of the Centreville Presbyterian church.

The ceremony took place in the drawing room, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the bridal party standing beneath an evergreen and marguerite arch. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of white silk, with tulle veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid, Miss Matura Berry, sister of the bride, was beautifully attired in grey voile and carried pink carnations. Little Miss Helen Berry was a charming maid-of-honour. She was dressed in white silk and carried the golden circlet upon a cushion.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Rosalind Berry, second sister of the bride.

At the conclusion of the ceremony a dainty supper was served, at the conclusion of which the health of the bride and groom was proposed by Rev. Mr. McIntosh in an appropriate speech, to which Mr. Helem made a felicitious reply.

Mr. and Mrs. Helem departed amid a shower of rice upon a brief honeymoon trip to Toronto, Hamilton and other western points, and will, upon their return hold a post-nuptial reception, after which they will leave for their home in Dalcraine.

A large number of exquisite presents and congratulatory favours were received by the contracting parties, which evidence the esteem in which they are held by their large circle of friends.

WERE WEDDED AT ST. PETER'S

Another Pretty End of June Wedding This Morning.

A pretty wedding was solemnized at St. Peter's Cathedral at six o'clock this morning, when Miss Mamie B. Keenan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Keenan, 197 Rubidge street, was united in marriage to Mr. Francis H. Kearney, of Peterborough. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. O'Brien, in the presence of the intimate friends of the young people.

The bridesmaid was Miss Agnes Kearney, of Campbellford, sister of the groom, while Mr. Denis Kane, was best man.

The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of cream alpatapa. She carried a prayer book. The bridesmaid's costume was of white silk. At the conclusion of the ceremony a sumptuous wedding breakfast was partaken of at the residence of the bride's father.

The young couple were the recipients of numerous and costly presents, including a very handsome jardiniere stand from the groom's fellow-employees in the C. G. E. store and shipping department.

Mr. and Mrs. Kearney will take up residence on Chamberlain street.

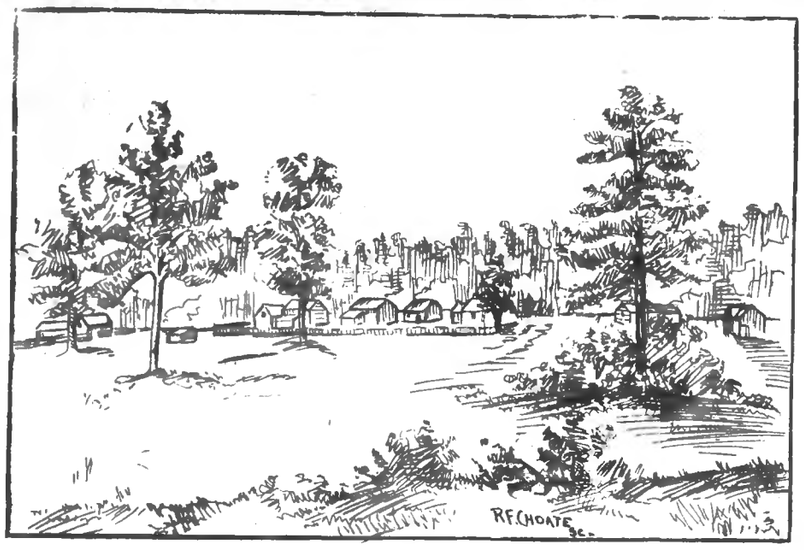
CITY OF PETERBOROUGH

BIGGEST LITTLE CITY IN CANADA.



BIRDSEYE VIEW OF PETERBOROUGH, 1827

[Reproduced from a Pencil Sketch by Miss Boulton; the original, presented by the late Mrs. Beck, now in the Victoria Museum.]

BIRDSEYE VIEW OF PETERBOROUGH, 1905

A BRIEF CONDENSED HISTORICAL SKETCH

Of Peterborough's Social, Civic, Industrial and Commercial Development and Progress from Forest Conditions to the Fruition of the Present Day.

A SPACE of four score years, nearly three generations of man, separates the founding of Peterborough and its institution as a city. Eighty years ago, the spot where Peterborough stands had never been trodden by the foot of a white man. In 1818 the Township of North Monaghan was surveyed and with prophetic precaution a reserve was made for the site of the future town. It was not, however, until 1825 that the town plot was laid out by the late Mr. Richard Birdsall. At that time the site of this city was as nature had made it. The creek which now flows through the city from north-west to south-east was a more important stream. West of it, the ground was covered with a dense growth of pine, beech and maple, while the portion east of the stream was covered with scrub oak and pine. Where now stately structures stand, there then grew the trees of the forest primeval, and swamps spread their sodden expanse; where now the busy hand of commerce gathers wealth, then the hands of the pioneers gathered wild fruit and berries.

Peterborough's Infant Days

The first human habitation erected upon the site of Peterborough was the home of Adam—not the primogenitor of the race, but Adam Scott—on Water street, near the National Hotel, which was standing till the spring of 1888, when it was destroyed by fire. Scott's Mill, a combined grist and saw mill (with one run of stone), was built about the same time on the present site of the Peterborough Canoe Factory building. The arrival of the immigrants of the Hon. Peter Robinson in 1825 led to the erection of several new buildings, mere log huts. With the increase of population, thus made, more commercial needs created commercial enterprise, and simple trades—shoemaking, baking, shop-keeping, and others—such as the necessities of the town demanded, began to be plied, and the eternal tavern was not wanting on the list.

In 1826 the town was honoured by a visit from Governor Sir Peregrine Maitland and at the same time, in honour of Hon. Peter Robinson, the name of Peterborough was substituted for that of "Scott's Plains," the original title; and it is said that the name chosen in honour of Mr. Robinson was suggested by the City of Peterborough in Northhamptonshire, England, which was anciently called "Medehamstede," or the Dwelling in the Meadow. About this time the government stood the price of a grist mill erected on the property of the late John Hall, passing afterwards to the late Judge Hall, then to the late Samuel Dickson. This was the origiual site of the late Dickson dam replaced in 1904 by the Cereal Company's dam. This gave the first fillip to the growth of the village, a growth and prosperity that have continued unabated to the present day.

In 1827 the first considerable shop was opened by John Brown of Port Hope. At this time property was cheap and a half-acre lot could be bought for an equivalent of $30, which would now bring that much per foot, and in some cases three times as much. A building boom—or, what was then regarded as such—resulted in the building of twenty new frame houses, among which was the first school house on the site now occupied by the Collegiate Institute Gymnasium.

The first physician to settle in Peterborough was Dr. Dowsley, 1830, and three years later the first law office was opened by the late Elias Burnham.

At this time Water street was the chief residential neighborhood. Jas. B. Ferguson was the first postmaster, occupying a building 10 x 16 feet—about the size of the lobby of the present post office—and the citizens were proud of having a weekly mail. About this time steamers began to ply between Rice Lake and Peterborough. In 1833 the egg of the Trent Canal was set to hatch by A. H. Baird, C.E., who made a survey of the Otonabee waters and thus laid the foundation of the Trent waterway. In 1834 Governor Sir John Colborne visited the village and the same year the erection of St. John's and St. Andrew's churches was begun, Rev. S. Armour and Rev. J. M. Roger being the first rector and minister respectively of the two churches. Next year, the little frame Roman Catholic church on Hunter street having been burned, the erection of the present church at the head of that street was begun by Rev. Father Butler. In 1837, the first newspaper, "The Backwoodsman and Peterborough Sentinel," was established by John Darcus.

Seventy years ago the only passable roads were George and Hunter streets and the western portion of Sherbrooke street. At this time the village industries consisted of two grist mills, two saw mills, two distilleries—whiskey was a necessity of life in those days—and one tannery. There were four churches and a grammar school—conducted in a log building. In 1841, the Court House of the then Colborne district was completed, the corner stone having been laid by Governor Sir George Arthur, Aug. 25th, 1838, at 7.30 a.m.! About the year 1843 the Bank of Montreal was opened in Peterborough, the late Mr. Robt. Nicholls being the first manager. The first Methodist church of considerable size was erected in 1844 on George street to replace a small church built ten years previously, and the following year the Baptist church on Aylmer street was built, with Rev. John Gilmour its first pastor.

In 1847, the year of the Irish famine, the people of Peterborough began to show signs of that railway hunger which has since been appeased by the magnificent railway system we now possess. A meeting was held in the Court House, but nothing came of it at that time.

Peterborough Becomes a Town

The year 1850 marked an important era in the history of Peterborough. In January of that year the act incorporating it as a town took effect, and the late Thomas Benson was its first mayor. The town received thereby a new impetus to development, and the corner stone of the first Town Hall was laid the following year, and was attended with much rejoicing and a public dinner. The projects for railway connection were revived and continued with intermittent earnestness and indifferent success till 1856 when the Cobourg and Peterborough railway was opened for the brief run of four years, from 1856 to 1860. But in 1858 the extension of the Port Hope and Lindsay railway to Peterborough gave this town its first permanent railway connection, a beginning which has resulted in giving Peterborough six lines of ingress and egress by rail.

In 1851 the Roman Catholic Separate School was established, and in 1854 a frame building was erected upon the present site of the Convent. In the following year the Burnham business block was erected, the Commercial Bank established with the late Wm. Cluxton as manager; and in 1853 the Bible Christian church (now Murray street Baptist) was built.

Educational interests seem to have received an impetus from the formation of a United Board of Common and Grammar School Trustees in 1854, and this was followed a few years afterwards, in 1860, by the erection of the fine pile of buildings now known as the Union School Buildings, facing Victoria Park. This building was a monument to the liberality and public spirit of the citizens of that time, when the population was not greater than four thousand and the assessed valuation of the town a little over one million, as contrasted with the present population of 14,300 and total assessed valuation of nearly six millions. In that year the luxury of a daily mail was first enjoyed by Peterborough. In 1833 Peterborough counted a weekly mail service as a big boon; in 1854 she rejoiced over a daily mail; to-day we have, counting outgoing and incoming mails, railway and rural, an average hourly mail service—one mail for every sixty minutes of the day.

The year 1856 was a rather important year for Peterborough. A number of handsome business blocks were erected by P. Ryan, W. Cluxton, James Stevenson, T. Bradburn, D. McFarlane, J. T. Henthorne and others, and the Bank of Toronto was established with Mr. Jas. T. Hall first manager. The year following St. Andrew's congregation was divided, and two years later St. Paul's church was erected. In 1858 Ashburnham received village incorporation, which lasted until 1903, when the village was united with the town and now forms part of the city of Peterborough.

The year 1860 was marked by two great events of contrasting character. The Prince of Wales, now our King, visited our town, and the town was also visited by the only large and calamitous fire in its history, when the square enclosed by George, Hunter, Simcoe and Water streets was swept clean almost of the thirty or so buildings that covered it. This may have been a blessing in disguise, for the energy of the citizens soon replaced the burnt buildings with new, substantial and beautiful structures, many of which are ornaments of the business district to-day; and this calamity doubtless led to the organization in Nov., 1862, of a fire brigade, and since that time no large fire has devastated Peterborough.

The progress of the town in later years is a matter of familiarity to most of the residents. In the early sixties it may be said to have only fairly emerged from its embryonic conditions. With the establishment of railway facilities and the establishment of manufacturing industries the town entered upon her developmental condition, and since that time her progress has been rapid in population and commercial and industrial importance.

In 1832 the population was close upon 500; in the next ten years it doubled; and upon the incorporation of the town in 1850, the population had reached 1800. Three years later, when the census was taken, it was 2191; ten years later—1862—it was 3840. In 1868 the population counted 4858, and in 1878 there was an advance to 6992, five years later to 8048, and in 1888 the population was 8989, and with Ashburnham included it was nearly 11,000. Thus, many years ago Peterborough had a population that entitled it to be incorporated into a city and, even at that time—seventeen years ago—city incorporation was suggestively discussed.

Peterborough and its Situation.

The city of Peterborough is situated upon the Otonabee river, a splendid stream draining an immense watershed to the north; about thirty miles north of Lake Ontario at Port Hope, eighty miles east of Toronto, and three hundred miles west of Montreal, in the midst of a splendid agricultural country of great fertility, and the homes of thousands of thrifty, well-to-do farmers. The site of the city partakes the general physical feature of the surrounding country, which cannot be described as hilly but gently undulating. The location of the city proper can be compared to a large shallow cup, the rim of which is formed by the encircling hills, which enclose the city on three sides, the south being an expanse of open, formed by the widening valley of the Otonabee river, while the stream cuts through lofty hills which rise steeply on either bank in the northern part of the city, which is further divided by a small tributary stream called "Hamilton's Creek," which empties into Little Lake, a beautiful sheet of water in the south-eastern part of the city, into which the river expands, forming a delightful boating spot. Altogether the city is beautifully situated, and in the construction of its public buildings and residences the natural opportunities for effective adornment have been utilized to the fullest extent.

The chief business district of the city is composed of George, Hunter, Water, Simcoe and Charlotte streets. In the business centre these streets are fronted by magnificent shops and business buildings. These buildings in their size, solidity and architectual beauty are superior to those of any of the minor cities of Canada. These shops are undeniably handsome, the interior corresponding to the outside appearance, the merchants constantly vieing with each other in beautifying their business homes, and the combined result is conspicuously effective.

In the outskirts are placed the buildings of the large number of manufacturing establishments which make Peterborough so important a manufacturing centre, some of them being the largest and most important industrial concerns of their kind in Canada.

The residence portion of the city feels the effect of the same æsthetic spirit of rivalry. Consequently we find the residence district studded with beautiful homes, nearly all, from the humblest to the stateliest, with trim, well-kept lawns, shaded by beautiful trees that embower the streets, giving grateful shade and beauty, and it is admitted that no city in Canada is so plentifully and effectively provided with trees as Peterborough. Each resident seems to try to surpass his neighbor in adding to the beauty and attractiveness of his home and, as everybody's

A LEADING characteristic which has marked the life of Peterborough in the past, invigorates the present and promises to mark its future history, is a steady, rapid and healthy progressiveness. Its commercial importance, its industrial, ecclesiastical, educational and social standing have advanced in step with its increase in population, and to-day the city of Peterborough in these respects stands among the first of the minor cities of the Dominion. It keeps and has kept level and abreast with the uplift and progress of this stirring age, and the soundness of its financial standing, the happy conbination of the spirit of prudence and push shown by the people in their industrial and commercial enterprises, the manifest determination of all classes—commercial and patron, capitalistic and labouring—to keep the front rank in the march of progress, not only in material things, but in matters of a more aesthetic nature, affecting the beauty and attractiveness of the town, must continue to yield the results which have attended these conditions in the past. The extent and importance of its developed and available resources, the unsurpassed conveniences of its transportation facilities are warrants for confidently assuming that the city of Peterborough will never lose, but on the contrary largely gain upon the advanced position she now holds in relation to the other junior cities of the Dominion. Peterborough enters cityhood under the most favourable conditions. May she grow and flourish.

neighbour seems to be a hard man to beat, the result may be imagined.

Scattered throughout the city are several parks and park reserves, some at present beautified to the highest point and others in a state of transformation. Even the little triangular spaces formed by the intersection of certain streets meeting others at acute angle, are planted with trees and put down to sward as beauty spots and resting places for pedestrians.

The streets of the city are broad and straight. All the principal thoroughfares are provided with granolithic pavements, there being many miles of this pavement in the city, with the addition of many miles every season. Mud as it is met elsewhere is an unknown quantity in Peterborough except during a few of the transition days between autumn and winter and winter and spring; the subsoil is of porous gravel and water from rains is speedily absorbed.

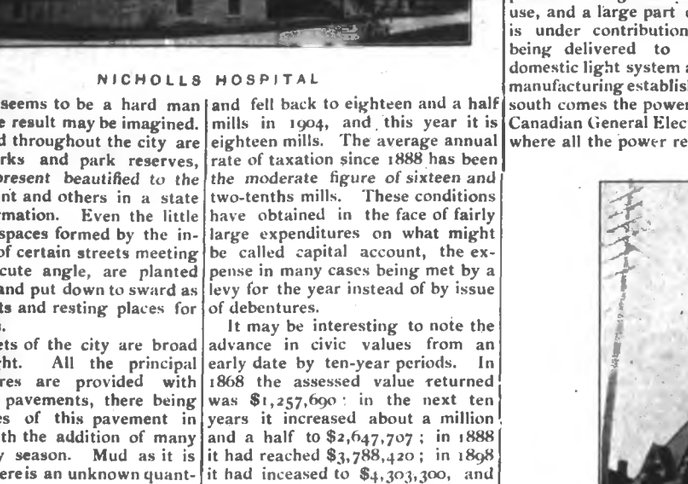
The city of Peterborough in point of beauty and salubrity of site excellence and extent of buildings, public and private, fine residences, well-built and tidy streets, and general attractiveness and solidity is unsurpassed by any of the minor cities of the Dominion.

From what we know of the conditions of the town, the extent, magnitude and excellence of its civic conveniences, it is a matter of congratulation that this has been accomplished by a low rate of taxation and without any serious or inconvenient burden of indebtedness. For a city of the resources of Peterborough, with an assessed valuation of nearly six millions, the indebtedness is not a serious item. The total debenture liability of the town is $657,186.65, about one-tenth of the assessed valuation. But this amount can very properly be reduced to $410,186.65, by the deduction of the Waterworks Purchase Debenture account, amounting to $247,000, which will be taken up by the profits from the works, which are sufficient to not only wipe out the purchase indebtedness, but also to leave a fair balance to be turned into the general funds of the city. And to further minimize our indebtedness, there is an available surplus for sinking fund, in the Commissioner's hands, of $43,314.26. Therefore, all things considered, the financial position of the city is very fair, especially in comparison with other minor cities. And withal, the rate of taxation has, during the whole history of the town, been reasonable. From 1874 to 1888, the average rate of taxation, including, of course, school rates, was only twelve and four-tenth mills on the dollar. But the growing needs of the town calling for an increased expenditure with an increase of population from 8989 (excluding Ashburnham) in 1888, to 14,300 in 1905, naturally accounts for an advance in cost of civic government. In 1888 the rate was twelve and four-tenths mills on the dollar, next year it increased to thirteen and six-tenths, and in 1893 it reached seventeen mills, where it remained till 1900 inclusive, except in 1895 when it was 16 mills. The rate reached nineteen mills in 1903 and fell back to eighteen and a half mills in 1904, and this year it is eighteen mills. The average annual rate of taxation since 1888 has been the moderate figure of sixteen and two-tenths mills. These conditions have obtained in the face of fairly large expenditures on what might be called capital account, the expense in many cases being met by a levy for the year instead of by issue of debentures.

It may be interesting to note the advance in civic values from an early date by ten-year periods. In 1868 the assessed value returned was $1,257,690; in the next ten years it increased about a million and a half to $2,647,707; in 1888 it had reached $3,788,420; in 1898 it had inceased to $4,303,300, and last year the total was $5,876,264. For these four decennial periods the returned assessed values showed an average increase of one million in every ten years; but it is to be noted that the increase of the assessed value was greater in the six years from 1898 to 1904 by several hundred thousand dollars than in any of the preceding ten-year periods, showing to what a degree the town is growing and, judging by the activity of building operations, the next return of the assessors' roll will present an unprecedented showing of increased values.

Peterborough's Power Possibilities

Closely allied with the good financial standing and prospects of the city is the question of its future growth, with which, of course, is intimately associated as an important item of her great resources, her unequalled manufacturing facilities.



PETERBOROUGH CHURCHES

The situation of Peterborough on both banks of the Otonabee river, and the conformity of its enclosing banks, give a practically inexhaustible supply of water power, enough to supply motive energy to hundreds of manufacturing industries. From Lakefield, nine miles north of Peterborough, to where the Otonabee enters Little Lake, there is effective water power the whole distance, the difference in level between the two points being one hundred and fifty-five feet. The canalization of the the river has made available for use an immense quantity of power. The developed water power at present is not directly employed at all for manufacturing purposes, except in the case of the waterworks pumping plant which is operated directly by water power, but for the development of electricity. Beginning at the north and taking the first dam whose electrical energy is used by Peterborough, we have the Otonabee Power Company's plant, consisting of an excellent dam and development plant, capable of generating two thousand five hundred horse power for light and commericial use, and a large part of this power is under contribution at present, being delivered to an excellent domestic light system and to various manufacturing establishments. Next south comes the power plant of the Canadian General Electric Company where all the power required for its immense works in the southern part of the city, among the largest and most important of their kind upon the continent is generated 2,500 horse power is available. Further south is situated the dam of the Peterborough Water Works, where potential motive energy of one thousand horse power is available, and more power will be available. It is to be borne in mind that when the proposed improvements in the reservoir dams of the northern region permitting more effective conservation of the waters, are fully carried out, the amount of power to be developed will be largely increased. As a matter of fact the amount of power now used is ten thousand horse power, and the total quantity capable of development under existing conditions is nineteen thousand five hundred horse power and with the increased capacity produced by proper conservation of the waters the potential power energy tributary to Peterborough will be increased to thirty-nine thousand five hundred horse power. At present there is no place in Canada with a supply of as much and as cheap power, the present price being $15. In view of these facts, the desirability and adaptability of Peterborough as a location for manufacturers seeking economical and permanent power, are self evident.

POST OFFICE

One circumstance which gives greater values to our power facilities is the possession of first-class railway transportation facilities. The chief railway lines are so situated in relation to existing and available sites for manufacturers that every industry on both sides of the river and in the city is now—and new ones can be—supplied with railway sidings so that both their raw material and finished products can brought to or sent from, their very doors by rail. It is computed that there are about ten miles of railway siding serving manufacturing establishments in the city.

Unrivalled Railway Advantages

One of the most potent factors in the prosperity of Peterborough are the magnificent railway facilities which she possesses in a degree enjoyed by few urban communities in Canada, a proof of their importance being afforded by the fact that Peterborough's substantial progress dates from her first railway communication. This was but a small and unimportant beginning which would be regarded in these days with good natured contempt, in comparison with the splendid lines now converging in the city. This was the Peterborough and Cobourg railway, but its career of usefulness was short—only four years,—though in its history it carried royalty across the unsubstantial piers of Rice Lake, which succumbed to the ice at last. In 1857 the Port Hope and Lindsay railway was extended to Peterborough, and continued to Lakefield in 1868. In 1878 the Midland railway came under the management of Geo. A. Cox, and, under his energetic direction, the road, from being a helpless railway wreck, became a thriving railway system, which for nearly a quarter of a century has well served the interests of Peterborough. In 1883 the line was extended to Omemee, giving direct connection with a railway system tapping the shipping resources of the rich farming and timber country to the north and northwest of Peterborough. Still another advance step was taken by the construction of the Ontario and Quebec branch of the C.P.R., a line giving direct connection with the east and west, thus placing Peterborough on the lines of two great transcontinental railway systems.

The importance of Peterborough as a railway centre is further attested by the fact that the two great railways in this city have the handsomest and best appointed station buildings and freight depots in the country outside of the larger cities. The Grand Trunk station building is a large two-storey structure of white brick. The C.P.R. station is also a handsome building of white brick pointed in red with slate roofing. This line has also ample

"Sweetness and light," are characteristic of Peterborough's relations to her water and light supplies. While we can boast of one of the best water works systems in the country, no other place can compare with the facilities for electric lighting which we possess, whether reference be had to its quality or its price. The two electric light companies in Peterborough furnish the best and cheapest light in the Dominion. The Peterborough Light and Power Company, and the Otonabee Power Company, have each its own development dam, and a perfectly equipped plant, consisting of powerful dynamos, and a feature of them is that, in both cases, the plant and machinery are entirely home made, the cement for the dams being made in the vicinity, and the splendid machinery is the product of the Canadian General Electric Works, one of the most important industries of the city—or country. The current of electricity produced is strong and uniformly continuous, and, therefore, the light is brilliant and steady. With its excellence, the light for street lighting and domestic use is available at a most reasonable price. The result is that there is not a city or town in Canada, better lighted, either as to streets or power, than is the city of Peterborough. The rivalry of competing companies leads to a contest of liberality in dealing with the public. The result is that our homes are beautifully illuminated, and as a free verandah or front door lamp is included in the lighting contracts, in consequence the streets of the city are as light by night almost as by day. In certain quarters the abundant foliage of the trees tends to obscure the street lamps, but the outside lights of the houses make abundant compensation. The Peterborough Light and Power Company also conducts illuminating gas works, but their product is almost entirely absorbed for domestic culinary purposes.

Educational Institutions.

The importance of the educational institutions of Peterborough may be approximately judged from the fact of the large investments made in school buildings and equipment, and the large tax the people impose upon themselves annually for the maintenance of our schools. The Boards of Education, both the united Boards of the Public and High Schools, and the Separate School Board, are composed of gentlemen, representing our most successful business enterprises, men who have a broad conception of the importance of educational facilities as shown by the care they exercise to employ only the best teaching ability, and in the procuring of the best of modern buildings and equipment, and consequently the highest quality of local educational advantages.

The present Collegiate Institute building is situated on Murray street, opposite Victoria Park and has in the past admirably served its purpose. The staff, consisting of eight teachers, is thoroughly capable, as to technical qualification, and possessed of a professional esprit de corps and ambitions for the best results. While the staff is quite up to modern requirements, the growth of the school population creates a demand for larger and better equipped buildings, and makes the provision for a new Collegiate Institute building a necessity. As referred to previously, a portion of Central Park has been secured for the site of a new building, elaborate plans have been prepared, and it is hoped that soon a Collegiate building worthy of the city, and of the interests it will serve, will be an accomplished fact.

The Public schools, so far as they go, are excellently adapted to their uses, but the growth of the population is so rapid that immediate extension is imperative.

We have at present five large public school buildings, one in each ward, and a leased structure, to provide temporarily for overflow accommodation.

The Separate Schools established in 1878 are all in a state of excellent efficiency. The chief school building was situated on Murray street, but the grounds on which it stood were disposed of for a site for the Armouries building and a new Separate School building of most substantial and elegant character is in course of construction at the head of Little Brock street. The Convent school (for girls) in connection with St. Peter's Cathedral. A recently constructed new building on Lake street completes the excellent school equipment of the Separate Schools.

The Peterborough Business College, occupying an upper floor of the Bank of Montreal building, is a well established and flourishing educational institution, admirably and successfully conducted by its proprietor, Mr. Wm. Pringle. The charming accommodation and equipment are of the best, and the staff is thoroughly competent for instruction in the general branches of a business education, penmanship, telegraphy, short hand, typewriting, etc. A number of the excellence of the Business College is the large continuous attendance from all parts of the district.

The Peterborough Conservatory of Music, established this year is a very creditable and efficient institution of its kind, of which Mr. Rupert Gliddon is the director. It has a beautiful building on the corner of Hunter and Rubidge streets, and a strong staff of thoroughly qualified teachers in the several branches of a musical education.

Under educational institutions may be properly classed the Public Library, established in 1868. Its local habitation is Water street. Its shelves are furnished with several thousand volumes of books, and in connection is a well furnished reading room for men and a separate reading room for women.

Besides the foregoing there are several private schools in the town, so that altogether the educational advantages of Peterborough are of a very complete and comprehensive character.

Churches and Church Buildings.

There is abundant evidence of the Christian enterprise of the people of Peterborough in the existence of numerous churches, there being about fifteen churches of different denominations—one to every thousand of the inhabitants. Nearly all the churches are in excellent state of preservation and nearly all are well equipped with the necessary accessories to worship, organs and other essential ecclesiastic equipments. Considered in order of erection the existing structures are as below:

The first church erected in Peterborough was the English Church of St. Johns, in 1834, and thoroughly restored in 1882—especially the interior which in its present condition is regarded as the "most church like church" in the province. St. Johns church is "set on a hill," on beautiful grounds embracing a view of the surrounding country and directly facing the beautiful valley of the Otonabee, the vista closed to the south by the blue hills of Northumberland. The church occupies the central part of the rectory lands bounded by Brock, Water and Hunter streets and Sheridan Terrace, the revenue derived from the rentals of the buildings forming the Rector's living. A fine new school house is placed next west of the church and funds are available and plans are prepared for the building of a new Rectory on the north-west corner of the grounds.

St. Andrew's church—the original—was built at the head of Brock street, on lands granted by the Crown, in 1835. The original church like the religion of those days was very plain. Exactly half a century afterwards the beautiful new church now standing was completed. Alongside the church is a large school room and on the opposite side of the church square stands the manse.

The original of the Roman Catholic Cathedral church of St. Peters was built in 1857-58 at a cost of $12,000. In 1882 it became the Cathedral Church of the new Diocese of Peterborough of which Rt. Rev. John Francis Jamot, D.D., was first Bishop, taking possession of his see with due pomp and ceremony, Sept. 21st, 1882. Four years later the church building was elaborately restored at a cost of about $16,000. During succeeding years improvements were continued, the church was beautifully decorated within, provided with new seating in oak and electric lights added. The grounds were beautified, decorated with a fountain and are now a beautiful spot kept in excellent order. The new parsonage Hall residence at the head of Hall street and next west a fine structure abaded with stately trees was purchased and fitted for the Episcopal palace.

In the year 1845, the Baptists erected a modest church on Aylmer street, which the congregation very speedily outgrew. In 1883 when Methodist Union was effected, the Bible Christian Church, on Aylmer street, erected in 1874, was purchased and by continuous improvement to the present day, it stands a fine church structure, complete in all ways, standing on beautiful grounds.

In 1859, St. Paul's Church, corner of Murray and Water streets, was erected. It is a large structure, 50 x 90 feet, with an annex for Sunday School and church offices, in the rear is ampitheatrical in form. The church was handsomely restored in 1885 and is now complete in all its interior appointments, provided with a fine organ, so that within and without the church with its soaring spire, has a fine and imposing appearance, the fact of the main entrance facing Victoria Park in no way detracting from its general imposing appearance.

The Methodist church secured an early footing in Peterborough, the first place of worship having been built on the west side of George street. The growth of the congregation required the enlargement of the church every ten years for forty years. In 1914-5, the present handsome George Street Church was erected, a beautiful structure substantially built in Gothic style, at a cost of about $50,000. This church has one of the largest auditoriums in the city, needed for the use of one of the largest congregations. Upon the church plot which runs through from George to Water streets on McDonel street, and facing Water street is a handsome parsonage.

The Charlotte Street Methodist Church was erected in 1874 and enlarged and improved in 1883. Its exterior is not pretentious as to appearance but its interior is excellently finished and furnished. To the south is a large Sunday School-room, at present undergoing reconstruction and enlargement, and south of that an excellent and commodious parsonage stands in its own grounds.

In 1876 St. Luke's Anglican Church in the fifth ward, was constructed, and subsequently improved and enlarged, a handsome school house having been added in 1886. Alongside of the church, to the south an elegant and commodious rectory is placed. This church also occupies a lofty position and commands a fine outlook.

The Mark Street Methodist church was acquired at the time of Methodist union in 1883. It has since been greatly improved and is provided with an excellent parsonage adjoining the church on the south.

The Bethany Tabernacle on George street was erected several years ago and is a fine and substantially built structure.

All Saints' Anglican Church, corner of Sherbrooke and Rubidge streets, has been in a state of transition since its erection about ten years ago, that is, the growth of the church's interests and congregation has made enlargement and addition necessary and new plans have been prepared for building a practically new church, for which the present structure will be a transept. The congregation is in a flourishing condition and represents in this regard the rapid development of that part of the city.

The Park Street Baptist Church is in a similar condition. Though only built a few years ago, the growth of the congregation has been so great that the proposal to build a new church has taken definite and concrete form. This is the most southern church in the city at present.

Two years ago, Knox Presbyterian Church in the south ward, was erected as a mission church, and this year it was erected into an independent church, though still in partial affiliation with St. Paul's, the parent congregation. It is a fine structure and another evidence of the rapid growth of the southern part of the city.

Besides the regular churches, there are several evangelical associations and special gospel services held in private halls, etc. The First Church of Christ Scientist, conducts its peculiar services in the old Baptist church, Aylmer street.

The Salvation Army is now firmly established in Peterborough, and has recently been adding to its importance, being now one of the most important stations in the country, and having one of the best musical bands. The barracks on Simcoe street, is a large and substantial building, and was erected in 1888.

The semi-religious institutions are also well represented in Peterborough. The Young Men's Christian Association Building, corner of Murray and Brock streets, is a fine structure, thoroughly well equipped in every way for ministering to the moral, mental and physical requirements of its large and increasing membership.

The Young Women's Christian Association Building, corner of Simcoe and Aylmer streets, is a beautiful and elaborate building, opened this year. It is an ornament to the public buildings of the town; without, and within, it is well furnished and equipped for meeting adequately the demands of the special purpose of its erection and maintenance.

In all respects, so far as the material requirements associated with religious life and moral culture, are concerned, the city of Peterborough is excellently equipped, and, generally, the morals of the town are, outwardly at least, satisfactory: for a city of 15,000 which has a police force of only four men, cannot be said to be openly wanting in good conduct.

Newspapers of Peterborough.

Peterborough bears with credit the highest test of civilization — the character of her newspapers. The journals of the city consist of six newspaper publications, three daily and three weekly.

HYDRAULIC LIFT LOCK AT PETERBOROUGH.

The Peterborough Evening and Weekly Examiner, owned and published by Hon. J. R. Stratton, are the oldest, as they are the leading, newspapers of the city. The Examiner was established in 1847 as "The Dispatch," Mr. Augustus Sawers in 1856, giving it its present name. The paper passed successively into the hands of Messrs. Graham & Renfrew, and the late James Stratton, for many years collector of customs, and father of the present proprietor, who assumed possession and management of the Examiner in 1877, and has since conducted it. In 1882, November 2nd, the Weekly was enlarged, and in June of 1883, the Daily edition was established. The Daily has been frequently enlarged: it is now an eight page seven column paper, enlarged to twelve pages on Saturday, and on other occasions when pressure of matter demands such an enlargement. The Weekly is a sixteen page seven column paper. Both papers are printed on a Duplex perfecting press. Connected with the Examiner is a large job-printing department, with six electric presses, and a large and well-equipped bookbinding and box-making establishment is conducted. The Examiner is Liberal in politics.

The Peterborough Daily and Weekly Review was founded by the late Hon. Thos. White and Richard Romaine in 1853, afterwards passing into the hands of T. and R. White, by whom it was transferred to a joint stock company. The business is now conducted by the Review Printing and Publishing Company. The Daily Review is a seven column 4x to eight page journal, enlarged to twelve pages on Saturdays, and the Weekly consists of twelve pages, of seven columns each. A job-printing department, and bindery, are also conducted. The Review is Conservative in politics.

The Peterborough Times, Daily and Weekly, has since 1866 been the only morning newspaper published in any town in Canada, and is the only morning paper between Ottawa and Toronto. The Weekly edition was established in 1872, and the Daily in 1885. The Times is neutral in politics, and conducted by the Times Printing Company.

There are also two or three church periodicals and society journals published in the city.

It may be said of the newspapers of Peterborough that while abreast of other journals in giving full supplies of general news matter, they are far ahead of journals published in other places in the attention devoted to local news, especial prominence being given to church intelligence, a tribute to the moral tone or perception of the journals themselves and the moral appetites of the reading constituency they serve. While there exists keen business rivalry and keen competition in news gathering among the several newspapers, it is to their credit that they do not indulge in those journalistic and petty carpings that retain the stamp of suralism upon the daily papers in towns and even some cities. The commendable rivalry as to which will best serve the public interests and best promote the interests of the city is a characteristic of Peterborough newspapers, and their prosperity, energy and enterprise are a reflex of the constituency they serve.

Banks and Financial Institutions.

The importance of Peterborough as a commercial and industrial standing is indicated by the number of her banking and financial institutions and the extent of their operations. These may be briefly indicated in the order of time of establishment, as follows, with the premise, however, that they are branches of the soundest banks in Canada or on the continent:—

The Bank of Montreal was established in Peterborough in 1843 and the late Robert Nicholls was the first agent. The bank occupies its own buildings, (exclusively devoted to its own use) on the corner of Water and Simcoe streets, erected in 1858 at a cost of $12,000. Mr. K. Hardley-Wilmot is the manager.

The Bank of Toronto was established in 1858. The late Sheriff Hall was the first agent. The offices of this bank are on the corner of George and Hunter streets. A savings department was added in 1886. Mr. Peter Campbell is the resident manager.

The Ontario Bank which has also a savings department, was established in 1866. Its offices which have been recently splendidly fitted up and greatly enlarged, considered to be among the best in Ontario, are at the corner of Water and Simcoe streets. Mr. John Crane is the resident manager.

The Canadian Bank of Commerce opened offices in Peterborough in 1870. Its offices of unusual elegance and completness occupy the corner (Water and Hunter) of the handsome business block to which they give a name. Mr. D. Hughes Charles is the present manager.

The Bank of Nova Scotia was established in Peterborough this year, and occupies offices in the town buildings, under the clock tower, corner of Charlotte and George streets. Mr. E. T. Hammitt, is the manager.

The Bank of Ottawa opens its doors for business on July 3rd, 1905, in finely furnished and equipped offices at 403 George street. Mr. A. A. Hollingshead is the manager.

The Toronto Savings and Loan Company, a strong and reliable financial institution, has its head office at 457 George street. It conducts a loan business on a real estate basis, and a savings department and debenture loan business, and has business affiliations with the Central Canada Savings and Loan Company. Mr. W. G. Morrow is managing director.

Hospitals and Charities.

Nicholls Hospital, a beautiful and completely constructed building, with reference to its special purposes, is the gift, together with a liberal maintenance endowment, of the late Mrs. Nicholls. The amount required, over the endowment proceeds for maintenance, is contributed by a levy upon the Protestant ratepayers of the town, aided by the usual Government grant. The building is of the Queen Anne style of architecture, three stories in height, 43 x 100 feet, and thoroughly equipped in every department, and surrounded with fine grounds. The situation is high, dry and wholesome. The town physicians, in monthly relays, give their service gratuitously, except to pay patients.

St. Joseph's Hospital, under the control of the Bishop of Peterborough, and the Sisterhood of St. Joseph, the latter serving as nurses, is supported by voluntary contributions. The building, which occupies a beautiful elevated and salubrious site on the east side of the river, is in Gothic style, with 10 1-2 feet ceilings, is 60 x 99 feet, and three stories. This hospital is open to all classes of suffering humanity.

A connected charity is the House of Providence, a substantial and well equipped building, standing upon the same grounds as the hospital, and is devoted to the care of the destitute aged.

The Protestant Home was established in 1856, and the building used is on Stewart street. The funds are furnished by donations and a Government grant. Relief and a home are given aged and destitute persons of both sexes.

St. Vincent de Paul Society in connection with St. Peter's cathedral, was organized in 1873.

While not coming under the head of a charity, except in the very broadest sense, Hazel Brae, the chief branch in Canada of Dr. Barnardo's Homes, is situated in the northern part of the town. The building occupies ample grounds, was the gift of Hon. Senator and the late Mrs. Cox. Hazel Brae is the distributing home for the girls sent out from the parent homes in London, Eng. Hazel Brae is also open to the admission of destitute Canadian children.

The Children's Shelter on Charlotte street, in connection with the work of the Children's Aid Society, which does a splendid work in the city as well as county at large, furnishes a temporary home for neglected and dependent children, which circumstances and the course of the law pleas in the custody of the society—pending their distribution to foster homes.

Miscellaneous.

The Court House, Jail and general County Buildings are situated upon Victoria Park. They are solidly and well planned. Alongside the Court House pile are situate the Registry Office and office of the County Court Clerk.

The Post Office building on the corner of Hunter and Water streets is of the usual model of such buildings. It was erected in 1885-7 at a cost of over $30,000. It is none too large for the needs of the town, in fact not large enough, for improvements are now going forward to increase the postal facilities.

The Customs Buildings and Inland Revenue Offices are situated at the corner of George and Charlotte streets.

To meet the demands of the taste of the citizens in the way of flowers, there are three or four large florist establishments whose extensive capacity is taxed to the utmost to meet the demands. These are the green houses of Mr. G. M. Roger, at the head of London street on the western part of the town, established 1879; those of Mr. Frank Mason corner Water and Brock streets, established in 1873; those of Mr. Joseph Cobb, corner of Aylmer and London streets; those of Messrs. Jordan Bros., Argyle street. All these do a business which flourishes like their flowers.

The amusement interests are not by any means neglected. Nicholls Oval as mentioned, presents a splendid field for sports, and Riverside Park is another spot devoted largely to sports such as lacrosse and baseball. The Driving Park in the southern part of the city contains seventeen acres under lease to the Turf Club. It is provided with perhaps the best half mile track in Canada, and the enclosure is levelled and grassed suitable for the use of sporting organizations

Brookside Bowling Green is a splendid piece of turf, electric lighted for night games and a flourishing Club enjoys great sport there.

The Curling Rink on Charlotte street is capable of playing a large number of rinks, and is the scene of many a roaring bonspiel.

The Hockey Rink owned and operated by a company is one of the finest rinks in the province, both as to its ice space and first-class equipment.

A splendid new Opera House, or Academy of Music is under construction on George street, south of Charlotte, and will be a fine addition to the amusement resources of the town

Electrically Operated Conveniences.

Peterborough being the home of electric development and electrical appliances it is to be expected that her facilities dependent upon the use of such a force should be in keeping.

The Street Railway, owned and operated by the Peterborough Radial Railway Company is an excellently conducted and well patronized concern. There are now laid and in use six miles of track serving both railway stations, the steamer landings and the principal parks of the town.

There is a well-managed exchange of the Bell Telephone Company in town, with 700 telephones in use. The town system covers about 15 square miles. There are in addition important extensions, with free service to subscribers, into the rural districts, reaching Springville, Fraserville, Indian River, Douro and Fowler's Corners. There are in addition many long distance telephone connections, subject to a service charge, reaching Warsaw, McCracken's Landing, Burleigh Falls, Lakefield, Chemong and Keene. As to the long distance service proper, the Bell exchange in Peterborough does more business than any town or minor city of the population of Peterborough, in Canada, and the same largely applies to its domestic services. This is a tribute to the superior commercial and industrial activity of Peterborough.

For a long time the town sighed for competition in railway service, and hailed its acquisition as a boon. A few years ago Peterborough had its experience with a dual telephone system, when the Ontario Company operated a manual board system for three years. Last year the town granted a franchise to the Canadian Machine Telephone Company, and the then Mayor, in explaining his support of a competitive franchise, stated that the town had never had an efficient telephone service, before or since, as it had during the time two systems were in operation, and since the franchise (practically competitive) has been granted by the town, there has been much development in the local service, the number of subscribers being increased, and the line extended to rural districts, only a natural sequence of competition in the operation of any public utility.

Machine Telephone Company.

The novelty of the system being controlled by this company, and the revolution its advocates claim it will make in telephone methods, justify more than a passing reference, as it is the first that is being installed in any city or town in Canada.

Briefly stated, this system differs from the ordinary in that it is operated automatically, machines at the central office making the connections, instead of this duty being performed by operators. In this way an absolutely private or secret service is given. The system is the Lorimer system, and is the invention of Canadians, the Lorimer brothers, of Brantford.

As this is the first exchange of the Lorimer system to be installed, it is attracting much attention, and promises to be the centre of very wide-spread interest as soon as it is giving service.

The Canadian Machine Telephone Company, of which Mr. Robert Neill is president, and Mr. F. D. MacKay, formerly a resident here, is manager, has its head office and factory in Toronto, where the equipment for the Peterborough plant has been manufactured.

The Canadian Machine Telephone Company has made a departure in its outside construction, and one that might be imitated by all companies who use the streets for the stringing of wires. In the business district they have placed all the wires underground. To do this they have built about two miles of conduit, fibre pipes or tubes, in which the cables are installed. This work was done most expeditiously, and the streets left in a condition that called forth, and deserved, the highest commendation from all quarters.

In addition to this underground system in the business district, the company has built about 12 miles of aerial or pole lines. This construction has been first class in every particular. In the underground conduits and on the poles have been installed cables, these being manufactured by the Standard Underground Cable Co., of Pittsburg, Pa. These cables running into the Central office, carry lines for about 1100 subscribers, and the outside construction has been done throughout on this basis to allow of provision to meet expected growth and development at a mere nominal cost, and to avoid any necessity for disturbing the streets. With this in view also the underground system is provided with conduits that will allow the installation of cables for five or six thousand subscribers, without any excavation of the public highway. In this way the company has certainly demonstrated in a practical way its faith in its ability to supply service over the new system that will bring new subscribers and also indicates what its faith is in regard to Peterborough's future growth as a city.

The outside construction is done on the cable system as far as possible, the wires being run in lead-covered cables to terminal boxes on poles at central points throughout the city. From these boxes the lines are continued to the subscriber's residence or place of business, by open wires. These open wires are copper throughout. The work on the outside construction is now practically complete; and all that remains to be done is to place the drop wires to subscribers as instruments are installed.

The Company has had erected a central office building on Charlotte street not large nor pretentious as far as exterior is concerned, but specially adapted inside for the purposes of a telephone exchange. In this building which has steel and concrete floors, they have installed the electrical plant necessary for a central energy system, for such the new system is, there being no batteries in subscribers' telephones but all being supplied with current from the large battery at the Central office. This electrical equipment includes a storage battery plant, a Holtzer-Cabot special telephone motor-generator and ringing set and motors for the operating of the machine switches. The last of this electric equipment reached Peterborough three days ago and the work of completing, connecting and testing the

VISIT TO HOME OF "CANADA FLAKES"

Mills of Peterborough Cereal Company Now Present Scene of Great Activity---The Most Modern and Up-to-Date Cereal Manufacturing Plant in America Now in Full Swing---Large Orders Received From the Start---Cereal Section of the Mill Began Operations on Tuesday!

To the material dietetic necessities of mankind, Mother Ceres has, throughout the ages, been an ever generous, and oft-times lavish, caterer; and of no people, perhaps, have her choicest gifts been more abundantly yielded, than to her favoured subjects in Canada. Assisted by the disc-harrow, and the cultivator, she maintained her position even with the strenuousities of the nineteenth century. But, with the advent of the twentieth century—the age of sterilization, and "pre-digestion," of tablet coffee and Cascarets, we find our "Lady of the Snows," with very tender solicitude for the creature comforts of her loyal subjects, bringing to the assistance of her sister her inventive faculties, the two working in conjunction in the production of a food fit for the most fastidious palate of these exacting days — "Canada Flakes."

MR. W. G. FERGUSON

With the first whirr of the wheels on Tuesday last, of the machinery which will scatter broadcast over the fair Dominion, "Canada Flakes," there was commenced a new and important epoch in the manufacturing life of the town. There can be little doubt that the industry, which is yet, in but a comparatively early stage of its development, will assume in the near future, a supreme position in its own branch of the manufacturing life of the Dominion.

That such a prophecy is not made without ample justification, a look through the home of "Canada Flakes," can scarcely fail to demonstrate. The plant is of the most modern and up-to-date in every respect, which is in operation in the production of cereal foods in any part of the continent.

The plant which is situated on Simcoe street, is entirely new throughout. The flour mill, which forms a leading part of the industry, has been in operation for about six months, the machinery for the manufacture of cereal products, having been since installed, and was on Tuesday last operated for the first time. The first shipment was made on Tuesday, to Montreal, though for some time past the local trade has been supplied.

The grist mill section is situated upon the northern side of the buildings; at the Simcoe street, entrance to which, are the offices. A siding runs in from a spur-line to a point directly beneath the doors of the storehouse. This is most convenient in shipping operations, the cars being loaded speedily from a slide above.

The mill is a brick structure with a cement foundation. The dimensions of the main building are 40 x 124 feet. The four storey warehouse situated to the east, is 50 x 40 feet in size, while the chop-room, at the southern end of the building is three stories in height. In this is stored the bran and shorts.

It is the intention of the company in the near future to erect an elevator 40 x 50 feet in size, and with a capacity of 60,000 bushels, to the east of the warehouse. Another warehouse will also be added, the present one being entirely insufficient to meet the requirements. In this will be stored cereal supplies, boxes, etc. The capacity of the mill is 150 barrels daily.

The chop-room, in which is ground feed for shipment and for local trade is most convenient for farmers, as by the arrangements they are enabled to drive in upon the floor. In it, is a McLaughlin Grinder, driven by a 20 horse-power motor. Its capacity is 300 bags per 10 hour day.

A visit to the flour mill is decidedly interesting. The motive power for this is a 50 horse-power C. G. E. motor situated upon the ground floor, and transmitted to a main shaft, and thence to the different machines throughout the mill. The grain enters the mill upon the street floor, and by gravity goes to the cockle machine, and in progressive stages to the scourer, the brush machine and the bin. It here enters the elevators, and after passing through the first break-roll, to the plan-sifter in the attic, dropping by gravity to the second break, where it is further reduced. From here, it travels back to the plan-sifter, this process being repeated until four reductions have been made.

The middlings and flour made on each break, are taken off by a sifter, the unfinished product being sent on. After the fourth reduction, the large farino, or middlings, is gradually reduced in the same manner as the wheat, until all is reduced into flour. From each reduction roll, the product goes to a scalping section of the plan-sifter, the finished flour going to a packer, and the granular stock to the purifier. The tail from those sections enters a tailing roll to be finished into flour and feed.

Managing Director of Peterborough Cereal Company

This is done upon another section of the plan-sifter, the whole system being a gradual reduction of wheat, flour, bran, and shorts, the object being to take the inside of the wheat kernel in all its purity from the bran or outer covering without any heating of the flouring stock in the process.

Upon the third floor are situated the middlings purifiers, by means of which the impurities are eliminated from the partially finished product, by travelling air belts. All the dust and impure matter is collected within, no dust escaping into the mill. The collection from here is carried into the shorts dusters, where it is finished, the flour product going to "low grade" flour and the balance to feed.

In the attic is situated that wonderful piece of mechanism, the plan-sifter through which goes all the separations from the rolls, except the finishing roll. The reductions from these two machines together with the flour from the dust collector, and bran and shorts dusters, is handled on a Goldie & McCullough and Little Wonder mill. There are in all twenty-one elevators, all of which run to the attic.

There is also a travelling grain belt for the purpose of carrying grain from the flour mill cleaners to the cereal mill. Ample provision has been made for future improvements and additions. The wheat cleaning machine has a capacity for a 300-barrel mill; this enables the flour section to do the cleaning for the cereal mill. The machinery throughout the flour mill was installed by the Wm. and J. G. Greey Co., Toronto, and is satisfactory in every particular. The perfect cleanliness of the mill has been much remarked upon. The entire interior has been whitewashed, and presents an appearance outrivalling "Spotless Town." An Otis-Fensom three-ton elevator has been placed in the mill, serving the purposes of both sections.

The Cereal Mill.

In the cereal manufacturing section of the mill, its perfect mechanism commands the admiration of the visitor. To follow the process of manufacture requires many trips from ground floor to attic, but the result more than repays the visitor for the labour.

From the top story, in which the wheat is thoroughly cleaned, it enters, upon the floor below, the galvanized iron soaking-tanks by force of gravity. Upon the second floor are the steam cookers, which hold ten and twenty bushels, which are situated directly below the tanks. From here the wheat, when thoroughly cooked, enters a cooler, and thence into the cars, stationed below, upon the ground floor, where it is allowed to stand for 24 hours.

After this period, it is taken again to the top story by means of elevators, where it is placed in a "mixer."

Here is situated the laboratory, in which the different ingredients which are used in the "mixer" are prepared. After the "mixing" process is complete, the grain is placed in a hopper, from which it is conveyed to the third floor, where it is flaked.

The flakes drop upon the carrier belts, which convey them to the oven, which is in itself, a highly interesting piece of mechanism. Its dimensions are 28 feet long by 5 feet wide and 12 feet high, and in it are six steel wire belts, totalling in length 2,000 feet, over which pass the flakes. The oven is heated by innumerable gas jets, re-inforced by steam coils.

The food thoroughly cooked, enters the box machine upon the ground floor, and with regard to the perfect cleanliness throughout the system, it may be interesting to mention that the product is not touched by hand from start to finish in the process.

The finished product enters a feed bin, with a capacity of about 600 cases, and thence to the automatic filler, upon the third floor, where a staff of girls is busily engaged in boxing the product in the familiar packages. These each hold 10 ounces, one-third more than those of the other cereal package foods, and retail at 15 cents. A premium is inserted in each package, this at present being a silver spoon.

After the packages travel the length of a thirty foot table, with carrying belt, they are placed in cases ready for shipment, and removed to a store room, which will accommodate 2,000 cases. About twenty girls will be employed in the boxing room. There are at present about thirty employees in the flour mill. This number will be increased to about one hundred.

The plans are being prepared for the addition of the buildings required for the manufacturing of the other cereals, which will include shredded vegetables of various kinds.

As an illustration of the popularity which "Canada Flakes" has already attained it may be mentioned that upon the initial trip of the travellers, made last week, every grocery in town placed an order.

Mr. J. D. Bardeau, of Detroit, Mich., the originator of the breakfast food idea, has been in town for a number of days, and pronounces the plant of the Peterborough Cereal Company to be the most modern in operation in any part of the continent. Mr. Bardeau placed a number of the leading cereal foods of the day upon the market, and holds at present 23 different patents upon food machines and processes. He is at present conducting an experimental plant in Detroit, Mich., and was for a long time connected with Dr. Kellogg's Sanatorium at Battle Creek, Mich.

The mill throughout is under the management of Mr. W. H. Meldrum, Mr. W. H. Collier taking charge of the mechanical arrangements.

100,000 People.

There are a lot of people who have realised this year what modern bicycling is. There are also at least 100,000 who think they know, but who really do not know, what bicycling means today.

These people rode wheels five or ten years ago, when bicycling

was in its infancy. They stopped because they thought it too hard work, that the bicycle was hard on the arms, or was uncomfortable to ride on uneven roads, or was unreliable. It's a different proposition to-day.

The fact of the matter is that the bicycle is as far ahead of its predecessor of 1895 in point of safety, reliability, comfort and easy riding as a Pullman is over a freight caboose.

THE COASTER BRAKE has cut out one-quarter of the pedalling, and has made even mountain districts perfectly safe.

THE CUSHION FRAME has made all roads smooth by absorbing the vibrations. It adds hundreds [illegible] comfort.

THE SILAS HAMBLIN BAR takes the strain off the arms and absorbs the jarring of the front wheel.

FIRING ON THE CITY OF ODESSA

Rebel Sailors of Kniaz Potemkine Shot Several Times—Receive Reinforcements—Government Transport Crew Mutinies, Seize Their Officers and Join Crew on Kniaz Potemkine---Russian Sailors at Libau Mutiny, Seize Stores and Fire Into Officers' Quarters---Czar's Ukase.

London, June 30.—The Daily Mail this morning prints the following from its Odessa correspondents, received at 10.45 o'clock Thursday night.

"Using full charges, the Kniaz Potemkine opened fire on the city to-night.

"Large bodies of troops have arrived. It is reported that there are altogether 16,000 troops in Odessa."

Another Report.

London, June 30.—The Odessa correspondent of The Daily Telegraph in a despatch filed at 11.30 o'clock Thursday night says that the Kniaz Potemkine is firing on the town, and that Admiral Kruger's squadron is not in sight.

Burn a Steamer.

London, June 30.—The Daily Express prints this despatch from Odessa:

"A second mutinous warship is reported at Cape Fountain, ten miles from here. A transport with Russians from Port Arthur and a Russian steamer were held up by the Kniaz Potemkine at 5 o'clock and compelled to lie up under her guns for two hours.

"At 9 o'clock the rebels fired several shots at the suburb of Langeron, where there is a detachment of Cossacks. She then swung round until her guns pointed to the centre of Odessa and fired a blank cartridge.

"A steamer which the Kniaz Potemkine stopped was seen to burst into flames."

Fleet Just Started.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—A despatch which arrived here early this morning from Sebastopol announced that a squadron of battleships, the Tri Sviatitalia, Georgie and Rostislaw, with a cruiser and several torpedo boats, only started for Odessa at 6 o'clock last evening.

This explains the non-appearance of the squadron at Odessa; but it is difficult to conjecture the reasons for delaying departure two days at such a critical juncture.

Killed 22 Officers.

London, June 30.—The Odessa correspondent of The Daily Mail sends the following:

"Intermittent firing has been going on all day long. Artillery has arrived and is in hiding. The battleship landed fifteen men to attend the funeral of the sailor Ossilitchuk and threatened to bombard the town if any of them were arrested.

"The mutineers liberated nine officers, but killed twenty two.

"The port is an absolute ruin from Platowsk y Mole to the Russian Steamship Co.'s docks.

"People are only allowed in the proximity of the harbor by the guards when furnished with written permission from the commanding general.

"A telegram from Sebastopol says that the Kniaz Potemkine has only ammunition for small arms.

Czar Proclaims Martial Law.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—The Emperor has issued the following ukase addressed to the ruling senate:

"In order to guarantee public safety and to terminate the disorders at Odessa and neighboring localities we have found it necessary to declare a state of war in Odessa and district, and so invest the commander of the troops in the military district of Odessa with the rights of military authority and special rights of civil administration for the defence of order and public tranquility."

Ossilitchuk's Funeral.

Odessa, June 30.—A semblance of order has been restored here, but the situation is still critical. The central railway station was destroyed by fire last night, many persons being injured. The funeral of Ossilitchuk, which has just been held, became an imposing popular demonstration, but without disorder. A great procession, headed by priests, followed the body to military ceremony. The coffin, covered with the St. Andrew's flag, and with numerous wreaths, was carried by eight sailors. The populace is still in a revengeful mood. A bomb exploded last night in a private house, and several persons were injured.

Sensational accounts are current regarding Wednesday night's rioting. In the accounts it is stated that a thousand persons were killed. The troops faced a condition of complete anarchy, thousands of desperate incendiaries trying to set fire to every building. They adopted the sternest measures and employed machine guns against the mob.

Slaughter Again.

At 2 a. m. yesterday a large body of rioters tried to enter the central part of the town, and a terrific fusillade was kept up by both sides. It is alleged that hundreds were killed, and that when the mob tried to ascend the steps of the Church of St. Michelas to reach the boulevard St. Nicholas troops fired repeated volleys into the crowd with terrible results, wagon loads of dead being carried away.

It is stated that three police officers, ten policemen, twenty-three Cossacks and ten infantry soldiers were killed in these encounters.

Transport Crew Mutinies.

The crew of a Government transport, which arrived here yesterday from Nickoleff, mutinied, seized their officers and joined the crew of the battleship Kniaz Potemkine, to whom they turned over the captain and other officers of the transport. It is reported that the foreign Consuls have applied to their respective Governments to send warships to Odessa.

Mutiny at Libau.

Libau, Russia, June 30.—The Russian sailors here mutinied Wednesday night, attacked the Government stores, seized the arms and fired into the officers' quarters. Infantry, artillery and Cossacks were brought to the scene of the fighting, but the result is not known. Intense excitement prevails here. Libau is one of the principal Russian ports on the Baltic.

Barn Fire at Garden Party.

Pickering, June 30.—While a large garden party was in full swing at the residence of Robert Devesaly, fire was discovered in his large barn, which, with some adjoining buildings, were burned to the ground. The loss will be about $2,000.

WOMAN'S TERRIBLE BLOW.

Insulted By a Sailor, She Strikes Him With Her Fist.

New York, June 30.—When John Haverlang, a sailor from the steamship St. Paul, accosted and tried to seize her on West street, Wednesday, Mrs. Annie Katharine Eiseld of Brooklyn dealt him so terrific a blow that he lies at present in Hudson street Hospital with a fractured skull and with only a slight chance of living.

Mrs. Eiseld was arraigned before Magistrate Pool, who promptly discharged her and said he would issue a warrant for the arrest of Haverlang upon his discharge from the hospital.

"I struck the man because he insulted me," said Mrs. Eiseld, a young woman of twenty-two.

EXPLOSION OF A BOILER.

Green River Basket Factory Demolished—Two Men Escape.

Green River, Que., June 30.—The boiler in Joseph Doten's large basket factory was blown up just after dinner yesterday. The boiler was thrown fully 100 feet to the west, the head being sent about 100 yards over buildings in the opposite directions. The factory was badly wrecked, a great portion of the side and roof being blown out.

Doten and his son, who attends the engine, were standing not more than ten feet from one side of it when the accident occurred and both escaped uninjured. Thousands of berry baskets were scattered in all directions.

BRITISH TRADE HIT.

Province of Quebec's Tax on Commercial Travelers.

London, June 30.—(C. A. P.)—The Evening Globe says: We have commented on the favor shown by the Ottawa Parliament to foreign emigrants, but the Quebec Legislature has gone much further in demonstrating the weakening friendship by imposing an annual tax of £40 per head on commercial travelers employed by firms having no place of business in the Dominion. It strikes in the direction of a heavy blow at British trade, as the number of British commercial travelers is by far the largest.

BIT IN THEIR TEETH.

West Kent License Commissioners Defy Their Friends.

Chatham, June 30.—There was quite a warm meeting of the License Commissioners of West Kent here yesterday. The hotel license of John Pleasance and the shop license of W. D. Sheldon will be cut off to-day. Offensive partisanship is the only charge in both cases. The License Commissioners refused to heed the petition from Conservatives or a telegram from Hon. D. J. Hanna. Any further action must be taken by the Government.

Dominion Day Honors.

London, June 30.—(C.A.P.)—Among the list of honors for the King's Birthday are: To be companion of the order of St. Michael's and St. George, George J. W. Robertson, commissioner of agriculture in Canada; to be ordinary member of the military division, Gen. Laurie; the imperial service order, to be companions, Laurence Fortescue of the Northwest mounted police; Lieut.-Col. Jarvis of the department of agriculture and Arthur Newbury, clerk to the executive council.

Two Lives For One.

Lancaster, Pa., June 30.—Lee Furman and John O'Brien were hanged here yesterday for the murder of Samuel Ressler, an aged toll gate keeper, on the night of July 1, 1904.

Creesman's

Unknown Boy Drowned.

Sarnia, June 30.—The body of an unknown boy, who was drowned in the St. Clair River, last Thursday night, was recovered. The Harbor Commissioners refused to heed the petition from Conservatives or a telegram from Hon. D. J. Hanna. Any further action must be taken by the Government. Hundreds of people have viewed it, but no one has been able to identify it. He was about 15 years old, five feet tall and weighed 100 pounds. He was dressed in overalls.

Dominion Day Honors.

London, June 30.—(C.A.P.)—Among the list of honors for the King's Birthday are: To be companion of the order of St. Michael's and St. George, George J. W. Robertson, commissioner of agriculture in Canada; to be ordinary member of the military division, Gen. Laurie; the imperial service order, to be companions, Laurence Fortescue of the Northwest mounted police; Lieut.-Col. Jarvis of the department of agriculture and Arthur Newbury, clerk to the executive council.

Forged a Postal Note.

Toronto, June 30.—Inspector Henderson of the postal service went to Hamilton yesterday and arrested W. H. Murray of 66 North John street, who is alleged to have stolen a letter from one Stark and forged his name to a postal note at Carter, Algoma. The inspector has been after Murray for some time.

Jumped Off Bridge.

Ottawa, June 30.—Andrew O'Neill, aged 70 years, employed on the Rideau Canal locks, created a sensation last evening by jumping over the Dufferin bridge. He has a fractured rib, badly cut lips and probably a fractured skull.

THE LAST BULWARK IS THREATENED

Fears That the Army Will Not Stand Solid for Autocracy—The Rebellion in Russia—Government is Making Desperate Efforts to Stamp Out Flames of Revolution—State of Civil War Imminent—Martial Law Proclaimed by the Czar for Odessa and the Surrounding Districts.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—The Russian Government, although almost paralyzed by the events at Odessa and the news that the sailors at Libau also have mutinied, is making desperate efforts to stamp out the flames of revolution before they can spread to the army, the last bulwark of the aristocracy. With Poland red with revolt, the Caucasus almost in a state of civil war, agrarian disorders spreading rapidly, the whole country profoundly stirred and the intelligent classes solidly arrayed against the Government, all conditions seem ripe for the long predicted revolution.

Fear is expressed that many regiments are honeycombed with sedition, and there is grave doubt of their loyalty should they be called upon to fire upon the revolutionists. The most startling stories regarding the unreliability of the troops are being repeated.

Bad News Spreads.

Precautions to keep the news from the public are in vain, the revolutionaries and the Liberals everywhere spreading it by mouth, and within 24 hours it will be known in the uttermost confines of European Russia.

At the Admiralty the orders sent to Kruger were sent unanimously approved. Among others, Vice-Admiral Skrydleff openly expressed the opinion that Kruger's blockheads would not fire on their comrades on the Kniaz Potemkine, but that they, too, might revolt should they be ordered to shoot.

Odessa despatches state that millions of dollars worth of property, including ships, has been burned or otherwise destroyed. The city is under martial law and hundreds have been killed or wounded. The fact that the troops and police made no attempt to interfere with the burial of the mutinyred sailor is regarded as significant.

Under cover of the darkness [illegible] quoted by the dense pall of [illegible] hanging over the city, it is believed the mob has begun to sack and [illegible] pillage. Foreign property has suffered heavily.

Admiral a Wreckage.

In naval circles the [illegible] they are heard the Kniaz Potemkine's success is attributed principally to the [illegible] of Vice-Admiral Chouknin's squadron. He is a martinet and several of his officers have already been shot for disobedience. At the time of the mutiny a court-martial was actually in progress at Sebastopol and several of the crew of the battleship had been sentenced.

Late despatches from Libau say that property losses there are considerable and that all the workmen have gone out in sympathy with the mutineers. Artillery is said to have been employed against the mutineers.

Grippenberg's New Job.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—[illegible] Grippenberg, who was recalled from Manchuria for destroying the army of Gen. Kuropatkin, has been appointed inspector-general of infantry.

Danish Ship Sunk by Russians.

Batavia, Java., June 30.—The Danish steamer Princess Marie was captured [illegible] hauled June 18 by the Russian auxiliary cruiser Terek, and after her crew had been declared contraband of war [illegible] was sunk.

MODERN BOOKSTORE MODEL OF ENTERPRISE

Fairly Describes the Peterborough Bookstore—Complete in Equipment and Stock—Managed in the People's, and Therefore the Proprietor's Interest.

It has often been remarked by strangers visiting Peterborough, that Stratton's elegant and commodious bookstore would do credit to centres of population many times the size of Peterborough. An influential business house, like an influential individual, must have a distinctive character—an attitude of clear and square dealing towards the public. It is all the better, too, that it is possessed of a long and well-established reputation, which always commands respect.

A. H. STRATTON.

Mr. A. H. Stratton of A. H. Stratton & Co. has been associated with business which was acquired in 1893, and his enterprise, advanced methods and deference to public requirements have tended very largely to make the Peterborough store the important concern and enterprise it is, among the best equipped, best stocked, best conducted and best patronized commercial establishments of the city.

The location of the Peterborough Bookstore is undoubtedly one of the best on George street—the main business thoroughfare, contiguous to railway stations, hotels and the populous sections of Peterborough. It has a plate-glass frontage on George street, and extends clear back to Chambers street, with another plate-glass frontage. Four storeys, with three above the pavement, afford a capacity and floor space of 8,000 feet.

On the main floor the chief lines are carried in stock—stationery, books, fancy goods, wall paper, window blinds, cornice poles, etc. Each department is splendidly featured and a high mark of taste is evident. Perfect service, comprehensive displays, attentive salespeople, promptness and courtesy, are the points of excellence. The excellent photographs by Roy will supplement further details of the main floor.

The second floor is largely taken up with baby carriages, go-carts, and juvenile rigs. Here, too, large quantities of surplus fancy goods are stored,—pictures, school books, boxed stationery, etc. The picture framing department is conveniently situated in a well-lighted section of the second floor facing Chambers street, where also large quantities of picture moulding, room moulding, and allied furnishings, are stored.

CORNER OF WALL PAPER SECTION.

The fourth floor and basement contain heavy reserve stocks of wall papers, writing inks, mucilage, envelopes, etc.

The store equipment includes a modern cash-carrier system, a handsomely-furnished and well-equipped private gallery office and counting room; local and long distance telephones, electric light and steam heating. Everything goes on "smooth as clockwork," no slipshod methods; the same yesterday, to-day and to-morrow! Mr. Stratton gives his personal attention, assisted by a staff of practical salespeople, to each department. Some idea of the expansion of his business may be had from the fact that to-day it is two and a half times greater than it was when it passed under its present proprietorship, a dozen years ago.

WELCOME AND FAREWELL

Interesting Service at S. A. Barracks Last Night.

Staff-Captain McAmmond Receives a Warm Welcome—Brief Autobiographical Sketch.

There was a large attendance at the Salvation Army Barracks last night, when a pleasing event, which also bore its aspect of sadness, took place. The services were of a special character, combining a welcome to Staff-Captain McAmmond, of Bracebridge, who is entering upon his new duties in Peterborough, and a farewell to Adj. Jennings, who after nine years service has been granted a furlough, which he will spend in a well-earned rest.

After the usual opening devotional exercises, a brief address was given by Mr. Mark Spencely, this being followed by a few remarks by Captain Long, of Cobourg, who is spending a few days furlough in Peterborough previous to her departure to the west where she has been transferred.

The band then rendered a selection, after which, in the absence of the bandmaster, Deputy Bandmaster Northcote, addressed a few words of welcome to Staff-Captain and Mrs. McAmmond, on behalf of the members of the band. He also made a kindly reference to the work of Adj. Jennings, and the pleasant relationship which had existed in the past between the latter and the members of the band.

J. S. Sergeant-Major R. C. Braund, made a brief address in which he referred to the work of his branch, and also with his past acquaintance with Staff-Captain McAmmond, to whom he extended a hearty welcome. Captain Thornton, of Millbrook, also spoke briefly in welcoming the newcomers.

Adjutant Jennings made a few remarks in which he referred to the pleasant relationship of the past. His work had been at times of an arduous character, but he felt that his duties had always been faithfully performed.

A chorus "Keep your hearts ringing all the while," was then rendered.

Mrs. McAmmond was then called upon and in her opening remarks expressed her thanks for the warm welcome received. Some of her earlier experiences in the work of the Army, since she had entered it seventeen years ago, were then related.

Staff-Captain McAmmond also spoke briefly, expressing his gratitude at the appointment and his thanks at the kindly nature of the welcome.

The meeting closed with the reading of a portion of Scripture by Brigadier Turner, of Montreal, who conducted the service.

The speakers throughout referred in kindly terms of welcome to Staff-Captain and Mrs. McAmmond.

The members of the band were measured at the conclusion of the service for their new uniforms, which will be navy blue.

The following is a brief autobiographical sketch of Staff-Captain McAmmond:—

"My childhood's days were spent in the village of Britannia-on-the-Bay, a summer resort, five miles from the city of Ottawa.

At the age of six, I went to school, studied till I was ten, after which summer time gave me the chance of making a few coins by running messages for tourists, working around the mills, or on the farms. When winter returned, back I went to the school again.

My younger brother and got saved in the Army at Ottawa, and mother asked him to pray at the family altar. I made light of his praying and boasted to my school companions that if ever I got religion I would make a better prayer than his. Next morning after my conversion, at the family altar, mother said: "Now, Dave, you pray." I felt guilty, for I remembered how I reproached my brother. However, I tried to pray, and if I didn't do as well as my brother had, at all events I made a start.

In the spring of 1887 I went to the city to clerk, and here had the woeful experience of a back-slider. I neglected to attend the meetings and take up my cross as formerly, consequently the joy went out of my life, and I became miserable indeed.

One Sunday afternoon I was out for a walk and heard the Army band. Away down the street I could see the soldiers marching and the dear old flag flying. My heart condemned me. I went straight to my room, and there got down on my knees before God, promising Him if He would only restore to me the joy of His salvation I would serve Him. I trusted God and He trusted me. I rose from my knees, put on the dear old guernsey that had been lying in my box for some weeks, went to the meeting, and thanks be to God, I have never had a desire to take off my colours since. I worked on as a soldier until June 29th, 1889, when I left home and friends to follow the path God had marked out to me, and entered the Yorkville Training Home in Toronto, that same day. Many precious lessons were learned here, under the direction of Capt. (now Staff-Capt.) Taylor.

December 5th, 1889, I boarded the train for Forest, a full-fledged Lieutenant, to second Capt. (now Staff-Capt.) Hay. Thence to Clinton, to assist Ensign L. A. Magee.

Next came Watford and Strathroy, again with Capt. Hay. After eleven months of Lieutenancy (I believe the happiest position in the Army) word came for me to don the red braid and proceed to Drayton, my first corps in charge. Then followed Thedford and Goderich, after which came orders to proceed to the temple, Toronto, where ten very happy months were spent, assisting Capt. Coombs in corps and training garrison.

Lippincott street and Bowmanville followed, till in April 1893, I received orders to attend the Staff Councils in Montreal, and received my first staff appointment. I was sent to the Bracebridge corps and district. Then Collingwood, Bowmanville, and a few weeks' special work in the C. O. P. Then followed Montreal I. and district. Next came Windsor, Ont., special work, Stratford corps and district. Here I was married to the lady of my choice, Ensign Linnie Brady, by Brigadier Southall. Then followed Kingston, London, Brantford, Winnipeg, Temple, Hamilton, and back to Bracebridge corps and district, where, after spending nearly eighteen months, I can say I still love the fight. I delight in the din of battle. My chief joy is saving sinners, and in the spirit of the little verse, I repeated on the occasion of my farewell for the field—

"Whate'er the future may require,
His grace will sure allow;
I live a moment at a time,
And Jesus saves me now."

PRESENTATION TO MISS COURTNEY

Popular Teacher of No. 2 Smith, Was Honoured.

Presented This Afternoon with Two Handsome Pictures.

This afternoon at S. S. No. 2, Smith, a pleasing event took place, when Miss E. Courtney, who for the past six years has, with much acceptance and success, filled the duties of teacher, was presented with two handsome pictures by the pupils of the school.

To-day Miss Courtney closed her engagement with the school, and will not return after the summer vacation. The closing session of the school for the term this afternoon was in many respects a sorrowful one to the pupils, for during the years in which Miss Courtney has presided in the school, she has won many friends by her genial and pleasing disposition and her departure from that section is deeply regretted by her friends and especially those to whom she has acted in the capacity of teacher.

After the work of the school was concluded, Mr. T. D. Young, secretary-Treasurer of the school board and a trustee of many years standing, called the gathering to order, and Miss Clara Young, read the following address, and Miss Courtney was presented by the pupils with two handsome and valuable pictures:—

Smith, June 29th, 1905.

To Miss E. Courtney,—

Dear Teacher,—The pupils of S. S. No. 2, Smith, on the occasion of your retirement from the school, desire to take this opportunity of expressing our loving appreciation of your faithful services as our teacher during the past six years.

We cannot help regretting your decision to sever yourself from us, after so many years, of intimate relationship. It is a pleasure to know, however, that you can carry with you the best wishes of every scholar for your future success and happiness. And we pray our Great Teacher that He may continue to bless you and to make you continually useful in your important duties of life.

Please accept these framed pictures as tokens of our respect and esteem.

Signed on behalf of the school,

CLARA YOUNG,
JESSIE GRAHAM,
RUBY YOUNG,
ALMA DARLING.

In acknowledgment of the gift Miss Courtney expressed her deep appreciation of the gift of which she had been made the recipient. She referred to the pleasant relations which had always existed between the members of the school and herself and was sorry that these relations were about to cease. She assured them that she would always look back upon her stay there with pleasure.

Miss Courtney has been a very successful teacher, and her work in this section has been most satisfactory, her pupils meeting with good success in their examinations. She was very popular and her departure from the section will be regretted by the entire population of that part of the township.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE FOR 33 YEARS

Mr. Thomas Fraser Resigns From Norwood High School.

Annual Sermon to Norwood Masons—Change in Preachers—Personal Notes.

From our Own Correspondent.

Norwood, June 26th.—Mrs. Stevens and two children of Toronto, are the guests at the home of Mrs. Lockridge, Queen street.

Mr. George A. Scott of Havelock, was in town on Monday on business.

Miss Denzee of Campbellford, Mr. Mr. and Mrs. Barclay, Miss V. Barclay, Mr. H. T. Andrew, Mr. and Mrs Andrew, were the guests at the home of Mr. Jas. Andrew, Bradshaw Coldsprings Farm, on Sunday.

Mr. Jas. Bryans of Havelock, has received the appointment from the county Council of Peterborough, as trustee of the Norwood High School Board for the balance of the year 1905. Mr. Bryans received this appointment on account of the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. Thos. Fraser. Mr. Fraser has been a member of the Norwood High and Public School Board since 1872, with the exception of one term of two years.

Mrs. John Beckett of Carberry, Manitoba, is visiting with Mrs. W. H. Tucker, Spring street.

Miss Kate E. Smith, of Barrie, is visiting her uncle, Rev. Geo. McLennan at the manse.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig of Havelock, were the guests of Mr. W. A. Richardson over Sunday.

Mrs. Frappy and daughter, Marion, of Campbellford, are staying with Mrs. E. C. Squire, Queen street.

The children's quarterly service was held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning, June 25th, when Rev. George McLennan, the pastor of the church, spoke to a large congregation on the subject, the Pointe Aux Trembles mission and its work.

Norwood Lodge, A. F. and A. M., No. 223, attended divine service at Christ church on Sunday. The brethren mustered some forty strong at the Lodge rooms, and marched to the church in a body. The service was conducted by Rev. E. W. Pickford, the chaplain of the Lodge, assisted by Rev. G. A. MacLennan, B. A. The Episcopal service being printed in full all the brethren were enabled to join in the common worship of the church, which was rendered with unusual heartiness. The rector preached from I Peter ii and 5, "Ye therefore are lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ."

Masonry, the preacher said, had its probable origin in the desire to embody religious belief in the temples devoted to God. Hence its antiquity as a system was undoubted. The study of the science of Masonry led many who were not operatives to join the union of Masons, hence the term accepted Masons. St. John's vision of the New Jerusalem was an exposition of Masonic teaching. The discipline of life was the preparing of the stone in the quarries of the world, while the temple itself like its great type, the Temple of Solomon, was being silently erected by the architect Almighty without any noise of any kind.

Mr. Wm. Finlay, of Rapid City, Man., is visiting his brother, Mr. John Finlay, M.P.

Rev. C. Parker preached his farewell sermons to very large congregations at both services on Sunday last, June 25th. Rev. Parker has been pastor of the Methodist church here for the last two years, and would have continued his pastoral work here, but his health would not permit. Mr. Parker will be greatly missed not only by his own congregation, but by the citizens of the town generally. Rev. Mr. Adams, his successor will take charge of the work here, commencing next Sunday.

Miss Etta Rogers is visiting her brother, Mr. Wm. Rogers, Detroit.

Miss Maggie Govert, of Warkworth, is the guest of Mrs. Wm. Carberry.

Miss Taylor spent a couple of days last week at Viamede, the guest of Mrs B. Graham.

Misses Lightfoot and Kelly spent Sunday at Viamede, Stony Lake.

P. S. Inspector J. C. Brown, of Peterborough, is in the village conducting entrance examinations.

Ground has been broken for the erection of a new bank building on Mr. Casement's lot, Queen street, and next to the post office. Baptie Bros. have the contract.

Mr. and Mrs. R. McWilliams of Peterborough, drove through the village on Saturday on their way to Chemong.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Fitzgerald spent Sunday with Mr. Alex. Fitzgerald of Peterborough.

Miss Pearl Lewis of Bobcaygeon, is visiting her friend, Miss Clara Davis in the village.

Mr. Joseph Carveth of Bobcaygeon formerly of Lakefield, is visiting his mother in the village.

A team from the village played a game of cricket with the Grove eleven on Monday afternoon, and succeeding in again defeating the School team by a small margin. Mr. R. C. Strickland ran up a good score for the village making 29 runs.

Mrs. Jas. Gillard and daughters, Misses Muriel and Leah, of Cobourg, are the guests of Miss Tanner of the village.

The school closed for the summer holidays on Tuesday afternoon.

Miss McGorman of the public school teaching staff left for her home in Brighton on Wednesday, to spend her summer holidays.

Miss Stephenson left on Wednesday for Madoc to spend the holidays.

Miss Briggs left for her home in Dannville, Que., on Wednesday.

The many friends of Miss Maud Cox, who has had such a serious illness will be pleased to learn that she has recovered sufficiently to be moved to Stony Lake, where the change of air is doing much to restore her health.

Mrs. Samuel Sherin, who has been visiting friends in Peterborough, has returned home.

Mrs. John Kempt, we are pleased to report, is recovering from her illness.

Mr. F. M. Dela Fosse spent Sunday at Stony Lake.

Mr. Mulhall, who was hurt in a ball game a week ago Saturday, is not yet able to work owing to his injuries.

Mr. Harry Young is laid up with a sprained ankle as a result of a game of football against the Smith team.

The annual excursion of the Presbyterian Sunday school to Stony Lake takes place on Friday, June 30.

The Harmonica Club hold their annual moonlight excursion to Juniper Island, on Thursday, June 30th. The boat leaves the wharf at eight.

Mr. and Mrs. John Holmes are at their summer cottage, Lovesick Lake.

The Lakefield Preparatory School held their distribution of prizes on Tuesday evening previous to the pupils leaving for their midsummer vacation on Wednesday.

Presbyterian Anniversary—Interesting Budget of News From Keene.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Keene, June, 28.—Mrs. L. Burley is visiting friends in Campbellford.

Mr. William Anderson, M.P.P., who has been suffering from a severe attack of pneumonia, is much better.

July 2nd being anniversary Sunday in the Presbyterian church, Rev. James Wallace, B.D., of Lindsay, will conduct the service. An evening service will also be held at seven o'clock and the Christian Endeavour Society meeting, which is usually held Sunday evening, will be held next week on Monday.

Mrs. Andrew Humphries and Master Kenneth Humphries, of Ouray, Col., are the guests of Mr. Robt. Humphries.

Mr. Peter Pitkie is visiting at Mr. William Shearer's.

Members of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches were busy last week tearing up the old wooden sidewalks and drawing stone and gravel for the new cement sidewalk on Church street. The Methodists are undertaking the building of the walk in front of the Methodist church property and the Presbyterians are building the remainder of the walk. Besides the walk, a cement platform is being built in front of the Methodist church to take the place of the old wooden platform. The work of laying the cement commenced Tuesday.

Rev. W. B. Coombe preached his farewell sermon in the Methodist church last Sunday. His new charge is Thomasburg. Rev. Mr. Wilson, who succeeds him, arrived Wednesday.

Mr. Henry Burnham, of Port Hope, was in Keene Thursday.

As St. John's Day fell, this year, on Saturday, the Mason's annual picnic, which is usually held on that day, was held the following Monday. In spite of the threatening appearance of the weather a fairly large crowd took in the sail to Heeley's Falls and a very pleasant time was spent.

Mrs. Claude Brownlee and Mr. John Kendrick, of Vermont, are the guests of Mr. William Campbell.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Laug, of Toronto, are visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mr. George Ball, of Winnipeg, is the guest of his uncle, Dr. W. T. Harrison.

Mr. Harry Burnham was in Keene Sunday.

Miss Lillian Bell, Miss Margaret Bryce and Mr. J. Harry Scriver sang at Mrs. Morrow's recital in Peterborough last night.

Rev. Langfeldt's German Conversation Club spent Saturday afternoon picnicing at the Serpent Mounds, on Rice Lake, arriving on the 2.30 train and going back to Peterborough on the night train.

During the last week or ten days, an unusual number of large lunge have been caught near Sugar Island on Rice Lake. Four of them weighed over twenty pounds. Mr. Wallace Wood had the good fortune to land two that weighed twenty and twenty and a half pounds respectively. But to Mrs. Root, Gray, of the Alderville Indian Reserve belongs the honour of having caught what was probably the largest lunge taken from Rice Lake this season. On Friday afternoon she caught a fish that weighed twenty-three pounds. Besides these unusually large fish quite a large number of lunge weighing over fifteen pounds has been hooked, Mr. James Dixon, Sr., catching two that weighed over fifteen pounds in one morning.

Miss Clara Campbell is in Peterborough the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Mein.

Mr. Alexander McFarlane is spending the week at Stony Lake.

Surveyors are at work on the north shore of Rice Lake determining the extent of land which would be flooded should the level of Rice Lake be raised five feet above present high water mark, as will be necessary should the Port Hope route be chosen for the Trent Valley Canal. Raising the water five feet would flood out a considerable number of farms on the north shore and would convert the large marsh in front of Keene into a fine bay.

Mrs. J. Mein and Mr. John Mein, of Ashburnham, spent a couple of days last week visiting friends in this vicinity.

The steamer Rainbow has been engaged for the annual Union Sunday School excursion which will be held on Tuesday, July 11th.

Mr. Archie Weir, of Ashburnham, was in Keene Tuesday.

Mr. Wallace Wood spent Sunday in Campbellford.

Arrangements are being made to run an excursion to Hastings on Dominion Day, per steamer Rainbow. The boats will also call at Robin's Landing. Music will be provided for dancing on the boat.

Miss Margaret Campbell is in Toronto, the guest of Mrs. Walter Bryce.

Mr. Jas. Ashburn has a number of guests at his new summer resort "Oak Lodge," at Roach's Point.

Keene Public School closed Tuesday to allow the entrance examination to be held on Wednesday and Thursday.

The annual Hiawatha picnic will be held at the Indian Reserve on Dominion Day. An unusually good programe of sports has been arranged including running races, putting the shot, hop step and jump, and amateur and professional canoe races. Arrangements have been made to bring the crowd from all points on the lake and a big day is assured.

The committee in charge are to be congratulated on the success of the picnic held at Villiers on Friday. The school children had a picnic in the afternoon. A football match between Villiers and Westwood was pulled off at six o'clock. Villiers lost the game by one goal. A platform had been built and the grove lighted up with Chinese lanterns and the dancing was kept up till nearly midnight. Messrs. McFarland and Miller provided excellent music and Mr. David Moore was master of ceremonies. A very large crowd attended and all enjoyed a very good time.

WHAT WOMEN SUFFER.

At All Ages They Need Rich, Pure Blood to Secure Health and Happiness.

A woman needs medicine more than a man. Her organism is more complex, her system more delicate. Her health is disturbed regularly in the course of nature. If anything happens to interfere with that natural course, she goes through unspeakable suffering. In fact the health of every function and the happiness of every moment of a woman's life depends upon the richness and the regularity of her blood supply. That is the simple scientific reason why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are worth more than their weight in gold to women of all ages from fifteen to fifty. These pills actually make the rich, red, blood that brings health and happiness and freedom from pain to every woman. Mrs. Nell Ferguson, Ashfield, N.S., says: "In justice to you, and in the hope that what I say may benfit other suffering women. I take pleasure in stating that I have found wonderful benefit from the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. When I began using the pills I was so badly run down, that I could scarcely go about; at times I suffered very much and felt that life was a burden. Thanks to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I can now say I am enjoying better health than I ever expected to have again, and I can most heartily recommend these pills to other suffering women."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cured Mrs. Ferguson because they filled her veins with the rich, pure blood so necessary to the health and happiness of every human being. It is for this reason that these pills always cure such troubles as anaemia, neuralgia, heart trouble, indigestion, rheumatism, sciatica, St. Vitus dance, paralysis, kidney and liver troubles, and the special ailments of growing girls and women of middle age. You can get these pills from any dealer in medicine, but you should be careful to see that the full name, "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," is on the wrapper around each box. If you wish you can get the pills by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Impurities in the Blood.

When the action of the kidneys become impaired impurities in the blood are almost sure to follow, and general derangement of the system ensues. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will regulate the kidneys so that they will maintain healthy action and prevent the complications which certainly come when there is derangement of these delicate organs. As a restorative these pills are in the first rank.

BY ROYAL WARRANT MILLERS TO H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES

Is "Royal Household" Really the Best Flour?

Thousands of women who do their own baking know it is the best, by results—they don't care about the reasons—but those who have not tried it may want to know why it is the best.

Of course any maker of flour—with the same experience—the same facilities for selecting the best wheat—the same tremendous plant equipment for milling, and the same process for Electrical Purification of flour could make just as good flour as ROYAL HOUSEHOLD—if he had the genius for flour making.

But no other flour maker in Canada has all these requisites and facilities, therefore no flour equal to ROYAL HOUSEHOLD is made in this country.

In these talks we shall give you good reasons why ROYAL HOUSEHOLD is the best flour and why it is the cheapest flour for you to use.

You know the results you get from the flour you are using at present; but you'll prefer the loaf you get from made by the Ogilvie Flour Mill Company. How much whiter it is—how much more satisfying—it does not dry up so quickly—it will stay fresh longer—richer flavour—nicer crust.

"ROYAL HOUSEHOLD"

The Head of the Family

In the enjoyment of most of what are commonly called "creature comforts" thoroughly appreciates the value of economy in the purchase of meat, for he foots the bill. We don't sell cheap meat but we do sell good meat cheap—which is indicative of a great difference. Our meat carves well, cooks well and is toothsome to a degree.

UNION LABEL

FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1905.

DOMINION DAY AND CITY DAY

The first of July will henceforth to the citizens of Peterborough stand doubly honoured in the calendar—the anniversary of the national nativity of the Dominion and of the civic nativity of the city. This conjunction is all the more happy because of similarity of conditions. Under Confederation Canada has flourished and never has the national thrift and progress been more strongly in evidence than to-day. Under Confederation Peterborough has prospered and never have her prospects and prosperity been more pronounced than to-day. Dominion and city in the matter of energy and progressive spirit, make a well-matched pair and that they should have a common birthday to celebrate is a happy illustration of the fitness of things. As we enter cityhood let our citizens unite in realising the responsibility this circumstance confers and unitedly strive to maintain unimpaired and even improved, the prominent position we occupy among the civic communities of Canada.

THE DEFEAT OF THE BY-LAW

The people have spoken and decidedly protested by their ballots against authorising the raising of $50,000 to assist in erecting a new Collegiate Institute building. This result while it is disappointing to the members of the Board of Education and other friends of higher education and thoughtful citizens generally, is not surprising. While the intentions of the Board were doubtless goods, perhaps a mistake was made in not taking the people more into their confidence and conferring with them more largely, and also in neglecting or deferring too long the education of the people up to an appreciation of the importance and indeed necessity of a new building, and familiarising them with the idea of an expenditure, which, though large, would not be considered so large when the necessity for it, in relation to providing a creditable and lasting building, had been properly appreciated. Many voted against the bylaw from pure prejudice, many from a lack of full understanding of the situation, and a very large number because of lack of, openly expressed, confidence in the Board, which, it is charged, showed lack of business acumen in coming short $50,000 in its estimate of the money requirement for a new building. Others voted nay from selfish impulses. They argued against the necessity of providing higher education by general taxation—"better strengthen the public schools and let those who want higher education for their children, pay for it themselves"—and this from persons who have received their higher education at the public expense at our Collegiate Institute. Of course our public schools are of primary importance, but their continued efficiency depends upon a supply of qualified teachers and these depend upon an efficiently equipped institute, as to buildings as well as staff, whether the varied reasonings which led the ratepayers to oppose the bylaw are just or not, they had their share in decisively defeating the bylaw, though it is doubtful if in the present temper of the people they would vote for any money bylaw, however much its object would meet their approval. However a blow has been administered to educational interests of all kinds, and also to the credit of the progressive spirit of Peterborough at a time of crisis in her history, when, as a new city, she is called upon to set a pace in the race of progress, in competition with other cities. The School Board will have to settle down to some hard thinking and wise acting to meet the emergency and retrieve the situation.

EIGHT THOUSAND SOLDIERS MUTINY

Naval Port of Cronstadt in a State of Intense Excitement —One Officer Killed, and Sailors and Soldiers, With Naval Yards Workmen, Refuse to Work—A Dangerous Situation.

(Special to the Examiner).

St. Petersburg, June 30th. — A report is current that 6,000 Imperial sailors, together with the workmen at the yards and docks, of the naval port of Cronstadt have suddenly refused to work and that a state of mutiny exists there.

Later. — The mutiny of sailors at Cronstadt is confirmed. One officer was killed. The situation was reflected by an all round slump on the Bourse to-day. Imperial fours were sustained by the Government but nevertheless they fell almost a point.

London, June 30th 30th. — The Daily Express prints a despatch from Odessa which says that a second mutinous warship is reported at Cape Fontain, ten miles from there.

CITY NEWS OF TO-DAY

—To-night the 57th Band will render a concert in Victoria Park.

—To-morrow, Dominion Day, there will be no issue of the Examiner.

—Considerable anxious inquiry has been occasioned with regard to the Fall Exhibition.

—The owner of a small purse picked up on the street may have same by calling at this office.

—A large British plate mirror, handsomely framed, at a bargain, for quick sale, at The Framery. dtf

—The majority of the excellent cuts in to-day's paper are made from photos made by the Roy Studio.

—Piano tuning promptly attended to. Satisfaction guaranteed. A. F. Hoover, 222 McDonel street. 'Phone 199.

—The dentists of the town are going to have a half holiday every Thursday afternoon during July and August.

—Thursday, July 13th, has been fixed as the date for the annual picnic of the Park street Baptist Sunday school.

—All union barber shops will be closed to-morrow, and all those which are open will be classed as "scab" shops.

—A pocket-book and a chain were picked up on the C. P. R. tracks near Aylmer street to-day. Owner may have same by applying at the police station.

—Mark Street Sunday School Picnic takes place to Stony lake on Thursday, July 6th, per G. T. R. and steamer Stony Lake. Tickets—adults 70c, children 40c. 2nod

—There has been a rapid sale of tickets for the T. A. S. excursion down the river to-morrow, though a sufficient number will be reserved for those who wish to purchase in the morning.

—Amateur photographers can be supplied with the best materials at Turner's studio, George street. We carry Ansco films, Eastman's films, paper, plates, mounts, etc. Also give special attention to amateur finishing. 3d151.

—Come for a sail to-night or a fish. Boats to hire at the new Otonabee boat house, terminus of the street railway. Leave order with caretaker on premises. Moderate charges. H. B. Rye, proprietor. dtf —You can't get away from facts, and the fact that we are giving satisfaction is shown by the way people patronize "My Valet." Goods called for and delivered at shortest notice. 'Phone 575. Seymour & Wesley, 384 1-2 George street.

—Strawberries—fresh picking today from Cedar Park Gardens; will have them regularly until close of season. Fresh crock butter arriving daily; good time to buy. Also sound potatoes and new cabbage, at James R. Bell's, 161 Hunter street. 'Phone 455. dtf.

—An noon to-day an exciting runaway—while it lasted—took place. A delivery wagon, without a driver, came tearing along Sherbrooke street, when the horse shied at an ice wagon, and upset the rig against a lumber pile opposite. The wagon was demolished but the horse escaped injury.

LAST MINUTE TICKS.

The Sons of Scotland will erect a memorial tablet to the late Sir Hector Macdonald in St. Giles' Cathedral, Edinburgh.

John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, and member of the commission, has resigned both of these positions to accept a $60,000 office with a New York corporation.

Engineers engaged on the surveys for the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway have made a rich discovery of oil just east of Lake Abitibi, Temiskaming District.

John D. Rockefeller has pledged himself to the Euclid Avenue Baptist Church of Cleveland, to give 75 cents for every dollar that is contributed to the church in any way. This means that he will contribute 43 per cent of the cost of maintaining the church.

Burmese Bond.

Among the users of fine business stationery, the brand known as Burmese Bond has become quite a favourite. As will be observed by advertisement in another part of this paper, it is manufactured by The Canada Paper Company and sold by all stationers and leading printers. When ordering your next supply of stationery, ask for Burmese Bond. The Examiner Job Department carries a full stock of this and you can get samples of same for the asking.

A Choice Outing.

The Murray Street Baptist Sunday School excursion on Tuesday, July 4th, will leave the G. T. R. station by regular train at 8.25 a. m. for Lakefield and will then go by steamer to Sandy Point for dinner, games, etc. During the afternoon a complete trip around the lakes will be made in time for tea at Burleigh. On returning to Lakefield the excursionists will take a special train at 8.15 for town. Tickets,—adults, 75 cents; children, not members, 50c.

FIVE THOUSAND MINERS BURIED

Terrific Explosion of Gas Occurred at Makeyoffka.

Thousands of Men Entombed and no Hope of Getting Them Out Alive.

Special to the Examiner.

Katerinsolay, Russia, June 30.— A report has reached here that a terrible explosion of gas has occurred in a coal mine near the town of Makeyoffka, and 5,000 miners are reported to have been entombed and no hope of getting them out alive is entertained.

BABY'S DANGER.

A mother cannot watch her little ones too carefully during the hot weather. Dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera infantum, and disorders of the stomach are alarmingly frequent during the summer months and unless the mother has at hand an efficient remedy to check and cure the trouble a little life may go almost before you realize the case is serious. At the first sign of any of these ailments the wise mother will give her little one Baby's Own Tablets, which promptly cure all hot weather troubles. Mrs. John Lancaster, North Portal, N.W.T., says: "My baby was attacked with diarrhoea and vomiting. I at once gave Baby's Own Tablets, and the next day she was as well as ever. I am never without the Tablets in the house, as I find they are the only medicine a little one needs." Other wise mothers will follow Mrs. Lancaster's example and keep the Tablets always at hand — their prompt use may save a little life. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail at 25 cents a box by writing the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It's The Ideal Trip.

DELIGHTFUL GARDEN PARTY YESTERDAY

Mrs. R. S. Davidson and Mrs. R. R. Hall Charming Hostesses.

A delightful garden party was given by Mrs. R. S. Davidson and Mrs. R. R. Hall, yesterday afternoon on the beautiful lawns at the home of the former, at 302 Dalhousie street. The guests, numbering about two hundred were received on the front lawn by Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Hall, Miss Madge Davidson and her guest, Miss Snider, of Waterloo. Mrs. Davidson was becomingly dressed in a white gown and large black hat. Mrs. Hall wore a dainty pale blue gown and hat to match. Miss Davidson was handsomely gowned in deep cream satin, trimmed with rich lace and touched with mauve velvet, while Miss Snider wore a very dainty white gown and large white hat.

Choice refreshments were served on the large rear lawn, from beautifully decorated tables, by a bevy of Peterborough's most charming young ladies, among whom were Miss Clint Cunningham and charming little visitor from Kentucky.

The ideal afternoon, the lovely surroundings and the attentiveness of the hostesses and their assistants, all combined to make the entertainment one of the most successful entertainments of the kind, given in Peterborough for a long time.

Dr. and Mrs. Neal, King street, will return from Toronto to-morrow night. The doctor will at once resume his practice, which for the past week has been in charge of Dr. Brodie of Forest.

A most enjoyable time was spent by the large crowd in attendance. A programme of races and other sports was run off for handsome prizes. The picnic was attended by over one hundred and fifty.

Dr. Brodie, locum tenens for Dr. Neil, whose name is included in the list of successful candidates in the final examination of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, will leave on Sunday morning for his home in Forest.

Mr. Geo. Rickerby, of the C.P.R. Hotel, will leave on Monday by the 5.12 p.m. C.P.R. train for Santiago, Cal., where he will spend two months in recovering his health, after which he will go to Philadelphia to take a position with the Pennsylvania Railway Company.

Mr. Wallace Wood, and Mr. Reg. Thompson, of the Central Canada Loan & Savings Company will leave to-morrow for a trip down the St. Lawrence to Quebec, where they will spend two weeks.

MRS. J. T. MOORE PASSED AWAY

Deceased Wife of Mr. T. J. Moore Was Well Known.

Lamented Death This Morning After Long Illness.

This morning at 6.30, at the family residence, No. 3 Homewood avenue, Mrs. T. J. Moore passed away at the age of 47 years, after a long illness. For many years the deceased has been suffering from Bright's disease. On Saturday last Mrs. Moore was seized with a stroke of paralysis, from which she never recovered. She did not lose consciousness, however, up to the end, which came peacefully this morning.

The late Mrs. Moore had been a resident of Peterborough for 21 years, coming here after her marriage with Mr. Moore, from her birthplace in Emily township, where she lived until her marriage, and where she was very highly respected.

She leaves to mourn her demise, besides her sorrowing husband, one daughter, Mabel, one young son, Victor Burwell. Three sisters and six brothers also survive her: Mrs. Robt. Deyell and Mrs. George Deyell, of Smith, and the brothers, Messrs. Arthur, George, James and Albert Franks, of Emily, and Thomas and John in Manitoba. Her parents are both dead.

The late Mrs. Moore in early life was a member of the Church of England, and upon her marriage became identified with the Methodist church. She was a consistent member of the Charlotte street Methodist church, and although she was a woman naturally reserved, her many acts of kindness will be long remembered by her large circle of friends, who will deeply regret to learn of her death.

The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, from the family residence, No. 3, Homewood avenue, to the Little Lake cemetery for interment.

BAND CONCERT AT THE PARK

2,500 Passengers on the Jackson Park Line.

Opening of That Popular Resort—Weekly Concerts in the Future.

Last night Jackson Park was practically opened for the season, when the 57th Band gave the first concert there, and from present indications that beautiful spot will become popular this year as it has never been before. The number of persons in the park last night has been conservatively estimated at over 2,000, and it is certain that never before has there been such such a crowd in the park at one time. About twenty-five members of the band were present and from the new stand rendered a choice programme of popular music, which delighted the thousands who heard it.

The street railway gave a special service to the park last night, all the cars running on the line and 2,500 fares were taken after 6 o'clock, which constitutes a record for an evening's business on the street railway.

It is the intention of the Company to arrange with the band to give weekly concerts in the park during the summer months, and the probabilities are that they will prove very popular.

BAND GRANT NOT INCREASED

Meeting of Finance Committee Held Last Night.

Several Applications Were Considered —Shall Grocery Clerks Serve in Liquor Stores.

The Finance Committee met last night in the Town Clerk's office, the following being in attendance:—Ald. Mason (Chairman); Ald. Crowe, Ald. Leary, Ald. Batten and Ald. Adams.

Arthur Rountree was, on motion, heard regarding a by-law at present in force in the town which prevents grocery clerks from serving in liquor stores.—No action was taken.

The Clerk was instructed to ascertain Town Trust Commissioners what sum added to $171, will be required to make up the deficiency in a certain sinking fund, provided sufficient money to retire debentures at maturity.

Moved by Ald. Adams, seconded by Ald. Leary, that the Town Treasurer receive from the Otonabee Power Company for the quarter ending September, 1904, and since at the new rate of $400 per year for the privilege of having their poles on the street in accordance with the agreement recently executed.—Carried.

The application of the Salvation Army Band for a grant of $100 was considered and after some discussion it was moved by Ald. Adams, seconded by Ald. Crowe, that the grant to the Salvation Army Band be the same this year as last year—$75— on the same conditions.

It was moved in amendment by Ald. Batten, seconded by Ald. Leary, that the grant be $100.

The amendment was lost on division and the original motion carried.

No action was taken in regard to an application from the National Sanitorium for a grant.

HERBERT MOWAT PAINFULLY INJURED

Fell Last Night, Caused Dislocated Arm.

Master Herbert Mowat, son of Mrs. T. J. Mowat, Reid street, sustained a painful injury last night upon the street near his home. A scraper and plough used in sidewalk construction, had been left standing upon the street, over which the unfortunate boy fell, dislocating his arm. He is now at his home, and an early recovery from the injury is hoped for.

LATEST SPORT

EASY WIN FOR SENIOR TEAM

Defeated the Charlotte Street Team by Big Score.

A Shut-Out Recorded—The Score Was 15-0.

The ball game at Riverside Park last night between Charlotte Street Guild team and manager MacEwan's Midland League pennant seekers, amply demonstrated the fact that the Guild League champions are no match for the seniors. The score at the end of four innings was 15-0 in favour of the Peterboroughs. It was a very easy victory for the seniors but to do justice to the Guild team, it must be said that they did not play up to anything near their usual form. They seemed to have a bad attack of stage fright and easy chances were badly bungled. Voetz who twirled the first two innings was easy money for the seniors and 14 runs were scored while he was in the box. Roddy finished the game and did much better work. The team seemed to ginger up and fielded in something like their usual form.

Quinlan pitched the first three innings for Peterborough and Douglas twirled the last. Both pitchers were in great form and hits were as scarce as Russian victories.

Green of the St. John's Guild League team was tried out at second and made a very favourable impression. His batting was good. Chris. Graham broke into the game again and did good work at first base. He will likely be seen in that position in the games with Lindsay to-morrow.

The game was witnessed by a fair crowd of fans and although one sided afforded lots of amusement and some baseball. The fielding features were a catch by Sheridan in left field and Lang's pretty running catch of a high foul fly. The latter's playing behind and the bat made a favourable impression.

The Peterboroughs started off with four runs in the first innings and then on a combination of hits and errors scored 10 in the second. The fifteenth was scored in the last innings.

The teams were as follows:—

Peterborough.—Quinlan, p. and 3rd b; Douglas, 2 b. and p.; Rattray, c.; Graham, 1 b.; Green, 2 b.; Shea, s. s.; Sheridan, l. f.; Connors, c. f.; Stayne, r. f.

Charlotte Street.—Voetz, p. and c. f.; Roddy, c. f. and p.; Law, c.; Thornton, 1 b.; Squires, 3 b.; N. McWilliams, s. s.; Williams, 2 b.; Crowe, l. f.; Ryan, r. f.

Clarke Earls umpired to the satisfaction of all concerned.

ST. ANDREW'S WON THE GAME

Final Score was St. Andrew's 15, St. Paul's 3.

Last night the final four innings of the game between St. Andrew's and St. Paul's in the Guild League, was played, and resulted in a win for St. Andrew's, the final score being 15-3 in their favour, the score for the four innings last night was 7-2.

The quality of ball last night was superior to that of the preceeding part of the game, but was not up to the usual Guild League standard. R. Watt did the twirling for the St. Paul's team, and did fairly well, but it was felt that it was a hopeless task to attempt to defeat St. Andrew's, with the lead which they had and as a result the playing was somewhat listless. The batteries were: — St. Paul's, Watt and Gillespie; St. Andrew's, Swanston and McDonald. W. Cavanah umpired satisfactorily.

BASEBALL.

The Young Elms added another victory to their string by defeating the Aberdeens by default. It was under stood by the umpire that it was to be a seven-innings game. Aberdeens being one run ahead, quit at the end of the fifth innings. The umpire, Mr. W. Shaw, after fifteen minutes wait, gave the game to the Elms.

GAME WARDEN MAKES SEIZURE

Mr. Geo. Fitzgerald Secures 130 Skins.

Considerable Illegal Trapping Done—Found in a Shed Here.

Considerable illegal trapping of beaver has been done, despite the efforts of the Public Works Department to prevent it, in accordance with the new regulation, prohibiting it during the extended close season until 1910. Game Warden Fitzgerald, Peterborough has landed 130 skins which were to be shipped from that place. It is the opinion of the Game Protection Department that these were the pelts of animals captured in Algonquin Park in spite of the large number of rangers employed there.—Mail.

ANOTHER FIRE IN "HOGAN'S ALLEY"

Beautiful Section of the City Again Visited by Blaze.

The Spot is a Menace to Business Section—Action, as Has Been Before Pointed Out, is Imperfect.

The area behind the stores near the north-west corner of George and Simcoe streets was again this morning the scene of a fireeze. This spot is probably the most productive of fires in town, and it certainly is equipped with every facility for creating a blaze, with its consequent excitement, upon the shortest notice. That such an accumulation of filth should be allowed to gather in the very centre of the business portion of the town is inconceivable.

A number of prosecutions have recently been made in the cases of merchants for placing boxes, etc., upon the sidewalks, yet this earthly paradise is allowed to exist without a word of protest. Unless some action is taken a serious fire is bound to result.

DOMINION DAY IN PETERBORO'

How Peterborough People Will Spend the Holiday.

Numerous Excursions Out of Town—Fun for Those Who Remain.

To-morrow, Dominion Day, will be a quiet day in Peterborough. The Regiment, to the number of about 375, will leave for Ottawa to-night, about 10 o'clock, and a large number of townspeople will go out of town to spend the two day's holiday, which the end of the week will give.

Special rates on all the railroads will be in force, starting to-day and continuing until Monday, at single fare, for return trip tickets. The season will practically open at the lakes with the first of the month, and a great many cottagers will go up to spend Sunday or to start their vacation.

The annual excursion of the Auburn Sunday School will be held, by G. T. R. to Lakefield and Stony Lake around the Kawartha Lakes, returning by the same route. This has always been a most enjoyable trip in the past and there is every indication that it will prove so this year.

The annual trip of St. Peter's T. A. S. will take place to-morrow, and as usual the route taken by this society will be down the river Otonabee to Jubilee, where as in the past, doubtless a delightful day will be enjoyed. The Calcutt fleet has been chartered for the day and everything points to a most successful day's outing under this pleasing auspices.

St. Luke's Bible Class annual excursion to Stony Lake will also take place to-morrow, and with fine weather this should be an enjoyable trip as indeed all those conducted in the past by this management have been.

For those who stay at home there will be good sport provided. In the morning at the Riverside Park, an exhibition game of baseball will be played between the Peterborough and Lindsay teams, while in the afternoon at the same place the second league game between these teams will take place, and no doubt both of these games will be largely attended. Considerable interest attaches itself to this game because of the fact that in Lindsay on May 24th, the Red Skins were defeated by Peterborough.

There will be numerous little excursions gotten up by private parties, and the parks will doubtless accommodate their usual number of visitors.

Altogether the day promises to be one of quiet but solid enjoyment, and the work of the new month will be entered upon with renewed vigour because of the day's rest.

P. P. YOUNG,

If Your Liver is Wrong You are Wrong all Over.

A torpid, inactive liver goes hand in hand with constipation, and is a chronic condition, one requiring a systematic, well-directed effort to overcome the same effectually and establish conditions of health and perfect body drainage. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills, containing the two elements needed to increase liver activity and muscular action, go accurately to the sluggish liver and bowels, restoring them to perfect action. They are composed of the two great vegetable agents, pineapple for the stomach, liver and gastric secretions, and butternut for the mucous membrane, circulation and bowels, and always give best results—they are Nature's own laxative. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills cure constipation, biliousness, headache in one night. All dealers 25 cents.

CLAUSE SIXTEEN WAS CARRIED

Nature of Religious Instruction Left to Trustees.

MR. LAMONT'S AMENDMENT

House Continues Discussion of Bill in Committee — Mr. Bourassa's Attack on the Minister of Inland Revenue and the Minister of Justice—The Bergeron Amendment Secures Only Six Votes.

Ottawa, June 30.—The general impression that the Alberta autonomy bill would pass after many months of weary discussion lent interest to the proceedings of the House yesterday, and the galleries were well filled until a late hour waiting for the third reading. The whole day was spent in discussion of the educational clause. Mr. Bergeron's amendment, along the same lines as that voted down Wednesday night, was defeated by 125 to 6. Mr. Bourassa and Mr. Armand Lavergne were the only Liberals to vote in the affirmative.

Mr. Bourassa in Attack.

An exciting feature of the debate was Mr. Bourassa's attack upon the Minister of Inland Revenue and the Minister of Justice, and the resentment he exhibited at being classed as a demagogue.

The protracted debate upon Mr. Bergeron's amendment deferred until a late hour Mr. Lamont's amendment, designed to make it clear that the right to determine the nature of the religious instruction in public schools between 2.30 and 4 o'clock shall be exercised by the trustees, where the majority are Roman Catholics, in the same manner as the Protestants exercise that right when they are in a majority.

Educational Clause Carried.

The amendment was finally carried, and at 1.45 the educational clause as amended was declared carried. Although it was late, the leader of the Opposition, in reply to the Premier, expressed a desire to finish up the committee stage before adjournment, and discussion of clause 2 and the preamble proceeded. After a few minutes Mr. Borden agreed to adjournment.

Mr. Monk's Question.

At the opening yesterday afternoon Mr Monk asked if the Government had received any protests from foreign Governments against the Canadian Government's contracts with steamship companies in regard to immigration from Europe. Sir Wilfrid Laurier promised to inquire into the matter.

INSURANCE BILL WITHDRAWN.

Hon. Mr. Fielding Intends to Look Into the Question.

Ottawa, June 30.—The principal discussion in the Senate yesterday arose over the second reading of the bill to amend the insurance act as regards the investment of funds of life insurance companies in securities of trust companies.

Hon. Mr. McMullen moved the second reading. Sir Mackenzie Bowell said he hoped Mr. McMullen would not press the bill, especially as he understood the insurance department intended to consider the whole question during the recess in interests of policyholders.

Sir Richard Cartwright said Mr. Fielding intended to look into the matter during the recess, and Mr. McMullen was quite willing to withdraw the bill for the present session.

To Span Canada.

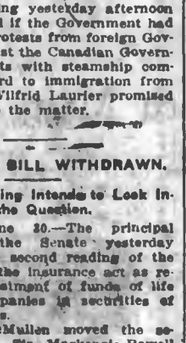
Ottawa, June 30.—The Railway Committee of the Senate yesterday passed, without amendment, the bill respecting the James Bay Railway Co., which will enable the Canadian Northern to connect its western and eastern portions with a line from Port Arthur to Montreal, passing through this city and placing Ottawa on the line of a second trans-continental railway system. The House Railway Committee reported the bill respecting the Canada Central Railway Co.

M.-M. Are Successful.

Ottawa, June 30.—The bill regarding the James' Bay Railway, a Mackenzie & Mann enterprise, passed the Senate Railway Committee yesterday. This bill is for a charter from Toronto to Montreal.

TIRED OUT.

There's many a wife sits in the growing darkness of an evening, knowing what it is to feel tired out; as if there was not another ounce of effort left in her. But if healthy she knows how sound her slumber will be and how refreshed the morning will find her. But it's another thing for the sick woman to feel tired out. Rest only seems to increase her suffering. She feels acutely the aching back and throbbing nerves.



Sick women, hundreds of thousands of them, have been made well by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

"I am pleased to inform you of the benefit I received from using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery,'" writes Mrs. Elizabeth A. Oswald, of 69 Grant Street, Windsor, Essex Co., Ontario, Canada. "Was quite discouraged when I wrote asking your advice, as the physicians here told me I could get no relief except by an operation. Suffered for four years from irregular and painful menstruation, had sick and nervous headaches most of the time, and at times could hardly walk across the floor from weakness. I thank God there is such a remedy as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for suffering women. Before I had taken the first bottle the headaches had left me and it was not long before regularity was established and still continues so. Have just finished three bottles which I never expected to be able to do again, and can truly say I never felt better than at present. I gladly recommend 'Favorite Prescription' to all who suffer from any derangement. It is certainly no end much more stronger in every way. Neither my husband nor myself can say enough in its praises."

The selfish seller who urges some substitute in thinking of the larger profit he'll make and not of your best good.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Steady — Cattle Firm at American Points.

London, June 29.—Cattle are quoted at 10¾c to 12½c per lb.; refrigerator beef, 9¾c to 9¾c per lb.; sheep, 13c roe 14c per pound.

TORONTO LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the city market since Tuesday, as reported by the railways, were 84 car loads, composed of 1098 cattle, 1779 hogs, 1378 sheep and lambs.

Exporters.

Prices ranged from $5 to $5.25, with one or two lots at 10c or 15c per cwt. more. Export bulls sold at $3.50 to $4 per cwt.

Butchers.

A few prime picked butcher, 1150 to 1200 lbs., equal in quality and good enough for export, were reported at $5.25 and one lot at $5.35, but it must be remembered these were stall-fed and few in number. The best loads of stall-fed butchers' sold at $4.75 to $5 per cwt.; medium butcher, $4.50 to $4.75; common at $4.40 to $4.60; prime butcher cows sold at $4.00 to $4.25; good cows at $3.50 to $3.75 and rough at $3.25 per cwt.

Feeders and Stockers.

Short-keep feeders were scarce and worth about $4.50 to $4.75 for the best; light feeders sold at $4 to $4.25; stockers at $3.25 to $3.75 for those weighing 500 to 700 lbs. each.

Milch Cows.

The run was not large, nor were the prices very high. There were some good useful cows sold around $40 each. Prices were quoted at $30 to $45.

Veal Calves.

Considering the quality of veal calves it is wonderful how prices keep up. There were about 150, which sold at $2 to $10 each and $3.50 to $5.50 per cwt., with an odd prime calf at $5.75 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

While there was a fair delivery of sheep and lambs prices remained firm. Export ewes, $3.75 to $3.90 and in some instances $4 per cwt.; bucks, $3 to $3.25; lambs, $3.50 to $5.25 each, or $5 to $8 per cwt.

Hogs.

Deliveries of hogs amounted to about 1800 since Tuesday. Mr. Harris reported prices unchanged to-day, with a prospect of lower prices in the near future.

A Hero Aged Seventy.

Ottawa, June 30.—Hillaire Malais, aged 15 years, was drowned in the Rideau River last evening while bathing. Henry Cowan, father of H. B. Cowan of Toronto, who is 70 years old, made an heroic attempt at rescue, and finally brought the body to the surface, but life was extinct. Mr. Cowan saved a boy in November last, and had previously saved a man's life.

FOUR DIE IN TWO WRECKS.

Train Going 50 Miles An Hour Wrecked—Collision at Kansas City.

Cleveland, June 30.—A fast eastbound passenger train on the Cleveland and Pittsburg branch of the Pennsylvania Road, was derailed and wrecked near Atwater, Ohio., yesterday, causing the death of at least one passenger, while a dozen or more others were more or less injured.

When the accident occurred the train was running about 50 miles an hour. A section gang was making repairs on the track, and, it is said, had removed a rail. A flagman was sent out, but for some reason he failed to stop the flyer.

Kansas City, Mo., June 30.—An Atchison, Topeka and Sante Fe limited passenger train, bound for Chicago, collided with a train on the Belt Line Railway in this city early yesterday. Three persons were killed and three injured.

LONG DISTANCE LINES.

Telephone Committee's Correspondence is Pretty Heavy.

Ottawa, June 30.—Yesterday morning the Committee on Telephone Systems held a brief sitting and disposed of a large batch of correspondence. Among about a hundred letters received were resolutions from some sixteen municipalities favoring Government ownership of long-distance telephone lines, as follows:—Draper, York, Rama and Sullivan Townships, Essex County; Alisa Craig, Weston, Peterboro' and Ontario Municipal Association; Halifax County, N. S.; St. Andrews, N. B.; Wetaskiwin and Maple Creek, N. W. T.; Neepawa, Pipestone, Riverside and Morris Townships, Man.

ASHORE OFF CHILE.

The Tropic Likely to Become a Wreck —Two Men Drowned.

Constitucion, Chile, June 30.—The British steamer Tropic is ashore 15 miles north of Constitucion. It is feared she will become a wreck. Ten of her crew have been landed, two were drowned and the remainder are on board the steamer.

The British steamer Tropic, Capt. Barber, left New York March 17, for Valparaiso, and sailed thence May 25 for Arica, Chile.

Cured Kidney Disease.

Mrs. Fred Hills, Waiton Street, Port Hope, Ont., states:—"I was troubled for some time with kidney disease and though I tried a great many different medicines, never succeeded in obtaining relief until I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By the regular use of this preparation for a time I was completely cured of kidney disease.

AN ENGLISH REVELATION.

Canadian Manufacturers Not Prepared to See So Much Prosperity.

London, June 30.—(C. A. P.)—The Sheffield Independent, referring to the visit of the Canadian manufacturers, says: The inspection of our great industrial works opened the eyes of some of our visitors, who were not prepared for the signs of manufacturing prosperity that met them on every hand.

Formal Orders For Release.

Toronto, June 30.—Formal orders for the release of the two Pere Marquette Railway officials were issued yesterday at Osgoode Hall. If the Dominion Government is granted leave to appeal this case to the Privy Council, they will call upon the Attorney-General of Ontario to support their claim that the Legislature of Ontario should enforce deportation. It is said that the Dominion Government has no power to deprive any person of liberty unless by way of arrest preliminary to trial or except for punishment for a criminal offence.

Call Boy's Narrow Escape.

Toronto Junction, June 30.—Herman McDonald, a C. P. R. call boy, living at 71 East Annette street, had a miraculous escape from death yesterday morning. He was running across the tracks in the C. P. R. yards when he stumbled and fell between the rails in front of a yard engine. The engineer stopped the engine when the boy underneath was within a few inches of the ash box. The boy was dragged out, none the worse for his mishap.

Knife Against Pick.

Port Arthur, June 30.—A stabbing affray took place yesterday when an Italian was slashed with a knife several times by a countryman in a wrangle about wages. One, Duelo, pulled out a dirk knife and plunged into a man named Riola, inflicting dangerous wounds. Riola got hold of a pick close by and struck Duelo, cutting a gash in his abdomen several inches long. Riola was stabbed eight times. Duelo made his escape, but was caught by officers.

IT is not the amount of heat you generate in the boiler that makes a successful heating system. It is the amount of heat you use.

We have succeeded in designing a boiler that holds and uses more of the heat generated in the fire-pot than any other boiler on the market.

Oxford Hot Water Boiler

Sides of the fire-pot slant inwards above the fire, so that instead of the heat sliding up through the flues it sharply impinges against these inclined walls. In first water section nearest fire, the flues are bell-shaped, so that a very great surface is exposed.

The Oxford Boiler saves fuel because every bit of the heat generated by it is used.

Complete details of Oxford Boiler superiority is told in our catalogue. It's free.

A HANDSOME BANK OFFICE

Bank of Ottawa One of Most Handsome of Peterborough Banks.

A New Financial Institution Which Will Open its Doors on Monday.

On Monday morning, July 3rd, there will open to the public the doors of a new financial institution, those of the Bank of Ottawa, making the sixth chartered bank in Peterborough. The new concern, new only in respect to its branch in Peterborough, for the Bank of Ottawa is one of the oldest and strongest institutions in the Dominion, starts out with splendid prospects for business. The location is an excellent one, being situated on George street, the principal business street of the town, one door north of Hunter street, in the Morrow Block, which has recently been thoroughly refitted and modernized to meet the requirements of the new business.

Mr. A. A. Hollingshead, who will occupy the position of Manager of the bank, is well known in Peterborough since for the past eleven years he has been associated with the banking business in Peterborough and as a result is well qualified to make a successful manager of an institution of the nature of that referred to.

This morning Mr. Hollingshead conducted a representative of the Examiner through the new bank premises, which are in addition to being commodious, most elegantly fitted up and equipped and the bank will easily have one of the best appointed premises in town, which is no idle boast, for there are some handsome bank structures in this new city.

An entire new front has been placed in the building, new plate glass windows being installed, while the wood work has been renewed and painted and grained.

Inside, the office presents a rich and substantial appearance as well as one which is pleasing to the eye. All the interior woodwork is of quartered oak, the fittings being supplied by the Ontario Office Furniture Company, of Preston, through their local agent, Mr. J. D. Craig. Comfortable seats and desks of the same rich material are placed for the convenience of the bank's patrons. The teller's desk is at the front, nearest the entrance, and to the north of it the collector's desk, while on the south side are desks for ledger, discounts and accountant, and at the rear of the general office a private office for the manager, which is large and comfortable, being furnished appropriately, and the floor covered with a rich tapestry carpet of pretty design.

The metal fittings are all oxydized brass, and the electrical light fixtures are in old brass, the pillar lamps, in globes, giving a quiet, subdued effect to the office.

The walls are covered with a pretty light coloured paper with wainscotting of green burlap, while on the floor an ingrain linoleum of light green, harmonizing with the other furnishings, has been laid. The whole appearance of the interior is most pleasing, and the office will be a credit to the dignity of the name of the institution which it bears, on the front in gold block letters.

The decorating, painting, graining and lettering are the work of the local artist, Mr. Fred Cook, and are eloquent tributes to his skill as a decorator.

Under the management of Mr. Hollingshead, the bank is certain to do a good business, and with the prestige which the standing of the institution will give the local branch there is little reason to doubt that in the course of a short time the Bank of Ottawa in Peterborough will be one of the leading institutions, as it is now, one of the handsomest structures.

Courteous treatment will be accorded to all patrons of the bank, and starting under such pleasing and promising circumstances, a happy augury for its future success is afforded.

The directors and officers of the Bank of Ottawa are:

President—George Hay.
Vice-President—David Maclaren.
General Manager — Geo. Burn.
Asst. General Manager — D. M. Finnie.
Directors — H. N. Bate, Hon. Geo. Bryson, H. K. Egan, J. B. Fraser, John Mather, Denis Murphy, Geo. H. Perley, M. P.

The authorized capital of the bank is $3,000,000, and the paid up capital $2,500,000. The rest and unearned profits are $2,573,600. The assets of the bank are $23,000,000.

WERE MARRIED AT LEDUC, ALTA.

Former Peterbororough Young Lady Wedded in North West

Miss Ida May Armstrong United in Marriage to Dr. J. A. Little.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Armstrong, Leduc, Alta., on Wednesday, June 14th, when their second daughter Ida May, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Dr. J. A. Little, B. A., of Olds, Alta. The ceremony took place before a bank of flowers artistically arranged and was performed by the Rev. W. J. Crowley, B. A., assisted by the Rev. A. W. K. Herdman.

Promptly at 5.30 p. m., the bride leaning on the arm of her father, and carrying a bouquet of white roses. Lily of the Valley and Maiden Hair fern entered the parlour to the strains of the wedding march, played by Mrs. R. S. Williamson, of Edmonton, sister of the bride. The groom was supported by Dr. A. A. Nicholls, of Edmonton, and Miss Luella Armstrong, performed the duties of bridesmaid. The bride looked beautiful in a gown of white organdie over taffeta, with trimmings of silk maltese insertion and lace.

The bridesmaid looked very pretty gowned in white organdie with trimmings of valenciennes lace and ribbon and carrying a bouquet of white Carnations and, Maidenhair fern.

After the bride and groom had received the congratulations of their friends a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The bride's going away dress was of green Amazon cloth, with hat to match. The presents were numerous and costly, showing the esteem in which the bride is held by her many friends. The bride and bridesmaid received handsome gold brooches of dainty design, the gift of the groom.

The happy couple left on Thursday's express for their future home in Olds, amid showers of rice and good wishes.

A partial list of the presents is as follows:—

A gold lined fruit spoon, Mr. and Mrs. D. C McEachern; bon-bon dish, Mr. E. Schunke; lace curtains, Mr. J. Leask; silver salt and pepper cruit, Mr. H. B. COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE BY-LAW DEFEATED

Majority of 143 Recorded Against By-Law to Raise $50,000 to Erect a New Collegiate Institute—Neither of the Five Wards Gave a Majority for the By-Law—Total Vote Polled was Small—Only 697 Votes Were Recorded—A Disinclination to Spend More Money for Schools.

The vote yesterday on the bylaw to raise $50,000 additional for the erection of the Collegiate Institute resulted rather disastrously for the cause of higher education, the bylaw being defeated by 143 of a majority in a small vote.

Out of a total of about 2,000 available votes only 697 were polled, showing that there was not a very general interest taken in the project. It is probable that a great many of those who were favourable to the proposal refrained from voting, because they were not sufficiently interested in the matter to take the trouble of going to the polls, and it was through indifference on the part of those who were nominally favourable coupled coupled with the heavy adverse vote in No. 1 Ward, which was responsible for the defeat of the bylaw.

It is a fact to be deeply deplored that the persons to whom the benefits of the Collegiate would most largely accrue should be so strongly opposed to the erection of a building in which their children would be able to procure an education which would prepare them to more successfully compete with their fellows in business pursuits.

In only two sub-divisions were there majorities recorded in favour of the passing of the bylaw, in No. 5 in which there was a majority of 13, and in No. 3, where there was one more vote for than against. But every ward gave an adverse vote to the project, the majority of 12 for, in sub-division 5, being more than overbalanced by the 14 against in No. 1.

There seemed to be a general disinclination on the part of the ratepayers to give any more than the fifty thousand dollars already voted for the erection of the Institute, and among the people of the town there seemed to be an opinion that the town could not afford the amount suggested, so put into the erection of a building for educational purposes, in view of the fact that many believed that more public school accommodation was also necessary.

The members of the School Board were much disappointed at the result of the voting and expressed themselves freely to this effect. They believed that the ratepayers had made a mistake and were blind to their best interests.

As to the influences which tended to the defeat of the bylaw there is little doubt that the fact of the Board going to the people for a revote of a second $50,000, had a decided detrimental effect on the vote, since it was taken in some quarters as an evidence of the fact that the Board was not handling the matter in a way which justified voting the additional amount asked for. These persons, however, doubtless did not take into consideration the fact that there were circumstances which practically rendered it impossible for the Board to act in any other way than they did.

What the future course of the Board will be of course is not known. One off the members stated that in all probability the erection of a building which will cost within the amount voted for that purpose in January, will be proceeded with.

Certainly some provision other than that enjoyed at present must be made, and it is possible that though the proposal to erect a building which many persons believed would not be too elaborate for the city that is to be, has not met with sufficient support to warrant its erection, a more modern structure will be erected.

At present the town has no Collegiate Institute, the building now being used for that purpose being the property of the Public School Board.

A BRIEF CONDENSED HISTORICAL SKETCH

telephone apparatus itself is now in progress.

Five sections each handling one hundred subscribers have been installed, making an exchange for 600 subscribers. These can be added to as required by the addition of more sections, each section increasing the capacity by 100 subscribers. The making of these additions is an easy matter and is one of the features of the news system, a description of which, however, will not be attempted in this reference.

The subscribers' instruments will be installed as soon as the work at the Central office has been completed. These instruments are best described by the cut which is published herewith.

Subscriber's Instrument — Machine Telephone.

To make a call the subscriber forms the number he wishes to connect with by the moving of small levers seen on the top of the front of the telephone, then he turns the handle at the bottom of the front of the telephone and the connection is made by the machine at the central office.

As stated before much attention has already been directed to Peterborough by the installation of this plant here, and as soon as it is in operation it will attract many visitors, as the telephone question appears to be a very live one at the present time. Besides this, telephone men all over will be interested in the development of a system which embodies so much that is new in telephony, and promises such revolutionary results.

The Company is losing no time in completing its work, but the utmost care for obvious reasons must be taken in putting out a new system, and especially is this the case when the interests involved are so important and the result so wide reaching. It is not a question alone of giving service to Peterborough but it is also the wider one of demonstrating to the telephone world and the public generally the advance which the new system makes in insuring more efficient and absolutely secret telephone service.

The new city of Peterborough will certainly become known in many new quarters on account of being the place where the first Lorimer system goes into operation.

Manufacturing Establishments.

Writing on machine telephones naturally suggests thoughts of other machinery and these suggest in turn some reference to the industries of Peterborough. In the limits of a sketch like this it is impossible to more than indicate in a brief manner the character, location and general features of Peterborough's manufacturing establishments. The order of priority of reference is, in a general way, regulated by date of establishment as closely as possible. Necessarily reference is chiefly made to those establishments doing an export business in their several products.

The Dickson Company's lumber mills occupy a position at Burnham's Point, on Little Lake, and have two claims to distinction—they are the pioneer of the existing industries of the city, and with one or two exceptions the only establishment using considerable power which employs steam as a motive energy. The Company carries on an extensive lumbering business in supplying local and export demand and has been associated with and has contributed a large share to the growth and prosperity of Peterborough.

Hamilton's Agricultural Works were in 1848, and the present proprietor, Mr. Peter Hamilton, assisted in later years by his sons, has successfully conducted the business for the past forty and more years, which is thoroughly well equipped as to buildings, machinery and other essentials and employs a large staff, many of whom have grown from boyhood to gray hairs, in the service of the business. The manufacture of mowers, the light steel binders, ploughs, harrows, and, in fine, almost every implement required by the farmer, is carried on most extensively, the high quality of the products creating a large demand from every part of the Midland district, where the name, Hamilton, in relation to farm implements of every kind, has become a household word.

The William Hamilton Manufacturing Company conducts one of the most important and extensive of the industrial establishments of Peterborough. Established in 1859, they have grown yearly in business and importance. The products of the industry are saw-mill machinery of every kind and of the best kind, engines and boilers, marine and stationary. Solidity and perfection mark all the machinery produced. The company's market is the whole Dominion, and their products stand in high favour from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The Auburn Woollen Mills in the northern part of the city, with buildings of solid stone, equipped with the best of modern machinery, are the home of a great textile industry. The tweeds and other fabrics produced by the Auburn Woollen mills have a name and a quality to back them, unsurpassed by any other factory in Canada.

English's Canoe Factory is the pioneer in canoe building on this continent and canoes from this famous factory are found in use in every continent of the world, and among the trophies treasured by the company are medals awarded to their canoes at three of four world's expositions.

Mann's Planing Mills, Dublin street began operations in 1848, though changing hands many times since. They are now conducted by Mr. E. H. Mann.

Point St. Charles' Saw-mills, owned and conducted by Mr. Alfred McDonald since 1875, devotes special attention to the production of bill timber, though there is an extensive box factory and planing mill in connection.

Mr. J. Walter Green's Foundry, Machine Shop and Pump and Windmill Works, are a revival and extension of a business founded in 1876.

The Matthews' Company's Pork Manufacturing establishment, was founded here in 1882, and since that time the business has greatly grown and the premises greatly enlarged, and now the company has here one of the largest and most complete suite of factory buildings, perfectly equipped, to be found in Canada. Artificial refrigerating apparatus is installed and everything favours the production of the prime hams, bacon and other products that find their way to the market, and into the favour of the Old Country in immense quantities the year round.

The Canadian Canoe Company, established sever al years ago, conducts a flourishing business in the manufacture of canoes, skiffs, launches, etc., in their factory, corner George and Dalhousie streets.

The MsAllister Milling Company occupies the oldest flour mill buildings in Peterborough,—built in 1846, but forty years later, rebuilt and enlarged. The present mills do a very large export flour business, as well as a good local trade. Their several brands of flour possess exceptional excellence.

The Peterborough Canoe Company, organized 1882, has an extensive factory on Water street. Every kind of canoe, skiff, pleasure craft, steam yachts and launches, etc., are produced and of a high standard of excellence. In connection, an extensive flourishing planing mill and house-building supply business is conducted.

The Peterborough Lock Works were established in 1885 by a joint stock company. The fastery premises at the present time are on Simcoe street but the recent immense expansion of the company's business, under more energetic management, has compelled the erection of larger buildings, for which a site has been purchased in the northern part of the city. The quality of the goods produced from the company's own designs, consisting of locks, door and window fastenings and builders' hardware of every description, promotes sale and the capacity of the works are overtaxed and it is expected that the erection and occupancy of larger buildings will greatly increase the business and prosperity of the company.

Turner's Tent, Awning, and Sail Factory business, established here in 1885, had but a humble beginning. But now the firm of J. J. Turner & Sons occupy splendid new factory buildings on the corner of King and George streets, where a brisk and growing business in the manufacture of tents, sails, awnings and allied goods, yields products which find their way to every part of Canada and to the Mother Country.

The Ackerman wholesale harness factory, on George street, was established in 1892. A very large business is carried on in the manufacture of all kinds of harness, which find a ready market in all parts of the Dominion.

The Central Milling Company, a recently organized corporation, has fine buildings at the C. P. R. station, operated by electricity, and conducts a thriving and profitable business in the manufacture of flour for the local and export trade.

The Canadian General Electric Company's works represent one of the largest, and most important, and largest labour employing industries in Peterborough, or the Dominion. The company's works were established here in 1890, and liberally assisted by the town, which has never for one moment regretted, but, on the contrary is proud of, the share it had in establishing so splendid an industrial an enterprise in the town. The extensive works occupy 34 acres of land, and the buildings at present in use, numbering about thirty, cover over 400,000 square feet of surface and about 1000 hands are given daily, and many, nightly, employment. At these immense works is produced almost everything in use in the application of electricity to domestic or economic purposes—electric generators, dynamos, for factory use and street cars, etc., etc., and also steam turbines, incandescent lamps, carbons, insulated wire, etc., etc. The demand for the products of the works comes from every part of the Dominion, and the works are at present employed upon immense contracts, for some of the largest generating machinery made anywhere. The present extensive works and plant are quite inadequate to supply the great demand, and plans are prepared for additional factory buildings to be erected the coming year, which will add from one-half to two-thirds to the present immense buildings, and productive equipment of the works, and proportionately increase the number of hands employed. With this, or a similar, expansion in view, the capital stock of the company has been very largely strengthened.

The American Cereal Company's immense seven story fatcory buildings and steel elevator, on the river front, represent another of Peterborough's important industries, and is the production centre of that world renowned food, "Quaker Oats," whose praise, as well as substance, is in almost everybody's mouth. These works were established in Peterborough in the autumn of 1902. The factory converts into breakfast food by the help of about four hundred hands, five millions of bushels of oats per year. It has a line of railway on each side of its buildings, connecting with both the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific Railway, and a train load of finished product is shipped daily and from 40 to 50 cars of raw material are handled daily. The raw material— 5,000,000 bushels of oats — represent at 30 bushels per acre, the product of over 160,000 acres, or one thousand six hundred farms of 100 acres each.

The Canadian Cordage and Manufacturing Company is another of the young and lusty industrial giants that has taken residence in Peterborough recently. The works of the company were established in 1902. They cover almost an acre of ground in the southern part of the town, and the plant, both in regard to the character and arrangement of the several buildings, and the special machinery installed, meets the most exacting requirements of modern cordage manufacture, as well as being provided with the most perfect fire extinguishing protection. Altogether the works constitute the most advanced modern twine, rope and cordage factory in the Dominion. Recently the factory has turned out some of the largest hawsers and cables for oil well use ever produced in the Dominion. A specialty is the superb quality of binder twine produced. Since its establishment under efficient management the business of the company has flourished, and this year it is expected that the doubled output will be absorbed by the increasing demand for the several products of the works, which require about 300 hands —an infant industry, but a lusty one.

Still another infant industry, and that too, a lusty one, is the Peterborough Cereal Company, which began operations upon a new and large food industry, only last week—flour and "Flakes," the latter the breakfast food of the future. The plant of the new industry which was described in detail in last Saturday's Examiner is entirely new throughout and of the most substantial as well as modern character. The plant is double in character, part flour mills and part are specially and splendidly equipped buildings to be devoted to the manufacture of a special food preparation known as "Canada Flakes" and the manufacture of other cereal food, shredded vegetables of every kind. Both the flouring mills which are equipped with the most modern machinery and appliances, and the other department is fitted up in a most complete and thorough manner for the special lines of manufacture. The main buildings, solidly constructed are 40x124 feet in area with a four story warehouse 40x50 feet, besides auxiliary structures. The works of the Peterborough Cereal Company are a very important addition to our industries and the enterprise of the company in advertising their wares and the goods themselves will effectively advertise the City of Peterborough and emphasize its suitability as a home for manufacturing industries seeking the advantages of cheap power, excellent railway facilities and generally favourable conditions.

Still another new industry is represented by the Peterborough Tool Company whose plant is ready for operation and will begin its industrial life with the citybood of Peterborough. This promises to be a most thriving industry, and has made a good beginning. The buildings erected south of the C.P.R. tracks are elaborate and extensive, the main building being 68x260 feet in area and in this the most improved and most modern special machinery is installed. The prospects of the Company's success are of the highest order; the activity in railway construction now beginning will create for years a brisk demand for all the products of the Works, such as shovels, spades and other tools of that kind. The quality of the goods is superior to anything of the kind heretofore made in the country, and will doubtless meet with a demand to readily absorb the productive capacity—eighteen hundred shovels per day.

Reference has been made to our principal industries, many of the minor ones, though important in their way being necessarily unreferred to. It might be mentioned, however, that two or three new industries are represented by the Colonial Weaving Company, established two years ago and manufacturing woven labels for manufactured goods; the Ultimator Sifter Company, flooring requisite; the Taylor Tile and Brick Company, cement brick and tile, and the Novel Ti Company, manufacturing neck wear, and numerous others.

Space will not permit of more than a general reference to the numerous societies and other organizations, represented by the Masonic, Oddfellows, Orange and Forester fraternities, the numerous trade unions and labour societies etc., etc. The social instinct of Peterborough citizens in these directions is very highly developed.

A recollection of what has been said respecting the early history and progress of Peterborough, of her continuous growth in wealth and population, of her natural and acquired facilities of all kinds, and her splendid manufacturing establishments, indicates that Peterborough enters cityhood with a material equipment and prospects for prosperity, that have never perhaps attended the elevation of any other Canadian town to the status of a city.

The foregoing sketch does not claim to be even approximately complete or detailed, but it is a recognition of the standing of Peterborough and a merited reference to the importance of the occasion. When the first town of the Dominion drops that title to assume the merited title of the best of the minor cities of the Dominion, it will make Dominion Day, July 1st, 1905, a day to be marked with a white stone on the calendar of her citizens.

"My Horse Eats Oats, I Eat

CANADA FLAKES"

The horse needs the heat generated by the oats—his clothes are light; but the man does not. The blood of the man overheats and shows at once in pimples and other skin eruptions.

Canada Flakes is a wheat food—all of the wheat, thoroughly cooked, flaked and toasted to a crispy brown. Try it and you'll never deny it.

Discard meat for just two weeks and eat Canada Flakes in its place. Note the effect. Indigestion is banished and your health is improved generally.

Canada Flakes is digested thoroughly by the weakest stomach. The baby thrives on it—makes the most perfect child-food possible.

Science claims that "wheat and milk make a perfect food combination",—that is, will sustain life without anything else. But the wheat must be in digestible form. Just watch baby grow fat on Canada Flakes and you will need no further proof of the food value.

Canada Flakes—Toasted wheat, ready-to-eat, delicious and nutritious. It is what you eat makes you sick, because you partake of matter that the body cannot assimilate. Choose a perfect food, a digestible food —Canada Flakes—and you will be healthy. Ask your Grocer for Canada Flakes and take no other.

FROM the years 1894 to 1901, inclusive, Mr. Sherlock Holmes was a very busy man. It is safe to say that there was no public case of any difficulty in which he was not consulted during those eight years, and there were hundreds of private cases, some of them of the most intricate and extraordinary character, in which he played a prominent part. As I have preserved very full notes of all these cases and was myself personally engaged in many of them, it may be imagined that it is no easy task to know which I should select to lay before the public. I shall, however, preserve my former rule and give the preference to those cases which derive their interest not so much from the brutality of the crime as from the ingenuity and dramatic quality of the solution. For this reason I will now lay before the reader the facts connected with Miss Violet Smith, the solitary cyclist of Charlington, and the curious sequel of our investigation, which culminated in unexpected tragedy.

On referring to my notebook for the year 1895 I find that it was upon Saturday, the 23d of April, that we first heard of Miss Violet Smith. Her visit was, I remember, extremely unwelcome to Holmes, for he was immersed at the moment in a very abstruse and complicated problem concerning the peculiar persecution to which John Vincent Harden, the well known tobacco millionaire, had been subjected. My friend, who loved above all things precision and concentration of thought, resented anything which distracted his attention from the matter in hand. And yet, without a harshness which was foreign to his nature, it was impossible to refuse to listen to the story of the young and beautiful woman, tall, graceful and queenly, who presented herself at Baker street late in the evening and implored his assistance and advice. It was vain to urge that his time was already fully occupied, for the young lady had come with the determination to tell her story, and it was evident that nothing short of force could get her out of the room until she had done so. With a resigned air and a somewhat weary smile, Holmes begged the beautiful intruder to take a seat and to inform us what it was that was troubling her.

"At least it cannot be your health," said he as his keen eyes darted over her. "So ardent a bicyclist must be full of energy."

She glanced down in surprise at her own feet, and I observed the slight roughening of the side of the sole caused by the friction of the edge of the pedal.

"Yes, I bicycle a good deal, Mr. Holmes, and that has something to do with my visit to you today."

My friend took the lady's ungloved hand and examined it with as close an attention and as little sentiment as a scientist would show to a specimen.

"You will excuse me, I am sure. It is my business," said he as he dropped it. "I nearly fell into the error of supposing that you were typewriting. Of course it is obvious that it is music. You observe the spatulate finger ends, Watson, which is common to both professions? There is a spirituality about the face, however"—she gently turned it toward the light—"which the typewriter does not generate. This lady is a musician."

"Yes, Mr. Holmes, I teach music."

"In the country, I presume, from your complexion."

"Yes, sir; near Farnham, on the borders of Surrey."

"Now, Miss Violet, what has happened to you near Farnham, on the borders of Surrey?"

The young lady, with great clearness and composure, made the following curious statement:

"My father is dead, Mr. Holmes. He was James Smith, who conducted the orchestra at the old Imperial theater. My mother and I were left without a relation in the world except one uncle, Ralph Smith, who went to Africa twenty-five years ago, and we have never had a word from him since. When father died we were left very poor, but one day we were told that there was an advertisement in the Times inquiring for our whereabouts. You can imagine how excited we were, for we thought that some one had left us a fortune. We went at once to the lawyer whose name was given in the paper. There we met two gentlemen, Mr. Carruthers and Mr. Woodley, who were home on a visit from South Africa. They said that my uncle was a friend of theirs, that he had died some months before in great poverty in Johannesburg, and that he had asked them with his last breath to hunt up his relations and see that they were in no want. It seemed strange to us that Uncle Ralph, who took no notice of us when he was alive, should be so careful to look after us when he was dead, but Mr. Carruthers explained that the reason was that my uncle had just heard of the death of his brother and so felt responsible for our fate."

"Excuse me," said Holmes. "When was this interview?"

"Last December—four months ago."

Copyright by Collier's Weekly.

"IT WAS A STRAIGHT LEFT AGAINST A SLOGGING RUFFIAN."

"Pray proceed."

"Mr. Woodley seemed to me to be a most odious person. He was forever making eyes at me—a coarse, puffy faced, red mustached young man, with his hair plastered down on each side of his forehead. I thought that he was perfectly hateful, and I was sure that Cyril would not wish me to know such a person."

"Oh, Cyril is his name!" said Holmes, smiling.

The young lady blushed and laughed. "Yes, Mr. Holmes, Cyril Morton, an electrical engineer, and we hope to be married at the end of the summer. Dear me, how did I get talking about him? What I wished to say was that Mr. Woodley was perfectly odious, but that Mr. Carruthers, who was a much older man, was more agreeable. He was a dark, sallow, clean shaven, silent person, but he had polite manners and a pleasant smile. He inquired how we were left, and on finding that we were very poor he suggested that I should come and teach music to his only daughter, aged ten. I said that I did not like to leave my mother, on which he suggested that I should go home to her every week end, and he offered me a hundred a year, which was certainly splendid pay. So it ended by my accepting, and I went down to Chiltern Grange, about six miles from Farnham. Mr. Carruthers was a widower, but he had engaged a lady housekeeper, a very respectable, elderly person, called Mrs. Dixon, to look after his establishment. The child was a dear, and everything promised well. Mr. Carruthers was very kind and very musical, and we had most pleasant evenings together. Every week end I went home to my mother in town.

"The first flaw in my happiness was the arrival of the red mustached Mr. Woodley. He came for a visit of a week, and, oh, it seemed three months to me. He was a dreadful person—a bully to every one else, but to me something infinitely worse. He made odious love to me, boasted of his wealth, said that if I married him I could have the finest diamonds in London, and finally when I would have nothing to do with him he seized me in his arms one day after dinner—he was hideously strong—and swore that he would not let me go until I had kissed him. Mr. Carruthers came in and tore him from me, on which he turned upon his own host, knocking him down and cutting his face open. That was the end of his visit, as you can imagine. Mr. Carruthers apologized to me next day and assured me that I should never be exposed to such an insult again. I have not seen Mr. Woodley since.

"And now, Mr. Holmes, I come at last to the special thing which has caused me to ask your advice today. You must know that every Saturday forenoon I ride on my bicycle to Farnham station in order to get the 12.22 to town. The road from Chiltern Grange is a lonely one, and at one spot it is particularly so, for it lies for over a mile between Charlington heath upon one side and the woods which lie round Charlington Hall upon the other. You could not find a more lonely tract of road anywhere, and it is quite rare to meet so much as a cart or a peasant until you reach the highroad near Crooksbury hill. Two weeks ago I was passing this place when I chanced to look back over my shoulder, and about 200 yards behind me I saw a man, also on a bicycle. He seemed to be a middle aged man, with a short, dark beard. I looked back before I reached Farnham, but the man was gone, so I thought no more about it. But you can imagine how surprised I was, Mr. Holmes, when on my return on the Monday I saw the same man on the same stretch of road. My astonishment was increased when the incident occurred again, exactly as before, on the following Saturday and Monday. He always kept his distance and did not molest me in any way, but still it certainly was very odd. I mentioned it to Mr. Carruthers, who seemed interested in what I said and told me that he had ordered a horse and trap, so that in future I should not pass over these lonely roads without some companion.

"The horse and trap were to have come this week, but for some reason they were not delivered, and again I had to cycle to the station. That was this morning. You can think that I looked out when I came to Charlington heath, and there, sure enough, was the man, exactly as he had been the two weeks before. He always kept so far from me that I could not clearly see his face, but it was certainly some one whom I did not know. He was dressed in a dark suit with a cloth cap. The only thing about his face that I could clearly see was his dark beard.

"Today I was not alarmed, but I was filled with curiosity, and I determined to find out who he was and what he wanted. I slowed down my machine, but he slowed down his. Then I stopped altogether, but he stopped also. Then I laid a trap for him. There is a sharp turning of the road, and I pedaled very quickly round this, and then I stopped and waited. I expected him to shoot round and pass me before he could stop. But he never appeared. Then I went back and looked round the corner. I could see a mile of road, but he was not on it. To make it the more extraordinary, there was no side road at this point down which he could have gone."

Holmes chuckled and rubbed his hands. "This case certainly presents some features of its own," said he. "How much time elapsed between your turning the corner and your discovery that the road was clear?"

"Two or three minutes."

"Then he could not have retreated down the road, and you say that there are no side roads?"

"None."

"Then he certainly took a footpath on one side or the other."

"It could not have been on the side of the heath or I should have seen him."

"So by the process of exclusion we arrive at the fact that he made his way toward Charlington Hall, which, as I understand, is situated in its own grounds on one side of the road. Anything else?"

"Nothing, Mr. Holmes, save that I was so perplexed that I felt I should not be happy until I had seen you and had your advice."

Holmes sat in silence for some little time.

"Where is the gentleman to whom you are engaged?" he asked at last.

"He is in the Midland Electrical company, at Coventry."

"He would not pay you a surprise visit?"

"Oh, Mr. Holmes! As if I should not know him!"

"Have you had any other admirers?"

"Several before I knew Cyril."

"And since?"

"There was this dreadful man, Woodley, if you can call him an admirer."

"No one else?"

Our fair client seemed a little confused.

"Who was he?" asked Holmes.

"Oh, it may be a mere fancy of mine, but it had seemed to me sometimes that my employer, Mr. Carruthers, takes a great deal of interest in me. He has never said anything. He is a perfect gentleman. But a girl always knows."

"Ha!" Holmes looked grave. "What does he do for a living?"

"He is a rich man."

"No carriages or horses?"

"Well, at least he is fairly well to do. But he goes into the city two or three times a week. He is deeply interested in South African gold shares."

"You will let me know any fresh development, Miss Smith. I am very busy just now, but I will find time to make some inquiries into your case. In the meantime take no step without letting me know. Goodby, and I trust that we shall have nothing but good news from you."

"It is part of the settled order of nature that such a girl should have followers," said Holmes as he pulled at his meditative pipe, "but for choice not on bicycles in lonely country roads. Some secretive lover, beyond all doubt. But there are curious and suggestive details about the case, Watson."

"That he should appear only at that point?"

"Exactly. Our first effort must be to find who are the tenants of Charlington Hall. Then, again, how about the connection between Carruthers and Woodley, since they appear to be men of such a different type? How came they both to be so keen upon looking up Ralph Smith's relations? One more point. What sort of a menage is it which pays double the market price for a governess, but does not keep a horse, although six miles from the station? Odd, Watson—very odd!"

"You will go down?"

"No, my dear fellow; you will go down. This may be some trifling intrigue, and I cannot break my other important research for the sake of it. On Monday you will arrive early at Farnham; you will conceal yourself near Charlington heath; you will observe these facts for yourself and act as your own judgment advises. Then, having inquired as to the occupants of the hall, you will come back to me and report."

We had ascertained from the lady that she went down upon the Monday by the train which leaves Waterloo at 9:50, so I started early and caught the 9:13. At Farnham station I had no difficulty in being directed to Charlington heath. It was impossible to mistake the scene of the young lady's adventure, for the road runs between the open heath on one side and an old yew hedge upon the other, surrounding a park which is studded with magnificent trees. There was a main gateway of lichen studded stone, each side pillar surmounted by moldering heraldic emblems, but besides this central carriage drive I observed several points where there were gaps in the hedge and paths leading through them. The house was invisible from the road, but the surroundings all spoke of gloom and decay.

The heath was covered with golden patches of flowering gorse gleaming magnificently in the light of the bright spring sunshine. Behind one of these clumps I took up my position so as to command both the gateway of the hall and a long stretch of the road upon either side. It had been deserted when I left it, but now I saw a cyclist riding down it from the opposite direction to that in which I had come. He was clad in a dark suit, and I saw that he had a black beard. On reaching the end of the Charlington grounds he sprang from his machine and led it through a gap in the hedge, disappearing from my view.

A quarter of an hour passed, and then a second cyclist appeared. This time it was the young lady coming from the station. I saw her look about her as she came to the Charlington hedge. An instant later the man emerged from his hiding place, sprang upon his cycle and followed her. In all the broad landscape those were the only moving figures, the graceful girl sitting very straight upon her machine and the man behind her bending low over his handle bar with a curiously furtive suggestion in every movement. She looked back at him and slowed her pace. He slowed also. She stopped. He at once stopped, too, keeping 200 yards behind her. Her next movement was as unexpected as it was spirited. She suddenly whisked her wheels round and dashed straight at him. He was as quick as she, however, and darted off in desperate flight. Presently she came back up the road again, her head haughtily in the air, not deigning to take any further notice of her silent attendant. He had turned also and still kept his distance until the curve of the road hid them from my sight.

I remained in my hiding place, and it was well that I did so, for presently the man reappeared, cycling slowly back. He turned in at the hall gates and dismounted from his machine. For some minutes I could see him standing among the trees. His hands were raised, and he seemed to be settling his necktie. Then he mounted his cycle and rode away from me down the drive toward the hall. I ran across the heath and peered through the trees. Far away I could catch glimpses of the old gray building, with its bristling Tudor chimneys, but the drive ran through a dense shrubbery, and I saw no more of my man.

However, it seemed to me that I had done a fairly good morning's work, and I walked back in high spirits to Farnham. The local house agent could tell me nothing about Charlington Hall and referred me to a well known firm in Pall Mall. There I halted on my way home and met with courtesy from the representative. No, I could not have Charlington Hall for the summer. I was just too late. It had been let about a month ago. Mr. Williamson was the name of the tenant. He was a respectable, elderly gentleman. The polite agent was afraid he could say no more, as the affairs of his clients were not matters which he could discuss.

Mr. Sherlock Holmes listened with attention to the long report which I was able to present to him that evening, but it did not elicit that word of curt praise which I had hoped for and should have valued. On the contrary, his austere face was severe.

"Your hiding place, my dear Watson, was very faulty. You should have been behind the hedge. Then you would have had a close view of this interesting person. As it is, you were some hundreds of yards away and can tell me even less than Miss Smith. She thinks she does not know the man. I am convinced she does. Why, otherwise, should he be so desperately anxious that she should not get so near him as to see his features? You describe him as bending over the handle bar. Concealment again, you see. You really have done remarkably badly. He returns to the house, and you want to find out who he is. You come to a London house agent!"

"What should I have done?" I cried, with some heat.

"Gone to the nearest public house. That is the center of country gossip. They would have told you every name from the master to the scullery maid. Williamson? It conveys nothing to my mind. If he is an elderly man he is not this active cyclist who sprints away from that young lady's athletic pursuit. What have we gained by your expedition? The knowledge that the girl's story is true. I never doubted it. That there is a connection between the cyclist and the hall. I never doubted that either. That the hall is tenanted by Williamson. Who's the better for that? Well, well, my dear sir, don't look so depressed. We can do little more until next Saturday, and in the meantime I may make one or two inquiries myself."

Next morning he had a note from Miss Smith recounting shortly and accurately the very incidents which I had seen, but the pith of the letter lay in the postscript:

"I am sure that you will respect my confidence, Mr. Holmes, when I tell you that my place here has become difficult owing to the fact that my employer has proposed marriage to me. I am convinced that his feelings are most deep and most honorable. At the same time my promise is of course given. He took my refusal very seriously, but also very gently. You can understand, however, that the situation is a little strained."

"Our young friend seems to be getting into deep waters," said Holmes thoughtfully as he finished the letter. "The case certainly presents more features of interest and more possibility of development than I had originally thought. I should be none the worse for a quiet, peaceful day in the country, and I am inclined to run down this afternoon and test one or two theories which I have formed."

Holmes' quiet day in the country had a singular termination, for he arrived at Baker street late in the evening with a cut lip and a discolored lump upon his forehead, besides a general air of dissipation which would have made his own person the fitting object of a Scotland Yard investigation. He was immensely tickled by his own adventures and laughed heartily as he recounted them.

"I get so little active exercise that it is always a treat," said he. "You are aware that I have some proficiency in the good old British sport of boxing. Occasionally it is of service; today, for example, I should have come to very ignominious grief without it."

I begged him to tell me what had occurred.

"I found that country pub which I had already recommended to your notice, and there I made my discreet inquiries. I was in the bar, and a garrulous landlord was giving me all that I wanted. Williamson is a white bearded man, and he lives alone with a small staff of servants at the hall. There is some rumor that he is or has been a clergyman, but one or two incidents of his short residence at the hall struck me as peculiarly unecclesiastical. I have already made some inquiries at a clerical agency, and they tell me that there was a man of that name in orders whose career has been a singularly dark one.

"The landlord further informed me that there are usually week end visitors—'a warm lot, sir'—at the hall, and especially one gentleman with a red mustache, Mr. Woodley by name, who was always there. We had got as far as this when who should walk in but the gentleman himself, who had been drinking his beer in the taproom and had heard the whole conversation. Who was I? What did I want? What did I mean by asking questions? He had a fine flow of language, and his adjectives were very vigorous. He ended a string of abuse by a vicious back hander, which I failed to entirely avoid. The next few minutes were delicious. It was a straight left against a slogging ruffian. I emerged as you see me. Mr. Woodley went home in a cart. So ended my country trip, and it must be confessed that, however enjoyable, my day on the Surrey border has not been much more profitable than your own."

The Thursday brought us another letter from our client.

"You will not be surprised, Mr. Holmes," said she, "to hear that I am leaving Mr. Carruthers' employment. Even the high pay cannot reconcile me to the discomforts of my situation. On Saturday I come up to town, and I do not intend to return. Mr. Carruthers has got a trap, and so the dangers of the lonely road, if there ever were any dangers, are now over.

"As to the special cause of my leaving, it is not merely the strained situation with Mr. Carruthers, but it is the reappearance of that odious man, Mr. Woodley. He was always hideous, but he looks more awful than ever now, for he appears to have had an accident, and he is much disfigured. I saw him out of the window, but I am glad to say I did not meet him. He had a long talk with Mr. Carruthers, who seemed much excited afterward. Woodley must be staying in the neighborhood, for he did not sleep here, and yet I caught a glimpse of him again this morning slinking about in the shrubbery. I would sooner have a savage wild animal loose about the place. I loathe and fear him more than I can say. How can Mr. Carruthers endure such a creature for a moment? However, all my troubles will be over on Saturday."

"So I trust, Watson; so I trust," said Holmes gravely. "There is some deep intrigue going on round that little woman, and it is our duty to see that no one molests her upon that last journey. I think, Watson, that we must spare time to run down together on Saturday morning, and make sure that this curious and inclusive investigation has no untoward ending."

I confess that I had not up to now taken a very serious view of the case, which had seemed to me rather grotesque and bizarre than dangerous. That a man should lie in wait for and follow a very handsome woman is no unheard of thing, and if he has so little audacity that he not only dared not address her, but even fled from her approach, he was not a very formidable assailant. The man Woodley was a very different person, but except on one occasion he had not molested our client, and now he visited the house of Carruthers without intruding upon her presence. The man on the bicycle was doubtless a member of those week end parties at the hall of which the publican had spoken, but who he was or what he wanted was as obscure as ever. It was the severity of Holmes' manner and the fact that he slipped a revolver into his pocket before leaving our rooms which impressed me with the feeling that tragedy might prove to lurk behind this curious train of events.

A rainy night had been followed by a glorious morning, and the heath covered countryside, with the glowing clumps of flowering gorse, seemed all the more beautiful to eyes which were weary of the dun and drabs and slate grays of London. Holmes and I walked along the broad, sandy road, inhaling the fresh morning air and rejoicing in the music of the birds and the fresh breath of the spring. From a rise of the road on the shoulder of Crooksbury hill we could see the grim hall bristling out from amid the ancient oaks, which, old as they were, were still younger than the building which they surrounded. Holmes pointed down the long tract of road which wound, a reddish yellow band, between the brown of the heath and the budding green of the woods. Far away, a black dot, we could see a vehicle moving in our direction. Holmes gave an exclamation of impatience.

"I have given a margin of half an hour," said he. "If that is her trap she must be making for the earlier train. I fear, Watson, that she will be past Charlington before we can possibly meet her."

From the instant that we passed the rise we could no longer see the vehicle, but we hastened onward at such a pace that my sedentary life began to tell upon me, and I was compelled to fall behind. Holmes, however, was always in training, for he had inexhaustible stores of nervous energy upon which to draw. His springy step never slowed until suddenly, when he was a hundred yards in front of me, he halted, and I saw him throw up his hand with a gesture of grief and despair. At the same instant an empty dogcart, the horse cantering, the reins trailing, appeared round the curve of the road and rattled swiftly toward us.

"Too late, Watson; too late!" cried Holmes as I ran panting to his side. "Fool that I was not to allow for that earlier train! It's abduction, Watson—abduction! Murder! Heaven knows what! Block the road! Stop the horse! That's right. Now, jump in and let us see if I can repair the consequences of my own blunder."

We had sprung into the dogcart, and Holmes, after turning the horse, gave it a sharp cut with the whip, and we flew back along the road. As we turned the curve the whole stretch of road between the hall and the heath was opened up. I grasped Holmes' arm.

"That's the man!" I gasped.

A solitary cyclist was coming toward us. His head was down and his shoulders rounded as he put every ounce of energy that he possessed on to the pedals. He was flying like a racer. Suddenly he raised his bearded face, saw us close to him and pulled up, springing from his machine. That coal black beard was in singular contrast to the pallor of his face, and his eyes were as bright as if he had a fever. He stared at us and at the dogcart; then a look of amazement came over his face.

"Hello! Stop there!" he shouted, holding his bicycle to block our road. "Where did you get that dogcart? Pull up, man!" he yelled, drawing a pistol from his side pocket. "Pull up, I say, or, by George, I'll put a bullet into your horse."

Holmes threw the reins into my lap and sprang down from the cart.

"You're the man we want to see. Where is Miss Violet Smith?" he said in his quick, clear way.

"That's what I'm asking you. You're in her dogcart. You ought to know where she is."

"We met the dogcart on the road. There was no one in it. We drove back to help the young lady."

"Good Lord, good Lord! What shall I do?" cried the stranger in an ecstasy of despair. "They've got her—that hellhound Woodley and the blackguard parson. Come, man, come, if you really are her friend. Stand by me, and we'll save her, if I have to leave my carcass in Charlington wood."

He ran distractedly, his pistol in his hand, toward a gap in the hedge. Holmes followed him, and I, leaving the horse grazing beside the road, followed Holmes.

"This is where they came through," said he, pointing to the marks of several feet upon the muddy path. "Hello! Stop a minute! Who's this in the bush?"

It was a young fellow about seventeen, dressed like a hostler, with leather cords and gaiters. He lay upon his back, his knees drawn up, a terrible cut upon his head. He was insensible, but alive. A glance at his wound told me that it had not penetrated the bone.

"That's Peter, the groom!" cried the stranger. "He drove her. The beasts have pulled him off and clubbed him. Let him lie; we can't do him any good, but we may save her from the worst fate that can befall a woman."

We ran frantically down the path, which wound among the trees. We had reached the shrubbery which surrounded the house when Holmes pulled up.

"They didn't go to the house. Here are their marks on the left—here beside the laurel bushes. Ah, I said so!"

As he spoke a woman's shrill scream—a scream which vibrated with a frenzy of horror—burst from the thick green clump of bushes in front of us. It ended suddenly on its highest note with a choke and a gurgle.

"This way! This way! They are in the bowling alley!" cried the stranger, darting through the bushes. "Ah, the cowardly dogs! Follow me, gentlemen! Too late, too late, by the living jingo!"

We had broken suddenly into a lovely glade of greensward surrounded by ancient trees. On the farther side of it, under the shadow of a mighty oak, there stood a singular group of three people. One was a woman, our client, drooping and faint, a handkerchief round her mouth. Opposite her stood a brutal, heavy faced, red mustached young man, his gaitered legs parted wide, one arm akimbo, the other waving a riding crop, his whole attitude suggestive of triumphant bravado. Between them an elderly, gray bearded man, wearing a short surplice over a light tweed suit, had evidently just completed the wedding service, for he pocketed his prayer book as we appeared and slapped the sinister bridegroom upon the back in jovial congratulation.

"They're married!" I gasped.

"Come on!" cried our guide. "Come on!" He rushed across the glade, Holmes and I at his heels. As we approached the lady staggered against the trunk of the tree for support. Williamson, the ex-clergyman, bowed to us with mock politeness, and the bully, Woodley, advanced with a shout of brutal and exultant laughter.

"You can take your beard off, Bob," said he. "I know you right enough. Well, you and your pals have just come in time for me to be able to introduce you to Mrs. Woodley."

Our guide's answer was a singular one. He snatched off the dark beard which had disguised him and threw it on the ground, disclosing a long, sallow, clean shaven face below it. Then he raised his revolver and covered the young ruffian, who was advancing upon him with his dangerous riding crop swinging in his hand.

"Yes," said our ally, "I am Bob Carruthers, and I'll see this woman righted if I have to swing for it. I told you what I'd do if you molested her, and, by the Lord, I'll be as good as my word."

"You're too late. She's my wife."

"No; she's your widow."

His revolver cracked, and I saw blood spurt from the front of Woodley's waistcoat. He spun round with a scream and fell upon his back, his hideous red face turning suddenly to a dreadful mottled pallor. The old man, still clad in his surplice, burst into such a string of foul oaths as I have never heard and pulled out a revolver of his own, but before he could raise it he was looking down the barrel of Holmes' weapon.

"Enough of this," said my friend coldly. "Drop that pistol! Watson, pick it up! Hold it to his head! Thank you. You, Carruthers, give me that revolver. We'll have no more violence. Come, hand it over!"

"Who are you, then?"

"My name is Sherlock Holmes."

"Good Lord!"

"You have heard of me, I see. I will represent the official police until the arrival. Here, you!" he shouted to a frightened groom who had appeared at the edge of the glade. "Come here. Take this note as hard as you can ride to Farnham." He scribbled a few words upon a leaf from his notebook. "Give it to the superintendent at the police station. Until he comes I must detain you all under my personal custody."

The strong, masterful personality of Holmes dominated the tragic scene, and all were equally puppets in his hands. Williamson and Carruthers found themselves carrying the wounded Woodley into the house, and I gave my arm to the frightened girl. The injured man was laid on his bed, and at Holmes' request I examined him. I carried my report to where he sat in the old tapestry hung dining room with his two prisoners before him.

"He will live," said I.

"What!" cried Carruthers, springing out of his chair. "I'll go upstairs and finish him off. Do you tell me that that girl, that angel, is to be tied to Roaring Jack Woodley for life?"

"You need not concern yourself about that," said Holmes. "There are two very good reasons why she should under no circumstances be his wife. In the first place, we are very safe in questioning Mr. Williamson's right to solemnize a marriage."

"I have been ordained," cried the old rascal.

"And also unfrocked."

"Once a clergyman, always a clergyman."

"I think not. How about the license?"

"We had a license for the marriage. I have it here in my pocket."

"Then you got it by a trick. But in any case a forced marriage is no marriage, but it is a very serious felony, as you will discover before you have finished. You'll have time to think the point out during the next ten years or so, unless I am mistaken. As to you, Carruthers, you would have done better to keep your pistol in your pocket."

"I begin to think so, Mr. Holmes, but when I thought of all the precaution I had taken to shield this girl—for I loved her, Mr. Holmes, and it is the only time that ever I knew what love was—it fairly drove me mad to think that she was in the power of the greatest brute and bully in South Africa—a man whose name is a holy terror from Kimberley to Johannesburg. Why, Mr. Holmes, you'll hardly believe it, but ever since that girl has been in my employment I never once let her go past this house, where I knew the rascals were lurking, without following her on my bicycle just to see that she came to no harm. I kept my distance from her, and I wore a beard so that she should not recognize me, for she is a good and high spirited girl, and she wouldn't have stayed in my employment long if she had thought that I was following her about the country roads."

"Why didn't you tell her of her danger?"

"Because then, again, she would have left me, and I couldn't bear to face that. Even if she couldn't love me it was a great deal to me just to see her dainty form about the house and to hear the sound of her voice."

"Well," said I, "you call that love, Mr. Carruthers, but I should call it selfishness."

"Maybe the two things go together. Anyhow, I couldn't let her go. Besides, with this crowd about it was well that she should have some one near to look after her. Then, when the cable came, I knew they were bound to make a move."

"What cable?"

Carruthers took a telegram from his pocket.

"That's it," said he.

It was short and concise:

"The old man is dead."

"Ha!" said Holmes. "I think I see how things worked, and I can understand how this message would, as you say, bring them to a head. But while you wait you might tell me what you can."

The old reprobate with the surplice burst into a volley of bad language.

"By heaven," said he, "if you squeal on me, Bob Carruthers, I'll serve you as you served Jack Woodley! You can blast about the girl to your heart's content, for that's your own affair, but if you round on your pals to this plain clothes copper it will be the worst day's work that ever you did."

"Your reverence need not be excited," said Holmes, lighting a cigarette. "The case is clear enough against you, and all I ask is a few details for my private curiosity. However, if there's any difficulty in your telling me I'll do the talking, and then you will see how far you have a chance of holding back your secrets. In the first place, three of you came from South Africa on this game—you, Williamson; you, Carruthers, and Woodley."

"Lie number one," said the old man. "I never saw either of them until two months ago, and I have never been in Africa in my life, so you can put that in your pipe and smoke it, Mr. Busybody Holmes!"

"What he says is true," said Carruthers.

"Well, well, two of you came over. His reverence is our own homemade article. You had known Ralph Smith in South Africa. You had reason to believe he would not live long. You found out that his niece would inherit his fortune. How's that—eh?"

Carruthers nodded and Williamson swore.

"She was next of kin, no doubt, and you were aware that the old fellow would make no will."

"Couldn't read or write," said Carruthers.

"So you came over, the two of you, and trumped up the girl. The idea was that one of you was to marry her and the other have a share of the plunder. For some reason Woodley was chosen as the husband. Why was that?"

"We played cards for her on the voyage. He won."

"I see. You got the young lady into your service, and there Woodley was to do the courting. She recognised the drunken brute that he was and would have nothing to do with him. Meanwhile your arrangement was rather upset by the fact that you had yourself fallen in love with the lady. You could no longer bear the idea of this ruffian owning her!"

"No, by George, I couldn't!"

There was a quarrel between you. He left you in a rage and began to make his own plans independently of you."

"It strikes me, Williamson, there isn't very much that we can tell this gentleman," cried Carruthers, with a bitter laugh. "Yes, we quarreled, and he knocked me down. I am level with him on that, anyhow. Then I lost sight of him. That was when he picked up with this east padre here. I found that they had set up housekeeping together at this place on the line that she had to pass for the station. I kept my eye on her after that, for I knew there was some devilry in the wind. I saw them from time to time, for I was anxious to know what they were after.

"Two days ago Woodley came up to my house with this cable, which showed that Ralph Smith was dead. He asked me if I would stand by the bargain. I said I would not. He asked me if I would marry the girl myself and give him a share. I said I would willingly do so, but that she would not have me. He said, 'Let us get her married first, and after a week or two she may see things a bit different.' I said I would have nothing to do with violence, so he went off cursing, like the foul mouthed blackguard that he was, and swearing that he would have her yet. She was leaving me this week end, and I had got a trap to take her to the station, but I was so uneasy in my mind that I followed her on my bicycle. She had got a start, however, and before I could catch her the mischief was done. The first thing I knew about it was when I saw you two gentlemen driving back in her dogcart."

Holmes rose and tossed the end of his cigarette into the grate. "I have been very obtuse, Watson," said he. "When in your report you said that you had seen the cyclist, as you thought, arrange his necktie in the shrubbery that alone should have told me all. However, we may congratulate ourselves upon a curious and in some respects a unique case. I perceive three of the county constabulary in the drive, and I am glad to see that the little hostler is able to keep pace with them, so it is likely that neither he nor the interesting bridegroom will be permanently damaged by their morning's adventures. I think, Watson, that in your medical capacity you might wait upon Miss Smith and tell her that if she is sufficiently recovered we shall be happy to escort her to her mother's home. If she is not quite convalescent you will find that a hint that we were about to telegraph to a young electrician in the Midlands will probably complete the cure. As to you, Mr. Carruthers, I think that you have done what you could to make amends for your share in an evil plot. There is my card, sir, and if my evidence can be of help to you in your trial it shall be at your disposal."

* * * * * * *

In the whirl of our incessant activity it had often been difficult for me, as the reader has probably observed, to round off my narratives and to give those final details which the curious might expect. Each case has been the prelude to another, and the crisis once over the actors have passed forever out of our busy lives. I find, however, a short note at the end of my manuscript dealing with this case, in which I have put it upon record that Miss Violet Smith did indeed inherit a large fortune and that she is now the wife of Cyril Morton, the senior partner of Morton & Kennedy, the famous Westminster electricians. Williamson and Woodley were both tried for abduction and assault, the former getting seven years and the latter ten. Of the fate of Carruthers I have no record, but I am sure that his assault was not viewed very gravely by the court, since Woodley had the reputation of being a most dangerous ruffian, and I think that a few months were sufficient to satisfy the demands of justice.

ONE OF THE FATHERS.

Death of Hon. Wm. Macdougall Leaves Only Two of Them Behind—His Political Career.

The ranks of the Fathers of Confederation are thinning out. Only the other day there were three of them left—Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Hector Langevin, and Hon. William Macdougall. Now it has been announced that Mr. Macdougall has passed away at his Ottawa home, in the eighty-third year of his age, and as a consequence there are but two of the Fathers remaining. Very sad have been the later years of Mr. Macdougall. His mind gave way some time ago, and, while he has lived, he has been practically out of the world. No one can view his case without feeling that for men who have given their lives to the people there ought to be some consideration in old age by the State.

Native of Little York.

Born in Little York in 1822, he fought his way to the front and became a power in the land. His first venture was the publication, in 1850, of a newspaper called the North American. Here he proposed a great variety of reforms, nearly all of which have since been carried into effect. He was one of the first to call for the ballot, to insist upon the abolition of the property qualification for Parliament, to suggest the decimal currency, and to urge the secularization of the clergy reserves. His progressive ideas carried him into Parliament as one of the Liberal leaders. It was in 1858 that Oxford elected him to the House, and in four years he was in the Liberal Government of which John Sandfield Macdonald was the leader. As a Liberal Mr. Macdougall was in harmony with Hon. George Brown. When, therefore, Mr. Brown joined with Sir John Macdonald for the purpose of carrying Confederation Mr. Macdougall went into the coalition Government with him.

A Friend of Union.

All through the Confederation fight Mr. Macdougall was the Provincial Secretary. He went to all the conferences, and was a strong advocate of the unification of Canada. When Confederation had been decided upon, Mr. Macdougall came into antagonism with the Liberal party, owing to the fact that he refused to resign from the Cabinet, as did also Mr. (now Sir) W. P. Howland, in company with George Brown, who went out to reconstruct the Liberal party. The circumstances are such as to render it difficult to judge who was in the right in this matter. The coalition had been entered into to carry Confederation, and it was held by Mr. Brown's friends that the Liberal who joined to put the proposition through ought to leave when the work was done. But Mr. Macdougall maintained that the union of the Provinces was but the beginning of the work, and that duty required all hands to help in the performance of the remaining tasks. Although there was a difference of opinion touching the merits of this controversy, the mass of people favored Mr. Macdougall's course. At all events, it was a fact that the work had but commenced.

Work in the Northwest.

One of the many things yet to be done was the addition of the Northwest to Canada. Mr. Macdougall had always favored this proposition, and as he pressed it forward Sir John Macdonald sent him, in company with Sir George E. Cartier, to England to negotiate the terms. In this operation difficulty was experienced. The Hudson's Bay Co. had to be bought out, and it was not willing to sell. The Imperial Government, for its part, was not at all interested in the affair. It was ready to hear both sides, but not to force action. The company held that it had that Mr. Macdougall continue to negotiate to Canada. A great social gathering was, however, held at Mr. Gladstone's house and Mr. Macdougall was there. Mrs. Gladstone, in conversation with the Canadian guest, discussed his mission, and learned of his disappointment. She insisted that he should see Mr. Gladstone at once, and tell him the facts, although the subject was in another department of State. Mr. Gladstone was so impressed by Mr. Macdougall's story that he requested him to remain in London for a few days. He then took the matter up, and forced the company to capitulate.

A Fatal Victory.

But the victory was the beginning of evil days for Mr. Macdougall. The circumstance that he had done so much towards acquiring the West led to his appointment to the Governorship of Manitoba as a species of recognition of his services. It was an unhappy recognition. The rebellion broke out. The approach of Mr. Macdougall was resisted. Mr. Macdougall had to return to Old Canada with his prestige impaired, and with both sides blaming him for this or that act as Governor. The situation isolated Mr. Macdougall so far as politics were concerned.

In Parliament he was a magnificent speaker, closely resembling one of the great English political orators, while on the public platform he was unequaled.

Illness cut short his political career, and now death has claimed him. Although he passes away while another generation of public men is discussing and conducting affairs, it must not be forgotten that he contributed in an important degree to the Canada that we have, and that he was one of the Fathers.

Marconi, "Wireless Wizard," Confident.

The new Marconi station at Glace Bay is almost completed. About twenty miles of underground wires have been laid. The aerial wiring is finished, the towers rebuilt and most of the machinery has been set up. It is expected that by the first of the week messages will be received from the Poldhu (Cornwall), station, which has been much improved. The old station was successful for sending messages, but not for receiving from great distances. This was attributed to the town electric light station, which were very near to the old towers. This difficulty is entirely obviated at the new towers, where numerous changes have been made and a much greater amount of wiring has been done. Mr. Marconi is still at Glace Bay, and has lent all his energy to improving the receiving apparatus. He asserts that there will be little or no difficulty in communicating with Poldhu.

RUNAWAY CAR IN GUELPH.

Several Excursionists to the Ontario Agricultural College Injured.

Guelph, June 29.—The first accident that has ever occurred on the street railway during the many excursion that have been held to the Ontario Agricultural College happened about noon yesterday on the arrival of the farmers' excursion from West Simcoe. A street car was placed on the top of the grade on the line running to the C. P. R. station. A rush was made for the car. When it was crowded the car started down the steep incline to the C. P. R. station and ran into a coal car standing on the siding near Allan's dam. Had it not been for this obstruction the crowded car would have run into the river.

There were over a dozen injured, four of whom were taken to the General Hospital, but their injuries are slight. Every pane of glass in the car was broken, and the rear end smashed by the concussion. Several were thrown out and others jumped. The other occupants of the car are suffering from the shock and cuts from the glass. It is stated that some of the excursionists turned the brake and let the car loose.

Amongst those who were most seriously injured were: Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnston, Simcoe, the former having his head crushed and suffering from concussion of the brain, the lady sustaining injury to the thigh; J. Taylor, Simcoe, chest crushed; D. Cameron, gash on forehead; Charles McDermott, gash behind ear, requiring several stitches; W. T. Bates, Creemore, ribs broken; W. McMillan, Duntroon, nose broken; Mrs. A. Hanley, Duntroon, head cut; W. Campbell, Collingwood, head cut; J. Lonkead, side injured.

The guilty party who released the brake is under arrest.

VERDICT IS MURDER.

Hamilton Jury Says Fieldhouse Was Killed By a Blow.

Hamilton, June 29.—This was the sensational verdict the coroner's jury brought in last night in the Fieldhouse case: "We find that Fred Fieldhouse was murdered in a row by a blow struck with a club or stick by either Mike Connors, or James Neelon, or Stanley Davis, in a row on Bay street, started on Friday night, June 15.

The three men are under arrest, and Crown Attorney Washington stated that they will be charged with murder, and will come up for a preliminary hearing at the police court on Friday morning.

NO CHANCE OF ESCAPE.

Extra Guard is Ordered Over Gaynor and Greene.

Montreal, June 29—Special precautions are being taken at the Montreal jail in view of the approaching conclusion of the Gaynor and Greene case to see that the famous fugitives do not escape.

Yesterday morning Governor Vallee of the City Prison received explicit instructions from the Solicitor-General to engage extra men if necessary and take every possible precaution to make sure that no rescue can be carried out.

It has cost over a million dollars to defend them in the courts in the last three years.

PRICE OF NATION BUILDING.

Two Surveyors Are Drowned and Another Becomes Insane.

Ottawa, June 29.—Mr. Robert Smallian and Mr. Pickering of party No. 7, district C. of the Grand Trunk Pacific survey, have arrived home after experiences of a most eventful character. Mr. Smallian was with Messrs. Almon and White when they were drowned last week, and saved his life by clinging to the canoe. They reached New Liskeard on Saturday with the bodies of their chief, Mr. M. B. Almon, and the second engineer, W. White.

For ninety miles Messrs. Pickering and Smallian canoed and carried the bodies of their late chief and his assistant, until they reached the Long Portage, twenty miles from Ville Marie. Here rough boxes were constructed and the remains were taken on to that village, thence to New Liskeard on the Government tug Dora.

Surveyor Goes Insane.

Amadee Bayard, jun., a son of a resident in Janeville, a suburb of Ottawa, went insane while surveying with the Transcontinental party at New Liskeard last Saturday night. He attempted suicide by jumping from the wharf, but was rescued and brought to Ottawa yesterday and locked up for examination.

Fire Scare in Theatre.

Winnipeg, June 29.—The usual vaudeville performance at the New Dominion Theatre was concluded Tuesday evening by a startling series of loud explosions in the gallery. Flames leapt fiercely to the roof and scenes of great theatre holocausts sprang to the eyes of the six hundred odd people present, and for a time a hideous pandemonium reigned. There was a wild rush for exits, women screamed and fainted and several fell to the floor and were trampled on. The kinetoscope films had caught fire, and the whole machine blew up with a series of terrifying explosions. The fire was soon suppressed, however.

Drowned at Kewaytin.

Port Carling, June 29.—No trace has yet been found of the body of Wilfrid Kay, the 13-year-old son of James Kay of Point Kay, Lake Rosseau, drowned at Kewaytin on Wednesday of last week. The services of two professional divers have been of no avail up to the present. The body is lying in more than 70 feet of water and probably buried under two tons of stone. Wilfrid was playing around on the piers of a new wharf when the outer pier turned over. The boy was never seen again and was no doubt carried down and buried in the muddy bottom under the stones.

Aldermen Sue Toronto World.

Montreal, June 29.—The following aldermen of the City of Montreal have decided to take action in the civil courts against The Toronto World: L. A. Lapointe, Robillard, Pauquette and Conture. The declaration was filed yesterday afternoon and calls for $200 damages for each alderman.

Ald. Payette last night said he had decided to take a big suit against The World and that he would make it as high as possible, perhaps $50,000. He alleges that his business has been injured by personal attacks in The World.

DEALERS ADMIT EVERYTHING.

Brantford Milkman Used "Freezine" —Didn't Know It Was Poison.

Brantford, June 29.—At last light has been thrown on the milk scandal. Every milkman was brought before the Board of Health and upon a stringent cross-examination by the city solicitor an open confession was made by all.

No one dreamed that the use of the formaldehyde has been so widespread. It was not the pure drug that was used, but a preparation manufactured in the United States, composed chiefly of formaldehyde, with the addition of ether to make it evaporate and leave little trace in the milk. This preparation was known as "freezine" and retailed from a local hardware store.

When brought on the carpet the dealers admitted everything. Five confessed to using it this year. Seven used it in other years. The rest either professed innocence or had simply bought the drug without using it.

The result of the meeting has greatly quieted public feeling, which had arisen to an alarming extent. The people are seemingly reconciled to the fact that the "freezine" was used in ignorance of its poisonous effects.

Just what the action will be that the Board of Health will take against the offenders is conjectural.

First Wireless Message.

Halifax, June 29.—The first communication by wireless telegraph with Sable Island was had yesterday, when the Camperdown station here received a message from the Island that the station there is not yet complete. It is expected a Dominion Day message will be sent from the island to the Governor-General. The next station is to be erected at Cape Sable.

COLD STORAGE.

Four Hours' Debate in the House on Facilities—Last Stage of Alberta Autonomy Bill.

Ottawa, June 28.—For once the Opposition were yesterday found to be in harmony with the Government upon a public question, but the fact that unanimity existed did not prevent a flood of talk, which for four hours or more deluged the Chamber and drove the greater part of the members to seek the quiet and comfort of the smoking room and other more attractive and restful places in and around the buildings.

A motion by Mr. Armstrong (East Lambton), affirming the abstract principle of the desirability of proper cold storage facilities being provided for the carriage of Canadian agricultural products of a perishable nature, was accepted by the Government as an amendment to the motion to go into supply, made for the express purpose of enabling the matter to come up. The weak point in the argument of the mover of the amendment was, Mr. Fisher pointed out, that the contracts for a limited period, under which these facilities were first encouraged and assisted, had expired some time since, and the Government had no control over the steamship companies. He added the information that the facilities afforded had never been fully utilised by Canadian shippers, and that ships from Canadian ports were better equipped in this respect than from any other ports on the continent.

To-day the last stage of consideration of the Alberta bill in committee will be entered upon, when the educational clauses will be taken up.

There was a great outburst of enthusiasm at the opening yesterday, when Hon. Mr. Hyman and Mr. George Smith, new members respectively for London and North Oxford, were introduced. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. William Patersen escorted the new members in turn to the Chamber.

NOVA SCOTIA CABINET.

Hon. Arthur Drysdale New Attorney-General—Hon. W. T. Pipes Succeeds Mr. Drysdale in Works and Mines.

Halifax, June 28.—The retirement of Attorney-General Longley, who was appointed to the Supreme Court Bench, has been followed by the reorganization of the Provincial Government. Hon. Arthur Drysdale, Commissioner of Works and Mines, has been appointed Attorney-General, and Hon. W. T. Pipes has been made head of the Works and Mines Department.

Both are exceedingly able and popular men, and Premier Murray has greatly strengthened his Cabinet by the changes.

Mr. Drysdale is leader of the Bar in Nova Scotia, and a brilliant debater and campaigner.

Mr. Pipes, who was Premier previous to Mr. Fielding, is a lawyer of the first rank and a man of the highest business reputation. He is now Government leader in the Legislative Council, but at the next election will run for the popular branch. His home is in Amherst, the centre of the important coal mining district.

DUE TO ROCKSLIDE.

Peculiar Accident to Fireman of Crow's Nest Pass Engine.

Frank, N. W. T., June 28.—An accident occurred on the Crow's Nest Pass Railway Monday, three miles east of Bellevieu, caused by a rock slide.

The engine and tender left the track; the engineer was thrown through the window in the bush, but was not hurt. The fireman was buried in the debris and was taken out alive, but badly scalded.

None of the passengers were injured.

Back Broken, Lived 11 Weeks.

Toronto, June 28.—Face to face with certain death for 11 week, George McBurney bore up bravely and often cheerfully until the grim reaper conquered on Monday at his home, 23 Alexander street. Mr. McBurney was about 60 years of age, and was engaged in the building trade. On April 4 he was working on a house on Ossington avenue, when he sustained a fall of 10 or 11 feet, with the result that his back was broken. He was taken then to Grace Hospital, where it was seen that the injury would prove fatal. He was paralyzed from the waist down, but retained the use of the upper portion of his body and was able to talk. The remains will be buried at Peterboro.

Druggist Was Fined.

Brockville, June 28.—Under the new license inspector for Brockville, more convictions have been obtained for violations of the Liquor Act than for some years previous. Two fines were paid into the Police Court yesterday. One of the delinquents was a druggist, charged with selling whiskey without a license. He paid a fine of $50 and costs. The cases of two hotelkeepers will come up later in the week.

RUSSIA COUNSELLED FRANCE.

Count Lamsdorff Advised Her to Meet Germany Half Way.

St. Petersburg, June 29.—At Great Britain's door The Novoe Vremya lays much of the responsibility for the Franco-German crisis, saying she is pursuing her traditional policy of encouraging a conflict between her competitors in order to profit thereby.

"Great Britain," the paper adds, pushed France into the Morocco adventure, sustaining M. Delcasse, the former Foreign Minister, in his resistance to Germany's claims. For decades Great Britain's hostility has been directed against Russia, at last succeeding in having another country accomplish a task from which she herself shrank. With Russia no longer dangerous for the present, all Great Britain's machinations were set in motion against Germany, now her chief competitor in Europe."

The Novoe Vremya, however, believes that, with Premier Rouvier in charge of the negotiations for France, Great Britain's plans will be defeated and the Moroccan affair will be satisfactorily adjusted.

Premier Rouvier's note was submitted to Russia before it was transmitted to the Berlin Government, and Foreign Minister Lamsdorff was apprised of every step taken. The statement that France has already called upon Russia to mass troops on her western frontier, however, is authoritatively denied. Russia is believed to be advising her ally to meet Germany half way.

Berlin Quiescent.

Berlin, June 29.—The Moroccan question has entered on a quiescent phase so far as Berlin is concerned. The Foreign Office feels that the acute stage of the controversy with France has passed and contemplates calmly the further developments.

THE DEMURRAGE CHARGE.

In Duthie vs. G. T. R. Chairman Killam Doubts Commission's Ability.

Ottawa, June 28.—The complaint of J. H. Duthie of Toronto, on behalf of Hoffman & Co. of Detroit against the Grand Trunk Railway Co., on account of demurrage charges, was heard by the Railway Commission yesterday morning.

"We may be able to make an order of some kind, but I doubt our ability to adjudicate in money matters," said the chairman.

Judgment on special complaint was reserved, and Duthie then made the argument that the car service, or demurrage, charges collected by the Grand Trunk were unjustifiable, and in the nature of extortion. He said the Car Service Association was a "combination in restraint of trade. It owed its existence to the fact that the agents of the railway companies were unable to collect unreasonable charges.

In reply to Mr. Duthie, M. K. Cowan, for the Grand Trunk, said that the whole matter of the car service was a subject of discussion at present between the Manufacturers' Association and the railway companies, and they hoped within the month to arrive at an amicable arrangement.

Both Legs Broken.

Hamilton, June 28.—Richard Sykes, 40 Bailey street, fell from a chute in the city quarry yesterday on to the top of a stone bin, and then 30 feet down an embankment. When he was picked up it was found that both his legs were broken, and his arms and his whole body cut and bruised. At a late hour last night he was not expected to live till morning.

Killed at Level Crossing.

Berlin, June 27.—Charles Schaefer, a well-known citizen of this town, was struck and instantly killed by a Grand Trunk freight train at midnight Monday. He was on his way home and was crossing the track at Ahrens street when the accident occurred. Deceased was about 60 years old and leaves a family.

Curzon's Resignation.

Simla, India, June 28.—In spite of Indian Secretary Brodrick's denial, it was reiterated yesterday that Lord Curzon of Kedleston has informed the British Cabinet that unless important modifications are made in the orders recently issued, giving Gen. Lord Kitchener supreme command of the forces in India, he will resign the Viceroyalty.

Sewer Caved In.

Brockville, June 28.—While at work yesterday in a sewer excavation, about seven feet deep, John Carr was struck and partially buried by one of the sides caving in unexpectedly. Two other laborers succeeded in digging him out, after which he was removed to the hospital. He was badly injured on the body and head.

A Big Tidal Wave.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., June 28.—A tidal wave Monday night scattered a raft of 2,000 cords of wood along the shore of Tquamenaw Bay. This is the second tidal wave within a month. At some places it lifted piles of timber from the shore and then carried them out into the lake. The wave extended for miles.

TO BE APPEALED.

Intention of the Government Re Alien Labor Case Announced by Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick.

Ottawa, June 27.—The greater portion of the time of the House was taken up yesterday in discussion of the question brought up by Mr. Foster, who charged the former sub-land agent at Macleod with the theft of money of the Dominion. The Minister of the Interior protested vigorously against the unfair nature of Mr. Foster's attack, and the Premier expressed confidence that in his cooler moments, on fuller consideration of the circumstances, he would come to the conclusion that he had been premature in alleging theft when there was no evidence of personal responsibility, and the shortage found in the accounts, as the evidence showed, was attributable to a son of the agent, to whom the business of the office had been necessarily deputed during his absence upon other official duties.

Alberta Autonomy Bill.

Considerable progress was made with the Alberta autonomy bill, the schedules defining several constituencies were rapidly disposed of, and the few remaining clauses, with the exception of the educational clause, will, it is hoped, be passed through committee to-day. Owing to the inordinate length of the debate on the bill, for which the members to the left of the Speaker are almost entirely responsible, it will be impossible for the bills establishing the two new Provinces, to get through in time to bring the Provinces into existence upon Dominion Day. It is understood that the date upon which the bills will come into effect will of necessity be postponed until the first of October.

Government to Appeal Ruling.

Ralph Smith (Nanaimo) enquired in the House yesterday if the Government concurred in Judge Anglin's judgment, declaring the Alien Labor Act ultra vires, and what they proposed to do about it.

Mr. Fitzpatrick replied: "Some of the provisions of that act have been declared ultra vires. The Government does not agree in that judgment, and it is our intention to apply to the Privy Council for leave to appeal.

"I do not think it necessary to say what effect that judgment might have with respect to other legislation on this question. As far as the proceedings are concerned, the Dominion of Canada will be represented by Mr. Shepley of Toronto and Mr. Newcombe, Deputy Minister of Justice.

"I do not know of any other interests affected at present."

FORMALDEHYDE IN MILK SUPPLY

Brantford Milk Dealers to Come Before the Health Board.

Brantford, June 27.—An investigation into the milk supply of this city has revealed the presence of formaldehyde in that supplied by some of the dealers. Formaldehyde is used principally by undertakers in embalming.

The milkmen, three of whom have confessed, have stated they used the drug to keep the milk from souring. Much indignation has been aroused in the city as a result of the investigation, which will be continued.

Some startling results are expected, when all the milkmen will be summoned before the Health Board to-night.

A Divorce In High Life.

London, June 27.—The Divorce Court yesterday granted Lady Grey-Egerton (formerly Miss May Cuyler, daughter of Major Wayne Cuyler, U. S. A.) a divorce on the ground of desertion of her husband, Sir Philip Grey-Egerton.

DEFEATED CENSURE MOTION.

Opposition Fail in Attack on Balfour in Army Scandal.

London, June 27.—The House of Commons last night defeated the Opposition's motion of censure on the Government in connection with the army stores scandal in South Africa by a vote of 329 to 55 after a long debate.

The Government acted mainly on the defensive, disclaiming responsibility, and rather laying blame on Lieut.-Gen. Sir W. Francis Butler, chairman of the war office committee, for the publication of the report on this matter issued June 14. In the course of the debate Premier Balfour, Secretary for War Hon. Arnold Forster and Indian Secretary Brodrick (former war secretary), underwent a fierce cross-examination, which they adroitly sustained.

Not much importance was attached to the debate in view of the recent appointment of a commission with liberal powers to inquire into this matter.

Told the Truth, But Goes to Jail.

Berlin, June 28.—Herr Kunert, a Social Democrat member of the Reichstag, was sentenced yesterday to three months' imprisonment for insulting members of the German expedition sent to China in 1900, by saying in a campaign speech: "Our soldiers in that desolated land plundered and abused women." A number of former soldiers of the expedition were examined and gave corroborative testimony in great detail.

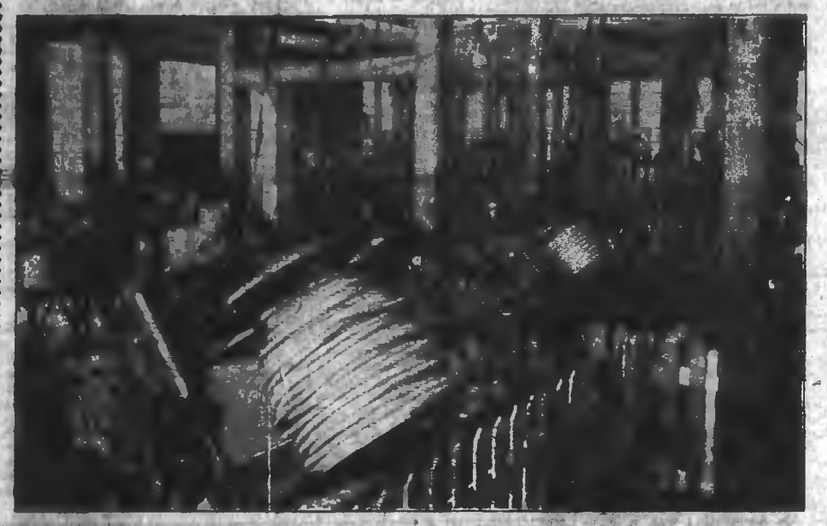
FACTORY BUILDINGS OF THE CANADIAN CORDAGE CO.

This is the only Twine Mill in the Country that has run full time during the whole year.

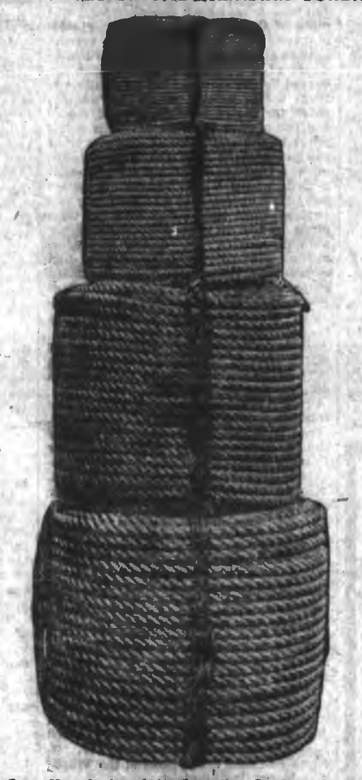
Under the able management of the present officers of the Company the business has increased very fast, and a strong effort is being made to double their out-put this year.

The Company's Factory is one of the largest, most complete, and mast up-to-date Cordage factories on the continent. The machines are all new, and of modern design and the foremen of the different departments are among the most expert on the continent. The products of the factory are of the highest quality and acknowledged to be the best on the market. All kinds of Rope Cordage and Binder Twine are turned out and everything is as the company's motto indicates, "Just a little better than the best."

The Company's buildings are new and of solid brick, and are practically fire-proof and of the most modern design.



ROPE ROOM CANADIAN CORDAGE CO.



Rope Manufactured by Canadian Cordage Co.

This Company has already over 4000 shareholders in different parts of Canada, who are interested in its success, who will use its Twines and Rope and Lath Yarn, and recommend it to others, thereby making for the Company a most valuable good will and tending to do away with expensive agents and travellers, and cheapen the cost of selling the future product of the factory. As a further inducement to consumers of Binder Twine, the Directors propose that any shareholder of the Company who will procure and send in an order to the Company for 500 lbs. of Binder Twine and upwards, will be entitled to have the order filled at wholesale prices.

ROPE AND CORDAGE

Within the past year a demand has sprnng up for a make of Rrope hitherto almost unknown in Canada—we refer to the large oil well cables which can be seen every day leaving the Company's works for Leamington and other oil districts. Some of these ropes measure nearly 300 feet in length and seven inches in circumference, weighing nearly two tons.

Our Canadian Cordage, Rope and Lath Yarn are the acknowledged standard. Our goods are made from the best fibre and are free from weighing substances, so commonly used. They will be found upon actual tests of strength, size, weight and wearing qualities to be the most economical Cordage on the market.

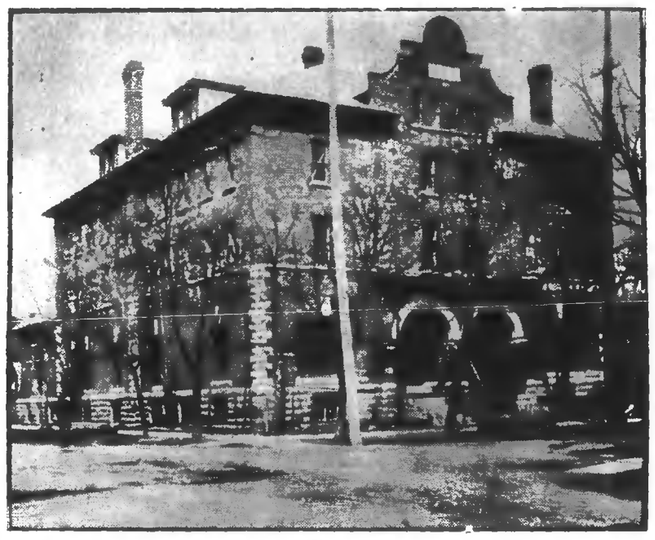
freight depots. At the diamond crossing with the G. T. R. it has switch connections with the latter and the interchange of cars and trains is accomplished without difficulty. Trains of merchandise or stock may be dispatched from either yard by either line and received at either station. Thus, the shipper from the city or to the city, to or f;om any point on the continent, has the advantage of the use of two of the greatest, most far-reaching and wide-spreading railway systems of the world.

Thus, the facilities for travellers departing from or reaching Peterborough leave little to be desired in this respect. Going west, he has three routes open by trains leaving by the two lines seven or eight different times a day. Going west, he may take one of three lines—C. P. R. or G. T. R. via Port Hope, or G. T. R. via Lindsay. Going east by either C. P. R. or G. T. R. via Port Hope or Belleville, and (in most cases) the main lines. By the Omemee line a direct route is open to the Northwest, Midland or Georgian Bay, and, by the railway, connection with the steamers of the northern lakes. By the Grand Trunk, Lakefield line, access is had to the magnificent Kawartha Lakes in summer and to Lakefield in the winter. Therefore, it will be seen, there is, so far as practicable requirements go, no limit to the railway traffic and travelling conveniences of Peterborough. It is commercially in touch with the whole North American contipent and, through the Atlantic ocean liners, with the old world and, through the Pacific liners, with the great East and Australia—by railway lines running through the city.

The Trent Waterway.

Nor are the transportation facilities of Peterborough confined wholly to rail connection. Though we cannot but regard railway connections as a boon, yet they are sometimes benefits for which a price must be paid; and, though inter-railway competition may have its advantages, yet the human element enters into the composition of the management, and human ambition to do the best for its special interests comes into play, and therefore a corrective of freight charges is desirable, as represented by waterways. In this respect the Trent Canal can be regarded as of inestimable advantage to Peterborough and the district the canal serves. Though at present with even the partially completed system great benefit is derived in facilitating traffic, yet the full benefit will not come in either a local or national sense till the waterway is open for traffic from Georgian Bay to Lake Ontario, which is only another form of saying from Fort William and Port Arthur to Liverpool. Since the canal had its beginning in the survey of the Otonabee waters, nearly 75 years ago, progress has been slow, but still the end is being reached. A great step in advance was made by the completion of the Hydraulic Lift Lock, which is one of the most important engineering accomplishments now existing on this continent. Although most persons are familiar with its operation, it may be briefly stated that by means of this lift a difference in level of 65 feet is overcome; that is, in the space of a few minutes, it is possible to elevate from the lower level of the canal to the upper a craft of any size within the capacity of the pontoons, or the capacity of any of the ordinary locks on the system. Thus is done the elevating or lowering work of half a dozen locks of the ordinary type. The Lift Lock is not only an important feature of the transportation potentialities of the Trent Canal, but is of local importance to the city. It is unique in the world as an engineering triumph, the largest of its kind in existence, and the first to be built, as to its bulk, of concrete material. It is a curiosity in its own way, and has made and will continue to make Peterborough a place of pilgrimage to sight-seeers and, by this means, will spread abroad a knowledge of the Trent Canal and what it means, which will create a public sentiment in favor of its completion, which is in itself a consummation devoutly to be wished and is a subject which should enlist the ceaseless and untiring efforts of every citizen of Peterborough. For, as important and inestimably beneficial as are the existing transportation facilities they cannot be considered complete till we shall have the finishing feature of water transportation provided. This is now measurably in sight. Surveys are being made of uncompleted portions and the work should be pushed with energy. There are only three miles of actual canal and two or three lift locks to complete, and the whole thing is done. There will then be few cities in Canada that can successfully compete with Peterborough in the possession of ideal transportation facilities.

On the 6th page of this edition is a map of the town showing its transportation facilities. It will be noticed that, so far as the railways are concerned, like the spokes of a wheel, they radiate in six different directions, giving important and extensive traffic connections with great commercial centres or with developing regions possessed of inexhaustible resources of raw material capable of maintaining in activity the industrial resources of a city ten times our industrial importance. Besides, the water communications of Peterborough, though at present entirely inland, are not without importance. To the south, it renders tributary the Rice Lake district and to the north, it opens 160 miles by direct and lateral navigation, giving access to important commercial and industrial resources.



YOUNG WOMEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

LITTLE LAKE CEMETERY

Peterborough's Breathing Places.

Among the many circumstances contributing to make Peterborough a desirable and pleasant place of residence, especially in summer and autumn, the fact of the proximity and accessibility of numerous summer resorts—upon every side—is not the least important. These are easily reached by rail or steamer. Taking a steamer at any of the city wharves the tourist has a choice—a difficult one if he would chose the better and more charming, each in its own way—down or up the river. Down the river he passes by the Otonabee, which serpentines its way between beautiful banks on both sides of the stream; here with the emerald of meadows and pastures sloping down to the banks, or fields of golden grain yellowing down to the waters' edge, or with stately trees, elms or white maples, growing at the edge and dipping their leaves into the waters of the river. Thus for twenty miles of waterway, but—as the crow flies only about a dozen miles—so winding is the stream in beautiful curves, revealing new beauties at every turn, with here and there nooked among the stately trees in verdant openings the white tent of the camper or the cottage of the summer dweller. At the end of this tortuous line of beauty lies Rice Lake, studded with beautiful islands, and to the south the bold banks formed by the Northumberland hills confront with their tree crowned crest the waters of the lake.

Every part of Rice Lake is charming—shore or island—and here are placed delightful summer resorts, Jubilee Point, Idyl Wyld, Gore's Landing, etc. Opening out of, or emptying into Rice Lake are the the Trent and Indian Rivers respectively. All these are splendid fishing grounds, and in the autumn the paradise of the ducking enthusiast.

Or the tourist may take the steamer northward, the first step of the journey being the thrilling experience of a rise through the lift lock, steamer and all, on through the upper reaches of the river to Lakefield; thence through the beautiful chain of the Kawartha Lakes, in innumerable directions, branching off here and there, to Lake Simcoe and connecting waters. At Lakefield a fleet of swift, tidy and comfortable steamers serve these waters. The charms of Stoney Lake as a summer resort have to be experienced to be appreciated. Every island almost contains a handsome home and on many can be seen in addition the white gleam of the tents of summer residents, and even the adjacent shores are being laid under tribute for summer dwellings and pleasure purposes. Several fine hotels provide for the wants of tourist travellers, who from all parts of Canada and adjacent United States, seek the pleasure to be found in first-class fishing, pure air and scenic beauty to be found on Stoney Lake. From this island-dotted expanse of water the locks at Burleigh lead in succession to Lovesick Lake, Deer Bay, Pigeon Lake; and beyond, for scores of beautiful miles, the journey can be pursued, reaching other splendid summer resorts, Bobcaygeon, Sturgeon Lake, etc. In brief, from Peterborough steamers can, and do, run through one hundred and fifty miles of water as far as Lake Simcoe with a continuous succession of ever varying but always similar attractions, clear bright water, fine fishing, quiet, yet exquisitely beautiful scenery, and splendid camping sites.

A line of stage coaches runs from the city to Chemong Park, situated upon Chemong Lake, another beautiful sheet of water. The park contains about one hundred beautifully wooded acres bluffly overlooking the lake and is dotted with numerous cottages, where business men of the city and of the other cities enjoy delightful summer homes. From this point a summer line of steamers runs to Bobcaygeon, and by this route the same chain of lakes as that by the Stoney Lake steamers is reached.

In these ways Peterborough is bountifully provided with summer resting places, and delightful refuges from heats and city discomforts, incident to the heated season.

Parks and Drives.

But the outside pleasure spots are not all that Peterborough has to boast of and be grateful for. The attractiveness of the city as a place of residence is greatly enhanced by our many beautiful parks, several of them due to the public spirited liberality of a lady citizen, the late Mrs. Nicholls. The public spirit of the citizens in relation to parks was well developed half a century ago. Between 1850 and 1860 there was an attempt to utilize what is now Victoria Park for school building purposes. This was strenuously and successfully resisted and as a result we now have Victoria Park, which is beautifully laid out, embowered with beautiful trees, provided with a fountain, embellished with magnificent flower plots and smooth clean walks intersecting its velvety sward, which is kept in perpetual greenness and freshness throughout the hottest period of the year. The park also justly enjoys the reputation of being one of the most beautiful, artistic and best kept parks in the country. A terrace divides it into two portions. The lower and more gentle slope is devoted, apart from the walks, to ornamental purposes solely. The upper or more brae-like portion is free to the public to walk upon and enjoy the abundant shade of the original oaks growing there. In the upper section of the park is situate a pavilion from which the splendid band of the Fifty-Seventh regiment gives delightful weekly concerts to the thousands who throng the park, which in evenings is brilliantly illuminated by electric lamps. Victoria Park was devoted to the public ceremonies in connection with the celebration of the Jubilee year of the great and good sovereign from whom it derives its deathless name.

Central Park, situated on George street, though not subject to such minute care, is beautifully shaded. Upon its grounds will be erected the imposing Armouries and connected structures to be built at once by the Dominion Government. It is also the site of the fine new Collegiate Institute building now under contemplation. The sites for these buildings were purchased jointly by the city, the School Board and the Dominion Government. When these structures are completed the square comprising Central Park will be one of the most beautiful parts of the city.

Inverlea Park, the late residence of Judge Dennistoun, is a charming spot, its chief beauties being the presence of splendid pines and oaks, and its situation alongside of the river at a point where commercialism and industrialism do not intrude their presence.

Diagonally opposite, across the river, is Nicholl's Park, occupying a bold bluff that overlooks the river. This park is beautiful with abundant trees and winding drives, enclosing an immense oval, devoted to sports where lacrosse, cricket, football and other games are played, the use of the grounds being free to all amateur sporting organizations. A splendidly smooth bicycle speeding course, inside the main carriage drive surround the oval, and outside the main drive finely shaded grass plots invite to repose and rest.

JACKSON PARK

Jackson Park is situated in the northwestern part of the city. It is composed of thirty-five acres, covered in great part by natural timber, cut through, with winding drives, overarched by stately pines and elms. Its northern part is embraced by a living stream that later finds its way through the city and which meanders in rippling sinuosities along the base of the bluff which bounds the western half of the park. Across the stream a rustic bridge leads to the eastern part. The valley is dammed at the upper end to form a shallow bathing pond, the delight of the youngsters, and below another dam provides for a beautiful lake several acres in extent, with a beautiful bridge of Japanese design, built long before the children of the Rising Sun had leaped into world-wide prominence. Man has co-operated with nature in making Jackson Park a most exquisite spot. It is a place of great popularity and access to it is made easy by means of a special extension of the street car line.

Then we have in the northern part of the city a beautifully little spot, the property of the people, by the liberality of Mr. A. E. Dixon. It is noted for some magnificent specimens of white oak, and is a delightful resort for the residents of the vicinity.

Though not classified as a park, Little Lake Cemetery is an unequalled beauty spot, and in connection with the several churches there are beautiful grounds, especially those of St. John, St. Peters, George Street Methodist and St. Audrew's Churches, which are semi-public, and the scores of splendid lawns attached to the railway stations and private residences, many of them unfenced, with the plash of fountains and the cool greeness of sward, make frequent and refreshing breaks in the monotony of heated summer streets, which, however, away from the business sections of the city, are abundantly shaded with trees.

Civic Buildings.

The civic property of Peterborough is chiefly confined to the market square, bounded by Charlotte, Water, George and Simcoe streets. The most southerly portion of this is called the market square, a large level open space, surrounded by walks elevated above the general level. From Charlotte street on George and from George on Simcoe to Water street is built upon. The lower half of the block contains the town market building with shop compartments on the first floor divided by a large open arcade. A handsome tower at the south-west corner contains a public clock with bell. The second floor reached from the arcade by a double flight of winding stairs, is the butter and small wares market, provided with ranges of tables for the marketers. The remainder of the buildings mentioned are business structures owned by various merchants who hold the sites by lease from the town. The town buildings proper are situated at the eastern end of the Simcoe street block. They are elegant structures of white brick rebuilt and renovated in 1886. On the first floor are found the city clerk's office, office of the mayor, with the necessary vaults for corporation records and documents, and in the rear separated by walls, the police quarters and cells. On the second floor are situated the council chamber, the office of the chief of police; and to the south the police court chamber. The same floor contains the parlours of the fire brigade. The third floor contains the sleeping rooms of the fire brigade and the practice room of the 57th band. Next west the offices mentioned are the offices of the town treasurer; and the city collector of taxes and town engineer have offices in the same range of buildings.

The fire system of the town is a good one and has in the past served its purpose well. For fifty-five years—from 1860—Peterborough has been visited by no serious fire, only individual buildings have been damaged, and this should be evidence of the substantial nature of the buildings of the city and efficiency of our fire-combatting appliances. The very excellent system of waterworks with its scheme of well distributed hydrants, and its effective pumping plant, co-operating with an excellently managed fire brigade, largely accounts for Peterborough's singular immunity from serious conflagration.

Peterborough possesses one of the best systems of waterworks in Canada, they being constructed by a joint stock company—completed in 1882. Three years ago they were acquired by the town, the purchase price being $230,000. These works, which are managed by water commissioners, have proven a good investment; the citizens are supplied with water of a quality unsurpassed in civic waterworks, and at a low rate, permitting the general use of the city water. The pumping plant is situated in the northern part of the city between Auburn and Nassau streets, and the dam thrown across the river answers the purpose of forming a reservoir and furnishing power for pumping. The pump house is a solid and substantial structure equipped with excellent pumps, capable of meeting both the ordinary demands that are made upon them and also the emergent demands that may arise in case of fire. The pure water supply is well filtered, being drawn from the deep mid-stream of the river, and this comes direct from the great chain of northern lakes, which are in their natural purity, practically uncontaminated by contact with human population. From the forest primeval, untenanted and untrodden by man, through all the chains of lakes and rapids, with inconsiderable exceptions, there is not sufficient proximity of human habitation to permit of the possibility of appreciable contamination, having regard to the immense volume of water passing the river banks—700,000 gallons per minute. Being thus almost absolutely pure as regards organic matter when the waters enter the Otonabee river at Lakefield, the continuous tumbling over nine miles of rapids, or rather dams and locks, exercises a powerful and complete depurating and aerating effect upon the water supply of the Peterborough waterworks system. There are now laid 24 miles of iron main pipes from 4 to 16 inches inclusive and 1660 domestic and other services installed, and 165 hydrants for fire purposes in use. The system of mains is unsurpassed in the country. The majority of the mileage has been re-laid under the superintendence of Mr. Wilson Henderson, whose extensive practical knowledge gained by an active experience of a quarter of a century, is aided by the principle that "whatever is worth doing is worth doing well." One thing is certain, the works have given, and give, general satisfaction and since they passed into the possession of the city the rates have been placed upon such a reasonable basis as to insure general consumption for domestic purposes.

RUSSIAN FLEET IN STATE OF REVOLT

From Ship to Ship the Russian Mutiny Spread —Potemkine Still a Rebel—Official Reports of Unconditional Surrender of the Kniaz Potemkine Proven False by Events ---That Vessel Escapes to a Roumanian Port---The Rebel Warship is in Command of Civilians.

St. Petersburg, July 3.—The unprecedented spectacle of powerful modern battleships cruising around in the Black Sea in the hands of a crew, who, under the rules of international law cannot be regarded as other than pirates, and of the admiral in command of the rest of the Euxine fleet frankly confessing his inability to cope with the situation, and ordering the fires of his warships to be drawn, has stupefied the Russian Admiralty.

The whereabouts of the errant battleship Kniaz Potemkine is unknown; no plans for capturing her have been devised, and the policy of non-interference seems to be at present in vogue. The Kniaz Potemkine has sailed from Odessa, and is now at large, and her crew, reinforced by sympathizers from shore, is still in control of the vessel.

On the Georgi Pobiedonosets, which cast in its fortunes with the Kniaz Potemkine after is arrival at Odessa and landed its officers, the more loyal or more timorous portion of them gained the upper hand and agreed to surrender and disarm the ship.

The rest of the squadron returned to Sebastopol without venturing to take up the gauntlet thrown down by the mutineers on the Kniaz Potemkine, and Admiral Kruger, after a council of war, finding that he could not depend on his crews, ordered the fires drawn beneath the boilers of his ships and gave permission to all the disaffected officers and sailors to quit the vessels and go ashore.

The sailors of the Ekaterina II. were known to be so mutinous when the squadron started for Odessa, the whole crew were dismissed and the ship disarmed.

The Admiral's Queer Story.

Sebastopol, July 3.—Via St. Petersburgh, July 3.)—Immediately after the Black Sea squadron arrived here Saturday a council of admirals and captains was held on board the flagship Rostislav, Vice-Admiral Kruger presiding. The council resolved to ungear the machinery and authorize the officers and men to go ashore. The Ekaterina II. is here and has been disarmed.

On arrival in the roads the flagship of the Black Sea squadron signaled the Kniaz Potemkine to join the squadron, to which the battleship replied, "We ask that the admiral should come on board us." No answer being given, the Kniaz Potemkine cleared for action and steamed at full speed along the whole fleet. She passed so close to the other vessels that even the features of her commander, who wore a thick beard and was in civilian clothes, were clearly distinguishable. Several among the crews assert that they saw at least thirty men in civilian costume on board the Kniaz Potemkine.

Mutiny, All Right.

Admiral Kruger signaled to the squadron, "Head for Sebastopol," and at the same time the Kniaz Potemkine displayed the signal, "We remain here."

Commander Gasevitch of the Georgi Pobedonosets, signalled that the machinery of the vessel was disabled. Admiral Kruger repeated his order to make for Sebastopol, when Georgi Pobedonosets replied, "We remain here." She steamed alongside the Kniaz Potemkine and hoisted the signal, "We wish to hand you your officers." This was the last signal seen by the squadron before heading for Sebastopol.

Capt. Golikoff and all the officers of the Kniaz except five, who were mostly engineers, were killed June 28 during the voyage to Odessa.

A Prisoner by Ruse.

The captain of the transport Vecha was made a prisoner by a ruse. The Kniaz Potemkine signalled to him to come on board. He did so and was seized and bound and put ashore. The crew of the Vecha then declared common cause with the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine, as did also the crew of one of the torpedo boats.

Potemkine a Rover.

Odessa, July 3.—The Kniaz Potemkine sailed yesterday apparently in the direction of the Roumanian coast, and nothing has since been heard of her. With her departure the situation for the moment has taken a more favorable turn.

Vice Admiral Kruger's squadron having left for Sebastopol, the Georgi Pobiedonosets is the only warship remaining here. The crew of the Georgi Pobeidonosets sent forty men ashore yesterday morning as hostages, and have asked the Emperor's forgiveness for have mutinied, pleading that they have not damaged the ship. The Government issued a proclamation saying that the danger of a catastrophe has passed and the everybody must be quiet and the strikers return to work.

The British Consul has arranged with British steamers and one Norwegian steamer to remain off the port so as to be in readiness in case of danger to remove foreign subjects. The captains of the steamers agreed to remain until the situation becomes clearer.

At Roumania.

London, July 3.—Lloyds' agents at Kustendji, Roumania, in a despatch dated 9.20 last night, says the Kniaz Potemkine and torpedo boat No. 267 are anchored off that port and that another steamer is in the offing, apparently watching.

Outside Three Mile Limit.

Kussendji, Roumania, July 3.—The commander of the Roumanian fleet boarded the Kniaz Potemkine and gave her permission to take water and provisions pending instructions from Bucharest.

The battleship has anchored outside the three-mile limit.

The Russian gunboat Psenouape is also here, but does not communicate with the Kniaz Potemkine.

Bombs Menace Czar's Palace.

St. Petersburg, July 3.—The police have discovered eight completed and twenty two half completed bombs and fifty canisters of explosives in a house occupied by a Government employe in the village of Veira, near Tsarskoe-Selo.

Two "MAPLE LEAF" Canned Salmon. The Best Packed.

A THOUSAND DROWNED.

Mexican City Completely Flooded By a Great Storm.

Mexico City, July 3.—Late advices state that it is known that over one hundred persons with one report claiming even one thousand, have been drowned in a great flood at Guanajuato, a mining city, now the important seat of activity by several large British and American companies. The wires were down all day yesterday, and the roads were impassable.

A despatch to President Robinson of the Mexican Central says there are one thousand dead at Guanajuato. The Town of Marafilo, just below Guanajuato, was completely wiped out.

Panic-stricken citizens have gone into the mountains carrying their valuables.

Many Drowned by Cloud Burst.

Del Rio, Texas, July 3.—Unprecedented rains, supplemented by a cloudburst near the head of Las Vacas Creek, a small stream on the Mexican side, have resulted in the known death by drowning of 18 persons, 16 of whom were Mexicans, and the probable death of many more.

Earl Wanted a Boy.

London, June 30.—The Duke of Norfolk, head of all British peers, is the most disappointed man in England, because the child to which his wife has just given birth is a girl. It is known that the duke has ardently wished for a son, who might inherit his ancient line. Thus the duke's brother, Lord Edmund Talbot, continues to be heir presumptive to the dukedom.

Brother of a Lord.

Detroit, June 30.—George F. Kinnear of Washington, D. C., who says he is a newspaper advertising man; Charles J. Mould is a chemist, employed by the Central Drug Store Co., and Chas. C. Bennett is a resident of this city with no particular vocation, are under arrest for swindling through the mails. Kinnear is said to be a brother of Lord Leith of London, Eng.

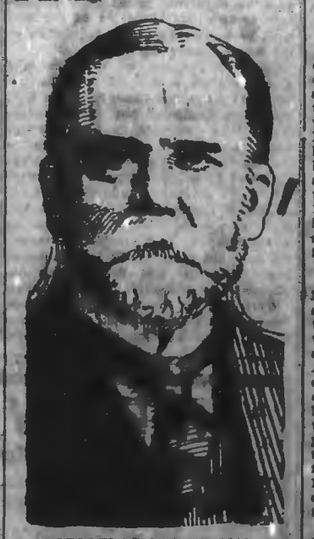
SUDDEN DEATH OF JOHN HAY

Secretary of State of United States Passes Away Saturday—Poet-Statesman is Gone --End so Suddenly That Son and Daughter Could Not Reach His Bedside Though Wife Did--His Career--Grief of President Roosevelt and King Edward is That of a Personal Friend.

Newbury, N. H., July 3.—The last moment of Secretary of State John Hay's life were peaceful and free from suffering. He had had some difficulty in breathing when the sudden change in his condition occurred at Friday midnight, but he soon lapsed into unconsciousness, and apparently felt no pain. His death was at twenty-five minutes after twelve o'clock Saturday morning.

Pulmonary embolism, the disease from which Mr. Hay died, is a clot of blood in a small artery or blood vessel in the lung.



SECRETARY JOHN HAY.

The suddenness of it all was staggering. From the peaceful quiet of midnight The Fells, Mr. Hay's beautiful summer home on the shores of Lake Sunapee, without warning was awakened to the bewildering imminence of death where life had been felt to be assured. At the hour of twelve Friday night all was quiet.

In another moment nurses and physicians found themselves summoned to the bedside. There had been a collapse. Twenty five minutes later all was over. So swiftly had the end come that the dying man passed away unattended by all of the members of his family save his wife. The others, a son and a daughter, were summoned, but they reached the bedside to find their distinguished parent dead. It was crushing.

A special train bearing the body of United States Secretary of State Hay, who died early Saturday morning at "The Fells," his summer residence on the shore of Lake Sunapee, left Newbury yesterday for Cleveland, O., where the interment will be made. The train is due to arrive in Cleveland at 7.00 a. m. to day.

CAREER OF JOHN HAY.

John Hay, one of the best-known and certainly one of the most successful diplomatists of recent years, was born at Salem, Indiana, on October 8, 1838, the third son of Charles Hay and his wife, Helen Leonard. Educated at Brown University, Rhode Island, where he graduated master of arts in 1851, he studied law in Springfield, Illinois, and was admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of that State in 1861. Immediately upon the election he went to Washington as assistant secretary to President Lincoln, remaining with him until his death.

Lincoln's Adjutant.

In addition to his secretarial duties Mr. Hay acted as Lincoln's adjutant and aide-de-camp and served with distinction in the field under Gens. Hunter and Gilmore, becoming assistant adjutant general and colonel by brevet. After the President's assassination he continued his political and diplomatic career and was appointed secretary of legation at Paris in March, 1865. Retiring two years later he was reappointed in the same capacity to Austria-Hungary, acting as charge d'affaires until August 15, 1866. In June, 1869, Mr. Hay was appointed secretary of legation to Spain and finally left the diplomatic service in October, 1870.

The deceased statesman then became an editorial writer on The New York Tribune, remaining on the staff of that journal for five years, during seven months of which he was editor-in-chief. He removed to Cleveland, Ohio, in 1875, where he took an active part in the Presidential canvasses of 1876, 1880 and 1881. During that period he acted as Assistant Secretary of State under President Hayes from November, 1879, to May, 1881. In the latter year Mr. Hay represented the United States at the International Sanitary Congress held in Washington, D. C., of which he was president.

CANAL TOLLS ARE ABOLISHED

Order-in-Council Passed at Ottawa on June 22.

Will Apply to Waters of Trent Canal—Action Will be of Great Interest Locally.

The following order-in-Council passed at Ottawa, on June 22, will be of great local interest:—

The Governor-General in Council,—

Whereas, by an Order-in-Council passed on February 25th, 1905, it was ordered that the system of exemption from tolls for the passage of vessels, passengers of cargoes, through the Dominion Canals be continued in force during the season of 1905 "only",

And Whereas it is now deemed expedient that there should be a definite abandonment of the system of toll connection without time limit.

Therefore the Governor-General in Council is pleased in virtue of the provisions of Section 13, Chapter 37, of the Revised Statutes of Canada "An act respecting the Department of Railways and Canals", to declare that all vessels, boats, rafts, cribs, and other craft, passengers and cargoes henceforward shall be and the same are hereby exempted from the payment of tolls for passage through any and all of the canals of the Dominion.

Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent of the Trent Canal, was to-day seen by an Examiner representative and in reply to an inquiry stated that he had received notification that the order is applicable to the waters of the Trent Canal. The announcement will be received with great pleasure in Peterborough, to the industries of which it will prove a decided boon.

FINAL LINK WILL BE ADDED

To Chain of Telephone Communication Along Trent Canal Waters.

Extension of Bell Telephone Lines to Buckhorn Secured by Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P.

With the extension of the lines of the Bell Telephone Company to Buckhorn, has been established, the final link in the system of telephone communication along the waters of the local section of the Trent Canal. The establishment of the new line, the necessity for which has been keenly felt in the past, was brought about by the efforts of Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., through whose agency an instrument has been ordered by the government for the lockmaster at Buckhorn.

The establishment of a complete and well-equipped telephone service between the different locks upon the Canal, is a matter, which, as will at once be apparent, is of vital importance to the manufacturers of the district, to whom the proper regulation of the water means so much.

The establishment of the line will also come as a decided boon to the residents of the locality. The Bell Telephone Company has it is understood, been approached upon several previous occasions with reference to its construction, but found it impracticable to take any action in the matter the present arrangements were concluded through the efforts of Mr. Hall, who also brought to the notice of the company in a convincing manner the constant increase in long-distance business which will result from development of shipping upon the Canal.

Work will be commenced in the near future upon the line which will be conducted from the Lakefield exchange.

NERVOUS?

Perhaps Sleepless, too!

You'll be a total wreck pretty soon, life will no longer be a pleasure. Just think of the days and nights of misery you must spend if not cured!

Won't you use Ferrozone? It's a nerve strengthener that really does cure. It acts through the blood. First, Ferrozone brings appetite—you eat plenty. This fills the blood with nourishment for the inner nerve cells.

FERROZONE

Instils strength into every part of the system. You get well—keep well—nervousness forever departs—because you have used Ferrozone. Avoid substitutes.

RANGERS CAPTURED THE CAPITAL CITY

Most Enjoyable Trip in the History of the 57th Regiment, Peterborough Rangers--Two Pleasant Days Spent in Ottawa the Guests of the Governor General's Foot Guards--Rangers Were Feted and Toasted ---Most Elaborate Reception Tendered the Visitors--Sir Frederick Borden's Address---Lieut.-Col. Hodgins Compliments Col. Miller on the Splendid Regiment of Which He is the Head.

Since the members of the 57th Regiment, fourteen years ago, took their trip to Ottawa, the events of that trip have been very pleasant memories in the minds of those who were privileged to enjoy it, and, consequently, when it became known that the Governor-General's Foot Guards, the members of which regiment were entertained by the 57th last year, had invited the latter to pay them a return visit this year, the local regiment rejoiced at a prospect of the recurrence of the many pleasing events of the previous trip.

Nor were their expectations in this respect, disappointed for, to a man, the members of the local organization, which returned this morning from Ottawa, where they have spent the last two days, are loud in their praises of the treatment which they had received at the hands of what many have been pleased to term, the crack regiment of the Dominion, and which, in any event, is one of the best, and no one will deny that none could possibly have been more hospitable than they proved themselves.

A Pleasing Trip.

It was one of the most pleasing, if not altogether so, of all the trips which the local organization has ever taken, every moment of the time intervening between their departure on Friday night, at ten o'clock and their return this morning at 4.30, having been filled with pleasure.

Their reception in Ottawa could not have been more cordial. From the Minister of Militia, Sir Frederick Borden, down to the humblest citizen, everyone did his utmost to render the stay of the Peterborough Rangers pleasant, and to the fact that they succeeded there are 410 living testimonies in Peterborough to-day.

The city was theirs, and they used it. To use an adaptation of a much used phrase in military history, "They went, they saw, they conquered," and, as a result of the trip, of the regiment to Ottawa, the people of that city, the officers and men of the Foot Guards, the District Officer Commanding, and the District Staff, and the Minister of Militia, have formed a high opinion of the 57th Regiment.

A Creditable Regiment.

On all sides the commanding officer was showered with congratulation on the splendid regiment which he had under his command, and that these congratulations were deserved, no one who saw the 57th on their trip will deny. They proved themselves a credit to the new city of Peterborough, their staff of officers, and to the militia of Canada, and the warm terms in which Lt.-Col. Hodgins, D. O. C., of No. 4 District, referred to the conduct of the visiting militiamen, were re-echoed by many others of the Ottawa military officers and civilians.

Not only as a result of this visit have the Rangers made a higher standing for themselves, but the city of Peterborough has won distinction by them, and there is no doubt that in the not distant future, the good results of the visit will be evidenced.

Almost from the time of their arrival to the departure of the train for home last night, the members of the 57th were being feasted and feted by some of the citizens of the capital city, and indeed had their object been to kill the visitors with kindness they could hardly have set about it in a more deliberate fashion. Altogether it was a most delightful outing for both the officers and men, and that they thoroughly enjoyed it, is beyond question.

The Trip to Ottawa.

On this trip the 57th turned out probably stronger than it has ever done on any previous occasion of a similar kind, the total strength being over 400. At 10 o'clock on Saturday night they entrained at the C.P.R. station, after being marched through the streets from the drill hall, through one of the largest crowds that has ever been seen on Peterborough streets. Lieut. McLean was transport officer and so perfect were the arrangements made by him that inside of a very few minutes the eleven coaches, making up the train, were filled, and to the cheering of the thousands who had gathered at the station, the train pulled out at 10.25, in charge of Mr. W. T. Dockrill, of Toronto, District Passenger agent of the C.P.R., assisting whom, in looking after the party, was Mr. W. Mellroy, the local C.P.R. agent, and both of these gentlemen spared no efforts to make the trip a pleasant and comfortable one, in which endeavour they succeeded admirably. Mr. Dockrill remained with the party from the time they left Peterborough until their return this morning, and was most attentive. The trip down was made in almost record time, and instead of detraining at 5 o'clock on Saturday morning, as was expected, the train pulled into the Union Station at 4.30, thirty minutes ahead of time. The arrangements for the comfort of the men were so perfect that all enjoyed a good night's rest, and consequently were fresh and bright the next morning.

Reception at the Capital.

The visitors were duly received at the station, and immediately formed up and marched to Cartier Square, where the camping ground had been prepared for them by Major Hayes, Capt. Eastwood, Quartermaster and Capt. Bennett, who had preceeded the regiment by two days with men to get the camp in readiness.

Before dismissal at the camp, each man was handed a copy of a fine programme prepared by the Foot Guards, for the reception and entertainment of their visitors.

After breakfast the majority of the men took advantage of the hospitality of the Guards as represented by their placing at the disposal of the visitors free cars to Brittania on the Lake, one of the most charming of the many watering places in the vicinity of Ottawa. A beautiful trip up the picturesque Ottawa River, for seven miles landed them at this summer resort, where a delightful half day was spent. Those who did not take this trip found abundant other ways of passing an enjoyable forenoon and many visited the Experimental Farm, the drive to which is one of the most beautiful to be found in the whole of Canada, made so largely by the generosity of the Government in placing at the disposal of the Ottawa Improvement Commission $60,000 to be used for the purpose of beautifying the city. Rockliffe Park, Rideau Hall and the rifle ranges, another delightful trolley ride down the banks of the river were among the places visited during the morning.

An Enjoyable Luncheon.

At noon the officers of the G.G.F.G's and other distinguished military officers were guests of the 57th officers at luncheon at the marquee on the camping grounds. Those present, outside of the officers of the visiting regiment were:—Lieut.-Col. Hodgins, D.O.C., of No. 4 District Lieut.-Col. Donaldson, Lieut.-Bliss, Director Ordnance and Stores Department; Major H. A. Bate, commanding G. G. F. G. Major D. R. Street; Adjutant and Major C. F. Winter; Capt. R. Gill, Paymaster; Capt. T. G. Rothwell, Quartermaster; Capt. J. F. Kidd and Lieut. G. B. McCarthy, Physicians; Rev. H. Kitson, Chaplain; Capt. D. H. McLean, Capt. A. Adamson, Capt. F. A. McGee; Capt. D. G. Graham, Capt. J. F. Cunningham, Capt. J. C. T. O'Hara, Capt. J. J. McLaren, Lieut. E. E. Prince, Lieut J. F. Gilmour, Lieut. J. M. Bate, Lt. A. C. Ross, Lt. F. D. Hogg, Lieut. G. McLaren, Lieut. T. W. Alexander, Lieut. J. A. McKenzie, Lieut. J. J. Crysler and J. A. Ritchie, County Crown Attorney. The luncheon was an informal afair and a delightful hour was spent.

The championship lacrosse game between the Capitals of Ottawa and the Shamrocks of Montreal, proved the popular attraction of the afternoon, and was attended by a very large number of the visitors to the city, who saw a most exciting exhibition of the great national game, the Capitals winning by a score of 12-9.

A very pleasing social event was the garden party given on the beautiful lawn at the residence of Major Bate, at five o'clock Saturday afternoon. A large number of Ottawa's fairest daughters graced the gathering with their attendance, and a delightful hour was spent, the band of the 57th rendering a splendid programme of music during the progress of the party.

Saturday's Luncheon

The event of the trip, however, as far as the officers were concerned, was the banquet given in their honour at the Victoria Hotel, Aylmer-by-the-Lake. Another of the beautiful resorts in the vicinity of the Capital City. This hotel is situated almost seven miles up the Ottawa river, from Hull, on the Quebec side, and is reached by an excellent electric car service. The trip up the river was one which was thoroughly enjoyed, as was the pleasing function which followed. The splendid hotel in which the banquet was held was very tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the large dining room presented a very pretty appearance with the brilliant uniforms of distinguished military guests, blended with the rich dresses of the civilians. At this function, the guests of honour were:—Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia and Defence; Lt.-Col. J. W. Miller, of the 57th Regiment and Lt.-Col. Hodgins, D. O. C. of No. 4 District. A most enticing menu was provided and done full justice to. Major Bates presided as chairman, and those present were:—

Lieut.-Col. W. E. Hodgins, D.O.C. No. 4 District; Capt. E. B. Clarke, Lieut.-Col. J. Grant, P.M.O. No 4 District; Major Harris, P.V.O. No. 4 District; Col. A. P. Sherwood, C.M.G., A D.C., to His Excellency, the Governor-General; Lieut.-Col. Bliss, Lieut.-Col. J. P. MacPherson, His Worship Mayor Ellis, Hon. RANGERS CAPTURED THE CAPITAL CITY

Lieut. Gilman, Lieut. Macoun, S. S. Moore, M. J. Hutchinson.

Toast List.

The first toast honoured was that to His Majesty, the King, and was received in the usual manner. "Our Honourary Colonel," His Excellency The Rt. Hon., The Earl Grey, G.C.M. G., was proposed by Major Bate, and was enthusiastically honoured by everyone present. In proposing the toast, "To Our Guests," the chairman referred to the delightful visit which the Foot Guards had enjoyed in Peterborough as guests of the 57th, and said that this was a pleasing reunion for, said he, we feel like two battalions of the same regiment now. This toast was given with Highland honours, and responded to in a pleasing speech by Lt.-Col. Miller, who thanked the Foot Guards for the very pleasant time they were giving their guests, who fully reciprocated the good will and friendly feeling exhibited by the Guards.

The toast to "The Canadian Militia," brought to his feet Sir Frederick Borden, the head of that department, and his address was deeply interesting, showing as it did that he was a man who had the best interests of the Militia at heart, and enunciated his belief that the first duty of the Militia of Canada was to maintain and support the civil power. Sir Frederick's address was patriotic and inspiring. "The District Staff" was proposed by the chairman and responded to by Lt.-Col. Hodgins, D. O.C. During the evening songs were given by ex-Mayor Cook, of Ottawa; D. Hughes Charles, Major Stevenson and Major Dennistoun.

Ottawa was Theirs.

Mayor Ellis, on behalf of the City of Ottawa, extended the freedom of the city to the visitors. The toast to the new City of Peterborough was proposed and honoured, and was responded to by Major Stevenson, who was that night dubbed "Mayor Stevenson." Lt.-Col. Miller proposed the toast to the Governor General's Foot Guards, and this was received most enthusiastically by the visitors and responded to by Major Streets.

The war whoop of the Peterborough Rangers, "The McIntyres," led by Major Stevenson, brought this most delightful evening to a close, and the visitors returned to their camp early Sunday morning.

Sunday morning broke rather threateningly, and during the early forenoon a drizzling rain fell. This soon cleared, however, and the day proved to be a most enjoyable one, but in so far as the weather was concerned as well as the programme of the visitors.

The Church Parade.

A church parade was the feature of the morning, and in this function again the Rangers distinguished themselves in no uncertain manner. The regiment won many golden opinions on their marching, and the smart appearance which they presented on parade. The band of the regiment also came in for some favourable comments too, and many were heard to remark that they excelled even the Foot Guards Band in some respects.

The regiment has seldom, if ever, appeared to better advantage than it did yesterday on church parade, and it is certain that if they ever visit Ottawa in the future, their reception will be even more cordial than it was on this occasion.

The divine service was held in Christ church cathedral, the church of which Rev. H. Kittson, Chaplain of the Guards, is rector. As the hour for the parade approached the streets on the line of march became lined with people, and when the regiments moved off Cartier Square, headed by the splendid band of the Foot Guards, there were several thousand citizens on the streets. Four hundred and ten Rangers, and 380 of the Guards, were in the parade, and in spite of the fact that the home regiment is considered by many the crack city regiment of the Dominion, the opinion was general that they had nothing over the Rangers. Upon arrival at the Cathedral the Protestant members of both regiments, with the 57th band, entered, while those who wished, headed by the band of the Guards, proceeded to St. Jean Baptiste church, where High Mass was sung.

The chaplain of the Guards, Rev. Mr. Kittson, preached a splendid soldier's sermon to those who worshipped in his church, which was crowded to the doors.

Compliments for the 57th.

After the service the regiments returned to the camping grounds by way of Wellington street, and again the streets were lined with citizens, who evinced the deepest interest in the visiting members of His Majesty's Militia. A feature of the parade was the presence, as guests of the Guards of a detachment of the Royal Scots Guards of Montreal, who were in Ottawa for the occasion. The parade was in charge of Lt.-Col. Hodgins, D.O.C., and after the regiments had drawn up on Cartier Square on their return from church, he addressed a few words to the men, congratulating Col. Miller upon the smart, soldierly appearance of his regiment, and expressed his satisfaction that they had spent a few days in Ottawa under his command. He hoped they would enjoy their stay, and that the time would not be long before they would return. In the afternoon the majority of the visitors went to Aylmer-by-the-Lake, where the Foot Guards Band rendered a sacred concert, which was much enjoyed. A large number of persons visited this beautiful spot during the afternoon, and as usual the Rangers were made welcome wherever they chooses to go. The officers were well looked after by their brother officers of the Guards, and a number of interesting points were visited.

The Return Trip.

After supper the camp began to change appearance rapidly, and the men were put to work striking camp preparatory to leaving for the train. During the evening the 57th Band rendered a choice programme of sacred music from Cartier Square, and it was enjoyed by a very large number of persons, the band being loudly applauded at the conclusion of each selection.

At 9.15 the regiment fell into line and accompanied by the Guards Regiment marched to the station, where the train was waiting to convey them back to the new City. The streets to the station were lined with people and the march was continual ovation to the 57th, the regiment being accompanied by thousands of cheering citizens. It was a triumphal march, and the 57th the heroes. They arrived home the morning about 4.30, having spent a most enjoyable two days' outing, and are loud in their praise of the Guards, and enthusiastic in their recital of the pleasing incidents of this the most pleasing trip in the history of the 57th Regiment, Peterborough Rangers.

Bugle Blasts.

"And there ye are."

One of the officers during the night on Saturday pursued the occupation of a bootblack. It is rumoured that a new brand of blacking will shortly be placed on the market as a result of his investigations, and that it will be the Best blacking going.

Two guards, with fixed bayonets were required to prevent the Ottawa damsels from crowding on to the platform last night at the Union Station, as the boys pulled out.

The officers and men are loud in their praise of the efforts of Mr. W. Dockrill, G.P.A., of the C.P.R., who accompanied the train and looked after the wants of the men.

"The best trip in the history of the 57th" is the universal opinion.

The Capital authorized to the Peterborough Rangers without any opposition.

The Toronto Globe in a despatch from Ottawa, speaking of the visit of the Rangers, says:—"Men of both corps fraternized well together, and there were no unpleasant incidents. The conduct of the Peterborough men was simply exemplary, and whenever they come again Ottawa will be pleased to welcome them."

A PLEASING HOLIDAY TRIP

Annual Excursion of Auburn Sunday School.

Large Number of Persons Enjoyed Trip Around Stony Lake.

The objective point of the annual excursion of the Auburn Sunday school is always Stony Lake, and the date is Dominion Day. This trip is always well patronized by the citizens, and this year proved to be no exception. After a pleasant run to Lakefield, the steamer Stony Lake was boarded for the sail up the Lakes. The sail on the placid waters of Clear and Stony Lakes was a most delightful one, although the boat was somewhat over-crowded, by reason of the four hundred pleasure-seekers on board.

The first stop was made at McCracken's, where dinner was served under the spreading branches of the many evergreens. The whistle then sounded and the bow of the boat turned towards Burleigh Falls, where a stay of sufficient length was made to enable all who wished to view the magnificent masonry in the Locks here, or the rugged grandeur of the falls. The next stopping place was Mount Julian and Viamede. The boat then sailed east through Rowchink Narrows and after encircling numerous islands again headed west, calling at Juniper Island. After all had paid their respects to the genial proprietor of the Juniper Island Store, Mr. T. W. Robinson, the homeward journey was commenced, Lakefield being reached at six o'clock. Here, however, trouble was experienced in obtaining railway accommodation, owing to a scarcity of coaches, and the train had to make three trips to bring the crowd home.

An efficient committee looked after the baskets, and saw to their safe transfer from train to boat and vice versa.

SMALL MARKET FRIDAY MORNING

Prices Were Good, but There was Little Offering on Outside Market.

The market Friday morning was not as large as would be expected. There were only about fifteen rigs on the square, and the showing was not large. Potatoes still remained at 90c and $1.00 per bag, and garden vegetables maintained good prices. Peas, shelled, were 30c per quart and onions and beets sold at 5c per bunch.

The inside market had a larger attendance; butter and eggs being about the only articles offered. Butter sold at 20c per lb. and eggs at 17 and 18c per dozen.

SUDDEN DEATH OF JOHN HAY

that Secretary Hay became favorably known in the literary world, his "Pike County Ballads," published in 1871, winning him high favor with the reading public. His "Castilian Days" was issued in the same year. Upon his retiral from the United States service in 1881, in conjunction with Col. John George Nicholay, he devoted himself to his exhaustive "History of President Lincoln,"—the ten volumes appearing between 1886 and 1890. For this labor of love he was exceptionally well fitted through his close associations with Lincoln during the greatest period of his life.

In February, 1897, on the accession of President McKinley, Col. Hay was nominated ambassador extraordinary and plenipotentiary to Great Britain, and filled that post with distinction till September 20, 1898, when, at the call of duty, he accepted the office of Secretary of State. After the assassination of President McKinley he continued in the same capacity under President Roosevelt until his death.

His Official Triumphs.

As Secretary of State Mr. Hay soon became known throughout the world. He brought to the discharge of its multifarious and onerous duties a large and wide experience of men and things, a calmness and sobriety of judgment, a clear understanding and an earnest desire for the highest interests of humanity. An unusually large number of questions awaiting the foreign politics of the United States Government characterized Secretary Hay's tenure in the State Department. Among them were the complications arising out of the Boxer troubles in China, the release of Miss Stone, the missionary, from her captors in Turkey; the Moroccan affair when the secretary issued his famous ultimatum, "Perdicaris alive, or Rasuli dead"; the asphalt controversy in Venezuela, the San Domingo affair, the secession of Panama and negotiation of the Isthmian Canal treaties, the "open door in China" and the developments incident to the Russo-Japanese war. He was an active advocate of international arbitration and possessed to a marked degree the respect of the nations of the world.

Tributes of Sorrow.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 3.—President Roosevelt was awakened at six o'clock Saturday morning by a message sent from the executive office in the village telling of Secretary Hay's death. Mr. Roosevelt at first could hardly credit the news, as he had received such reassuring reports of Mr. Hay's condition the night before. He sent at once the following despatch:

Mrs. John Hay, Lake Sunapee—I cannot believe the dreadful news. Pray accept our deepest sympathy in your terrible bereavement. I do not know what to say to express my sorrow.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

King Edward's Early Message.

Soon afterwards the following cablegram came from the King of England:

London, July 1.—The President—I beg to offer the expression of my deepest sympathy on the occasion of the death of your distinguished Secretary of State Mr. Hay, whom I had the pleasure to see so recently. His loss to the great country over which you preside will be a national one.

EDWARD R.

To this despatch, which was received many hours before any other message from Europe, the President replied.

His Majesty, Edward VII.—Pray accept my hearty thanks for the expression of your sympathy in what is a national bereavement.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Roosevelt's Sorrow Personal.

Later, though his secretary, the President gave out the following statement:

"My sense of deep personal loss, great though it is, is lost in my sense of the bereavement to the whole country in Mr. Hay's death. I was inexpressibly shocked, as every one was, for all of us, including Mr. Hay's immediate family, had supposed that all immediate danger was over, and I had been hoping that the rest during the summer would put him again in good health by fall. The American people have never had a greater Secretary of State than John Hay, and his loss is a national calamity."

The President will attend the funeral.

King Edward Deeply Grieved.

London, July 3.—A reporter for The New York Sun called at Buckingham Palace Saturday and was authorized to make the following statement:

"The King is deeply grieved to hear of the death of Mr. Hay, especially as he had seen him so recently, when he came to the palace during his stay in London last month. His Majesty looks upon his death as that of a personal friend, which will be a great loss, not only to Mr. Hay's own country, but to the Anglo American entente."

Britain's Regret.

London, July 3.—Foreign Secretary Lansdowne, on behalf of the British Government, has cabled an expression of sincere sympathy with the American Government in the death of Secretary Hay.

John Hay and Anglo-Saxon Unity.

Toronto, July 3.—When the Anglo Saxon union was organized in Toronto in the year of 1899, Col. John Hay accepted honorary membership and expressed his high approval of the organization. He then stated that he had always enjoyed the belief in "an unwritten bond of Anglo Saxon unity."

A CONFERENCE IT IS.

M. Rouvier Holds Two Hour Talk With German Ambassador.

Paris, July 3.—Prince von Radolin, the German Ambassador, called at the Foreign Office Saturday evening by appointment, and during a two hours' talk with the Premier, M. Rouvier, received from him the French response to Germany's last note concerning Morocco.

The response takes into consideration the assurances Germany has given relative to French interests in Morocco, and modifies some of the objections at first raised against a conference.

The general tenor of the response is favorable to the principle of a conference.

Diplomatic circles, therefore, regard the controversy as practically closed, as little now remains to be done, except to adjust details. This, however, may take some time, as each side is tenaciously contesting every step.

Impurities in the Blood.

When the action of the kidneys become impaired impurities in the blood are almost sure to follow, and general derangement of the system ensues. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will regulate the kidneys so that they will maintain healthy action and prevent the complications which certainly come when there is derangement of these delicate organs. As a restorative these pills are in the first rank.

CUSTOMS RETURNS OF "BIGGEST LITTLE CITY"

Phenomenal Increase in Returns at Customs House—Evidences a Remarkable and Substantial Business Growth—Comparison of Statistics—Month of June, 1905, Exceeds by $3,000 the Entire Year of 1895.

The collections at the Peterborough customs house for the past month, and for the fiscal year ending June 30th, have been phenomenally heavy, and show a startling increase over those of past years.

A glance at the figures is sufficient to show the substantial basis for the pride which citizens of Peterborough take in its rapid industrial expansion and commercial growth.

An analysis of the statistics for the past decade is highly interesting and should prove a source of gratification to citizens of "the biggest little city in Canada."

The following are some figures relative to the collections during the past year, as compared with those of other years:

Collections for June, 1905...$49,198.04
Collections for June, 1904... 17,117.83

Increase... ... ...$32,082.21

Collections for fiscal year ending June 30, 1905 ... ...$335,637.30
Collections for fiscal year ending June 30, 1904 ... ... 222,751.15

Increase... ... ...$112,887.15

Collections for fiscal year ending June 30, 1905 ... ...$335,637.30
Collections for fiscal year ending June 30, 1895..... 45,174.52

Increase in ten years.... ...$290,464.78

It will thus be seen that the collections for the month of June 1905, exceed by over $4,000 those of the entire year of 1895—the last year but one of Conservative administration at Ottawa.

Probably, however, the greatest reason for the gratification arising from a perusal of the figures is the assurance which they give of the substantial character of the growth of the business of the town. When, last year, the aggregate amount of collections was announced, its large excess over that of the previous year was considered as approaching the marvellous, and in many quarters it was argued that the increase was occasioned by the heavy importations of taxable machinery for the various manufacturing concerns, which at that time were installing their plants.

The phenomenal increase during the year just ended, however, explodes this theory, and but one satisfactory deduction can now be drawn —a steady, substantial, solid business growth.

DR. F. C. NEAL IS NOW A BENEDICT

Popular Young Peterborough Man Married in Ridgetown

An Interesting Social Event—Bride And Groom to Live in Peterborough.

A very pretty house wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ravcraft, Victoria avenue, Ridgetown, on Wednesday afternoon, June twenty-eighth. The bride was their daughter, Miss Bertha, recently of the Moulton Ladies' College staff, Toronto, and the groom, Frank D. Neal, M.B., M.R.C.S., L.R.C.P., of Peterborough.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jasper Wilson. About forty guests were present, a number being from Toronto, London and Detroit. The house was prettily decorated with roses and bridal blossoms.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. L. J. Raycraft, and during the afternoon Mr. Whitney Scherer rendered several instrumental selections.

The bridesmaid was Miss Maude Raycraft, sister of the bride, and the groomsman, Mr. Will G. Neal, of Walton, the groom's brother. The bride's dress was white embroidered silk crepe en train, over white taffeta, with veil, while the bridesmaid wore pearl grey silk crepe over rose silk. The groom's gift to the bride was a circle of pearls and to the bridesmaid, a necklace, with pendant of baroque pearls and sapphires.

Dr. and Mrs. Neal will take up their residence at 238 King street, but Mrs. Neal will not receive until after the holiday season. Due notice will be given later of the date.

MOST PLEASANT IN ITS HISTORY

Was The Excursion of St. Peters' T. A. Society

Jubilee Point The Object in Point of an Enjoyable Excursion.

All circumstances combined on Dominion Day to make the annual excursion of the St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society, the most successful, from every point of view, that has yet been held.

The day was fine, and every arrangement having in view the pleasure of a large number of people, was perfect. The steamers Water Lily and City of Peterborough, and barge, had been chartered, and thereon was found accommodation for over 700 people, young and old. The T. A. S. Band was on board and discoursed sweet music during the trip, while for those who wished to trip the light fantastic, the music of the T. A. S. orchestra was all that could be desired.

The sail to Jubilee was a delightful one, and everyone landed at the Point prepared to thoroughly enjoy the day. Well filled baskets were in short order deprived of their delicacies, and soon the most essential feature of a day's outing was carried out, and that in no half-hearted manner. The afternoon passed very pleasantly for all. The dancing pavilion was well patronized by the young people, Mr. M. Costello being the capable floor manager.

Several races were run off for the benefit of the juveniles, and the winners were:

Boys' race, 50 yards, 15 years and under — J. O'Brien, D. Sheehy, S. Sheehy.

Girls' race, 15 years and under — Marion Gorman, Marion May, Muriel O'Dette.

Boys race, 50 yards, 12 years and under — S. Sheehy, H. Giroux, Gerald O'Brien.

Girls' race, 12 years and under — Muriel O'Dette, Mary May, M. Gorman.

Boys' boot race, 11 years and under — Gerald O'Brien, H. Morrow and Thomas Moloney.

Girls' race, 10 years and under — Hannah Kennealey, Madeline Hickey and Kathleen Gorman.

The presence of Rev. Dr. O'Brien and Rev. Father Kelly was very greatly appreciated by the excursionists.

The steamer Water Lily left Jubilee at 4.30 and the City onehalf hour later, upon the return trip, and both boats pulled up to the Peterborough wharf between nine and ten o'clock, with the entire party feeling that the day had been well spent.

The committee to whom is due great praise for the excellence of the arrangements, consisted of the following gentlemen: Messrs. Charles Murty, chairman; D. Holland, secretary, and Jos. Primeau, treasurer.

Fine Preserving Berries.

AN ACCIDENT ON AYLMER STREET

Lady Has Narrow Escape from Serious Injuries.

Owing to the bad condition of the sidewalk on Aylmer street near London street, a lady returning from church Sunday morning was violently thrown faceformost to the ground, thus sustaining not only a great shock to her nerves but bruises which will confine her to the house for some days. On examining the defective plank it was found to be entirely loose, her foot going into the space below; the sewer is under the sidewalk. This is a matter for City Fathers to look into at once, or there may be serious damages to pay for.

EXCURSION WAS MUCH ENJOYED

St. Luke's Young Men's Guild Had Pleasant Outing on Saturday.

Among the many excursions which left town on Saturday, one of the most enjoyable was that of St. Luke's Young Men's Guild, which went up to Stony Lake by steamer Majestic.

The party, which numbered about 175, left town on the morning train to Lakefield, where they embarked upon the steamer. After a delightful sail via McCracken's Landing, the pleasure-seekers reached Burleigh, where dinner was served.

The sail was then continued to various points on the lake, including Julian's Landing, Crowe's Landing and Juniper Island, returning to Lakefield about 6.20 o'clock.

CAPT. MATTHEWS WAS HONOURED

Presentation in the Regiment Mess Tent, Ottawa.

Presented on Occasion of His Retirement With Handsome Smokers' Set.

A pleasing event took place in Ottawa, during the visit of the 57th Regiment to that place, when Captain G. S. Matthews was presented by his brother officers with a handsome smoking set, on the occasion of his retirement from the service.

The presentation, which was made by Major Dennistoun, took place in the mess tent of the regiment in Cartier Square. Captain Matthews has for 21 years been connected with the regiment, and his necessary retirement was much regretted. The event was of an informal character. A short but appropriate reply was made by the recipient. Captain Matthews is now a resident of Brantford.

PRESENTATION TO CHOIR LEADER

Mr. Jos. Legg Honoured by St. Luke's Choir.

Presented With Gold Locket and an Address.

On Thursday night the members of St. Luke's choir gathered at the residence of Mr. L. Turner to do honour to Mr. Jos. Legg, who is retiring from the leadership of the choir.

The late leader was presented with a gold locket accompanied by the following address:—

Dear Mr. Legg,—The choir of St. Luke's church, having learned with deep regret of the severance of the ties existing between them and yourself, as members and leader of the choir cannot allow this opportunity to pass without giving expression in a tangible way to their appreciation of your services as choir leader for the past two years, and desire on this occasion to give expression to the kindly relations that have always existed.

We have always found you kind, considerate, affable in manner and courteous to all with whom you came in contact. While your duties as leader were not without difficulties, you have always looked on them in the proper spirit, and shown consideration for the shortcomings of others, and by the tact you always displayed, the work of the choir was harmonious and a pleasure to all concerned.

We trust that wherever your future lot may be cast the sun of prosperity may shine on you, and the remembrance of the many happy hours we have spent together will be looked back upon with pleasure in after life.

On behalf of the members of the choir we ask you to accept this small token of our appreciation and good wishes.

Mr. Legg was totally surprised at the presentation and acknowledged the gift in a suitable manner.

Those present were afterwards entertained to light refreshments by Mrs. Turner.

The Pic-nic To-morrow.

Don't forget Murray Street Baptist Sunday School picnic to-morrow to Stony Lake. Leaves by G.T.R. at 8.25 a.m.; returns at 8.15 p.m. Boat stays with the party all day. 10

RETURNED FROM NORTH WEST

Excellent Prospects for the Crops—Nothing Heard of Autonomy Bill.

Mr. Isaac Kerr and Mr. John Blakely of South Monaghan, returned from the Saskatchewan Valley on Friday evening, where they have been homesteading. Mr. Kerr brought with him samples of fall wheat taken from the fields on June 20th, stalks of which measured two feet, good The farmers of the west, at present, are all smiles. Each and all are unanimous in the belief that they never had such good prospects for a large crop, and, if they are not frozen out during the summer, the farmers will wear "the smile that won't come off" this fall.

Mr. Kerr, Mr. Blakely and Mr. J. Rutherford, jr., all expect to leave for the west next year.

When asked regarding the Autonomy Bill, Mr. Kerr, said there was no feeling in the west with regard to it. One never hears of it in the west. It is necessary to return home to Ontario to find out. Mr. Kerr thinks there are great prospects for a great province in the Saskatchewan.

CANADIAN PRODUCT IN THE LEAD

A Few of Peterborough's Citizens who Have Recently Purchased Gerhard Heintzman Pianos.

According to the official returns only six hundred and forty-three American made pianos have been sold in Canada during the last fiscal year and from the valuation of same it is fair to assume that seventy-five per cent of these pianos have been of the cheap grades.

This official report proves clearly that our musical and cultured people have come to the conclusion that Canada is producing a piano which fulfil their most exacting requirements, and as an indication of how thoroughly this fact is appreciated by our citizens, we furnish below a list of patrons of Canada's premier piano and national instrument, the Gerhard Heintzman, supplied by Mr. W. H. Isaac, local representative for Peterborough District,—Hon. J. R. Stratton, Peterborough Conservatory of Music, the Young Women's Christian Association, Mrs. A. L. Davis, F. H. Dobbin, Daily Review; Ladies' Aid, George Street Methodist Church; Mrs. Geo. Scott; W. H. Robertson, Daily Times; Arthur Poe; A. Peters; Johnston Cooney, Mrs. Sarah Johnston, Mrs. John Henry, Young People's Society, Christian Endeavour Presbyterian Church, Keene; M. Lyle; Geo. A. Baker and others.

Mr. W. H. Isaac, local salaried representative and Mr. Rose, superintendent of agencies, through whom the purchases were made, may with the Gerhard Heintzman Company be congratulated upon such an array of recent customers.

LINDSAY "REDSKINS" SHUT OUT TWICE

Locals Won Afternoon Game by 8-0—Both Games Were Interesting—Locals Played Superior Ball—Attendance Was Large in the Afternoon—Locals Played Almost Errorless Ball.

And it came to pass on Saturday, that upon the grounds known as the Riverside Park, there occurred a "killing" even such as can only be likened to a "slaughter of the innocents".

And moreover it occurred in this wise:—

That in the early morn there arose in a small hamlet, called Lindsay, even the same which is known by its industrial activity, as the Pompeii of Victoria County, a large, multitude, who were weirdly bedecked with red and black ribbons.

And the host, which betook itself to the railway station, had in its midst nine persons of bucolic mein, and sanguine mettle—even the same as are known as "Bill Cinnamon's Redskins".

And from the peaceful vallevs of Ops, and even into the borders of Emily township, came others, to assist the departure of William and his followers.

And the host which had thus gathered together among themselves and said:—"Lo! they are the finest ever, for where, even unto the shores of Nogey's Creek, could they be duplicated?"

For had they not read with wide-open countenance the sporting column of The Post, in which it was written that the team was, "fearless and," and had not that been confirmed by the gossips of the Post Office.

And the aboriginies when they had reached town betook themselves to the Riverside Park, where the forces of Robert MacEwen rose up and smote them thrice upon the solar plexus, causing them to retire and lay down of copper.

And as they returned across the Hunter street bridge they spake gravely among themselves and said:—"Verily, it looketh as if we are up against it".

And in the afternoon they again sallied forth to the slaughter.

And behold "upon the job" was "Mah", who hath in his possession strange "benders"—of such variety as are unknown in the land of Sam Hughes.

And at these the visitors marvelled greatly and spake amongst themselves thusly:—"Truly, our biff-sticks are full of holes."

And it came to pass, that in the ninth inning, he of the spicy name marshalled his legions and departed into the silent hames.

The games of Saturday were both interesting exhibitions of baseball from the view-point of the "operators," though something a trifle more effusive was expected of the Redskins. The locals, in both games, played almost errorless ball, in the league game in the afternoon, only one being recorded. The game was never in doubt, though the score of 8-0 in the afternoon was not anticipated even by the fans.

Douglas was in splendid form and though hit to some extent in spots, had excellent support behind him. Shea pitched the afternoon game for the Redskins and he hit rather freely.

The attendance was large, in view of the large exodus to various points in the morning, and on the evening previous. The locals have apparently got off on a winning gait, and will assuredly be near the grand stand when the colours are hauled out. Every man played his position well. Chris. Graham at first did excellent work, and his addition was a source of added strength to the team. His ability as a "sticker" will be of much assistance.

The element of luck was in Saturday's game, a very small factor, and did not materially affect the morning. The locals played superior ball throughout. The most exciting spot in the game was in the ninth, when it looked for a few minutes as if the visitors would avoid a shut-out. They were, however, prevented from getting away by the excellent work of Douglas, who uncorked a choice lot of crooked ones.

Davis Kerr, of Cobourg, made an excellent umpire and his decisions were strictly impartial.

The visitors went thru the ball, McGill died out to third. Workman and Marks each fanned. No runs.

Graham received a bump from the sphere in the sixth. Sheridan beat out a single over th pitcher's roof. Graham was planted stealing home from third. Douglas clubbed out a one-inch sky-scraper. Green lined one to third. Grey made a wild throw to the platter, allowing Sheridan and Douglas to come in amid wild applause. Shaye flew out to centre. 3-0.

Cinnamon beat out a two-dicker. Burnham bunted, Menzies sympathized, Douglas secured Grey's grasser and threw home, cutting off Cinnamon. Hopkins walked. Tobin fouled out to Graham with the bases full. No runs.

Rattray singled to short left, and reached second on Pilling's easy grasser. Connors fanned the breezes. Rattray was pinched at third. Pilling pilfered second, Graham fanned. No runs.

McGill went out on a grasser, Green to Graham. Workman fouled out to third, Marks made three weird slashes at the mist—and missed. No runs.

Sheridan bunted, but was forced by Shea's at second. Douglas popped out a high fowl, which Cinnamon took in his fin. No runs.

Sheridan made a pretty catch of Cinnamon's long lift to left. Burnham retired short stop to first. Menzies had appetitious but went out, Green to Graham. No runs.

Shayne filed out to second. Rattray walloped a few one to second, which would be good for one cushion, and advanced on the Pilling's single, to left field. Connors waited for four wild ones, and sent the bases grew populous. Chris. Graham was again sandbured, fanning Rattray in. Sheridan was proper man on the job, and beat out a long lift to left which brought Connors in. Pilling, and Graham, whereat Bill Cinnamon looked unutterable things, and shingles on the grand stand became loosened. Douglas swung at the balmy three times. Five runs.

Grey flew out to Sheridan. Hopkins retired on a liner to third. Tobin had his leg penetered by a pitched ball. McGill went to bat, and Cinnamon burglarized second. McGill went to first by the easy route. Workman smote one to left which came under Sheridan's tile. No runs.

Green swung miserably and drove a liner to third reaching second on a wild throw. Shayne found the slapstick full of holes. Rattray singled and Green's position indented the platter. Watt, retired on Pilling's single to second. Pilling retired on an attempt to burglarize. One run.

Marks went out on a grasser, short to first. Cinnamon bunted to Douglas. Burnham sent a loop-the-looper to left field, which set him two cushions to the better. Menzies smote the wetness on two occasions and then made a foul tip, which dropped just behind the platter. Everyone became excited when Rattray made a wild throw to first and Sheridan tore off the remaining two bases in a homeward flight. When the umpire's decision was given, the emotional tones of Cinnamon cleft the balmy atmosphere in hearty protest. Menzies went back to the bat and Burnham to second. Menzies fouled to third and it was all over, no runs.

Sheridan made the run to short and died at first. Graham made three energetic swings into nothingness. Sheridan was out to first. No runs.

Grey sent a skimmer to short, who handled it to first in good style. Hopkins bumped a high one to Graham. Tobin retired third to first. No runs.

Shea struggled. Douglas handled a lofty one to Workman, who did a pretty double stunt, getting Shea at second. Green sent a pretty one-bagger to left, but went out in an attempt to pilfer second. No runs.

McGill batted a high lift to centre field. Workman made three wild stabs in the breezes. Marks was also of few visions. No runs.

Rattray was punctured by an inshoot. Callaghan made three wild swipes at the balls. Connors passed away peacefully—short to first. No runs.

Cinnamon squatted a two-inch peak to the fringe of the balmy plane on the left. Burnham bunted out a single, scored to centre. Douglas threw to third, which Cinnamon reached on Shayne's error. Cinnamon withdrew from the game in a fugie attempt to scatter the plate. Burnham stole third and things got interesting. Grey fouled out to 3rd.

When "Mell" waited three of his pretties and the Lindsay umpire delicately pinched him clubs in the carpet-bag. No runs.

Summary—Stolen bases, 10; double plays, Menzies to to Workman; struck out, Douglas, 6; by Douglas, 6; two-base hits, Cinnamon, 2; Burnham; Sheridan; bases on balls,—off Burnham, 1; off Douglas, 3; hit by pitched ball, 4; umpire, Dr. Kerr, Cobourg; scorer, B. Hosey.

LINDSAY EASY FOR THE LOCALS

Defeated in Exhibition Game by 3-0.

Saturday Morning's Baseball Game Was Won by Peterborough Team.

There is one team in the league that the local fans like to see in action with the locals, and that is the bunch from Scugog town, headed by that famous orator, Mr. Bill Cinnamon. In the morning Bill's team was whitewashed in a fair exhibition of ball by the score 3-0.

For Lindsay, Tobin pitched a fair game and filled his position well; but his support was poor. Quinlan, in the points for the locals, put up a good article of ball, fanning 10, and passing only one man.

In the first, both sides went out in order. In the second Cinnamon hit one through Green to centre field, made second on Menzies' hit, but was caught trying to steal third. Moynes fanned, retiring the side. In the locals' half Shea fouled out to catcher, and Douglas and Shayne were out at first.

In the third Shea made a pretty catch of Tobin's short fly, and Hopkins and Mosely were out at the first corner. For the same team Rattray fouled out to Grey, Connors fanned, and Quinlan was out Tobin to McGill.

McGill walked in the fourth, Burnham and Grey fanned, and Cinnamon went out at first. Sheridan went out at first, but Graham hit a clean one to centre and Green fanned. Tobin attempted to cut off Graham at second, but threw into centre field, and the runner scored. Shea hit to Grey who fumbled and threw the ball to the stand allowing "Dobbie" to reach third. Douglas singled to centre, scoring Shea. But the fun was over, Shayne failing to connect safely.

In the fifth Menzies hit one at Graham who fumbled, and the runner was safe. Moynes reached first on Shea's error, but Tobin and Hopkins fanned.

For the home team Rattray was out at first; Cambra fanned, and Quinlan was out catcher to first.

McGill, first up in the sixth, hit one at Graham, who let it through, and Green did likewise. Burnham flew out to first, and Grey reached first on Shayne's error, and stole second, but the redoubtable Bill Cinnamon made three outs in the atmosphere, retiring the side. In the locals half Sheridan's fly was taken care of by Mosley. Graham fanned and Green was out, Grey to McGill.

In the seventh Menzies fanned, Moynes fouled out to catcher, and Tobin flew out to Shayne. In the second half Cinnamon corralled Shea's fly, Douglas hit through Burnham and Shayne appeared to be an easy out on a high fly, but Menzies dropped the ball, and the runner was safe. Douglas waited on first until the ball was dropped, and was caught trying to reach second. Rattray hit to short, and reached third on a series of mishaps, Shayne scoring. It looked as if there would be another run chalked up but Connors fanned, and the fun was over.

Lindsay went out in quick time in the eighth, Hopkins and Mosley fanned, McGill was hit by a pitched ball and Burnham fanned. For the homesters, Quinlan singled, Sheridan's foul was taken by Cinnamon, and Menzies caught Graham's fly, touched second and Quinlan was out on the double play.

In the ninth, Grey fanned, Cinnamon fouled out to Shayne and Menzies was out, Shayne to Graham, thus ending the game.

The teams lined up as follows:—

Lindsay.—McGill, 1st; Burnham, s. s.; Grey, 3rd; Cinnamon, c.; Menzies, 2nd; Moynes, c. f.; Tobin, p.; Hopkins, l. f.; Mosley, r. f.

Peterborough.—Sheridan, c.; Graham, 1st; Green, 2nd; Shea, s. s.; Douglas, p.; Shayne, 3rd; Rattray, r. f.; Connors, c. f.; Quinlan, l.

He Is Only One in Hundreds of Thousands. Watch Well Your Own Individual Self.

He has a tremendous appetite, yet has no desire to exert himself in the least. He seems lazy and indolent. His sleep is fitful and troubled. He has pains under his shoulder blades and a bitter taste remains in his mouth. His tongue is often furred and coated. He is dizzy when he gets up to walk or arises from stooping over. One day his bowels may move, but the next day he is constipated. The natural sewers of the body become clogged up, the bile in the stomach not being able to pass out through the natural channels is absorbed into the blood. If you said "he is a bilious man," you would be exactly right, but how few there are who know what to do for such a condition. See here! Read carefully and you will find out what to do. If you have similar feelings, take as directed Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills, which are an infallible remedy for biliousness and all other forms of liver trouble. Their effects are quickly seen in a complete change of spirits, regular daily movements of the bowels, refreshing sleep and a rapid return of healthy appetite and digestion. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills are purely vegetable. Nature's true laxative. They always cure sick headache, constipation and biliousness in one night. 25 cents at all dealers.

THE ENVOYS HAVE THE POWER

To Negotiate and Conclude a Treaty of Peace.

ROOSEVELT'S 2ND TRIUMPH

Japanese Insistence and President's Tact Win Consent of Russia to Go In For the Real Thing—An Armistice Is Now In Progress of Negotiation at Washington.

Oyster Bay, July 3.—President Roosevelt yesterday authorized the following announcement to be made relative to the pending peace negotiations between Russia and Japan:

"The president announces that the Russian and Japanese Governments have notified him that they have appointed the plenipotentiaries to meet in Washington as soon after the first of August as possible.

"The two Russian plenipotentiaries are Ambassadors Muravieff, formerly Minister of Justice, and now Ambassador at Rome, and Ambassador Rosen. The Japanese plenipotentiaries are Baron Komura, now Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Minister Takahira.

"It is possible that each side may send one or more additional representatives. The plenipotentiaries of both Russia and Japan will be entrusted with full power to negotiate and conclude a treaty of peace, subject, of course, to ratification by their respective home Governments."

All Satisfied.

A day or two ago the Russian and Japanese Governments formally communicated to President Roosevelt the names of the plenipotentiaries they respectively had selected. Acting as an intermediary, the President communicated the names of the Japanese envoys to the St. Petersburg Government and those of the Russian representatives to the Government at Tokio. Having received from both Governments assurances that the selections were satisfactory, the President, according to his agreement with the belligerents, authorized the public announcement of the envoys.

Some delay was occasioned in the selection of the plenipotentiaries by the insistence of Japan that the envoys of both Governments be clothed with full power to conclude peace and negotiate a permanent treaty. The Japanese Government indicated pointedly that the Emperor would not permit his envoys to enter upon a tentative conference in which Japan was to define its terms and then let Russia decide whether the conference should proceed with their deliberations.

Tokio Insisted.

The Tokio Government insisted that the plenipotentiaries should have conferred on them treaty making powers, and that the negotiations should be entered upon in a spirit of perfect sincerity. Such, too, was the position taken by President Roosevelt. He maintained that only by clothing the envoys with ample authority to act for their respective Government could a lasting peace be achieved. He strongly urged the St. Petersburg Government to accede to what was regarded as a reasonable proposition of Japan. That he was successful in his presentation of the matter to the Russian Emperior is indicated clearly in the statement which he issued yesterday. The President's announcement practically concludes the preliminary negotiations for peace. Minor details remain yet to be arranged, but the conference now seems assured.

Early in August.

While no absolute date for the meeting of the envoys has been fixed, it has been determined that the first session will be held in Washington about the first of August. Baron Rosen already is en route to the United States, his coming being to succeed Count Cassini as the Russian Ambassador to this country. It is probable that Ambassador Muravieff will start soon for the United States, accompanied by a considerable staff of secretaries, clerks and interpreters. The Japanese contingent of officials and attaches, headed by Baron Komura, expects to leave Japan in time to reach Washington by the first of August.

For An Armistice.

St. Petersburg, July 3.—Negotiations for an armistice between the armies of Russia and Japan, it can be definitely stated, are now in progress.

$1000 REWARD

Is offered as a guarantee that neither Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription NOR Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery

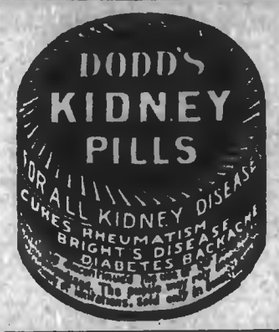
contains alcohol, opium, or any harmful drug. Any one publishing false statements concerning their ingredients will be prosecuted. Doctor Pierce's Family Remedies are compounds of medicinal principles, scientifically extracted from native roots that cure the diseases for which they are recommended. They are medicines which have enjoyed the public confidence for over a third of a century. They are medicines not beverages, made to satisfy a craving for "booze."

"Golden Medical Discovery" regulates and invigorates stomach, liver and bowels, and cures dyspepsia, purifies the blood and tones up the system generally.

"Favorite Prescription" cures female weakness, irregularities, exhausting drains, painful periods and kindred ailments peculiar to women. Accept no substitute for these medicines, each of which has a record of marvelous cures. Substitution means selfishness on the part of the dealer who is looking for the greater profit on an inferior article.

"Our daughter who was attending college became very nervous and we were advised to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. M. O. Fox, of 87 E. Leonard St., Grand Rapids, Mich. "We did so and then you advised us to get the 'Golden Medical Discovery' also. She took four bottles of the 'Prescription' and three of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and you never say such a change in a person. She said she did not feel like the same person. She was about seventeen years old at the time. I will gladly recommend Dr. Pierce's medicines to every one. I advise parents who have young daughters who suffer from nervous troubles to try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription at once. I am sure it will help them."

$50,000 GIVEN AWAY, in copies of The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book that sold to the extent of 680,000 copies a few years ago, at $1.50 per copy. Last year we gave away 60,000 worth of these invaluable books. This year we shall give away 50,000 worth of them. Will you share in this benefit? If so, send only 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only for book in stiff paper covers, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.



presumably at Washington; but they have not reached a stage where any further announcement can be made. The decision seems to rest with Japan, which country is weighing the relinquishment of the prospect of bettering her present advantageous position against the enormous cost in lives and money of another great battle.

The chances for a decisive and final Japanese victory are no better now than before Liaoyang and Mukden and it is pointed out here that it is idle to talk of Vladivostock falling like a ripe apple into Japan's hands before the peace conference meets.

Vankleek Hill, July 1.—There were 1849 boxes of cheese boarded and sold here today; board opened with a good attendance and Willer & Riley opened bid at 9 5-16c, with no sales. He then raised it to 9⅜; with the same result. Hodgson Bros. bid 9 9-16c and at this figure all the cheese were sold on the board. Hodgson Bros. got 517 boxes, Lovell & Christmas got 457, Willer and Riley got 280 and A. A. Ayer & Co. got 285. There were five buyers present.

Farmer's Fall to Death.

Kincardine, July 3.—Yesterday, Jas. Harrison, a leading farmer and president of the Huron cheese factory, fell between the joists of his barn to the cement floor of the basement. From the position in which he was found it is thought death must have been instantaneous. Mr. Harrison was from the County of Hastings and was 76 years of age, of which 33 had been passed here. Besides a widow, he leaves three sons and four daughters.

TONE IS BELLIGERENT.

Swedish Government Excludes Foreign Warships From Four Ports.

Stockholm, July 3.—The Government has issued a proclamation, to become effective immediately, declaring Stockholm, Karlskrona, Gothenburg and Farosund to be war ports, and excluding all foreign warships from these ports.

The official denial of the mobilization of troops by the provisional Government of Norway Friday was quite natural, as both Sweden and Norway are keeping their preparations secret as not to unnecessarily excite the two peoples. The general opinion here is that Sweden will mobolize in the near future, so as to emphasize her condition.

Motions were introduced in both chambers of the Riksdag Saturday placing $25,000,000 at the disposal of the Government to enable it to take the measures which it may deem necessary in the present crisis.

Copenhagen, Denmark, July 3.—A Swedish squadron of sixteen warships, now undergoing manoeuvres, passed here Saturday morning steering northward.

HUDSON BAY SUPPLIES.

"Neptune" Chartered by Government to Make the Trip.

Ottawa, July 3.—It is understood that the Government has definitely closed with Job Bros., of St. John's, Nfld., for the charter of the sealing steamer Neptune to make the trip to Hudson Bay with coal and other supplies for the steamer Arctic, which wintered in the bay.

A number of "knockdown" houses are now being turned out at the Davidson & Thackeray mill here and will be shipped to Halifax in a few days to be transported to Hudson Bay for use as mounted police posts.

The intention of the Government is that the Neptune shall sail from Halifax for Hudson Bay about the end of the present month. After transferring her cargo of supplies, the Neptune will return to Halifax, while the Arctic will remain on duty in Hudson Bay waters as a patrol boat for the Northwest Mounted Police under Major Moodie.

Says Farmers Must Specialize.

Tillsonburg, July 3.—Hon. Nelson Monteith and R. R. Gamey, M. P. P., were the stellar attractions at the big picnic held at Hazel's Grove, near Kinglake, Saturday, under the auspices of the South Norfolk Conservative Association. The Minister of Agriculture pointed out that the agricultural resources of the country have to be developed. Under cultivation in Ontario there are 28 millions of acres. Living on the farms are 360,000 farmers, producing 250,000 millions of dollars, showing they are engaged in no mean business. It was to be expected that the west would outstrip Ontario eventually; but that day would be far distant if the farmers will only specialize.

Ship Ashore At Litchfield Ledges.

Halifax, July 3.—The steamer Salerno, Cadiz for Halifax with salt, ran ashore on Litchfield Ledges early Saturady morning during a dense fog. Large rocks have pierced the bottom, and it is said the steamer is a total loss.

Cured Kidney Disease.

Mrs. Fred Hills, Walton Street, Port Hope, Ont., states:—"I was troubled for some time with kidney disease ,and though I tried a great many different medicines, never succeeded in obtaining relief until I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By the regular use of this preparation for a time I was completely cured of kidney disease.

Cut in Two By An Engine.

Windsor, July 3.—James Dyer, a car cleaner in the Grand Trunk Railway yards, met a shocking death while working near the roundhouse. He stepped from behind a box car in front of a yard engine. He was knocked down and the wheels passed over the upper part of the body, almost cutting it in two. Deceased was 30 years old, and had seen 25 years' service.

Brakesman is Killed.

Petrolea, July 3.—A young man, Geo. Lott of London, who was a brakesman on the special train which conveyed the 27th Regiment here Saturday got caught between the bumpers and dropped under the car. One arm and one leg was cut off. He died a short time afterwards.

Boy Drowns at Picnic.

Montreal, July 3.—The pleasure of The Star newspaper picnic Saturday was marred by the drowning of a ten-year-old boy, John Alfred Morehouse, who fell from the upper deck of the Three Rivers just after leaving Sorel on the home trip and was lost. He was the son of John Morehouse of The Star composing room.

LINDSAY EDITOR COMMITS SUICIDE

Deliberately Shoots Himself With Rifle.

Said to Have Been Mentally Unbalanced for Some Time.

Yesterday Mr. A. W. Mallett a city editor, - Lindsay Watchman-Warder, committed suicide in a most deliberate manner. He went into the press room of his paper, took a loaded rifle, and, removing his right boot and sock used the toes of his naked foot to press the trigger. The bullet pierced his heart and death must have been instantaneous.

The deceased was formerly a minister of the Gospel and has been in his late position some years. It is said that for some time past the unfortunate man had shown indications of mental derangement.

His Services in Demand.

It is always a pleasing duty to print whatever reflects credit upon any of our citizens. The following indicates the high estimate put upon the skill and ability of our townsman, Mr. T. Duncan McGregor, of the firm of McGregor & Reid, professional plumbers, etc., 394 George street:—

Toronto, June 12th, 1905.

Mr. Duncan McGregor,
Peterborough, Ont.

Dear Sir,—We have had an inquiry from the Toronto-Niagara Power Company for a first-class man to take charge of their conduit work for them.

They have at present in the neighbourhood of 150,000 feet of conduit to put in one of their buildings, and we would ask you if you can arrange to leave your business in Peterborough to take charge of this work, stating the salary which you would ask, so that we can give your name to the Chief Engineer of the above Company that he may communicate with you.

An early reply will oblige.

Yours truly,

JNO. WATTS.

THE BUREAU OF LABOR.

Interesting Details in the Fifth Annual Report of the Department.

The fifth annual report of the Labor Bureau shows that during 1904 there were 54 trade disputes resulting in strikes in Ontario, involving 171 establishments and 6,945 persons. An aggregate of 875 days was covered by the strikes, the average duration of each dispute being 16.41 days, or 10.18 days per person, compared with 82 disputes, involving 429 establishments, 10,564 persons, aggregating 994 days, an average of 12.13 days to each dispute, and 90.63 days per person in 1903.

The establishments reporting to the bureau were 174, employing 14,503 persons. The gross value of their aggregate product was $25,744,998; the amount paid in wages $4,409,939, an annual average earning of $282.86 per person. The percentage labor cost of production was 17.15, as against 21.69 in 1901, and 25 in 1903.

The report includes the replies of clerks of cities, towns and villages to a circular inquiry as to the opportunity existing in their municipalities. These replies are very valuable, and one cannot help being struck by the variety of business opportunities throughout the Province. The plan of gathering such information has been warmly commended by the editor of Commercial Intelligence, London, in a letter written to the bureau. A number of statistics of interest to all workers and employes, legal decisions affecting the relations between employer and employes, a synopsis of the labor laws of Ontario, the factory act, with the latest revisions thereto, and much other useful and valuable information is comprised in the report.

He Tried to Follow Directions.

Dr. William Osler, formerly of Johns Hopkins, now regius professor of medicine at Oxford, was talking, during his recent Canadian tour, about the importance of precision in the writing of prescriptions.

"Wherever a sentence may have two meanings," said Dr. Osler, "rest assured that the wrong meaning will be taken. Hence, it is important in prescription writing and in directions to patients that the greatest clarity and precision be obtained.

"A young foreigner one day visited a physician and described a common malady that had befallen him.

"'The thing for you to do,' the physician said, 'is to drink hot water an hour before breakfast every morning.'

"'Write it down, doctor, so I won't forget it,' said the patient.

"Accordingly the physician wrote the directions down — namely, that the young man was to drink hot water an hour before breakfast every morning.

"The patient took his leave, and in a week he returned.

"'Well, how are you feeling?' the physician asked.

"'Worse, doctor, worse, if anything,' was the reply.

"'Ahem. Did you follow my advice and drink hot water an hour before breakfast?'

"'I did my best, sir,' said the young man, "but I couldn't keep it up more than ten minutes at a stretch.'"

THE BLACK SEA PIRATES' FINISH

To Be Sunk by Russian Torpedo Boat Destroyer Smeetilvy—She Has Volunteer Crew—Loss of Discipline Over the Black Sea Fleet Absolute---Kniaz. Potemkine Leaves Kustenji After Torpedo Boat Was Fired Upon by Roumanian Cruiser---British Ship Searched for Refugees.

St. Peterburg, July 4.—According to a despatch received by an official agency, the torpedo boat destroyer, Smeetivy, with a volunteer crew, has sailed from Odessa with the intention of sinking the Kniaz Potemkine.

With Kustenji and other unprotected ports of Roumania, Bulgaria and Turkey at the mercy of the battleships' guns, and with the inability of Vice-Admiral Kruger's squadron to interfere with her career tacitly admitted by retiring them from commission, this desperate expedient was seized upon to prevent international complications, and to rid the Black Sea of mutineers.

This problem for a single destroyer, which is difficult and dangerous at best, as she will have to encounter both the Kniaz Potemkine and her attendant torpedo boat, is now complicated by the departure of the battleship from Kustenji, and ignorance as to where she will next turn up; but a despatch from Kustenji throws a gleam of hope on the dark situation by intimating that a considerable number of her crew are anxious to desert their leaders and to escape the consequences of their mutinous actions.

The Admiralty, however, it should be stated, does not admit that the Smeetivy has gone on such an errand, though the officials say frankly that the Kniaz Potemkine must in law be regarded as a pirate.

As much as Russia, as a matter of principle, would like to see the provisions of the treaty of Paris, closing the Dardanelles, abrogated, the Foreign Office would oppose the passage of foreign warships as a temporary, expedient, declaring the occasion did not warrant such a measure.

FIRED ON TORPEDO BOAT.

Accompanying Kniaz Potemkine But Didn't Strike Her.

Bucharest, Roumania, July 4.—The Russian torpedo boat No. 267, accompanying the Kniaz Potemkine, attempted to enter the port of Kustenji yesterday. The Roumanian cruiser Elizabetha fired on the torpedo, but failed to hit her. The torpedo boat then retired. The Kniaz Potemkine left Kustenji yesterday afternoon. It is state she is returning to Odessa.

These incidents followed the refusal of the crew of the Kniaz Potemkine to accept the Government's offer, made through the captain of the port, who positively announced that the mutineers would not be allowed to receive provisions unless they came ashore unarmed and delivered up the battleship and torpedo boat to the captain of the port. If these conditions were fulfilled the mutineers would be given their liberty to go where they pleased. The rebellious steamers conferred together but refuse the Government's demand, to refuse the Government's demand, and renewed their demand for provisions.

This was again positively refused by the captain of the port, whereupon the Russian torpedo boat attempted to enter the port, but on being fired on by the Elizabetha and evidently awed by the firm stand taken by the authorities, she decided to retire.

BRITISH SHIP SEARCHED.

Russian Torpedo Boat Destroyer Takes the Cranley in Charge.

Odessa, July 4.—Estimates of the number killed during the fires and rioting of last week run as high as 6,000. A far greater number were shot down, but many of the bodies were incinerated.

The military commandant to-day appointed Gen. Karakosoff, commander of the Lubna Dragoons, to the post of Governor-General of Odessa. Karakoseff later summoned the editors of the Odessa newspapers and blamed them for their conduct during the troubles. The Governor-General ordered the editors not to make the slightest reference to the present outbreak nor to the strike.

The surrender of the Georgi Pobiedonosetz was formally carried out yesterday morning. The warship's officers returned from Nikolaieff, went on board and picked out the ringleaders of the mutiny and several of their followers, all of whom were sent ashore. A torpedo boat destroyer and a gunboat arrived here during the night, bringing Rear-Admiral Chouikin, commander of the Black Sea fleet. The city is quiet. Many strikers have returned to work.

British Ship is Searched.

The torpedo boat destroyer, upon her arrival here, fired a blank shot across the bow of the British steamer Cranley, lying off Fontana, for the purpose of taking off British subjects if necessary. The destroyer signalled the Cranley to accompany her inside the harbor. The Cranley complied, the destroyer in the meanwhile keeping her guns trained on the steamer. Later, Russian officials took possession of the Cranley and searched her for revolutionary refugees. The British Consul-General protested to the Governor, saying there was no reason to suppose that any refugees were on board the Cranley. It is presumed she will be released shortly.

British Ship Freed.

The British Consul-General last evening released the five vessels which had been held in readiness to remove the British subjects. The Consul-General considers that all danger has passed. The Cranley incident is ended. The officials, in the presence of revolutionists, and the Russian officials apologized to the Consul-General.

Peasant disturbances in the neighborhood of Odessa are giving rise to much apprehension. The peasants are forcibly occupying lands and seizing live stock. Troops have been sent to suppress the disorders.

No Reason to Interfere.

London, July 4.—In the House of Commons yesterday afternoon, Earl Percy, the Foreign Under-Secretary, replying to a suggestion that friendly representations should be made to Russia, proposing a temporary suspension of the treaty excluding foreign warships from the Black Sea, so that British vessels might safeguard the lives and property of British subjects at Odessa, said the present circumstances at Odessa did not afford sufficient grounds for such a departure from the treaty rules governing the Black Sea.

More Mutiny at Cronstadt.

Cronstadt, July 4.—The crew of the Russian cruiser Minine refused to put to sea yesterday with the other vessels of the active squadron, alleging that the age and bad conditions of the Minine prevented her participation in gun practice and manoeuvring. Ringleaders of this mutiny were arrested, and the Minine was towed close to a fort, where she is now anchored.

St. Petersburg, July 4.—Late last evening a rumor was current here that the port of Constadt had been closed to foreign shipping, and that all commercial vessels there had been ordered to St Petersburg.

Strike in Ship Yards.

St. Petersburg, July 4.—The strike of the Nevsky ship yards, which began Sunday, became general yesterday. There is marked excitement in labor circles. Leaflets are being scattered broadcast detailing the recents events at Lods and Odessa.

During the afternoon there were several collisions between the police and strikers on the Schlusselburg causeway, and the Cossacks, who were summoned, charged and dispersed the workmen with their whips.

SERVICE AT ST. PAUL'S.

London Will Honor Ambassador Hay As It Did McKinley.

London, July 4.—A memorial service for the late Secretary Hay will be held in St. Paul's cathedral Wednesday afternoon, similar to that held in September, 1901, in memory of President McKinley.

Instead of cancelling the events which had been arranged for the celebration of the 4th of July in London, it has been decided to postpone them until July 8 out of respect for the late Secretary of State, John Hay.

At Cleveland.

Cleveland, July 4.—The casket containing the body of Secretary John Hay arrived here yesterday and was placed in the auditorium of the Chamber of Commerce, where it will remain under military guard until 6.30 o'clock Wednesday, when it will be taken to the chapel in Lake View cemetery for the funeral services.

COMMISSIONER TO MONTEVIDEO.

To Inquire in the Facts of the Agnes Donahue Seizure.

Ottawa, July 4.—The Canadian Government is determined to get at the facts in connection with the seizure and confiscation of the Halifax schooner Agnes Donahue and the imprisonment of her captain and mate. Up to the present time the British Consul at Montevideo has had charge of the case, but he can only report to the Foreign Office, whence information comes through tedious diplomatic channels to Ottawa. Now, however, Mr. S. H. Pelton, K.C., of Yarmouth, N.S., has been directed to proceed to Montevideo and make a searching investigation into all the circumstances. He will get into touch with the British Consul on arrival and report the facts, as he ascertains them, at the earliest possible date to the Canadian authorities.

GODERICH ELEVATOR BURNS.

Held Over 250,000 Bushels of Wheat—Loss Will Be Great.

Goderich, July 4.—The Goderich Elevator and Transit Co.'s elevator was totally destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, together with about 250,000 bushels of wheat in storage.

The elevator was valued at $125,000 and insured for $85,000. There was also $5,000 insurance on the power house adjoining, which was saved, slightly damaged.

It was impossible to ascertain last night the amount of the insurance on the wheat, each owner having placed his own insurance, and most of it is owned by outside parties.

The wind happened to be blowing across the harbor, or the Goderich Milling Co.'s elevator would also likely have been destroyed.

Floods Carried Away Dam.

Westport, July 4.—The Westport woollen mill and electric light dam were broken and carried away Sunday night, as well as the sand lake dam buckie factory dam and W. C. Fredenburgh's dam and the bridges at Mountain street and Main street in this village. Damages are estimated at $10,000.

SWALLOWED A DOSE OF POISON

Lulu Wilkinson Deliberately Commits Suicide—Just Out of the Mercer—Took Carbolic Acid Before Crowd on Toronto Street—Died in a Few Minutes—Other Deaths —A Chapter of Accidents in the Queen City for Early Days of July,

Toronto, July 4.—Dead by her own hand, Lulu Wilkinson lies in the morgue of the Emergency Hospital.

Shortly before 9 o'clock the woman went into the Hargreaves Drug Store on West Queen street, near University avenue, and asked the clerk for a quantity of carbolic acid. She was handed the bottle containing the poison and was asked to sign the record book. As she did so, her hand trembled. She signed her name "Lulu Wilkinson, 65 Ulster street."

Walking quickly out of the door, she crossed to the entrance to the old Waverly Club, near Simcoe street. Standing there in the shadow, she raised the bottle to her lips and swallowed the poison. In doing so, the acid spilled over her mouth and lower part of her face.

She walked to the pavement, and, half walking, half running, turned the corner of Simcoe street, and sank to her knees, giving vent to a wild scream of agony. Pedestrians stopped and rushed to her aid. She was taken to the hospital, where she died in a few moments.

A policeman was sent to the address given by the woman when she secured the poison, and found that her uncle, Robert Armstrong, resided there. He said that the woman had been committed to the Mercer some time ago, and had finished serving her sentence only two days ago. She had not visited him since her release, and he was at a loss to give any reason for her act other than she was tired of the wayward life she had led.

Drowned in the Don.

Toronto, July 4.—After seeing his 7-year-old chum, Harry Hale of 90 St. David street, drowned in the Don in an effort to untie an old punt yesterday afternoon, John Scott, a 10-year-old lad, took to his heels and ran home. Neither Scott's parents nor the mother of the drowned lad knew anything of the fatality until four hours later, when the latter's anxiety over his absence prompted her to make a search. It was then that young Scott told of the drowning.

Run Down by Street Car.

Toronto, July 4.—Run down by a Queen and Dundas car on Queen street last night, Rebecca Brenner, aged 38, of 124 Elisabeth street, had her arm and leg amputated at the Emergency Hospital. Though she is weak from the loss of blood, the woman has a chance for recovery.

Jolted From Wagon, Shock Kills.

Toronto, July 4.—Jolted off the dry dairy wagon, James Macdonnel, aged 76, of 512 Preston street, fell upon his head upon the pavement and died from the shock last night.

Girl Burned to Death.

Bembroke, July 4.—An eight-year-old daughter of Alex. Barnet was burned to death in a fire that broke out at 1 o'clock Sunday morning. Mrs. Barnet was going down stairs with a lamp in her hand when she tripped and fell, the lamp exploding.

THREE BOYS ON A RAFT.

Drifted Out Into Lake 10 Miles at Collingwood.

Collingwood, July 4.—A drowning accident was narrowly averted yesterday by the presence of mind of an 11-year-old boy and his two brothers, aged 4 and 6.

The three boys, sons of Policeman Willison, went down to the town park on the lake shore about 10 o'clock, and the two older boys went in for a swim, and taking their little brother with them on a raft.

There was a severe strong wind blowing off shore and before the little fellows were aware of it they were drifting out into the lake.

Some one discovered their clothing, and a searching party was organized. The little fellows were given up for lost, but as a forlorn hope a launch was secured and steamed out into the bay. When darkness was coming on they caught sight of a tiny speck and made for it.

The three boys were still clinging to the raft, which was becoming heavier as they were out.

Supervision Committee.

Your Committee beg to report that according to resolution they advertised for tenders for chemical supplies, for the Collegiate Institute, also for tenders for Text Books and supplies for the Public Schools, for School year, 1905-06.

For the former we would recommend that Ormond & Walsh be given the contract; their tender being the lowest.

In regard to the latter we beg to recommend that no contract be awarded. The prices this year of both parties who tendered are greatly in excess of those of last year, and much higher than your Board would be justified in paying, but that the matter be referred back to the Supervision Committee with power to act.

WM. PRINGLE,
Chairman.

PART III.

Organization.—

1. Ratio of pupils to teachers—unusually large, nearly 36 to 1.
2. Division of duties among teachers.—Satisfactory.
3. Provision for teaching the courses.—As far as the inadequate accommodation allow judicious provision is made for all the departments that are taken up.

PART IV.

Miscellaneous.

1. Staff: All the members are legally qualified.
2. Discipline: Excellent.
3. Attendance: All the pupils have been regularly admitted.
4. Text books: In accord with the regulations.
5. Registers: Daily, are properly kept; general, is properly kept.
6. English literature: 7, Supplementary reading: 8, Sight translation in Classics, French and German: Excellent provision in all.

PART V.

English and history, I; Mathematics, I; Science, I; French and German, I; Commercial, I; Drawing, I; Reading, I-II*; Drill, calisthenics and gymnastics, I.

*In this grading II is not a reflection on the character of the teaching, which is indeed good.

PART VI.

Reading, of last admitted pupils: 24 examined, 6 are good; 8 fair, 6 poor, and 4 bad.

Bookkeeping sets, drawing, note books in science, drill, callsthenics and gymnastics, are thoroughly satisfactory.

PART VII.

Special Report.

The Institute will be entitled to rank as "approved." With the exception of a single (and judicious) change in the personnel of the staff and considerable important additions to the equipment, notably the installation of a high grade electric lantern, which is proving of great educative value in various classes, the Institute is in a similarly prosperous condition to that in which I found it last year.

The new building is of course a thing of the future, but its completion according to the exhellent revised plans, will, I am sure, prove a source of satisfaction and advantage to all concerned.

Date of inspection, June 1-2, 1905.

Resolutions.

It was moved by Mr. W. H. Hill, seconded by Mr. Crane, that a vote of thanks be tendered to Mr. R. R. Hall, M.P., for his kindness in presenting for the use of the schools a handsome wall map of the Dominion of Canada, mounted on linen.—Carried.

Discussion.

Mr. Stevenson remarked that fault had been found with regard to the fees charged for public school text books.

Mr. Pringle, chairman of the Supervision Committee felt that the system was working satisfactorily to everybody. He spoke of the rates that were being charged and said that by the new system the pupil was saved considerable expense.

Mr. Hill expressed the opinion that the new system was a great innovation. The first year was undoubtedly the most difficult and he believed that in the future not much trouble would be experienced. Speaking of the results of the new system he stated that the work was found to be neater than ever before and that the children had saved at least $300. It was difficult to satisfy 1,600 pupils and the small number of complaints received was a proof that the system was giving satisfaction.

Mr. Hill moved that the appointment of teachers be left over until Monday, July 10th, and that the Board adjourn to meet at 8.30 o'clock on that evening.

Mr. Morrison felt that the meeting should not adjourn without some discussion with regard to the action to be taken by the Board in view of the defeat of the Collegiate Institute bylaw.

Mr. Hill thought it would be better to defer discussion upon the matter for a week in order to allow a more lengthy consideration of the situation.

Mr. Kennedy pointed to the immediate need of action. He thought that a large number of the ratepayers while they were opposed to the erection of a new Collegiate Institute, desired increased accommodation in the public school.

The Board then adjourned until Monday, July 10th, on Mr. Hill's motion.

2.—That the Treasurer be authorized to receive payment from the Otonabee Power Co. for the quarter ending September 1904, and since at the rate of $400 a year for the privilege of having their poles on the streets in accordance with the agreement with that company recently entered into.

3.—That a grant of $75 be made to the Salvation Army Band on the same conditions as last year.

4.—That no action be taken on the application of the National Sanitarium Association for a grant.

The report of the Property Committee was presented by Ald. Batten as follows:—

1.—We asked for tenders for sixty tons of coal for the town buildings and recommend that twenty-five tons be purchased from J. E. A. Fitzgerald, twenty-five tons from the Peterborough Fuel and Cartage Company and ten tons from R. J. Wolstenholme, at $7.00 per ton, the coal to be of first-class quality, to be weighed on the market scales and delivered at the town buildings and the market clerk's weigh tickets to be delivered with the coal.

2.—That the Chairman be instructed to enquire into the cost of laying a hardwood floor in the Committee room and clerk's office with power to have the floor laid.

3.—We considered the by-law to regulate the weighing of coal and recommend that it be passed.

The report was adopted.

Ald. Hall submitted the report of the Supervision Committee which was adopted.

1.—That Robert Wilson be engaged as a constable for three months at $1.75 per day and that he be employed at Jackson Park during the season, to be on duty there from one o'clock p. m. to 11 o'clock p. m. each day, and that if he is not needed at the Park before the expiration of the three months he act as a police constable during the remainder of his engagement under the direction of the Chief of Police, and that the Treasurer be authorized to pay him at the rate named for the three months to date from June 30th, 1905.

2.—That half a dozen seats be purchased for Central Park and half a dozen for Victoria Park.

Strong Partnership

ROUTINE BUSINESS AT THE COUNCIL

First Meeting of the Council of the City of Peterborough..

Number of Communications Were Dealt With—Policemen to Get Holidays.

Those present at the first meeting of the City Council last night were Mayor Best, and Ald. Johnston, Begley, Hicks, Mason, Crowe, Leary, Hall, Batten, Scott, Adams, McIntyre.

The minutes were taken as read.

Communications.

Communications were received, read and dealt with as indicated:

From property owners, asking for sidewalks on the south side of Simcoe street from Rubidge to Reid street; east side of Reid from Hunter to Scott street; east side of Park street from Hunter to Brock street; east side of Stewart street from London to McDonel, and on Reid street from Hall to Murray street. — Board of Works.

The police wrote, asking that the usual holidays be given to be members of the staff, which, on motion of Ald. Hall, will be given.

The Peterborough Light and Power Company reported that they had completed the wiring of lights in Jackson Park, installing 77 lights and, asked that the $100 agreed upon be paid, which Ald. Leary moved be done.

Ratepayers affected wrote to the council, objecting that a wall had been erected on the Aylmer street bridge, shutting off the view, and asked that it be removed.—Board of works.

The City Clerk reported the standing of the vote on the Collegiate Institute bylaw, a majority of 143 voting against the bylaw.—Received.

James Fairley wrote, asking that he fine out the east side of William street, at the intersection of Bolivar street defined.—Received.

The Hon. Secretary-Treasurer of the U.C.M., wrote to the clerk for the names of the delegates to the convention to be held in Winnipeg on July 25th, 26th and 27th. Ald. Hicks moved, seconded by Ald. Johnston, that the Mayor be the delegate to the convention, which was carried.

Angus McMurchy, solicitor for the C.P.R., wrote to the City solicitor in reference to the Simcoe street siding, which he said, he understood to be on the Government allowance for road, and it would therefore be unnecessary for apply to the Board for permission to lay it.—Referred to the Solicitor.

Jos. Phillips wrote to the council, calling attention to a drain in the Fifth Ward, which he claims is unsanitary.—Board of Works.

A number of ratepayers wrote asking that Victoria avenue from Reid street west, be graded and watered. The letter characterizes the condition of the thoroughfare as disgraceful.—Board of Works.

Mr. R. M. Hoy addressed a letter to the council, asking that the small sign which had been in front of his door on Hunter street, be allowed to remain.—Received.

A bylaw adopting the corporation seal, was passed, as was also that in reference to weighing coal. A bylaw authorizing the construction of granolithic sidewalks on streets of the city.

Ald. Crowe moved the first reading of a bylaw to regulate the moving of buildings on the streets, and it was referred to by the Committee of the Whole.

A bylaw, authorizing the payment of a grant of $75 to the S. A. Band, was passed. The bylaw provides that the band shall play in such parts of the town as the chairman of the Committee may direct, and also as often as he may request them to do so.

The question of better fire protection was introduced by Ald. Hicks, who moved that a meeting of the Committee of the Whole be called for Wednesday night to discuss the question.

TIME SAVED and Success Guarnteed When Women Use DIAMOND DYES.

Each year thousands of letters come in from all parts of this vast Dominion telling of victories and successes with Diamond Dyes in the home.

The marvellous and immense sales of Diamond Dyes in Canada have induced venturers and speculators (who know nothing about the chemistry of colours) to go into the putting up of package dyes. Such dyes are adulterated and crude: the colours are muddy and blotchy, bringing ruin to the materials you try to dye.

Diamond Dyes, the choice of wise women, are the kind used when bright, full, fast and brilliant colours are wanted. No disappointment possible when you use Diamond Dyes.

Diamond Dyes are sold by all leading druggists and dealers. Refuse to accept substitutes when you ask for Diamond Dyes.

TOOK A FATAL POISONOUS DOSE

Mr. Andrew McGee Took Paris Green in Mistake for Medicine.

Township Councillor of Ashpodel Dead—A Highly Respected Gentleman.

Special to the Examiner.

Norwood, July 4th. — On Sunday morning a sudden death occurred at lot 11, con. 11, Asphodel, when Mr. Andrew McGee, aged 41, a bachelor, and one of the most highly respected residents of the township, died from poisoning, the result of, taking a dose of Paris green in mistake for ginger.

It appears that Mr. McGee had not been feeling well for some days, and came to Norwood on Saturday. He purchased some ginger in the drug store, which he intended to take when he got home. He reached his home at 11 o'clock, and took the parcels from the buggy, and among them was a package of Paris green. He intended to take a dose of the ginger but in some way, as yet unexplained, he made a mistake and took the poison instead. Afterwards he was taken ill and Dr. Pettigrew was sent for. He arrived there about six o'clock on Sunday morning and did everything in his power to relieve the sufferer, but without result, and he died three hours later.

The deceased was unmarried and lived with his mother on the farm. He was a member of the township council of Asphodel, and secretary of the Elgin Methodist Sunday school. The funeral took place on Tuesday.

Band at Jackson Park to-morrow, Wednesday night. All cars run to the Park. Special round trip car will not run after six o'clock.

RETIRES AFTER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY

Mr. Joe. Mitchell Decides to Retire From Business.

An immportant business change has just taken place in Peterborough. Mr. Joe Mitchell, who has conducted a barber shop on Hunter street, is retiring, and two of his sons, Arthur and Ernie, who have been associated with him in business for some time, will take charge. Mr. Mitchell is a tonsorial artist of no mean ability, and has conducted the present popular business for 25 years. He is now about to take a two months vacation, and will leave on Thursday for a tour of England. On his return he will not again enter into business, but will enjoy the store of this world's goods. Two of Mr. Mitchell's sons, Joe and William, were down from Toronto on the holiday to see him before he left on his trip.

The many friends of Mr. Mitchell will wish the new generation every success in their new enterprise.

HEAVY SENTENCES FOR STEALING BERRIES

Two Boys Given One Month Each with Hard Labour.

At this morning's police court two boys appeared charged with stealing strawberries from S. Newhall's garden, near the south end of the street car line. Newhall claimed that one of the boys kicked him on the shin, and the other threw a stone and hit him on the same spot. Both lads pleaded guilty to the charge of stealing but denied having kicked or thrown stones at Newhall. Mr. Holmes, who saw the proceedings, came over to help his neighbour, but the older boy ran away and he (Holmes) gave chase. Both boys complained that Newhall had assaulted them; one receiving a blow on the face when he attempted to get away, and the other was thrown down and abused generally.

Magistrate Dumble said he would make an example of the two so as to intimidate others from stealing from gardens and orchards, and he would impose a sentence of a month in jail with hard labour for each offence, the terms to run concurrently.

SOLDIER LADDIES AT BARRIEFIELD

A Most Successful Camp of 3rd Dragoons.

Local Man on the Officers' Staff—How the Men Spent Dominion Day.

Special Staff Correspondent

Camp Barrisfield, July 2nd. — The camp of 1905 at Barriefield will go on record as one of the most successful in the history of the 3rd Dragoons. So far the weather has been all that could be desired and the men have made most excellent progress at the preliminary training. The 3rd Dragoons as usual, along with the 4th Hussars form the Cavalry brigade. The Brigadier this year is Lieut.-Col. Clyde, formerly in command of the 4th Hussars The Brigade Major is Capt. James Emsley, of the R. G. D., Toronto. Both of these gentlemen are very excellent officers. The 3rd Dragoons is almost up to full strength, the only squadron that is at all weak in strength being "B" Squadron from Millbrook. For the benefit of those who are not familiar with the make up of the 3rd Dragoons, it might be stated that the 3rd Canadian Prince of Wales Canadian Dragoons is supposed to have its headquarters at Peterborough. The Commanding Officer is Lieut.-Col. W. W. Brown, of Colborne, with Major George H. Syer, of Millbrook, second in command. The regiment is made up of four squadrons as follows:—

"A" Squadron, Colborne, in Command of Major McLaughlin, Capt. Dudley, Lieutenants Treblecock and Campbell.

"B" Squadron, Millbrook, in command of Major W. T. Hall, Capt. S. T. Medd and Lieutenants P. A. Davis, E. S. Clarry and A. W. Medd.

"C" Squadron, Peterborough, in Command of Major George Hall, Capt. Thos. Johnston and Lieut. Cleghorne.

"D" Squadron, Wellington, Prince Edward County, in command of Capt. Fred. Macdonald (acting Major) Capt. W. McCollough, Lieutenants Burningham, Zufelt and Terrill.

In addition there are the following officers on the staff:—Major Young, Peterborough; Medical Officer, Capt. D. R. Poole, Peterborough; Veterinary Officer, Capt. J. W. Garvin, Peterborough; Quartermaster, Capt. Willoughby, Colborne; Paymaster, Capt Gerald Haywood, Adjutant.

The first week in camp has to a large extent been taken up in elementary work and the first real regimental movement was practiced Saturday in the presence of Col. Lessard, the Inspector of Cavalry. The regiment as a matter of fact, has made excellent progress in its training and the work next week which will be almost entirely of a regimental and brigade nature, promises to be most interesting. Saturday, July 1st, the men were out half an hour earlier. In the afternoon the men only drilled for an hour and were dismissed for the day. The remainder of the day was taken up in sports, which were run off under the management of the Y.M.C.A., which, by the way, have as usual displayed great interest in the welfare of the men in general.

The health of the men of the 3rd Dragoons has been good and the army medical corps have not been troubled to any extent by the men from this cause. There have been no accidents to the men, but on Friday evening Private Gray of "B" (Millbrook) Squadron, had the misfortune to lose his horse, which, was ordered to be shot by reason of an accident which befel it. While standing in the lines a horse alongside of Private Gray's horse, kicked the latter in the hind foot, fracturing the limb. The horse was immediately put out of agony.

The infantry regiment as well as the 14th and 5th Field Batteries are located across the road from the Cavalry Brigade. Altogether there are about 2,500 men in camp.

Mr. P. K. Holmes, Physical Director, of the Peterborough Y. M. C. A. is attached to the Y.M.C.A. staff and is doing very efficient work.

Several of the Peterborough Collegiate Institute Cadets are down with the 46th Regiment and are recognized to be very able young non-coms.

Sunday was a great day in camp. It rained slightly in the morning, but towards 9 o'clock it cleared off, the sun came out and the day remained fine. The entire division attended Divine service and the sight was an imposing one.

The men were then dismissed for the day and many of them wandered off to the city whilst considerable visiting was done amongst the men of the various regiments.

Mr. C. Wiley, Lindsay, Ont.,

States That His Little Girl was Thoroughly Cured of Eczema by Dr. Chase's Ointment

Mr. C. Wiley who is employed as cooper by the Kennedy & Davis Milling Company Lindsay, Ont., states: "I used Dr. Chase's Ointment for eczema on my little girl some few years ago and soon brought about a permanent and thorough cure. She had suffered for a considerable time and though we had tried a great many remedies Dr. Chase's Ointment was the only preparation to prove effective. I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Chase's Ointment as it certainly effected a prompt and permanent cure in this case."

There is no guesswork about Dr. Chase's Ointment. It is applied directly to the diseased part and you can see exactly what it does.

By its cleansing soothing, healing action it allays inflammation and irritation heals the raw, sore flesh, and leaves the skin soft, smooth and natural.

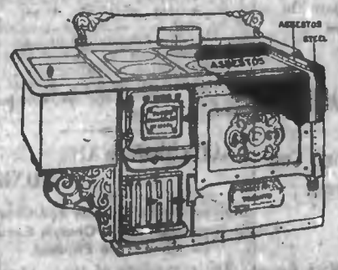
Oxford Chancellor Range

The Oxford Chancellor Range is built to stand the wear and tear of years of usage. The body is constructed of heavy patent rolled steel plates, interlined throughout with asbestos millboard. The steel body is closely riveted together with specially clinched rivets, so that no matter how hot the fire the body will not warp and allow the heat to escape. This construction makes the Oxford Chancellor Range perfectly and permanently airtight. No leakage into the flues, stopping the draft and impairing the oven heat, is possible.



The asbestos interlining insulates the heat of the range the outside of the range never getting overheated.

If you would know more of the Oxford Chancellor Range write us, and we'll tell you all about it and where you can see it.

UNION LABELED

MONDAY, JULY 3, 1905.

DOMINION DAY IN THE CITY.

The first Dominion Day in the history of the City of Peterborough, was celebrated in a quiet and common sense manner — no flamboyant demonstration, no rockets, no squibs, and no conflagration. The absence of the Battalion in Ottawa, with its band, robbed the city of a great deal of local colour: four or five large excursions up and down the river further promoted temporary depopulation. Those who remained at home spent the day quietly, though there were innumerable private excursions and picnic parties, who patronized the numerous pleasure resorts within easy reach of canoe, street car or easy drive. There were no exciting incidents to chronicle. Peterborough stepped as quietly and naturally into her city clothes as if she were used to them, and indeed she is, for we have had city standing, city enterprise, city habits generally, and the chief change is in the name by which this thriving and progressive centre of population is known.

Peterborough enters city-hood on the high tide of prosperity. New bank agencies, new manufacturing industries, come into existence and operation contemperaneously with the nativity of the city, and unusual commercial activity is specially emphasized by the customs returns, a reliable business barometer. The customs collections at the port of Peterborough, for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1905, show an increase of $112,886 over the collections for the corresponding year last passed — 1904. The collections for June, 1905, are $49,198, as against $17,117, in June, 1904, the increase being $32,082, nearly double the total collections last year. By carrying the comparison further back, the increase become more emphatic. The total collections for the whole year of 1895—ten years ago—were $45,117. The collections for June, 1905, were $49,195: that is, the collections for the month of June, 1905, are, in one month, $4,081 greater than the collections of a whole year in 1895. Our collections have been increasing for years steadily, and we see no reason why this growth, which represents the solid and substantial growth of

PLUMBING LAW CAUSES TROUBLE

Does Not Apply to Work Contracted for Before it Was Passed.

Council Decides That all Work Done Since Must Confirm to its Provision.

Mr. E. H. D. Hall, City Solicitor, reported to the council that in his opinion the plumbing work done since the passing of the plumbing, by-law would be subject to its provision, whether contracted for previously or not, but suggested that the inspector be allowed to use his discretion on the matter, and if the work would not be dangerous to the public health, it should be passed. Ald. Hicks moved that all works started since the passing of the bylaw, be carried out according to the terms of the bylaw, but all work in progress at the time of the passing of the bylaw, be proceeded with as contracted for, so long as the plumbing is sanitary. It was seconded by Ald. Leary, and carried.

Considerable discussion took place on this question. Ald Johnston being of the opinion that all work whether started and in progress at the time of passing the bylaw or not, should come under its provisions. He referred to a case in which he had been interested, and the inspector had compelled the plumber to do the work according to the regulations although the work was contracted for months ago. He thought that all should be treated alike and if the bylaw was to be of any use it must be adhered to strictly. The motion was allowed to pass however.

OTTAWA PLEASED WITH RANGERS

Capital City Papers Compliment the Visiting Regiment.

A Good Impression was Made by th 57th on Their Trip.

The Ottawa papers are loud in their praises of the Rangers, and compliment them highly on their appearance and the splendid manner in which they conducted themselves in the city.

The Journal says:—

"The officers and men of the 57th were lavish in their praise of the entertainment accorded them and expressed the desire to reciprocate at some time in the near future. But the Guards were only paying off old scores and if any members of the Peterboroughs found their hats too small this morning they may look upon the matter philosophically and consider it was only the experience of the Guards last year. For when the G. G. F. G. visited Peterborough last year, they were accorded just as warm a reception and received every whit as much feasting and merry-making as the 57th did on Saturday and Sunday.

The corps was a splendid body of neat, clean, orderly soldiers who although in a strange city and on a pleasure trip were not boisterous, but carried themselves as gentlemen all.

Speaking of the trip and entertainment, the Citizen says:—

"During the past two days the Governor-General's Foot Guards have been very busy, not at drill, or puzzling out solutions to difficult problems, but in showing how well they could entertain their comrades in arms, the 57th Regiment, Peterborough Rangers. The Peterborough redcoats on the other hand have proved themselves admirable fellows and worthy in every way to link arms with the premier foot regiment of the Dominion.

It was with many regrets that men formed up for the return journey. They were escorted to the station by the Guards, who turned out well to give their friends, visitors and comrades a hearty handshake and God-speed. As at all the gatherings, there was an enthusiastic crowd of civilians at the station to see the 57th safely on its way. The crowd though noisy was a happy one and many were the scenes that testified to the firm friendship that the members of the two regiments bear towards one another.

In its society columns, the Citizen speaking of the reception at Major Bates' residence, says:—

"The band of the Peterborough Rangers, forty-six men strong, which was placed on the lawn, furnished the music for the occasion, and played so beautifully that they received encore after encore in recognition of the appreciation of their services.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Late John Cameron Will be Buried Here.

The funeral of the late John Cameron, whose death occurred in Perth, will take place on Thursday morning at 10.30 from the residence of his brother-in-law, Mr. Alf. Pearson, Park street, to the Little Lake cemetery. The body will be brought here on Wednesday from Perth, and this connection there is a sad coincidence. The late Mr. Cameron had been visiting in Perth from Winnipeg his present home, and had intended to come to Peterborough on Wednesday, to spend a few days with his relations here.

Mr. Cameron was in Perth, spending the day with the Perth Old Boys, and was at the station, seeing some of his friends off on the train, which starting up threw him under the wheels, mangling him to such an extent that he died. Mrs. Cameron will arrive here on Wednesday from Winnipeg.

EXCURSION WAS WELL PATRONIZED

Murray Street Baptists and Charlotte Street Methodist Church Excursions Were Enjoyed.

The excursions of the Charlotte street Methodist church and the Murray street Baptist church which left this morning for Stony Lake, were liberally patronized.

The Charlotte street party which numbered about 120, was conveyed to Lakefield by special train, embarking there for the trip up the lakes in the steamer Stony Lake.

The Murray street excursion went by the regular train at 8.45, and numbered about 130 people. A pleasant day's outing was enjoyed.

EXTENSION OF RURAL LINES

Bell Telephone Company Opens More Toll Offices.

Official confirmation is given in today's Examiner of the fact already recorded in these columns that the Bell Telephone Company has opened toll offices at McCracken's Landing, Stony Lake, also at Doure, Indian River, and Conroy's Corners in this county. This Company has recently been adding to their rural lines extensively, and the service as a result is being much more efficient. The great advantage of being able to communicate quickly with the different parts of the county can hardly be overestimated.

HALF CENTURY OF WEDDED BLISS

Mr. and Mrs. John O'Toole Celebrated Golden Wedding

Pleasing Event Which Took Place in Douro Monday.

On Monday, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John O'Toole, a pleasing event took place. It was the celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. O'Toole, and a most delightful day was spent. In the morning at nine o'clock, mass was sung in St. Joseph's church in honour of the wedding anniversary, by Rev. Father Torpey, and was largely attended. Afterwards a gathering of about fifty of the bride and groom of fifty years was held at the residence. During the twenty-two years that Mr. and Mrs. O'Toole have spent in Douro, they have made many warm friends, and they were the recipients of numerous congratulations on having spent a half a century of married life.

They were married in Norwood, and lived in Asphodel until their removal to Douro twenty-two years ago. Mrs. O'Toole's maiden name was Margaret Lonegan and she was born in Asphodel, where she lived until the removal to Douro. Mr. O'Toole was born in Ireland, coming to Canada at an early age. Two daughters and seven sons constitute the family. They were all at the wedding celebration along with their children. The daughters are Mrs. Patrick Leahy of Peterborough, Mrs. Thos. E. Nolan, Lakefield; and the sons are Michael, Otonabee; John, Otonabee; James, Peterborough; Dennis, Douro; Nicholas, Douro; William, Douro and Edward, Douro.

At the celebration, Mr. and Mrs. O'Toole were presented with a beautiful arm chair on behalf of the children by Mrs. P. Leahy and Mrs. T. E. Nolan, the daughters.

The Examiner adds its heartiest congratulations to those of the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. O'Toole.

WATER STREET IN BAD CONDITION

Ald. Mason Scores Board of Works for Neglecting Street.

One of Most Frequently Travelled Streets in Disgraceful Condition.

The condition of Water street between Smith street and the boundary was the subject of some discussion at the City Council meeting last night. Ald. Mason called the attention of the Board of Works to the fact that the street was in a disgraceful condition. The Street Railway Company had been instructed to fill in between thier tracks with gravel and this had been done, but so far the Board had taken no steps to repair the street outside the rails, and the residents in that town were complaining bitterly. There was perhaps no street in the town upon which there was greater traffic, and Ald. Mason invited the members of the council to take a drive with him over the street, in which event he would give them a practical demonstration of the unfitness of the thoroughfare for traffic.

BARBERS' MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT

Important Action Taken—Union Cards Taken From Five Shops.

At an important meeting of the local Barbers' Union held last night, it was decided to fine those shops which did business on Dominion Day. Five master barbers were fined $5.00 each.

This morning they refused to pay their fines, and consequently the union cards were taken down from their shops.

NOT SATISFIED WITH THE BY-LAW

Merchants Want the Council to Make Changes.

By-Law Regulating Opening Goods on the Streets Not Satisfactory.

At the meeting of the city council last night, a petition was presented, signed by 56 of the retail merchants, asking that certain changes be made in the bylaw regulating the opening of boxes on the streets.

The petition also points out the lack of proper fire fighting facilities, and asks that the council purchase longer ladders to reach the high buildings on George street. The petition follows:—

The petition of the retail merchants of the city of Peterborough, humbly shows as follows:

1. That many of the stores and shops of your petitioners have no entrance for the goods in which they deal except through the front door, and consequently they must temporarily use the sidewalk for the purpose of unpacking their goods.

2. Your petitioners are desirous that the sidewalks and streets should as far as possible be kept free of packages and packing boxes, in which goods and merchandise have been received by them, and are content that a bylaw should be passed regulating the use of the sidewalks for this purpose in the manner following:

(a) That all packages shall as received, be promptly opened up and the contents received in the store or shop.

(b) That the packing boxes in which the goods have been contained, and all paper and other waste material found in the same, and all nails from the boxes, shall be carefully collected, and none thereof permitted to remain on the sidewalk or street, but the whole forthwith removed therefrom.

(c) That no packages without or containing any goods, shall be placed or allowed to be on any sidewalk or street on any Saturday.

(d) That the police force shall have supervision over these matters, subject to the above provisions.

3. Your petitioners strongly urge your honourable body to procure one or more of the most modern and approved ladders of sufficient length and capacity to reach the top of a four story building. Your petitioners are convinced that such an apparatus would be of the utmost importance in the saving of goods, and of the lives of employees in the case of fire.

Ald. Leary moved that the petition be received, and that the last clause be referred to the Fire, Water and Light Committee, which was carried. The feeling of the council was that no change should be made in the bylaw, and the reception of the petition practically shelves the matter.

A BURGLARY IN SHOE SHOP

Mr. W. A. Greenslade Loses Two Pair of Boots.

Suspicion Said to Rest on Two Travelling Agents.

This morning Mr. W. A. Greenslade, who keeps a shoemaking shop at the corner of Charlotte and Aylmer street, laid information against two book agents, Switzer and French of the Housefurnishing and Instalment Co., of Toronto, for breaking into his shop, and taking at least two pairs of boots.

The agents had left their grips in the shoemaker's shop last week, and last night about eleven o'clock they came up to his house to get them, but Mr. Greenslade was not in. This morning when he went to work he found the window broken, and the grips, and at least two pairs of boots had disappeared. He is of the opinion that the disappearance of the goods are the result of a visit to his shop of the two men mentioned, and in this belief has laid the information referred to.

Mr. Greenslade is of the opinion that one of these men, at least, is still in town, and in his effort to recover his property, has asked for a warrant.

It has transpired later that both men left town suddenly last night, and up to the time of going to press no word had been heard of them.

A DISCOVERY OF RICH COPPER

Mr. T. H. Crowley Has Made an Important Find.

Copper Deposit Carrying Gold and Silver Found in Rainy River District.

Mr. T. H. Crowley, the successful prospector, has just returned to Peterborough, and gives a glowing account of his latest mineral discovery which he has made in the West.

During his trip he made a rich find on the shores of Pipestone Lake in the Rainy River District, near Francis. The deposit of ore is a rich copper deposit, with gold and silver, and extends for four hundred feet along the shores of the narrows between Pipestone Lake, and another small body of water. Assays which have been made of the ore, taken indiscriminately from the deposit, show that it goes $27 to the ton, which is very rich.

The significance of this fact may be realized when it is learned that the famous Calumet and Hecla Mine only assayed $2.50 on the surface at the start.

Preparations are about to be made in the immediate future to do development work on the property, and the stock will be placed on the market as soon as the first sod of a new railway, which will pass close to the property, has been turned. This railway, for the construction of which Mr. Anthony Bloom, of Boston, has secured a charter, be known as the Fort Francis & Northern and will run from the former place to the Grand Trunk Pacific.

Mr. Crowley's object in visiting Peterborough is to form a syndicate for the purpose of developing this property, and he states that he is prepared to accept subscription to the development work on easy terms. He will be at the National Hotel, where he may be seen. Samples of this ore have been left at this office.

ALDERMEN WANT COOL DRINKS

Petition Presented at Last Night's Council Meeting.

At the first meeting of the new City's Council, the Aldermen were in a sportive mood, and took occasion to have a little fun at the expense of the economical proclivities of the Property Committee, which recommended that since the ice dealers had raised the price of ice for the city fountains, none of that cooling substance be purchased this year. During the progress of the meeting last night the following petition was passed around the Aldermen for signatures, the members signing in the form of a round robin:—

"We the undersigned members of the Council of the City of Peterborough humbly petition the chairman of the Property Committee to procure in some way a cool beverage for drinking in the municipal buildings, as we believe that it would promote temperance in our council.

TRANSFERRING COUNTY BRIDGES

Preliminary Inspection Tour Taken.

County Council's and Trent Canal Superintendent's Joint Tour.

The reign of red tape remaineth to the end of the chapter and seems as indispensable to the transfer of a set of county bridges from the county custody to that of the Government as to the routine of parliamentary procedure. Yesterday, yielding loyally to the behests of red tape the members of the County Council, and a few officials under command of Mr Warden Buck, in company with Mr. J. H. McClellan, Superintendent drove out in the morning from Peterborough to Chemong, the first stage of a tour of inspection of the Northern waters, with a view of formally transferring in propria personæ, the county bridges to the Dominion Government, represented by the Superintentent the formal documents to be implemented on the conclusion of the preliminary inspection.

At Chemong the swing and associated structure—the piers—were examined—the latter to determine the responsibility of the Government as to the works to be maintained by the latter, who undertake from henceforth the cost of the maintenance of the swings and the associated structures necessary to their operation. Mr. Wm. O'Leary was duly introduced to his future "boss" so far as his duties relate to the swings and connected piers.

At Chemong the swift and staunch Empress was boarded and a steam of about eight or ten miles—in the hour—brought the party to Gannon's Narrows, where a similar fomality was repeated, and Mr. Wm. Shouldice, the caretaker received the intimation that he must hereafter look to the Government's strong chest for the pecunary equivalent of his labours in connection with the operation of the swing. The transference of the swing at Gannon's seems to promise to relieve the county of a small sized white elephant, for the swing is not a very important affair and will probably have to be re-built at no distant date, as navigation interests increase and the Government, not the county, will have to bear the expense.

From Gannon's Narrows the party next visited Buckhorn, where dinner was taken. Then a pleasant steam through the intervening waters to Lakefield and then by train to the city.

The trip was a pleasant one to the County Councillors especially. It represented relief from a rather heavy responsibility and relief from no little cost in maintaining the swings. But it is whispered—so low, however, that some of their constituents may not hear it—that the enjoyment of some of the party was unpleasantly qualified, by thoughts of the appropriateness of a passage from Coleridges Ancient Marina — "Water, water everywhere, but not a drop (of anything better) to drink," for the voyage was made through a region where Local Option holds away.

This morning the County Council was joined by the members of the Northumberland and Durham County Council and last but not least by the members of the press and embarking upon the "King Edward" the the bridges on the southern waters were visited as far as Hastings, where dinner will be served and—but more of this in to-morrow's Examiner.

R. FAIR & CO. WILL ENLARGE

Growth of Business Compels Extensive Alterations

Work Will be Completed This Summer —Stand Has Always Enjoyed Popular Favour.

The constantly growing business of Messrs. R. Fair & Co., has now reached a stage which renders the remodelling and enlarging of the entire store an imperative necessity. Mr. Fair has, in keeping with the progressive policy which has characterized the business in the past, completed arrangements for the commencement of the work at once, and to-day explained to the Examiner the details of the proposed alterations, which will undoubtedly, when completed, make the store one of which citizens may be proud. The plans are now in the hands of the architect, and the work will be undertaken and completed this summer.

The alterations to the present commodious premises will be widespread and sweeping in their character, and should result in producing the increased space required.

The basement will be put in first-class order by deepening and by the addition of a new floor. It will be used for storing surplus goods, and for showing linoleums, and floor oil-cloths. A very handsome front will be put upon the ground floor, as well as entirely new shelving. The office will be moved to the extreme end of the store. On the north side of the store at the rear, extra lighting space will be produced by the insertion of plate glass windows.

The well light in the second floor will be closed up as this will be rendered unnecessary by the substitution in front of the store of prism lights. This will give much extra and necessary space on the second flat. The carpet and house-furnishing department will also be remodelled and enlarged.

The old stand has always enjoyed, previous to the removal there of the present occupants, twenty-two years ago, a liberal patronage. Since then the growth of the business has compelled the enlargement of the premises on several occasions.

To-day's Examiner contains an announcement of the great sale which the move will necessitate, and which Mr. Fair has decided to inaugurate at once.

No more flannel trousers —homespun is to be the lead

The day of flannel trousers is past. Homespun trousers will take their place.

There is good sense in such a change. Homespun wears better, keeps its appearance better, and gives a greater range of patterns and colorings.

We have produced a special line of homespun trousers this year. They are made in the latest style, of our own guaranteed-quality homespuns—Kilalo and Blunoz.

Made with belt straps and inside buttons for suspenders.

We would like to show you this line, as we are particularly proud of them. Won't you call in?

The Young Night Owls defeated the Victors Monday night in Driving Park by a score of 5-1. It was a very exciting game, as the score was 1-1 until the sixth innings.

• • • •

Speaking of the game in Lindsay between the Charlotte Street and Lindsay team, the Post says:—The game was fast and was a pitcher's battle between Duck, for Lindsay, and Roddy, a southpaw for Peterborough, and both pitched grand ball, having 11 and 12 strike outs respectively. They had good support in the field. The Peterborough boys were a fine bunch of boxers and played a gentlemanly game throughout the two hours' play.

• • • •

The Lindsay Post devotes space in its Monday issue to report that:—"In a Midland Baseball League game at Peterborough Saturday afternoon, Peterborough defeated Lindsay by 3 to 0. In the morning an exhibition game was played when Lindsay were again hut got by 3 to 0. This is the fourth defeat for Lindsay this season with one win. Quinlan, Douglas and Rattray were in the points for Peterborough; Tobin, Burnham and Cinnamon for Lindsay."

• • • •

The Charlotte Street baseball team played in Lindsay on Saturday, a team picked from the Town League and were defeated by 6-5 in a splendid game. The batteries were,—Charlotte Street, Roddy and Lang; Lindsay, Duck and Williams. The Lindsay spectators stated that it was the best game of ball played in Lindsay this season. The visiting team was taken for a trip to Sturgeon Point.

FOOTBALL.

The Captain of the Omemee Football Club has written, as follows to the sporting editor of the Examiner:—

Great'y surprised, were the local sports, when we read in your paper a sporting item of Ennismore defeating Omemee in a football match at Bethel picnic.

We wish to state right here that Omemee did not play Ennismore, nor did we get an invitation to play, or a challenge from them. However, two of the Omemee team who live near the picnic grounds, were there and assisted the picked-up team which did play Ennismore, and from reports, made it considerably hot for any of their opponents who ran up against them, so that they always retired to another part of the field where the playing was more comfortable. Possibly on account of this Ennismore thought they were up against Omemee, but we have nine others just as good, all of whom would be greatly pleased to let the Ennismore correspondent give a true account of a match between Ennismore and the locals.

HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION.

Marvin Hart of Louisville Knocked Out Jack Root in Twelfth Round, and Jeffries Was Stirred.

Reno, July 4.—Marvin Hart of Louisville yesterday knocked out Jack Root of Chicago in the twelfth round of a fight for the heavyweight championship. The betting odds were 6 to 5 in favor of Hart. The punch which compassed the downfall of the Chicagoan was a short, powerful jolt of the right arm to the body. The blow was delivered with terrific force, and it caught Root while he was coming up. Root reeled, tottered and fell in a heap. Referee Jeffries towering over the prostrate form of the Chicagoan, counted ten, making Hart heavyweight champion pugilist of the world.

He might have counted twenty, for Root was hopelessly defeated. Up to this point of the fight Root had an apparent lead over Hart.

James J. Jeffries, retired champion of the world, received $1,000 for acting as referee.

Before entering the ring, "Jim" Jeffries watched upon both men, stated that he had retired for good from the ring, and that the winner of this fight is entitled to the name of heavyweight champion of the world.

BAD COMPLEXIONS

Can be Covered up With Lotions, Washes and Powders Containing Arsenic, Lead and Mineral Poisons. But These Always Make a Bad Matter Worse. How to Obtain a Good Complexion in Nature's Way.

It is most unwise to attempt to cover up or hide a bad complexion of a sallow, mottled skin by cosmetics, face powders or skin foods, many of which contain zinc, lead or arsenic, and all of which in the end make bad matters worse. The only safe and sure way to improve the complexion is by purifying and enriching the blood, by keeping the bowels regular and the liver healthy and active. Bad blood is responsible for a bad complexion, and a tarnished blood is a direct result of bad bowels. An antiseptic and resolvent is needed as well as an alterative and evacuant. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills possess all these properties in a remarkable degree. They act directly on the liver and bowels, cleanse and enrich the blood and in this way quickly improve the complexion. When you consider that pineapple is a most efficient intestinal antiseptic and that butternut is unequalled as a liver regulator, you can quite understand why Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills are used by so many ladies to keep their blood pure and their skin rosy and clear of pimples, blotches and sallowness. These little health promoters are purely vegetable, never gripe or irritate, and always cure sick headache, constipation and biliousness in one night. 25 cents. All dealers.

CONSERVATIVES IN AGREEABLE MOOD

Opposition's Change of Front Permits Progress.

TUBERCULOSIS COMMITTEE

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Pays Tribute to the Mounted Police During Passing of Estimates — Mr. Maclean and Whiskey—Proposal to Introduce Metric System in Excise Work —Clearing the Slate.

Ottawa, July 4.—Clearing the slate of a variety of small matters was the order of procedure in the House yesterday: In this way a good deal of progress was made. Only two items of the main estimates remain. The Opposition were in an agreeable mood, and even the Victoria, Vancouver & Eastern Railway bill went through the committee stage with only a feint at opposition. An investigation into the suppression of tuberculosis is promised for next year by the adoption of a resolution moved by Mr. Perley. Work in supply was scattered, the items passed being mostly holdovers from days long ago. An interesting discussion on Canadian whiskey occurred on Mr. Brodeur's inland revenue bill last night.

Committee on Tuberculosis.

At the opening yesterday afternoon the House adopted unanimously the following resolution, on motion of Mr. Perley: That a special committee, composed of Messrs. Barr, Beland, Black, Cash, Chisholm, Daniel, Dugas, Gordon, Hughes (Prince Edward Island), Johnston (Lambton), Laurence, Loggie, Miller, Paquet, Parmelee, Roche (Marquette), Schaffner, Schell (Oxford), Smith (Nanaimo), Thompson and the mover, be appointed for active members on the part of this House of a joint committee of both Houses for the purpose of considering what further steps should be taken and what suggestions can be made in the direction of the suppression of tuberculosis in Canada, with power to send for persons, papers and records, and to report from time to time." A resolution was also passed asking the co-operation of the Senate in the inquiry.

V., V. & E. Bill Reported.

Some obstruction met the motion to proceed in committee with the bill respecting the Vancouver, Victoria & Eastern Railway. Mr. Barker and Mr. Henderson were under the impression, though why they could not tell, that the bill was not to come up yesterday. Sir Wilfrid Laurier was emphatic in declaring that he knew of no such arrangement. Clause three was taken up, when Hon. Mr. Emmerson read the amendment which Mr. Foster had asked the Government to consider. This provided that the company should not have the right to divert their line across the international boundary unless it was absolutely necessary to overcome engineering difficulties, nor until a satisfactory guarantee was given that the line from Cloverdale to Princeton would be completed in Canadian territory within a reasonable time. Mr. Emmerson added: "In the judgment of the Government, they do not deem it necessary to impost these restrictions upon this road."

The bill was reported after an hour's discussion and stands for third reading.

Praise for N. W. M. P.

When the House went into committee of supply Sir Wilfrid made an extended statement regarding the vote required for the Northwest Mounted Police, and in the course of it paid a high tribute to the work being done by this excellent organization. Col. Hughes thought that the Government should consider the matter of scrip for lands for the work of these men in 1885. Sir Wilfrid Laurier contented himself with the remark that the Government did not see its way to reconsider the question at the present time. Mr. Herron also pleaded for a reconsideration of the matter.

After the vote had gone through the new Minister of the Interior put through several items in regard to geological surveys.

A resolution was passed authorizing provision for the inspection of water meters, and an act founded thereon was introduced and read a first time.

The Metric System.

A bill to amend inland revenue act was read a third time. W. F. Maclean drew attention to the fact that large quantities of American raw spirits were being imported and sold as Canadian whiskey. He was assured that such liquor could not have the bonded stamp of the Inland Revenue Department. Mr. Maclean also suggested that if the decimal system of weights and measures were to be adopted in Canada as contemplated in the statute no better beginning could be made than in the Inland Revenue Department. Hon. Mr. Brodeur thought the suggestion an excellent one, and promised to look into it.

W. F. Maclean, when the bill respecting an amendment of the naturalization act was taken up, protested that under existing conditions foreigners coming to Canada and becoming naturalized in reality became Canadians, and not British subjects. The men might go into other countries after becoming naturalized Canadians and become subjects of these countries. The bill was read a third time.

The Supplementaries.

The House went into supply again and passed a number of items, the only remaining votes in the main estimates now being one for the militia and one for the Transportation Commission.

It was announced that the supplementary estimates would be brought down to-day; that the Saskatchewan and subsidiary Northwest bills, relating to the census, etc., will, if possible, be put through the committee stage to-day, and that all will in that event be given third reading on Wednesday.

The House adjourned at 10.15 p.m.

THE REAL QUESTION.

? The real question of disease is "Can I be cured?" If you or anyone dear to you is losing strength, flesh, energy and vitality, if you are wise you will not spend time trying to figure out just what name to call the disease by.

It is almost impossible to draw the line where debility and weakness merge into consumption. Your trouble may not be consumption to-day, but you don't know what it may become to-morrow. Hundreds of people have been restored to robust health by Dr. Pierce's marvelous "Golden Medical Discovery" after reputable physicians had pronounced them consumptive beyond hope.

Were they in consumption? Nobody can ever know. The important point is that they were genuinely ill but this matchless "Discovery" restored and saved them.

"I was not able to do hardly any work at all," says Mrs. Jennie Dingman, of Vanburen, Manistee Co., Mich., in a most interesting letter to Dr. Pierce. "I had pain in my left side and back, and had headache all the time. I tried your medicine and it helped me. Last spring I had a bad cough; I got so bad I had to be in bed all the time.

"My husband thought I had consumption. He wanted me to get a doctor, but I told him if it was consumption they could not help me. We thought we would try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and before I had taken one bottle the cough was stopped and I have had no more of it returning. Your medicine is the best I have taken."

Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce. He will send you good, fatherly, professional advice, in a plain sealed envelope, absolutely free. His nearly 40 years experience as chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel, at Buffalo, N. Y., has made him an expert in chronic diseases.

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is thoroughly cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

CATTLE MARKETS.

Cables Steady—Cattle Active and 25c Higher at Buffalo.

London, July 3.—Cattle are quoted at 11c to 12¼c per lb.; refrigerator beef, 8¾c to 9¼c per lb.; sheep, 13c to 14c per pound.

TORONTO JUNCTION LIVE STOCK.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards were 65 car loads, composed of 1246 cattle, 198 sheep and lambs and 3 calves.

Exporters.

Prices ranged from $4.35 to $5.40, the latter price being paid for a few prime lots that had not been on grass, the bulk selling at $5 to $5.25 per cwt. Export bulls sold at $3.50 to $4 per cwt.

Butchers.

The best butchers' cattle sold at $4.75 to $5 per cwt.; medium at $4.50 to $4.65; common, at $4 to $4.35; rough lots sold at $3 to $3.75 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs.

Sheep sold at $3.75 to $4 per cwt.; lambs, at $4 to $5.75 each, the latter price being for a few picked lambs, weighing 65 lbs. each.

Calves.

Prices ranged from $4 to $5.50 per cwt.

Hogs.

Prices the same as quoted in The World on Saturday, $5.50 off cars and $5.85 fed and watered.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK.

Montreal, July 3.—(Special.)—The exports for June were 14,442 cattle, 1695 sheep and for the season to date 26,930 cattle, 5648 sheep. These figures show a decrease of 9058 cattle and an increase of 1247 sheep, compared with the same period of last year. The shipments last week were 4289 cattle, 260 sheep. Cable advices were conflicting; some being steady and others lower, in London, States cattle sold at 11¾c to 12¾c, and Canadians at 11¼c to 12c, and in Liverpool States brought 11¾c to 12¾c, and Canadians 11¼c to 12c. The demand for ocean freight space has been good and in addition to all the July space being engaged, considerable business has also been done to Liverpool and London for August, 37 shillings. The receipts were 400 cattle, 300 sheep and lambs, 100 calves, 600 hogs. The butchers were present in large numbers, but trade was slow, as higher prices were asked all round, prime steel fed cattle being scarce and dear. Prime beeves sold at 5¼c to 5¾c, and a few at $5.80 per cwt. Pretty good cattle, grass-fed, sold at 4½c to 5c, and the common stock at 2½c to 3½c per lb. The milch cows were a common lot and sold at $35 to $45 each. Three of the best calves were sold for $62. The other calves at from $2 to $10 each. Sheep sold at 3½c to 3¾c per lb., and the lambs at $2.75 to $3 each. The demand for hogs was good and as the supply was not sufficient to fill all requirements prices were firmer. Selected lots sold at $7 to $7.25 and mixed lots at $6.75 per cwt., weighed off cars.

EAST BUFFALO CATTLE MARKET.

East Buffalo, July 3.—Cattle—Receipts, 3500 head; active and 25c higher; prime steers, $5.60 to $5.65; shippers, $5 to $5.50; butchers, $4.50 to $5.25; heifers, $3.50 to $5; cows, $3 to $4.50; bulls, $2.75 to $4.60; stockers and feeders, $2.75 to $4.40; stock heifers, $2.50 to $3.35; fresh cows and springers, steady to $3 higher; good to choice, $45 to $65; medium to good, $34 to $42; common, $20 to $30.

Veals—Receipts, 1500 head; active and 25c lower; $4.50 to $6.75.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 3000 head; sheep, steady; lambs, 25c lower; lambs, $6 to $8; yearlings, $4.75 to $7.25; wethers, $5.75 to $6; ewes, $4.50 to $4.75; sheep mixed, $2.50 to $5.50.

NEW YORK LIVE STOCK.

New York, July 3.—Beeves—Receipts, 3385; steers, 10c to 15c higher; bulls and cows, firm to 25c higher; steers, $4.40 to $5.40; no prime steers here; bulls, $2.75 to $4.25; cows, $1.75 to $4.05. Cables steady; exports to-morrow, 850 cattle and 3400 quarters of beef.

Calves—Receipts, 4174; veals, 25c higher; buttermilks, 50c to 75c higher; veals, $5 to $7.50; culls, $4 to $4.50; buttermilks, $3.75 to $4.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts, 11,550; sheep, firm to 15c higher; prime lambs, 10c higher; sheep, $3.50 to $5.15; exports, wethers, $5.40; culls, $3; lambs, $7.50 to $9.60; one car, $9.70; culls, $6 to $7.

Canadian Butter in England.

London, July 4.—(C. A. P.)—The demand for good Canadian butter continues good. Prices on spot are 1 to 2 shillings dearer, but are still below relative values in Canada. Compared with last year, at this time, it is 10 1-2 shillings per cwt. dearer. Choicest is 96s. to 100s.; finest, 94s. to 95s. A fair trade is passing this week. The cheese demand practically absorbs arrivals; choicest is 55s. to 56s., finest 51s. to 52s.

Funds Can't Be Touched.

Toronto, July 4.—The funds to the credit of the Amalgamated Sheet Metal Workers' Local Union No. 30, on deposit in the Dominion Bank, cannot be attached to pay the costs in a suit brought by the Metallic Roofing Co. of Toronto against certain members of the union, is the decision which Chief Justice Meredith gave yesterday.

Cured Kidney Disease.

Mrs. Fred Hills, Walton Street, Port Hope, Ont., states:—"I was troubled for some time with kidney disease ,and though I tried a great many different medicines, never succeeded in obtaining relief until I tried Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. By the regular use of this preparation for a time I was completely cured of kidney disease.

RUSSIAN CRUISER SAVES LIVES.

French Steamer is Wrecked Off the Arabian Coast.

Aden, Arabia, July 4.—The Russian auxiliary cruiser Rion arrived here yesterday, having on board 618 persons from the French steamer Chodoc, from Saigon for Bordeaux, which is ashore off Cape Guardafui, at the mouth of the Gulf of Aden.

The Rion, which was homeward bound from Batavia, was attracted by the signals of the survivors, who managed to get ashore at Cape Guardafui despite the hostility of the natives.

Only a few lives were lost during the transfer of the passengers and crew from the Chodoc to the shore.

DR. JOHNSTON, M.P., DEAD.

Liberal Member For West Lambton Dies in Ottawa.

Ottawa, July 4.—Dr. Johnston, M.P. for West Lambton, died at 12.22 this morning. Death was due from blood poisoning, following an attack of erysipelas. Dr. Thomas George Johnston was elected to the House of Commons as a Liberal to represent West Lambton at a bye-election in 1898, and was re-elected at the subsequent general elections. He was born in Sarnia in 1849.

Circus Employe Fined.

Quebec, July 4.—James Jordan, the negro connected with Lemon Bros.' circus, and one of the quartet arrested for complicity in the Roberval outrage, was committed to stand his trial at Roberval yesterday. William Justin, one of the prisoners, pleaded guilty to carrying firearms and was fined $10 and costs or a month's imprisonment.

No Ashes
In the
"Bison" Fire Pot

The fire pot in the "Bison" hot water heater is built slightly conical to prevent ashes sticking to it. There is no lodging place in the fire pot for ashes. Flames are thrown up and against the slanting wall of the fire pot—the side draft drags them against it—burns all the coal evenly from side to side. That is one reason why the "Bison" heats quickly, effectively, economically—it is one reason out of ten why the "Bison" is the best heater.

From Sr. II to Jr. III.

Isabel Morphet Charlie Hardwick, Annie Drury Ada Jenkinson, Madeline Morrison Percy Robson, Jessie Cumming and Jean Falconer equal, Harry Mulhern Harold Cox, Grace Edmondson Helen Henry, Wilfrid Stratton Willie uCmming, Laura Grant Melville Dopson.

EXPLANATION BY MASTER BARBERS

Regarding Difficulty at Present Existing.

Claim that Sanction of the Executive Had Not Been Received for Monday's By-law.

A prominent Master Barber in remarking this afternoon upon the difficulty which at present exists between the master barbers and their employees stated that a bylaw fixed by union journeymen one and a half years ago provided that if a holiday fell on a Monday or a Saturday or if a demonstration fell on any week day unions shops could keep open half a day. Last Monday a meeting was held and changed the bylaw and said the shops were to be closed all day on Dominion Day.

At a meeting of the master barbers all were to abide by the decision of the majority, the majority was 11—5 in favour of keeping open half of the holiday.

All bylaws passed by the local union had to be sanctioned by the President of the National Union. The sanction of the last bylaw had not been received and the boss barbers felt justified in following the provisions of the old bylaw. Messrs. Lewis and Haskin were in favour of keeping open but they closed on Saturday morning although Mr. Haskin admits shaving a man whom he claims to be his brother.

Journeymen had their full week's pay and were allowed to have a holiday all day Saturday but the men objected because employers kept open and worked themselves.

CHEAPEST OF THE SEASON

To-morrow the Annual Excursion of the St. John's Church Sunday School will be held to Stony Lake. The steamer "City of Peterborough" will leave the Wolfe St wharf at 8:30 sharp, and will go over the Rift lock. Tickets 50c, on sale at the wharf.

PRETTY WEDDING AT CATHEDRAL

Nuptials of Miss Eleanor McAuliffe and Mr. John Byrne.

A quiet but very pretty wedding was solemnized at 8 o'clock this morning at St. Peter's Cathedral, by Rev. Father McColl the contracting parties being Mr. John Byrne of Grafton and Miss Eleanor McAuliffe, of town.

The bride who was handsomely attired in white organdie over taffeta with picture hat to match was attended by Miss Margaret Byrne, sister of the groom who was also dressed in white organdie, with black picture hat. Mr. Will McAuliffe the bride's twin brother supported the groom.

After the ceremony the bridal party drove to the residence of the bride's mother, Roger street, Fifth Ward where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served to the immediate friends of the contracting parties. The congratulatory favours were many and very pretty some being received from Cleveland Washington Cobourg and other places.

The happy couple leave to-night on the nine o'clock train for there future home in Grafton followed by the best wishes for their host of friends.

THE ANT.

Facts About One of Natures Most Industrious Creatures.

When spring comes, with all its wealth of opening buds and new flowers, the ant is preparing for a season of profitable industry.

It comes out of its winter quarters and locates a new home where it can store away during the summer months the sustenance for the long winter days.

Just as industrious as the ant—but in a different way—are the countless, infinite-imal germs which burrow into the scalp and eat away at the root of the hair.

As they burrow away Dandruff forms, and if the germs are not killed, Baldness results.

Newbro's Herpicide is the only known remedy which kills the germ.

JAMES BOGUE VS. THE CEREAL CO.

Long Pending Suit Has at Last Been Settled.

Mr. Bogue Gets $10,000—A Compromise was Affected.

The long pending action between James Bogue, contractor, against the American Cereal Company, has been settled. The action was brought for moneys payable under a contract for the erection of an elevator and for the Company's Mill, dry house and cleaning house, and for extra work done and material supplied for such buildings.

The evidence of many architects and engineers was taken and a great number of sessions were held before Judge Weller as Local Master of the High Court. About a month ago His Honour suggested to the parties that the case was one for settlement, that the evidence was conflicting and complicated and that he thought that each party should make concessions to the other and arrive at an amicable adjustment.

This has been done to the satisfaction of all concerned and the action has been withdrawn.

Under the terms of the settlement the Company has paid Mr. Bogue $10,000 and the costs of the action.

It is explained that the Company offered $8,000 to Mr. Bogue, but the Judge suggested that to save a further prolongation of the case $10,000 be paid as a settlement which was agreed to by both parties.

Messrs. Hall & Hayes acted for the plaintiff, and Messrs. Dennistoun Peck, Kerr & Stevenson for the defence.

Band at Jackson Park to-morrow, Wednesday night. All cars run to the Park. Special round trip car will not run after six o'clock.

HORSE STABBING CASE WAS TRIED

Alford was Acquitted on the Charge This Morning.

This morning the man Alford, who was charged with stabbing Mr. Patrick Torpey's horse in Leahy's stable, Lakefield, was tried before Judge Weller, and acquitted, the evidence of the prosecution failing to show motive for committing the crime. Alford swore that he did not know the horse was stabbed, until his attention was called to it. Mr. R. E. Wood prosecuted and F. D. Kerr appeared for the defence.

Band at Jackson Park to-morrow, Wednesday night. All cars run to the Park. Special round trip car will not run after six o'clock.

INDIAN CURIOS WERE PRESENTED

By Col. H. C. Rogers to the Victoria Museum.

Historical Society Met Last Night—Verbal Report Presented.

A meeting of the Peterborough Historical Society was held last night at which the report of the delegates to the meeting of the Ontario Historical Society, at Niagara-on-the-Lake, on June 7th and 8th, were received. The reports were presented verbally by Mr. J. H. Burnham, the official representative, and will later be placed on file in written form, at which time they will be published in more detail.

Col. H. C. Rogers, President of the Society, has presented to the Victoria Museum a number of interesting Indian curious, secured during his recent trip to British Columbia, among which is an Indian totem pole, which will be placed upon exhibition as soon as suitable cases have been provided. Upon it is a highly interesting household legend.

ESTIMATES FOR PUBLIC WORKS

Mr. R. R. Hall's Efforts for Constituents Successful.

Large Sums Voted for Canada Harbours and Public Buildings.

In the estimates submitted to Parliament at Ottawa yesterday the following appropriations will be of special interest to Peterborough:—

The Canals.

Trent Canal.—To complete surveys, $28,000.

Welland Canal, electric lighting and power plant, $40,000

Surveys for dams taken over by the Dominion Government, $6,000.

Trent Canal—One dredging engine, boiler and steel beam, and completion of dredge (revote,) $6,500; to complete dump scows, $700; contribution towards construction of a bridge across McLaren's Creek, $2,500; repairs to guard gates, $4,000.

Repairs and renewals to Trent and Bensfort bridges, $3,500.

Public Buildings.

Peterborough—Public building, additions and improvements, $4,000.

Harbours and Rivers.

Trenton—Dredging Trent River, $10,000.

River Otonabee—Dredging at Peterborough, additional amount $6,000; wharf at Bensfort Bridge, south side of river, $850.

Indian River — Dredging at the Devil's Elbow, revote, $3,000.

Crowe's Landing—Wharf on south shore of upper Ebony Lake, $1,500.

It will be seen that Peterborough County has been treated well at the hands of the Government, and for the money which has been voted for public works in this town and riding, the electors may thank Mr. R. R. M.P., who, during his one term in the House has secured more for his constituents than any former representative has succeeded in getting for years.

His value as a member increases as the months go by and without respect to political consideration he is doing the best for the riding which he represents.

MUCH SYMPATHY IS EXPRESSED

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Curtis Sustain Sad Loss by Death of Son.

The sympathy of their large circle of friends is being extended to Mr. and Mrs. David H. Curtis, Fifth Ward in the sad loss sustained in the death of their infant son, David Darwyn.

The little boy, who was about six months old, has been ill for some time. On Sunday last his condition grew critical and he passed away yesterday afternoon at six o'clock.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon from Mr. Curtis' home, Hunter street, Fifth Ward, at two o'clock, and proceed to Little Lake Cemetery.

SOLICITOR FOR G. T. R. IS DEAD

John Bell, K.C., Passed Away in Belleville.

A Prominent Member of the Legal Profession—Was 84 Years of Age.

Special to the Examiner

Belleville, July 5th. — John Bell, K. C., senior consulting solicitor for the Grand Trunk Railway, died early this morning in his 84th year.

Mr. Bell was born in Ireland, and came to Canada with his parents when ten years of age. After graduating from Victoria University, he studied law in Toronto, with the late Chief Justice Haggarty and Hon. John Crawford, passing with credit. He commenced practising in this city in 1842. He was appointed solicitor for the Grand Trunk in 1859, and in 1866 was created a K. C. Four daughters survive him. Mrs. Bell died some two months ago.

CONFIRMATION AT ST. JOHN'S

Solemn Rite Administered to Fifty Candidates.

Right Rev. Bishop Mills, of Kingston, Officiated—Preached Earnest Sermon.

A large congregation was present last night to witness the solemn rite of Confirmation administered by the Lord Bishop of Ontario, Right Rev. Dr. Mills, to 50 candidates, 20 of them being men and boys and 30 women. The rector, Rev. J. C. Davidson and Rev. J. H. Toney, who presented 3 candidates for Confirmation from his parish, Omemee, with the candidates entered the church in procession from the vestry, after the choir and clergy had taken their places in the church, Rev. J. H. Toney read Evensong and Rev. E. A. Langfeldt of St. Luke's, acted as Bishop's Chaplain. His lordship, the Bishop, preached an instructive and very earnest sermon from the text, "Have you received the Holy Ghost since ye believed."

After the service the Bishop met the newly confirmed in the Sunday School where he spoke words of encouragement to them.

TELEGRAPH AND MAIL TELL THE WORLD'S NEWS

Latest Foreign and Canadian News as Told Over the Wires and by Dispatches—Interesting Happenings Told in a Few Lines—The Examiner's Review of Late News in This and Other Countries.

Estimates of the number killed during the fires and rioting at Odessa last week run as high as 6,000.

The Swedish Government has declared Stockholm and several other harbours war ports. All foreign warships are excluded from these ports.

Alderman Henry Mount of Buffalo was probably fatally injured by being crushed in one of the city hall elevators a few days ago. His skull was fractured, and bones in the jaw, shoulder and arms were broken.

There is abundant reason for the belief that the summer season at Stony Lake will be far in advance of that of all previous years. The steamer Stony Lake had in June of this year a busier month than in July of last year.

The largest cargo of corn ever carried on Lake Michigan, it is believed was placed in the hold of the Midland King, a Canadian boat, which has sailed from Chicago for the north. She carried 318,289 bushels of the cereal for Canadian consumption.

Harvey Moran, a seaman, aged 22, died at the Halifax Hospital, and investigation showed that he had been picking his ear with a rusty nail, and meningitis of the brain through inflammation of one of the large vessels, probably caused by the nail, set in, and ended in death.

Construction of the Ogilvie flour mill on the site west of their elevator at Fort William, is now well under way. The mill is to have a capacity of 3,000 barrels a day. A new dock 500 feet long is complete. The auxiliary buildings are machine shops, millwright shop and motor power house.

Seeing Catherine Cowan, aged 23, leap into the Hudson River, two New York Central Railway signalmen, not the signals in their towers, stopping all trains, while they went to her assistance in a row boat. The woman was rescued but died later in an hospital.

By one of the biggest police raids in the history of any city, the new administration of Philadelphia emphasized its hold on the city government, swept clear of questionable resorts a territory of twenty square miles, including the tenderloin, and some residential districts, and let loose a flood of scandal.

In the Bethany United Evangelical church, Bethlehem, Pa., Rev. J. Rosenberger has expressed his desire that during the hot weather the men of his congregation appear in shirt waists, and the women without hats. The congregation is one of the most fashionable in the East Pennsylvania Conference.

Edgar Wallace of London, set a trap in his room for a mouse. After he had gone to sleep the trap snapped and he awoke to find the room rapidly filling with gas from a burner which he had left half turned on. He turned off the gas and then opened the trap and released the mouse—a life for a life.

Late advices state it is known that over one hundred persons, with one report claiming even one thousand, have been drowned in a great flood at Guanajuato, Mexico, a mining city, now the important seat of activity of several large British companies. The wires were down all day yesterday and the roads were impassable.

In the case of George Rigga, better known as "Detective," owing to his having been a liquor agotter in Charlotte county, the Grand Jury in the Supreme Court found a true bill on all four counts of bills as prepared by the prosecution, charging Rigga with writing letters to Bessie P. Clark, a pretty young stenographer, threatening to kill her if she refused to marry him.

The Panama Railroad Steamship Co's steamer, Saguranca, arrived at New York from Panama yesterday, with the largest number of refugees from yellow jack, bubonic plague, small-pox and Chagres fever, of any ship that has come up this year from the Isthmus. Seldom has a ship discharged such a cargo of complaints, lieutenants against official alleged negligence, malfeasance and petty oppression, ghastly tales of unsanitary conditions, plagues and sudden death. Panama was described as a veritable pest hole, as is verified by a letter from a Peterborough boy printed in another column.

Mr. Arnold Pfaff, of the National Bureau of Education, New Orleans, who believes that typhoid among school children is caused by a germ, has found specimens of the germ, and is now looking for a cure. The blood of ten school children was analysed by Dr. Pfaff, after being drawn from their ears. He selected those who seemed chronically disinclined to study. After the analysis he assured the teachers that the boys were not responsible for their condition, but were the victims of disease.

A curious case was revived at Montreal yesterday morning, when Assistant City Treasurer Arnoldi received a notarial letter from a legal gentleman in a certain American city, touching a portion of a loan issued by the city nine years ago. The client of the gentleman in question has $7,000 coming to him—his name is withheld—and although the city officials know his address, and have written frequently to him, he refused to claim his $7,000, and has lost the interest on that sum for nine years. Why he persists in silence, or what his reason is, in leaving $7,000 lying idle, no one knows.

PREPARATIONS FOR BOYS' CAMP

The Y. M. C. Camp Promises to be the Best Ever.

Limit of Forty Members Will Soon be Reached—Good Programme Prepared.

The Y. M. C. A. camp is booming. The enrolment to date is about 25 and the 40 limit will soon be reached. No pains are being spared to plan a good time for the boys and without doubt it will be the best camp ever held. A professional cook will accompany the party and a good staff of leaders will help Mr. Williamson.

This is the ninth Boys' Camp Mr. Williamson has had charge of so he should have it down to a science. The programmes are out and can be had at the building. Every day has its big feature and boys will be too busy to get into mischief—if they had even a desire in that direction.

Parents of boys who are members should do their best to have their boys go. The camp is one of the best combinations of recreation and character building.

IN OLDEN TIMES

People Were Content to Take Things Easier Than Now.

If our forefathers could behold the modern locomotives, automobiles and electri cears, they would hold up their hands in astonishment.

The stage coach was fast enough then—people were more content to take things easy.

They used to be satisfied with any sort of a hair lotion that came along—if it did not prevent Baldness they thought it was because Baldness could not be prevented.

It's different now. People know that germs cause Baldness and that Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ, cures Dandruff and prevents Baldness.

Sold by leading druggists. Send ten cents in stamps, for sample to the Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Sold by Ormond and Walsh, special agents.

SEASON OPENS AT IDYL WILD

Already the Guests Have Started to Come to This Popular Resort.

Guests are commencing to arrive at this ideal summer resort. The island is now in its cool summery holiday beauty, To those who are planning a summer outing and seeking "green fields", and "toning breezes", and where great heat is unknown, take good advice and check your grip for Idyl Wyld.

Mr. Hutchinson, the popular manager of the summer resort expects another good season if the hot weather keeps up.

The fishing is showing up well this year. The other day "Hutch" took a rod and line down to the big stone, off the lower point of the island, and enjoyed some rare sport for an hour. His principal catch was a seven-pound bass, measuring 20 inches from mouth to end of tail and six inches in width. "Hutch" wears the smile that wont come off.

Mrs. Hutchinson, the hostess, also caught a fourteen-pound maskinonge in the same place.

The Wharf has been improved this year, and is now in good shape for landing excursion parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pink, of Rochester, N. Y., have registered at the hotel.

THE PIRATES HAVE DECLARED WAR

Potemkine's Rebels Threaten All Loyal Russians—Smetilvy is on the Hunt—Other Torpedo Boat Destroyers Also Anxious to Wipe Out Russia's Shame---Pirates of the Black Sea Requisition and Take Cattle From Village of German Colonists ---Attack Italian Vessel.

Bucharest, July 5.—Before the Kniaz Potemkine sailed from Kustenji, a delegation from the crew handed the prefect a proclamation addressed to the representatives of the powers in Roumania, formally declaring war on all Russian vessels which refuse to join the mutineers.

The proclamation says the Kniaz Potemkine will respect neutral territory and foreign shipping.

The delegation requested that the proclamation be forwarded to the powers.

Smetilvy on the Hunt.

Bucharest, Roumania, July 5.—The Russian torpedo boat destroyer Smetilvy appeared off Kustenji yesterday and signalled that she was seeking the Kniaz Potemkine.

It is stated that the Kniaz Potemkine has attacked an Italian vessel carrying coal. There is much uneasiness among Russian war vessels at Roumanian ports.

Threaten a Village.

Berlin, July 5.—A despatch to the Lokal Anzeiger from Odessa says the Kniaz Potemkine threatened to attack a village of Germsn colonists on the coast near Odessa and requisitioned and took on board some cattle.

Reviving a Mutiny.

Odessa, July 5.—An attempt to revive the mutiny on the battleship Georgi Pobledonosets was discovered yesterday. It was frustrated by loyal sailors, who delivered six of the leaders to the authorities. The torpedo boats which remained here have gone to sea.

It is reported persistently in army and navy circles that the Kniaz Potemkine is being stalked and pursued by several torpedo boats, who intend to sink her. The crews of these boats consist of officers and stokers, who volunteered.

Sighted Off Odessa.

London, July 5.—A despatch to The Evening Standard from Odessa says the Kniaz Potemkine has been sighted 25 miles off that port.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—It is stated that the transport Vecha, the crew of which joined the mutineers in the harbor of Odessa, surrendered yesterday in Russian waters.

Mutinied But Repented.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—The Minister of Marine has received the following telegram from Admiral Kruger:

"The crew of the transport Prout mutinied when leaving Boudrovo Bay, arresting the captain and other officers. Second Lieut. Nestertseff and Boatswain Kozlitike were killed.

"The Prout has arrived at Sebastopol and the crew is now repentant. The officers have been released, the crew begging them to resume their posts."

A Bomb Thrown.

Bielostok, Russia, July 5.—There was sporadic firing in several streets yesterday and a bomb was thrown in Lipowas street, in the centre of the town. It is reported that several persons were killed.

Strikes Spread.

Tiflis, July 5.—The strikes, which are becoming general here, are spreading.

Japanese Victories.

Tokio, July 5.—The following official announcement was made yesterday from the headquarters of the Japanese army in Corea:

"At dawn on July 2 four hundred of the enemy's cavalry with artillery approached Naromok. Our force repulsed them northward, inflicting heavy loss. Our detachment made a detour northward to cut off the enemy's infantry. Our detachment also scattered the enemy's cavalry retreating from Naromok."

Another despatch yesterday says: "At 8 o'clock on July 1 six hundred of the enemy's cavalry advanced toward the Pinnu River. We repulsed them. One hundred and fifty of the enemy's cavalry and mounted infantry, with 12 guns, simultaneously attacked Shishiku, eight miles north of Pinnu River. The engagement lasted until dawn July 2, when the enemy was repulsed. The enemy's casualties were over four hundred. Ours were ninety."

Jap Battalion Destroyed.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—Gen. Linevitch, telegraphing to Emperor Nicholas under date of July 3, reports the annihilation of a Japanese battalion. He says:

"On July 1 our force assumed the offensive, occupying a position near Sauvaltse, sixteen miles south of Liaochanen. At 7 in the evening, after the artillery had prepared the way, the enemy's fortified positions were stormed, and we pursued him for three miles. One Japanese infantry battalion was destroyed."

New War Minister.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—Lieut.-Gen. Ridiger, chief of the chancellery of the War Office, has been appointed Minister of War, in succession to Lieut. Gen. Sakharoff, who recently resigned.

Japs Launch Big Battleship.

London, July 5.—The Prince and Princess Arisugawa of Japan attended the launching of the battleship Katori yesterday. The Katori is one of the most powerful battleships ever launched in this country.

THE RIOTING AT ODESSA.

Official Report Says Revolutionary Committee Assured Sailors Garrison and Fleet Were in Revolt.

St. Petersburg, July 5.—The Governmental story of the events in Odessa, as published in The Official Messenger after detailing the activity of the revolutionary committee in stirring up the strikers ashore, and the arrival of the mutinous crew of the battleship Kniaz Potemkine at Odessa June 27, the account proceeds:
